Supreme Court Justice Jackson Dies

Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson, 62, died of a heart attack Saturday, October 9, 1954. One of the stalwarts of the highest court of our country, Brother Jackson will be sorely missed.

Apart from his excellent work on the Supreme Court, he is well known for the prominent part he played in the Nurnberg trials in Germany. He was designated by President Truman (Benton) as Chief Counsel for the United States in the preparation of prosecution of charges of atrocities and war crimes against the leaders of the European Axis Powers. He wrote two books on the trials and their meaning in international affairs. Jackson received many honors both here and abroad for his conduct of the war crimes trials.

Former Attorney General

He was well known for writing opinions with a minimum of complex legal language. Laymen could understand his opinions at first reading. His early years in the practice of the law were taken up in private practice and corporation work. He has served as General Counsel of the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the Treasury Department and in many other legal capacities for the Government. In 1940, he was appointed Attorney General for the United States and in that office executed a most efficient job.

HON. ROBERT H. JACKSON

It was in June of 1941 that he was appointed to a vacancy on the United States Supreme Court by President Roosevelt. He held membership in Phi Alpha Delta in Jay Chapter at George Washington University. It is interesting to note that of twenty-four cases which he personally argued before the Supreme Court, he lost only three.

Attention Chapter Clerks

Five hundred four active members of Phi Alpha Delta did not receive their copy of the October issue of The Reporter. This occurred because a large number of Chapter Clerks failed to file Form D giving the correct mailing addresses for their members.

Each member of PAD is entitled to receive The Reporter. If you do not perform the duties of your office diligently you are violating the trust which your fellow chapter members placed in you.

If you have not filed Form D yet DO SO NOW.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY CHAPTER INSTALLED

Charter Presented

On Friday, October 29, 1954, the John Doyle Carmody Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was formally installed at the Syracuse University School of Law. The impressive ceremony was held in the Appellate Division Court Rooms of the Onondaga County Courthouse with an initiation team from Wilson Chapter at Cornell University officiating.

The charter group, The Syracuse Law League, was composed of seventeen men who elected to name their chapter after John Doyle Carmody. Carmody is well known to PADs, for he was one of the loyal stalwarts of the fraternity from the time of his initiation until his death in 1952. He led PAD as Supreme Justice for two terms from 1910 to 1912. Among other offices he held were those of Supreme Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of Tribunes.

Brother Carmody was one of the first balloon pilots and one of the first aviators when the Air Corps was still part of the Signal Corps. He was, for many years, a prominent member of the Judge Advocate General's Office and received numerous medals and citations for his outstanding service. It is indeed a tribute to his memory that this newest chapter of Phi Alpha Delta has chosen to perpetuate his name in this manner.

Accredited by ABA

The Syracuse University College of Law, founded in 1895, recently moved into a new physical plant on the main campus of the University. Located on the western edge of the campus, the structure affords a magnificent view of the city and contains all of the latest facilities available for a law school. It is a charter member of the Association of American Law Schools and is accredited by the American Bar Association in accordance with the requirement of our Constitution and By-Laws.

Henry C. Foss (Rutledge), Supreme Historian, represented the Supreme Executive Board at the ceremonies and made the presentation of the charter to Richard H. Buechner, newly elected justice. Also present was Albert Verrilli (Calhoun), Past Justice of District XI, who served as Toastmaster at the Installation banquet following the initiation. After extending his own congratulations and reading the many congratulatory telegrams Verrilli introduced Dean Ralph E. Kharas of the Law School who

Four More PAD'S Become Governors

The recent elections saw four PAD candidates emerge victorious in the race for the governorships of their respective states. They are Fred Hall of Kansas, Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, Robert E. Smylie of Idaho and Goodwin J. Knight of California.

Hall for Kansas

Hall, a member of Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California is no newcomer to public office having been lieutenant governor of his state of Kansas since 1950.

Born and reared in Dodge City he is descended from pioneer homesteaders on both sides of the family. He attended USC on a scholarship receiving his A.B. in 1938 and his LL.B. in 1941.

During World War II he served with the Combined Chiefs of Staff in the position of Assistant Director of the Combined Production and Resources Board. This Board allocated critical war materials produced by the United States, Great Britain and Canada to their Allies throughout the world. After the War, he entered the private practice of law in Topeka, Kansas, for one year and then moved to Dodge City, Kansas, where he practiced law subsequent to 1946. He served as County Attorney of Ford County, Kansas, from 1946 to 1948.

Active in political, civic, legal and church affairs, he is a member of the Methodist Church, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Trinity Methodist Hospital and a member and officer of many clubs, lodges, fraternal and patriotic societies.

Other prominent PAD's in the State of Kansas are Senators Frank Carlson and Andrew Schoepel and John W. Shuart, Executive Secretary of the State Bar and Supreme Marshal of the National Chapter.

Maine Selects Muskie

On September 13, 1954, at the age of 39, Brother Edmund S. Muskie was selected by the people of the State of Maine to be their new governor.

He was a member of the House of Representatives of the State for the 93rd, 94th and 95th Maine legislatures and has served on many various committees. An extremely active member of the Democratic party, he also enjoys a distinguished World War II record.

His A.B. was obtained from Bates College where he graduated cum laude in 1936, and he received his LL.B. from Cornell Law School in 1939. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a member of Wilson Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at Cornell.

Smylie Governs Idaho

Brother Robert E. Smylie is the new governor of the State of Idaho. He has been Attorney General of the state since 1947. A member of Jay Chapter, he holds an A.B. from the College of Idaho and a J.D. from George Washington University.

He became Assistant Attorney General of Idaho in 1947 and the same year ascended to the top position. He is a member of the District of Columbia and Idaho Bars.

Knight Re-elected

Reelected to the Governorship of California is our Brother Goodwin J. Knight. Knight first became governor when he succeeded to the post by virtue of Earl Warren leaving to become Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Thus the recent election actually marks the first time he has been elected to the office.

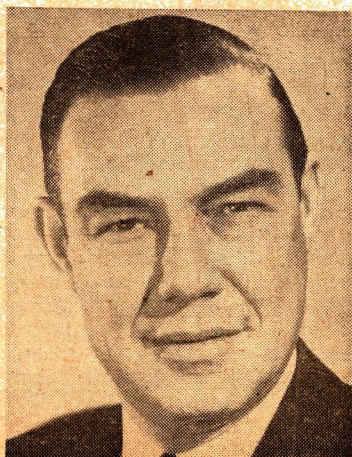

He graduated in 1919 from Stanford University with an A.B. and was admitted to the California Bar in 1921. While at Stanford he became a member of Holmes Chapter of PAD.

Governor Knight served seven years as lieutenant governor of the State and prior to that was a Superior Court Judge for Los Angeles County. He also spent many years in private practice.

Some of his many affiliations include: Masons, Shrine, Eagles, Elks, Moose, Odd Fellows, Episcopal Church, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Bar Association, California State Bar, and the Los Angeles Pres Club. His fraternities are: Phi Alpha Delta, Alpha Delt Phi, Sigma Delta Chi, and Delta Sigma Rho.

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPREME JUSTICE

While this message will appear in the December issue of The Reporter it is written on the day before Thanksgiving and it is appropriate, therefore, to extend you Christmas greetings and indicate my gratitude for the splendid efforts which have been made by so many this year to advance the work of the fraternity and promote the interests of its thousands of members.

ROBERT D. JACKSON

Regardless of what circumstances prompted us to seek legal careers, we should be ever thankful for the choice we have made. Few, if any, fields of endeavor afford greater opportunities for service to mankind than does our profession and any means or instrumentalities which enable us to improve ourselves are desirable. Our fraternity is such an instrument for because of its efforts incentives are provided us to do our work better, improve our services and help one another.

As justice I have the opportunity to learn of the work being done constantly in the fraternity by so many and, so, with the closing of this year please accept my thanks for your good work and may those efforts be continued in the future.

Fraternally yours,
ROBERT D. JACKSON
Supreme Justice

ANNUAL CHICAGO GOLF OUTING

On July 29, 1954, the Chicago Alumni Chapter staged its annual golf outing at the Mission Hills Golf Club in Northbrook, Illinois. The event which saw the barristers and jurists again fanning the breeze included prizes and a steak dinner.

Forty Years Ago

(The official publication of Phi Alpha Delta was known as the Phi Alpha Delta Quarterly for many years. With the thought in mind that excerpts from the publication of forty years ago would be of interest to the more recent members and would bring back fond memories to those of old, this column is being added as a regular feature of The Reporter. The following was taken from the January 1915 issue of the Phi Alpha Delta Quarterly):

"Phi Alpha Delta emerged in the last collegiate year with three new Chapters, Henry Clay Chapter at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky; James Kent Chapter at the University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; and Ralph Oregon Dunbar Chapter at the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington. While the aim of the fraternity is not to indiscriminately add new chapters to the roster, the State Universities of the Western States have proven to be desirable fields for new chapters.

"The Chapter at Lexington, Kentucky, it was expected, would flourish from the start and reports are that it has. The Chapters in Idaho and Washington caused greater concern because they were farther away from other chapters and in schools where enrollment was smaller.

"However, advice from Brother Lyman T. Wilson, who is a member of the faculty of the Law Department of the University of Idaho indicates that the Chapter there under his guidance is fast becoming one of the staunch organizations among the fraternities there. At Seattle, Brothers Nelson R. Anderson and J. Fletcher Lewis, and the other alumni practicing in the city assured the Supreme officers that the new chapter is thriving."

Dr. E. S. Magaw Appointed District XI Justice

DR. ELDEN S. MAGAW

The Assistant Dean of Temple University School of Law, Dr. Elden S. Magaw, was recently appointed Justice of District XI, following the resignation of Brother Albert Verrilli.

Brother Magaw received his A.B. from the University of Oklahoma in 1928 and his L.L.B. in 1931. In 1939 he was awarded the degree of S.J.D. from Georgetown University School of Law. He has been a professor of law at Temple University School of Law since 1933 and has taught insurance, contracts agency and negotiable instruments. A member of Roberts Chapter he also belongs to the American Association of University Professors.

P.A.D. brothers in the Philadelphia area are well acquainted with Dr. Magaw and his many capabilities for he has for many years performed the unofficial role of counselor for the chapter. In 1953, the Philadelphia Alumni Chapter was chartered and elected to name itself the Elden S. Magaw Chapter of Philadelphia.

The new District Justice will have jurisdiction over the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania.

Former Colo. Governor New District IV Justice

TELLER AMMONS

Brother Teller Ammons, Governor of Colorado from 1936 to 1938, was recently appointed to the post of Justice of District 4 of Phi Alpha Delta by Supreme Justice Robert D. Jackson. Ammons is a former State Senator from Denver, City Attorney of Denver and past Regional Counsel of R.F.C.

He had a long and distinguished war record in World War II which includes the following commissions: Member Selection and Assignment Board for Military Government Officers, Staff of General Henry L. Larsen, Marine Corps, Chief Investigator War Crimes, Provost Court, Presiding Officer, Superior Provost Court, Chief Justice Court of Appeals, Trial Judge Advocate before Military Commission which tried all war criminals, investigated war crimes, Truk Island. ## Founder Asahel Gage Passes Asahel W. Gage, one of the founders of our fraternity and a member of Blackstone Chapter died September 5, 1954, at the Evanston Hospital in Illinois.

Brother Gage was born in Wilmette, Illinois, May 14, 1875. His preliminary education was received at the public schools of Vineland, New Jersey and Haverford, Pennsylvania. He entered Cornell University where he received a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He received an L.L.D. in 1899 at the Chicago-Kent College of Law, then the law department of Lake Forest University. He was admitted to the Illinois Bar in the following year, to the Bar of Florida in 1918, and to the New York Bar in 1932.

Although Brother Gage spent most of his years in the Chicago area, he also spent a great deal of time in New York City, Washington, D.C., and in Clearwater, Florida. While in New York, he was for a time General Counsel for the National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers Association, and while in Florida was president of the Clearwater Savings and Loan Association. He maintained memberships in the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and prior to 1935 in the Clearwater and Florida Bar Associations. ## Apology Due Senator Price Daniel

The Reporter apologizes to Brother Price Daniel, U.S. Senator from Texas, for having inadvertently omitted him from the Special Feature Issue in October.

Senator Daniel, a member of Tom C. Clark Chapter at the University of Texas, was elected to the Senate in 1952. Prior to that time he served as Attorney General for Texas in which position he became noted for his vigorous prosecution of crime and organized vice in the state. He is probably most noted for his defense of the Texas tidelands against Federal seizure.

Educated at Baylor University where he received his LL.B. in 1932 he is a former newspaper publisher and owner. Daniel served three terms in the Texas legislature and at the age of 32 was Speaker of the House.

His memberships include Texas Bar, American Bar Association, American Society of International Law, Texas Pres Association, Sigma Delta Chi, Masons, Shrine, Elks, Rotary, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Baptist Church.

U. S. Supreme Court Members Attend Wythe Reception

At the start of the second year of its existence the Wythe Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta had the honor of sponsoring a reception for visiting dignitaries to the Marshall - Wythe - Blackstone Commemorative Celebration held at the College of William and Mary on September 25, 1954. Phi Alpha Delta is the only law fraternity represented at the Law College which is the oldest in the United States.

The celebration, highlighted by the presentation of the busts of these three great jurists and the inauguration of the Master of Law and Taxation Degree, was held to commemorate the 200th anniversary of John Marshall's birth and the 175th anniversary of the first chair of law in the United States.

The reception sponsored by Wythe Chapter was open to all guests attending the ceremony. It proved to be a restful interlude to many outstanding jurists including Chief Justice Earl Warren, Associate Justice Harold H. Burton (Hay Chapter), and Federal Judge Harold R. Medina. Among other prominent brothers present were: Supreme Historian Henry C. Foss, District 12 Justice William B. Robertson, and Past Supreme Vice Justice J. Westwood Smithers.

A Report On Legal Aid

Justice before the law must mean equal justice for everyone regardless of his station in life. Legal aid offices in the United States in 1953 helped make this opportunity real for 370,397 people. Of these, 220,550 were civil cases and 149,847 were criminal cases.

Seeking help of their own volition or by referral from the courts attorneys and other community agencies, many took troubling problems of daily living to the Legal Aid offices throughout our country. The individuals served could not have paid even the smallest acceptable fee to a private attorney.

During 1953 there were 159 legal aid offices in the United States which did this type of work. The year saw an increase of 16 such offices over the preceding year. Eighty-four belonged to the National Association of Legal Aid.

People with modest means also sought the help of legal aid offices because they were fearful of the cost of legal help or did not know how to go about selecting a lawyer. Local Bar Associations or Legal Aid Societies in many cities have set up Lawyer Referral Services to help this group select attorneys equipped to handle their cases at a fee within their means. There are some 85 such Lawyer Referral Services in our country. Supreme Marshal of the fraternity, Judge Martin D. Van Oosterhout (Hammond), of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Fred L. Wham (Magruder), of the United States District Court, and J. Gerald Williams (Dunbar), Attorney General of Alaska, and Judge Hugh Adair (Green), Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Montana.

The National Legal Aid Association has this past year embarked on a three-year development program to help make these services available to more people. Funds for this program were contributed by the Ford Foundation, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other Foundations and friends in business and industry.

HON. ROSCOE P. CONKLING

Conkling, Missouri Chief Justice, Dies

The Chief Justice of the Missouri Supreme Court, the Honorable Roscoe P. Conkling, passed away suddenly on October 28, 1954. Brother Conkling was an honorary initiate of Lawson Chapter in 1950.

As a Supreme Court Judge, he was noted for the clarity and pungency of his opinions. He frequently came up with some striking phrases to clarify some complicated legal point. One of his outstanding attributes was his understanding treatment of young lawyers appearing before the high court.

Graduated from the University of Missouri School of Law he was admitted to the bar in 1912 and subsequently engaged in private practice. He is a former Prosecuting Attorney of Jackson County and served for many years as Special Commissioner of the Supreme Court.

Appointed to the Supreme Court in 1947, he served as Chief Justice from February, 1953, until October, 1954.

He was a member of the Conference of State Chief Justices, the American Law Institute and Presiding Officer of the Missouri Judicial Conference. He belonged to many Masonic orders including the Shrine and 32nd degree Scottish Rite.

Baker Succeeds Shuart as Justice District VII

Taking over where Brother John W. Shuart left off in District VII is Leo M. Baker, a member of Hammond Chapter at the University of Iowa. Shuart was elected to the Supreme Executive Board in the capacity of Supreme Marshal by the 1954 convention.

Shortly thereafter, Robert D. Jackson, Supreme Justice, announced the appointment of Baker as his successor. ## Convention Confers Special Award on Dr. L. J. Curtis

The 1954 convention of Phi Alpha Delta conferred a special award on Dr. Leonard J. Curtis who at the age of 92 recently retired from the active teaching of law. Dr. Curtis has been a Professor of Law at Stetson University where Brewer Chapter of P.A.D. is located. The convention adopted a resolution conferring upon Brother Curtis a life membership and a general expression of appreciation for his helpfulness and guidance to P.A.D.'s for many, many years.

Brother Curtis worked his way through Franklin College in Indiana and obtained his legal education at Harvard and Chicago Universities. He holds a B.S., M.S., and LL.D. from Franklin College and a J.D. from the University of Chicago.

For approximately twenty years he taught in the public school system and engaged in the private practice of law. In 1918 he began teaching as a Professor of Law at Missouri State University, and in 1920 joined the faculty at the University of Arizona where he continued to teach until his retirement in 1939 as Professor Emeritus. At that time he went to Stetson School of Law and has been teaching as a Visiting Professor ever since.

He became a P.A.D. at the University of Missouri in 1918 and assisted in the organization of Knox Chapter at the University of Arizona. He is a man who has truly lived the ideals and principles of Phi Alpha Delta.

It is worthy of note that during more than thirty-five years of teaching he has missed only one day of class which in itself illustrates his dedication to the teaching profession.

The name of Dr. Leonard J. Curtis appears in the Biographical Encyclopedia of America, Who Knows What, Who's Who in American Education, and World Biography.

DR. LEONARD J. CURTIS

Dues Waived for Servicemen

By a resolution adopted by the Supreme Executive Board, alumni dues are waived for members of the fraternity presently serving in the armed forces. Upon a serviceman's return to a civilian status he will again be liable for the dues.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED, however, that if a serviceman desires a copy of the new PAD Professional Directory to be published in 1955, it is necessary that he pay the alumni dues. This is for the reason that only those members who have paid the current year's alumni dues and the next year's dues when billed will receive a free copy of the Directory.

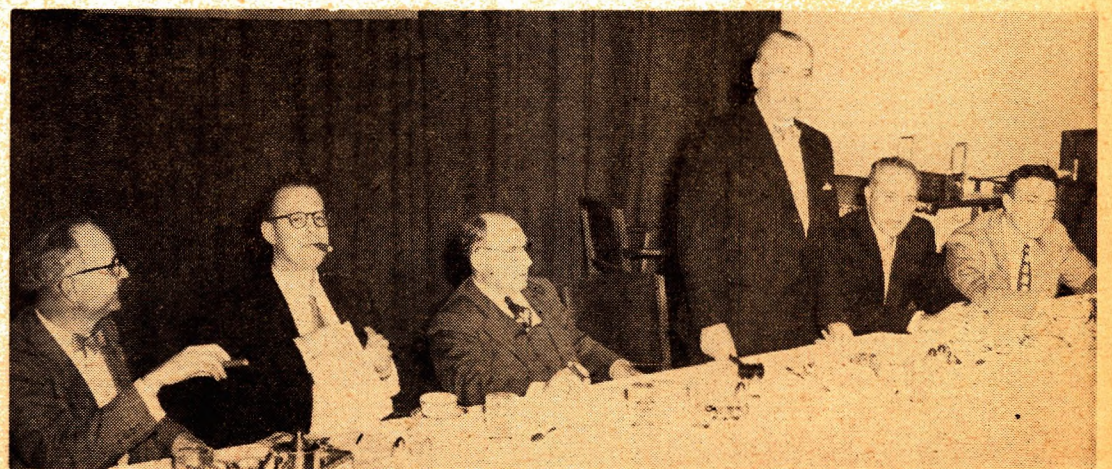

The resolution of the Supreme Executive Board as adopted, reads as follows:

"Resolved, that those members of the fraternity serving in the Armed Forces be not considered alumni members for the purpose of paying alumni dues."

As Brother Fink called the roll of the past justices, sixteen in all answered present. The biggest surprise of all occurred when he called the name of Cecil Emery, 1929. Brother Emery is now a resident of Edmonds in the State of Washington, and he made a special trip to Chicago to attend this meeting.

Other Past Justices who answered "present," were: Emmet Byrne, 1923; Homer Dodge, 1925; Tom Hollywood, 1930; William Nealon, 1931; Jim Turner, 1932; Harry Carlson, 1935; Phil Brennan, 1937; Pete Giachini, 1941; Donnie McFadyen, 1943; Cap Damrelle, 1944; Bill Lunn, 1947; Paul Manning, 1948; John Burita, 1950; and Tony DiGrazia, 1952, our present National Supreme Treasurer. Each of these brothers gave interesting talks about the past, and the members present saw the history of the Chicago Alumni Chapter unfold before them.

Communications were received from Les Kimmel, 1926-7, one of the Past Justices now living in California; Lou Cambridge, a Past President of the Unincorporated Ass'n., of the fraternity in 1909, from his Florida vacationland; and a warm letter of welcome and congratulations was received from our present Supreme Justice Bob Jackson.

As the roll call continued, it disclosed that eleven of our beloved Past Justices had been released from the barrier of the flesh, introduced to the glorious company of those who had gone before and had opened before them a majestic vista of love and service. These are the brothers whose memories live with us:

Judges Edmonds, Stevens Head ABA Judicial Section

Heading the American Bar Association Section of Judicial Administration for the forthcoming year will be P.A.D. brothers, Douglas L. Edmonds of the California Supreme Court, and Daniel N. Stevens of the Appellate Department of the Los Angeles County Superior Court. Judge Edmonds will serve as Chairman and Judge Stevens as Third Vice Chairman.

The chairmanship of the Section on Judicial Administration of the ABA is the highest position which a jurist may attain in the American Bar Association.

HON. DOUGLAS L. EDMONDS

HON. DANIEL N. STEVENS

The members of the Section are federal and State judges who are particularly interested in judicial administration and other persons whose professional work is along that line. The Section provides the judiciary of the country an excellent forum for the interchange of views as to procedural reform and the ways and means by which that reform may be accomplished.

The Section has many, many sub-committees which are organized to deal with the various problems concerning the judiciary.

Judge Edmonds is well known to all PAD's, being a Past Supreme Justice of the Fraternity who has served for two terms. He is currently the United States Representative to the International Law Commission of the United Nations. He is an initiate of Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California.

During 1942 and 1943 he served as Law Secretary to Judge Edmonds on the California Supreme Court. He is also a former Deputy Attorney General of the State and a former Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court. He has served with the Appellate Department of the Los Angeles Superior Court since October 1953.

Will You Be Listed In the New Directory?

All alumni members are entitled to be listed in this publication which is so widely used for the interchange of business all across the country.

IT IS UP TO YOU to make certain that your listing is correct and up to date. The Editor uses the information which is submitted on the alumni dues remittance form previously sent you. If you have not yet verified your listing by this means you should do so IMMEDIATELY. A form is provided on page 7 of this issue of The Reporter which can be cut out and sent to the Executive Office. ### Texas Chapter Honors Judge

Justice Herbert F. Goodrich of the U. S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, was guest of the Tom C. Clark Chapter at an informal dinner meeting October 1st.

Judge Goodrich came to Texas from Philadelphia to preside over the nation-wide Tax Conference held at the University of Texas Law School. Over a thousand lawyers, government official and educators attended the four-day conference devoted to a study of the new Internal Revenue Code.

Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the Texas Supreme Court introduced the honored guest to the Chapter. The informal occasion afforded the Tom C. Clark Chapter an opportunity to know Judge Goodrich personally, and to extend Texas' own brand of hospitality. Judge Goodrich was persuaded with much gusto to dine upon Mexican cuisine, Chief Justice Hickman acting effectively in the role of "Judas Goat."

Judge Goodrich is a member of Hammond Chapter at the U. of Iowa, and Judge Hickman is a member of Clark Chapter at the U. of Texas.
