PAD Chapters Reach 77 As New Charters Granted

Robert H. Jackson Chapter Installed in Impressive Ceremonies

The Robert H. Jackson Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was formally installed at Rutgers University School of Law in Newark, N. J., on Wednesday, May 18, 1955. Supreme Vice-Justice Elwyn Thomas of the Florida Supreme Court was the installing officer for PAD's 77th active chapter.

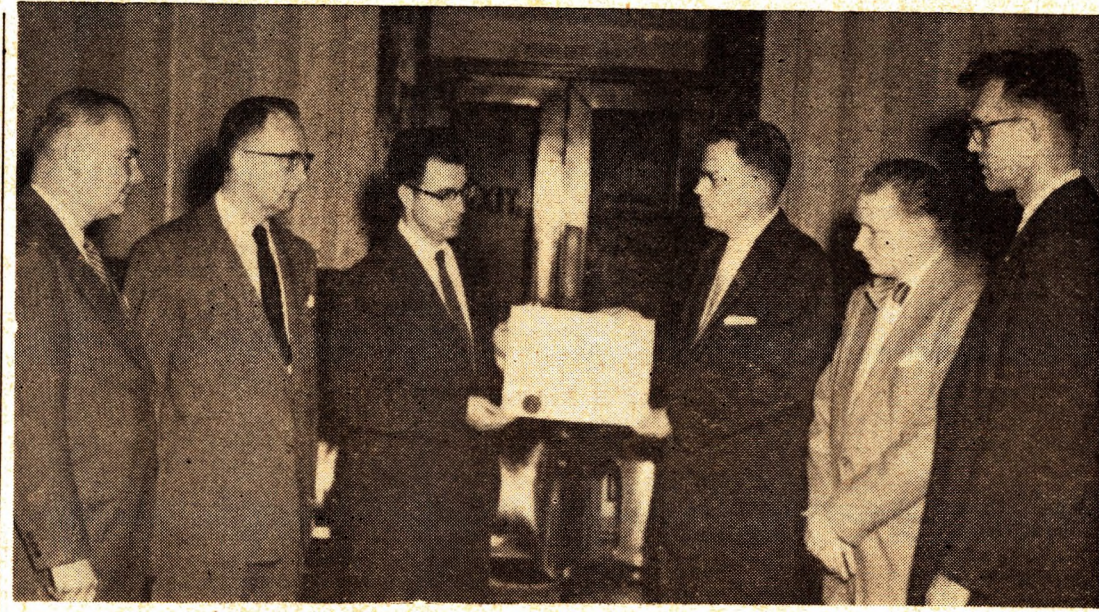

The petitioners were a group of law students who called themselves Phi Alpha Law Fraternity and had banded together for the express purpose of petitioning for an active chapter charter.

Named for Sup. Ct. Justice

They chose to name their chapter after our late brother, Robert H. Jackson, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Justice Jackson passed away October 9, 1954, in Washington, D. C. His son, Eldred Jackson, was present at the ceremonies.

PAD Chapter, Owen W. Roberts Chapter at Temple University School of Law, furnished the initiation team, headed by its Justice, Vincent Cirillo. The initiation proper took place at the Federal Courthouse in Newark and was followed by a cocktail party at the Essex House. One of the highlights of the day was the initiation of the Honorable Albert E. Burling of the New Jersey Supreme Court as an honorary member of the chapter.

Dignitaries Present

Master of ceremonies for the installation banquet was Supreme Vice-Justice Elwyn Thomas (Brewer), who introduced the many dignitaries present, including Mr. Eldred Jackson, Justice Nathan L. Jacobs of the New Jer-

Chase College of Law Establishes PAD Chapter

The Chase College of Law in Cincinnati, Ohio was the site of the installation of PAD's 76th active chapter on May 5, 1955. Thirty-three students and six faculty members, including Dean Raymond T. Hutchens, became members of Phi Alpha Delta in the impressive ceremonies conducted by an initiation team from Salmon P. Chase Chapter at the University of Cincinnati. Also among the faculty members were Judges Otis R. Hess and Louis J. Schneider. The formal initiation ceremonies took place in the courtroom of Judge Hess.

John Marshall Chapter To Be Reactivated

A reactivation petition submitted by students at the University of Chicago has received the approval of the Supreme Executive Board, and thus one of the first chapters of Phi Alpha Delta to be granted a charter. John Marshall, will be reactivated on Thursday, October 6th.

It is most fitting that the chapter should be reactivated in this year of the bicentennial celebration of the birth of John Marshall, the "expounder of the Constitution," who served thirty-five years as the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the U.S.

The chapter was granted its charter at the University of Chicago on November 20, 1902 and became inactive shortly before World War II because of administration opposition to fraternities and sororities. Phi Alpha Delta will be the only national law fraternity represented at the University.

Leader of the petitioning group has been Richard Hansen, son of PAD George Hansen (Blackstone), who deserves a large bouquet for the excellent manner in which he has expeditiously proceeded with his group.

The reactivation petition states that the "petitioners constitute a group of law students who are devoted to higher academic achievement for the purpose of uniting those men of common professional, social, and cultural traditions into a group whose strength will be directed to the purpose of serving the said Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, the University of Chicago Law School, and the legal profession, to the best of their ability."

The Chase College of Law is the oldest evening law school in the United States, having been authorized to award the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1909. It is significant to note that it is the first law school without a day division to be granted an active chapter charter by Phi Alpha Delta.

A First for PAD

The petitioners and initiates were members of Iota Lambda Pi, local law fraternity which has been in existence at the Law School for some twenty-five years. After investigation of other national law fraternities the members of Iota Lambda Pi voted to petition Phi Alpha Delta for a charter, and our Fraternity is thus the first national law fraternity to establish a chapter at the American Bar Association approved College of Law.

The new members have chosen the name of Frederick L. Hoffman, Sr. for their chapter. Hoffman was a Judge of the Common Pleas Court and a member of the first graduating class of the Chase College of Law. He devoted more than fifty years to the school as a member of the faculty. His son, Richard P. Hoffman, is now a professor of law at the College and was initiated as a member of the charter group.

Supreme Justice Speaks

Representing the Supreme Executive Board at the installation ceremonies was Supreme Justice Robert D. Jackson (Cole) of Des Moines, Iowa. Brother Jackson was the principal speaker of the evening and delivered an inspirational address explaining the structure of the Fraternity and the many activities which are

Local Alumni and Hay Chapter to Be Hosts

Cleveland, Ohio, has been selected by the Supreme Executive Board as the site for the 1956 convention of Phi Alpha Delta. Dates will be June 21-23, somewhat of a change from recent conventions which have been held in early Fall. This will be the fraternity's 31st biennial convention. Headquarters for the meeting will be the Hotel Statler, world renowned for its excellent convention service and facilities.

The site was selected by the Board at its 1955 meeting, which was held in Los Angeles last March. Invitations had been extended from alumni of Dallas, Texas and Roanoke, Virginia, as well as Cleveland.

Hay Will Celebrate Anniversary

It is extremely fitting that the convention should take place in Cleveland in 1956, for Hay Chapter at Western Reserve University School of Law will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of the granting of its charter. The chapter will join the Cleveland Alumni Chapter in hosting PADs from across the country.

District IX Justice James L. Broz, Jr., is in charge of local arrangements and assures all of a most enjoyable time. Special plans are now being laid for the

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPREME JUSTICE

The scholastic year 1955-56 has just commenced for most of our active Chapters, and the officers of each Chapter are diligently preparing their program of activities for the coming months. Oftentimes we tend to forget that ours is not a social fraternity but is, instead, a professional fraternity dedicated to professional service. I would therefore like to utilize this message to discuss the value of professional programs to our active Chapters.

ROBERT D. JACKSON

It should be emphasized that it is not the proper function of the fraternity's programs to overlap or conflict with those carried on by the law school. Instead, they should supplement. Also, it is far better for a Chapter to carry a few programs through to successful completion than to support a great many only half-heartedly. If the latter is the case, the effect is usually one of disservice to the Chapter members.

The newly revised rushing booklet published by the Executive Office lists a great many programs which are sponsored by active Chapters. I would like to mention a few which I consider to be of exceptional worth.

One of the finest services which our fraternity Chapters can offer is that of orientation programs for first-year students. Such would include an explanation of the case book system, how to brief cases, write law examinations, use the library, and generally, what to expect while in law school.

Invaluable scholastic assistance can be rendered the Chapter members by the conducting of seminars. These are usually organized and headed by members of the Chapter who are on the school's Law Review or who rank high in their class. The desired result can be brought about either by a lecture-type system or by the "Big Brother" system. In the latter, certain upperclassmen are assigned students who may be having difficulties and they perform the duties of a tutor.

An excellent program which has recently come to the foreground is that of an effective speaking program. Supreme Tribune Robert E. Redding has written an excellent report on this type of program, and the 1954 convention unanimously gave its approval to it. The theory is simple. The one thing that lawyers use most frequently and that is the talent of every successful lawyer, is the ability to speak and speak effectively. Yet this phase of the student's education is completely neglected in law school with the exception of an occasional practice court case or some similar experience.

Many Chapters are following the practice of helping their members to gain speaking experience by utilizing their weekly luncheons, dinners or other types of meetings for short impromptu talks by the members, with constructive criticism rendered by the other members. Such does not tie up much of the student's valuable time and it can be most enjoyable. Brother Redding's report indicates the various ways such a program can be put into effect. Copies of the report have been sent to all active Chapters and additional copies may be obtained from the Executive Office upon request.

There are, of course, many other programs, the adoption of which would be of equal value to our active Chapters. My hope is that each active Chapter will carefully consider the various activities which it may undertake, evaluate the needs of its members and then adopt and carry through to successful completion those professional programs which will be of most benefit.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT D. JACKSON,
Supreme Justice

A great deal of credit is due Brother Frederick W. Mebs (Watson), professor of law at Chase College, for his excellent guidance and counsel rendered to the charter group. President of the local chapter during its petitioning period was Frank J. Von Hagen. Officers who will guide Hoffman Chapter during its first year of existence are C. Nick Khoury, Justice; Louis G. Mr. Justice Clark Speaks

All in attendance were privileged to hear as the speaker of the evening the Honorable Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Justice Clark, a member of Taney Chapter, was closely associated with Justice Jackson in their work on the highest court of the country. He brought a most inspirational message and one which set high principles and ideals for our newest chapter.

In addition to the speakers, the list of honored guests included the Honorable Henry Jackson, Associate Justice (retired), Supreme Court of New Jersey, the Honorable Alfred C. Clabb, Senior Judge, New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division, the Honorable Walter H. Conklin, Presiding Judge, Essex County District Court, C. Willard Heckel, Assistant Dean, Rutgers School of Law.

Our newest chapter is somewhat unique in its inception, in that it was originally organized as an evening student fraternity, and at present all of the initiates are of the school's evening division. With plans rapidly maturing to establish Rutgers as the State Law Center, however, and with the construction of a new campus, library, class rooms and other facilities, soon forthcoming, the chapter, in keeping with developments has invaded the day school for new recruits and plans this year to initiate at least their own number over, from the full time day division.

The fraternity is indebted to Brother Lewis Tyree (Staples) who guided and counseled the group during its formative period

Gray Inspects Hotel

Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray recently stopped at the Hotel Statler while returning to Los Angeles from a business trip which took him to New York. He met with Hotel Convention Manager James Lammore and discussed convention facilities and arrangements in general. As a result of this conference special rates have been set up so that delegates' room expense will be less than that for the past several conventions.

geles, Brother Gray conferred with Executive Secretary Frederick J. Gray has been General Chairman of the 1950 convention in French Lick, Indiana, the Golden Anniversary convention (1952) in Chicago, Illinois, and the 1954 convention in Des Moines, Iowa.

Information About Cleveland

The Cleveland of today is a big, busy city—Ohio's first and the nation's seventh. It is nothing like the spot along Lake Erie and the Cuyahoga River that General Moses Cleveland surveyed in July, 1796. This spot now is a city of more than a million people, the capital of a great trade empire, and an industrial giant ranking with the greatest in the world.

The Cleveland of today also offers all the attractions of a great metropolis befitting its size and prestige. The cultural and educational institutions, the parks, and the entertainment facilities of Cleveland are among the finest in the world. The beautiful shores of Lake Erie, both east and west of the city, offer a great variety of attractions. And the entire area surrounding the great city is one of beauty and interest.

As a place to gather, Cleveland offers many attractions and points of interest. It is perhaps more noted as a cosmopolitan community than any similar metropolis its size because of its heterogeneous population. The city, whose metropolitan area stretches out from the Lake Erie shoreline like a fan, is particularly known for its fine cultural institutions and civic spirit and in 1946 celebrated its sesquicentennial. Largely industrial in character with emphasis on steel and parts manufacturing, Cleveland is "the best location in the nation." The term is a simple statement of a superlative fact—describing the industrial advantage of the Cleveland area's location in the market center of America.

Cleveland's central location assures a good attendance for conventions and one which is easily accessible to a majority of delegates. Half of the population of the United States is within a 500-mile radius and overnight rail time of the city. Convenient, fast, and modern transportation facilities of all kinds are available in and out of the city.

Cleveland's compact layout is another convention advantage. All major hotels, the shopping district, transportation points, amusements, Lake Erie, and the Public Auditorium are all within a few minutes' walking distance. Any point in the city is easily accessible from the downtown area.

At the hub of the city's business activities is the Public Square, a small clearing of land which was purchased by the Connecticut Land Company in 1795 for $1.75 and which is now a modern business and transportation center valued at more than $20,000,000.00. Towering over the square is Cleveland's familiar landmark, the 52-story Terminal Tower, with an observation room on the 42nd floor that affords a splendid view of the city. It is the seventh tallest building in the world, the other six being in New York. Other parts of the Terminal unit are a railroad station, a large department store, a modern hotel and several shops.

Civic Buildings

Building attractions such as this aren't confined to the Public Square, however. Many huge office and civic buildings dot the Cleveland scene and have attracted the attention of the whole nation. The Mall, for example, is one of the most ambitious undertakings ever attempted. This plan of grouping public buildings around a spacious seventeen-acre downtown garden spot represents an investment of more than $40,000,000.00. The Mall, which overlooks Lake Erie and extends into the heart of the business district, is made up of seven great buildings. America's best equipped convention plant—the $10,000,000 Public Auditorium; the Federal Building; the Public Library; the new Board of Education Building; City Hall, Cuyahoga County Court House; and the lake front Municipal Stadium seating 83,000 are included in the Mall Development.

Famed throughout the country for its unique facilities and capacity, the auditorium has housed many of the largest meetings and expositions that are annually held in the United States. It is considered to be America's finest and most serviceable municipal auditorium.

Gems of the city's cultural treasures are the Cleveland Museum of Art and Severance Hall, both located in University Circle overlooking Wade Park on Cleveland's east side. The art institution is one of the most beautiful museum buildings in America and through its cooperation with the city's schools and colleges has become an essential factor in the educational life of Cleveland. Severance Hall is the $2,500,000 home of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra and has done much to carry the story of Cleveland's education and cultural progress to the rest of the world. Other famous institutions in Cleveland include the Museum of Natural History, the Western Reserve Historical Society Museum, Dunham Tavern, the Public Library, the Health Museum, Brookside Zoo, Nela Park University of Light, and Cleveland Airport.

Entertainment Facilities

In addition to visits to Cleveland's many noted landmarks, there is a great variety of recreation and entertainment pleasures in store for the city's guests. Outdoor lovers can get their fill in the community's park system, swimming in Lake Erie, golf, tennis, American League baseball, horse racing, boating and numerous summer resorts.

Fall and winter season sporting attractions include professional and collegiate football, basketball, hockey, boxing and wrestling events.

Cleveland's show houses present the cream of the nation's theatrical talent. In Playhouse Square, with its 12,000 seating capacity, theatres not only offer excellent productions, but they also are attractions in themselves.

With Cleveland in an especially fine mood to welcome its guests and with the city's traditionally kind and friendly spirits as a convention host in the offering, our members attending our convention are in for a memorable experience.

Many Attend Annual PAD Reception At ABA Convention on August 25th

A PORTION of those attending the PAD reception at the ABA Convention, Thursday, August 25, 1955.

Nixon in Attendance

One of the finest and most successful PAD receptions during the history of American Bar Association Conventions was held Thursday evening, August 25, in the North Garden of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel roof in Philadelphia. A large crowd of members and their wives turned out to once again enjoy the warm fraternal fellowship that is peculiar to PAD.

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, a member of Rutledge Chapter, was in attendance as were a number of other PAD notables. One of the proudest persons present was Dean Raymond Hutchens of the Chase College of Law who only three months before had seen an active chapter of PAD installed at his school and was himself initiated as a member.

PADs Active in Convention

Justice Douglas L. Edmonds (Ross), of the California Supreme Court, Chairman of the Judicial Section of the American Bar Association (the highest post which can be accorded a jurist), United States Representative to the International Law Commission of the United Nations, and Past Supreme Justice of PAD played a prominent part in the 1955 Convention.

Edmonds presided at the Judicial dinner, the annual formal function of the Judicial Section. At this dinner, the Chief Justices of the state courts are the honored guests. He introduced as the guest speaker Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the United Nations who spoke on "Law and Liberty in International Life." At another Section meeting Brother Edmonds presented Attorney-General Brownell who spoke on the work of the Department of Justice.

Judge Bolitha J. Laws (Taft), Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C. played an important part in the Section's work in creating interest among laymen in the administration of justice as did Justice Elwyn Thomas (Brewer), Supreme Vice-Justice of PAD and Associate Justice of the Florida Supreme Court.

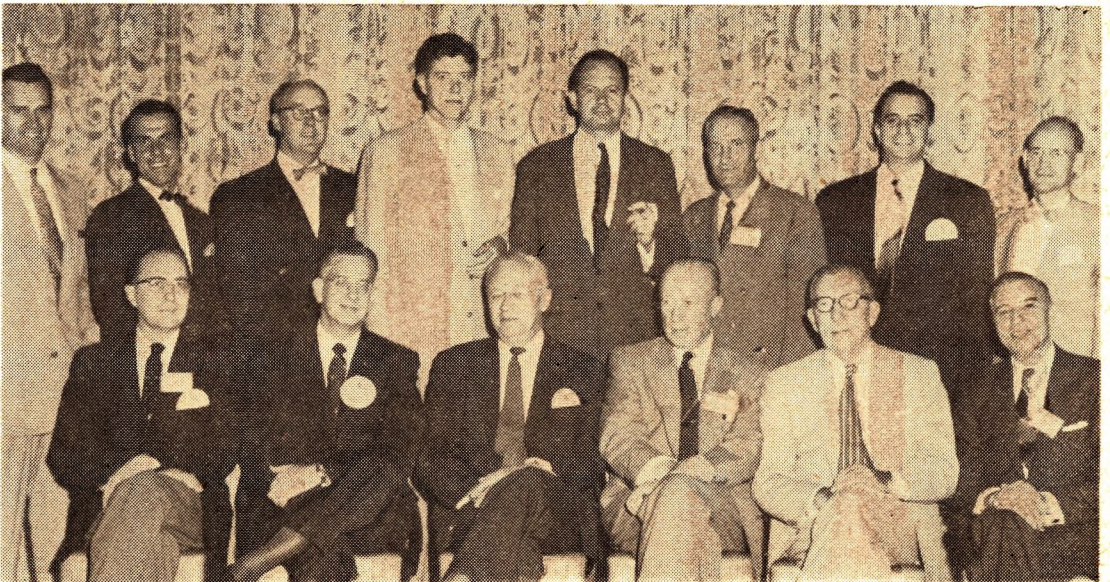

All were present at the reception to meet their brothers from across the country. Among the many welcoming them to the PAD affair were Frederick O. Feichter, Jr. (Roberts) and James J. Convery (Roberts), co-chairmen in charge of arrangements for the reception who are to be congratulated for a job well and efficiently done.

Justice Edmonds Announces Retirement

The Hon. Douglas L. Edmonds, Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court and Past Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, recently announced his retirement from the California Supreme Court. He has 25 years of service in the trial and appellate courts of the State. He will return to private practice as a member of the Los Angeles law firm of Guthrie, Darling & Shattuck. Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae, former National Field Representative of Phi Alpha Delta and a past law clerk for Justice Edmonds, is a junior partner of the firm.

LA Alumni Chapter Continues Active Year

The Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta has been experiencing a most enjoyable and active year under the capable leadership of Justice Arthur D. Guy, Jr. (Ross).

June 16th saw the brothers gather for an evening of fraternal fellowship at the Carolina Pines Restaurant. The program for the evening was one with three purposes. Brother A. A. "Mickey" McDowell, Past Supreme Secretary and recently deceased, was honored by the Los Angeles PADs whom he loved so well.

Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray and Justice Art Guy visited "Mickey" prior to the banquet at the Veterans Hospital in Sawtelle, where he has been confined for the past several years. Taking a tape recorder with them, they obtained a personal message from "Mickey" to the Alumni Chapter. This message was played for all attending the banquet. In response, a great many of the brothers extended their greetings and their personal messages to "Mickey" via the tape recorder method. Eugene Blalock (Ross) acted as Master of Ceremonies for the recording session.

Graduates Feted

Also honored by the Alumni Chapter were the recent graduates of the three local PAD chapters, Ford at Loyola University, Ross at University of Southern California, and McKenna at U.C.-LA. Each new graduate attended the banquet as the guest of the Alumni Chapter, and Justice Art Guy welcomed them into the chapter and expressed the hope of the group that each would become an active and enthusiastic alumni member.

Last on the program was the introduction of Sir Malcom Sydney, a leading barrister of Australia, who in reality turned out to be an American humorist. However, his portrayal of an Australian barrister was so convincing that it was some time before those attending discovered that he was not as represented.

National officers were in attendance in the persons of Frank E. Gray (Ford), Supreme Secretary, Henry C. Rohr (Ross), District III Justice, Fredrick J. Weitkamp (Ross), Executive Secretary and Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae (Rutledge), former national Field Representative.

Summer Outing

One of the most enjoyable outings in recent years was had by over 200 alumni on Saturday, August 20, when Mr. and Mrs. Carlos S. Stratton (Ford) opened up their beautiful South Pasadena estate to play hosts to the brothers. Fun and frivolity were plentiful, with a variety of activities such as swimming, shuffleboard, etc.

Of particular interest to those attending was the presence of Supreme Treasurer Anthony A. DiGrazia (Story). Tony was spending several weeks visiting relatives in California and brought his lovely and charming wife, Nelle, with him.

Brother Stratton, a leading West Coast patent attorney, pulled the cork and certainly went to great lengths to insure an afternoon and evening most enjoyable for all. Mrs. Stratton again furnished some of her wonderful cuisine and the variety of foods was most plentiful. Many of the lovely PAD ladies assisted Mrs. Stratton in serving.

The Los Angeles Alumni summer outing is fast becoming the most popular event in the area as it provides an excellent opportunity for a pleasant renewal of fraternal fellowship and relaxation.

Chicago Alumni Enjoy Summer Meetings

Changing the format of meetings during the summer months has made the summer meetings even more popular than the regular monthly meetings of the Chicago Alumni Chapter.

Cancelling only the August meeting because of the large number of vacations during that month, the Chicago group has found attendance and interest gaining ground and large turnouts were had for the June outing and the July golf tournament.

June Outing

The last week-end in June this year was again spent at Liggett's Holiday Inn on beautiful Brown's Lake, just a short seventy-five miles from Chicago. Thirty-two brothers began their arrival on Friday and straggled home Sunday. In between they enjoyed excellent cuisine on the American Plan at reasonable rates, plus golf, boating, swimming, liquid conviviality, and those old-fashioned games where the pasteboards are used. Those who attended promised to return—those who heard about the outing promised not to be shut out next year. Even some of the old-timers that attended these outings 25 years ago are again showing interest. The June Summer Outing is fast becoming a "MUST" for the Chicago P.A.D.'s.

Golf Tournament Held

The annual Golf Tournament, held this year at beautiful Silver Lake Golf Club was also well attended. Thirty-three of the brothers played golf, while thirty-eight attended the excellent family style dinner, consisting of chicken, beef and all the trimmings.

Brother Pat Conlon retired the "Big" trophy by garnering his third leg thereon. This was quite a feat since, because of the excessive heat, the weather was a great deterrent to a good score.

Our Supreme Treasurer, Tony DiGrazia, was very much in evidence at both of the Summer functions. Some of the brothers think Tony is better at cards than at golf.

The regular social-business meetings will be resumed on September 27, and many of the brothers will be looking forward then to the annual Christmas party. It seems as if the meetings with the least business and the most fun attract the larger crowds and therefore the business portion is being kept to a minimum.

Shuart Elected to National Office

Brother John W. Shuart (Benson), Executive Secretary of the Kansas State Bar Association for the past four years and Supreme Marshal of Phi Alpha Delta was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the National Conference of Bar Association Secretaries at its recent meeting in Philadelphia.

David J. Wilson On U. S. Customs Court

A recent appointee of President Eisenhower, Brother David J. Wilson is now sitting on the United States Customs Court.

Wilson was born in 1887 and was educated at Brigham Young University and the University of California. Admitted to the Utah Bar in 1919 he practiced continuously in Ogden, Utah until 1954. He maintained his law partnership with his son D. Jay Wilson, a member of Jay Chapter.

Annual Award Instituted By Lawson Chapter

Lawson Chapter of the University of Missouri recently instituted a new award at the Law School, which will be presented at the Law Day ceremonies in the Spring of each year.

One of the most important courses offered at the School of Law is trial practice. In this course, trial practice teams gain valuable experience in the presentation of a mock jury case. The award which has been set up is a beautifully engraved plaque which will be hung in the Law Building, and upon which will be engraved each year the names of the three persons on the trial practice team adjudged the best.

Chapter Justice David L. Hilton made the first award at the Law Day ceremonies held April 30, State Highway Commission Chief Counsel Robert L. Hyder played a prominent part in the ceremonies as he was formally initiated into the Chapter as an honorary member.

Stanford Chapter Sponsors New Award

"If you want to be a lawyer, don't plan to be a politician."

This was the advice of California's jovial Governor Goodwin J. Knight, a politician who was once a lawyer and jurist, as he spoke on May 17 at a banquet sponsored by Stanford's Holmes Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta.

With his attractive young wife seated at his side, Brother Knight spoke to a large assemblage of law students and guests about the changing position of the lawyer in politics. He pointed out that the lives of lawyers have materially changed in the past 50 years. "Lawyers are no longer politicians. . . No longer the undisputed leaders of politics. Lawyers are specialists today. . . They have less time and energy to devote to a political career."

Governor Makes Award

The occasion was the institution of a new PAD sponsored award to the outstanding senior of the Stanford Law School. Governor Knight made the presentation on behalf of Holmes Chapter. Recipient of the award was Del Fuller, son of Maurice Fuller, a member of Field Chapter.

Knight cited Calvin Coolidge, Franklin Roosevelt and Earl Warren as examples that law and politics have become separate fields today. "All were admitted to law," he said "but Coolidge never tried any important cases before he became prominent in public office. . . Roosevelt never graduated from law school. . . And Warren practiced his law in the public service, not in private practice."

In making the presentation, Brother Knight, a member of Holmes Chapter, said: "A good lawyer has enough imagination to put himself in the other person's shoes and enough courage to walk in them."

Allgood Again Fla. Ass't State Atty.

Sam Y. Allgood, Jr., Senior Assistant State Attorney of Florida, recently received notice of his re-appointment to the office which he has held since 1949.

Edmonds Is U.S. U.N. Representative

Work of International Law Commission Described

(Past Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds, United States Representative to the International Law Commission, describes below some of the work of the International Law Commission of the United Nations. Justice Edmonds recently returned from Geneva, Switzerland, where he attended the 1955 session of the Commission accompanied by his wife and his legal assistant Arthur R. Albrecht.)

The Commission consists of one member from each of fifteen nations and its principal function is drafting and codifying international law. A body of legal experts whose work continues from year to year, the Commission has no legislative or judicial power but recommends basic principles of international law to be embodied in treaties and enacted by individual countries. Its proposals lead the way to the solution of international legal problems.

HON. DOUGLAS L. EDMONDS

One matter of importance which is currently before the Commission is the regulation of international fisheries, both to prevent disputes and to encourage measures of conservation, as the resources of the sea are increasingly exploited. The American fishing industry has a substantial interest in this matter and is involved in a number of international controversies.

Three Mile Rule In Dispute

The heart of the question is the extent of a nation's control over the seas which border its coast. For many years the generally recognized rule of international law has been that a three-mile belt of sea off the shore of a state is its own territory. This gives the state exclusive rights in such an area, including fishing rights, leaving the rest of the seas open to all countries.

In recent years the three-mile rule has met growing opposition from nations which claim a coastal belt of fifty, one hundred, and even two hundred miles. These nations frequently are unable to exploit the seas off their three-mile limit and do not want other countries to do so. In some cases they wish to reserve large areas of the hitherto open sea for their own nationals.

Many serious disputes have arisen from these divergent views. The most dramatic have occurred off the Pacific Coast of Latin America in waters fished by Americans. American vessels have been stopped and seized by Ecuador beyond her three-mile limit and one American was shot. Peru has also interfered with American ships, and troubles have arisen with Mexico, Costa Rica, and other countries. Great Britain, which has had fishing problems with Norway, is now having trouble with Iceland, and Japan is concerned in a major controversy with Australia.

Another legal question of tremendous import before the Commission is the regulation of the continental shelf. The shelf is a submarine platform extending out to sea from the coastline for distances. In many parts of the world it overlies rich oil deposits. It is also a great source of potential wealth, for new scientific and technical discoveries are constantly being made for the exploitation of the sea.

The problems of fisheries and of the continental shelf are intimately related to each other and to many other important questions, such as, for example, the principle of the freedom of the high seas. The Commission is formulating rules for the fair and peaceful exercise of all these rights.

McKinley Chapter Initiates Former OPA Counsel

Henry M. Hart, Jr., former General Counsel for the Office of Price Administration and visiting Professor of Law at Ohio State University, was initiated into McKinley Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta on May 17, 1955.

He is a former secretary to Mr. Justice Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court and is a faculty member at Harvard University School of Law. He was Head Attorney for the U.S. Solicitor General's Office in 1937 and 1938 and Special Assistant to the U.S. Attorney General shortly thereafter.

Present at the ceremonies to welcome Professor Hart as a member of McKinley chapter were many Columbus alumni including members of the legislature of Ohio and city officials. Guest speaker was Brother Howard L. Bevis (Chase), President of Ohio State University and former Ohio Supreme Court Justice. His subject was his past and present recollections and associations with fellow members of PAD. He related many amusing and interesting experiences with brothers whom he knew and worked with as a student, lawyer, Supreme Court Justice and President of a great university.

Legal Aid Strides Forward in Puerto Rico

Legal aid for Puerto Rico took a giant step toward reality on Friday, February 25, 1955, when leaders of the Bench and Bar met with Governor Luis Munoz Marin to sign the Articles of Incorporation for the Sociedad Para Asistencia Legal.

The governor, who gave a generous contribution to the budget, said: "It is a truism that there cannot be a firmer foundation than the faith that one can obtain justice. One of the important factors that will help in this respect is that all Puerto Ricans, whatever their economic status, will be able to have legal assistance not only in criminal but also in civil cases as well."

The new non-profit membership association is to be governed by nine directors, three representing government, three the Bar, and three the general public.

The program will include and supplement the Public Defender system now in effect. Also, the supervised clinic program of the University Law School operating in the Domestic Relations Court will be included and considerably enriched.

Though hospitalized at the Veterans Administration Center in West Los Angeles for nearly four years, McDowell maintained a close contact with PAD and the legal profession.

He was born in Los Angeles in 1890 and received his law degree from the University of Southern California where he Lozier Resigns As Mo. Supreme Ct. Commr.

Brother Lue C. Lozier, an honorary member of Lawson Chapter, recently handed down one of the most important decisions of his career. Although again entering private practice, the majority of his time and service will be devoted to his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He will serve as a special lecturer in the School of Law and will direct a program devoted to various phases of the law which are not systematically covered in the regular Law School curriculum.

He stayed in Paris about 2½ months where he received help from a Czechoslovak refugee organization and also worked as an interpreter.

Wichita, Kansas friends of his obtained a scholarship for him at Friends University in Wichita and he came to this country. He was naturalized March 16, 1954.

N. Y. Alumni Enjoy Outing

On July 21, 1955, the annual summer outing of the New York Alumni Chapter was held at the swank Westchester County Club, in Rye, New York as the guest of Brother Gerald F. Finley (Campbell). Unfortunately, he was detained on business in Detroit and was unable to attend the splendid affair.

Those who desired played golf or went swimming in the club's magnificent pool or in Long Island Sound. The Beach Club, maintained by the Westchester Country Club, is one of the finest in the country and all assembled there in the evening for an excellent dinner, entertainment and dancing.

Present were New York Alumni Chapter Justice George MacDonald (Rapallo) and Mrs. MacDonald and other members of the chapter including: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halla (Rapallo), Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Yardum, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rinehart (Rapallo), Mr. and Mrs. Burton Citak (Wilson), Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cerny (Hammond), Mr. and Mrs. Justin Carney, Col. and Mrs. Karl Klock, Capt. John Wolf (Rapallo), Robert Schulz, Edwin F. Delano (Rapallo), Paul Somers (Taft), and Mr. and Mrs. James Ireland (Rapallo).
