Expansion In District XII Urged by Recent Conclave

As the result of a most successful District Conclave, PADs in District XII are now on record as favoring projected expansion activities and a strong professional flavor in chapter programming.

Embracing nine active chapters and two alumni chapters in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, District of Columbia, Maryland and Delaware, District XII held its conclave November 9 and 10 in Winston-Salem, N. C., with Timberlake Chapter of Wake Forest College as host.

The conclave gave unanimous support to the recommendations of its Expansion and Reactivation Committee calling for:

1. Reactivation of Rutledge Chapter at Duke University.
2. Establishment of an active chapter at the University of Maryland Law School.
3. Establishment of additional alumni chapters, particularly in North Carolina.

Alumni Chapters Proposed

Two tri-city alumni chapters were proposed in North Carolina, one covering Greensboro, High Point and Winston-Salem; the other embracing Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill.

(Note: Alumni in these areas, or elsewhere in Carolina, interested in such an organization are asked to get in touch with District Justice Donald R. Moore or Supreme Marshal Robert E. Redding. Their addresses are listed elsewhere in this issue.)

On the programming front, the conclave unanimously adopted the report of its Chapter Activities Committee urging District XII chapters to:

1. Initiate or expand the PAD Effective Speaking Program.
2. Hold regular professional meetings at which guest speak-

PADs Score Heavily in November Elections

When the final returns were tabulated in the November national, state and local elections it once again became apparent that PADs were destined to play an all-important role in guiding the future of our country.

Nixon Re-elected

Heading the imposing list of PADs elected or re-elected was Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, a member of Rutledge Chapter at Duke University. Brother Nixon first assumed the Vice-presidency in 1952, at the young age of 39. He is a graduate of Whittier College and Duke University School of Law. He became a member of the 80th Congress of the United States in 1946 and was subsequently re-elected to the 81st Congress in 1948 and in 1950 became United States Senator from California.

PAD Succeeds PAD

In the State of Washington Governor Arthur B. Langlie, a

PAD from the University of Washington, ran for the United States Senate and was defeated but another PAD, Brother Albert D. Rosellini won the race for the governorship to keep the office in the hands of a PAD. Rosellini is also a member of Dunbar Chapter at the University of Washington. His background is diversified including a great amount of private practice, government practice and he has served for 18 years as a member of the Senate of the State of Washington.

Placement problems also occupied the attention of the conclave. It was voted that District XII submit to the next national convention a concrete plan for a nation-wide placement service. District Justice Donald R. Moore was instructed to appoint a committee of chapter officers to draft the proposal.

It was a hard-working, business-like conclave, but social activities were not neglected. The gathering got off to a good start with an "ice-breaker" reception Friday night. In inimitable fashion, Brother W. E. "Doc" Murphrey, III, delighted the delegates with stories and songs in a one-man minstrel show, and the Robert E. Lee Hotel outdid itself in the refreshment department.

Chapter Justices gathered at 8 a.m. Saturday for a breakfast meeting with Supreme Marshal Robert E. Redding, District Justice Moore and District Student Treasurer Thomas L. Cherry. District Student Justice Jeff D. Batts was unable to be present at the conclave because of a death in his family, but his preparatory spadework was plainly demonstrated by the success of the conclave, and Tom Cherry picked up the reins and performed yeoman service in all departments, besides handling the financial details. He was ably

EDWARD T. TAIT

Tait New Member of Federal Trade Commission

Brother Edward Thomas Tait, a former Pittsburgh, Pa., attorney, was sworn in November 2nd as a member of the five-man Federal Trade Commission. Tait, who is 36 and one of the youngest Commissioners in the agency's history, succeeds Brother Lowell B. Mason (Northwestern U.) of Chicago, Ill.

Prior to his FTC appointment, Commissioner Tait had been serving as special assistant to President Eisenhower. He had taken that post in July of 1955, after having served two years with the Securities and Exchange Commission, first as executive assistant to its Chairman and later as the S.E.C.'s Executive Director.

Brother Tait was born in Indiana and received his LL.B from the law school at the University of Pittsburgh where he was a member of Watson Chapter. Upon graduation he served as a law clerk to Judge W. Heber Ditrich of the Pennsylvania Superior Court and as a trust administrator of Peoples First National Bank and Trust Co. He then joined the Pittsburgh law firm of Kountz, Fry & Meyer.

His memberships include the American Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Bar Association, and the Allegheny County Bar Association.

Brother Lowell B. Mason, whom Tait replaced, has been an active PAD and a frequent speaker at PAD functions in the Washington, D. C. area. He served on the Federal Trade Commission from 1945 to 1956.

HARRY GERSHENSON

Gershenson Vice President Mo. Bar

Brother Harry Gershenson, a member of J. L. Sullivan Chapter, at St. Louis University, was recently elevated to the Vice-Presidency of the Missouri Bar.

Hershenson is also serving as a member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association, and is in his seventh year in that capacity. He is a former professor of law at St. Louis University Law School. He has recently been elected to membership in Scribes, an organization of legal writers in this country. He is also a member of the American Law Institute.

Message From The Supreme Justice

When the chairmen of the various sections of the American Bar Association were summoned to a meeting in Chicago to be held October 28, 1956, it occurred to me that on my way there and while there, and on my way back, much PAD visiting could be done.

Consequently, north-bound I stopped at Nashville for a look at Lurton Chapter and a visit with Justice Dane Stanley, Dan Self, who had represented the chapter at the convention in Cleveland, Dean Wade and some of the members of his staff and such PADs as could be located in library and classroom. After a delightful luncheon with the Justice, the Dean, Professor Roady and Self, the Dean and Professor Hartman took me to Lebanon where I had a conference with Dean Walker, William Vol Jones, Justice of Hull Chapter, LeRoy H. Wilkers, Clerk of the chapter, and Brother A. T. McFarland, an alumnus who practices law in Lebanon.

Then To Chicago

The next day I was in Chicago and that evening our estimable Second Vice-Justice A. A. Di Grazia, and his charming wife assembled at their home a goodly number of P.A.D.s among whom were Brothers Robert Mackey, Justice of Chicago Alumni Chapter, Pat Conlon, Clerk of the chapter, Barrett O'Hara, William Jacobs, Treasurer of the chapter, Art Connelly, Executive Secretary of the chapter, Bob Gorman, Justice of District VI, many other P.A.D.s and their wives. Also, there was Mr. Kaberry, Whip of the British House of Commons and Vice-Chairman of the Conservative Party, who was visiting in the United States to study our systems of electing officials.

Monday morning Tony Di Grazia, Bob Gorman and I started a day that was packed with interesting meetings. We first called at Northwestern University and palavered over coffee with a dozen or more members of Fuller Chapter. The main topic of conversation was the interpretation of the recent constitutional amendment relating to election of members.

From there we drove to Valparaiso, Indiana, and conferred with Raymond Daniels, Justice, Ronald Kiedaisch, Clerk, Albert Zimmerman, Treasurer, and other members of Halleck Chapter. A luncheon had been arranged which was attended by the student body of the law school, Dean Stolland and members of his staff, local judges and attorneys.

Upon our return to Chicago we called at the University of Chicago and had a delightful visit with eight or ten members of Marshall Chapter, and paid our respects to Dean Levy.

When we got back to my hotel in the loop, it was about five-thirty, by some time or other, and there was nothing to do for at least forty-five minutes. Parenthetically, because of Eastern Standard Time, Central Standard Time and Daylight Saving Time—in one city Standard Time was observed on one side of the street and Saving Time on the other—I was in a state of utter confusion as to the clock from the time I left Tallahassee until I returned.

Fink Honored

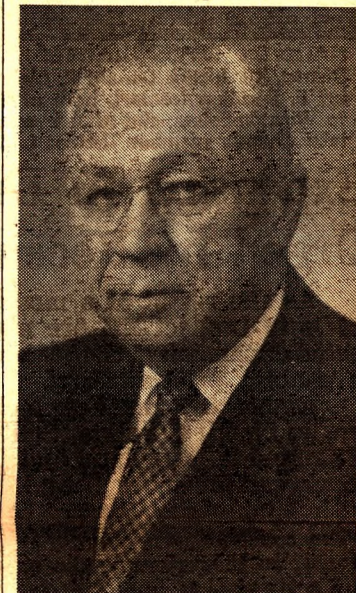

After the forty-five-minute period passed Tony and Bob took me to the delightful banquet of that remarkable institution, the Chicago Alumni Chapter, which has existed, vigorously and enthusiastically, for more than fifty years. So many illustrious P.A.D.s were there that I hesitate to name them for fear that some name would be omitted. But I should record the presence of Robert Mackey, Justice, who eventually surrendered the gavel to that stalwart P.A.D., George Fink, who has served the fraternity for more than half a century in numerous capacities including the Supreme Justiceship. In the passing years his interest in the fraternity and the chapter has never become dim. It was his night, though he was unaware of it until some time after he assumed command of the meeting. A beautiful certificate had been prepared recognizing his long faithful service and I was honored and privileged to present it on behalf of the chapter.

Tony then fairly whisked me to the hotel so I could take off for Louisville and a visit to Vinson Chapter. Jim Revells, Justice of the chapter showed me around and I talked with many P.A.D.s and with Dean Russell and Professors Peden, Warns, Foster, et al.

The following morning I was back in the Supreme Court Building at Tallahassee. Elapsed time: five days and six nights.

Seventeen days later I attended the conclave of District X at St. Petersburg, directed by District Justice Tom Henderson and attended by representatives of Brewer, Rasco, Fletcher, Sstephens and Fish Chapters.

ELWYN THOMAS

Though all these visits were in a sense strenuous, they were refreshing, interesting and pleasurable. I was charmed by the men I met, both of the chapters and the faculties. I am immensely gratified by the whole picture of the present-day law school, and the part the fraternity is playing in legal education.

Upon my return I wrote the deans to thank them for the courtesies that had been shown me. From one of them I got a reply that seemed to me significant. He expressed appreciation for the interest I was taking, as a national officer of P.A.D., and thanked me for devoting "time to this important aspect of legal education and the training of our young men for a professional life in the law." This recognition of the law fraternity as a genuine factor in legal education is, to me, most important and it came from a man who "knows his way around," for men do not become deans unless they "know their way around."

Good luck, and more power to you! And best wishes for the merriest of Christmases and the happiest of New Years.

Thursday, October 11, was election day for Seattle Alumni Chapter. Joseph A. Holleman, University of Washington, 1947, was elected Justice; Orville C. Hatch, Jr., University of Washington, 1927, Vice-Justice; and Theodore M. Rosenblume, University of Washington, 1955, Clerk-Treasurer.

Retiring officers are Wharton T. Funk, Justice; and Joseph A. Holleman, Clerk.

A year of renewed activity and closer integration with the active chapter at the University of Washington is planned.

Hammond Chapter Confers Honorary Membership

On December 6, 1956, William G. Hammond Chapter initiated the Honorable Robert L. Larson, Justice of the Iowa Supreme Court, into honorary membership in Hammond Chapter and in Phi Alpha Delta. The initiation was held in conjunction with Hammond Chapter's Professional Luncheon Program. The luncheon was held in the North River Room of the Iowa Memorial Union on the State University of Iowa campus.

Lurton Chapter Reports On Activities

Lurton Chapter of Vanderbilt University has recently completed one of the most successful years in the Chapter's history—socially, culturally and campus-wise.

Keynoting the year was the cocktail party which the Chapter held in honor of Justice William O. Douglas of the United States Supreme Court. Justice Douglas, a PAD, was the principal speaker at the annual Law Day exercises of the Vanderbilt Law School and was the Chapter's guest immediately preceding the Law Day banquet.

Culturally, Lurton Chapter hosted bi-monthly luncheons at which time outstanding members of the Tennessee and Nashville Bars were obtained as guest speakers. One of the most entertaining and interesting was Mr. Glen White, president of the Nashville Bar, who spoke on the art of cross-examination.

Campus Activities

Campus activities was the phase in which Lurton Chapter excelled for the year—placing men in all prominent positions available in the Law School. The past year, Harry Camp served as Vice President of the Vanderbilt Bar Association. Kenn Sunne was secretary, and Powell Bridges held the post of sergeant-at-arms.

William Fortas was elected as president of the Honor Council, while Dan Self was also a member of that body. Dave Gray was Chief Justice of the Vanderbilt Moot Court, ably assisted by Associate Justices Richard Cochran and Dan Self.

Charles Dismukes and Harry Camp are members of the Law Review, chosen assistant business manager and associate editor respectively. Kan Sunne and Dan Self were two of the four men chosen to argue in the Moot Court finals in conjunction with Law Day, Dan Self being later chosen as one of the two representatives for Vanderbilt in the National Moot Court Competition to be held in November.

For this Fall, Lurton Chapter has copped every major office in the Law School. Harry Camp was elected President of the Vanderbilt Bar Association; Richard Cochran, Chief Justice of the Vanderbilt Moot Court, and Dan Self, President of the Honor Council.

Dignitaries Present

The welcome to those in attendance was extended by George T. Yates, luncheon chairman, and the distinguished guests were introduced by William R. Bernau, Vice-Justice of Hammond Chapter. Among these guests included the Honorable G. K. Thompson, Chief Justice of the Iowa Supreme Court, the Honorable James P. Gaffney (Hammond), Judge of the Eighth District Court; Robert D. Jackson (Cole), Past Supreme Justice and presently chairman of the Supreme Advisory Board of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, and Attorneys William Dallas and William Crissman.

Carl H. Pesch, Justice of Hammond Chapter, conferred the honorary membership on and presented the honorary key to Justice Larson. The certificate of membership was presented by Robert D. Jackson.

Brother Larson addressed the fraternity and guests on the topic of "Legal Aid."

Brother Larson received his B.S. degree from Parsons College and his J.D. degree from the State University of Iowa. He was also a student at the University of Chicago. Judge Larson is a member of the Iowa Bar and has been on the Iowa Supreme Court bench since 1953. Prior to that time he practiced law in Iowa City from 1930-43. He was city attorney of Iowa City from 1937-41 and served the state of Iowa as Assistant Attorney General, 1943-47, and as Attorney General during the years 1947-53.

A telegram of congratulations to the chapter and to Brother Larson upon his initiation was received from the Honorable Elwyn Thomas, Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta. The message was read at the initiation and the telegram presented to Brother Larson.

In the way of athletics, many PADs aided the Law School to capture the university trophies in both football and softball in the professional league, as the Law School swept through both sports undefeated.

The officers for the past year were: Justice, William Fortas; Vice Justice, Richard Cochran, Clerk, Harry Camp; Treasurer, David Stanley; and Marshall, Robert Little.

The officers elected to serve in the Fall are: Justice, David Stanley; Vice Justice, Harry Camp; Clerk, Charles Mismukes; Treasurer, Marvin Bernatsky; and Marshall, Robert Little.

Judge Savarese Reelected Queens County Surrogate

Judge Anthony P. Savarese, beloved Past Supreme Justice of PAD, was recently reelected to the office of Surrogate of Queens County, an office he has held for some 14 years. During the many years he has served the people of Queens County he has heard some of the most noteworthy cases of our generation.

Savarese, who served from 1952 to 1954 as Supreme Justice of the fraternity, has been active in many varied fields of service to society. He has been a PAD for 41 years, 21 years a judge, 38 years a lawyer, 26 years an active participant in the Boy Scout Movement, 5 years President of the Queens College Hearing and Speech Center, 5 years President of the 12,000 member NYU Law School Alumni Association, the largest law alumni body in the country, and 5 years a Trustee of the NYU Law Center Foundation.

The Reporter congratulates the voters of Queens County, New York, on their returning Judge Anthony P. Savarese to the office he has filled so ably these past 14 years.

Salt Lake City Alumni Chapter Formally Chartered

The Salt Lake City Alumni Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was officially chartered at a meeting held at the University Club in Salt Lake City, Utah, on November 1, 1956. The charter was presented by Supreme Vice Justice John Griffiths of Denver, Colorado, who had flown to Salt Lake City that afternoon for the purpose of addressing this meeting and presenting the charter.

The meeting was attended by about forty Phi Alpha Delta Alumni residing in the Salt Lake City area. Included among them were C. Nelson Day, District IV Justice for Phi Alpha Delta and Glen Hatch, practicing Salt Lake City attorney who was selected by Sutherland Chapter of the University of Utah as the outstanding alumnus of 1956.

Elections Held

The business of the chapter was carried on following the banquet. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Don Hammill, Justice; Elliott Evans, 1st Vice Justice; Artie Miner, 2nd Vice Justice; Ray Thomas, Marshall; Spencer L. Haycock, Clerk. Carman E. Kipp was reappointed to act as public relations chairman for the chapter.

Vice Justice Griffiths was the subject of some good natured kidding after the meeting was formally closed as some of the other alumni claimed they were particularly honored by being present at the second chartering of this chapter. They expressed the thought that they were quite certain that the chapter had been chartered previously, and that if they were mistaken, they had certainly been members of a non-existent chapter for many years. However though the chapter had met on an informal basis for several years, it had never been formally chartered.

Vice Justice Griffiths' reminiscences in the casual conversation after the meeting were one of the high-lights of the evening.

Fink Given Testimonial Award

At their meeting on October 29, 1956, the Chicago Alumni Chapter honored the past Justices of their chapter. The meeting had special significance since Supreme Justice Elwyn Thomas was present. Special homage was paid to George A. Fink, Justice of the Alumni Chapter the first year of its incorporation in 1912 and Supreme Justice of our fraternity from 1923 to 1925. A beautiful testimonial was presented to brother Fink by our Supreme Justice on behalf of the Chicago Alumni in recognition of exceptional service to the fraternity for more than half a century.

Brother John Brown, President of the first Chicago Alumni unincorporated association in 1908, gave some interesting and hitherto unpublished information concerning the Chicago World's Fair of 1893. Also in attendance were Past Justices A. A. DiGrazia, William Nealon, George Fink, Lyle Richmond, Phil Brennan, Ray Stoecker, Tom Hollywood, Peter Giachini, Capelle H. Damrell, Emmett Byrne, Alan Gilbert and John Burita.

All present enjoyed receiving an interesting letter and resolution concerning the Chicago Chapter's Annual Summer Outing presented by Past Justice Dick Loewe, now a resident of California.

Brewer Chapter Host To Florida-Georgia Conclave

The recent conclave of District X, held at the Stetson University Law School at St. Petersburg, Fla., was well attended, having representatives from all chapters in the District except one. The members were housed at the Gulf Wind Apartments and Motel on St. Petersburg Beach. All meetings were held in the lounge of the Stetson University Law School.

On November 16, members were given a pre-meeting reception by District Justice Henderson in behalf of the National Chapter, and following the reception a luncheon attended by 14 visiting members of the fraternity.

Henderson Presides

The general meeting was called to order at 9:30 a.m., November 17 by District Justice Charles Tom Henderson and the invocation was given by Dick Mills of Fish Chapter. After a greeting by the District Justice, the meeting was organized by the election of Richard Dillon, Justice of Brewer Chapter as Chairman, and Henry Gonzales of Brewer.

Following the organization, the following persons were introduced and gave interesting greetings and suggestions.

Dean Commends Fraternities

The District Justice, Charles Tom Henderson, called on Dean Harold L. Sebring of the host school, Stetson Law College, to say a few words of welcome. Dean Sebring stated that at Stetson College of Law there were no social fraternities on campus. He stated that lack of social fraternities makes legal fraternities more important on this campus. The Dean believes that it is very profitable for all parties concerned that one fraternity should help the other, not only at Stetson, but in any college of law. The former Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida also made the comment that the prime function of any legal fraternity is to develop scholarship.

Richard T. Dillon, Justice of the host chapter extended his welcome to all present and made some comments concerning Brewer Chapter. He thanked national headquarters for their generosity in the last rush party. Brewer Chapter gave. Financial help was needed to prevent the chapter from being extinct here on campus since the membership was down to three. Headquarters responded to the request and as a result the membership at the local chapter now is 12.

Supreme Justice Present

The Honorable Elwyn Thomas of the Supreme Court of Florida, and also Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, presented a short talk on the necessity of legal fraternities on any campus wherein there is a law school. Justice Thomas definitely agreed with Dean Sebring that legal fraternities are part of the education of a lawyer. He labeled himself as "a living exhibit of the legal fraternity." He stated that no matter how busy one may be, he should always reserve time for this important aspect of legal education.

Senator Houghton of Pinellas County, an alumnus of Michigan Law School and Campbell Chapter commented that there are approximately thirty (30) PADs in the Pinellas Bar Association and that he will do all in his power to try to organize a PAD club within the association.

Dean Rasco Also Speaks

District Justice Henderson then introduced Dean R. A. Rasco of the University of Miami, who discussed the following topics: (Rasco Chapter was named for Dean Rasco's father).

1. PROJECTS FOR LOCAL CHAPTERS FROM DEAN'S VIEWPOINT

Dean Rasco of Miami stated that a visual-aid education program was inaugurated at his school by the PADs. It consisted of getting shades, platform, and charts for different rooms. He said that the other fraternities are also following the leadership of PAD. Dean Rasco also made the suggestion that an Inter-Fraternity Council should be organized to solve any problems which may arise concerning rushings, and similar fraternal functions.

2. CHAPTER REPRESENTATIVES THEN GAVE A RESUME OF THEIR ACTIVITIES

At the University of Georgia, the PADs are giving a cash bond to the student who graduates with the highest scholastic standing, according to Sanford Karesh. Sanford also mentioned that extra curricular activities of the students was also taken into consideration in determining the winner of this award.

Dean Rasco of Miami told the group that any project which is going to be undertaken should be discussed with the Dean of the respective school. After he has approved it, then, and only then, begin.

Al Gustinger of Rasco Chapter suggested to the other chapters present some of the activities that the PADs have started at Miami. Among these were a book exchange, free of charge. Most effective project as a whole has been a one-hour orientation to all new students. During this hour the discussion is concentrated on briefing cases, clerking in law firms, and examinations. Rasco Chapter also awards a cup with the name of the outstanding graduate to such graduate. Finally, PADs there also award the outstanding girl student a free set of books for the coming semester.

Richard Mills of Fish Chapter at Mercer University told the group that his chapter has available a lending library to anyone in the law school. He said this was very effective in getting new students to know the local chapter. The chapter also awards the outstanding senior graduate of the chapter either a cup or a certificate. Richard was very elated over the fact that they have a Pre-Law Club on campus for those students who are not in the law school, but intend to enter that school in the future. Fish Chapter has a monthly meeting-luncheon where extensive public speaking contests are put into operation.

Justice Thomas interrupted Richard and stated that he, as well as Mr. Justice Burton of the United States Supreme Court had been amazed at the way the delegates to the National Convention at Cleveland, could get up on their feet and argue before them.

John Strickroot of Fletcher Chapter in Gainesville, Florida, stated that they have stressed alumni participation. This was shown by the alumni breakfast at homecoming where over two hundred fifty (250) PADs were present. At this breakfast an award is given to the PAD alumnus who has helped the active chapter most during the year. Another important function is a bi-weekly luncheon meeting wherein prominent PAD attorneys of the area are invited to speak on different subjects of the law.

Dick Dillon of Brewer Chapter said that a bronze plaque is donated to the school and the names of the outstanding senior graduates are placed on it without regard to what fraternity they belong. Another method in which the fraternity sounds its name throughout the school is by sponsoring, once a semester, a Student Bar Association meeting and also getting an outstanding PAD to make a speech to the entire student body.

3. ALUMNI RELATIONS

Charles Tom Henderson then opened up discussion as to the alumni relations with the local chapters. He stressed the fact that when an attorney is wanted by the chapter to make a speech or come to one of their rush parties, the approach used is of the utmost importance. Approach them with the thought that they are "outstanding members of the legal profession in that area," and are needed to inspire and give first-hand professional information.

4. PUBLIC RELATIONS

The subject of public relations with the school was touched upon by the District Justice. Organizing social functions in the schools promotes a more harmonious feeling between the legal fraternities and the school. Suggested was a club of PAD's wives to plan parties, dances, etc.

5. HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS

A discussion as to the Honorary Members and how they may become members arose. After much discussion the ultimate point of concurrence was that this subject is solely a local problem and as such any difficulty arising thereof should be reviewed by the Board solely from the individual location and the circumstances surrounding. In other words, it is subject to the discretion of the Board subsequent to the approval of the District Justice. Justice Thomas explained in detail the Board's attitude and policies on Honorary Memberships.

6. REPORTS

No chapter seemed to have any difficulty in meeting the national requirements such as initiations, reports, etc. Justice Thomas did state that the reports should be made accurately.

7. INTER-FRATERNITY RELATIONS

The suggestions made on how PADs could help other fraternities were as follows:

- (a) Co-sponsor a dinner, luncheon or other social affairs.
 - (b) Sponsor an Inns of Court meeting.
 - (c) Always encourage a friendly attitude in rushing and with other legal fraternity men.
- Suggestions concerning the problem of how to build a larger chapter were:
- (a) Get friendly with new students and keep after them.
 - (b) Luncheon with a speaker (not a rush party).
 - (c) Welcoming letters to new or prospective students.
 - (d) Pre-law clubs.

(e) Arrange committees to meet freshmen on registration day.

(f) Tutoring first semester freshmen.

(g) Formal dinner.

District Justice Henderson in closing summarized and emphasized the importance of projects in behalf of local chapters. He pointed out that most chapters who are at the present time weak, became weak because they had few objectives to work for. All civic clubs, all fraternal organizations, generally, are kept alive by a worthwhile objective which provides a uniting of purpose. He suggested that we go back and re-examine our fraternity programs, and pointed out the many projects that have been found successful as mentioned in this conclave or were in effect in other chapters. A list of these projects as suggested by members and alumni are as follows:

1. Award a government bond for special scholarship and activity purposes in connection with the Law School in behalf of P A D, but open for all students of the Law School.

2. Handle second-hand books for the benefit of students without cost or in many cases for a small fee.

3. Award scholarships for the greatest progress shown by students in the freshman class. This project can be either a cash award or a set of law books or a set of the Florida Statutes or some worthwhile project.

4. Award a scholarship for the most outstanding public speaker as selected through Moot Court activity and give a suitable award.

5. Collect a list of former examination questions and making them available for distribution through P A D.

6. Devote a hour of orientation to incoming freshman from the students viewpoint.

7. Recognize the most outstanding P A D as selected by the faculty.

8. Establish a lending library.

9. Create a pre-law club, and furnish conferences and speakers to the pre-law students.

10. Sponsor public speaking programs with faculty help and alumni assistance.

11. Give banquets to new students prior to rush week.

12. Give recognition awards to outstanding alumni by the local P A D chapter on prominent occasions. (Homecoming, etc.)

13. Plan an alumni P A D breakfast during homecoming with outstanding judicial and legal speakers.

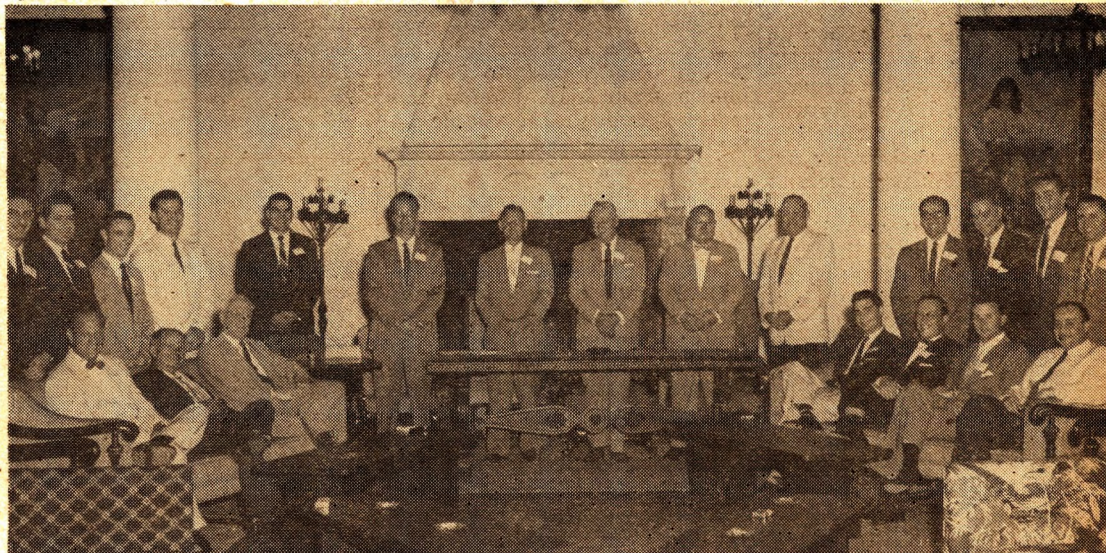

14. Encourage members of PAD to participate in student politics and sponsor for candidacies.

15. Plan regular occasions to invite alumni in.

15. Form a law wives-club for regular meetings.

16. Send out letters to incoming freshmen in helping them to matriculate into the law school.

Golden Anniversary of Benton Chapter Highlights District X Conclave

Thomas Hart Benton Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, the first fraternity on the University of Kansas City's campus was host to the Annual District Conclave which was held November 9th through the 11th. The occasion was doubly celebrated by the active members and alumni of Phi Alpha Delta because this conclave was held in conjunction with Benton Chapter's Fiftieth Anniversary at the University of Kansas City School of Law.

Law Professor Is Initiated at Ohio State

McKinley PADs held their annual dinner dance on October 20 in the ballroom of the Southern Hotel in Columbus, Ohio. The semi-formal affair was in the evening after the Ohio State-Penn. State football game, and was well attended by both Alumni and Active members of the Chapter. Music for the occasion was provided by Tim Juergens and his combo.

The Chapter is also holding monthly luncheons at the Ohio Union of the Ohio State University. Speakers at these meetings are members of the Columbus Bar and others whose fields are related to the law. The program is designed to broaden the interests of the members of the Chapter, and to aid them in their practice upon graduation.

On October 16, McKinley PADs were proud to initiate Richard A. Falk, Assistant Professor of Law at Ohio State. Mr. Falk attended the University of Pennsylvania, and graduated from the Yale Law School.

Florida Conclave

17. Have special assignments for members to assist law freshman in learning how to study law.

18. Go to the Dean of the law school and ask him or some members of the faculty to assign worthwhile projects for the PAD chapter to assist in so that by P A D promotion, it will help the school.

19. Never select any project in connection with the law school without getting the assistance of and the blessings of the Dean, or faculty advisor, or both.

This discussion on projects was most worthwhile. The District Justice closed by commending members who had been present and urged them to answer mail and to cooperate with the National Office in getting in reports, and above all to make friends with incoming students in order that we may continue to have added membership.

The meeting adjourned about 5:00 p.m. and was followed by a social gathering attended by both active visiting members and alumni within the area around St. Petersburg. In addition to the above members listed, some ten or more local alumni dropped in to enjoy the fellowship of P A D.

Seventeen delegates in all were present from the 13 schools in this district. The point which each delegate shared in common with his brothers was a vital interest in both the conclave and in their active chapter. This paramount interest was bound to make the convention successful.

Judge Whittaker Speaker

The highlight of the entire conclave was a dinner at the Hotel President in Kansas City where over 300 persons were present to hear the Honorable Charles E. Whittaker, newly appointed Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

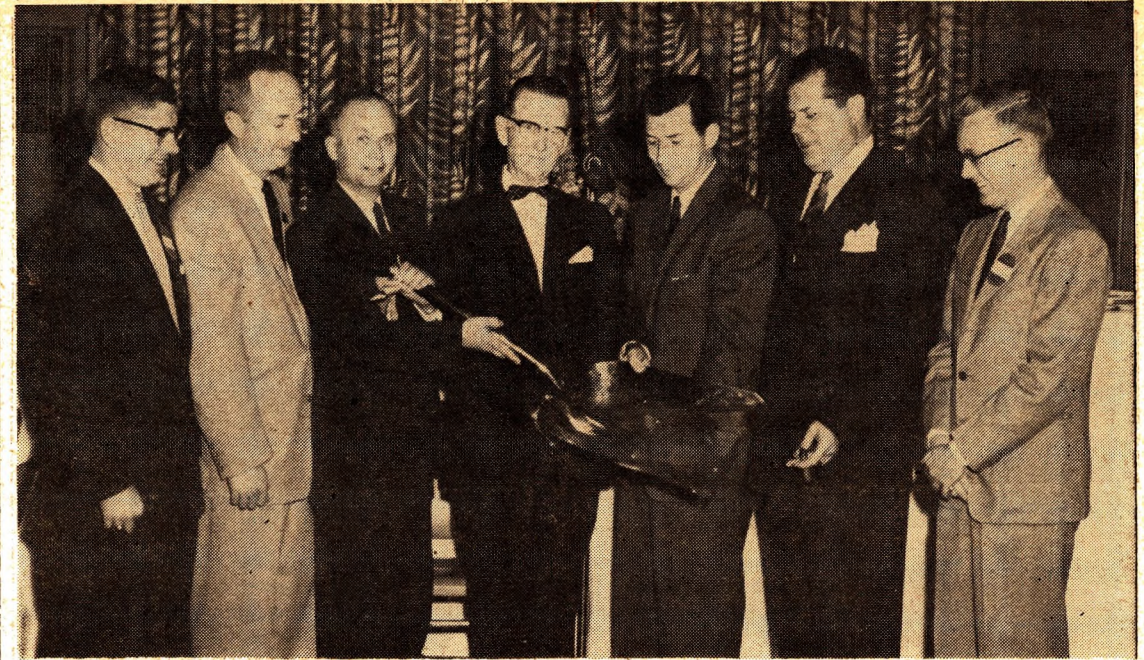

Starting off with recollections of the days when he lived in the Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity House at the Kansas City School of Law, Judge Whittaker traced his footsteps through study of law, to the practice of law, and finally, to the judiciary. He gave his audience, which was entirely composed of visiting delegates, law students and lawyers, some very helpful pointers on how to best write an appellate brief and what points to stress upon oral argument. Punctuation, for example, Judge Whittaker thought to be of invaluable assistance to the brief writer who could make proper use of colons, dashes, brackets and even exclamation points, for the purpose of emphasis.

He cautioned the mere repetition in oral argument of what already had been better said in the attorney's brief. Instead, Judge Whittaker suggested the attorney should pin-point the decisive argument in his favor and delve more thoroughly into it's explanation. Having made his point, the attorney should stop at once even though he may have time remaining.

As the keynote speaker, Judge Whittaker will be remembered by his fellow brothers of Phi Alpha Delta for his co-mingling of intelligent, helpful suggestions on the practice of law with a sincere sentiment for his fraternity.

Charter Member Inspires

Norman Sanders, Justice of District VII and presiding officer of the Conclave, had the opportunity to introduce John B. Pew, a charter member of the Thomas Hart Benton Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at the University of Kansas City, senior partner of his law firm and a prominent practicing attorney in Kansas City. Dynamic is the best description that one could give for John Pew's speech. His was a rare combination of wit and wisdom. He noted with pride the growth in his fraternity since it's origin in 1907, and congratulated the delegates from the many schools participating in the conclave for helping fraternity growth by "pooling" their suggestions. The ovation which John Pew received was tremendous.

Leo M. Baker was the representative from the National, who attended all the functions of the conclave. Leo was of invaluable assistance to Norman Sanders in planning the conclave.

Prior to the Saturday night banquet which marked the commencement of the conclave as well as the Golden Anniversary, there were many activities in which the 17 delegates participated which are worthy of note.

The delegates from the various law schools in District VII began arriving about noon on Friday, November 9. The "Legal Dames of Phi Alpha Delta" (the wives' auxiliary) were given the dual responsibility of enrolling the delegates and giving them a brief tour of the law school. A good will hour followed, during which the delegates and the hosts had the opportunity to meet one another.

The Hotel President, one of Kansas City's foremost hotels, was the center of the conclave activity, with the Law Building of the University of Kansas City running a close second. Friday evening at the Hotel President, a dinner-dance was held solely for the entertainment of the delegates, their wives or dates.

Former Governor Speaks

There were a few short speeches after the dinner and before the dance. Governor Frank Hagan, former governor of the state of Kansas, spoke upon a subject which was dear to his heart and of great interest to student-lawyers, namely "The Lawyers Place in Politics." He encouraged the young attorney to develop an interest in politics, to participate in this profession whenever the opportunity was offered him, however, without going into the field so wholly as to neglect his own private practice. This "keeping one foot on the ground" as Governor Hagan called it, would enable the lawyer to return to his practice if he were unsuccessful in politics. The Governor's speech was very well taken by the delegates.

The Howard Lay Orchestra (Howard is a law student at the University of Kansas City) furnished the music for the dance.

Conclave Discussions

On Saturday, convention activity was jammed-packed with discussions and lectures on fraternity matters. One would find it hard to say that the talk by Hugh Nugent, a law student, but also a professor of English in the Liberal Arts College, was a "lecture." It was really a very comical satire upon the law student's behavior in the classroom. One of his cleverest points concerned five ways "to fluster the professor":

1. Always answer a question with a question.
2. Suddenly and for no apparent reason make an obvious flourish of note taking.
3. When the professor has finished writing on the blackboard, always ask him to read what he has written.
4. If the prof is prompt,—but late, and vice-versa.
5. At the end of his lecture always ask "this is very interesting, but what does it have to do with Torts?"

In spite of the fact that Hugh Nugent's lecture was a satire upon law professors and their classes, it was very instructive in a "negative" way.

PAD Magician Entertains

It was another form of entertainment which served as a warm-up for the fraternity discussions which followed,—Kev Kirwan, the Legal Magician was on hand to demonstrate his wares. Mr. Kirwan described in a legal way the art of oral argument and concluded by demonstrating a closing argument to the jury complete with magical props.

The discussions included phases of fraternal life, such as: How to induce pledges to join; the month dinner meeting, it's pros and cons; money raising activities; the problems of the meeting itself, and another discussion provoked from the members by Norman Sanders and Hugh Nugent, the discussion leaders.

A tour of the campus of the University of Kansas City then followed.

A buffet luncheon served by the Legal Dames was held for the active members and the delegates at the Drexel Hall, during which time reports on the various discussions were given by the delegates.

The election of officers was held Saturday afternoon and results are as follows: Justice, D. J. Stoops, Washburn University; Clerk, Elroy Arnason, University of North Dakota; and Treasurer, Jack Orlove, University of Kansas City. We congratulate the delegates on their choice of officers.

Judge Jay Schiller Dies

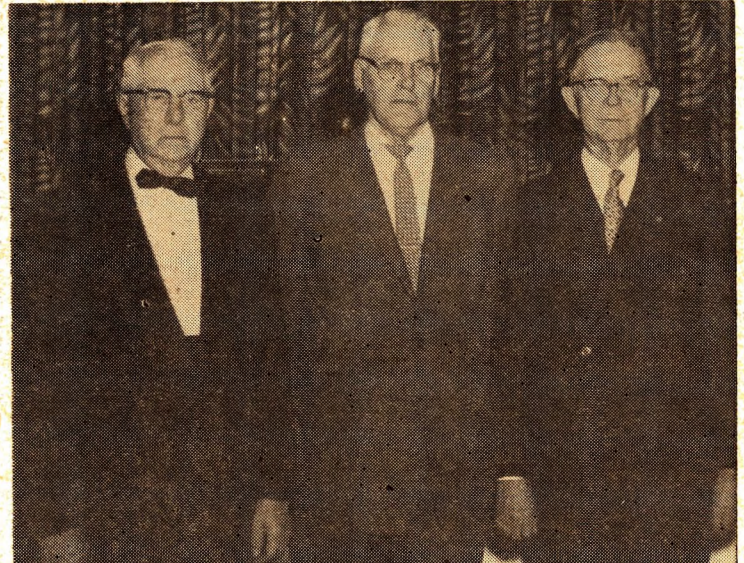

Judge Jay A. Schiller, Dean of Chicago's Municipal Court judges, with 26 years on the bench, died October 25, 1956, after a prolonged illness. Brother Schiller, a member of Story Chapter at DePaul University, was first elected to the municipal bench in 1930 and was re-elected for four consecutive six-year terms.

He was an Assistant Corporation Counsel for the City of Chicago from 1923 to 1927. He was also the city's sole legal representative in two taxpayer cases which culminated in a judgment of more than $2,000,000 for the city.

Numbered among his associates were the American Legion, Masonic Order, B'nai B'rith, and the Chicago and American Bar Associations.

aided and abetted by W. Earl Britt, who served as Acting District Student Clerk, and by all the officers and brothers of the host chapter.

Wives Assist

Both efficiency and charm marked the registration desk, in operation Friday night and Saturday morning. Members of Timberlake Chapter's Wives' Club handled this assignment to the satisfaction of all concerned. In charge were Mrs. Thomas L. Cherry and Mrs. Burrill Gray, and they received a special resolution of appreciation for their contribution.

The first business session featured welcoming addresses by Brother Carroll W. Weathers (Wake Forest), Dean of the Wake Forest Law School, and by J. R. Hendren, Justice of the host chapter.

A mid-morning break was taken for a tour of the new Wake Forest campus; the college just moved to Winston-Salem from Wake Forest during the summer. Dean Weathers was again the gracious host on a tour of the well-equipped and finely-appointed Law School.

Another highlight of the tour was a stop at the chapter house of Timberlake Chapter, where coffee and doughnuts were served. Occupying a special fraternity section of the dormitories, the Timberlake brothers have a chapter room, library, kitchenette and lounge, in addition to sleeping quarters.

Redding Speaks

The luncheon program, with Brother Hendren presiding as toastmaster, was featured by an informative and inspiring address by Supreme Marshall Robert E. Redding, past Justice of District XII, as well as of the Washington, D.C. Alumni Chapter. He entitled his talk "Your Investment in P.A.D.," and gave a summary of some 30 dividends accruing from P.A.D. membership.

Besides acting on committee reports, the afternoon session was devoted to a report on chapter activities. This program proved to be of great value in providing for an exchange of ideas on rushing, programming, finances and related matters.

The delegates voted to amend the District By-Laws to provide for a District Student Marshal and also clarified the method of mail balloting on amendments. Voted down was a proposal that the District assessment be increased.

Next Conclave in Richmond

The conclave went on record in favor of holding sessions in the spring rather than in the autumn. The invitation of Henry Chapter at the University of Richmond to play host to the next conclave was accepted. District Justice Moore was instructed to take steps to try to schedule the next meeting in the spring of 1957. Otherwise, the next session will be in 1958.

Because last-minute complications prevented Henry Chapter from being represented, the delegates voted to authorize that chapter to elect the District Student Justice, Treasurer and Marshal. (District By-Laws provide that members of the host chapter to the conclave must be elected to the first two offices named.)

Benjamin K. Phipps, Jr., of Jefferson Chapter, University of Virginia, was elected District Student Vice Justice, and Don Hutson, of Jay Chapter at George Washington University, was named District Student Clerk.

Climaxing the conclave were a reception, banquet and dance, in which many alumni joined, along with wives and dates of the delegates.

Stanley Banquet Speaker

The banquet speaker was Edwin M. Stanley, United States Attorney for the Middle District of North Carolina. In addition to recounting experiences in his career as an attorney and stressing the importance of integrity as the keystone of a lawyer's standing, Mr. Stanley told of the work of the Department of Justice in cutting the backlog of untried cases in federal courts, in seeking uniformity of sentences in criminal cases and in bringing new lustre to the role of the Government lawyer.

Mr. Stanley was introduced by Dean Weathers. District Justice Moore served as toastmaster, and Brother James E. Sizemore, of the Wake Forest Law School faculty, pronounced the invocation. Messages were read from Supreme Justice Elwyn Thomas and Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray.

The "why" of a District conclave was well summarized in one of the resolutions unanimously adopted. It follows:

"Whereas this opportunity is taken by the Members of the Conclave to express the many pleasures herein derived from the affiliation and brotherhood of the Delegates from this Fraternal group, be it herein resolved, published and proclaimed that this Conclave has brought the Members and the Chapters of Phi Alpha Delta closer together to further the purpose of our Fraternity and has shown in all of us the presence of that deep Fraternal feeling existing between all of this privileged Order, and be it further resolved that this Conclave be proclaimed a success to all Chapters."

The membership of Conclave committees was as follows:

Expansion and Reactivation—Johnie Ray Hendren, Timberlake, chairman; Andrew McDaniel, Ruffin; and Jim Keenan, Taft.

Nominating and Conclave—Richard Cocke, Jefferson, chairman; N. B. Barefoot and Thomas L. Cherry, Timberlake.

Constitution and By-Laws—Earl Britt, Timberlake, chairman; Ben Phipps, Jefferson; and Bob Petrucci, Taft.

Resolutions—Robert Matz, Taft, chairman; Jim Boone and Edward Lassiter, Timberlake.

Chapter Activities—Charles Menzemer, Jay, chairman; M. J. Travers, Taft, and Don Pendleton, Timberlake.

Brother Wade Hobson, Timberlake, served as conclave parliamentarian.

Murrah Addresses SMU Chapter

On October 12, 1956, Taney Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta held its first monthly luncheon meeting of the school year. Guests of the chapter were Mr. Dee Brown Walker and Mr. Joe Geary, Jr. of Dallas, and Judge Alfred P. Murrah of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Brother Walker, prominent Dallas alumnus of Taney Chapter, and Chief Tribune of the Fraternity, introduced Brother Geary as the new District Justice of District VIII. Brother Geary, also a practicing attorney in Dallas, and also an alumnus of Taney Chapter who served during the past year as Justice of the Dallas Alumni Chapter.

The high point of the luncheon was an inspiring address by Brother Murrah on the goals and values of Phi Alpha Delta. Judge Murrah has served as District Justice of District VIII for several years, but has now been forced by his many pressing duties to tender his resignation as District Justice. He assured the group that his interest and activity within the Fraternity would continue in the future. In addition to his active participation in Phi Alpha Delta, Brother Murrah is Judge of the United States Court of Appeals sitting in Denver, Colorado.

Activities of Taney Chapter are well under way for the school year. The chapter assisted the Freshmen in their orientation program, and has, in service to the Law School and the Student Body, published and distributed a directory of all students and faculty of the Law School.

Ten new brothers were welcomed into the fellowship of Phi Alpha Delta on October 27, 1956. At this meeting also, Robert H. Thomas was elected Justice of the chapter for the Winter Term. Following the initiation and election, the chapter held a dinner dance honoring the new brothers.

A number of professional programs have been held so far this year. One of these was a coffee hour at which the guest speaker was Mr. Gene Bailey, Taney alumnus and prominent Dallas attorney in the field of criminal law. Another coffee hour held for the students in the evening division had as its guest speaker Mr. H. Barefoot Sanders, Jr., member of the Texas House of Representatives from Dallas.

Button New California State Treasurer

Brother A. Ronald Button, a member of Holmes Chapter at Stanford University, has been appointed Treasurer of the State of California by Governor Goodwin J. Knight, also a member of Holmes Chapter.

Large Pledge Class For Ross Chapter

Ross Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta has been enjoying a very full schedule of activities this fall.

After a very active pledging period this Chapter pledged 49 new men—more than any other Law Fraternity of The University of Southern California.

On October 20, 1956, the formal-pledging ceremony, conducted by Justice Phil Bataglia, Vice Justice Hal Chancellor, Larry Greer, Clerk, Steve Cirillo, Treasurer and Stan Haberman, Marshall, was held at King's Tropical Inn and was followed by a stag dinner in honor of the new pledges.

Concurrently with these activities the Ross Chapter Wives Club held a welcoming dinner for the wives of the married pledges at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Avery of Los Angeles.

Later in the evening the two groups met at a reception and dance at the King's Tropical Inn.

List Pledges

This Chapter has had a very successful program of luncheons thus far this year, which have been scheduled twice monthly. Guest speakers from the profession have included Judge Herbert V. Walker, presiding Superior Court Judge of Criminal Division, Judge Aubrey Irwin of the Los Angeles Superior Court, Frank Gray, Supreme Secretary of Phi Alpha Delta, and Morris Lavine, prominent Los Angeles attorney.

This year Ross Chapter and the other Legal Fraternities initiated a plan of joint luncheons which proved to be well received by all the membership. This Chapter was honored to have as guest speaker at the joint affair with Phi Delta Phi, Dean Robert Kingsley of the U.S.C. School of Law.

Social activities have not been overlooked, including a very successful dinner dance during the Christmas holidays.

Ross Chapter pledges turned in a wonderful job in conducting the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children held in the U.S.C. Law School Lobby.

Approximately 30 children from the All Nations Foundation were the guests of P.A.D. at this affair, at which the highlight

U. of Okla. Chapter Having Outstanding Year

Robert Pendarvis was recently elected Justice of Harlan Chapter on the University of Oklahoma campus. Other officers elected were: Sam Crossland, Vice-Justice; Jim Metzger, Treasurer; H. K. Berry, Clerk; and Wiley George, Marshall.

Harlan Chapter held its fall rush smoker on October 29, 1956, in the Memorial Student Union. Bids were sent out, and 13 were returned. In addition to these pledges, the O. U. Chapter has 65 active members at the present time.

The chapter has also recently sponsored a golf tournament which attracted a field of 25 entries. Also, the purchase of several non-technical books in the legal field has been made. These books are made available to all law students and have been placed in a special section in the law library reading room. Each book is marked with a plaque designating it as part of the PAD collection.

Several members have received recognition this semester. Arch Gilbert recently was awarded the Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition award for his paper on "Taxation of Copyrights." He was also elected President of the Board of Governors of the O. U. College of Law. Another PAD, Ted Davis, was elected treasurer of the same group.

Welcome DeVier Pierson was one of a three-member team who won first place in both divisions of the Regional Moot Court Competition that was held in New Orleans, La., November 10 and 11.

Another highlight of this semester was the visit by the Hon. Alfred P. Murrah, judge of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. Judge Murrah is an alumnus of the Harlan Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta and a Past Justice of District VIII.

American Bar Association Section

Plans Move Ahead for Pilgrimage to London

Arrangements for the American Bar Association's 1957 split meeting in New York City and London are moving ahead, with indications that approximately 6,000 lawyers and judges will make the July trip to Britain. This would be by far the largest delegation of American lawyers ever to go overseas for a professional meeting. It is the first time since 1924 that the ABA has held part of its annual meeting outside the United States.

The meetings in New York City will be held July 14 to 16, including a full schedule of section programs and sessions of the House of Delegates. Then those registered for the London phase of the meeting will travel by boat and plane, to arrive in time for the beginning of the London events July 24. The program in England will run through July 31, including House of Delegates sessions and a public ceremony at Runnymede where an American Bar Association memorial will be dedicated at the site of the signing of Magna Carta.

New Film Deals With Lawyer-Doctor Relations

The American Bar Association has begun distribution of a new film, "The Medical Witness," as a service to state and local bar associations. It is a 30-minute, black and white sound picture portraying the right and wrong ways to present medical evidence in court. "The Medical Witness" is the first of a series of six medico-legal films being produced by the William S. Merrell Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, pharmaceutical firm, in cooperation with the American Bar Association and the American Medical Association.

The series will deal with various aspects of lawyer-doctor relations. The fact that 60 to 80 per cent of all cases now being litigated involve medical testimony has increased the importance of this relationship. Many bar associations are arranging to show "The Medical Witness" at joint meetings with medical societies.

The first film deals with the trial of the personal injury case of a railroad employe, and shows both proper and improper methods of presenting medical evidence. The film may be ordered through the Committee on Public Relations, the American Bar Association, 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.

Lawyers and CPAs Reach New Accord

Announcement was made December 15 that the American Bar Association and the American Institute of Accountants have agreed upon a joint statement recommending that any differences arising between lawyers and certified public accountants be resolved "by conference and cooperation."

The joint report, on which special committees of the two professions have been negotiating for two years, proposes that there be created in each state a conference committee of lawyers and CPAs to consider any disputes that arise and attempt to settle them by negotiation. Any dispute which cannot be settled by the state committees would be referred to the "National Conference" composed of the special ABA and AIA committees which drew up the plan. Some differences have arisen in the past over whether certain types of cases fell within the field of law or of accounting.

'50 Plus' Group Life Plan Offered by ABA

Last year the American Bar Association inaugurated a highly successful group life insurance program for members up to age 56. As a supplement to that plan, the ABA now is offering a "50 Plus" group life plan for members between the ages of 50 and 70.

The "50-Plus" plan provides $5,000 of insurance without medical examination, but with a health statement required. The plan was announced in November, and will become operative as soon as the first 3,000 applications are accepted by the underwriter, the New York Life Insurance Company. Inquiries may be directed to: American Bar Association, Group Life Plans, 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.

Study Lawyers Group Liability Insurance

Now under study by a special committee of the American Bar Association is a proposed group lawyers' liability insurance plan to which any ABA member would be eligible. The special committee is headed by Abe R. Peterson, of Chicago, and its report is scheduled to be made to the Mid-year meeting of the ABA House of Delegates in Chicago, February 18-19.

If such a plan is developed and approved by the House of Delegates, it would be the first national group plan ever offered to lawyers to protect them against judgments resulting from "honest errors" of themselves, associates or employees in the course of their practice. Insurance of this type has been available to individual lawyers for some time, but through the group plan the ABA hopes to achieve rate advantages for its members.

Eight States in Denver Regional Meeting Area

Lawyers from eight states will be invited to participate in the American Bar Association's Mountain and Plain regional meeting to be held in Denver, Colorado, May 8 to 10. The states embraced in the region are Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Utah and Wyoming. Sessions will be held in the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

This is one of the series of regional meetings which the ABA holds in various sections of the country to enable more lawyers to take an active part in the Association's affairs. A full program of professional events and social activities is planned. Co-Chairmen of the meeting are: Thomas M. Burgess, Mining Exchange Building, Colorado Springs, Colorado and Edward G. Knowles, 560 Denver Club Building, Denver 2, Colorado.

PAD Offers European Tours for ABA Meeting

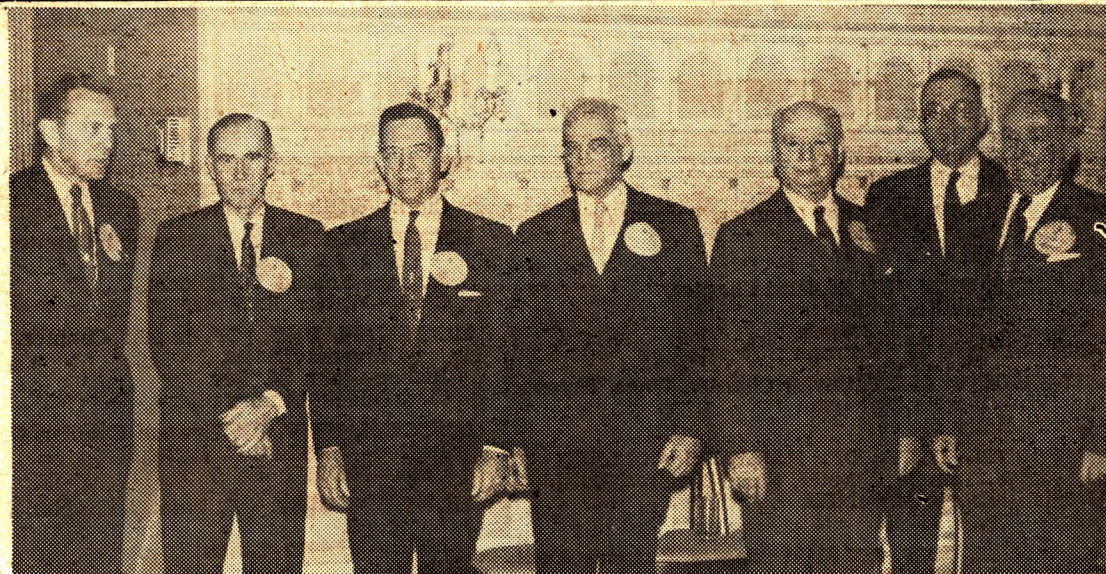

Brother Joseph W. Geary Jr., (SMU), newly appointed Justice of District VIII, has been selected by the SimmonsTours, Inc. to conduct a tour for the American Bar Association convention in London in 1957, as well as three weeks following on the Continent. Geary will be able to accommodate 15 couples.

At this writing, a four- or five-week tour is anticipated, with some possibility of reducing the entire trip to four weeks from the date of departure to the date of arrival in New York.

The tentative itinerary will take in England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, Holland, Belgium.

Any PADs interested in making such a trip may contact Brother Geary directly at the following address:

Godwin, who was last stationed in Washington, D. C., holds the Bronze Star medal. He is a 1932 graduate of the Military Academy and a 1948 graduate of the University of Virginia Law School, where he was a member of Jefferson Chapter.

Chicago Hansens A Family of PADs

Brother George Hansen, a member of Blackstone Chapter, is a man who is mighty proud of his family of five sons, and rightfully so, for two of the five have followed in his footsteps and are PADs.

Son Richard was the instigator of the reactivation of John Marshall Chapter at the University of Chicago, in 1955. He is a past Justice of that Chapter and is now in his senior year at the University of Chicago Law School.

Son Julian is also a member of Marshall Chapter and now operates Brother George Hansen's law office together with his wife, Leith M. Hansen.

George himself has long been active in the activities of the Chicago Alumni Chapter. In his practice he does considerable traveling and always makes a point of visiting PADs in the vicinity.

A memorable event recently occurred for Brother Hansen and four of his sons, when all five of them were created Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, Medinah Temple, in Chicago.

PAD Notables Attend D.C. Alumni-Active Reception

On November 16, 1956, the Washington Alumni Chapter, in conjunction with the active PAD chapters at Georgetown University (Taft Chapter) and George Washington University (Jay Chapter), held its first major social gathering of the season, a rousing cocktail party in the Top of the Park Room of the Woodner Hotel, overlooking Rock Creek Park.

Outstanding Event

The joint event was directed particularly toward enabling local student members of PAD to meet their alumni brothers, and vice-versa; and in serving this purpose admirably, the affair developed into one of the most outstanding PAD social functions held in the Washington, D. C., area in recent years.

A total of more than 90 PAD actives and pledges from Taft and Jay chapters attended; and their numbers were swelled by an excellent representation of the local alumni chapter, agreed by all to be one of the best alumni turnouts in recent years, as well as by a number of prominent PAD members of the bar and bench.

In all, approximately 150 PADs, representing the complete legal gamut from law students to a distinguished member of U. S. Supreme Court, assembled for an evening of fine eating, drinking, and extreme conviviality, uninterrupted by any speech-making or other formal events which could disturb the excellent social and fraternal spirit pervading the crowd.

Among those PAD notables present, and contributing handsomely to the festivities, were: The Hon. Harold H. Burton (Western Reserve), U. S. Supreme Court; Judges J. Gregory Bruce (U. of Kentucky) and Boland B. Turner (George Washington U.), of the U. S. Tax Court; Judges Frank H. Myers (George Washington U.) and John H. Burnett (Georgetown U.) of the Domestic Relations Branch, Municipal Court of the District of Columbia; Judge Joseph R. Jackson (Georgetown U.) of the U. S. Court of Customs and Patent Appeals; Judge J. Warren Madden (U. of Chicago) of the U. S. Court of Claims; Mr. J. Reul Armstrong (Columbia U.) Solicitor of the U. S. Department of Interior; Prof. Bernard F. Garvey (Georgetown U.) professor of patent law at Georgetown University; Robert E. Redding (Georgetown U.), Supreme Marshal; and Donald R. Moore (Georgetown U.) District XII Justice.
