PAD Program to Develop Leadership in Legal Profession Begins

Endowment Fund Moves Forward

Phi Alpha Delta has embarked upon a broad program of developing much needed leadership in the legal profession. It has been termed the "challenging national purpose" of the fraternity. The vehicle selected for the program of developing leadership is the Phi Alpha Delta Endowment Fund which was established in 1925 and now amounts to some $30,000.00.

The fund, if greatly enlarged, will be used to assist deserving undergraduate members with scholarships, awards, fellowships, scholastic contests and student loans. Education, scholarship, leadership development and inspiration are the goals to be achieved.

Recently, over 30,000 brochures were sent to alumni members of the fraternity throughout the world, informing of this widespread new program and inviting their participation. Contributions, large or small, to the Phi Alpha Delta Endowment Fund, will assist brothers who might otherwise be unable to complete their education and will go a long way toward developing strong leaders in our profession.

Participation is available in many different ways. A sustaining membership is a contribution of any amount one desires. A life membership in the Endowment Fund is attained through payment of the sum of $50.00. $100.00 obtains a membership in the Century Club, as well as a life membership in the Endowment Fund, while the $1,000.00 Club of Phi Alpha Delta is self explanatory.

PAD brothers are especially encouraged towards making monetary memorials in remembrance of deceased brothers or making a monetary gift to the Endowment Fund in lieu of flowers and including in their Wills a bequest of money, securities or real estate to the Phi Alpha Delta Endowment Fund.

Listed in the next column are the participants in the Endowment Fund program to date. Additional participants will be listed next issue.

Low Cost PAD Life Insurance Available

The Supreme Executive Board has worked out a Life Insurance Program with the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company, which is extremely advantageous to members of PAD. Exceptionally low cost life insurance is offered together with double indemnity and optional family plan, a liberal conversion policy, rates guaranteed for life, and a no-medical examination plan.

Complete details of the plan are now in the mail to members.

PAD Hall of Fame to Start

A PAD Hall of Fame will commence in the December issue of The Reporter. Three people will be listed in each issue, one from each of three categories:

law teaching, and law practice-business.

Selections have already been made for the December issue but nominations will be accepted for the February and later issues. Any member knowing of some brother who qualifies in any of the categories should write the editor, Phi Alpha Delta Reporter, 10718 White Oak Avenue, Granada Hills, California.

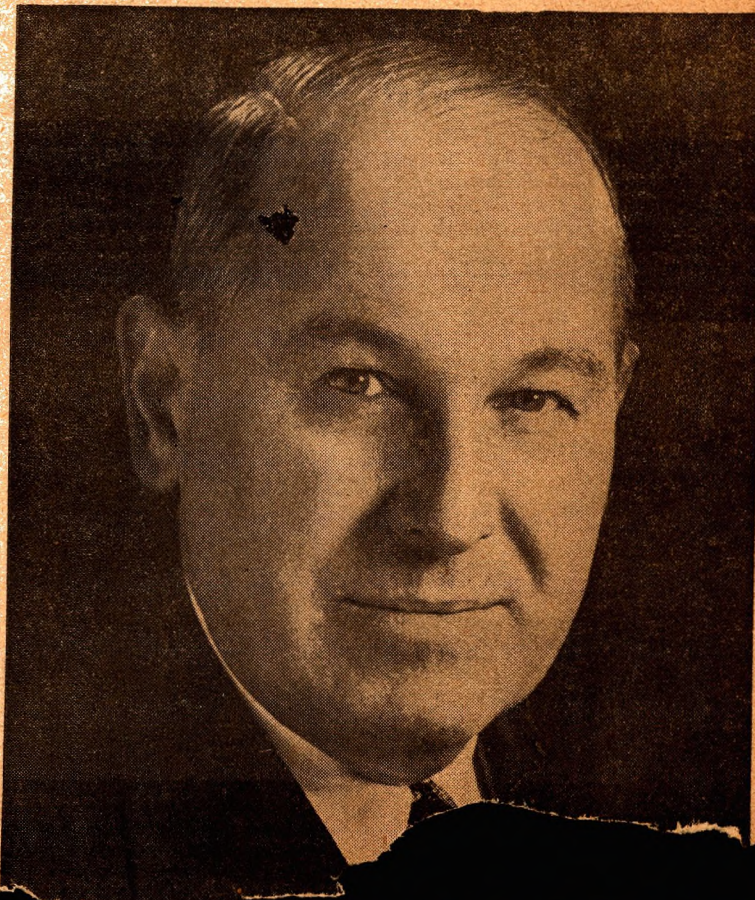

JOHN W. DeSPAIN

Layman Joins Century Club

Mr. John W. DeSpain, of Denver, Colorado, a client of Supreme Justice John L. Griffith, is the first layman to become a member of the Century Club of the Endowment Fund of Phi Alpha Delta.

After reading through the Endowment Fund brochure, Mr. DeSpain said: "Building future leadership of the bench and bar through the Endowment Fund program of your great fraternity is worth $100.00 of my money and I appreciate the opportunity of being allowed to participate."

JOHN D. RANDALL

PADs Active in ABA Meeting

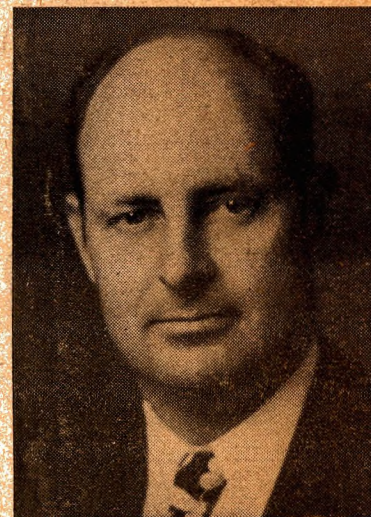

John D. Randall, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a member of Hammond Chapter at the University of Iowa and a charter member of the recently formed Hawkeye Alumni Chapter, was selected the 83rd President of the American Bar Association at its annual meeting in Miami Beach August 24 - 28, 1959. Brother Randall, an active PAD, has been a hard worker in American Bar work for more than thirty years. From 1954 to 1956, he served as Chairman of the House, second highest post in the ABA. He has been a fellow of the American Bar Foundation since its founding in 1956.

Randall has a son, John D. Randall, Jr., who is a PAD recently graduated from the University of Iowa School of Law.

PAD, as usual, played an important part in the annual ABA meeting. General Chairman of the entire convention was Brother William P. Simmons, Jr., of Florida. Simmons is a member of Fletcher Chapter at the University of Florida. He is a member of the Miami law firm of Shutts, Bowen, Simmons, Prevatt and Boureau. He is a member of the Judicial Council of Florida and a Past President of the Dade County Bar Association and the Jr. Bar Section of the Florida State Bar Association.

Brother Justice Tom C. Clark, of the United States Supreme Court, addressed those assembled for the naturalization proceedings of several applicants for citizenship during the meeting, and was in attendance at most of the convention events. PAD Section Chairmen elected were Rufus King, of Washington, D. C., Section of Criminal Law, and John T. Love, of Chicago, Illinois, Section of Patent, Trade Mark and Copyright Law.

The American Law Student

WILLIAM P. SIMMONS, JR.

Association met in conjunction with the ABA in Florida, and PADs James J. Cox, Leslie W. Light and Phillip Gillin, the President, Vice President and Secretary, respectively, of the Association, very competently conducted the meeting. Brother John P. Message From The Supreme Justice

This issue of the Reporter should be of particular interest to our alumni members, as this issue announces the official program for the enlargement and activation of our endowment fund for scholarships, awards, fellowships, scholastic contests, and student loans. A brochure concerning the endowment fund is being mailed to each alumnus.

The endowment fund is today's answer of Phi Alpha Delta to the challenge facing the bench and bar of America for needed assistance in building future leadership.

The trend is to encourage young people to accept science as a life interest. However, as lawyers we know that the protection of human rights and political leadership are always the paramount problems in a democracy, and we must turn to the legally trained mind for leadership in solving these problems. For this reason, the lawyers of America must see to it that the brightest minds are attracted to the legal profession, if we are to continue our great profession with its present high standards.

To help develop leadership in our profession is the great national purpose of Phi Alpha Delta.

Alumni are invited through our endowment fund to participate in this great national purpose by becoming:

Sustaining Members — Any amount.

Life Members in the Endowment Fund—$50.00

Members of the Century Club of PAD (including Life Membership in the Endowment Fund)—$100.00

$1000 Club of PAD (including life membership in EF)—$1,000
Memorials in Remembrance of a deceased brother—Any amount Memorials in lieu of flowers—Any amount

Requests of money, securities, real estate—Any amount

A committee of one hundred alumni will soon be appointed to act as an advisory committee and will assist in the promotion of the endowment fund.

urge each alumnus to the do so immediately by sending the coupon from the brochure, or the one printed in the Reporter, and forward it to the Executive Office.

By your doing so, you will enable us to put the endowment fund into service during the first term of the law school year.

Cordially and fraternally,
Supreme Justice

J. W. RIEHM

Riehm New Dean S. M. U.

Brother J. W. Riehm has been appointed to be the new Dean of the Southern Methodist University School of Law. He succeeds Brother Robert G. Storey, a Past President of the American Bar Association.

Brother Riehm is a graduate of Bradley University and obtained his law degree at the University of Michigan Law School.

He has been with the SMU School of Law since 1948 and is a member of the America, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Texas Bar Associations.

Extensive Plans Laid by Jay Chapter

This fall the John Jay Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta has planned a program that will encompass the law student from the time he enters George Washington University until he graduates. The fraternity welcomed all law students entering the university this fall for the first time, as well as those returning with a "Welcoming Party" on Friday, September 18, following the orientation program.

Other PAD functions planned to provide a diversification of activities suitable to the interests of the law student. PAD Rep. John Foley of Maryland high school in September 30th professional meeting with a talk on "The Lawyer's Role in Public Life." Following this refreshments were served with a getting acquainted period for rushees. Other professional meetings are scheduled for October 13 and October 27. In addition, to further its policy of encouraging self-improvement in law career essentials, PAD will sponsor a speed reading program for law students.

Toastmasters, a PAD sponsored public speaking group, plans to broaden the scope of its activities. Those participating have found the opportunity for improving their speaking ability extremely beneficial as a supplement to their legal education. A strong athletic program with teams competing in intramural sports has been scheduled. The semester activities are rounded out by a full social program including a dinner dance. The PAD Wives Club will again give their able assistance as hostesses for the functions besides carrying on an active program of their own.

This fall the fraternity will give the law student an assist by providing an employment referral plan functioning between the chapter and the PAD alumni in the Washington, D.C. area. Not only the graduating student, but also the student seeking employment while in school are encompassed by the plan. It is hoped that this service will better enable the student to find the position that he is best qualified for, as well as enabling the prospective employer to fulfill his respective need.

For the coming semester the officers of the chapter are Ralph Chilton, Justice; Robert Vickers, Vice Justice; Jerry Cooke, Clerk; Mark Rollinson, Treasurer, and Stan Hochhauser, Marshall.

The Editor's Corner

YOUR INITIATION FEE

During the current school year, over 1,500 law students will become members of Phi Alpha Delta. Each of these new members will pay an initiation fee to the Supreme Chapter of $25.00. Over the years we have had inquiries as to what use is made of the initiation fee, and it was felt that an article explaining its use would be of great interest to the membership.

Usually, the first physical evidence of a return for one's initiation fee is the membership certificate which is received a short time after the initiation takes place. This membership certificate is prepared by the official jeweler of the fraternity, L. G. Balfour Co., and costs the Supreme Chapter $1.50.

PAD sponsors annual meetings of the active and alumni chapters in each District, which are called District Conclaves. $2.00 of each initiation fee is returned to the districts for the holding of these Conclaves.

Immediately upon his initiation each member receives a lifetime subscription to the Reporter, the fraternity's official publication. No extra charge or subscription fee is made for this. This is not the case with the other major law fraternities, for each of them charges an initiation subscription fee. Thus, PAD sends some 30,000 copies of each issue to all of its members each issue. Your editor is informed that the other major law fraternities only mail to subscribers and thus mail slightly less than 10,000 copies each issue. The cost of publication and mailing of The Reporter currently involves an annual expenditure of slightly in excess of $5,000.

The fraternity periodically publishes a Professional Directory which has been acclaimed by many as the finest of its kind. The Directory is published every six years and is periodically supplemented to keep it current and up to date. Through the Directory a tremendous amount of business is referred from one PAD to another across the country from day to day and, of course, to the young attorney just starting in practice this is a very distinct advantage. The Directory has both an alphabetical and geographical section and is, to your editor's knowledge, the only law fraternity Directory which lists, in addition to the name and address of the individual, the date of his admission to the bar and type of practice in which he engages. PAD is the only major law fraternity which issues a supplement to its Directory. The next Directory is scheduled to be issued in 1960 and it is estimated that it will cost in the neighborhood of $24,000.00. It is distributed free of charge to all alumni who are in good standing.

national convention every two years, which is attended by delegates from all active and alumni chapters. A considerable portion of the fraternity's revenue is appropriated for this convention. For example, $20,000.00 has been set aside for the 1960 convention, which will be held in Nashville, Tennessee. It is interesting to note that we are the only law fraternity which pays the full expenses of active chapter delegates, including round trip railroad fares, subsistence and hotel accommodations.

Of course, the initiation fee also helps to sustain the National Executive Office. The functions of the Executive Office are extremely varied. Among other things it processes pledge questionnaires, enrolls new members, maintains complete records on each individual, keeps up to date address records, collects alumni dues, assists in planning District Conclaves, national conventions, publishes The Reporter and the Directory, maintains a staggering correspondence burden, and performs literally dozens of other functions which cannot be here enumerated. The office staff consists of two full time clerks, one part time stenographer, and the Executive Secretary.

An item in the fraternity's budget which is of considerable moment is that of chapter supplies. Pledge questionnaires, initiation reports, rushing booklets, match book covers, identification badges, membership cards, Constitutions & By-Laws, and many other forms are supplied to the chapters at no charge.

The fraternity, of course, sustains many other functions which cost money, such as receptions for members attending the annual American Bar Convention and the American Association of Law Schools, a series of awards for outstanding PAD chapters, etc.

None of the elective officers of the fraternity receive any monetary compensation whatsoever. In fact only one member of the fraternity receives any compensation at all and he is the Executive Secretary. At the present time we have seven men who comprise the Supreme Executive Board. These men believe so strongly in the purposes, principles, ideals and benefits of PAD that they collectively sacrifice literally thousands of dollars worth of their time annually for the opportunity of serving as national officers of PAD. These men are of the highest caliber and enjoy the highest regard of their fellow attorneys. If they had joined PAD only for the material benefits which might be theirs while attending law school, they would have ceased their active participation in fraternity activities many, many years ago.

If one considers membership in PAD only for the benefits which it can offer while in law school, he is overlooking the greatest advantages of a professional fraternity. The friendships and associations which are formed in law school will endure throughout one's professional career.

Many law students who will consider membership in PAD are members of social fraternities. While I treasure my membership in my social fraternity very much, I can honestly say that it does not offer me any benefits which can even compare with those which are mine through PAD and I believe that you will agree that the same is true of all social fraternities. However, I know of few, if any, social fraternities, whose national initiation fee is anywhere near as low as that of PAD.

In a recent address before a District Conclave, our Supreme Treasurer, Robert E. Redding,

Denver Host to SEB

Denver, Colorado, was host to members of the Supreme Executive Board June 20-23, 1959, when it met pursuant to call of the Supreme Justice for its annual meeting. Matters of great importance to the fraternity were resolved in the four day meeting, which was probably one of the most productive in the history of Phi Alpha Delta.

Among the important issues discussed was the finalizing of the plans for the Endowment Fund enlargement program and the adoption of a life insurance program calculated to make available to members life insurance at a considerable saving.

It was determined to establish an award to be known as the Senior PAD Award, which will be given to all PADs who have been members of the fraternity for fifty years or more. Records of the fraternity are not complete in the early years of PAD, and it would therefore be appreciated if anyone knowing of a brother who qualifies for the Senior Award, would send his name and pertinent information to the Executive Secretary.

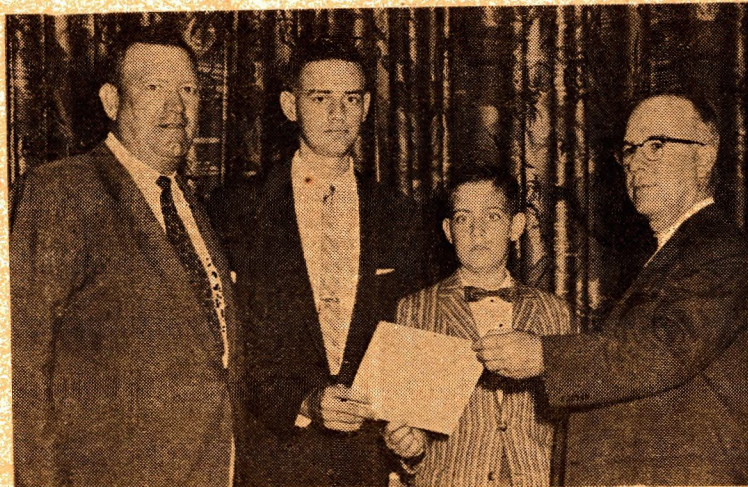

The Board formally determined to hold the 1960 National Convention in Nashville, Tennessee, with the Hermitage Hotel as the headquarters hotel. Dates for the meeting will be Wednesday Thursday and Friday, August 31, September 1 and September 2, 1960.

Other matters taken up were the revision of the Rushing Booklet, the publication of a 1960 Directory, the adoption of a budget for the fiscal year 1959-1960, the selection of the winners of the Most Outstanding PAD Chapter contest for 1959, and the adoption of an official motto of the fraternity.

stated that PAD can help one, as follows:

"First of all, it offers practical training to help bridge the gap from the academic emphasis in law school to the actual handling of clients and their problems. Secondly, it affords an opportunity to hear and meet prominent members of the government, the judiciary, and the bar who are available as a source of advice and assistance when desired. Thirdly, it puts a PAD member in a position to make an advantageous connection as he begins his legal career. Fourthly if you continue your PAD affiliation, you will come to know on a personal basis lawyers all over the country. Fifthly, as a member of PAD in an active chapter, you are beginning a lifelong association with high type men in school who some day will occupy positions of responsibility and authority."

Fraternally,

'Lawyers Should Be Patrons of Culture'

Brother John B. Pew, one of Kansas City, Missouri's most outstanding lawyers, delivered an address last May 2 under the auspices of the Missouri Bar Association and the Supreme Court of Missouri, at the enrollment ceremonies for new members, held in Jefferson City, Missouri. Brother Pew's topic was "Lawyers Should Be Patrons of Culture." The address was so timely and so well received that it has been reprinted in full in the Bar Journal of the State of Missouri and groups from all over the country have requested reprints of it.

Brother Pew feels that no educated man is in as good a position to become an outstanding patron of culture as is a lawyer. He states that tremendous returns are yours for doing this.

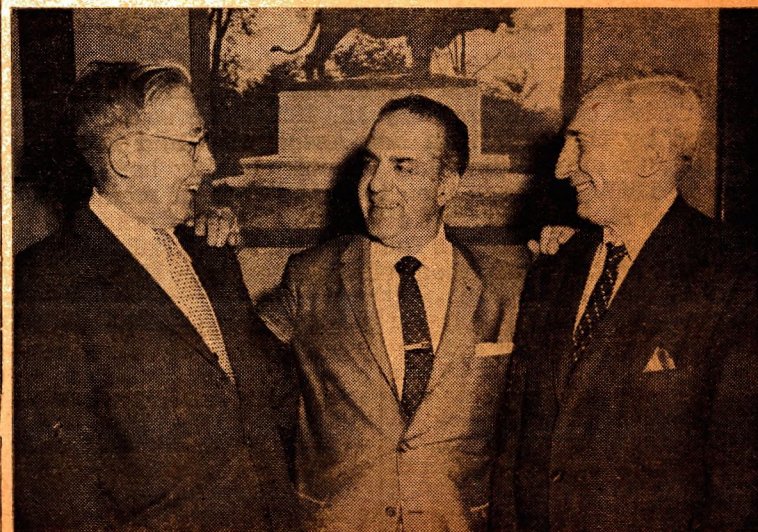

The Reporter highly commends his address for inspirational reading. Information as to obtaining reprints may be obtained from John B. Pew, 306 East 12th St., Kansas City, Missouri.

Charter Granted to Wayne State Law School

The Wayne State University School of Law, in Detroit, Michigan, was the site of the installation of PAD's 81st active chapter on May 16, 1959. The school is approved by the American Bar Association and is one of Michigan's outstanding law schools, having been organized in 1927. Nineteen men took the oath of membership in Judge N. E. Fitzgerald's Wayne County Circuit Court room. The initiation was followed by a cocktail hour and banquet at the Blue Room of the Lee Plaza Hotel.

Supreme Vice Justice Elden S. Magaw was the principal speaker at the banquet and presented the new charter to the chapter. Also in attendance was District VI Justice Stanley H. Jakala, members of the Detroit Alumni Chapter, and members of the Wayne Law School faculty.

The new chapter is named after Thomas M. Cooley, who was a Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan for some 21 years, having served for two terms as Chief Justice. He was also a well known lecturer and author.

Thomas New Fla. Chief Justice

Brother Elwyn Thomas, Past Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, has recently commenced a term as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, succeeding Chief Justice Glenn Terrell, also a PAD.

Brother Thomas was first elected to the Supreme Court in 1938 and previously filled the Chief Justice's chair in 1947-48.

He has a record of 34 years of continuous service on the bench. He served ten years on the bench of the 21st Judicial Circuit and three years as a senior Judge of the 9th Judicial Circuit.

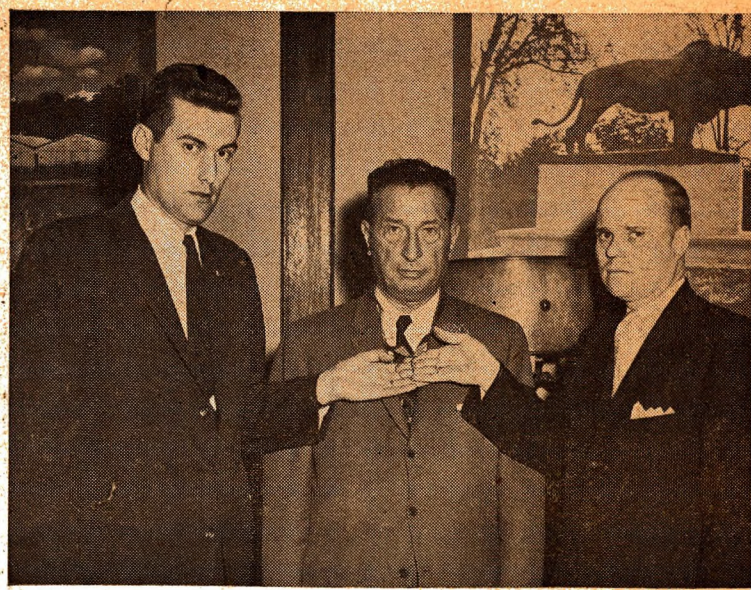

In addition to his official capacity on the bench, Chief Justice Thomas has made many contributions in the same work of judicial administration. He was the first Chairman of the Judicial Council of Florida, and is a Past Chairman of the Section of Judicial Administration of the American Bar Association.

PAD Heads Federal Bar

Brother Whitney Gilliland, a former Glenwood, Iowa, attorney was recently elected President of the Federal Bar Association. His election took place at the Association's convention in Washington, where Gilliland is Chairman of the Foreign Claims Settlement Division of the United States.

Brother Gilliland is a member of Reese Chapter at the University of Nebraska.

U. S. Customs Court Judge Initiated

At a Joint Meeting of the New York Alumni Chapter, de Bracton Chapter (St. John's) Livingston Chapter (Columbia) and Rapallo Chapter (N.Y.U.) held on April 17, 1959, Judge Paul Rao of the United States Customs Court was inducted as an honorary member of PAD. The induction ceremony was conducted by the Justice of the New York Alumni Chapter, Howard Cerny, Supreme Tribune, together with Ed Atnally, Justice of de Bracton chapter.

The new member of PAD, Judge Paul Rao, has been a member of the United States Custom Court since 1948. Prior to that time, Judge Rao was Assistant United States Attorney General in charge of the Custom Division, an Assistant District Attorney in New York County, and a successful attorney in private practice.

Judge Rao discussed the working of the Custom Court, and pointed out that this court is the only court that convenes, and moves around for the convenience of the parties, and as a sidelight he stated that the Customs Court is one of the few courts in the country where the adversaries can actually pick their day for trial. And of course, he stated, Attorneys are treated with the respect due to officers of the court.

In addition to the initiation of Justice Rao, the New York Alumni Chapter presented its annual award to the member of Livingston, de Bracton, and Rapallo chapters who received the highest academic rating in his school for the prior year. The winners were: Livingston—Brother Emanuel M. Kaufman, who was awarded "Selected Readings on Conflicts of Laws as compiled by the American Association of Law Schools"; Rapallo—Brother David Sidikman who was awarded "Osborne on Mortgages," and de Bracton—Brother Norman G. Lavallee, who was awarded "Goldstein on Trial Technique." Each of the brothers received a publication of their own choice. Chairman of the awards committee was Brother Tom Constable.

Brother Constable, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of Rapallo chapter, presented the original charter for Rapallo chapter to the assembled members. One time, many years ago, Rapallo's charter was about to be suspended due to the actions of certain members and the charter was mysteriously misplaced. It was not found again until the very day of the meeting when it was discovered to be in Brother Constable's safe. The Alumni Chapter voted to arrange a special celebration in honor of the 50th anniversary of Rapallo Chapter.

He has been on the University faculty since 1946. Immediately following graduation he served a short time with a Gainesville law firm prior to entering the United States Army. Following his tour of duty with the Armed Forces he joined the Law College faculty in 1946 and became a Professor of Law in 1950.

He is a member of the Florida Bar Association, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Order of the Coif, and Pi Kappa Phi.

ALA. SUPREME COURT JUSTICE INITIATED—Supreme Marshal T. Julian Skinner, Jr., presents the Certificate of Honorary Membership to Alabama Supreme Court Associate Justice Pelham J. Merrill at Law Day ceremonies at the University of Alabama.

Ala. Justice Becomes Honorary Member

This year at the University of Alabama, Law Day was held on May 1st in connection with Law Day U.S.A. On this occasion Morgan Chapter held its annual luncheon and in all probability this year's luncheon surpassed all previous efforts.

First of all Morgan Chapter was honored by having in attendance at its luncheon all of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Alabama.

The signal event of the luncheon was the initiation of Associate Justice Pelham J. Merrill of the Supreme Court of Alabama into the fraternity as an honorary member. Justice Merrill is from one of Alabama's outstanding legal and political families. He has served his state as a legislator, Member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and is now serving as a member of the Supreme Court of Alabama. Although one of the youngest members of the court Justice Merrill has gained the respect and admiration of the entire bar for his well-reasoned opinions. Morgan Chapter considers it a great honor and a privilege to have Justice Merrill join us in bonds of Phi Alpha Delta.

Morgan Chapter was also honored on this occasion in that Walter P. Gewin, chapter alumnus and State Bar President, graciously accepted an invitation to be the guest speaker. Brother Gewin spoke on the Lawyer's role in International Affairs. He stressed the fact that it is thought by many of the outstanding authorities on World Affairs that if peace is to be achieved among nations it must be through law.

The luncheon was well attended by brothers from all over the state. Included in the visiting Alumni were Bill Rabren and Edward A. Ling who are now serving as president and secretary-treasurer, respectively of the Alabama Phi Alpha Delta Alumni Chapter.

At the luncheon Morgan Chapter gave recognition to the past Justices of the chapter who will graduate in August, Hugh B. Harris, and Albert E. Ritchey. Brother B. K. Walker, a transfer from Cordell Hull chapter at Cumberland Law School, and Justice-elect of Morgan chapter, presented these two men with keys.

Justice Ritchey as his final act of office presented certificates of recognition to Bob Reid of Andalusia and to Walter P. Gewin as the outstanding active member and outstanding alumni members of Morgan chapter.

Chase Lays Plans

Chase Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta had its first meeting of the 1959-60 academic year, with Justice Robert Glaser presiding. The main project under consideration was "Rushing." To this end plans for two parties were announced; one on Friday, October 9, and one on Tuesday, October 20. Notable among the accomplishments of Phi Alpha Delta members at the University of Cincinnati Law School was the selection of John Sharpnack as Editor of The Cincinnati Law Review.

82nd Chapter Installed In South Texas College

On May 13, 1959, Phi Alpha Delta's 82nd Chapter was added to the rolls of the fraternity. The new chapter, named the Samuel Houston Chapter, consists of fifteen of the leaders of the South Texas College of Law who formerly composed the South Texas Legal Fraternity. These men, seeking to better serve their law school, after surveying other legal fraternities, determined to petition the leading national law fraternity, Phi Alpha Delta, for a charter.

The petition was approved by the Supreme Executive Board in April, 1959 and the actual installation of the chapter took place late in May.

The South Texas College of Law was established in 1923 and is located near the heart of Houston. Its downtown location offers the students an opportunity to acquaint themselves with courtroom procedures of three Justices of the Peace courts, four city corporation courts, one Domestic Relations court, two Probate Courts, four County Courts, twelve Civil District Courts, three Criminal District Courts, one Court of Civil Appeals and one Federal Court, all located in downtown Houston.

The college's air conditioned library contains 11,000 volumes including books required by the Supreme Court of Texas and those recommended by the American Bar Association. The faculty consists of three full time professors and twenty-one instructors and lecturers in law selected from outstanding practicing attorneys, judges and legal counsellors for public and private concerns in and near Houston. The school enjoys accreditation by the American Bar Association.

An outstanding initiation team from Baylor Chapter of Baylor University conducted the actual initiation ceremonies. Also on hand to aid with the initiation was Brother Russell L. Miller, Professor of Law at South Texas, a very enthusiastic PAD from the University of Iowa.

Supreme Historian Dee Brown Walker represented the Supreme Executive Board at the installation, presented the charter and spoke at the banquet which followed the initiation. He enlightened the chapter members and guests as to the history of PAD, its purpose and its many activities. He challenged the chapter to become an active member of the PAD family.

Youngest Judge Appointed

Honorary PAD Governor Stephen L. R. McNichols made Colorado judiciary history recently when he appointed Henry E. Santo (Hughes 1951) to serve as District Judge. The appointment was made pursuant to an act of the 1959 legislature designed to relieve the crowded docket in Denver. At thirty-four, Judge Santo is the youngest man ever to serve on the District bench in Colorado. Despite his youth, he brings an impressive background to the bench.

Judge Santo left private practice in 1953 to accept appointment as trial Deputy District Attorney. In 1957 he was appointed Municipal Judge. While so serving he revamped jury trial procedures and conducted more than 500 traffic trials to jury in addition to trials to the Court and other duties of the office. He was serving his second term when elevated to the District Bench.

At Denver University College of Law Judge Santo was an honor student and served as Treasurer of Hughes Chapter, Phi Alpha Delta, as a member of the College of Law Board of Governors, and on the editorial board of Dicta, the joint publication of the Denver and Colorado Bar Associations and Denver University College of Law. A scholarship graduate of Cathedral High School in Denver, where he was an outstanding football player, Judge Santo majored in accounting and received his B.S.B.A. from Denver University after World War II service in the Army.

He has been admitted to practice before the U. S. Treasury Dept., the Tax Court and the U. S. District Court and has served as a lecturer at Denver University College of Law, the Denver Police Academy and the Northwestern University-Denver University Traffic Institute. He is a member of The American Legion, Elks, Footprinters, Sons of Italy, YMCA Back-A-Boy, The Democratic Club, the Denver Bar Association, and the Colorado Bar Association.

Speakers Top Livingston Chap. Program

Last year was an active one for Livingston Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. Among the many purely social functions which were held on a somewhat informal level for the brothers and their guests, the chapter had a highly successful program of speakers throughout the school year.

Guests included former United States Attorney Herbert Brownell, who gave members some insight into the workings of the Attorney General's office. Apparently interesting aspect of Mr. Brownell's talk was the 'first-hand' account of the legal machinery which was set into motion during the Little Rock crisis in the Fall of 1958.

Judge Bernard Dubin, of the New York City Magistrates Court was both interesting and amusing in his lively discussion of the New York City court system, liberally sprinkled with anecdotes of some of the more unusual cases which have come before him.

Dean Palfrey, of Columbia University, gave a most informative talk about atomic energy and many of the legal problems which have arisen, or will arise in the future, along with the rapid development of this field.

Perhaps the most charming guest of the whole year was Miss Mary Bancroft, assistant to Allen Dulles, head of the C.I.A. Miss Bancroft spoke on "The Plot to Kill Hitler," in which both she and Mr. Dulles played an active role. In many respects, the 'feminine touch' was a refreshing change, and Miss Bancroft's personal recollections of such side-incidents as a private luncheon with Benito Mussolini in a villa high in the Swiss Alps helped to make her visit one of the high points of the year.

PAD Presides Over Criminal Appeals

Brother John C. Powell, a former Justice of Harlan Chapter at the University of Oklahoma, is presently the Presiding Judge of the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals. This court is a court of exclusive and final jurisdiction in all criminal cases. The court is one of two which has separate appellate courts for civil and criminal cases.

Although this year's speaker program is still in the planning stages, the chapter has reason to expect that it will be every bit as successful as last year's.

On the more constructive side of things, the brothers have decided, this year, to abandon the annual project of conducting guided tours of the Law Library for first-year students, in favor of a far more ambitious plan. These tours were designed to acquaint first-year men with the mysterious intricacies of the library, but since the arrangement of books in the library has recently undergone some radical changes, it was felt that this whole idea could be extended so as to be of assistance to all users of the library.

Consequently, members are now in the final stages of preparing a printed guide to the library, which is designed to help the student to locate any book in a fraction of the time it would otherwise take him to do so. The project has been hailed by the faculty, the student body and the library staff as a much-needed and extremely valuable service to the whole law school community.

All in all, the brothers are looking forward with optimism to a 'banner year' in the history of Livingston Chapter. Under the active and enthusiastic leadership of a very hard-working Justice, Hal Rothstein, it is expected that this will be a record year

PADs Active At Cornell

At a recent meeting, Woodrow Wilson Chapter elected its officers for the coming year. They are: William Roth, Justice; E. George Pazianos, Vice-Justice; Charles Simmons, Clerk; Allen Potter, Treasurer; and Oscar A. Blake, Marshall.

The installation banquet will be held at the Clinton House, Ithaca, New York on October 17, 1959. Highlighting the event will be an address by the Honorable John Van Voorhis, Associate Judge, New York Court of Appeals, who will relate some of the interesting experiences he has had in his many years on New York's highest court.

Kenneth B. Mason, Jr., District (XI) Clerk, and the retiring clerk of the Cornell Chapter, announced the selection of Woodrow Wilson Chapter as the outstanding chapter in District XI. The selection was based on the well-balanced program of professional speakers, service to the Law School, a successful rushing program, initiation of a national placement program, sponsorship of the Dean Robert S. Stevens Lecture which featured Dean Ronald Graveson, Dean of King's College, London, and also a varied social program.

The Cornell Law Quarterly Board announced the selection of four PADs to compete for the Quarterly this year. They are Phaedon Kozyris, Allen Potter, Richard Dole and John Bryant who will join Brothers William Weissburg and Kenneth Madsen on the Quarterly staff.

Interesting to note is the experience of Brothers Allan Weiss and James Durand, concentrants in the International Law area, who attended the Seminar on International Law this past summer at The Hague.

Special congratulations are in order for Brother George Henries who comes from Monrovia, Liberia. George's father, the Honorable Richard Henrici, was re-elected by a large majority as Speaker of the House of Representatives in Liberia.

Grandy New Denver Alumni Justice

Richard B. Grandy, Clerk of the Denver County Court, was recently elected Justice of the Denver Alumni Chapter. Jack H. Dwyer, Denver attorney, was named Vice Justice, and John J. Gaudio, was named Clerk.

As one of the officers' initial undertakings, a reception was staged for the Supreme Executive Board which was holding its annual meeting in Denver in June.

NEW TULSA U. PRESIDENT INSTALLED—A new President of the University of Tulsa was installed at formal ceremonies April 16, 1959. PAD Lawyer-Teacher Handwriting Expert Brother Winsor C. Moore is an Omaha attorney who has an avocation that brings him into court more frequently as a witness than a lawyer.

Since Brother Moore is a full time teacher at the Creighton University School of Law, his time for practice as a lawyer is limited. As a handwriting expert, he has made frequent trips to the witness stand.

Professor Moore, who is probably the only Nebraskan who is an expert in all phases of questioned documents, picked up this avocation while serving as a Lt. Colonel in the Army in World War II.

A number of soldiers were taking unauthorized leave by using forged passes. No handwriting expert was available to prove that the passes were forged.

Colonel Moore began studying handwriting as an avocation in his spare time. "Those spurious passes were easy to spot even with my limited experience," he said.

His initial successes whetted his interest in handwriting. After the war, he noted that there was a scarcity of qualified document experts in civilian courts.

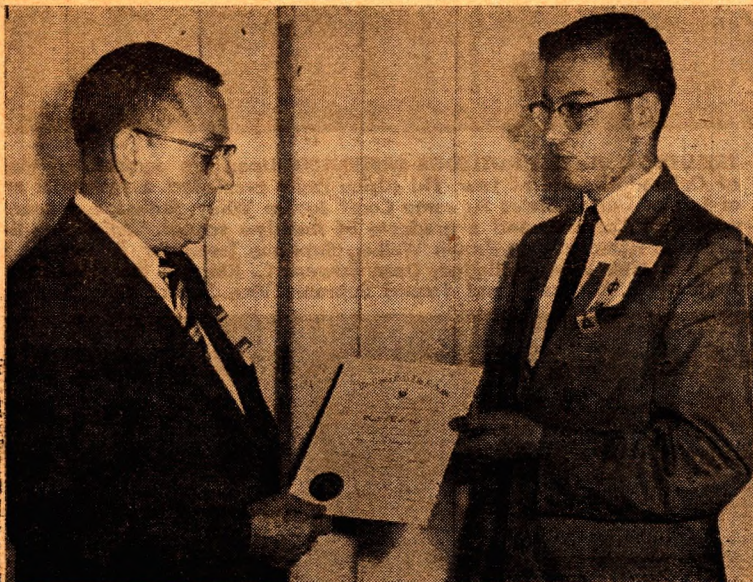

He also learned that a good man in the field had to know typewriting identification, proper aging processes, paper type and other things in order to be a handwriting sleuth. Studying various phases of the subject has taken much of his spare time for years.

He has been on the Creighton law faculty since 1946, and is a member of More Chapter at that law school. He has found that his legal training and experience as a classroom lecturer helps him in presenting his testimony clearly in court.

He has an extensive laboratory set up in his home, which is well equipped with photographic dark rooms, stereoscopic and standard microscopes and precision measuring instruments.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS—Walter P. Gewin, President of the Alabama State Bar Association, is presented a certificate by Morgan Chapter Justice Albert E. Ritchey, evidencing the fact that he was selected the outstanding alumni member of Morgan Chapter for 1959.

Past Supreme Justice Named Judge

Brother Robert D. Jackson, Past Supreme Justice of PAD, was named an Eighth District Judge for Polk County by Gov. Herschel C. Loveless, last May. Jackson has been an attorney in Des Moines, Iowa, since 1931.

Jackson is a native of Albia, attended Carsons College at Fairfield, and received his LL.B. from Drake University. He is a member of the law firm of Emmer, Lindgren, Eller & Jackson.
