Judge Holland and Dean Rasco Chairmen

To assure the success of the convention top Florida PADs have been selected to be in charge of arrangements. Co-chairmen for the host PADs will be U.S. District Judge John W. Holland and Dean Russell A. Rasco, Dean Emeritus of the University of Miami School of Law. Judge Holland is a former United States District Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, and has served on the federal bench since 1936. Dean Rasco served as Dean of the University of Miami School of Law for 22 years. General State Chairman and coordinator will be District X Justice Charles Tom Henderson, Assistant Attorney General of the State of Florida. Local Alumni Chairman will be Ralph H. Bearden, Jr., Justice of the Miami Alumni Chapter.

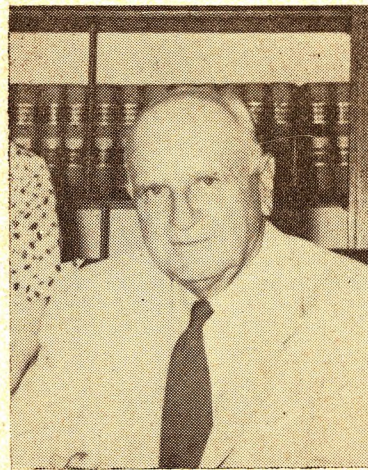

The convention hotel is one of the finest in America, with fully equipped luxury designed convention facilities. Special rates have been established with the hotel, featuring a modified American Plan, which will include breakfast and dinner.

Outstanding Entertainment

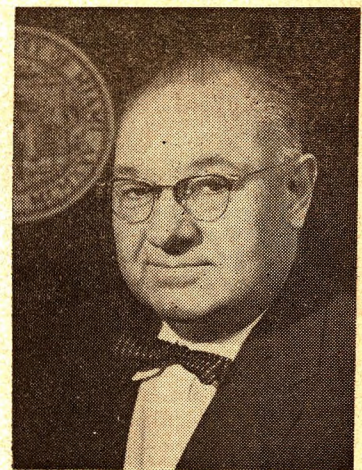

Entertainment facilities as-

Ladies Invited

All members and delegates to the 33rd Biennial Convention are especially invited to bring their wives to the convention. Special entertainment and functions are being planned for the ladies. In fact, why not take the entire family and combine a wonderful Florida vacation with the 1960 PAD Convention?

U. S. DISTRICT JUDGE JOHN W. HOLLAND AND DEAN RUSSELL A. RASCO, CONVENTION CO-CHAIRMEN

sure the enjoyment of all attending the convention. The hotel offers free green fees at two championship 18 hole golf courses, a nine hole golf course, two swimming pools, a cottage-cabana colony, the widest private hotel beach in Florida today, an indoor ice skating rink, two night clubs featuring top Broadway talent, and a complete ultra modern shopping arcade. All of the guest rooms feature built-in 21 inch TV sets, with AM-FM radio combinations, oversize bathtubs for ice water, individualized electronically controlled air conditioning, and all rooms carry either an ocean or bay view.

Of particular interest to those attending should be the "Merry Go Round of Entertainment." At the hotel nightclubs is offered planned and varied entertainment every afternoon and every evening of the entire week, at no charge to any member.

In addition, the Florida alumni are preparing an extensive agenda of entertainment for delegates and for their wives, in particular. Included will be a cocktail party, fashion show, and an afternoon cruise along the fabulous Gold Coast.

Convention Program

The 33rd biennial convention will include a District Justice Workshop, treatment of various fraternity matters by committee discussion and presentation of reports to the general convention for action, which committees will be on the Endowment Fund, Audit & Finance, Insurance Program, Placement Program, Expansion, Publications, Constitution and By-Laws, Ritual, Faculty and Alumni Relations, Professional Programs, Credentials and Resolutions.

One of the features of the convention will be an address by United States Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Alfred P. Murrah, a member of Harlan Chapter at the University of Oklahoma. Judge Murrah's son, Alfred P. Murrah, Jr., is presently a member of Harlan Chapter and Clerk of that chapter.

Each active chapter is entitled to have two delegates and two alternate delegates at the convention, while each alumni chapter is entitled to have one delegate and one alternate. As many guests as wish to attend may do so.

Each active and alumni chapter has two votes upon every question arising in convention, which may be cast only by the official delegate or delegates present. Each member of the Supreme Executive Board and each District Justice is a qualified delegate and has one vote.

The Supreme Chapter pays an expense allowance to one delegate from each active chapter which consists of the actual cost of first class railroad fare, upper berth rates, a $10.00 hotel and subsistence allowance, for each day of the convention, and a $4.00 subsistence allowance for each day of travel to and from the convention.

All chapters are reminded that in order to have their delegate or delegates seated at the convention, all financial obligations and reports must have been filed with the Executive Office.

Anyone desiring further information on the convention should write the Executive Secretary, 10718 White Oak Avenue, Granada Hills, California.

New York Alumni Hold Awards Dinner

The second annual Awards Dinner for outstanding scholastic achievements of PADs in the active chapters in the New York area, was held by the New York Alumni Chapter just prior to the Christmas holidays. The banquet was held at the New York University Faculty Club on Washington Square, in New York.

The awards were presented by Justice Nicholas Pette, of the Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Brother John Martell, of de Bracton Chapter, Joseph J. Vecchio, of Jackson Chapter, Edward H. Rabin, of Livingston Chapter, and Robert A. Kushner, of Rapallo Chapter, received law books of their own selection. Brother Tom Constable was responsible in great part for the success of the evening. He was heard to note during the evening that he didn't mind the expense of the books which were selected as prizes, but would appreciate it if in the future the award winners would select books not quite so heavy, he not being as young as he used to be.

PAD Hall of Fame

JAMES D. COONEY
Business

James D. Cooney, President of Wilson & Co., Inc., world renowned packing company, has been elected to the PAD Hall of Fame in the category of business. He is a member of Hammond Chapter at the University of Iowa.

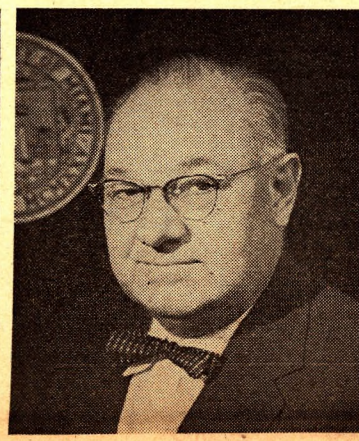

Brother Cooney is also Director of the Wilson Sporting Goods Co., the Mid-American National Bank of Chicago, and the Upper Avenue National Bank of Chicago.

He was admitted to the Iowa Bar in 1914 and entered general practice in Union, Iowa, following graduation from College. In 1916 he was elected State Prosecuting Attorney and held that post until he entered the United States Air Force in 1917. After returning from the service he was re-elected State Prosecuting Attorney in 1920. In 1922 he was appointed Judge of the District Court of the 13th Judicial District of Iowa.

He left the bench in 1926 to become Chief Counsel of Wilson & Co., Inc., of Chicago. In 1930 he was elected Vice President of the company, and in 1953 he ascended to the presidency of the company.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, the Economic Club of Chicago, and the Chicago Club.

(Nominations to the PAD Hall of Fame will be welcomed by the Executive Secretary and may be made by any member simply by writing: Executive Secretary, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, 10718 White Oak Avenue, Granada Hills, California. Detailed biographical information about nominees will assist in selection.)

RUSSELL A. RASCO
Legal Education

Russell A. Rasco, the Dean Emeritus and Professor of Law at the University of Miami School of Law in Coral Gables, is the most recent selection to the PAD Hall of Fame in the category of Legal Education. Brother Rasco is a member of Brewer Chapter at Stetson University.

He served as Dean of the University of Miami Law School for 22 years, from 1935 to 1957. Since that time he has been Dean Emeritus and Professor of Law.

He is a graduate of Stetson University, where he obtained his LL.B. in 1922 and his LL.D. in 1942. Following his admission to the bar he engaged in private practice for a number of years until becoming an instructor at the University of Miami Law School. Prior to becoming Dean he held the position of Acting Dean for four years.

He was State Director of the War Manpower Commission for Florida from 1943 to 1945, Chairman of the Florida Veterans' Service Committee in 1944 and 1945, Compliance Commissioner, Civilian Production Administration during World War II, and an Arbitrator on the War Labor Board.

Dean Rasco is beloved by members of the bar throughout the State of Florida and by PADs, in particular.

JOSEPH E. DAILY
Judicial

Elected to the PAD Hall of Fame in the category of Judicial, is Justice Joseph E. Daily of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois. Brother Daily became a member of Phi Alpha Delta through Magruder Chapter while attending the University of Illinois. He took his senior year of law at Yale University Law School where he assisted in organizing Calhoun Chapter and served as the first Justice of that chapter. He graduated from Yale cum laude, and was elected to the Order of the Coif. He was elected to the Illinois Supreme Court in 1948 and served as its Chief Justice in 1951-52 and 1958-59.

After graduation from law school he engaged in private practice in Peoria, Illinois, until 1926, when he was elected Judge of the Circuit Court for the Tenth Circuit of Illinois, where he served until his election to the Supreme Court.

He holds two LL.D. degrees, one from John Marshall Law School and one from Bradley University.

Brother Daily's political record is somewhat unique in Illinois. He has been elected and re-elected to the Circuit and Supreme benches since 1926 and only once has had an election day opposition. He is the senior on the High court in point of service.

NOW AMOUNTS UP TO $20,000 AVAILABLE UNDER THE PAD LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

TO PROVIDE

PARTNERSHIP PROTECTION — ESTATE PRESERVATION — FAMILY PROTECTION

The enthusiastic response to the recently offered PAD Life Insurance Plan has resulted in literally hundreds of applications. Many members have asked for an additional unit of coverage equal to that they now have. Therefore, in cooperation with the insurer we are now able to offer PAD members DOUBLE the amounts formerly available.

THE SCHEDULE OF INSURANCE NOW OFFERED IS:

PLAN A
Your Age At Death	$100 Annually		For Your Family
	$52 Semi-Annually
	Life Insurance	If Death Is Accidental	$10 Annually $5.25 Semi-Annually

DISTRICT IX CONCLAVE DIGNITARIES—Posing for the Reporter are some of the many dignitaries attending the District IX Conclave April 8-9, 1960, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Seated, left to right, Dean Roscoe L. Barr, of the University of Cincinnati School of Law; Hon. Charles V. Weber; Presiding Judge Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, and the founder of Chase Chapter; Hon. John W. Peck, Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, banquet speaker; and Dean Raymond Hutchens, of the Chase College School of Law. Standing, left to right: Robert B. Glaser, Conclave Chairman; Harry McIlwain, banquet Toastmaster; Clair Paulson, Justice, Coke Chapter; Supreme Vice Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia; District IX Justice James L. Broz, Jr.; Dick Leist; and Ed Hopping.

District IX Convenes in Cincinnati

The annual District IX Conclave was held April 8-9, 1960, in Cincinnati, Ohio, at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. Official host was Chase Chapter at the University of Cincinnati. The Conclave got under way on Friday evening with registration and a reception. In attendance were Supreme Vice Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia, and District Justice James L. Broz, Jr.

The call to order was given at 9 o'clock a.m. on Saturday, April 9, by Brother Broz. Dean Roscoe L. Barrow, of the University of Cincinnati College of Law, and Dean Raymond Hutchens, of Chase College School of Law, welcomed the delegates to the Conclave. Extending words of greeting from the Supreme Executive Board was Supreme Vice Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia. Group discussions of a stimulating and formative nature took up the balance of the morning.

The luncheon was held in the Sidewalk Cafe, with Brother Daniel B. Boone, of the Louisville Bar speaking on Active-Alumni Relations.

Discussions on various Conclave matters took most of the rest of the afternoon. The election of new District officers also was held and the following brothers were elected to the offices indicated: Justice, Clair Paulson; Vice Justice, Dick Leist; Clerk, Warren Raymond; Treasurer, Edwin Hopping.

Coke Chapter, at the University of Toledo School of Law, PAD's newest chapter, was honored by being selected as host chapter for the 1961 Conclave.

Hoffman Chapter, at Chase College of Law, conducted its annual initiation as part of the Conclave activities. The following men were initiated: T. A. Chappoulo, William L. Keener, David T. Moore, Donald C. Moore, Ronald M. Ott, Russell W. Renner, G. Kent Stearns, Eugene W. Jacobs, Jerry R. Jung, Thomas C. Smith, Ronald J. Vitello, and Joseph F. Weinle.

Highlight of the Conclave was the Conclave banquet, which saw 168 in attendance. Brother Harry McIlwaine, of the Cincinnati bar, served most capably as Toastmaster and speaker of the evening was the Hon. John W. Peck, Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court. Many outstanding alumni were in attendance, including Dean Raymond Hutchens, of Chase College of Law, Professor Frederick Mebs, who was awarded the Outstanding Alumni key, Brother Charles Weber, a founder of Chase Chapter, and Wayne Wilke, who was awarded a Past Justice key from Hoffman Chapter.

Hardy Chapter to Host Conclave

A group of eighty-four members, pledges and alumni and their wives, attended the annual awards banquet for Hardy Chapter held March 26 at a Tulsa supper club. Presenting awards to past Justice John Harlin, Ted Gibson and District Justice Milton Hardy of Tulsa were newly elected Justice Peter Bradford and Vice-Justice Tom Crewson.

The Chapter is currently completing plans for the District VIII conclave to be held in Tulsa on June 11th. Early registrations indicate that at least 20 delegates will be in attendance for the two day meeting, in addition to the members of the host chapter.

Highlighting the conclave will be the formation of a district placement and information bureau from which graduating PADs can receive a varied indication of opportunities for them in all large cities of the district. Another feature of the meeting will be the formal initiation of thirteen pledges of Hardy Chapter by an initiation team composed of delegates from the various chapters in attendance. The election of district officers by the delegates is expected to provide the organization to implement the placement program and to promote more effective communication between the chapters in the VIIIth District.

At the Student Bar Association Awards Banquet, April 23rd, in connection with the observance of Law Day by Tulsa University, the Hardy Chapter will present a special award to a faculty member for his outstanding service to the law school. In inaugurating this award the chapter intends to establish a permanent trophy on which the recipients' names will be inscribed. The award this year will be made to a faculty member who has contributed greatly to the establishment and growth of the moot court program at Tulsa University.

PAD New CAB Chief

President Eisenhower recently announced his selection of a new chairman for the Civil Aeronautics Board. He is Brother Whitney Gilliland, a member of Reese Chapter and a CAB member since last November.

San Diego Alumni Honor Randall

The San Diego Alumni Chapter held an informal reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Randall, President of the American Bar Association, on April 2. Brother Randall was in San Diego for the purpose of addressing the American College of Trial Lawyers assembled at the Hotel Del Coronado for its annual convention.

About 24 PADs and their wives, and several members of the PAD Law Club of California Western University Law School were present.

Prominent members of the San Diego Alumni Chapter present were Judge James C. Toothaker of the Superior Court; John J. Erwin, formerly Deputy Mayor of Los Angeles and now practicing in La Jolla; Lee Knutson, Assistant Trust Officer, First National Bank; Jim Bear, National City attorney and candidate for the State Assembly; Captain David W. Hardin, USN (Ret.), now San Diego Attorney; Darwin Olson, Assistant Counsel, Land Title Insurance Co.; and John Justin McCarthy, La Jolla attorney and Justice of the San Diego Alumni Chapter.

Houston Chapter Presents Awards

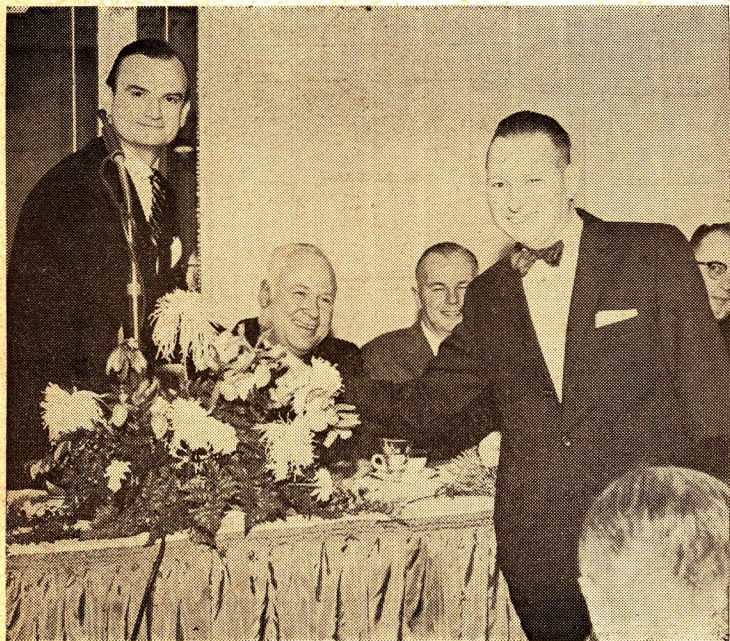

Three awards were presented recently by the South Houston Chapter, South Texas College of Law in Houston. The Samuel Houston Award was established to stimulate service and interest in Chapter activity and is given to a brother other than a retiring Officer. The recipient is chosen by a committee of the retiring officers. At the recent awards banquet, Edward Dowell Peterson, a Charter member and founder of the local Houston Chapter, was presented this award.

The second award was established to recognize the brother who acquired the highest grade average. This year the Samuel Houston Scholastic Award was presented to M. B. Merrill, who also happens to be the new incoming Justice of the Chapter.

The third award was an award given to the Outstanding Active PAD and sponsored by the Supreme Chapter. The Samuel Houston Chapter outgoing Justice, Ray Judice, was the recipient of this award. He was selected by ballot of active members of the Chapter.

The Rams Club in Houston was the scene of the annual awards banquet. An excellent turnout of brothers and their wives welcomed the newly initiated pledge class. The new Samuel Houston Pledges had a full day, being initiated in the afternoon and attending the awards banquet that evening held in their honor. Mr. Frank Briscoe, Asst. District Attorney spoke to the group.

AWARD RECIPIENTS—Shown above are recipients of two awards presented by Samuel Houston Chapter. To the left is Charles Ray Judice, who was selected the Most Outstanding Active and received a certificate from the Supreme Chapter. To the right is Edward Dowell Peterson, a charter member and founder of the local Houston Chapter, who received the Samuel Houston Award for stimulating service and interest in the chapter's activities.

WILLIAM H. STANLEY

Wrigley Co. Executive Dies

Brother William H. Stanley, for many years vice-president and secretary of the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company, Chicago chewing gum manufacturers, died in Chicago on December 2, 1959, at the age of 79. Following his retirement as an officer of the Wrigley Company after thirty-eight years of service, Brother Stanley continued as a member of the board of directors of the company until the time of his death.

Born in Scotland, he left school and went to work to help support his father's family at the age of fourteen. At sixteen he obtained a job as a clerk in Paris, later worked for the Hamburg-American Line. As a cruise director for the steamship line he came to the attention of the late William Wrigley Jr., founder of the chewing gum company, when the latter was on a world cruise with his family.

This meeting led to a business relationship which began when Mr. Stanley opened an office in Paris in early 1914 as agent for the Wrigley Company. When the First World War broke out, the office was closed and Mr. Stanley came to the United States to join the company at its headquarters office in Chicago.

He played an important part in the development of the Wrigley export and foreign business, pioneering the distribution of its product in many countries. In 1916 he was elected secretary of the company and was named to the additional office of vice-president in 1925. He was elected to the board of directors that same year.

Mr. Stanley began studying law in the night school division of De Paul University a couple of years before his retirement from the Wrigley Company. When he retired at age 72 he became a daytime student, and in 1954 he fulfilled a lifelong ambition when, at 75, he received his bachelor of laws degree from De Paul. He was a member of Story Chapter at De Paul University.

Chase Initiates 25

Twenty-five University of Cincinnati law students were initiated into Chase Chapter in ceremonies at the Hamilton County (Cincinnati) Courthouse on March 11.

Afterwards, the new initiates were guests of the chapter at a banquet. Speaker for the evening was Cincinnati patent attorney John Melville, whose son Charles was among the new initiates.

Outgoing Justice Bob Glaser, who was presented a key by the chapter, spoke briefly on the plans for the District 9 Conclave, April 8-9, in Cincinnati.

Ed Hopping was elected Justice at a meeting preceding the banquet.

ALUMNI AND DELEGATES POSE FOR THE REPORTER DURING DISTRICTS II AND III CONCLAVE HELD APRIL 1 AND 2, 1960.

Bay City Welcomes Districts II & III Conclave

The Bay City of San Francisco welcomed delegates to the Districts II and III Conclave on April 1 and 2 with beautiful weather and warm hospitality. The first event on the agenda was the traditional reception which saw brothers from northern and southern California fast become acquainted.

Presiding at the initial business session on Saturday was District II Vice Justice Joseph Desmond of Matt I. Sullivan Chapter. Brother Desmond introduced the national and district officers present. Representing the Supreme Chapter were Frank E. Gray, Supreme Secretary, Fredrick J. Weitkamp, Executive Secretary, and Matthew S. Rae, Jr., National Placement Director. District III was represented by its Justice, Henry C. Rohr, and District II was represented by its Justice, William F. Worthington. District student officers present were Joseph Desmond, Vice Justice of District II, Raymond David, Vice Justice of District III, and Jeremy T. Harrison, Clerk for the combined Districts.

Brother Desmond introduced Philip Anderlini, Justice of Matt Sullivan Chapter, who presided as Chairman over the morning session. He introduced the first speaker of the day, the Honorable Burnham Emerson, President of the California State Bar. Mr. Emerson commented on the State Bar examination, its objectives and the method by which questions are chosen, read, corrected and finally graded by the Bar Examiners. He extended some valuable advice as to methods of preparation and discussed the advisability of law review courses and the importance of proper physical and mental rest before actually taking the examination.

The second speaker of the morning was Arlo E. Smith, Deputy Attorney General of the State of California, whose topic was the Government Attorney. Mr. Smith first discussed the fields of endeavor as a government attorney and then outlined the matters with which he has had to deal in the Criminal Division of the Attorney General's Office in recent weeks. He discussed the function of the government attorney as a lawyer, advising and advocating and the similarity and dissimilarity of these functions with the private practitioner.

Speaking on "Starting a Private Practice" was Brother Alden McClellan. Brother McClellan, with a fine sense of humor, traced the development of one's own private practice. He stated that commencing a private practice is a challenge but a challenge well worth the reward.

Speaking on the subject, "The Corporation Counsel" was Grant Stanwood, Excise Tax Counsel of Standard Oil Co. He extended advice on what a young attorney should look for if he is considering employment in a corporation and the advantages of such employment. The security offered by the corporation and the unlimited opportunities to expand in local or international work were discussed by Mr. Stanwood as some of the benefits to be gained from such work.

Final speaker of the morning session was E. D. Maloney, Vice President of the Pacific Telephone Co. Mr. Maloney is a law school graduate and a member of the bar but has never practiced law. His subject was "The Lawyer in Business." He demonstrated the value of his legal education even though he does not practice law as such. He stressed that it is most important for the business man of today to be able to make good concise analyses of the many problems he must face every day. This ability, he stated, is a talent of the lawyer and one of the most important by-products of a good legal education. The man with a legal education in business is better able to recognize his legal problems. He is better able to understand the advice of a lawyer when such counsel is sought and he is a better administrator, stated Mr. Maloney.

The Conclave luncheon was held in the Crystal Room of the Whitcomb Hotel. Marvin Kaplin, Justice of Holmes Chapter at Stanford University, served capably as Toastmaster.

The afternoon session of the Conclave opened with Brother Richard E. Ratcliff, Justice of Field Chapter, presiding as Chairman. First to be introduced was Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray. He spoke on the fraternity in general and discussed the national convention to be held in Miami Beach, Florida, later this year. Brother Gray also discussed briefly the tremendous growth of PAD in the last decade.

Next speaker of the afternoon was Executive Secretary Fredrick J. Weitkamp, who emphasized some of the many firsts for PAD, such as the new insurance program, the holding of Conclaves, and the distribution of The Reporter, our quarterly publication, to all members of the fraternity without a subscription fee.

Of particular interest to those assembled was the discussion conducted by Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae, Jr., National Placement Director. Brother Rae discussed part time jobs during school and during the summer, and jobs upon graduation. He advised that each person should have some idea as to what type of employment or practice he is interested in so that as a prospective employee placement can be more easily effected. He explained that it is difficult to gather statistics as to how many men actually have been placed through the fraternity because it is well nigh impossible to determine what leads and opportunities have actually been consummated through the direct or indirect efforts of PADs. He suggested that upon graduation each individual should prepare a personal resume for presentation to any prospective employer.

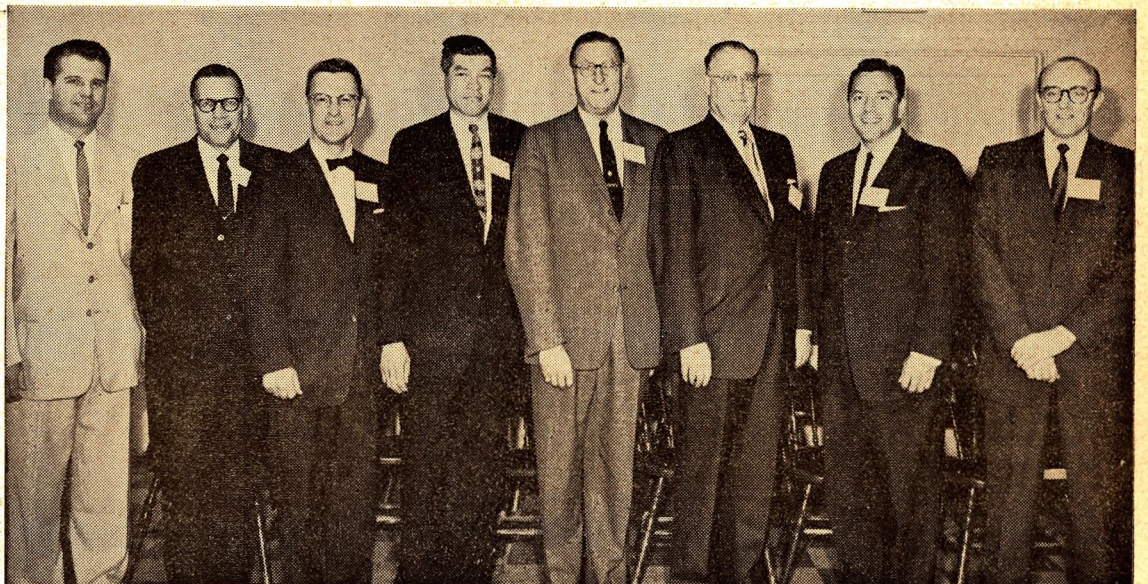

He then discussed the project executed by Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California in 1959, whereby personal resumes of chapter members were sent to all PAD alumni in the state. A general discussion was had on the monetary and other practical problems of the placement program. As the result of the spirited discussion, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, that Districts II and III request the Supreme Executive Board to appoint a Placement Committee to study the possibilities of expansion of national placement activities; that all chapters and Districts be invited to submit placement programs and ideas to the committee for study and recommendation to the convention; that a recommendation be made to the convention of a local area program deserving of national support, both financially and otherwise."

The last item of business of the Conclave was the election of student officers for the coming year. The following were elected: District III Vice Justice, Joe Agapay (Ross); District II Vice Justice Robert Lancefield (Holmes); Clerk, District II and III, Richard Kalustian (Ford); Treasurer, Districts II and III, Richard Brand (Ford).

The Conclave banquet was held in the Vista Room atop the Whitcomb Hotel where a very beautiful view of the City of San Francisco was had. Toastmaster for the evening was Ted Wentworth, Justice of Temple Chapter, and after dinner speaker was Harned Pettus Hoose, well known PAD Beverly Hills attorney, who amused and entertained with his humorous anecdotes and stories. These festivities brought a close to the tenth annual Conclave of Districts II and III of PAD.

DISTRICT X CONCLAVE COMMENTS ON MANY PROGRAMS

The District X Conclave was held in Tallahassee, Florida, March 25-26, 1960. The Conclave was called to order by Charles Tom Henderson, District Justice. After a roll call of the active chapter representatives and introductory comments by the District Justice, discussion of the topics on the Conclave Agenda was commenced, a summary of which follows:

Chapter intra activities:

1. SERVICE

A. Book Exchange:

It was recommended that in universities where the establishment of a book exchange service by PAD has not been preempted by similar activities by the student bar association, such a service could be set up in the following manner: PAD could accept used books from the sellers and issue a receipt in return. When the books had been sold, at 65% of new book price, the Seller would be given a check for the proceeds. A strict accounting system should be maintained and the program should have the approval of the dean of the law school.

B. Quiz Files:

Discussion indicated that the preparation of quiz files is a difficult program to effect, and should not be attempted unless it meets with the approval of the administration of the law school.

C. Loan Fund:

The Rasco Chapter discussed a loan fund in effect at the University of Miami. This loan fund, sponsored by PAD, is for the benefit of the entire law school, regardless of fraternity affiliation. The fund is administered through a University appointed trustee and is for the purpose of assisting worthy and needy law students.

The Fletcher Chapter described a loan fund established at the University of Florida for the purpose of assisting initiates to finance the payment of the National PAD initiation fee. Under this fund, initiates are permitted to borrow enough funds to pay initiation fees. The initiate must sign a demand note which is made payable to National PAD.

The Supreme Justice, John L. Griffith, at this time joined with the Conclave and was welcomed by the entire group.

D. Briefing for Attorneys and Part Time Employment Referral Services:

Several Chapters assist practicing attorneys in the community with legal research. The establishment of a referral service of law students as law clerks has been established on an experimental basis at Fletcher Chapter. It was recommended that the implementation of such a referral service might be a worthwhile service project by PAD.

2. PROFESSIONAL

A. Legal Aid:

Several of the Chapters have co-operated with the local bar associations in the handling of legal aid cases. In the participation in such programs the brothers have assisted the practicing attorneys assigned to such cases by interviewing witnesses, and otherwise assisting in the preparation of the case. It was recommended that Chapters not so participating in such programs investigate the possibility of doing so by contacting the appropriate officer of the local bar.

B. Moot Trials:

The Rasco Chapter reports the conduct of a moot trial each year under the auspices of PAD and with the financial assistance and sponsorship of a local law firm. The program argues before a jury, and a member of the Bench usually sits as judge. A prize is awarded to the winning counsel.

Since several schools offer a course in trial technique or practice court as a part of the curriculum, similar programs to that sponsored by Rasco Chapter have not been attempted.

C. Speakers Club:

Fish and Keener Chapters have instituted a program of public speaking patterned after the "Toastmasters Club." The purpose of this program has been to afford the brothers some opportunity to practice public speaking in the course of the regular Chapter meetings as well as at Chapter luncheons. Fletcher Chapter has in the past attempted to have periodic luncheons in which some prominent member of the local bar or of the University faculty has been invited to speak on some subject of interest to law students.

D. Law Review:

Reports from the various Chapters indicate that brother PADs have been instrumental in the publishing of the law reviews of the various universities. Several Brother PADs are acting as editor in chiefs of their respective law reviews.

E. Honor Court:

It was recommended that PAD could be of service to the honor courts of the various universities by organizing teams of defense counsel to represent accused violators of the honor system.

F. Alumni Relations:

It was recommended by Judge William F. Daniel that the Chapters could effect better alumni relations and achieve a greater measure of alumni participation in Chapter affairs by assigning alumni tasks that would give them some feeling or personal responsibility to the active Chapters. A program of talks by alumni at Chapter meetings on some specific area in which they are expert was suggested as a possible way to start such a program.

3. ADMINISTRATIVE PROBLEMS

A. Rushing:

The following techniques were suggested as ways to achieve a more effective rushing program:

1. Contact alumni early enough to have them write to prospective rushees, and then follow up these letters with personal contacts by the active Brothers.

2. Chapter should write a personal "welcome letter" to each new freshman.

It was recommended that National PAD investigate the possibility of drafting an official rushing brochure concerned with topics to be discussed during rushing.

B. Conclave Expenses:

It was recommended that the Chapters consider the establishment of a fund by way of a regular assessment of the Brothers for the purpose of providing funds to defray the expenses of future District Conclaves. Some provision for an accumulation of such funds will greatly assist the District Justice in planning and carrying out a successful Conclave.

C. District Justice Visitation:

The District Justice requested that visitations be planned at such times as will serve some real service to the Chapter, and that local alumni be invited to attend meetings or other affairs during such visitations.

Newest Chapter Forms Women's Auxiliary

P.A.D. has a function in active Chapters to develop within the individual character traits and experience which help the individual to narrow the step from law school to actual practice. The opportunities within P.A.D. to plan programs, work with committees and carry out those programs are realistic experiences from which the practicing attorney will be better equipped for a successful practice.

The right hand of the attorney is his wife and the better equipped she is from experience of organizing, helping the active Chapter in its programs, conducting meetings and working with wives and fiances of the Women's Auxiliary, the better will be her husband's professional and social life as well as a better domestic life.

Sir Edward Coke Chapter at the University of Toledo College of Law, PAD's newest chapter, has founded an active Women's Auxiliary, which is seeking to develop the members and initiate programs to assure the permanent success of the Active Chapter and the success of their husbands' later practice.

The Women's Auxiliary to Sir Edward Coke Chapter was founded in February, 1960 at the home of Mrs. John Shaffer and regular meeting dates were established for the Fourth Thursday evening of each month at the home of one of the members. Officers were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. James Bodie.
Vice President—Mrs. William Kronche.

Secretary - Treasurer — Mrs. Steve Biela.

There are nineteen wives interested in the Auxiliary to date. Seven (7) committees have been established, namely: Ways and Means; Social, Publicity; Program; Civic Enterprise; Clerical and Telephone.

Yearly dues for membership have been set at a nominal figure of $5.00 a year. Meetings are social and include a speaker with a semi-professional talk. The Auxiliary, a name chosen rather than Wives' Club, because fiances would feel freer to come, plans to have the new Dean of the University of Toledo, College of Law, Brother J. Allen Smith, speak to them shortly after his arrival in Toledo, July 1, 1960.

Honorary Membership Conferred in Denver

At a well attended banquet and dinner-dance held at the lovely Denver Club in Denver, Colorado, on April 30, Hughes Chapter conferred honorary membership upon Colorado Supreme Court Justices Edward Day and William Doyle, and County Judge David Brofman. Brofman presides over one of the largest Probate Courts in the entire country.

Presiding over the evening's festivities was Hughes Chapter Justice Thomas Playle, and administering the oath of honorary initiation was Supreme Justice John L. Griffith. The speaker for the evening was Superior Court Judge Mitchell B. Johns, who amused all assembled with his endless supply of anecdotes and stories of the courts.

Other in attendance were Executive Secretary Fredrick J. Weitkamp, Denver Alumni Justice Victor Grandy, Denver Alumni Vice Justice Jack Dwyer, and Denver Alumni Clerk John Gaudio, as well as actives from Gunter Chapter at the University of Colorado. Actives, pledges and alumni enjoyed the occasion as they danced into the wee hours of the morning.

Small But Powerful!

April 16th was the date of John L. Sullivan Chapter's Initiation Banquet. The affair was held in the Rathskeller of the Town Hall Restaurant in Clayton, a suburb of St. Louis. Four students and one faculty member were initiated as Brothers in Phi Alpha Delta. The students are Allan M. Gallup, Creve Coeur, Mo., Luvern William Phegley, St. Louis, Guy E. Reynolds, Godfrey, Illinois, and James J. Sherman, Jr., St. Louis. The faculty member is Harold I. Elbert, who practices law in St. Louis. Another faculty member, Milton Greenfield Jr., was to be initiated but was out of town.

Sullivan Chapter this year, though small in numbers, has been a fine, closely knit group. The graduating officers and members will continue to devote their time to the Chapter in order that they can help its further growth and success. We invite visiting PAD's to call on us. We'll prove our St. Louis hospitality to you!

Wisconsin Hosts District VI Conclave

On April 1 and 2, 1960, District VI held its conclave in Madison, Wisconsin, at the Edgewater Hotel. Chapters from Wisconsin, DePaul, Loyola, Marshall, Northwestern, Illinois, Valparaiso, and Wayne were in attendance. Only Michigan and Chicago were absent.

The conclave began with a beer bust on Friday night. There were approximately fifty PADs present. The next day the conclave resumed with the professional program of the meeting. Brother Harry Dodd, addressed the sixty PADs, concerning the preparation of a personal injury suit. He was followed by brother Hilmond Vogel who spoke about patent law. Then brother Anthony DiGrazia discussed the practice of the general practitioner. After the remarks of each speaker there was a great deal of questioning with informative answers provided.

Afterwards luncheon was held in one of the better restaurants of Madison with the Dean of the Wisconsin Law School as guest speaker. After the luncheon two hours was devoted to Chapter reports. Judging from the reports, Valparaiso, Illinois, Wisconsin, Northwestern, and DePaul are strong in numbers as well as in quality of the membership. On the other hand, Loyola has the problem of maintaining a membership because of the tremendous "flunk out" rate among all its students. Marshall has the problem of the night student not having sufficient time for fraternity activity while Wayne as a newly born babe is still seeking to find itself via an effective rushing program.

Saturday evening found the PADs indulging in a buffet dinner which was followed by a dance. The non-Wisconsin delegates were provided with blind dates. During this affair the 78 PADs with their dates had continued the fine spirit that was evidenced throughout the conclave.

So. Pac. Attorney Retires

Brother Richard E. Wedekind, General Attorney for the Southern Pacific, who handled legislative matters relating to transportation in the western and southwestern states served by the railroad, has recently retired after a 39 year law career.

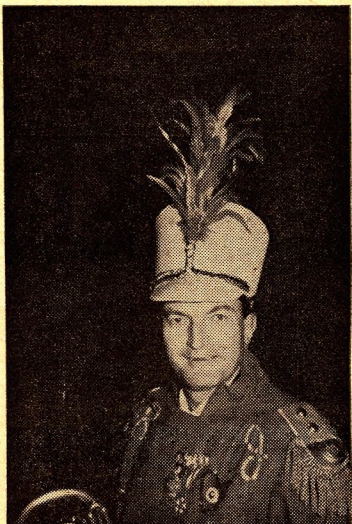

Wedekind joined Southern Pacific in 1921 following graduation from Stanford University.

He was promoted to Assistant General Attorney in 1942 and General Attorney in 1944.

He was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the California Railroad Association and has been a Director and President of Employees' Mutual Benefit Association, a rail employee group.

PAD Oldtimers Stage Fling in Gay 90's Style

It won't be the last fling but it was one of the biggest ever when the Los Angeles PAD "Oldtimers" (and the youngsters, too) gathered at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club on May 5 for an evening of Gay Nineties type entertainment and the inevitable tall stories of yesteryear. Program Chairmen were Gene Blacklock and Howard Hensley.

Just to let the more recent brothers know that there is still plenty of kick left in the earlier classes, the oldtimers presented, for special recognition, their own still very much active members, former California Supreme Court Justice Douglas L. Edmonds and Superior Court Judge Rex G. Hardy, both Past Supreme Justices of PAD. Also presented were Justice Albert Lee Stephens, Sr., Chief Judge of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, former Los Angeles County Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, and Charter Justice G. Robert Dexter.

Several of the members in attendance "cut up" with the members of the band and amused those in attendance with their costumes and musical ability (supplied by records behind stage, of course). Pictured adjacent to this story are some of the PAD "old timers."

Professional entertainers took over when imaginations tired and judgment on the "good old days" was passed with the aid of a fine banquet and nostalgic melodies.

Oil and Gas Forms to Miss Helen Hargrave, Law School Librarian. At left is Law School Dean W. Page Keeton, and at right is Service Projects Chairman John Teed, of Clark Chapter. On the table are the volumes, four in number, comprised of some 900 pages. The forms are those actually being used by some 40 major U. S. oil companies, indexed according to usage in the industry.

BENSON CHAPTER ENTERTAINS PRE-LAW STUDENTS—Shown above is part of dinner group attending a dinner given by Benson Chapter for the visiting Kansas State University Chancery Club. The Kansas State Chancery Club is an undergraduate organization at the State University formed for students who plan to attend law school.

Benson Chapter customarily entertains this group as it concludes a day long visit to Washburn School of Law. This function is undertaken as part of Benson Chapter's professional program and its purpose is to inform interested students of the advantages of attending law school at Washburn. In addition during the present school year members of Benson Chapter have presented programs for government classes from Fort Hays State College and Kansas State University. After the dinner pictured above the undergraduates were given the lowdown on law school and also problems facing the prospective students were discussed.
