New Chapter to Be Installed at U. of San Diego

A group of 30 law students from the University of San Diego School of Law recently filed a petition with the Supreme Executive Board for an active chapter charter. As the Reporter goes to press it is anticipated that the new group will be initiated and receive its official charter on the evening of May 12.

The chapter is sponsored by the San Diego Alumni Chapter, which had as its avowed purpose upon formation some three years ago, the colonization of law students both at the University of San Diego and California Western School of Law for eventual PAD chapters.

The law school, which only recently received approval from the American Bar Association, has an enrollment of approximately 170 students. Three members of the law school faculty are PADs, the Dean of the law school, Martin McManus, U.S. District Judge James M. Carter, and Major General George W. Hickman, Jr. (retired) former Judge Advocate General of the United States Army.

The San Diego Alumni Chapter held a reception for the petitioning group on the evening of Friday, April 21st. In attendance were the members of the petitioning group, Alumni Chapter Justice John J. McCarthy, Judge James M. Carter, Major General George W. Hickman, Jr., Executive Secretary Fredrick J. Weitkamp, Alumni Chapter Justice-elect Lee Knutson, National City Attorney F. James Bear, former Knox Chapter Justice Lee Estep, Quinn Hornaday, Darwin D. Olsen, and many other interested alumni.

Senator Norris Cotton Becomes Honorary Member

United States Senator Norris Cotton of New Hampshire has become an honorary member of Phi Alpha Delta. Senator Cotton was inducted into Roberts Chapter (Temple University) at the District XII Conclave in Washington February 25.

The ceremony was conducted by District XII Justice Donald R. Moore at the conclave banquet at the Shoreham Hotel. The oath was administered by Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia.

On hand to welcome the Senator into Roberts Chapter was its justice, Donald F. Copeland. He made the presentation of the honorary alumnus key.

"Old Monuments and New Boundaries" was the subject of an inspiring address by Senator Cotton following the ceremony. He said that in meeting the challenges of today, America must hold fast to those fundamental principles that made it great.

The twelve other members of the Senate who are P.A.D.'s sent messages of congratulations and welcome.

Born 60 years ago in the small farming community of Warren, New Hampshire, Senator Cotton was the son of a farmer, who, like many inhabitants of that rugged country, also found politics a fascinating avocation. Young Norris Cotton trudged through snow to and from grammar school, and worked his way through Tilton School, Phillips Exeter Academy and Wesleyan University.

His legal education he obtained at George Washington University Law School while working as secretary to Senator George H. Moses.

But his political career had already begun even before he became a lawyer. He was elected to the New Hampshire legislature at the age of 22. When only 24, he presided over his party's State convention and subsequently served as secretary of the State Committee. For 12 years he was county chairman for Grafton county and also served as delegate to two Republican national conventions.

His service from 1924 to 1928 as secretary to Senator Moses was followed by two terms as clerk of the New Hampshire State Senate.

For nearly 20 years he was engaged in active law practice in Concord and Lebanon, New Hampshire. He refers to himself as a "country lawyer" but was known as one of the leading trial lawyers in Northern New Hampshire. He served as prosecuting attorney for Grafton county for six years and also sat as Justice of the Municipal Court of Lebanon for four years.

In his later service (1943-1947) in the New Hampshire legislature, he was majority leader and chairman of the Judiciary committee and was Speaker of the House immediately before his election to Congress in 1946.

While a member of the House of Representatives, Senator Cotton served on the Committee on Agriculture for four years and on the influential Committee on Appropriations for a like period. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1954 to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Charles W. Tobey and re-elected in 1956. In the Senate he has been a member of the Public Works, Government Operations and Finance committees. He was appointed by the Vice President in 1956 as one of two Senators to serve on the bipartisan Commission on Government Security. More recently, he has served on the Judiciary committee as well as the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

Particularly noteworthy have been two of Senator Cotton's activities in his service both in the House and in the Senate. The second year he was in Washington, he began sending regular reports to his constituents. He writes them himself. These newsletters are widely read by members of Congress and newspapermen, as well as by his constituents. A national news magazine, referring to the columns Senator Cotton wrote for his home state papers, noted that he had "carved himself a special niche as the Congressional columnist with the deftest pen, a commentator with the true Will Rogers touch." His columns are often quoted nationally.

Another activity which has attracted widespread attention and acclaim is what he calls his "office hours." Every non-election year he holds sessions in court houses, city halls and selectmen's offices throughout New Hampshire, inviting his constituents by notice in the public press to come to him if they require his assistance in Washington and to give him their views on public questions. At his own expense, he takes his office staff with him to give prompt attention to case work.

Throughout his years of service as Congressman and Senator, his attendance on roll calls has been among the best in Congress. During a recent session he missed only one vote out of 123.

Senator Cotton enjoys a deserved reputation as a public speaker. He is renowned as a story teller, with a vast fund of Lincolnesque stores.

Barton to Be Deputy Transportation Secretary

Brother Frank L. Barton, a member of Taft Chapter at Georgetown University Law School, is to be appointed Deputy Under-Secretary of Commerce for Transportation. Barton has been Transportation Counsel to the Senate Inter-State and Foreign Commerce Committee.

He will serve under the Under-Secretary for Transportation, C. D. Martin, Jr., and will succeed Brandley D. Nash, who held the deputy post in the previous administration.

Message From The Supreme Justice

Supreme Justice Reports on Visitations

Thursday: Feb. 16th, 1961

By air my wife, Nelle and I left Chicago for Dallas, Texas. That evening I met with Past Supreme Justice John Griffith and Supreme Historian Dee Brown Walker, with whom I discussed Endowment Fund, 1962 Convention, and District IV matters.

Friday: February 17th, 1961

Supreme Board convened at 4:30 p.m. and adjourned at 7:30 p.m. to attend reception of the District VIII Conclave.

Saturday: February 18th, 1961

Supreme Board convened at 9:00 a.m., adjourned at 12:30 for lunch and visit to S.M.U., reconvened at 2:30 p.m. and adjourned at 6:00 p.m. to attend District V Rushing banquet and initiation of former Congressman Edward Gossett, of Dallas, Texas, as an honorary member of Taney Chapter. The Board reconvened again at 9:30 p.m. and adjourned at 1:00 a.m. It is apparent that everyone present had time for nothing but work. All Board members, including National Placement Director Richard Loewe, attended the meeting.

Shortly I will appoint committees to consider and report on the following subjects:

Revision of Declaration of Purpose.

International Expansion.

Redistricting and National Field Representative.

Method of Electing Officers.

I discussed with the Board my intention to put the members of the Board of Tribunes to work, and all agreed that certain duties should be allocated to them.

The next Board meeting will be held in St. Louis, immediately following the A.B.A. convention.

Monday, Feb. 20th, 1961

Via rented auto, I drove to the Baylor University, Baylor Chapter, and arrived at 11:00 a.m. There I was met by Dan Mayfield, Justice of Baylor Chapter, and Brother Professor Angus S. McSwain, Jr. I visited with members until 12:30. Unfortunately, I could not visit with the Dean as he was home ill. At 1:00 p.m. I had lunch with Professor McSwain, the officers of Baylor Chapter and about fifteen of its members. Although this chapter was unable to attend the Conclave, as they are on the quarterly system, it is a fine healthy chapter. I'm sure you will be greatly surprised to learn, as I was, that they give in the name of PAD, a $500.00 scholarship each year to a freshman. They expect to be able to give four scholarships. They earn this money by selling "Mums" at Homecoming. Last year they sold 1500 mums. This takes plenty of courage and work. They only have 20 members and 17 pledges, yet in addition to their scholarship program. The Student Bar president and treasurer, Editor of Case & Comments, and Law Review, are PAD's. We adjourned our lunch and meeting at 3:00 p.m. and I continued on to Austin.

5:00 p.m.—I arrived in Austin. At the hotel I was met by Robert Surovik, Justice of Tom C. Clark Chapter. At 6:30 p.m. all the officers of the chapter met me for dinner and we were together until 10:00 p.m.

Tuesday: Feb. 21st, 1961

At 10:30 a.m. I went to the University of Texas Law School and visited with Asst. Dean T. J. Gibson, as devoted a PAD as I have ever met. He introduced me to almost all the Professors in the school whether or not they were PAD's. This is a large law school—835 students—with Phi Delta Phi and the Praetors, a local fraternity, as competition. This is a healthy chapter with good leadership. The President of the Student Bar, the Yearbook Editor, Student Alumni Editor, Manager Moot Court System, Law Review Article Editor, two on staff, and 12 candidates are all PAD's. I had lunch with Dean Gibson and Professor Oberer. Professor Oberer is a Harvard graduate, he is PAD Faculty Advisor, and I was really pleased to hear Professor Oberer say he was very impressed with what PAD can do for a young lawyer. At 1:00 p.m. I met about 40 members of the chapter in a class room and talked to them about thirty minutes, with a question and answer period following. I left them about 2:15 p.m. They promised to assist in starting an alumni chapter in Austin.

I drove in a miserable rain about 160 miles to Houston. At the hotel I was met by Bill Campbell, Justice of Houston Alumni Chapter, and M. B. Merrill, Justice of Houston Chapter. As this is a night school, I met with about 30 members of the chapter and alumni chapter at the school at 6:30 p.m. All the professors were in class and therefore, I was not able to meet any of them. We were together about one hour and then the officers and four alumni members had dinner with me where we continued our discussion. This is also a healthy chapter, several of its members are C.P.A.'s and others hold very responsible positions. They sent seven men to the District VIII Conclave in Dallas. They agreed to help establish a chapter at Houston University College of Law.

Wednesday: Feb. 22nd, 1961

I went on to New Orleans by train, arriving at 6:30 p.m. I was met by the Justice, Bailey Powell, and had dinner with the chapter officers.

Thursday: Feb. 23rd, 1961

I visited Tulane University, Dean Forester, PAD Professor Charles Johnson, who recently joined the staff, and Professor Fuller who has been their faculty adviser and whom they are going to initiate Saturday, Feb. 25th, 1961.

This chapter has 41 members, and the Dean was extremely pleased with PAD activities and its members. I met about 30 PADs about 1:00 p.m. for at least one hour. I visited Loyola, which is next door, and introduced myself to Dean Papale. After talking with him for 30 minutes he said that he had no objection to a PAD chapter, although Delta Theta Phi and a local are on campus. I met Professor Richard Michael of Chicago with whom I have a personal acquaintance and I'm of the opinion that a chapter can be installed in this school.

With two members of Martin Chapter I visited Judge Viasco whose court the boys use for initiation. We talked about an alumni chapter and he said he would support any movement to start one. The boys were encouraged because they are the ones who feel the need for it.

Friday: Feb. 24th, 1961

I left New Orleans via Delta Airlines, in more rain, to Washington D.C. arriving at 7:00 p.m. This was a very interesting flight. The plane was fully occupied and among its passengers, across the aisle from me, was V.P. Lyndon Johnson, his wife and daughter, and in front of me the actor, Vincent Price. We had a rough flight, but with a tail wind made Washington in one hour 45 minutes, and reached speeds of 740 m.p.h. Wow!!

ANTHONY A. DI GRAZIA

At 9:00 p.m. I attended the District XII opening of its Conclave with a reception in the Shoreham Hotel where all the meetings were held.

At 9:00 p.m. I attended the District XII opening of its Conclave with a reception in the Shoreham Hotel where all the meetings were held.

Saturday: Feb. 25th, 1961

I had breakfast with Don Dawson, D.C. Alumni Justice, Bill Robertson, Supreme Tribune, Bob Redding, Supreme Treasurer, Don Moore, District Justice, and all the chapter justices and district officers. South Carolina was the only chapter not represented at this Conclave. For this type of attendance we must thank our able D.J., Don Moore.

At 9:00 a.m. sharp the Conclave was called to order. Not only were alumni present during the entire meeting, but also several members of the local chapters, and all the chapters attending outside of D.C. sent not less than three members. The Conclave adjourned with a dinner dance, and the initiating of Senator Norris Cotton of New Hampshire as an honorary member of Roberts Chapter.

I am of the opinion that a Program should emanate from the National which should be followed in each District, and if the D.J. wishes to add to it, fine, but there are fundamental matters which should be taken up at each Conclave, and the D.J. should see that such reports on certain subjects have been assigned some time prior to the holding of the Conclave.

Sunday: Feb. 26th, 1961

I had a pleasant visit with Dean Paul R. Dean at Georgetown University, the Student Justice and Clerk, also Brother Dean Kramer at George Washington University, Brother Professor Benson and the Student Justice, also Dean Meyers at American University and the members of our latest addition to the PAD family, namely, Brandeis Chapter; Bob Redding took me to American University and visited the Dean with me. I saw the members of Brandeis Chapter after classes. All three Deans are favorable to fraternities and proud of our chapters.

I took a train to Baltimore and visited with Dean Howell and PAD Professor Reno. I knew Professor Reno from our meeting in Urbana five years ago and he had then expressed a desire to install a chapter at Maryland. The dean is favorable toward fraternities and said PAD roster contained many of his best students. I had dinner with four or five alumni at the University Club at a dinner meeting called by Brother Howard Conoway and about 7 actives. As the chapter at Maryland graduates students we should find the alumni chapter growing.

At 10:30 p.m. I visited with (Continued on Page 7)

Escape from Reds Leads To Law Career for Pads

Eleven years ago, a 16 year old Czechoslovakian hockey player defected from the hockey team and arrived in New York with $5.00. Today, at 28, he is a promising young lawyer in Newton, Kansas, and a well known speaker.

Brother Richard Frantisek Hrdlicka (he was initiated by Benson Chapter at Washburn University) was born in Prague in 1932. His father was Secretary-Treasurer of a large surgical instrument company and had been a professional soccer player. Young Richard belonged to the Boy Scouts and in 1947 had attended the Boy Scout International Jamboree in France, where he met two Americans, with whom he thereafter maintained correspondence. These two friends passed the hat for a transportation fund for young Dick Hrdlicka, and later were to become his benefactors.

When Russian domination came in 1948, it became unbearable for the freedom loving Czech schoolboy. Many of his classmates started disappearing and leaving for other places. The communists decided that they would take a national amateur hockey team to a meet in Paris, and young Hrdlicka was selected to go.

He tells the story of how, when he arrived in France, he was one of the first ones off the plane. "I was standing at the bottom of the steps and I had the precious passport in my hand. A large crowd of passengers who had just gotten off two other planes swarmed past me. I melted into the crowd and walked with them into the terminal. Then I ran as Wes Santee never ran." He made his way to a small refugee hotel on the outskirts of Paris. "The next morning," he said, "I got up early. The team had been scheduled to play France the night before but I couldn't stand the suspense. I had to know how the team made out. I slipped down to the corner and bought a newspaper. There on the front page was the headline, '13 OUT OF 19 CZECH HOCKEY PLAYERS DISAPPEAR IN PARIS.' There had been no game."

When he arrived in Wichita, Kansas, he was not only broke but already $600.00 in debt for his airplane passage to America. The only certainty that awaited him was guaranteed tuition at Friends' University. At that time he was 16½ years old.

Today, Dick Hrdlicka is a personable, resonant voiced, thoroughly American young man. He has the bright, confident looks of one who is going places. He is a naturalized citizen now, with a two year stint in the United States Army behind him. He is a rising lawyer in the Spier, Stroberg & Sizemore.

He has recently celebrated the second anniversary of his marriage, and has made a reputation as a speaker of eloquence. In fact, he recently addressed a gathering of 1,000 midwestern Republicans.

Many will wonder how this friendly young man has traveled so far so quickly. He explains it this way. "This may sound trite, but the opportunities that have come to me could only have happened in America. I can't say enough for the generosity and helpfulness of the American people."

On his desk there stands a small, gold framed inscription propped against the stack of law books. The title is, "My Creed." The author, Dean Alfange, a New York attorney. It reads in part,

"I do not choose to be a common man. It is my right to be uncommon—if I can."

"I seek opportunity—not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the State look after me. I want to take the calculated risk, to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. All this is what it means to be an American."

At Washburn University Law School, he was Vice Justice of Benson Chapter of PAD, and Vice President of the Student Bar Association.

Orange County Alumni Organize Chapter

More than twenty Orange County, California, Alumni gathered at the Revere House in Tustin for lunch on February 22 and signed a petition for the newest Alumni Chapter in the State, to be known as the Orange Coast Alumni Chapter.

Call for the meeting was sent out by former Los Angeles Alumni Chapter Justice Arthur D. Guy, Jr. (Ross), now practicing in Santa Ana. Acting chairman of the organizational meeting was Orange County Superior Court Judge John Shea (Ford).

Orange County Alumni traditionally have participated actively in the programs of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter. Recent spectacular growth in the size of the Orange County Bar now having made an active Alumni organization within that county both possible and necessary, organizational efforts are proceeding at top speed. To assist in these efforts, a team of Los Angeles Alumni attended the luncheon meeting, including Past Supreme Justice Rex G. Hardy (Story), Supreme Secretary Henry C. Rohr (Ross), Past Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray (Ford), District III Justice Sandy Rae (Rutledge), Executive Secretary Frederick J. Weitkamp (Ross), and Los Angeles Alumni Chapter officers Wm. P. Haughton (Ross), Vice-Justice, Herbert V. Walker (Ross), Treasurer, and Bob T. Hight, (Temple-McKenna), Marshal.

Benson Chapter Pledges 39

Fired up by their second place win in National Best Chapter Competition, Benson Chapter of Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas, entered this school year with high hopes, and an ambitious rush program of forty new men for Phi Alpha Delta. Returning actives found a newly decorated Chapter house, as many brothers spent days and nights this summer tearing out walls, and encasing a newly decorated game room with polished paneling. The efforts of such brothers was typical of the enthusiasm of Benson Chapter as they entered the new school year.

Guided by past winters experience, they found that informal pledging, and rushing, was the best possible method to select new brothers for Phi Alpha Delta, and opened up the rushing season with a hamburger fry for new students during the tiring days of registration for school. Following this activity, the chapter entertained the new students on the weekend to a couples party at the chapter house, and brought the wives into the act when they gave a tea for new wives on the first Sunday afternoon preceeding the start of school.

However, they have found that most freshmen Law Students are more impressed by our "scholastic" parties, than social affairs. Thus, they put rushing on a weekly basis, having meetings weekly with faculty members, and active brothers in an attempt to facilitate the transition from undergraduate days to Law School.

The year was started off with a helpful orientation for new students, giving them instructions as to how to write a brief, how to analyze the professors, and an introduction to law school activities such as law review and moot court.

Now, the chapters top scholars are invited to aid the pledge get in tune with the times, and prepare for finals. Later in the semester, a finals party is planned in which the whole evening will be spent analyzing old finals and pointing out techniques for writing the same.

This year Benson Chapter's continuing rush program has given them 39 enthusiastic new pledges.

Phoenix to Have New Alumni Chapter

Phoenix attorneys C. J. Carlson (Knox) and his law partner, Westlyn C. Riggs (Knox) took the initiative to establish a new Alumni Chapter in Arizona, according to a front page feature story with four-column picture in the Arizona Weekly Gazette of March 14.

The Weekly Gazette, official newspaper for the City of Phoenix and County of Maricopa, continues with its report by stating that the Chapter's organizational meeting was held Saturday, March 11, at a luncheon meeting in the Cloud Club of the Guaranty Bank Building in Phoenix.

The Gazette story states:

"Henry C. Rohr, Supreme Secretary and Matthew S. Rae, Jr., District Justice, both of whom are Los Angeles practicing attorneys, met with the group who responded to mailed invitations sent out by Carlson.

"District Justice Rae outlined the objectives for forming an alumni chapter. Among the objectives, student job placement and counseling was given as being of prime importance. Supporting the programs advanced by law schools having Phi Alpha Delta chapters was second in importance. It was pointed out that the national organization will help in both of these matters, but that lack of help stemmed, primarily, from the absence of local action; that the local group must take the initiative.

"After the selection of a name for the local chapter, and the granting of a Charter by the national board, a formal dedication ceremony will be held.

"Fraternity members attending the meeting were: John A. Watson, Right of Way Agent for the City of Phoenix; Burton M. Bentley; C. J. Carlson; Harold W. Wales; James D. McGowan, President, Powell and McGowan, investment brokers; E. E. Selden, Veterans' Administration; Harold Goldman; Donald J. Bauman; Stanley A. Jerman, Referee in Bankruptcy; Westlyn C. Riggs; Jerry H. Glenn, President, State Bar of Arizona; Donald B. Shortridge; W. Roy Tribble, all of whom are of Phoenix except Bauman of Scottsdale, and Tribble of Chandler.

Tucson Alumni Chapter Organizing

Organizational efforts to establish a new Alumni Chapter in Tucson, Arizona, were commenced at a luncheon meeting held Friday, March 10, at the Pioneer Hotel, according to Robert D. Stauffer (Knox), acting chairman of the organizational committee.

The rapid growth of the Tucson Bar, and the desire to provide greater assistance to the graduating brothers from Knox Chapter at the University of Arizona School of Law located in that city were cited by Brother Stauffer as two of the principal reasons leading to the decision to petition the Supreme Executive Board for an Alumni Chapter Charter.

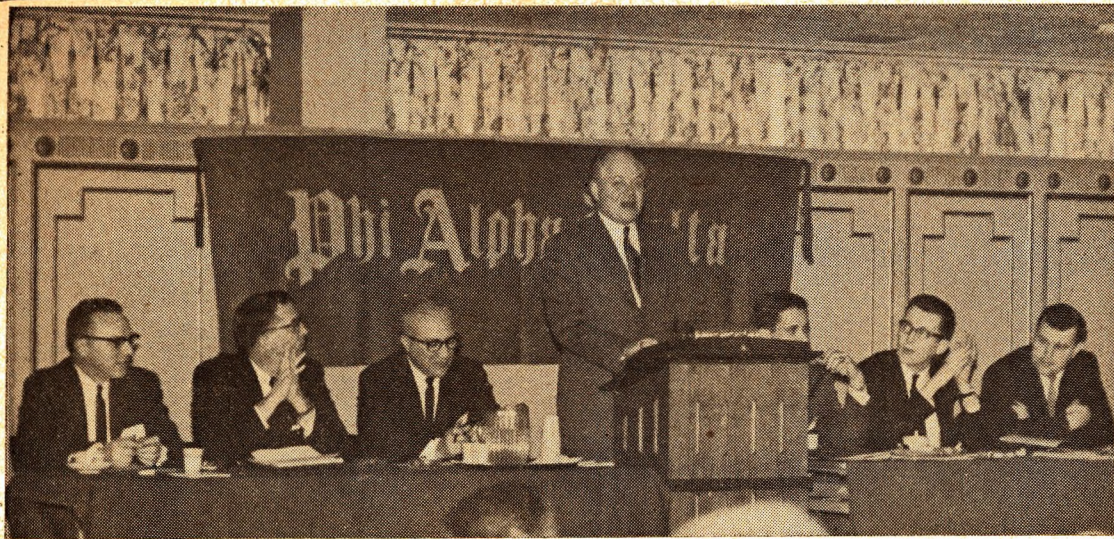

Members of the organizing committee, which is now circulating Charter petitions throughout the city, in addition to Stauffer, are Dick Duffield (Calhoun), Will Dees (Knox), Ray F. Harris (Geen), and Vince Odgers (Knox).

Visiting the organizational meeting for the purpose of discussing procedures and the goals of an Alumni Chapter were Supreme Secretary Henry C. Rohr (Ross) and District III Justice Sandy Rae (Rutledge). During the luncheon, they reported to the Alumni that Knox Chapter, as the result of one of the most successful rushing periods in its history, now clearly was the leading legal fraternity at the University of Arizona. Knox Chapter Justice Stan Lerch reported to the meeting the desire of the Chapter for a closer liaison with the Tucson alumni, and expressed the Chapter's belief that a strong Alumni Chapter would assist the Active Brothers to maintain their position of supremacy on campus.

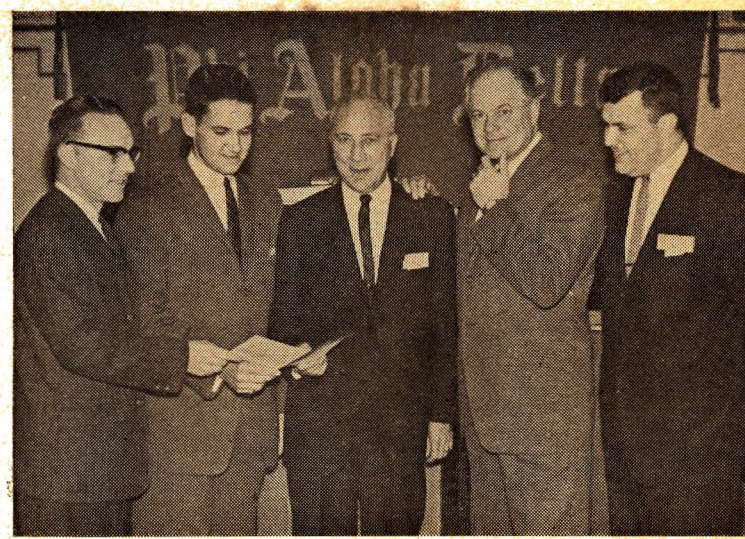

and were not present, but who have expressed an interest, included: Judge Henry S. Stevens and Judge Francis J. Donofrio, both of the Maricopa County Superior Court; Douglas O. Peterson, Benjamin Salt of Phoenix Title and Trust Co.; Robert C. Forquer; Alfred F. Baughn, Garrett Corporation; William J. Richmond, Roy R. Carson, Charles Donofrio, Jr.; Harold Jerman and Dean Estep."

Programming Featured at District XII Conclave

Discussion of professional programming, alumni relations, placement and chapter administration featured the twelfth annual conclave of District XII in Washington, D. C., February 24-25.

Other highlights included the honorary initiation of United States Senator Norris Cotton; a status report on the fraternity by Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia; and a demonstration of the P.A.D. Effective Speaking Program under the leadership of Supreme Treasurer Robert E. Redding.

District XII embraces 11 active chapters and 4 alumni chapters in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. All but one of the active chapters were represented.

Host for the conclave was Taft Chapter at Georgetown University, in cooperation with the Washington Alumni Chapter. The alumni sponsored the cocktail party preceding the closing banquet.

Timberlake Chapter at Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was selected host for the 1962 conclave.

New Officers Elected

New student officers elected include Warren R. McGraw, Timberlake Chapter, justice; Howard G. Doyle, Ruffin Chapter, vice justice; Delford P. Richey, Timberlake Chapter, clerk; Maurice O. Rhinehardt, Timberlake Chapter, treasurer; and Ronald B. Natalie, Jay Chapter, marshal.

Student District Justice McGraw later appointed Guy Possinger of Henry Chapter as Deputy Student Vice Justice.

Registration got under way Friday evening at the Shoreham Hotel. It was followed by a reception at which the delegates got acquainted.

The Saturday program began with the traditional breakfast-meeting of Chapter justices with National and District officers.

With coffee available for late-rising delegates, the opening session was called to order at 9 o'clock by Student District Justice Denis L. Nicholson of Taft Chap-

Symposium

Highlight of the morning session was a symposium devoted to a discussion of programming, chapter administration, rushing and the Ritual. Moderator was Associate Tribune William B. Robertson.

Participants included Ronald B. Natalie, Jay Chapter; H. A. "Dolph" Berry and Howard G. Doyle, Ruffin Chapter; "Pep" Fuller and Robert Montague, III, Jefferson Chapter; Thomas Wacker, Taft Chapter; Arthur Radin and Guy Possinger, Henry Chapter; Albert Figinski and Raymond Kozlowski, Darrow Chapter; Delford P. Richey and Charles Humphries, Timberlake Chapter; and Bob Groom, Wythe Chapter.

Emphasis in the discussion was on the importance of professional programs and service projects.

Effective Speaking Demonstration

An entertaining and instructive demonstration of the fraternity's Effective Speaking Program headlined the conclave luncheon. With Supreme Treasurer Redding in charge, the program was patterned after that of Toastmasters International. The surprise twist was that only one participant had any advance notice of what he was to do. Peter Suto of Taft Chapter presented a 5-minute prepared talk with a humorous theme, but the others drew their assignments as lunch began. David G. West, justice of the new Brandeis Chapter at American University, was tapped as Toastmaster and turned in a creditable performance. The program met with enthusiastic approval.

An address by the Supreme Justice opened the afternoon session. He reported that P.A.D. is in sound condition in membership, finances and professional activities.

Continuing the workshop, the conclave next turned to panel discussions of Alumni Relations and Placement.

Moderator for the Alumni Relations symposium was Richard H. C. Taylor, past justice of the Virginia State Alumni Chapter. Participants included Brother Dawson of the Washington Alumni Chapter and Brother Calley of Taft Chapter.

Joseph A. Sickles of Washington, presided over the Placement discussion. Other panelists were Carl G. Love, Ralph P. Dunn, James S. Gardiner, George Melburger, Thomas D. Phelps and Brothers Natalie and Moore.

A short business meeting followed, at which new student district officers were elected and installed.

Nearly 150 brothers and their ladies gathered for the conclave banquet. The honorary initiation of Senator Cotton was conducted by District Justice Moore, who was toastmaster at the banquet. The oath was administered by Supreme Justice DiGrazia, and the honorary alumnus key was presented by Donald F. Cope-land, Justice of Roberts Chapter at Temple University, which had extended the invitation to Senator Cotton.

Senator Cotton delivered an inspiring address on the subject, "Old Monuments and New Boundaries."

Among the alumni present at the banquet were Past Supreme Justice William S. Culbertson and Judge Bolon B. Turner of the United States Tax Court. Dean Paul Dean of Georgetown University Law School was also a guest.

Dancing to the music of Devron's orchestra wound up the festivities.

District Student Officers for the past year, besides Nicholson, were Joseph A. "Jerry" Cooke, Jay Chapter, vice justice; John Whitley, Ruffin Chapter, deputy vice justice; John Prendergast, Taft Chapter, clerk; H. C. Malone, Taft Chapter, treasurer; and Arthur Radin, Henry Chapter, marshal.

CONCLAVE SIDELIGHTS—Associate Tribune BILL ROBERTSON thought he had been framed when he was tapped for a surprise 5-minute "prepared" talk at the Toastmaster luncheon . . . BOB STONE of Jay Chapter was scheduled to make such a talk but was called out of town . . . Bill rose to the occasion nobly . . . but swore there was no such person as BOB STONE . . . that BOB REDDING was playing tricks . . . However, BILL met BOB STONE in the flesh a few nights later when Taft and Jay Chapter members, along with several alumni, helped our new Brandeis Chapter conduct its first rush party . . . Ironical twist was that Bill's talk was a ringing defense of the Democrats' New Frontier . . . and the meeting that called Bob Stone out of town was a Young Republican rally . . .

Bill told a story demonstrating the adaptability of Government employees . . . Shortly after inauguration, he said, two old-line federal employees, both of whom had been outspoken Republicans for the previous eight years, met in the hall one day . . . One commented, "Say, did you see that Ike was out hunting quail for nine hours?" . . . The other one looked at him blankly . . . "Ike who?" he asked.

Taft Chapter's PETE SUTO also injected some much-appreciated humor into his talk . . . which likewise touched on politics . . . And BOB TURNER enlivened the banquet program with one of his inimitable Arkansas stories . . .

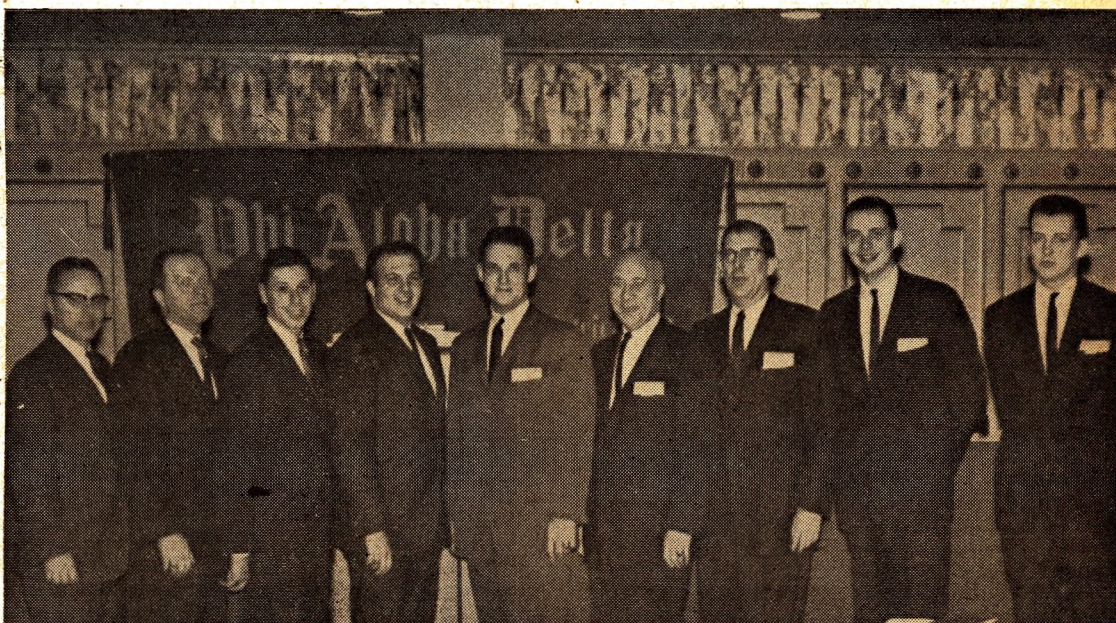

Speaking of politics, Timberlake Chapter demonstrated that the South is still adept in that department . . . The Friday night reception moved en masse to the Carolinians' suite after curfew sounded . . . There's suspicion that some electioneering might have taken place . . . But it was almost overshadowed by the loss of somebody's false teeth . . . Never did find those dentures . . . The search went on into the night . . .

TONY DIGRAZIA'S suite was like Grand Central Station Saturday night . . . Shaving . . . pre-banquet changing of clothes . . . etc. . . . And quite a few delegates found it a haven of rest . . . eventually . . .

Governor Knight Addresses Districts II and III Conclave

More than 125 Brothers and their ladies heard former California Governor Goodwin J. Knight (Holmes) extol the importance of the rule of law in the preservation of a free society and deplore the recent tendency of appellate courts to substitute personal ideology and untried theories of social welfare in place of the historical principle of stare decisis in a spectacular climax to the annual joint Districts 2 and 3 Conclave at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles on Saturday evening, March 25.

In addition to Brother Knight's principal address at the closing dinner-dance of the Conclave, the assembled Brothers and guests applauded the presentation of Senior PAD Awards in honor of more than fifty years of membership and activity in the Fraternity to Loyola Law School Professor Walter H. Cook (Hay), Los Angeles County Superior Court Judges Rex G. Hardy (Story) and Joseph W. Vickers (Holmes), and to G. R. Dexter (Calhoun-Ross) and Clinton F. Secombe (Ross). Presentation of the awards was made on behalf of the Supreme Executive Board by Supreme Secretary Henry C. Rohr (Ross), accompanied in each instance by a representative of the Chapter with which the honoree had been closely associated. Supreme Secretary Rohr also presented, on behalf of the Conclave, to the wife of each of the award recipients an evening bag with the PAD crest. Brother Cook responded on behalf of all those being honored.

Conclave activities commenced on Friday evening, March 24, at the Mona Lisa Restaurant in Los Angeles with a cocktail party for the student Brothers of the eight Active Chapters in the two Districts sponsored by the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter as host.

Keynote speaker of the Conclave was Assistant Dean Murray L. Schwartz (McKenna) of the UCLA School of Law who addressed the Saturday morning Conclave session on the topic "Legal Ethics." The balance of the morning session was devoted to a chapter workshop seminar and committee meetings. Study topics during the Chapter Workshop were Rushing and Pledging Policy, Placement, Constitution, By-Laws and Ritual.

Remarks by Supreme Historian Dee Brown Walker (Taney) were the highlight of the Conclave luncheon, presided over by District III Justice Sandy Rae (Rutledge) as toastmaster. Other Conclave visitors introduced at the luncheon included District II Justice Wm. F. Worthington (Temple), District I Justice Tolbert H. McCarroll (Williams), and Past Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray.

Feature of the afternoon session was a panel on "Opportunities for the Law Graduate" under the chairmanship of Richard Loewe (Webster), National Placement Director. Panel members, and their topics, were: William C. Jennings (Ford), Assistant Secretary of Western Air Lines, Inc., discussing the role of "Corporation Counsel"; John G. Clarkson (Ryan), Division of Ad-

Stakem New Maritime Chairman

Brother Thomas E. Stakem, Jr., was recently appointed by President John F. Kennedy to the chairmanship of the Federal Maritime Board.

In the 27 years he has worked for the Federal Government, Brother Stakem has climbed the ladder of success—from a $900.00 a year job to the present $20,500.00 a year post as the head of the Maritime Board and the ex-officio Maritime Minister.

His former service includes being a special agent for the F.B.I., and chief investigator for the U. S. Maritime Commission.

Stakem, a member of Tatf Chapter at Georgetown Law School, said the Maritime Board, which deals with the nation's non military fleet, would work with Congressional investigators and the Justice Department to clean up any illegal practices in the shipping trade.

ministrative Procedure, California Department of Professional and Vocational Standards, speaking on "The Government Attorney"; Arthur B. Willis (Webster-Ford), partner in the Los Angeles firm of Willis, MacCracken & Butler, explaining the opportunities for "The Tax Specialist"; and John A. Arguelles (McKenna), partner in the Los Angeles firm of Mullendore, Peetris, Langworthy & Arguelles, reviewing the problems of "Starting a Private Practice."

While their husbands were engaged in the business of the Conclave, the ladies of the fraternity gathered in the Ambassador's Lido Patio for an afternoon tea featuring a panel discussion of the role of "The Lawyer's Wife" under the direction of Mrs. Orrin B. Evans with the assistance of Mrs. Jack R. Lovell and Mrs. Henry C. Rohr.

Toastmaster for the closing dinner-dance was Harned Pettus Hoose (Ross), Beverly Hills attorney. Joe Agapay (Ross) served as General Conclave Chairman and presided during the morning session as District III Vice-Justice. During the afternoon session Louis Caton (Ford) presided for the panel discussion, relieved by Howard Klein (McKenna), for the closing business session.

Members of the Conclave Planning Committee, in addition to Brothers Agapay and Rae, were: from Ford Chapter, Louis Caton, Jerome A. Benoit, Richard Brand (District II and III Treasurer), and Dick Kalustian (Districts II and III Clerk); from McKenna Chapter, Howard Klein, Philip Magram and Leon H. Coleman; and from Ross Chapter, Charles Gessler and Gerald A. Lane. The METROPOLITAN NEWS, Los Angeles daily legal newspaper, printed the Conclave program in the fraternity's colors of purple print with the shield in gold as a courtesy to the Conclave.

An honored visitor to the Conclave was David A. Mario from the organizational group at the University of San Diego School of Law which is preparing to petition for an Active Chapter Charter. Further evidence of the vigorous growth of District III was presented to the Conclave by the report of District Justice Sandy Rae on the organization of new groups planning to petition for Alumni Chapter Charters for Orange County to be known as the Orange Coast Alumni Chapter, and for Tucson and Phoenix, Arizona.

Supreme Board Attends District VIII Conclave

The District VIII Conclave held February 18, 1961 was also the occasion for a meeting of the Supreme Executive Board. The presence of the members of the Board stimulated interest in the Conclave and an entertaining and informative time was had by all.

Presiding at the Conclave was District VIII Justice Robert E. Lee, and in attendance were delegates from Harlan, Garland, Houston, Tom C. Clark, Hardy and Taney Chapters.

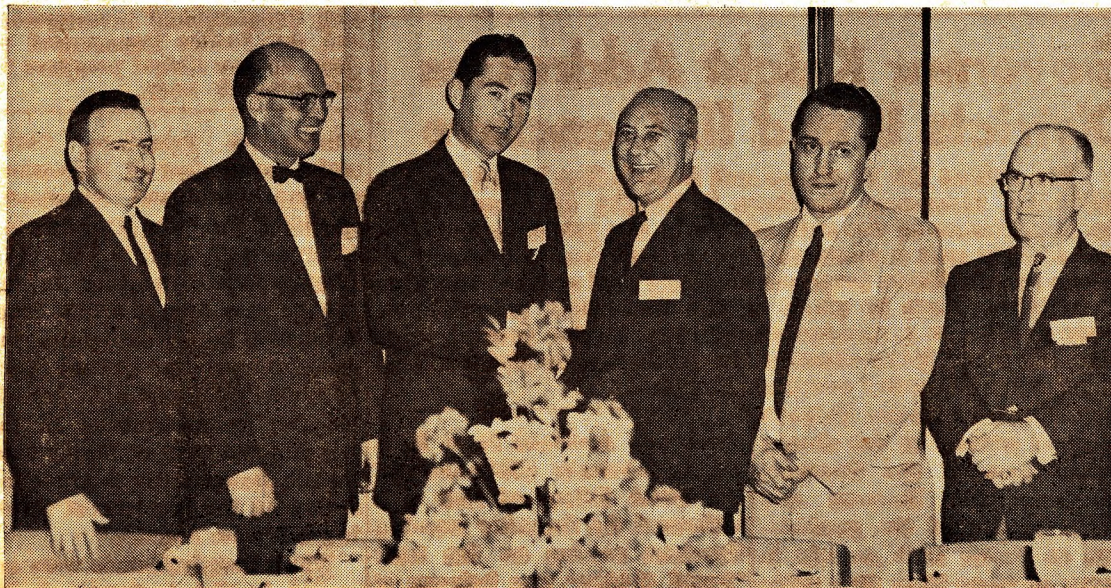

The Conclave was highlighted with a Conclave Banquet combined with a rushing banquet of Taney Chapter, which saw over 200 in attendance. Present were not only the members of the Supreme Executive Board but also many other prominent PADs, including SMU Law School Dean, J. W. Riehm, former District VIII Justice and candidate for Dallas mayor, Joseph W. Geary, honorary initiate and former Congressman Edward Gossett, who is also President of the Dallas Bar Association, Past Supreme Historian Giles Miller, and many members of the bench and bar.

Principal speaker for the evening was Supreme Vice Justice and member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeal, Alfred P. Murrah, who presented a fine address entitled "Lamps of Advocacy."

Murrah Addresses Gunter Chapter Rushing Party

Hon. Alfred P. Murrah, Chief Judge of the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals and Supreme Vice Justice of the fraternity, spoke to members of Gunter Chapter and their guests at a rush party staged by the chapter recently.

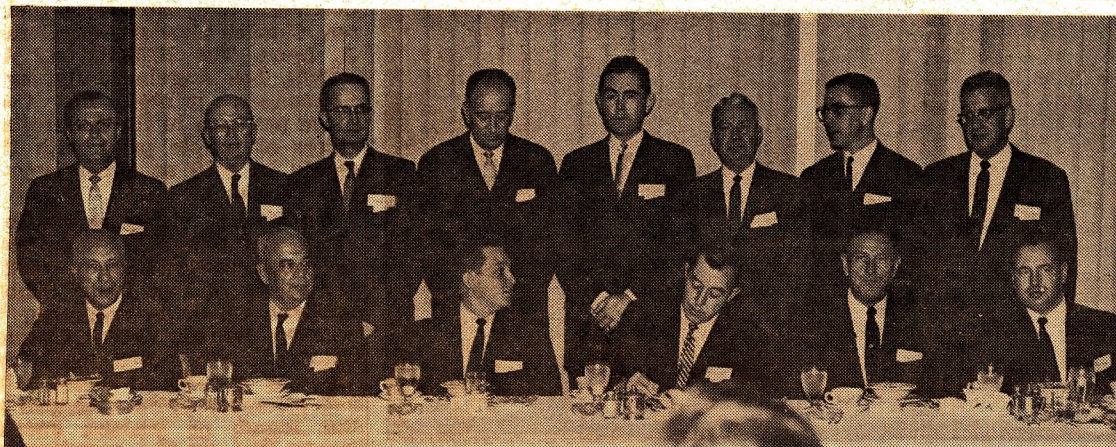

The party was held at the beautiful home of Brother Ira Rothberger. In addition to Judge Murrah, also present were other distinguished PADs in the persons of Past Supreme Justice John L. Griffith and Jack Dwyer, Justice of the Denver Alumni Chapter.

HON. TOM C. CLARK

A member of the United States Supreme Court, Associate Justice Tom C. Clark, has been elected to the PAD Hall of Fame in the category of Judicial. Brother Clark is well known to PADs throughout the country, not only for his excellent work with the court, but also because of his many enlightening and inspirational addresses before groups of PADs.

Justice Clark was admitted to the Texas bar in 1922 and was engaged in private practice for five years in Dallas, Texas. He subsequently became Cicil District Attorney of Dallis County, and was a special assistant to the Attorney General assigned to the Anti-Trust Division in the Department of Justice in 1938. He later became Chief of the West Coast offices and Chief of the War Frauds Unit of the Department of Justice. From 1945 to 1949 he served as Attorney General of the United States and was appointed to the United States Supreme Court in August of 1949.

Justice Clerk served with the 153rd Infantry of the United States Army in World War I. He is a member of the American, Texas, Dallas and Federal Bar Associations as well as the American Legion, Delta Thau Delta, the Presbyterian Church and Masonic Lodge and International Press Club.

Justice Clark has the distinction of having the PAD chapter at the University of Texas School of Law named after him.

J. BYRON McCORMICK

Brother J. Byron McCormick, former Dean of the University of Arizona School of Law, has been elected to the Hall of Fame in the category of Legal Education.

McCormick holds an LL.B. from Illinois Wesleyan University and an LL.M. from the University of Southern California, as well as an LL.D. from Illinois Wesleyan University.

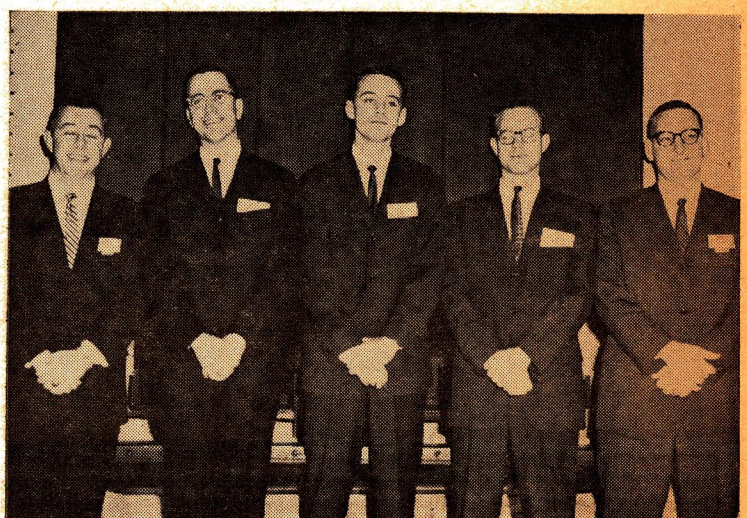

He was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1916 and practiced in that state for ten years. From 1926 to 1938 he was a Professor of Law at the University of Arizona and from 1938 to 1947 was Dean of the College of Law. Thereafter, he served four years as President of the University and later returned to the teaching of law at the same University.

Other positions he has held include member of Arizona Interstate Stream Commission, Secretary American Red Cross National Convention, member Board of Governors of American National Red Cross and member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association.

He also holds memberships in the State Bar of Arizona, the American Bar Association, Phi Kappa Phi, Kiwanis International, and the Congregational Church.

He was initiated into Stephens Chapter of PAD at Illinois Wesleyan University. This law school was later discontinued and the charter transferred to the University of San Francisco and the name changed to Matt I. Sullivan.

(Nominations to the PAD Hall of Fame may be made by any interested PAD by writing to PAD, 10718 White Oak Ave., Granada Hills, California. Biographical material should be submitted with the nomination).

seven other night school members of Darrow Chapter. We discussed some of their night and day school meeting difficulties. They had a good delegation at the Conclave in Washington D.C. This chapter will do well. I was pleased that D.J. Don Moore took the time to come to the dinner, after a hectic weekend with the Conclave.

Tuesday: Feb. 28th, 1961

I took a 9:00 a.m. train for Philadelphia and attended a luncheon well attended by members of the active and alumni. At 2:30 Supreme Vice Justice Magaw invited me to visit the law school, several PAD professors and Dean Boyer. In the evening I met some members in the night class and then spent the night at the home of Elden and Mildred Magaw. My visit to this chapter was extremely timely. Roberts Chapter is host to the Conclave April 14th and 15th. The alumni were encouraged to take active participation in the conclave.

Wednesday: March 1st, 1961

I continued by train to Newark, and was met at the station by D. J. Robert Chadwick, who had arranged a luncheon attended by officers of Jackson Chapter. The chapter has about 14 members and about one-half will graduate this year. Our chapter here started with the night school students and two years ago when the night school was low in number. After talking with Dean Turch and Asst. Dean Heckl, I found they encourage the participation of fraternities in the school even though there is a local group called the "Kings Bench." Phi Delta Phi is the only competition and they have about 22 members. The school's enrollment is increasing which will thus help support three organizations. At present PAD seniors head the Law Review and Student Bar. I visited Brother Professor Knowlton, and found he works closely with the chapter and Bob Chadwick. In the evening I had dinner with Bob Chadwick, Charles Digangi and Burt Citak, New York Alumni Justice. Burt suggested an insurance plan which might be used in initiation dues.

Thursday: March 2nd, 1961

I met with Richard Loewe, our Placement Director, who was in New York City on business. We obtained some interesting information on Placement from N.Y.U.

I never realized how much these one-night stands take out of one's system. I can only say that there is no substitute for a personal visit to our chapters, and it is well worth it when the visit is so appreciated as it was in every instance thus far. To date I have had the pleasure of visiting 27 active and 9 alumni chapters. It is my aim to visit at least one-half of all our chapters before the conclusion of my first year in office, and will make a further report of my visitations in the next issue of the Reporter.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,
ANTHONY A. DI GRAZIA
Supreme Justice

Hughes Chapter Dinner-Dance

Hughes Chapter at Denver University held an active-alumni dinner dance October 21 at the Olin Hotel at Denver. Guest speaker was Claude Bataluc who is Consul of France in Denver.

Mr. Bataluc's talk was interesting and informative analysis of the French Constitution.

In attendance were Past Supreme Justice and Mrs. John L. Griffith. Brother Griffith announced to the assembly that the 1962 Convention will be held in Denver. The announcement was met with much enthusiasm.

XII Conclave

Making a virtue out of necessity, DJ DON MOORE confessed to SENATOR COTTON and the audience that they had to borrow the honorary alumnus key presented to the Senator . . . The jeweler had not delivered the ordered key at banquet time . . . So SENATOR HILL of Alabama came to the rescue and loaned his for the ceremony . . . Symbolic of the brotherhood of P.A.D. . . . a Southern Democrat provides the key for a New England Republican to enter the doors of our chapter room . . .

To DENIS NICHELSON and his fellow-officers goes the credit for one of the best conclaves in the District XII history . . . The Carolinians of Wake Forest have a high standard to equal or excel in '62 . . .
