NATIONAL ELECTIONS SEE PADS SCORE HEAVILY

The recent National Elections assured that PAD will play an important part in forming the future course of our country. Brothers were candidates for almost every type of office ranging all the way from the highest office in the country, the Presidency, to the office of local councilman.

In one of the closest elections in the history of the United States Brother Richard M. Nixon lost to John F. Kennedy for the Presidency of these great United States. Nixon's campaign manager was a young Californian, Robert H. Finch, a member of Ross Chapter. In the Kennedy camp was PAD Edward M. Kennedy, brother of our new President.

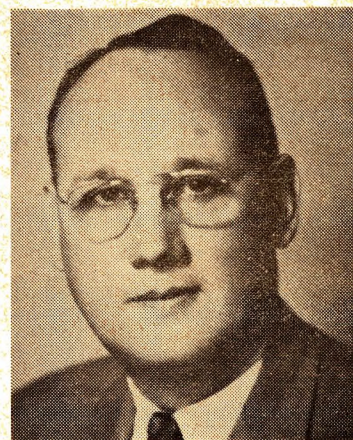

Brother Frank B. Morrison was elected Governor of the State of Nebraska and Brothers Price T. Daniel and Albert J. Rossellini were reelected governors of their respective states of Texas and Washington. Still incumbents as governor of their states are Brothers Stephen L. R. McNichols (Colorado), Robert E. Smylie (Idaho), James P. Coleman (Mississippi) and John Patterson (Alabama).

New members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States are Brothers Donald D. Clancy (Ohio), Walter L. McVey, Jr. (Kansas), Garner E. Shriver (Kansas) and Edward R. Finnegan (Illinois). Reelected to the House of Representatives and the Senate were Brothers John J. Sparkman (Alabama), Carl A. Elliott (Alabama), Kenneth A. Robert (Alabama), Ralph J. Rivers (Alaska), Ezekiel C. Gathings (Arkansas), Harlan F. Hagen (California), Craig Hosmer (California), E. Ross Adair (Indiana), Charles B. Hoeven (Iowa), Neal E. Smith (Iowa), Andrew Schoeppel

Law Professors Attend PAD Reception

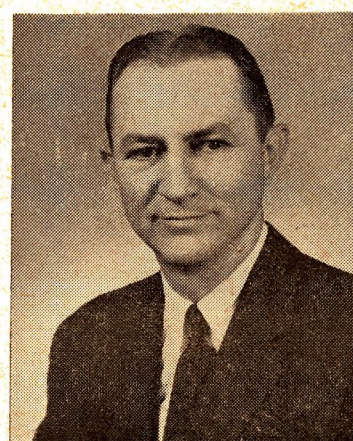

Law professors from across these United States attended the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools December 28-30, 1960, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. One of the highlights of the meeting was the annual PAD reception for members attending the meeting. Many who attended were heard to say that the fraternity reception was one of the highlights of the meeting. General Chairman of the reception was Supreme Vice Justice Elden S. Magaw, Vice Dean at Temple University School of Law.

LUCIEN DALE

Dale Appointed District V Justice

Brother Albert Lucien Dale, an attorney in Nashville, Tennessee, has been appointed Justice of District V by Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia. District V is composed of the States of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee. Brother Dale succeeds John J. Hooker, also of Nashville.

Dale attended the University of Tennessee, where he attained a BS degree in 1955, and his LL B in 1956.

He is a member of McReynolds Chapter at the University of Tennessee and served as Clerk of that chapter for two terms. He also holds memberships in Omicron Delta Kappa, the American, Tennessee and Nashville Bar Associations, and the Nashville Young Lawyers Association.

Dale was formerly associated with the law firm of Watkins, McGugin and Stewart, in Nashville, and later became Associate Counsel with the Department of Public Welfare and presently is Assistant Counsel for the Department of Insurance and Banking for the State of Tennessee.

PRESTON N. SILBAUGH

Silbaugh to Cal. S. & L. Post

Brother Preston N. Silbaugh was recently appointed Savings and Loan Commissioner for the State of California. He has been serving as the Chief Deputy Commissioner since January of 1959.

Silbaugh is a former Associate Dean and Associate Professor of Law at Stanford University Law School, where he obtained his LL.B. in 1953. He is a member of Holmes Chapter of PAD.

Brother Silbaugh was born in Stockton, California, in 1918, attended public schools in California, and was graduated from the University of Washington in 1940. He did postgraduate work in philosophy at Stanford, University of Southern California, and Queen's University in Belfast, Ireland.

During World War II he was a personnel officer of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, in California and in Ireland, and served a tour of active duty with the Marine Corps.

Message From The Supreme Justice

Our Fraternity is starting the New Year with a loud and glorious Cheer, and this is what we have to cheer about:

1. We now have 86 active chapters, the largest number in the history of the fraternity.
2. The reactivation of Reese Chapter at the University of Nebraska on November 12th, 1960.
3. The installation of Vaught Chapter at Oklahoma City University on December 3, 1960.
4. The installation of Brandeis Chapter at American University, Washington, D.C. on December 17th, 1960.

5. The largest number of Alumni ever paying dues and taking a strong interest in PAD.

6. The Endowment Fund helping more actives than ever before.

7. More members contributing to our Endowment Fund.

8. A life insurance plan which is so good other fraternities are copying it. The plan has already benefited several of our members' families.

9. More alumni chapters than ever before.

10. The 15th Edition of the PAD directory (so good that others are copying our form and using the same printer) and if you have not already received yours, it is because you must have overlooked sending your $5.00 or $3.00 dues, so why not do it today?

11. A pilot Plan on Placement for PAD, under the leadership of Richard Loewe, who started Placement in Chicago in 1948.

12. An outstanding disability income insurance plan which will be of great benefit to our members.

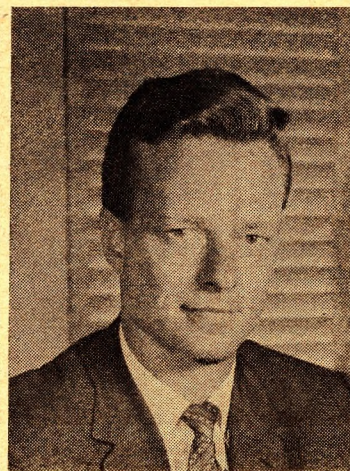

As 1961 draws to a close, I am sure that we will have more to cheer about, because in the mill, we have working, activities for new alumni and active chapters.

All this is being and has been accomplished by no one individual, but by the combined efforts of the board members, the District Justices, and dedicated PAD's all over the country. District Justices, in my opinion, are the life blood of our fraternity. However, some of the districts have become too large for one District Justice to handle, and therefore, we must look to re-districting.

Before the publication of the next issue of the Reporter, many districts will hold their Conclaves. Although these Conclaves are primarily for the actives, I cannot urge the Alumni enough to please attend and participate in these fine two-day affairs. Elsewhere in the Reporter the dates and places of the Conclaves are listed — mark your calendar now and plan to attend.

I have found, as other Supreme Officers have, that a visit from any member of the Supreme Board stimulates interest in our fraternity, and tends to get the doubtful off the fence and join the ranks of PAD. In the last four months, I have had the pleasure of visiting fourteen active and four alumni chapters.

If it is at all humanly possible, I hope to visit every chapter once during my term of office. However, if I cannot do so, our chapters can rest assured that one of the other members of the Supreme Board will pay a visit to the Chapter and Faculty within the next two years. When a District Justice or a Board member visits a chapter, there is no longer doubt in the Law School Administrator's mind that we are a National Organization interested in the welfare of the Law School as well as the Students. Chapter visitations are very important.

All through 1961 let us keep the star of PAD shining on the Student, the School, and the Profession.

May you all during the New Year enjoy health, happiness and success.

Sincerely and
fraternally yours,
Anthony A. DiGrazia
Supreme Justice

'Sandy' Rae New District III Justice

Brother Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae, known to PADs across the country, because of his devoted interest in PAD, has been appointed District III Justice. District III encompasses the southern part of California and Arizona. Sandy succeeds Henry C. "Hank" Rohr, who served as District III Justice for many years and who was elected to the Supreme Executive Board at the Miami Beach Convention.

Sandy is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa and Sigma Nu. He was a charter member of Rutledge Chapter at Duke Law School and subsequently became Justice of the chapter. He also served two years as Justice of District XII and from 1949 to 1951 was National Field Representative for the fraternity. He was National Placement Director from 1958 to 1960 and is currently the Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter. Sandy has attended every national convention since 1946.

He is the author of an outstanding work on legal fraternities, entitled: "Extracurricular Activities and the Legal Fraternities," which appeared in three Journal of Legal Education 564.

He is a former research attorney to California Supreme Court Justice Douglas L. Edmonds and is a partner in the law firm of Darling, Shattuck & Edmonds, of Los Angeles.

Oklahoma City U. Chapter Installed

PAD's third Oklahoma chapter was installed on December 3, 1960, at the Oklahoma City University Law School. This law school recently received provisional approval from the American Bar Association, and Phi Alpha Delta was the first national law fraternity to establish a chapter there.

The ceremonies took place in the Oakland Supreme Court in Oakland City. Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia and Supreme Historian Dee Brown Walker conducted the impressive ceremonies which saw 40 outstanding men take the oath of Phi Alpha Delta. Among those initiated was the Oklahoma Supreme Court Chief Justice Ben T. Williams, the chapter's advisor.

The new chapter is named for Edgar S. Vaught, retired District Judge of the Western District of Oklahoma who died in 1959. He was a well known civic and church leader in addition to being a prominent member of the bench.

A banquet at the Hillcrest Golf and Country Club followed the installation with District Justice Robert E. Lee presiding and Supreme Justice DiGrazia delivering the main address. Among dignitaries present was the dean of the law school, John Hervey, a past national president of Phi Delta Phi law fraternity.

This fine chapter was organized as Phi Delta Delta in the spring of 1958 with 15 charter members.

Reese Chapter Reactivated

One of PAD's oldest chapters, Reese Chapter at the University of Nebraska College of Law, was reactivated on November 12, 1960. Reese Chapter was originally chartered in 1915.

The formal reactivation ceremonies were presided over by Supreme Justice Anthony A. Di Grazia and the initiation ceremonies included nine new members of the fraternity at the Nebraska law school. The initiation ceremony was held in the District Court Room of Judge Paul White, in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Among the dignitaries present at the ceremonies were District Justice H. Jay Gunnels, Jr., of Kansas City; Brother Edmund O. Belsheim, Professor of Law and former Dean at Nebraska Law School; Brother Henry Grether, Professor at the University, and Brother Ron Garber, Justice of More Capter at Creighton University College of Law.

The newly initiated members are: John Ilich, Jr., Justice; William J. Gourley, Vice Justice; Charles H. Rogers, Clerk; Larry D. Knox, Treasurer; Lyle C. Winkle, Marshal; Don A. Fitch; Dennis A. Winkle; and Herb Brugh. Also initiated was Creighton University Law School Professor J. J. O'Riley.

A reception and dinner at Cotner Terrace, in Lincoln, followed the ceremonies.

The new members of PAD stated that their objective in reactivating Reese Chapter was to provide better opportunities for membership in a fraternity which stresses professionalism, thereby allowing students to Brandeis Chapter Installed in D. C.

In the spring of 1960, several men, then freshmen at the Washington College of Law of the American University, in Washington, D. C., recognized the need for a third legal fraternity at their law school—one which would better meet the needs of the students and the faculty. The school had recently announced its plans for expanding its facilities with a million dollar law center to be built on the campus.

With encouragement from the John Jay Chapter at George Washington University, these men began to interest their classmates in the formation of a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. Alumni representatives talked to the group and gave them their undivided support. Before the June recess thirteen men had been brought together and had elected a steering committee to press ahead with organizational matters.

Dean John S. Meyers of the Law School was very receptive to the plan and provided a great deal of encouragement. Professor Louis C. James, a PAD from Brewer chapter at Statson University and the group's faculty advisor, helped to spearhead the new group.

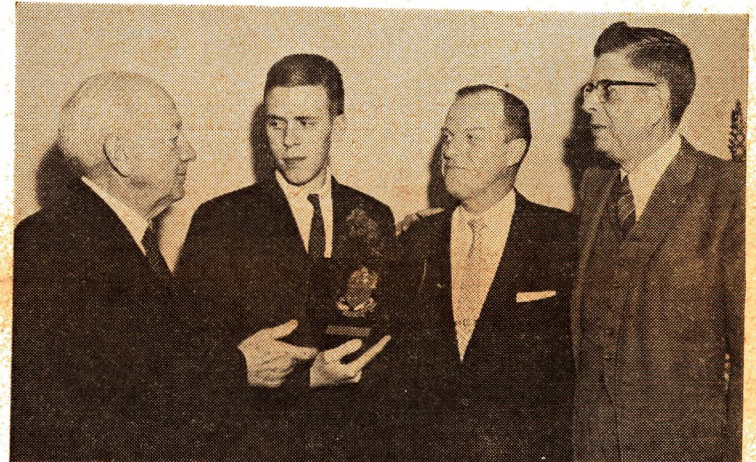

Fall came quickly and with it the resolution to petition PAD for an active chapter charter which was unanimously granted by the Supreme Executive Board. With the help of Associate Tribune William B. Robertson, District Justice Donald R. Moore and others in the D.C. area plans were quickly whipped into shape and on December 17, 1960, the formal installation of the chapter took place in the United States Court of Claims. Alumni and active members in the District of Columbia participated and helped to make the affair a distinct success. One alumnus was heard to remark, "the most impressive initiation I have ever witnessed."

1960 Convention Scratchpad

Miami Beach . . . a mere 12 hours 15 minutes from Los Angeles by that miracle of modern transportation, the jet . . . complete with bomb scare in Dee Brown Walker's back yard, Fort Worth, that is . . . Lovely place to be stranded . . . not a cocktail in miles . . . And so efficient, too . . . all passengers and luggage subject to search, so they lock the doors so nobody can get in . . . but we could all walk out . . . and did . . . ask the FBI agents who wondered where we went . . . or Walt Zifkin (Ross).

Finally greeted at the Deauville by Frank Gray . . . who had just been helping to close the Cyrano Lounge for the night . . . He swore he'd been listening to a poodle sing . . . and we finally had to believe him the following night.

Supreme Justice Griffith called the Supreme Board into session Sunday morning . . . and we wondered why we had bothered going to bed a few minutes earlier . . . Bob Redding ordered breakfast from the menu . . . distributed with the agenda . . . treated to a fine display of Southern hospitality . . . the waiter wouldn't serve the breakfast because all the food was downstairs . . . But then who expects a Board meeting to go smoothly?

Henry Rohr running the District Justice meeting . . . assisted with glee by Jay Gunnels . . . passing out Republican campaign gimmicks . . . a gesture not wholeheartedly appreciated by Charles Tom Henderson and his cohorts of the South . . . District XII claiming four past and present Justices in attendance . . . Don Moore, Bill Robertson, Bob Redding and Sandy Rae . . . "No other District can make that claim."

The Board and the DJ's adjourned for a joint luncheon . . . and promptly received another one of those delightful pre-Convention surprises . . . Drink orders having been conscientiously taken by the waiter . . . a new one, no doubt . . . the management then advised that the bar was closed . . . But that didn't stop Tony Di Grazia . . . he told his joke anyway.

At this point, if you think this was written by a Californian . . . you're right . . . But we must admit that we enjoyed our visit . . . especially District 2 Justice Frank Worthington . . . taken in tow by Ted Wentworth (Temple), John Chapman (Holmes), and Gary Tesch (M. Sullivan) . . . and treated to the "beauties" of Miami Beach . . . all in rock-n-roll jargon . . . for which they provided a lovely interpreter.

Miami Alumni Justice Ralph H. Bearden, Jr., really performed a tremendous job in making us all welcome . . . with the help of U. S. District Court Justice John W. Holland and Dean Russell A. Rasco and all the other Brothers of the Miami Alumni . . . That poolside cocktail party was a real highlight . . . kept watching for Bob Hedrick (Timberlake) to take a swim . . . but he didn't . . . Then there was the "come-early and grab-fast" party the hotel threw . . . tremendous . . . especially if your reflexes were as fast as those of Henry Smith (Ruffin) . . . or if you could rope in hors d'oeuvres like Texans John McQuigg and Douglas Wadsworth (Tom Clark).

In some respects the hardest working Convention in years . . . Committees meetings for long hours . . . accomplishments galore . . . But the boys up in the Chicago room saw to it that things weren't all work . . . Chief cheerleader Art Connelly kept the conversation booming . . . while Don Gordon (Blackstone), Frank E. Vigus (Fuller), and Ken Gillis (Marshall) struggled with that unbelievable mountain of glasses by the door . . . and Walter Smoluch (Webster) vainly attempted to identify the spies for campaign assistant Charles Falkenberg . . . hint . . . they were the ones with the prettiest girls.

And speaking of the ladies . . . our hat is off again to the sweetheart of PAD . . . Phyllis Andresen . . . she and Marilyn Weitkamp did the usual fantastic job of managing the registration desk with warm efficiency . . . and also got all those delegates' checks issued promptly . . . And the student wives really enjoyed the tea-time discussion of the problems of a lawyer's wife . . . so did the Alumni wives . . . About those shopping trips, though . . . but that's a husband's reaction! . . . Co-Chairmen Mrs. Russell A. Rasco and Mrs. George De Carion of the Ladies' Reception Committee are to be congratulated for keeping the girls happy . . . while their husbands performed strange rituals in smoke-filled rooms.

I'll now yield myself another paragraph while I wonder why former Florida Governor Fuller Warren doesn't take over a Sunday comedy slot for some TV network . . . We thought we'd save some of his choicest remarks for posterity in this column . . . except we were laughing so hard we forgot to write them down . . . After what he did to Judge "Maverick" Murrah by way of introduction, it's a wonder our new Supreme Vice-Justice could present his speech . . . and a real tribute to his abilities that he did . . . excellently.

Reports from our outside agents tell us that Miami Beach was well worth seeing . . . most of us wouldn't know . . . we either didn't get outside or couldn't see . . . that Florida sun is really bright! . . . John Hooker located rock crab someplace . . . not near water, that's for sure . . . and George Nickell discovered bagels and sauerkraut for breakfast across the street . . . to the horror of his guardian . . . Charles Cole (Dunbar) . . . Fred Weitkamp proved something when six . . . count 'em six . . . people were seen to sneak away from the Deauville in a certain popular make compact . . . headed for the dog track . . . Now just how did Shirley Andresen ever get into that track at her age? . . . And how did Phyllis Andresen manage to come home a heavy winner? . . . Then there was that abbreviated . . . and rainy . . . boat trip . . . which proved that the only people in Miami in the Summer are on conventions . . . and that even in Florida it rains.

Was it Larry Resnick (Coke) who said that the only thing wrong with the Convention picture was that the delegates should have had the camera . . . and that curvaceous photographer should have been the subject? . . . Which reminds us that the surplus committee has got to be revised . . . that's the one which helps out the local alumni when problems develop with the blind dates for delegates . . . if there are any left over the chairman is supposed to take over . . . his job is to find all the loose women and tighten them up . . . or something. . . This year's chairman was to have been Charlie Digangi . . . and we still want to know why Howard Cerny let him take that pre-convention cruise and arrive with his mind far from his job. . . We never did meet his red-head . . . but then Charlie's the careful type.

Law, and former Dean Clayton E. Williams of the School of Law at Washington & Lee University, and A. D. Chandler, Chancellor of the Colleges of William & Mary.

Sometime we're going to get Irene Bailie to write this column . . . she's the only one who really knows what happened in Miami Beach . . . and did anyone ever see a prettier reporter? . . . Thanks for another fine job, Irene . . . and we won't tell how many of the now 33 biennial conventions she's attended. . . And so to the traditional strains of "Goodnight, Irene" our thoughts leave Miami Beach. . . It was a grand convention and to Larry Lyman (Brewer), William Loucks and William Eagen (Fletcher), and Jerry Stejskal, Tom O'Malley and Max Hagen (Rasco) and their Chapters . . . as well as the Florida and Miami Alumni Chapters . . . we say thanks again. . . Hope we see you all in two years.

As we leave Oma Gray and daughter Linda Lee in mid-air on a trampoline . . . people do the damndest things at conventions . . . and head off across the Caribbean we recall all the new friends . . . and all the old friendship renewed . . . and that, after all, is really the essence of the spirit of the PAD.

Brother Brown, now 86 years of age, is still practicing law in Chicago, at 30 North Dearborn Street.

DARROW MEMBERS EXCEL IN SPEAKING

The forte of Clarence Darrow's legal ability lay in the oral presentation of his cases. Apparently, some of that great talent has descended to the Brothers of the Phi Alpha Delta Darrow Chapter at the University of Maryland School of Law as seven brothers have won the school-wide acclaim in oral arguments.

Darrow Chapter Justice John Miller and Brother Joe Lauricella teamed in the presentation of the annual Legal-Medical Trial held before an audience of medical and law students on December 3, 1960. Opposing Brothers Miller and Lauricella before the bar was a two-man team, one of whom was also a P.A.D. — Chapter Vice-Justice Alfred Tarrant.

The finals of the first-term freshman Moot Court competition found three P.A.D. pledges vying for honors. Pledges John Holzer and Jon Harlan Livezy comprised a team which argued the final argument against P.A.D. pledge Richard Kozlowski and his feminine partner.

Brother Albert Figinski, who was co-winner of the Maryland Moot Court competition last year, presented a portion of the oral argument at Washington, D. C. for the team of the University of Maryland entered in the National Moot Court Competition.

Gunter Chapter Hears Speakers

Gunter Chapter at the University of Colorado School of Law has undertaken an outstanding program of speakers for the current year. On October 17 the City Manager of Boulder, Colorado, E. Robert Turner, outlined the importance of the City Attorney's office in the proper management of legal affairs of any city. In a review of the City Attorney's duties and responsibilities he stated that in his opinion the Legal Department of a municipality was one of the best places for an embryo lawyer to acquire experience in every phase of the law.

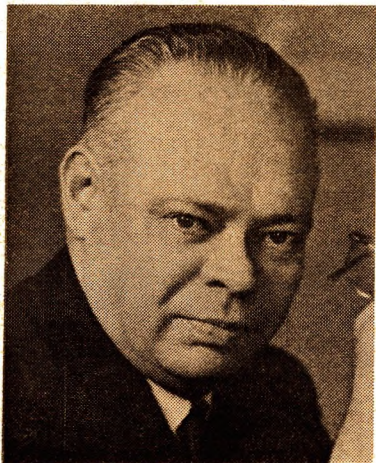

On November 1, Professor Clyde O. Martz, of the law school, who recently finished a year's assignment as Colorado's first Judicial Administrator, discussed the problem of judicial administration. Martz pointed out that judges' law is no more competent than the judges themselves.

Subsequent talks featured John Carnes, Associate Professor of Philosophy at the University of Colorado, who spoke on the "Philosophy of Law", Ira C. Rotherberger, who spoke on "Changes in Teaching Methods", and a panel discussion on the "Philosophies of Law, Natural and Unnatural", which featured Justice Albert T. Frantz, of the Colorado Supreme Court, Professor John R. Carnes of the Philosophy Department of the University, and Professor Homer H. Clark, Jr., of the law school. The latter discussion was moderated by Gunter Chapter Vice Justice Jesse L. Near.

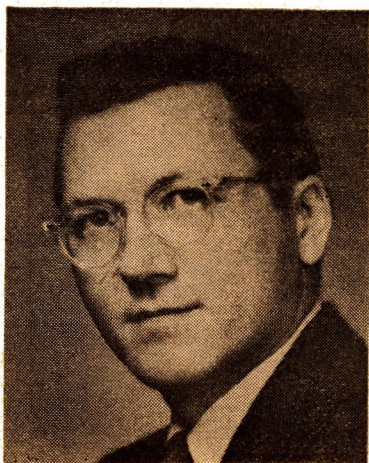

Darrow Justices Merge

Two Past Justices of Darrow Chapter at the University of Maryland have announced the forming of a partnership for the general practice of law in Silver Spring, Maryland. They are L. Rodney Compton and Brian R. Williford. Brother Williford's wife, Jeanne, has for the past two years been making chapter banners for the active chapters of the fraternity.
