PIKE'S PEAK—Colorado's best-known mountain as seen from the Garden of the Gods near Colorado Springs. Back in 1806, Lt. Zebulon M. Pike said the 14,110-foot peak never would be scaled. Nevertheless, thousands of vacationers each summer drive comfortably and safely on a well-maintained auto highway to the top, while other thousands enjoy a trip to the top by cog railway or in buses. The highway usually is opened by mid-May and remains open until snows close it in October.

Off to Colorado – Vacation Paradise!

Brown Palace Is Headquarters

We're off to Colorado—Colorado—vacation paradise where the 34th Biennial Convention of PAD will be held August 30, 31 and September 1. PADs from across the country will attend what is expected to be the finest convention held in the history of the fraternity.

It's still not too late to make your reservations with the world-famous Brown Palace Hotel in Denver, the convention headquarters hotel. The Denver Alumni Chapter has promised lots of hospitality and entertainment for all. So—we hope to see you in Denver later this month.

The Brown Palace Hotel, where the 1962 "Round-Up" Convention is scheduled to be held, has been known as one of the outstanding hotels in the West for over a half a century. The Hotel is built on a triangle, taking up a block between Tremont, Broadway, and Seventeenth Street in downtown Denver.

President Eisenhower made the Brown Palace Hotel his campaign headquarters for each of his two campaigns for President.

More national and international celebrities, including our fraternity officers, have made this their Denver headquarters than any other major hotel in Denver.

The Hotel has four restaurants and a motor lobby and every facility available at any major hotel in the country.

The Grand Ball Room has adequate seating for 600 at the dinner dance Saturday night.

Douglas Lyman Edmonds, Past Supreme Justice of the fraternity (1948-1952) and retired Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court, was killed on May 10, 1962, when his car crashed into the rear of a truck on a freeway near Los Angeles, California. His wife, Gertrude, suffered severe injuries in the accident but is making a miraculous and steady recovery. Justice Edmonds apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car while returning to Los Angeles in the late afternoon. Death was instantaneous.

Born in Chicago, Justice Edmonds attended public schools in Chicago, Denver and San Diego. He attended the University of Southern California Law School and was admitted to the practice of law in California in 1910.

In rapid succession he was appointed to the Municipal and Superior Courts of Los Angeles and was the first Justice in California to be appointed to the Supreme Court from a trial court. Attaining this distinction in 1936, he served on the Supreme Court until 1956 when he retired to enter into private practice and to accept the appointment to represent the United States on the International Law Commission in Geneva, Switzerland, which post he completed in 1961.

In the annals of Phi Alpha Delta there are few who have done as much to further the purposes and ideals of our fraternity as our beloved Doug, our Brother and our Supreme Justice. He unstintingly gave of his time, energy and ability to carry out our ideals so as "to make the world a better habitat for all."

A member of Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California, he became active in the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter during his active practice and judicial days, serving the alumni chapter as an officer and later as Justice. Upon his appointment to the Supreme Court of California, he moved to San Francisco where he was known as Mr. PAD a title which later became nationwide. He was appointed District Justice and served in this capacity during the war years. Under his guidance the chapters at Stanford, Boalt Hall and Hastings were reactivated after the war and the chapter at University of San Francisco was initiated.

In 1946 at the Kansas City Convention, Douglas L. Edmonds, then a Justice of the Supreme Court in California, was recognized for his fraternal devotion and ability by being elected First Supreme Vice Justice. At the 1948 Convention in Los Angeles he was elevated to the highest honor the fraternity can bestow by being selected its leader as Supreme Justice.

A leader was Justice Edmonds in every sense of the word. With only 47 active chapters represented at the 1948 Convention, with a treasury depleted to a deficit balance, and with innumerable problems facing the fraternity, he started his program of not just rebuilding but also of substantial progress.

The Reporter was published at regular intervals; a new Directory was published and through his efforts and persuasion at a cost far below the next nearest bid, a complete audit was made by a national firm at no cost to the fraternity; alumni support was solicited and successfully received in the way of dues; chapters were reactivated at an amazing rate; new chapters were installed; a traveling secretary was retained by the fraternity; a program of legal aid was instituted; and recognition of our fraternity in the highest legal circles was attained. All of this and many other accomplishments became realities under his leadership. His ability to secure cooperation, support and activity from his fellow officers and brothers made him the leader who attained the national status of Mr. PAD.

Then for the second time in the history of the fraternity and after a span of 40 years, a Supreme Justice was re-elected to office. At the French Lick Convention in 1950, Douglas L. Edmonds was retained in office, not solely for what he had done, but also because his dynamic program was under way, firm foundations were being established and the future of Phi Alpha Delta as the leading law fraternity was being assured. He was needed to again head the fraternity and he answered the call.

The striking from the roll of our fraternity of the name of Douglas Lyman Edmonds is to add his name to the last Great Chapter, whose roll call we all must one day answer. What he has done as a member and officer in this Fraternity, not even time itself can strike off from the living memories of his fellow brothers.

Caldwell to Florida Superior Court

Brother Millard F. Caldwell, former Governor of Florida, has been appointed to the Supreme Court of the State of Florida.

Justice Caldwell is a member of Fletcher Chapter at the University of Florida. He is a former member of Congress, Past Chairman of the National Governors' Conference; Past President Council of State Governments, and former Administrator of the Federal Civil Defense.

Message From The Supreme Justice

This is my last report to you as your Supreme Justice. Before bringing you up to date on the activities of our Fraternity since taking office in August, 1960, I first regret to advise you of the untimely passing of our Brother, Judge Douglas L. Edmonds, Supreme Justice from 1948 to 1952. I have asked our Past Executive and Supreme Secretary, Frank Gray, to write a special article in memory of Brother Edmonds. On behalf of all the members of our Fraternity, I extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Edmonds and her family. I first met Judge Edmonds at the convention in 1950, and at once saw what a sincere interest he had in PAD, and his aim was to make it the best professional legal fraternity in the world. Mrs. Edmonds expressed a desire that flowers be omitted and in lieu thereof to make contributions to the PAD Endowment Fund.

ANTHONY A. DI GRAZIA

In the interest of conserving space, I am not going to write a day by day report of my activities.

I am pleased to inform you that I had the extreme pleasure of visiting every one of our active chapters, as well as three inactive chapters, and more than one-half of our alumni chapters. There is no question that bringing the office of Supreme Justice to each chapter promotes greater interest in the fraternity, and I wish to take this opportunity to thank the officers of

Dwyer New Assoc. D.J.

Brother Jack H. Dwyer, Justice of the Denver Alumni Chapter and former Justice of Hughes Chapter at Denver University, has been appointed Associate District Justice of District IV by Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia. Dwyer is also actively engaged in preparations for the 1962 National Convention to be held in Denver.

Brother Dwyer is engaged in the private practice of law in Denver. He will assist Judge C. Nelson Day, of Fillmore, Utah in the administration of the affairs of District IV, which includes alumni chapters in Denver and Salt Lake City, and active chapters at the University of Utah, Denver University, and University of Colorado.

D.C. Alumni Elect

The Washington, D. C. Alumni Chapter has elected the following officers for the coming year: Scott P. Crampton, Justice; George J. Meiburger, Vice Justice; Raymond W. Bergan, Clerk; Dais Calley, Marshal; Robert O'Mahoney, Treasurer.

the active and alumni chapters, and all those who attended the receptions, luncheons, and dinners on my behalf, for their kind hospitality and the courtesies extended to me.

Adding to the milestone of our fraternity, it was indeed a thrill to recently install the following new chapters:

April 13th, 1962 — Beaumont Chapter at California — Western College of Law, San Diego, California.

April 27th, 1962 — Meck Chapter at Cleveland-Marshall Law School, Cleveland, Ohio.

May 12th, 1962 — Butler Chapter at William Mitchell College of Law, St. Paul, Minnesota.

June 8th, 1962 — Cardozo Chapter at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

Since our founding in 1902, we have chartered 95 chapters.

Since August, 1960, a total of seven new chapters were added and one chapter reactivated in our Expansion Program. Against this gain, I am sorry to advise that our chapters at the following schools have become inactive: University of Montana, University of Chicago, University of Pittsburgh, Ohio State University, and Western Reserve University. It is my desire to devote my time as a Past Supreme Justice to seek ways and means to reactivate these chapters. In addition to these inactive chapters, there are chapters at the Universities of Minnesota, Vanderbilt and Duke that have been inactive for several years. The Supreme Board would greatly appreciate any suggestions the alumni may have as to how to reactivate these chapters.

All members in our fraternity should be proud of the fact that through their generous contributions, small and large, many loans have been made through the Endowment Fund to our student members so that they could continue their education, and I wish to take this opportunity to thank the many alumni that participated directly by making their contributions to the Endowment Fund, or indirectly by taking out Life or Disability Insurance to help this worthy project.

If you have not already made your reservations to attend the convention in Denver in August, I urge you to do so at once.

It has been a great privilege for me to have been your Supreme Justice for the past two years. It was a real experience travelling about 65,000 miles during my term, and I shall always appreciate the opportunity of personally meeting all my brother PAD's.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Supreme Board, Board of Tribunes, District Justices, and Associate District Justices, for their cooperation and encouragement, without whom our fraternity would not enjoy the position it now holds.

Fraternal Greetings to all my brother PAD's.

Anthony A. DiGrazia,
Supreme Justice

Donovan Speaks at District XI Conclave

District XI of Phi Alpha Delta met in Conclave at the Cornell Law School the weekend of April 13-14. James B. Donovan, Esq., of the New York Bar, delivered the Seventh Annual Dean Robert S. Stevens Lecture which was the highlight of the meeting. Mr. Donovan, court appointed counsel for the convicted Russian spy Rudolf Abel, spoke about "The Privilege of Advocating Unpopular Causes."

Saturday morning's business forum was a discussion of the problems of the attending chapters. It also allowed the newly appointed District XI Justice, Edward V. Atnally, of de Bracton Chapter, to get a better idea of the functioning of the various chapters in his District. The meeting was presided over by the retiring Justice, Robert J. Chadwick, Livingston Chapter, and Vice Justice Robert L. Markovits, Wilson Chapter.

Wilson Chapter of the Cornell Law School was the host for the weekend, which was planned around the Stevens Lecture. Several cocktail parties, a luncheon, a banquet and lecture were on the Conclave agenda. Frank P. Villanova, Justice of Wilson, and Paul Zonderman, Social Chairman, were instrumental in making the weekend a success.

Conclave discussion ranged from a report on rushing techniques at the various chapters to an active workshop on effective programs and honorary memberships led by Book Hopkins of Temple. Justice Chadwick spoke about coordinating efforts by the undergraduate and alumni chapters. Supreme Tribune Charles Digangi, who represented Supreme Justice Di Grazia, noted some of the different programs other chapters have and offered many suggestions so that the undergraduate chapters may allow their members to avail themselves of Phi Alpha Delta activities upon graduation from law school. Brother Digangi also led a discussion on the forthcoming National Convention to be held in Denver this August. All of the chapters in attendance signified an intention to send delegates and actively sought advice in preparing for the journey.

Two resolutions were adopted by the delegates in attendance at this Conclave. One honored retiring Justice Chadwick and the other honored Supreme Vice Justice Elden S. Magaw. A testimonial was tendered in Dean Magaw's honor by the Temple chapter on the 14th and the resolution signed by all delegates at Conclave was read to the assembled audience by Brother Hopkins who returned to Philadelphia with the resolution after the Conclave business meeting on Saturday.

Professor Gustavus H. Robinson, William Nelson Cromwell Professor of International Law, Emeritus, spoke at the Conclave luncheon on Saturday. Professor Robinson, author of Robinson on Admiralty and other works on admiralty law, spoke about a single news topic which 50 years ago that day held the nation's interest. The "unsinkable" Titanic struck an iceberg in Greenland taking 1500 people to their death. The legal implications of the tragedy was the topic of the discussion. Under applicable law the carrier could be held responsible only to the sum which was created by the sale of the wreck or the salvagable parts thereof. Therefore less than $150,000 was available to meet the claims of the survivors.

More than 100 persons attended the Stevens banquet held Saturday at the Hotel Statler. Justice Villanova presented two awards on behalf of his Chapter at the banquet. Professor John W. MacDonald was named Wilson Chapter's outstanding alumnus. Professor MacDonald is Edwin H. Woodruff Professor of Law and his presently serving as Chairman of the New York State Law Revision Commission. Retiring Vice Justice Robert L. Markovits was named outstanding Wilson Chapter undergraduate. Markovits was Wilson Chapter Justice in 1961-62.

Mr. Donovan gave the banquet guests a rare insight into his excursion into East Berlin when he arranged the Rudolf Abel-Francis Gary Powers exchange. He noted that he had one apprehensive moment in East Berlin. This came when he set off to meet a lawyer there, since he was escorted by a Communist who "had the pleasant look of Otto the Strangler," and resembled "a vicious-looking Peter Lorre."

Not even Donovan's wife knew that he was in Berlin. He said that "the nature of my practice requires me to go to Europe once a year. So in an ordinary way I laid out a trip to London and made ordinary arrangements by commercial airline. Then just before leaving London I sent a cable to my wife that I was going up to Scotland for a vacation. I actually went to an RAF base near London, then flew to Berlin." Mrs. Donovan first learned of her husband's trip to Berlin and the spy exchange when the Associated Press called her at 3:00 o'clock one morning. By that time Donovan and Powers were returning home.

PAD Becomes First Fraternity At Cal Western

There's certainly no doubt but that PAD is first in San Diego. A few years ago PAD became the first law fraternity to establish an alumni chapter in that fast growing area with the chartering of the San Diego Alumni Chapter. In 1961, the Paul McCormick Chapter at the University of San Diego School of Law became the first law fraternity chapter to be installed at that law school. Now PAD has established the first law fraternity at the California Western School of Law with the chartering of the Campbell E. Beaumont Chapter on April 13, 1962.

The law school came into existence in 1958, and shortly thereafter a colonization group was formed for the express purpose of petitioning Phi Alpha Delta for an active chapter charter when the school became approved by the American Bar Association. Approval came this past spring and procedures were immediately placed into operation to effect the installation of the chapter.

The members of the San Diego Alumni Chapter sparkplugged the formation of the new chapter and richly deserve plaudits for a job most well done.

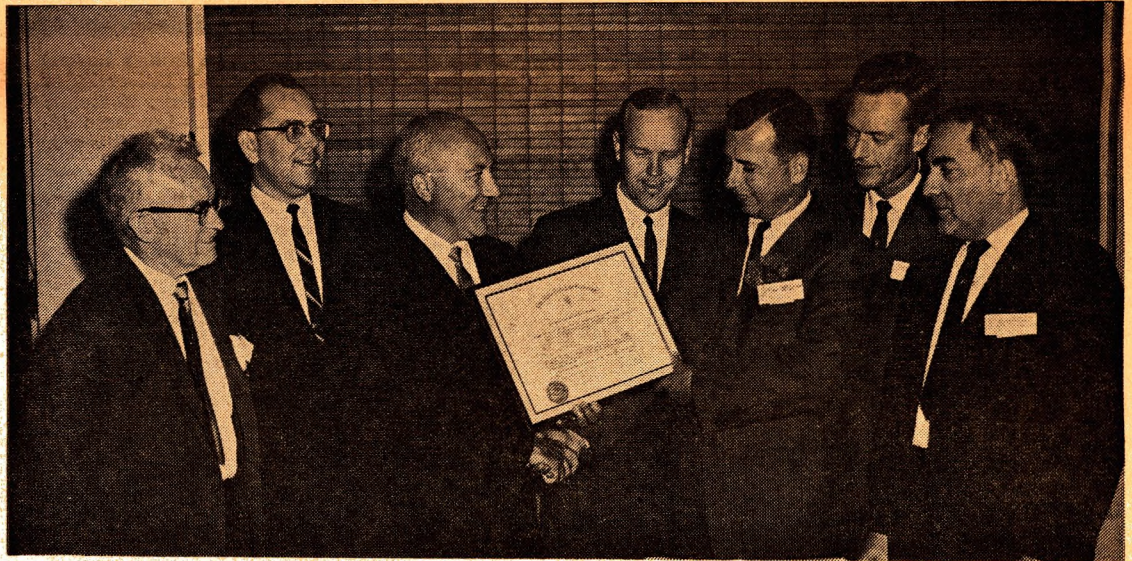

The initiation took place in the beautiful new moot courtroom of the California Western Law School overlooking the Blue Pacific. McCormick Chapter at the University of San Diego furnished the initiation team which was headed by Chapter Justice Tony Piazza. Others taking part in the initiation were Supreme Justice Anthony A.

Di Grazia, District Justice Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae, Executive Secretary Fredrick J. Weitkamp, San Diego Alumni Chapter Justice Lee Knutson and Charter Alumni Chapter Justice John J. McCarthy.

A reception and banquet followed at the Marine Corps Officers Club. Attending were a great many PAD dignitaries including United States District Judge James Carter, former Judge Advocate General of the Army George Hickman, Cal Western Trustee John Cranston and Superior and Municipal Court Judges.

Charter members included: Arthur T. Anderson, George P. Andreos, William J. Bauer, Arlie W. Bergman, Charles E. Boyce, Patrick J. Briggs, James V. Dorman, John P. Duffy, John L. Floyd, Allan M. Frostrom, Robert E. Hammond, Kenneth A. Johns, John Kosmas, George W. Kraft, Jr., John M. Larkworthy, Donald F. McLean, Jr., William V. O'Neal, Jr., Ross C. Provence, Richard A. Thomas, Andrew G. Wagner, and Douglas F. Webb.

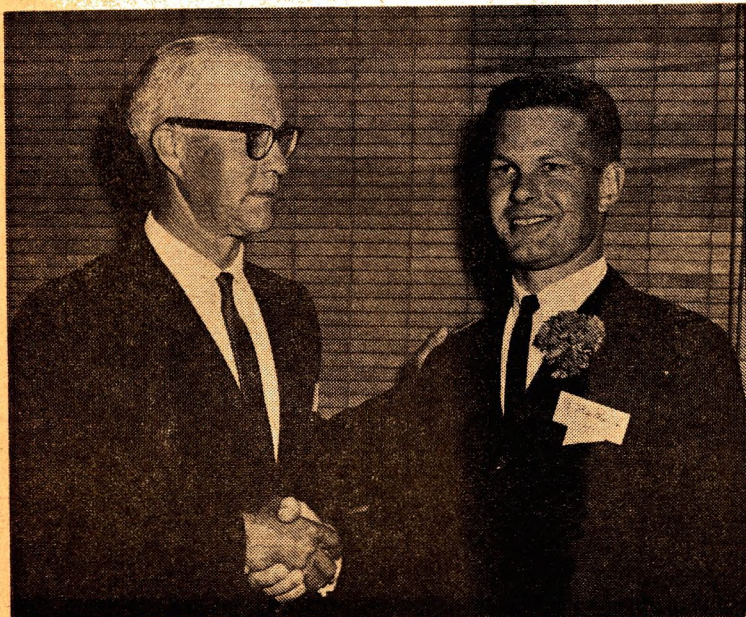

Charter Officers are: Donald F. McLean, Jr., Justice; John Kosmas, Vice-Justice; Allan M. Frostrom, Clerk; Ross C. Provence, Treasurer; and William V. O'Neal, Jr., Marshal.

Brother Court's winning paper was entitled "The Problems of Union Power". He is the first winner of the annual awards established by the Association.

Brother Court states the problems in detail, analyzes them, examines their components, draws conclusions and recommends remedies.

Cardozo Chapter is Installed at Catholic U.

The annual spring banquet of the Washington (D.C.) Alumni Chapter featured a happy blending of the new and the old as the newest chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was installed and tribute was paid to four alumni who have been members for 50 years or more.

The new chapter is the Benjamin N. Cardozo Chapter at the Columbus School of Law, Catholic University of America. Supreme Justice Anthony A. DiGrazia presented the charter to the group and made the address of the evening.

Certificates attesting to 50 years of membership in and service to Phi Alpha Delta were presented to Past Supreme Justice William S. Culbertson, Ringgold Hart, Myron Witters and Marshall R. Diggs. The presentations were made by H. Mason Welch, former justice of the alumni chapter and past supreme historian. It was announced that Senior PAD Certificates also had been awarded to Chapin B. Bauman, Russell B. Brown, James E. Colliflower, Lester L. Oliver and A. Stuard Young Sr., who were unable to be present in person. (Brother Colliflower died June 23).

Another highlight of the banquet program was the joint installation of the officers of Cardozo Chapter and the new officers of the alumni chapter.

Cardozo Chapter officers are Raymond S. Kozlowski, justice; Stephen B. Potter, vice justice; Gerald L. Sbarboro, clerk; Joseph J. Baker, treasurer; and Michael F. O'Donnell, marshal.

Alumni chapter officers installed were Scott P. Crampton, justice; George J. Meiburger, vice justice; Raymond W. Bergan, clerk; Robert M. O'Mahoney, treasurer; and Cyril D. (Des) Calley, marshal.

In addition to receiving the charter and the coat of arms plaque, the new chapter received from Anthony A. DiGrazia, Supreme Justice, a PAD banner, and from the neighboring active chapters (Brandeis, Jay and Taft) as well as the alumni, a gavel and chapter rollbook. The presentation on behalf of the Washington chapters was made by Donn S. Mitchell, justice of Brandeis Chapter.

Toastmaster for the affair was Donald S. Dawson, retiring justice of the alumni chapter. Supreme Justice DiGrazia was introduced by District XII Justice Donald R. Moore.

The formal initiation of the charter members of Cardozo Chapter was conducted by an initiation team representing each of the other three active chapters in Washington, under

Convention Site

Denver has been known by many names: Queen City of the Plains, Heart of the Rocky Mountain Empire, Mile-High City, Climate Capital of the World, and The City Where the Mountains Kiss the Plains.

The City and County of Denver has a population of 500,000. There are over one million people in the metropolitan area with a state population of only 1,763,000.

Initially selected as a distribution point for supplies for the gold camps, it has grown in importance by its central location and its ideal transportation facilities.

Major rail and air facilities, as well as transcontinental bus lines, serve the area.

If you stand on the front steps of the state capitol building, you will be exactly one mile—5280 feet—above sea level.

From any point in the City you can view the beautiful snow-capped Rockies in the distance. Because of its high, clear air, an Easterner often thinks he is within walking distance, whereas it is about forty miles to the continental divide itself. The foothills are fifteen miles to the west. The averages over a 78-year period shows the sun shines 350 days a year. The average annual humidity is 51.5%, the lowest among the thirty largest cities in America.

Excellent highways are available for travel in any direction. There are 54 peaks in Colorado over 14,000 feet. For those who desire sight-seeing, there are eleven national forests, two national parks, and six national monuments.

The Tom C. Clark Chapter of the University of Texas served as host for the District VIII Conclave held March 16-17, 1962, in Austin, Texas.

A "get acquainted" cocktail party followed the registration of delegates at the Villa Capri Motor Hotel, the convention headquarters.

The opening session was called to order by the District Justice, Robert E. Lee. Dean Thomas J. Gibson, III welcomed the delegates on behalf of the University of Texas School of Law. Corliss Chapter at North Dakota On Top Corliss Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at the University of North Dakota is experiencing a "new vigor." The chapter had recently dwindled in numbers and correspondingly in action until the beginning of the academic year 1960-61. At that time there were but a handful of members. The other legal fraternity in the law school was enjoying an unprecedented success, (a situation which has now reversed) and the Supreme Chapter had all but written Corliss Chapter off as lost. A group of more dynamic students decided that it was time to bring Phi Alpha Delta back. Through a good deal of effort and ingenuity they have had great success.

Last year, for example, the chapter prepared a detailed outline of the law library complete with a map for distribution to the incoming freshmen and sponsored a series of lectures on Insurance Law. Further, the PAD's won the Student Bar Trophy for the best skit presented at the annual Spring Banquet.

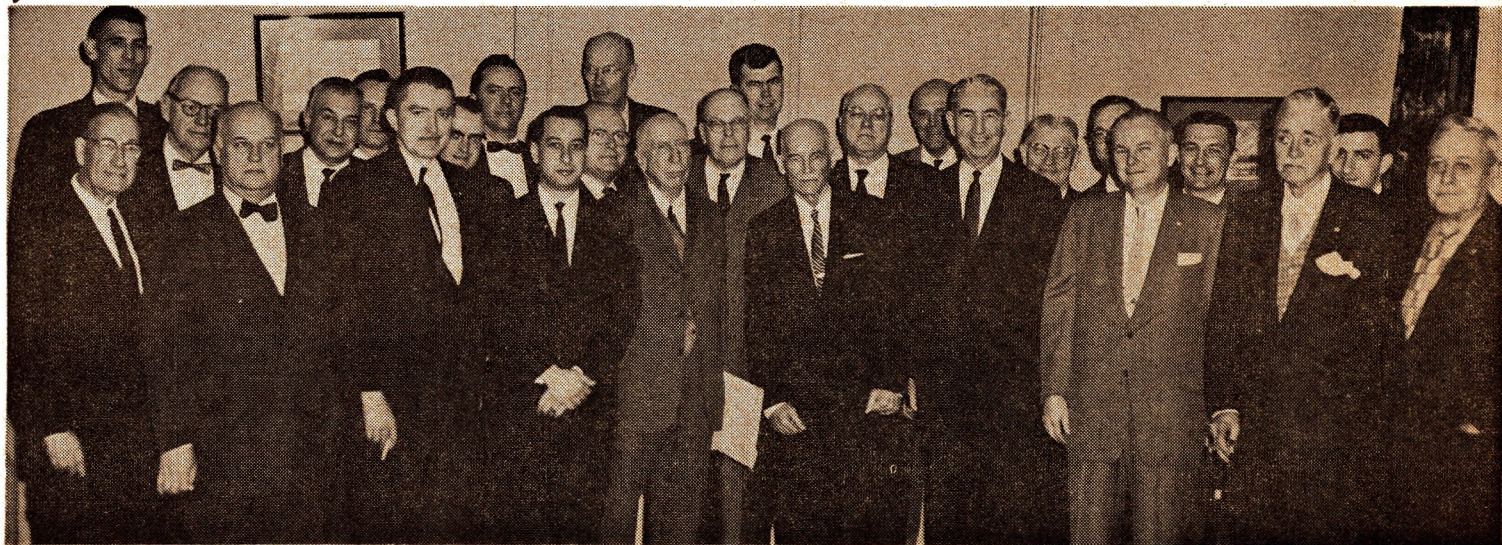

Presently, there are 33 members in the chapter and a substantial number of pledges is anticipated. The Editor-in-Chief and two associate Editors of the North Dakota Law Review are PAD's. Last fall, at the inception of the academic year, the chapter organized an orientation program for the incoming freshmen carried out in conjunction with the Student Bar Association. A series of lectures is now in progress traversing such topics as legal ethics, labor law, etc. Particularly of interest is a forthcoming presentation of Photography and Laws by Mr. Lee Evanson, one of the few recognized experts in this field in the United States. Corliss Chapter also swept the law school elections for the Royal Court, King, Queen, and Chancellor of the traditional Fall Banquet.

Most recently, the chapter was honored by a visit from Supreme Justice Anthony Di Grazia. An initiation ceremony was planned to coincide with the scheduled arrival of the Supreme Justice. Ten new active members were initiated, with the Supreme Justice participating in the ceremony. Following the initiation, a banquet was held in honor of the new initiates and the Supreme Justice. Brother Di Grazia delivered the main address, punctuated with his omnipresent wit. The banquet gave the members an opportunity to become acquainted with our Supreme Justice.
