Justice Arthur J. Goldberg Becomes Honorary Member

Honorary Membership in Phi Alpha Delta has been conferred on the newest Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the Honorable Arthur J. Goldberg.

In the presence of five other Supreme Court Justices, three of them also PAD's, Mr. Justice Goldberg was inducted into the fraternity by the Louis D. Brandeis Chapter at the American University's Washington College of Law. The ceremony took place at a banquet, March 23, at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C. Nearly 200 active and alumni brothers and their ladies attended.

Mr. Justice Goldberg was presented to the group by Associate Justice Tom C. Clark. The initiation ceremony was conducted by Brandeis Chapter Justice John O. Harper, who presented the honorary alumnus key and a framed membership certificate to the initiate.

The Honorable Brooks Hays, Special Assistant to the President was toastmaster and more than lived up to his reputation as one of the capital's top humorists.

Besides Mr. Justice Clark, other PAD's on hand from the Supreme Court were Associate Justices William O. Douglas and Harold H. Burton (retired). Joining them at the head table were Associate Justices Hugo L. Black and Stanley F. Reed (retired).

Responding to the bestowal of honorary membership, Mr. Justice Goldberg took as his theme the importance of our having, "the courage of our own constitutional convictions."

If we are to lead the free world, or even survive as a nation, he said, we must have a "good society" here at home. Our survival ultimately will depend on the kind of law and the system of government we have, he added.

Calling for an amalgamation of "what we profess and what we practice," he hailed the great legal principles that undergird this country. "This is our strength," he declared—"the type of country we are."

Military security is not enough to meet the challenge of today's troubled world, the Justice continued. "If we rely on armor alone and ignore the things of the spirit, then we are poorly armed indeed."

The "good society" that is America, the "normal quality" implicit in it—this is our greatest export, he asserted; this is the basis of our competition with the Soviet Union.

For our way of life to survive, according to Mr. Justice Goldberg, we must solve such current problems as unemployment, schools and the care of the elderly.

But even more important is the question of the kind of law and government we have, he stated. It was here that he urged the audience to have courage of our Constitutional Convictions—to put into practice the great legal principles that underlie this country—these include, he said, the right of habeas corpus; equality before the law; due process—especially the presumption of innocence and the right to trial by peers; such individual rights as freedom of speech, vote, and belief; and the corollary right of privacy for individual and family, with government authority limited.

"This is what we are committed to," he declared, "but we need to put our own house in order in these fields" before we can bring about a world rule of law.

Although the course "is not a straight course, and has many turns and detours," he said, "the tradition is straight and true."

Mr. Justice Goldberg took note that the chapter he was joining was named for Mr. Justice Brandeis. He pointed out that the judicial philosophy of Brandeis with his view of the law "as an instrument of social policy" was especially relevant to the subject under discussion.

The new initiate praised Brandeis as "inquiring, not inquisitive; dignified, not stiff;" and though a rebel, not a rebel simply for the sake of being a rebel."

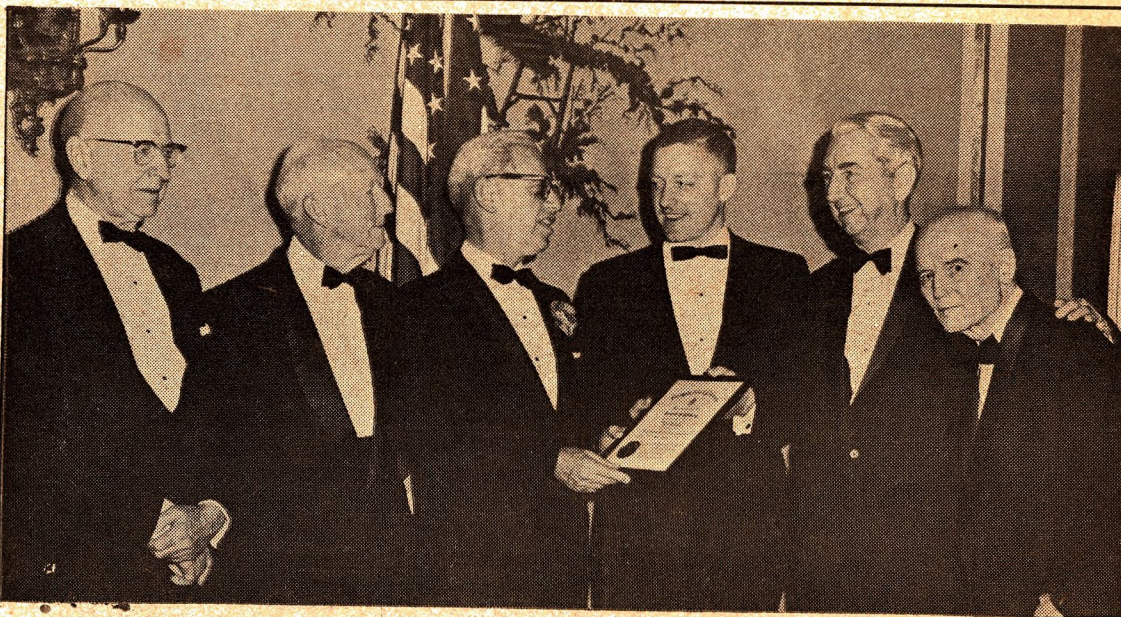

The philosophy of Brandeis is exemplified, the speaker said, in these excerpts from his concurring opinion in Whitney vs. California 274 U. S. 357, 372, 375, 377 (1927):

"Those who won our independence believed that the final end of the state was to make men free to develop their faculties; and that in its government the deliberative forces should permit over the arbitrary. They valued liberty both as an end and as a means. They believed liberty to be the secret of happiness and courage to be the secret of liberty. They believed that the greatest menace to freedom is inert people. They recognized the risks to which all human institutions are subject. But they knew that order cannot be secured merely through fear of punishment for its infraction; that fear breeds repression; that repression breeds hate; that hate menaces stable governments.

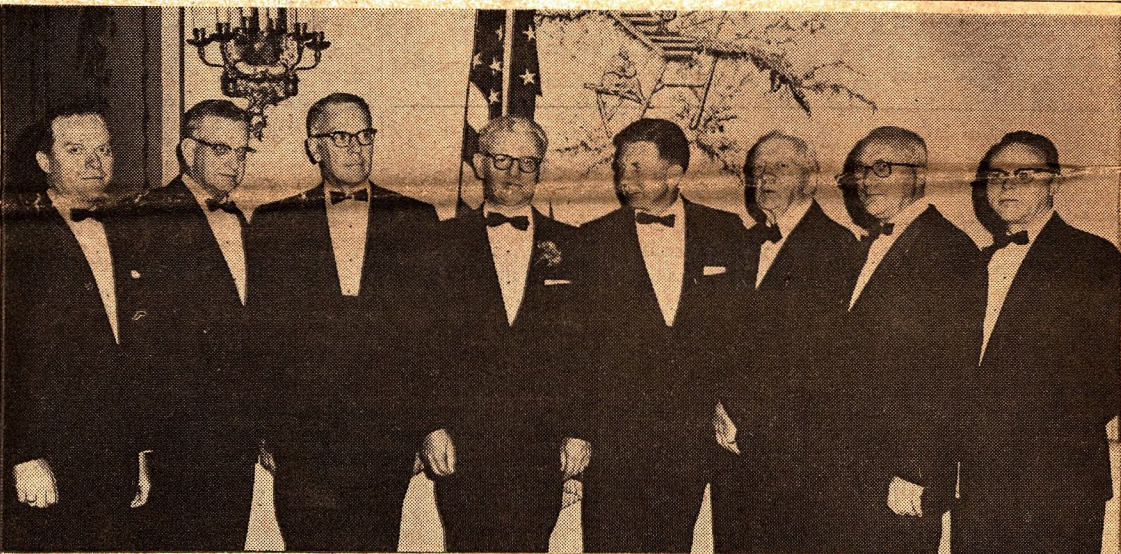

Those who won our independence revolution were not cowards. They did not fear political change. They did not exalt order at the cost of liberty."

Second Supreme Vice Justice Robert E. Redding was general chairman for the banquet and

Reese Chapter Moves Ahead

Reese Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at the University of Nebraska is on the march again! When eight energetic law students found themselves dissatisfied with the legal fraternity system at Nebraska University's College of Law in the fall of 1960 (for PAD had become inactive there six years earlier) they undertook the task of reorganizing and reinstating the present chapter. Their aim was to make Reese chapter an example of the fraternity leadership and professional ability which Phi Alpha Delta represents.

It was due to discontent with the other two legal organizations then existing at Nebraska that brothers John Ilich, William Gourley, Larry Knox, Lyle Winkle, Charles Rogers, Dennis Winkle, Don Fitch, and Herb Brugh decided it was time that PAD be restored to its former position of prominence at Nebraska. Their efforts, combined with active participation and assistance from Associate District Justice C. Glenn Lewis of Omaha, and a contribution of $250 from alum Harold H. Schaaf of Lake Wales, Florida, culminated in an initiation ceremony presided over by Supreme Justice Tony DiGrazia on November 12, 1960. Since then, Reese Chapter has continued to grow. From the initial membership of eight men at reactivation, the chapter has since more than doubled its size. Having initiated six new members in the spring of 1962, and four more just last fall, its plans include a second initiation for this school year, to take place some time in April.

The scholarship programs and calendar of professional-social functions of Reese Chapter seem characteristic of other PAD chapters. Its programs have included such topics as "How to Confer With a Client," "How to Handle the Investigation Aspect of a Case," and more recently, a study of the American jury system. Not ignoring the social events, Reese Chapter PAD's host special event (such as Christmas, etc.) dinner parties, chapter-alum stags, and plans include a joint "venture" with More Chapter of Omaha.

At a rush dinner early this year, Reese members were honored with a visit by Supreme Marshall, Judge Alex Hotchkiss. Judge Hotchkiss delivered a stimulating speech on the topic of the correlation between a legal education and a good law fraternity.

Also, at the same dinner, in-

Message From The Supreme Justice

I am very pleased to advise that our good Brother, the Hon. Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, has again agreed to select a law clerk from among the student members of our fraternity. The appointment will probably be made in October of this year and the person selected will begin his service in July of 1964.

Those interested in taking advantage of this outstanding opportunity should utilize the following procedure:

1. Advise the Executive Secretary of your intention to file an application, by July 1, 1963.

2. Submit an application in letter form, in quadruplicate, setting forth your qualifications for the position, including information regarding your extracurricular activities, such as Moot Court participation, Student Bar Association, Honor Councils, and particularly, Law experience.

3. Submit with the application an official transcript of your law school record and a letter of recommendation from the Dean of your law school.

4. Attach to the letter application, in quadruplicate, as evidence of your ability in legal research and writing, any printed or typewritten manuscript of reasonable length, such as a note or case note previously written or being written for the school's Bar Review or other material submitted to other publications or professors.

5. Submit a 3 x 5 glossy print photograph of yourself.

6. All items must be received by the Executive Secretary no later than August 1, 1963.

Introducing the Supreme Marshall, was one of Reese Chapter's prominent alums, Mr. Joseph J. Brown. Mr. Brown, recently elected president of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners at their annual meeting in New Orleans, presented Judge Hotchkiss with the commission of Admiral in the "Great Navy of the State of Nebraska." (Reese Chapter can also claim as an alum the recently re-elected governor of Nebraska, Mr. Frank B. Morrison.)

Reese Chapter is proud of the support which it can count on from its alums. It considers that support its greatest asset. As an example, when solicitation went out for contributions to the chapter treasury last summer, more than 80 Nebraska PAD's promptly responded.

OFFICIAL PRESENTATION. John Harper, Justice of Brandeis Chapter, makes the official presentation of Certificate of Honorary Membership to United States Supreme Court Justice Arthur F. Goldberg.

HON. ALFRED P. MURRAH

From the applications submitted, the Board of Tribunes will select the three which, in their opinion, are the most outstanding and will forward these to Mr. Justice Clark for his consideration.

I urge all qualified student members to participate in this most worthwhile competition.

Fraternally,
Alfred P. Murrah,

Egan Chapter Installed At Duquesne University

The John P. Egan Active Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was formally installed in ceremonies held on March 25, 1963 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The new chapter is located at Duquesne University School of Law.

The chapter was named for the late Judge John P. Egan. Judge Egan was graduated from the Duquesne University Law School and admitted to the Allegheny County Bar in 1915. He began the general practice of law and served as Secretary of the Duquesne University School of Law.

After serving in World War I in France in 1918 and 1919 he returned to Pittsburgh and resumed his post on the faculty of the Law School.

On October 3, 1929, he became Dean of the Duquesne University Law School which office he filled until June, 1931. He was appointed by the governor, in 1931, to a vacancy on the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas and was elected for a full term of ten years beginning January, 1932.

Judge Egan was re-elected to the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County in the November, 1941, elections and in the November, 1951, elections and served until his death in 1952.

He remained on the faculty of the School of Law at Duquesne University until June, 1948, when he resigned to accept the deanship of the law department of the Robert Morris School of Business in Pittsburgh.

The Duquesne University School of Law was founded in 1911, when by amendment of the charter, the Pittsburgh Catholic College of the Holy Ghost became Duquesne University. The law school received its first class in September of that year and has had continuous existence since that time.

From 1911 through June 1958, the School of Law operated as an evening law school. Beginning in September, 1958, the School began operating both day and evening divisions. The School of Law is coeducational and the present enrollment in both day and evening classes numbers approximately 183 students.

The initiation ceremonies were held in the Moot Court Room of the Duquesne University School of Law. Members of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter served as the initiating team.

Following the initiation ceremonies a cocktail hour and banquet were held in Mills Auditorium. Brother Robert X. Medonis, Justice of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter served as toastmaster of the banquet.

Brother Medonis introduced Judge George L. Quillici who spoke briefly to the group. Brother Alfred P. Murrah, Supreme Justice, was featured speaker of the evening.

In addition to receiving the charter and the coat of Arms plaque, the new chapter was presented a PAD banner by Brother Anthony A. DiGrazia, Past Supreme Justice. Brother DiGrazia was instrumental in encouraging the formation of the Egan Chapter. He visited Pittsburgh and met with the prospective members on several occasions.

Special guests were: Mrs. John P. Egan (widow of Judge Egan), and Mr. and Mrs. J. Murray Egan (son of Judge Egan) of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fleming (daughter of Judge Egan), Harrisburg, Pa., Judge George L. Quillici, Judge of the Superior Court, Cook County, Illinois, Phillip Greenburg of the Chicago Alumni Chapter, Judge John Brosky, Judge of the Common Pleas Court, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, Dean of the Duquesne School of Law and Members of the Pittsburgh Alumni Association.

Charter members of the John P. Egan Chapter are: Walter A. Rafalko (faculty sponsor), Louis L. Manderino, David T. Smith, Joseph Barletta, Patrick J. Basial, James A. Berneburg, Robert L. Campbell, Joseph Coyle, Louis R. Dadowski, John G. Eidemuller, Albert G. Feczko, Robert S. Garrett, Nicholas Grebeldinger, Jr., William Green, Robert L. Hartig, William Hays, George H. Hoffman, Peter J. King, Paul M. W. Murdock, Cosmos J. Reale, Thomas E. Rodgers, Rocco Viola, Jr., Edward C. Wachter, Keith A. Wagner, John R. Walters, Gerald Wrabley, and Rev. Adam J. Maida.

Two New Chapters Installed; One Reactivated

New chapters have just recently been installed at Louisiana State University School of Law in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and at the University of Houston School of Law. In addition, Lorton Chapter at Vanderbilt University School of Law has been reactivated.

The new chapter at LSU received its charter in the name of Edward Douglass White and the chapter at University of Houston selected the name of John E. Hickman.

Full details and complete coverage of these milestones in the progress of the fraternity will appear in the next issue of The Reporter.

District XII Meets in Williamsburg

The Fourteenth Annual District XII Conclave was held February 22 and 23 in Williamsburg, Virginia, with Wythe Chapter of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law of the College of William and Mary serving as host. Student District Justice Scott Hester did a fine job directing the activities. Honored guests at the Conclave were Robert E. Redding, the Second Supreme Vice-Justice, Alex A. Hotchkiss, the Supreme Marshal and George Miller, the Associate District Justice.

The Conclave opened Friday, February 22, with registration in the lobby of the Holiday Inn. The scheduled events began in the evening with a special lantern tour of Colonial Williamsburg. At 9 o'clock a reception sponsored by the Virginia State Alumni Chapter was held in the Holiday Room of the Holiday Inn.

On Saturday morning the business sessions of the Conclave were held. After the delegates were officially welcomed to Williamsburg by Joseph Curtis, Acting Dean of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, a fraternity workshop under the direction of Brother Redding was held. Brother Redding set the theme of the workshop as "a sense of direction." During the workshop such topics as the purpose of a legal fraternity, the benefits derived from being a national fraternity, effective rushing and the financial aspects of P.A.D. were discussed. The workshop developed such fine ideas on these subjects that Brother Redding expressed the hope that they would be carried back to the local chapters where further discussion would result in improving not only the local

At 11:30 A.M., the Ladies Program, directed by Mrs. Kenneth Segal, presented Miss Jean Stanton, a member of the legal staff of the Proctor and Gamble Company of Cincinnati, who spoke following the luncheon on "Law in Your Life." The ladies afternoon program consisted of bridge playing and shopping in downtown Cincinnati.

At 12:00 noon, the delegates luncheon featured the Honorable Otis R. Hess, Judge of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, as speaker. Judge Hess' speech was composed of the various "do's" and "don't's" in the practice of law. He reiterated the various experiences and observations he has made in his years on the bench, with main emphasis on preparation of a case for trial.

The afternoon business meeting of the Conclave was called to order at 2:10 P.M. with Student District Justice Kenneth Segal presiding. Door prizes consisting of various law books so graciously donated to the convention by the local law book dealers were given to the delegates. The roll call of delegates revealed that 9 chapters from District IX were present. After the discussion of old business the floor was opened for the choosing of a 1964 Conclave site. Each chapter represented had four (4) votes. The chapters seeking the site of the Conclave made their bid and after discussion the vote was taken. On the third ballot West Virginia was selected, Wiley Chapter being host for the 1964 Conclave.

New officers for the District were elected as follows: Student District Justice, Ames Luce of Wiley Chapter at the University of West Virginia, Vice Justice, Mike Thal of Meck Chapter, Cleveland Marshall Law School; Marshall, Al Feczko, Egan Chapter, Duquesne University; Clerk, Robert M. Bratton, Jr., Hoffman Chapter, Salmon P. Chase College of Law; Treasurer, Dale Shineberry, Wiley Chapter, University of West Virginia.

Following the election of the new district officers, all delegates were invited to attend the initiation by Hoffman Chapter at the Salmon P. Chase College of Law of its twelve new pledges. The initiation was held at the Hamilton County Court House following the meeting.

The end of the Conclave festivities consisted of cocktails, dinner and dancing. The cocktail hour began at 7:00 P.M., followed by the banquet which was highlighted by the conferring of the award of "Outstanding Alumnus" on Dr. Raymond P. Hutchens, Dean of the Salmon P. Chase College of Law as being the most outstanding alumnus of Hoffman Chapter. The award of "Outstanding Active Member" was conferred upon Kenneth Segal, of Hoffman Chapter. The principal address of the evening was given by Lawrence Burns, President of the Ohio State Bar Association, whose topic was "Professional Responsibility."

Knoxville Site of District V Conclave

The District V 1963 Conclave was held in Knoxville, Tennessee, at the University of Tennessee College of Law, with McReynolds Chapter as host chapter. The event took place on Friday, April 5 and Saturday, April 6.

The Conclave officially began on Friday evening with a cocktail party at the Farragut Hotel. This was sponsored by the Knoxville Alumni Chapter, under the direction of Justice Carl B. Barrett. In attendance, in addition to delegates and alumni, were Supreme Historian T. Julian Skinner, Jr., District V Justice Thomas E. Powell, and University of Tennessee Law School Dean William Wicker.

chapter, but the national organization as well.

Shortly after the workshop was completed, the official business session of the Conclave was opened. The only items on the agenda were the selection of the 1964 Conclave site and the election of the new student district officers. The 1964 Conclave will be hosted by Taft Chapter of Georgetown University. New District XII Student Officers are: Justice, Robert Capalbo of Georgetown University; Vice-Justice, Avery Bordeaux of Wake Forest College; Deputy Vice-Justice, Gary Neal of the University of Maryland; Clerk, Martin Freedom of George Washington University; Treasurer, William Downey of Georgetown University; Marshal, Thomas Abbott of the University of Maryland. Following the election of officers, the business meeting was adjourned.

At the luncheon meeting, Joseph D. Bulman, a practicing attorney in Washington, D. C. and a P.A.D. brother, spoke on "Demonstrative Evidence." Brother Bulman stated that he intended to show that the old adage "one picture is worth a thousand words" is particularly applicable when trying cases before a jury or in attempting to settle cases out of court. He related many personal experiences in which the old adage had been proven true. He illustrated his experiences with the pictures he had used in the cases he was describing, and everyone felt that his speech was very informative.

Several hours were then allowed for the delegates to visit the historical points of interest in Williamsburg and the surrounding area including Jamestown and Yorktown. In the evening, following a cocktail party sponsored by Wythe Chapter, a banquet was held at the famous Lafayette Restaurant. The speaker at the banquet was Brother Hotchkiss who delivered an inspiring address on "What P.A.D. Means to Me." He pointed out that P.A.D. fosters not only fellowship, but also scholarship and a feeling of belonging to a profession. These are essential ingredients of a lawyer's life and every member should be eternally grateful for the opportunity of having P.A.D. help us to develop these characteristics.

Following the banquet a dance was held in the Holiday Room. Music was furnished by the Frank Wells Orchestra. The dance lasted until midnight, at which time the official activities of the Conclave were concluded. It was generally felt by all the delegates to the Conclave that this Conclave was one of the most successful ever for District XII.

The next morning, after registration and a welcome by Dean Wicker, Student District Justice Van Owens and District Justice Thomas Powell, an informative and interesting talk on the University of Tennessee's Legal Aid Clinic took place. This was led by Clinic Adviser Bernard Bernstein, Dale Young and Wayne Taylor. A collection of materials on the Clinic was handed out to all in attendance.

After a coffee break in the lounge of the law school, three Knoxville judges, Chester R. Mahood, Richard F. Douglas and James M. Haynes, conducted a panel discussion on "Mistakes in Every Practice." Professor Dix W. Noel, noted Torts authority, served as Moderator.

The Conclave luncheon was held at the University of Tennessee Student Center, with H. H. McCampbell, a leading Knoxville attorney, as guest speaker. He spoke on "Ethics of the Profession," primarily about the difficulty in determining what is ethical and the great area between clearly wrong and clearly right. Archie Carpenter and Shelbourne Ferguson entertained with folk songs. Master of Ceremonies for the luncheon was J. Frank Bryant.

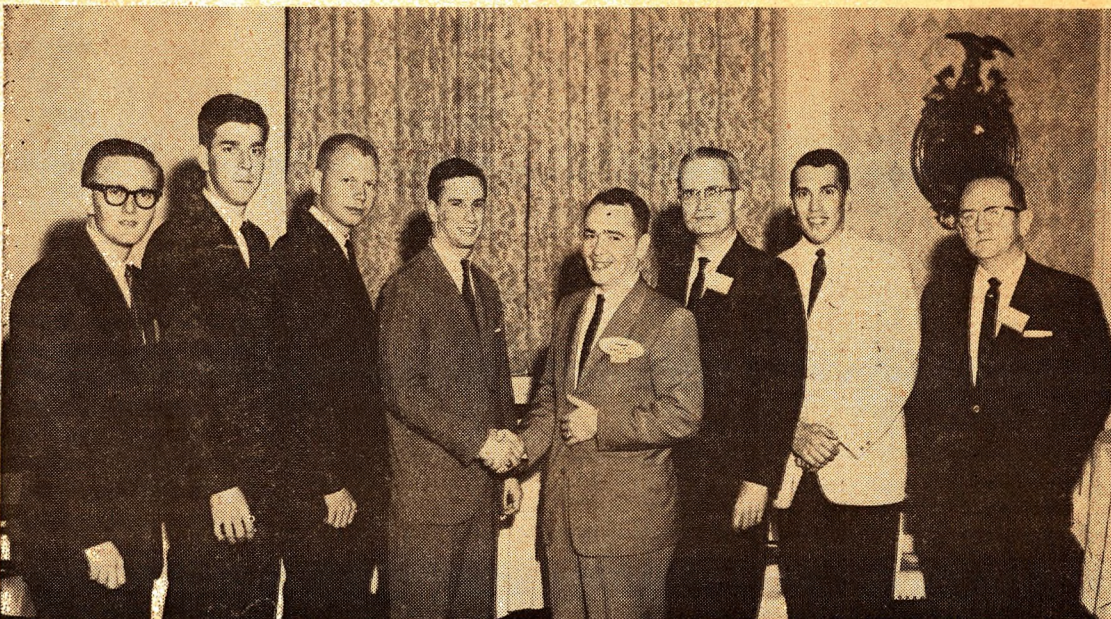

The afternoon business session consisted of chapter reports and discussion on topic of interest to the active chapters. Also included in the afternoon was a tour of the University of Tennessee Law School, and a report on the 1962 National Convention by Supreme Marshal T. Julian Skinner, Jr.

The Conclave banquet was held at the Andrew Johnson Hotel. Chief Justice of the Tennessee Supreme Court, Hamilton S. Burnett, was the guest speaker and chose as his topic various experiences during his career.

Conclave Chairman was Lance Evans, and assisting him were: John Wells, Assistant Chairman and Treasurer; Tom Shumate, Registration and and Guests; Joe Spice, Alumni Co-ordinator; Dale Young, Legal Clinic Discussion; Bill Moss, Coffee Break; Wheeler Rosenbalm, Panel Discussion; Frank Bryant, Luncheon; Tom Williams, Banquet Dance; Jim Omer, Publicity.

PAD Reception

All members and their ladies are cordially invited to attend the annual PAD reception for members attending the American Bar Association meeting in Chicago this year. The reception will be held on August 14, 1963, from 5:30 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. in the Bel Aire Room of the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

HEAD TABLE AT THE DISTRICT V CONCLAVE BANQUET. The Hon. Hamilton S. Burnett, Chief Justice of the Tennessee Supreme Court, speaking.

THE RECEPTION sponsored by the Knoxville Alumni provided a welcome opportunity for students and alumni to become acquainted.

THE BANQUET DINNER-DANCE at the District V Conclave was one of the highlights of the meeting.

Green Chapter Reactivated; Justice Whittaker Speaks

Green Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta reorganized this year after a two-year lapse of activity. The reorganization effort was initiated by a speech given to Phi Alpha Delta alums, KU faculty, and invited student guests by recently retired Supreme Court Justice Charles Evan Whittaker in December, 1962. Justice Whittaker spoke of the interaction of the members of the legal profession at the highest level of American law and drew analogies to the need of law students to take part in personal associations with the men and ideals of the profession.

Following the dinner with Justice Whittaker, students at KU, with the help of alumni from the Kansas City area, applied for reactivation of Green's charter. In early March, twenty men were initiated into the fraternity, and five have subsequently been pledged and initiated. Plans are currently in the mill for an active summer and early fall rush program designed to gain new members who are interested in utilizing the unique position of Phi Alpha Delta at KU to serve the Law School while enrolled here.

At the March dinner meeting of Green Chapter, Judge Walter A. Huxman, a KU alum and member of Phi Alpha Delta, spoke concerning the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Judge Huxman served as Governor of Kansas prior to his appointment to the Federal bench in 1939. Although he no longer tries cases, his services are still frequently requested as a fact-finder and legal scholar by Chief Justice Warren. Speakers such as Judge Huxman who are highly qualified to speak on particular topics that relate both to philosophical issues and daily problems facing the legal profession will be heard at each monthly dinner meeting of Green Chapter.

On April 25, the speaker was Mr. John Gage, nationally known as the "clean-up mayor" of Kansas City. Mayor Gage's administration followed the collapse of the Pendergast power in Kansas City, and this member of Phi Alpha Delta has achieved all four corners of the fraternity's call to Public Service.

May 9 is the date set for the chapter's final meeting of this academic term. The affair will be the highlight of this year's activities. Dean Emeritus Fredrick J. Moreau, retiring after 36 years on the KU law faculty, will be honored by the dinner, and the banquet address will be delivered by Kansas Governor John Anderson, Jr. Dean Moreau is without challenge the most knowledgeable scholar of Tort Law in Kansas. Many distinguished members of the Kansas Bar, including members of the Supreme Court, are expected to attend this banquet. The fraternity will also raise money to be donated to a scholarship being established by the Student Bar Association in Dean Moreau's name.

An outstanding contribution of a $500 scholarship to be given annually to the member who is selected for this honor by the faculty members of Phi Alpha Delta has been made by an anonymous PAD alumnus. The award this year was divided between Stephen Blaes, third year student from Wichita, and Terry

Ross Chapter Presents Awards

Highlight of the spring semester activities of Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California was the AWARDS BANQUET AND DANCE specially honoring Mrs. Douglas Edmonds, Judge Alfred Lee Stevens, Jr., Justice Robert Kingsley, and the PAD Initiates of 1963.

Supreme Secretary Henry Rohr (Ross) presented Mrs. Edmonds with an engraved scroll of the resolution passed at the 1962 Convention in Denver. Judge Stephens received the Outstanding Alumnus Award from former Justice of Ross Chapter Robert Rodgers. Alan Widiss, present Justice of Chapter, made a special presentation to Justice Kingsley who was recently appointed to the California District Court after serving as a professor since 1928 and as Dean of the Law School since 1952.

The Brothers of Ross Chapter have been extremely active at the S.C. Law School this year. For example, five of the eight Editors of the Southern California Law Review are members of PAD—including Editor-in-Chief Allan Browne, Managing Editor Alan Widiss, and Associate Editors Max Hara, Jerome H. Sarrow, and Robert Takeuchi.

In addition, Alan I. Widiss was a member of the winning team in the School and Regional Moot Court Contests, and was named the outstanding advocate in the final rounds of both the U.S.C. and Regional Competitions.

Illustrative of the fact that two thirds of the Student body officers at S.C. are members of PAD is the leadership by Brothers Barry Floyd (President of the Third Year Day Class), Mike Loshin (Vice-President of the Third Year Day Class), Bob Rodgers (Pres. of the Fourth Year Night Class) and Richard Popkin (V.P. of the Fourth Year Night Class) of senior activities.

Also, Richard Block is serving as Executive Vice President of the American Law Student Association.

Farrer New L.A. Alumni Justice

William C. Farrer, a Past Chairman of the Junior Bar Conference of the American Bar Association, was recently elected Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of PAD.

Election and installation of 1963 officers of the 1500 member chapter were held recently at the Mona Lisa Restaurant in Los Angeles.

Others elected were: Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker, First Vice Justice; D. P. Renda, Vice President and General Counsel Western Air Lines, Second Vice Justice; Bob T. Hight, Third Vice Justice; Baldo M. Kristovich, Public Administrator, Treasurer; Phillip M. Battaglia, Clerk, and John A. Arguelles, Marshal.

The Nominating Committee was chaired by Eugene V. Blacklock, and Installing Officer was Past Supreme Secretary Frank E. Gray.

Brother Farrer succeeds Patent Attorney Carlos G. Stratton, outgoing Justice.

Elliott, a third year student from Fort Scott, Kansas, who is majoring in International Law.

The Justice of Green Chapter is Mr. Elliott. He will serve in that position until Spring, 1964. Any communication other chapters wish to make with Green would reach the Justice if mailed to the School of Law, University of Kansas, Lawrence.

Founder Paul C. Meier Dies

Brother Paul C. Meier, one of the founders of Phi Alpha Delta, recently passed away in Chicago, Illinois.

Brother Meier has held many offices in the fraternity, culminating in his election in 1905 to the then office of Chief Justice of Phi Alpha Delta. He was a member of Story Chapter at DePaul University. As a young man, he was employed by the Chicago Title and Trust Company and later practiced law in St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin, and Webster, Wisconsin. He held the office of Justice of the Peace in Burnett County, Wisconsin, for a considerable number of years.

Upon his return to the Chicago area he became associated with George E. Fink, Past Supreme Justice, and devoted most of his practice to probate and real estate law.

Dean Potts Dies

Dr. Charles S. Potts, Dean Emeritus of the Southern Methodist University School of Law, a renowned writer, lecturer and crusader for legal reform, passed away May 7, 1963. He was 90 years of age.

Brother Potts was a member of Taney Chapter at Southern Methodist University. It is interesting to note that it was not until after his retiring that he entered law practice—at 77, becoming an Assistant District Attorney for Dallas County, and working five years.

At SMU, Dr. Potts taught many courses himself, including his favorite subjects of Constitutional and Criminal Law.

A Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Potts' careful selection of law professors was considered a key factor in SMU's rise. When he retired, six of the nine full time law professors also were Phi Beta Kappas.

He perhaps helped train more lawyers than anyone in the southwest—as many as 2,000. He has earned five degrees, including a Doctorate of Laws from Harvard University.

Brown Prexy NARUC

Brother Joseph J. Brown, member of Reese Chapter at the University of Nebraska, was recently elected President of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners at their annual meeting in New Orleans.

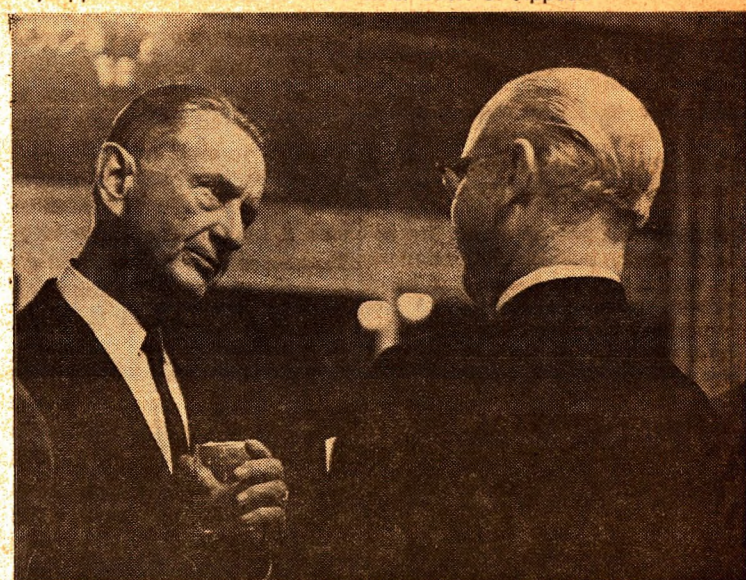

The Association is 75 years of age, and headquarters in Washington, D.C. The functions of the NARUC (which is the equivalent of the American Bar Association in its field) include: (a) Operations on both federal and state levels; (b) meeting with members of Congress on proposed legislation in the field of the regulation of public utilities; (c) dealing with rates, service and control of all public utility corporations.

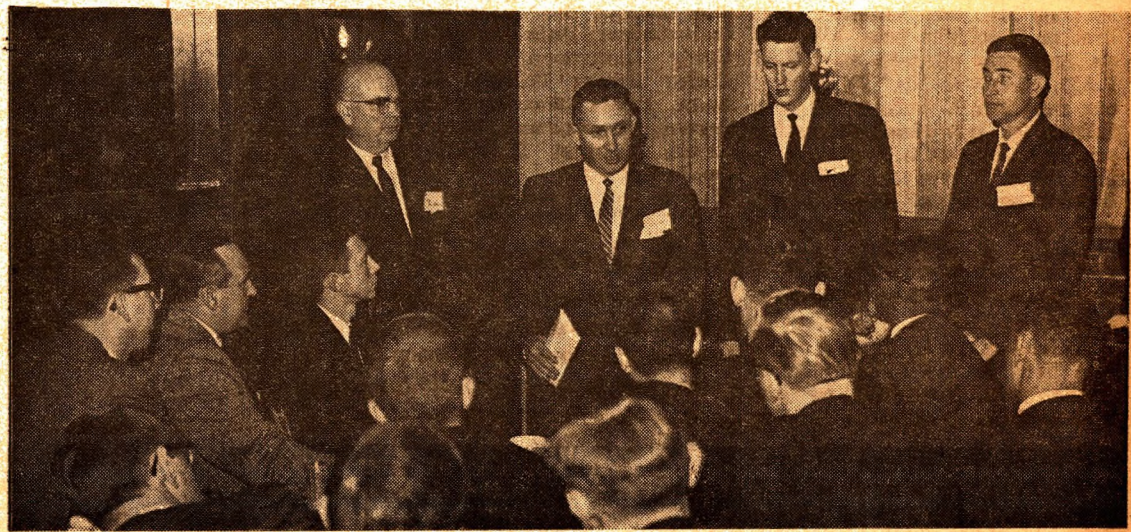

SUPREME SECRETARY HENRY C. ROHR gives an affectionate PAD hug to Gertrude Edmonds, widow of Past Supreme Justice Douglas L. Admonds. The occasion was the presentation of the commemorative resolution adopted by the 1962 National Convention on the passing of the beloved former Supreme Justice.

ALAN WIDISS, JUSTICE OF ROSS CHAPTER, at the University of Southern California, makes a special presentation to the Honorable Robert Kingsley, Dean of the USC Law School since 1952, and recently appointed to the California District Court of Appeal.

HON. CHARLES E. WHITTAKER, retired Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, chats with Supreme Marshal Judge Alex Hotchkiss at recent Green Chapter function.

Albert Thomas Retires

Congressman Albert Thomas, of Texas, has announced that he will not seek re-election in 1964. His decision culminates an outstanding record of service to his state and country over a span of 26 years in Congress. For several years, his district was so large that he represented more people than any other Congress- in the nation.

He has won national acclaim for his work on the House Appropriations Committee, which has been his principal committee assignment. He is also Chairman of two important subcommittees, Independent Offices and Deficiencies. Here, he has done sterling work in behalf of government economy. Time and again, he has lopped off millions of dollars off various agencies' requests for funds.

Thomas, who is 65, decided that he would not seek office again because of his health.

Thomas is a member of Houston Chapter at South Texas College of Laws.

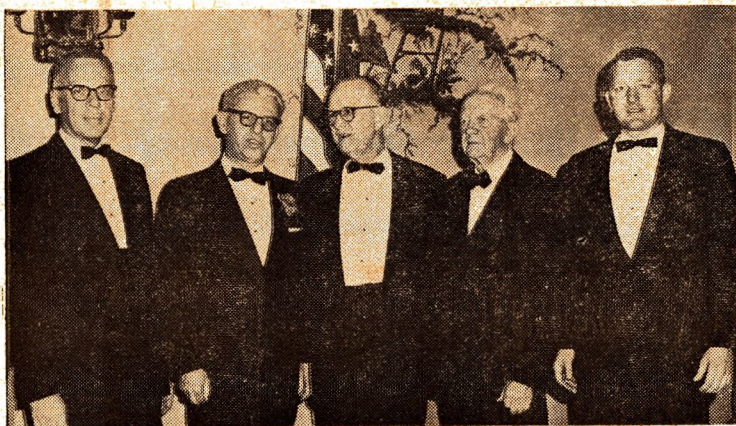

Paul Dwyer Passes On

Brother Paul Dwyer, a member of Hammond Chapter at the University of Iowa, and Managing Editor of the Lawyers' Cooperative Publishing Company, passed away recently.

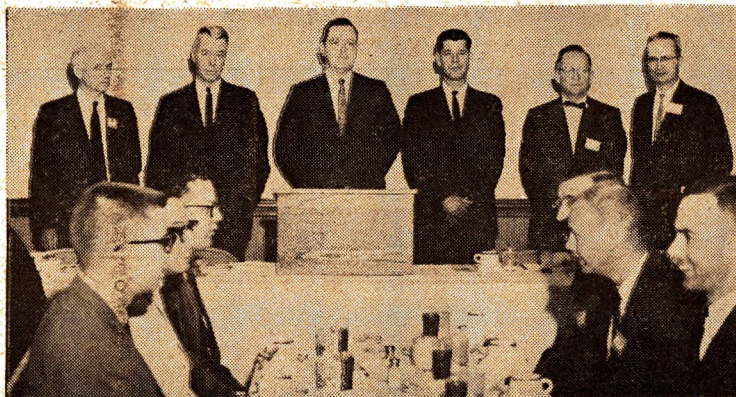

Brother Dwyer was a graduate of the University of Iowa School of Law and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Order of the Coif.

Following his graduation from law school, he went directly to the Lawyers' Cooperative Publishing Company, where his long and fruitful association was of immense value to the entire legal profession in the United States.

For many years, he wrote outstanding ALR Annotations and was the chief assistant in the editing of the Lawyers' Edition of United States Supreme Court Reports. He was largely responsible for the new Digest of United States Supreme Court Reports, which set new standards for Law Digests and the for permanent ALR Digest. The company's indexes in recent years were under his supervision and to a large degree were the products of his mind.
