PAD'S NEW OFFICERS

During the Convention, the men who will lead us as our national officers for the next biennium were chosen. Once again we should be proud that the nation's most outstanding scholars, jurists and practicing attorneys are willing to assume the responsibility of leading our fraternity. The fact that these men are willing to assume the duties of running our national fraternity in addition to the arduous duties they have assumed as scholars, jurists and successful attorneys exemplifies the close fraternal bond which each of our members experience. It is the loyalty of brothers such as these that make us all proud to be members of Phi Alpha Delta.

Supreme Justice

One of the most distinguished scholars in our nation, Dr. Elden S. Magaw, was unanimously elected to the position of Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta. Dr. Magaw, or "Mac," as he is affectionately known, is the assistant dean of Temple University School of Law, having graduated from the University of Oklahoma School of Law, where he was a member of Harlan Chapter.

The devotion of our new Supreme Justice to the assistance and guidance of the novices in our profession has been outstanding. Dr. Magaw has taught law at Temple University for thirty-one years and has acted as assistant dean since 1947.

He attended his first National Convention of Phi Alpha Delta in 1930 when he was a student delegate. It was through his sponsorship and active participation that Roberts Chapter was installed at Temple University in 1939. He is also a Charter Member of the Phi Alpha Delta Alumni Chapter in Philadelphia which is named The Elden S. Magaw Alumni Chapter in his honor.

Other of his affiliations include American Bar Association, Oklahoma Bar Association, Pennsylvania Bar Association, American Association of University Professors, Acacia Fraternity and Masonic Lodge.

Supreme Vice Justice

One of most distinguished jurists in our nation, the Hon-

Justice Clark has devoted his life to public service since he obtained his LLB Degree from the University of Texas in 1922. His service began in 1927 when he became Civil District Attorney for Dallas County. In 1937 Brother Justice Clark joined the department of Justice as an attorney where he served for eight years.

In 1945 Brother Harry S. Truman, also a member of Phi Alpha Delta, named Justice Clark to the position of Attorney General of the United States. Prior to this appointment, he served in such posts as Special Attorney in the Bureau of War Risk Litigation, Special Assistant to the Attorney General in the Anti-Trust Division, Chief of the West Coast Offices of the Anti-Trust Division, Coordinator of Alien Enemy Control of the Western Defense Command and Chief of the Civilian Staff for Japanese War Relocation. First Assistant in the Anti-Trust Division, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Anti-Trust Division, and Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division.

Justice Clark was nominated Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court by Brother Truman on August 2, 1949 and on October 3, 1949 he took his seat as successor to Mr. Justice Murphy, thereby joining Brother Justices William O. Douglas, Harold H. Burton and Robert Jackson, and being present to receive Brother Justices Arthur F. Goldberg and Charles E.

Whittaker. Brother Justice Clark has also been of service to Phi Alpha Delta to which he feels warm affection. He is always available to welcome visiting fraternity brothers and to be present at fraternal affairs. He has further exemplified his affection for Phi Alpha Delta and respect for our professional programs by accepting a graduate member of our fraternity each year to act as his clerk.

Second Supreme Vice Justice

Robert E. Redding was unanimously elected to serve his second term as Second Supreme Vice-Justice of our fraternity. Brother Redding is presently serving as Vice-President, Secretary and General Counsel for the Transportation Association of

D. P. WARD IS NATION'S LEADING PROSECUTOR

Brother Daniel P. Ward, State's Attorney for Cook County, Illinois, recently received a citation as the nation's Outstanding Prosecutor by the National District Attorney's Association.

Brother Ward is a former dean of DePaul Law School, a member of Story Chapter and has always made time for all the chapters in the Chicago area as a speaker at any of their functions.

The fraternity would like to extend congratulations to Brother Ward on receiving this high honor.

Message From The Supreme Justice

(Address of the Supreme Justice, following his election to office at the 35th Biennial Convention in New York, August 10-12, 1964.)

"Mr. Supreme Justice, Hon. Irving C. Kaufman, Judge of the Federal and Circuit Court of Appeals, who you have tonight seen inducted into honorary membership by Brother Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, honored guests, brothers in Phi Alpha Delta, our lovely ladies and guests:

I have a telegram here from the Honorable John Biggs, Jr., Chief Justice of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, our illustrious Brother from Philadelphia, which I am proud and happy to read. It says:

"I am up to my neck in the second trial of the Delaware reapportionment case and I will not be able to get to New York on Wednesday Evening, August 12th, in time to attend the meeting when my very good friend Judge Irving R. Kaufman is to be inducted as an Honorary Member of Phi Alpha Delta in a ceremony to be conducted by Mr. Justice Tom Clark.

"Will you please express to Judge Kaufman and to Mr. Justice Clark and to all the brothers my great regret that I cannot be present to see this honor conferred upon Judge Kaufman, an Honor which he so richly deserves. Fraternally, John Biggs, Jr."

We are present here in New York City, the home of our illustrious Honorary Chairman of this Thirty-Fifth Biennial Convention, The Honorable and Past Supreme Justice Anthony P. Savarese, in the business of Phi Alpha Delta, the leading and largest Legal Fraternity in the United States. On the sixty second anniversary of its founding, although its roots had first been established in 1898, sixty six years ago, we are in obedience to a natural impulse which bids a people to do honor to its past.

I note, with pride and pleasure, at their positions of honor, the presence with their ladies, of three Past Supreme Justices of our Fraternity; Brother Anthony A. DiGrazia, of the Chicago Bar, who served from 1960 to 1962; Brother John L. Griffith, of the Denver, Colorado Bar, whose term of office was 1958-1960; Honorable Elwyn Thomas, Supreme Court of Florida, our leader from 1956 to 1958.

Honorable Robert D. Jackson, a Judge in Des Moines, Iowa, and who was Supreme Justice from 1954 to 1956, had planned to be here, but last minute circumstances over which he had no control, prevented his attendance.

The Honorable Anthony P. Savarese, recently retired after many years of public service as Surrogate, Queen's County, New York, Past Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta from 1952 to 1954, was unable to attend for reasons of health but he was well represented by his son, Anthony Savarese, prominent New York attorney, and an Honorary member of our Fraternity.

Past Supreme Justice J. Harry Labrum, Supreme Justice during the years 1938 to 1946, was unable to attend because of the pressure of his duties as President of the Board of Education of Philadelphia. This accounts for six of the twelve living Past Supreme Justices of Phi Alpha Delta and who constitute under our Constitution, the Supreme Advisory Board.

Although the Founders of our Fraternity, with one exception, the Honorable John A. Brown, Story Chapter, 1898, are deceased, their memory remains, as it has over half a century, to inspire those who have from time to time been entrusted with the care, preservation, and management of Phi Alpha Delta through war and peace, depression and prosperity so that today with one hundred Chapters, ninety four of which are presently active, we are truly the greatest of them all.

"The Past is secure; it is finished"; but the half century and more which lie ahead, rests upon us and those who follow us. Your presence at this Convention as students of the Law is not only a tribute to those who have preceded us in their interest and devotion to a great cause, but also a recognition that the work of Phi Alpha Delta is the responsibility of the active members of each Chapter. It is, indeed, the membership of each Chapter which is responsible for our "professional image" as seen by the legal profession, the University, and quite importantly the administration and faculty of the Law School.

The fact, unfortunate as it may be, is that the legal fraternity system is undergoing an attack similar to that to which the social fraternity has been subjected for many years. That attack, unwarranted in my opinion and that of many other educators, was the result, partially of course, and as an attempted justification, of unsatisfactory conduct by a few individuals within a few groups, in some Universities. The evil of "generalization" was to brand all fraternities, and the system as well, as an undesirable influence.

The social fraternities rose to the challenge, corrected abuses where such existed with the result that in twenty three years their Chapter numbers have increased over fifty per cent. The battle is not ended, and it will not be. As in the case of freedom and our democratic way of life, the right to it must be earned by each succeeding generation. Each year each Chapter will have to prove that its existence is of value to Society generally, the legal profession and the Law School in particular, and not merely to its members. That is the fundamental purpose of Phi Alpha Delta: Service to the student, to the Law School and to the Legal Profession.

This Convention, and others like it, will be in vain unless each of you as representatives of your respective Law Schools, your Chapter, and as prospective members of an ancient and noble Profession, recognize an individual responsibility to conduct yourself, and the affairs of your Chapter, as though the universal "image" of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity rests solely on you. Each active member of P.A.D. is only one or two years away from the receipt of a license from the State certifying to the public that he is a professionally competent trustworthy man of integrity to whom a client may confidently entrust his life, his property, or his freedom. What a sobering thought! What a heavy responsibility!

Occasionally a Chapter gets into difficulty. When this happens it is usually the direct result of the failure of Chapter officers to recognize that they hold positions of trust and confidence; that they are subject to a fiduciary obligation exactly as will be incurred with respect to their clients.

It is the duty of each officer to study the Constitution and By-Laws of our Fraternity, and the duty of each active Chapter member to be familiar with it just as it will be his duty as a lawyer to know the law before he acts for his client. It is the lawyer's duty to observe Rules of Court and to perform certain duties within the exact time allowed by such Rules.

Thus, for the conscientious law student an opportunity to serve a professional fraternity as an officer of the Chapter, is an opportunity to acquire good habits, habits which he must have as an attorney lest his license be in jeopardy. The Administration of a Law School and its Faculty soon ascertain the weakness or strength of Chapter officers and members, and such knowledge may determine whether a good recommendation can be made to prospective employers. How can a Dean or a Professor give a favorable recommendation if he knows that there has been a lack of responsibility where money, rules and regulations are concerned?

The attorney is a salesman; and he must do his selling, or much of it, by the spoken word. Too often legal fraternity members neglect the extra opportunity to acquire skill and facility in expression, and self confidence, by debate, Moot Court competition, and active participation in properly conducted Chapter meetings. What an opportunity to become accustomed to and proficient in the conduct of a meeting! The public expects the attorney to have that ability and woe to the lawyer who, at a public meeting, shows ineptness!

Our Chapters have developed splendid programs which are valuable to the student and to the Law School, and therefore to the Legal Profession, and which lay the foundation for the "Goodwill" which a professional fraternity must have. The significance of such contributions is recognized by our Constitution and By-Laws under which we have established District Awards as well as National Awards for the outstanding Chapters. It is my hope and expectation that copies of the winning entries will be made available to all our Chapters since such may suggest significant areas in which an important contribution may be made in keeping with our National purpose.

From the ranks of the law students of today will come the leaders of tomorrow, active as members of the Bar Association, as political leaders, as members of a legislative or judicial body. Service in these important areas comes most naturally to those who, as law students, developed interests and talents beyond the law books. Success in public life as well as at the Bench and Bar on the part of our Brothers has added to the dignity and prestige of Phi Alpha Delta. The demands of a new era, the space age, emphasize more than ever our responsibility as a Professional Fraternity to encourage its membership to develop its greatest potential. The world in which we live is much too complex to accept mediocrity — such will fall inevitably to competition, automation, or the computer.

Your Fraternity has indeed been fortunate with respect to the men who have served as National officers. They are dedicated men who believe in what they represent and serve out of loyalty to that purpose and to the Fraternity, and at personal economic sacrifice. For me it has been a most gratifying experience and I am grateful that the privilege of serving as Supreme Treasurer, Second Supreme Vice Justice, First Supreme Vice Justice, has been given to me by delegates in prior Conventions. I am honored and grateful for the privilege which you, the delegates at the Thirty-Fifth Biennial Convention, have today bestowed upon me, our highest office, Supreme Justice.

JUSTICE TOM C. CLARK is greeted by Past Supreme Justice Alfred P. Murrah, Judge of the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals; and Supreme Justice Elden Magaw, Assistant Dean at Temple University School of Law.

CHARLES ZINN, Law Revision Counsel to the House Judiciary Committee, spoke to the National Chapter in convention assembled.

HOWARD F. CERNY, General Convention Chairman, was a most gracious host as he extended welcome.

HON. PAUL P. RAO, Judge of the United States Customs Court, extended a welcome on behalf of the judiciary.

Meet Proves New Yorkers Are Wonderful Hosts

Our brothers in New York are indeed wonderful hosts as Active and Alumni members who attended the 35th Biennial Convention of Phi Alpha Delta from across the United States will attest. The attendance at the Convention was one of the largest in the history of Phi Alpha Delta as many brought their families and made it a family vacation. A pleasant mixture of fraternity business and well-balanced entertainment assured all of a wonderful time.

A pre-convention meeting of the members of the Supreme Executive Board began the six days of events. The Board met for two days to discuss pressing items of fraternity business. On the second day the District Justices, upon whose shoulders much of the responsibility for the welfare of the fraternity rests, also met in a District Justice workshop, presided over by District VII Justice Don Hutson. The workshop considered the areas of; visitations by District Justices, professional programs, rushing, pledging, initiations, alumni and faculty advisors, conclaves, communications, use of the District Justice Manual, discussion and promotion of insurance programs, and the functions of the National Field Representative (now known as the "Assistant to the Supreme Justice"). A great deal was accomplished as a result of the exchange of views of our twelve District Justices.

On the third day the Supreme Officers' Seminar was conducted and the members of the Supreme Executive Board, together with the District Justices, attended. At this meeting those in attendance discussed the Outstanding Chapter competition, the Tom C. Clark clerkship, the Endowment Fund loans, insurance programs, the Directory, and a comparison of the top three law fraternities in the United States.

While these meetings were being conducted, the Supreme Tribunes met to review the 33 applications for the Tom C. Clark clerkship and to pick three finalists. This was a very difficult job because of the large number of applications and the outstanding qualifications of each of the applicants. See the article elsewhere in this issue for details concerning the three finalists.

The three days preceding the convention were not all work, however, as a Supreme Justice reception and dinner was held on the evening of August 7 in the Manhattan and Skyline Suites. In attendance were the National Officers, the Supreme Advisory Board, and the District Justices, with their wives and families.

Many of the delegates arrived on Sunday, August 9. A reception was held that evening in the Liberty Suite to enable the early-comers to meet each other and exchange views concerning the various projects in which our chapters engage.

The convention proper was called to order at 9 a.m. on Monday, August 10 by Supreme Justice Alfred P. Murrah. The invocation was given by the Right Reverend Monsignor Stephen J. Kelleher, presiding judge of the Matrimonial Tribunal of the Archdiocese of New York.

Words of welcome were eloquently spoken by Louis J. Lefkowitz, Attorney General of the State of New York; Hon. Paul P. Rao, Judge of the United States Customs Court; Hon. Sylvester J. Ryan, Chief Judge of the Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York; Leo Larkin, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York; and Howard F. Cerny, General Convention Chairman. This was followed by the introduction of the National Officers by Supreme Justice Murrah and of honored guests, which included Past Supreme Justice Hon. Elwyn Thomas, Judge of the Florida Supreme Court; John L. Griffith, practicing attorney in Denver, Colorado; and Anthony A. Digrazia, practicing attorney from Chicago, Illinois.

The delegates were then honored by a visit from Justice Tom C. Clark, Justice of the United States Supreme Court, who delivered the Keynote address. Justice Clark stressed the professional services which can be provided by our fraternity to the profession.

Then the work of the convention began with the appointment of the convention committees. They were Audit and Finance, Awards and Scholarships, Constitution and By-Laws, Credentials, Professional Programs, Publications, Resolutions, Ritual, and Rushing and Pledgeship. The committees met all afternoon and the Constitution and By-Laws Committee meeting even went into the evening.

On Monday evening the delegates were entertained at a reception in the Corinthian Room sponsored by the New York Alumni Chapter, and all our members attending the American Bar Association meeting were invited. All of the delegates and their wives or dates, together with many of our members attending the American Bar Association meeting, attended the reception and experienced a wonderful time.

JUDGE MURRAH ADDRESSES THOSE ASSEMBLED at the 35th National Convention banquet for the last time as Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta.

THE CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS COMMITTEE worked many hours to resolve the controversies arising about the 45 amendments to the Constitution and 28 amendments to the By-Laws.

THE RUSHING AND PLEDGESHIP COMMITTEE discussed the Rushing Manual, Rushing Guide, Pledge Manual, bookmark and plastic ruler, and concluded that these materials are of assistance to the chapters in their rushing program.

THE RITUAL COMMITTEE had the arduous task of reviewing the final revision of our ritual.

THE AUDIT AND FINANCE COMMITTEE, after examining the audit report of our fraternity prepared by an independent CPA, concluded that our fraternity is in an excellent financial condition and that approximately 95% of the present active fraternity fees are being used for chapter services.

THE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE reviewed the Directory, The Reporter, Rushing Booklet, Pledge Manual, and Constitution and By-Laws and made various recommendations concerning these publications.

CONVENTION COMMITTEE REPORTS

Again during the 35th Biennial National Convention our Fraternity was strengthened and improved through the active participation of the delegates and alumni members present. Much of the work was accomplished in committee where strong debate and complete discussion was given to the various issues. The following is a summary of the Committee reports:

RUSHING AND PLEDGING COMMITTEE

This Committee discussed the Rush Manual, Rushing Guide Manual, the PAD bookmark, the plastic ruler, the PAD Fact Sheet and PAD Rushing Tips sheet.

The Committee agreed that the Rushing Guide Manual prepared by Brother Don Hutson, District VII Justice, would be of great value to each of the active chapters. Therefore, it was resolved that a copy would be distributed to the Justice and Marshal of each active chapter of our Fraternity.

The Committee also agreed that the Pledge Manual prepared by Brother Ray Judice, Assistant to the Supreme Justice, would be of great assistance in familiarizing the pledges about the history and goals of our Fraternity. Therefore, the Committee resolved that copies should be distributed to all active chapters.

The Committee saw great value in the PAD bookmark and proposed plastic rulers and therefore resolved that the bookmarks should be distributed to all active chapters and the plastic rulers should be distributed on an at-cost basis.

PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Publications Committee discussed the Directory, "The Reporter," the Rushing Booklet, the Pledge Manual and the Constitution and By-Laws. With regard to "The Reporter," the Committee concluded that the two-color format of the April, 1964 issue should be continued as to each issue in the future. They suggested that the content of "The Reporter" should be upgraded and that articles from students and alumni of general national interest should be included. However, they agreed that "The Reporter" should not contain articles which would place it in competition with law reviews.

The Committee agreed that the Pledge Manual fills a gap which has long existed in Phi Alpha Delta and will add much to the effectiveness of each chapter's rushing procedure.

RITUAL COMMITTEE

The Ritual Committee concluded that both the first and second alternate lectures on the Shield and Coat of Arms should be included in the revision of the Ritual and that each local chapter should be given the option as to which alternate lecture to use.

Also, the Committee concluded that only certain enumerated ceremonies in the Ritual could be held in public. They are the initiation of honorary members, installation of active chapter, installation of alumni chapter, installation of officers, and commemoration of brother's death at a funeral or graveside.

SCHOLARSHIP AND AWARDS COMMITTEE

The Committee on Scholarship and Awards recommended the adoption of two awards. The first suggestion was that the National Fraternity should authorize each chapter to make an annual award to its graduating member attaining the highest weighted cumulative average for his complete course. It was suggested that this award be signified by a certificate furnished by the National Fraternity.

The Committee also suggested that the National Fraternity should grant an award to each graduating PAD member who attains the highest weighted cumulative average in his entire class for his complete course. This award will be made in lieu of the first award. An alternative suggestion was to the effect that the National Fraternity should make an award to the person attaining the highest weighted cumulative average in his class irrespective of his affiliation with Phi Alpha Delta.

For the purpose of both of these awards the Committee suggested that no student should be ineligible by reason of having transferred during his law school career provided that all his work is done at law schools approved by the American Bar Association. They also suggested that students graduating subsequent to the principal graduation date of his school should be included in the succeeding principal graduation class.

PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS COMMITTEE

This Committee suggested that a liaison program be established under the by-laws of the local chapters in order to foster better communications between local chapters, alumni chapters and the National fraternity. They also recommended that the District Justice contact all chapters within his district to learn of new programs and continuing programs that have been successful in his chapters and to make a report on his findings.

The Committee felt that a packet of the PAD Library should be sent to each local chapter at the beginning of each year.

They suggested that the relationship between alumni chapters and active chapters would be improved by at least one joint function each year and that each pledge class be named after an alumnus in the community. The relationship would also be strengthened by promoting and participating in the observance of Law Day with other legal organizations.

The Committee felt that each chapter should maintain good faculty relations by inviting faculty members to all chapter functions where appropriate and inviting participation whenever possible.

AUDIT & FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Audit and Finance Committee examined in detail the audit of the fraternity for the past two years. The Committee ascertained that because of improved financial support from active chapter new member fees, alumni dues, insurance commissions and incidental funds, the fraternity is in excellent financial condition and approximately 95% of the present active fraternity fees are being used for chapter services.

The Committee ascertained that the National Office has operated within the budget adopted by the Supreme Board and in most items below the budget, thereby ending the biennium with a balance in reserve.

The Committee also ascertained that funds for the forthcoming Directory and The Reporter are in the bank and a substantial balance is in savings and loan associations.

The Committee heard an explanation of the use and financial condition of the Endowment Fund.

It should be noted that the Supreme Executive Board has reopened applications for loans from the Endowment Fund to senior law students only.

The Audit and Finance Committee examined and discussed the proposed revised Treasurer's Manual and upon motion and by majority approval the Committee recommended that the Manual be adopted and sent to all chapters as a guide for the chapter Treasurer.

Committee Reports

Resolutions Committee

The Resolutions Committee took time to recognize individuals who made the 1964 Thirty-fifth Biennial Convention a reality. They recommended that Phi Alpha Delta express its sincere appreciation to Brother Howard F. Cerny for his outstanding and untiring service in organizing the Thirty-Fifth Biennial Convention, and Brothers Edward A. Siragusa, Edward Atnally, James O'Neil, Jr., Charles DiGangi, Andrew S. Sichenze and Mrs. Edward Atnally, Convention Committee Hosts.

The Committee further recommended that Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity express its best wishes to Brother Anthony P. Savarese, of New York City, for improved health in order to continue to serve his community, profession and fraternity.

Of course, they recommended that Phi Alpha Delta express its sincere gratitude to Brother Alfred P. Murrah for the progress it has made under his direction and guidance.

It was further recommended that Phi Alpha Delta express its admiration and deep appreciation to Brother Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, for the inspiring Keynote address delivered to the convention.

Brother Calvin A. Behle, a distinguished member of Phi Alpha Delta and of the Utah Bar, deserves Phi Alpha Delta's sincere thanks for his service on the Endowment Committee and his interest in the purposes and growth of the Endowment Fund, as is exemplified by the fact that he is the first member of the One Thousand Dollar Club of the Endowment Fund of our fraternity.

The Committee further resolved that the Convention extend to Mrs. Douglas Edmonds, wife of the Late Honorable Douglas Edmonds of the California Supreme Court and Past Justice, their felicitations and warm fraternal greetings.

Mrs. Phyllis Andresen was also recognized by the Resolutions Committee for her untiring service and sincere devotion to Phi Alpha Delta during her sixteen years of devoted service to the fraternity as Chief Clerk of the Executive Office.

Finally, the Committee recommended that the Supreme Executive Board consider programs which will correct the expanding problems of the assistance of indigents in prisons and programs which will encourage the development of greater inter-American understanding.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee had the very difficult job of examining 45 proposed amendments to the Constitution and 28 proposed amendments to our national By-Laws.

Submitted was a proposed amendment to Section 1 of Article III which would permit women to become members of our Fraternity. The national chapter in convention assembled defeated the proposed amendment.

Wilson Chapter also submitted a proposed amendment which would amend Section 3 and 4 of Article III to remove the provision that under no system of voting may an individual receive more than two black balls. These proposed amendments, provided that the active chapter upon two-thirds majority of its active members, could adopt a different procedure for election of pledges other than by unanimous vote.

The proposed amendment was further amended on the convention floor to provide that the requirement of a unanimous vote could be waived by a two-thirds majority vote of all active chapter members provided however, that whatever procedure may be adopted hereunder, in no event shall any person be pledged if more than ten per cent of the active members present or the vote of two active members, whichever is greater, vote against such pledging. The delegates then approved the proposed amendment as amended on the convention floor.

Of course, Section 3 and Section 4 of Article III still guarantee each member of the right to vote by secret ballot on pledging.

Chapter X of the By-Laws was amended by deleting all sections in their entirety and substituting new sections which reflect the following facts:

1. No subscription fee shall be charged for the Reporter.

2. All members of record shall receive "The Reporter" for life.

A new section was added to Chapter I. This Section subjects pledges to certain provisions. The provisions are:

1. Pledges shall not participate in a formal chapter meeting, exercise any voting rights, or be appointed or inducted to any chapter office.

2. Pledges shall incur and be liable for payment to the chapter treasurer of any pledge fee established by the chapter but shall not be liable for any dues levied on members only.

3. Pledges shall be subject to and may be de-pledged for violation or disregard of the Constitution of this Fraternity or the National By-Laws, or the By-Laws of the active chapter to which they are pledged.

4. No person who is a pledge of any other law fraternity may become a pledge in a chapter of this fraternity unless he first terminates such other pledge-ship. Any pledge of a chapter of this fraternity who becomes a pledge of another law fraternity shall forfeit his pledge-ship in this fraternity.

This amendment is to prevent active chapters from giving pledges the privilege of membership, including voting and holding office. The amendment also provides for de-pledging upon violation or disregard of the Constitution and National By-Laws as well as forfeiture of pledge-ship if he becomes a pledge for another law fraternity.

Chapter III Section I was amended to permit our fraternity to expand to countries other than the United States as long as the college of law located in any other country is approved by the Supreme Executive Board as suitable location for an active chapter in our fraternity.

Section Six of Chapter III was amended to add the recognition pin to the membership jewelry. It also provides that this recognition pin shall be purchased by the active chapter and presented to the initiate. The cost of the pin is to be included in the chapter, pledge or initiation fee.

Each of the committees at our convention worked extremely hard. Through their efforts our fraternity is in a position to step further ahead as the most outstanding law fraternity in the country.

THE SCHOLARSHIP AND AWARDS COMMITTEE worked on the problem of establishing awards which will encourage our members to improve their scholastic standing.

IT WAS THROUGH THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE that the many individuals who made the Convention possible were recognized.

THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE determined that almost all of our 94 active chapter and 52 alumni chapters were represented at the Convention.

THE PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS COMMITTEE worked on bringing the active and alumni chapters closer together and in strengthening and maintaining good faculty relations, and suggested the use of the Phi Alpha Delta Library to achieve these goals.

FORMER ASSOCIATE TRIBUNE, WILLIAM B. ROBERTSON, addresses the Convention during a debate on a constitutional question.

1964 Outstanding Chapter Awards Announced

Announcement of the Most Outstanding Chapters in the nation for the year 1964 was made at the Convention Banquet in New York City. Selected as the top chapter in the country was Magruder Chapter at the University of Illinois. Second place went to Benson Chapter at Washburn University, while Beaumont Chapter at California Western University in San Diego, and Pinckney Chapter at the University of South Carolina tied for third place. Taney Chapter at Southern Methodist University received a special award for continuing excellence.

Magruder Chapter

In order to create a closer bond between the chapter and our alumni in the Chicago area, a newsletter communique program was established by Magruder Chapter. The purpose of this newsletter is to inform our Brothers of the activities in which Magruder Chapter is engaged and to invite them to attend. The success of this program is exemplified by the unusually large number of alumni in attendance at Magruder Chapter's affairs and in the close rapport that has been established between active and alumni members in the Chicago area.

Magruder Chapter also introduced an esteemed member of the judiciary to Phi Alpha Delta by initiating the Honorable Charles E. Keller as an honorary member of our fraternity.

The members of Magruder Chapter actively participate in the activities of the University of Illinois School of Law. This is exemplified by the fact that among the members of Magruder Chapter there is the co-chairman of the Law School Freshmen Orientation Committee, the chairman of the Law School Recognition Banquet, Business Manager of the Law School paper, the chairman of the Law School International Law Society, the chairman of the Law School Civil Rights Committee, the chairman of the Law School Pre-Law Day Program, the Law School delegate to the American Law Students Association Convention, the first associate editor of the Law Review, the second associate editor of the Law Review, the case editor of the Law Review, the assistant editor of the Law Review, as well as eight members of the editorial board of the Law Review. In addition Magruder Chapter is currently attempting to initiate a Legal Aid Program. The goal is to either have the College of Law establish such a program or to establish a legal aid program sponsored by active and alumni members of Phi Alpha Delta in the Chicago area.

Magruder Chapter boasts the winners of First and Second Place in the Fredrick Green Moot Court Competition, as well as the president and vice-president of the Stock Investors Club, which was recently formed at the University of Illinois.

Magruder Chapter has found its Professional Luncheon Program to be a valuable method of contributing to the professional development of the active brothers and strengthening the fraternal bond of brotherhood through enabling the active members to join together frequently with alumni members, thus maintaining a close relationship through luncheons together on numerous occasions. Recognizing the value of this program, Magruder Chapter has sponsored 10 luncheons at which topics such as "How to Invest in Stocks," "The Case Against Medicare," "How to Select a Jury," and the "Law School Graduate Student Program," have been presented.

Magruder Chapter conducts a seminar program shortly before the beginning of final examinations each semester. The seminar is offered for each first year course and certain advanced courses. The seminars are conducted by brothers who attain the grade of "A" in a particular course covered by the seminar.

A moot court seminar is also conducted at which a trial with oral arguments is held. Faculty members act as judges at this seminar and the participants are four brothers who have been selected by the faculty committee for advanced moot court competition.

A lending library consisting of case books, horn books, commercially prepared outlines, individually prepared outlines and class notes has been established by Magruder Chapter. This service enables members and pledges to obtain the use of materials which the owners thereof do not wish to sell but are willing to loan.

Magruder Chapter has established good relationship with local civic organizations and local newspapers and radio stations through its community participation program. In this program, the brothers and pledges of Magruder Chapter have offered their voluntary services to the Champaign-Urbana Chamber of Commerce and to the United Fund for the purpose of participating in charitable drives and canvassing.

Magruder Chapter also sponsors various field trips throughout the year. This year Magruder Chapter toured the State Mental Hospital and the Stateville Penitentiary.

While Magruder Chapter places primary emphasis on professional programs, they also engage in various social activities, including stag parties, dances and banquets.

While Magruder Chapter is not the largest chapter in our fraternity, it has increased from 12 members in 1963 to 84 members in good standing at the present time. Magruder Chapter intends to enlarge its membership even more as a result of an active rushing program this fall.

Benson Chapter

Benson Chapter at Washburn University School of Law was chosen as the Second Most Outstanding Chapter in our National competition. Like Magruder Chapter, Benson Chapter's success is due to the hard work of each of its members. Its members belong to the Moot Court Team; are Student Bar Association officers, committee chairmen, committee members, Law Review writers, and student newspaper editors; as well as working hard for the fraternity directly.

A close bond has been formed between the active members of Benson Chapter and its alumni as a result of the formation of the Benson Chapter Alumni Association. As a result of this close association, a chapter fraternity house was acquired and is maintained by the Alumni Association.

Meetings of Benson Chapter are held at the chapter house twice a month. On the first Monday of the month there is a dinner meeting followed by a speaker and then a short chapter meeting. On the third Monday of the month there is usually a short cocktail hour preceding the speaker and then a regular business meeting afterward. Speakers are selected from various areas of the legal profession, including judges, practicing attorneys, professors, men who are qualified lawyers but have chosen some related walk of life, and politicians.

The social life of Benson Chapter revolves around their chapter house, which is composed of eight individual studying and sleeping rooms, a library, kitchen, chapter livingroom. It is here that Benson Chapter's stag parties and many of its dances and banquets are held.

THE MOST OUTSTANDING PAD Chapter Awards were presented at the convention banquet. Recipients of the awards were: First Place—Magruder Chapter, University of Illinois; Second Place—Benson Chapter, Washburn University; Third Place—tied between Beaumont Chapter at California Western University and Pinckney Chapter at the University of South Carolina. District winners were District I—Dunbar Chapter at the University of Washington; District II—tied between Temple Chapter, Hastings College of the Law, and Field Chapter, University of California at Berkeley; District III—Beaumont Chapter, California Western University; District IV—Sutherland Chapter, University of Utah; District V—Hull Chapter at Cumberland School of Law; District VI—Magruder Chapter, University of Illinois; District VII—Taney Chapter, Southern Methodist University; District VIII—Benson Chapter, Washburn University; District IX—Grant Chapter, University of Akron; District X—Fish Chapter, Mercer University; District XI—Wilson Chapter, Cornell University; District XII—Pinckney Chapter, University of South Carolina.

PAD wives of Benson Chapter have formed close friendships as a result of various programs in which they have engaged, including luncheons, bridge parties and teas.

Beaumont and Pinckney Chapters

The Third Place in our National Competition is shared between Beaumont Chapter at California Western University and Pinckney Chapter at the University of South Carolina. Both of these chapters have engaged in many worthwhile professional and social activities, such as an orientation program, student-faculty directory, Law Day program, the Law Student Forum, monthly dinner meetings, student book exchange, luncheons, barbecues, guest lecturers and banquets. They both certainly deserve to be placed among the Most Outstanding Chapters in our fraternity.

Outstanding District Chapters

The following are the chapters which were chosen as the Most Outstanding in their District:

District I—Dunbar Chapter at the University of Washington.

District II—Field Chapter at the University of California, Temple Chapter at Hastings College of the Law.

District III—Beaumont Chapter at California Western University.

District IV—Sutherland Chapter at the University of Utah.

District V—Hull Chapter at Cumberland University.

District VI—Magruder Chapter at the University of Illinois.

District VII—Benson Chapter at Washburn College of Law.

District VIII—Taney Chapter at Southern Methodist University.

District XI—Grant Chapter at the University of Akron.

District X—Keener Chapter at Emory University.

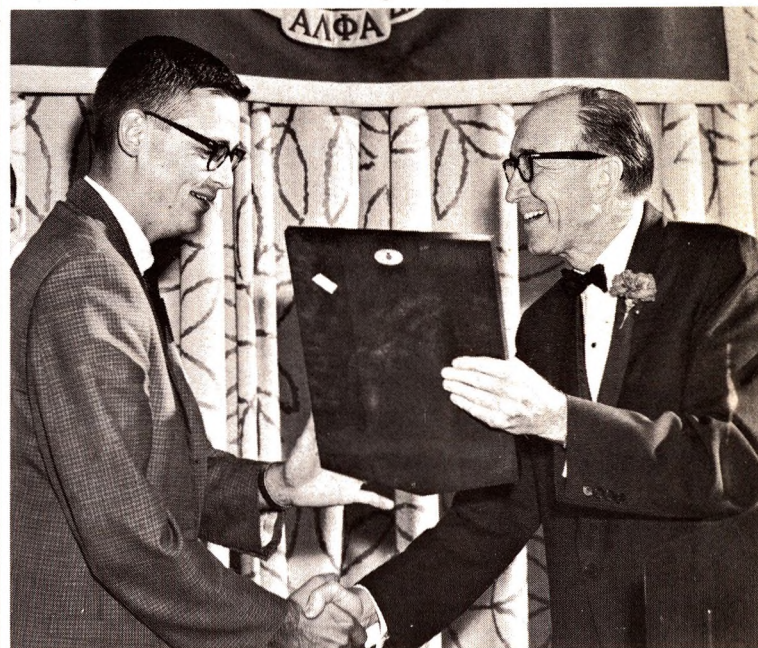

District XI—Wilson Chapter at Cornell University.

District XII—Pinckney Chapter at the University of South Carolina.

All of these chapters have proven through their endeavors that a legal fraternity has a place in the legal profession when it provides service to the student, the law school and the profession.

THE DELEGATE FROM BENSON CHAPTER, Washburn University, received the Second Most Outstanding Chapter plaque, on behalf of his chapter, from Past Supreme Justice Murrah.

THE REPRESENTATIVES FROM PINCKNEY CHAPTER, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CAROLINA, AND BEAUMONT CHAPTER, California Western University, received the Third Most Outstanding Chapter award on behalf of their chapters.

Hase, Patton & Reed Are Clark Finalists

Each year Brother Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, selects a law clerk from among the student members of PAD. The qualifications of all applicants are first reviewed by the Supreme Tribunal of the fraternity which selects three finalists which are submitted to Justice Clark for the final determination.

This year thirty-two outstanding student members of Phi Alpha Delta applied for this position. Because of the extremely large response and outstanding caliber of the applicants, the fraternity's Supreme Tribunal, consisting of Chief Tribune Charles Digangi and Associate Tribunes Donald R. Moore and George T. Nickell, spent many hours in reviewing the applications. Three applicants were finally selected as finalists from which Justice Clark will personally select his clerk. They are David John Hase, Thomas Patton, and Charles D. Reed.

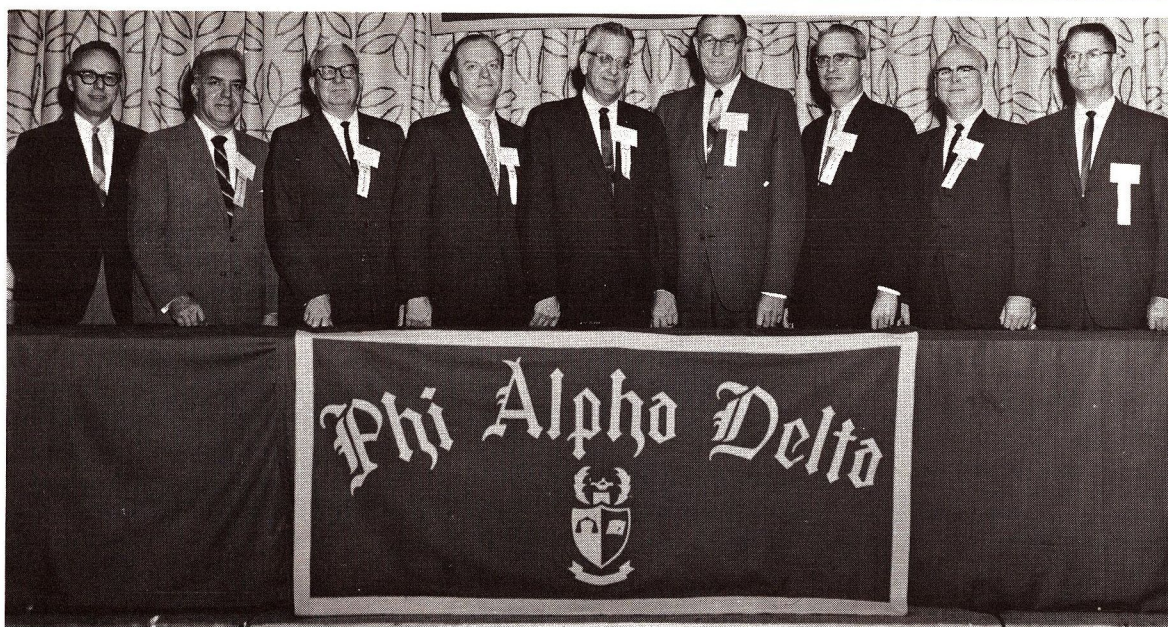

Each of the applicants was outstanding in his own right, both in his academic record and extracurricular activities.

Brother David John Hase was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He obtained his A. B. degree at Dartmouth College, where he graduated magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. While at Dartmouth Brother Hase majored in government, receiving a citation for work of highest distinction in the major.

He then returned to Wisconsin to work for his LL.B degree at the University of Wisconsin. During the first two years at the University of Wisconsin, Brother Hase earned a cumulative average of 88.74! He received the William Herbert Page Award for the best student note or comment to appear for the year in the Wisconsin Law Review and the Wisconsin Law Alumni Association prize awarded to a student with the highest average in his class. This year Brother Hase is serving as the Editor in Chief of the Wisconsin Law Review and has received the Hagenah Scholarship which is awarded to the Editor in Chief.

Brother Hase has served as House Fellow (resident counsellor) in the University of Wisconsin Resident Halls, summer law clerk for a law firm in Milwaukee and Fellow, National Council on Legal Clinics Program to place law students in correctional institutions.

Brother Thomas Patton was born in Indianapolis, Indiana and received an AB in Political Science from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C. where he graduated magna cum laude. His other honors as an undergraduate include Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Mu, and the Rector's Award for the outstanding undergraduate male. While an undergraduate Brother Patton was president of the student body for two years.

Brother Patton remained at Catholic University of America to work for his LL.B degree. During his first year he received the Dean's Award for the highest academic average in his class. He was a member of Catholic University's Moot Court team which competed for the Sutherland Cup. During the summer Brother Patton worked as a clerk with a law firm in Washington, D.C.

During Brother Patton's third year he will serve as Editor in Chief of the Catholic University Law Review.

Brother Charles D. Reed was born in Houston, Texas and received his B. A. degree from Rice Institute. He then received a master of science degree from the University of Texas in absentia. While at the University of Texas he taught in the Department of Chemical Engineering and the Department of Mathematics and Astronomy.

Brother Reed then received a Fulbright Fellowship to the Institute Francais de Petrol in Paris, France, where he received a Certificate by the Institute for his work on chemical separation techniques.

He is a member of the following technical and learned societies: Sigma Xi, Phi Lambda Upsilon, Omega Chi Epsilon, American Institute of Chemical Engineers, National Society of Professional Engineers, American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers—Society of Petroleum Engineers, and the French-American University Association.

He has served as consultant, research and development engineer for Tellepsen Petrochemical Constructors, research engineer for the U. S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory and project supervisor of the Exploration and Production Research Group For Tidewater Oil Co.

At the age of 29, Brother Reed decided to increase his education by returning to school at South Texas College of Law where he is working for his LL.B degree.

Judge Irving R. Kaufman Initiated

One of Justice Tom C. Clark's first duties as Supreme Vice Justice was to officiate at the initiation of the Honorable Irving Robert Kaufman into Wormser Chapter as an honorary member of our fraternity.

Judge Kaufman is Judge of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. He graduated from Fordham University School of Law in 1931 and became Special Assistant to the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. Shortly thereafter he became Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States in charge of lobbying investigation and set up permanent lobbying unit for the Department of Justice to which he served as head.

Brother Kaufman then left the Department of Justice and became a partner in the firm of Simpson, Brady, Noonan and Kaufman in New York City. In 1949 Brother Kaufman was appointed Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Brother Kaufman has engaged in many civic activities. He was a member of the National Council of Crime and Delinquency, Trustee of Riverside Country School, member of the American Heritage Foundation, as well as being a member of the National Committee of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and Rector of the Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association.

Because of Brother Kaufman's many activities, he has been awarded the Americanism Citation by the American Legion, the Man of the Year Citation by Tau Epsilon Phi, Certificate of Honor by the Virginia State Association of B'nai B'rith and a citation by the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Besides our fraternity, Brother Kaufman is a member of the New York City and State Bar Associations, the American Bar Association, the American Judicature Society, and Tau Epsilon Phi.

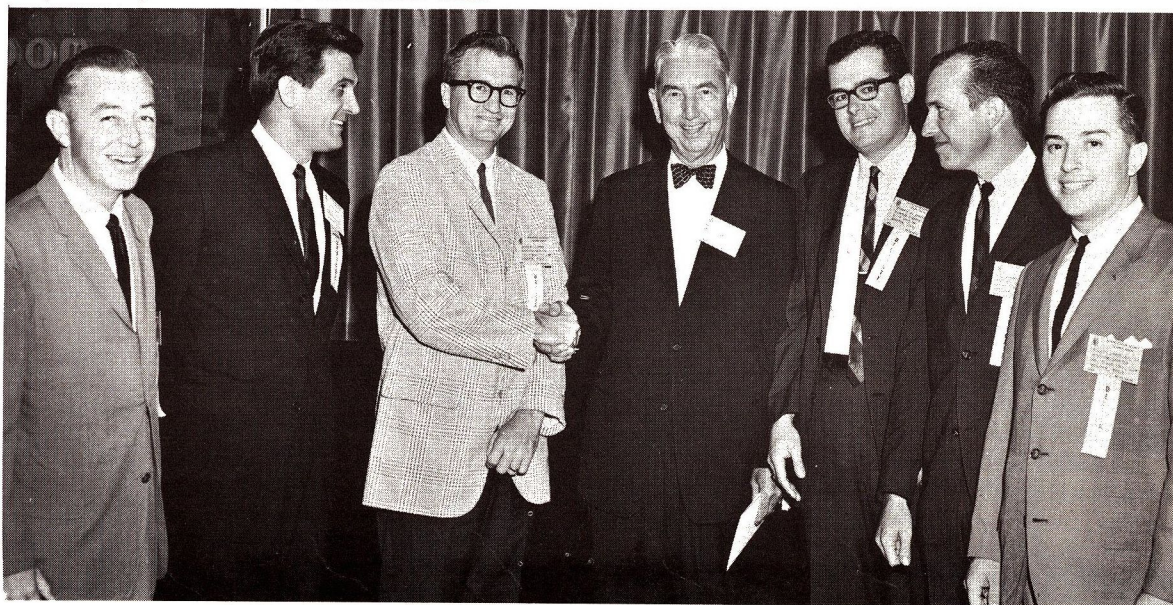

JUSTICE TOM C. CLARK, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and Supreme Vice Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, initiates the Honorable Irving R. Kaufman, Justice of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, as an honorary member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

NEW OFFICERS

America with offices in Washington, D. C.

He is a graduate of Ohio State University and obtained his LLB Degree at George Washington University where he was a member of Taft Chapter.

He has long served Phi Alpha Delta and has held positions such as District XII Justice, Washington D. C. Alumni Chapter Justice and Supreme Treasurer.

Supreme Secretary

Henry C. "Hank" Rohr will serve a third term as our Supreme Secretary. Brother Rohr obtained his legal education at the University of Southern California where he became a member of Ross Chapter. Brother Rohr has been practicing law in the Los Angeles area since that time.

He served as District III Justice from 1948 to 1960 when he was elected to the Supreme Executive Board as Supreme Secretary. He has been serving in that capacity since that time. He has also been Chairman of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter placement committee for the past twenty-five years and was Chairman of the Finance Committee for the very successful 1948 National Convention.

He is also a Past Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter and is presently serving as a Trustee of the Mickey McDowell Phi Alpha Delta Scholarship Fund.

Supreme Treasurer

The Honorable Dee Brown Walker, Judge of the 162nd District Court of Texas was chosen to serve a second term as our Supreme Treasurer. Brother Walker graduated from Southern Methodist University where he became a member of Taney Chapter. He was a partner in the firm of Dillard & Walker until he was appointed to the Texas District Court Bench.

His activities in Phi Alpha Delta have included Justice of the Dallas Alumni Chapter, District VIII Justice, Associate Tribune, Chief Tribune, Supreme Historian and Supreme Treasurer.

Supreme Historian

T. Julian Skinner, Jr., will serve as our Supreme Historian. He received his LLB Degree at the University of Alabama where he became a member of Morgan Chapter.

He is now General Counsel for the Alabama By-Products Corporation which is located in Birmingham, Alabama.

His activities in Phi Alpha Delta include Past Justice of the Alabama Alumni Chapter, District V Justice and member of the Supreme Executive Board since 1958.

Brother Skinner is also active in the American Bar Association where he was a member of the House of Delegates from 1948 until 1952.

Supreme Marshal

The Honorable Alex Hotchkiss, District Judge of the 35th Judicial District of Kansas, will serve again as our Supreme Marshal.

Prior to becoming a State District Judge Brother Hotchkiss was County Attorney of Hosage County for six years and a member of the Kansas State Senate for four years.

His activities in Phi Alpha Delta include Justice of Benson Chapter while attending Washburn University School of Law, Delegate to our National Convention in St. Louis in 1925, Justice of the Topeka Alumni Chapter for 2 terms, and Key-note Speaker at the 1962 National Convention.

Board of Tribunes

The National Chapter in Convention Assembled chose Charles DiGangi to serve as our Chief Tribune for the following two years. Brother DiGangi is a practicing attorney in Forest Hills, New York. He received his LLB Degree from New York University where he became a member of Rapallo Chapter. Brother DiGangi was first elected Chief Tribune in 1960 at the Miami Convention and was re-elected in 1962 at the Denver Convention.

Brother George T. Nickell, the senior partner in the firm of Nickell, Quinn & Tuai in Seattle, Washington, was chosen as an associate Tribune. He served as District I Justice from 1947 to 1958 and has served as Associate Tribune since 1958. He has attended every National Convention since 1950. Brother Nickell is a member of Dunbar Chapter having graduated from the University of Washington School of Law.

Brother Donald R. Moore, of Washington, D. C., was also chosen as an associate Tribune. He has been a hearing examiner for the Federal Trade Commission since 1961 and a member of the Commission Staff since 1946. Brother Moore received his LLB from George Washington University where he became a member of Taft Chapter. He is a former Justice of Taft Chapter and is the present Justice of the Washington Alumni Chapter, as well as being a Past District XII Justice.

JUSTICE CLARK addresses the assembled guests on professional services which our fraternity can provide.

DEBATE ON THE CONVENTION FLOOR was very active and all in attendance had the opportunity to express their views.

DELEGATES from almost all of our 94 active chapters and many of our alumni chapters across the country were on hand for the opening session of the convention.

New York Hosts

Tuesday, August 11, saw the convention hard at work again as committees began their reports to the convention and there was much debate on the recommendations. The convention heard reports from the Rushing and Pledgship Committee, the Publications Committee, the Scholarship and Awards Committee, the Professional Programs Committee, the Resolutions Committee and the Audit and Finance Committee. The reports of the committees are reprinted elsewhere in this issue.

That afternoon the New York Alumni Chapter guided everyone by chartered bus to the East River where Aquafoil boats were waiting to take all to the World's Fair. Tickets were graciously provided by the New York Alumni Chapter for the boatride and the World's Fair.

Wednesday, August 12th, the last day of the convention, was consumed with hard work because of the long agenda yet to be covered. Controversial committee reports on proposed constitution and by-law amendments and Ritual changes were hotly debated with all the fervor of a National Political Convention. One of the most hotly debated recommendations was to strike the word "male" from Section 1, Article III, thereby to permit women to become members of our fraternity. After long debate, the delegates by roll call vote defeated this proposed amendment.

Another issue which was heavily debated was the proposed amendment to change Section 3 and Section 4 of Article III so as to enable a chapter upon two-thirds vote of its active members to adopt a different procedure for the election of members than a unanimous vote. After extended debate, the delegates in convention assembled decided to amend Section 3 and Section 4 of Article III to allow an active chapter on two-thirds vote of its active members to adopt a procedure for election of members other than by unanimous vote, but in no event to allow a person to become a member who receives a blackball from more than 10 per cent of the active members of the chapter present or the vote of two active members present, whichever is greater. The right to a secret ballot was, of course, retained.

The delegates also voted to authorize the National Chapter to pay the airline transportation expense for one delegate from each alumni chapter in good standing to each National Convention.

At the end of the session when the smoke cleared and the shouting was over, all closed ranks and the fraternity emerged the stronger for the full exchange of ideas.

The election of national officers for the biennium saw Dr. Elden S. Magaw, assistant dean at Temple University School of Law, unanimously elected Supreme Justice; Justice Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, elected Supreme Vice-Justice; Robert E. Redding, General Counsel of the Transportation Association of America, elected Second Supreme Vice Justice; Henry C. Rohr, a practicing attorney from Los Angeles, elected Supreme Secretary; Honorable Dee Brown Walker, Judge of the 162nd Judicial District Court of Texas, elected Supreme Treasurer; T. Julian Skinner, Jr., counsel for the Alabama Bi-Products Company, elected Supreme Historian; and Judge Alex Hotchkiss of Lynden, Kansas, elected Supreme Marshal.

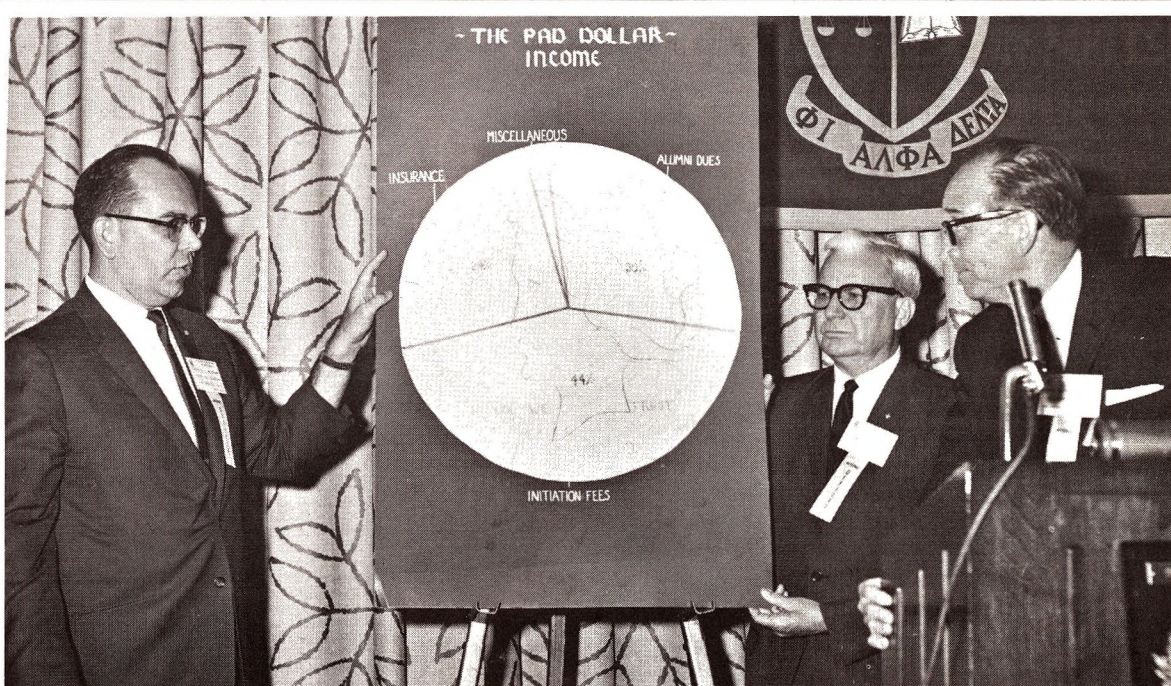

Elected to the Board of Tribunes were Charles DiGangi, Chief Tribune; George T. Nickell and Donald R. Moore, Associate Tribunes.

The final event of the convention was the traditional convention dinner-dance with some three hundred in attendance. During the dinner-dance Phi Alpha Delta bestowed an honorary membership on Honorable Irving R. Kaufman, Judge of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. Justice Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, made this an especially memorable event by conducting the initiation ceremony.

Those in attendance at the banquet also witnessed the installation of our new National Officers, who together comprise one of the finest Supreme Executive Boards in our history.

Following the banquet there was dancing until midnight.

Nostalgia prevailed the atmosphere at the banquet as good-byes had to be said to new found friends and brothers, but all departed New York looking forward to 1966 when the Kansas City Alumni Chapter will try to surpass the New York Alumni as gracious hosts.

FREDRICK J. WEITKAMP, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, explains the sources from which our fraternity receives its income. To the right of the PAD dollar is Honorable Dee Brown Walker, Supreme Treasurer, and Honorable Alfred P. Murrah, Past Supreme Justice.

EVERYONE ENJOYED the fine hors d'oeuvres at the general convention reception.

EVERYONE ENJOYED THEMSELVES at the fantastic reception sponsored by the New York Alumni Association.

Supreme Justice Message

The Honorable Alfred P. Murrah, Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, has served loyally and with distinction. We honor him and the lovely Mrs. Murrah, for two of the best years in the history of our Fraternity.

In selecting as First Supreme Vice Justice, our Brother, Honorable Tom Clark, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, you honor him and at the same time guarantee that the future of our Fraternity for the years 1966 to 1968, will be in most capable hands.

The other members of our Supreme Executive Board are also splendid men of distinction who have served you well.

We are grateful for the loyal services of our District Justices, who in each District are representatives of the Supreme Justice. Theirs is a labor of love; the position is demanding and time consuming, and involves financial sacrifice. The success of the District plan is dependent entirely on the dedication, efficiency, and willingness to work of our District Justices, and those who discharge faithfully the obligations of that office deserve our deep respect and appreciation.

The Supreme Executive Board is grateful for the efficient work of the Supreme Tribunal, the judicial branch of our Fraternity, of our Executive Secretary, Fred Weitkamp, his staff, including of course, the Sweetheart of Phi Alpha Delta, Mrs. Phyllis Andresen, who has rendered invaluable service in our interest for so many years.

We are grateful for the splendid work which has been done by Brother Ray Judice who has traveled all over the country visiting Chapters and the Law Schools. I am indeed happy and proud to announce to you tonight that as "Assistant to the Supreme Justice" we will have his services for the next two years.

On a more personal note, I am sincerely grateful for the encouragement, cooperation, and inspiration given to me by my wife, Mildred, your First Lady for the next two years, which has made it possible for me to devote so much time to Phi Alpha Delta. These are also the exact sentiments which each of your Supreme Executive Board would express to his wife were he now speaking. We honor all of them.

At this point in our Convention proceedings it is our custom to present the retiring Supreme Justice with a Diamond Past Supreme Justice key, which I now do, not only as a token of our respect and appreciation for a job well done, but also as a continuous link with the past. May that link always remind us, and those who follow, of a continued and never ending responsibility to preserve and improve the best that comes out of the past. That is our challenge—both now and in the future. May we be given the Grace and Wisdom to discharge our duties in this, our Sacred Trust."

Clark Finalists

His present grade average is 91.5. He received a prize from the Texas Association of Plaintiffs' Attorneys for his law review article on "Products Liability and the Privy Rule," and served as assistant editor in chief of the South Texas Law Journal during his second year.

His extracurricular activities include membership in the Student Bar Association, of which he is presently secretary, member of the South Texas Student Honor Council, and concurrent employment as a research chemical engineer.

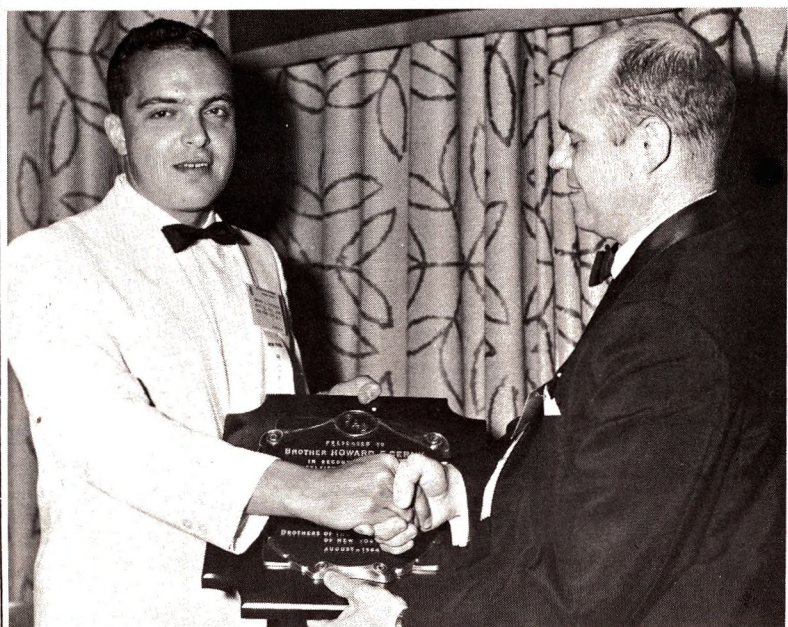

As can be seen by the brief description of the activities and abilities of the 3 finalists, it is apparent that any one of them, because of their qualifications, will represent Phi Alpha Delta honorably as the law clerk for Justice Tom C. Clark.

THE DELEGATES AND THEIR WIVES took time from work to aquafoil to the World's Fair.

BROTHER EDWARD A. SIRAGUSA presented a plaque to Brother Howard F. Cerny for the work which Brother Cerny did to make the 35th Biennial Convention a reality. Our hats are off to all of our fine brothers in New York who worked with Brother Cerny to make this National Convention the best.

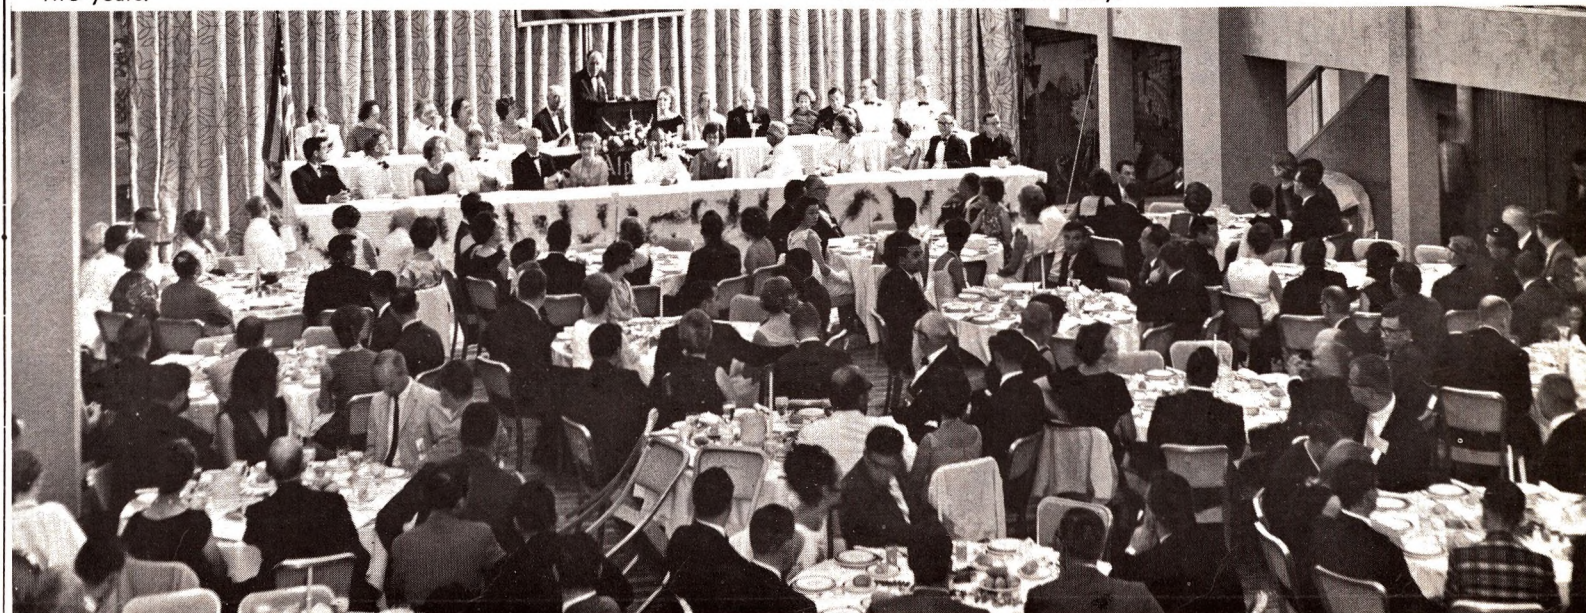

SUPREME JUSTICE MAGAW presents a Past Supreme Justice diamond studded key to Judge Alfred P. Murrah on behalf of the members of Phi Alpha Delta.

PAST SUPREME JUSTICE ALFRED MURRAH SMILES as his wife acknowledges receipt of the gift presented by Phi Alpha Delta to express their appreciation to her for the understanding and assistance that she has given to Judge Murrah and the fraternity during the last two years.

PHYLLIS ANDRESEN, Chief Clerk in our National Executive Secretary's office, receives a Phi Alpha Delta ring from Past Supreme Justice Alfred P. Murrah as a token of appreciation for her sixteen years of service to our fraternity.

JUDGE MURRAH ADDRESSES THOSE ASSEMBLED at the 35th National Convention banquet for the last time as Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta.

Convention Scratch PAD

By SANDY RAE

Conventions are fun . . . one at a time . . . Two conventions and a World's Fair! . . . we needed a week's recuperation. New York World's Fair motto . . . "Bring spare feet and money." . . . The exhibits were very educational . . . so say those who got inside one . . . Haven't seen lines like that since the Army . . . Haven't seen food like that since then either . . . didn't really want to see either again . . . but then you can't go to New York without going to the Fair.

HOWARD CERNY, General Convention Chairman, did an outstanding job in all departments . . . starting with ousting a client of his from our hostelry so we could have our confirmed reservation honored . . . Too bad he didn't have more clients there . . . SUPREME SECRETARY ROHR had to wait some 30 hours for his confirmed reservation . . . Howard found a new way to get us to the Fair . . . via hydrofoil . . . that's an airbornesubmarine . . . Our pilot evacuated the cockpit and joined us passengers every time he drove under a wave . . . ED ATNALLY, Entertainment Chairman, forgot to duck one wave and wound up knee deep in brine.

In ten biennial Conventions we've been subjected to a broad cross-section of American hotels . . . but the Park-Sheraton was ridiculous . . . With luck there sometimes might be three elevators running at any given moment . . . with waiting lines as long as the Ford exhibit at the Fair . . . GEORGE NICKELL, Associate Tribune, got to the cocktail party an hour late . . . finally walked up seven flights . . . Then there was the typically courteous employee who refused to take any passengers on his elevator . . . just one suitcase . . . Chief Tribune CHARLES DIGANGI was registered at the hotel all week . . . but nobody told the switchboard or mail clerk . . . which latter individual performed her duties by directing patrons to mail their letters at the corner box on the street . . . The management was loyal to the Surgeon General, however . . . cigarettes could only be purchased in the parking lot across the street.

But every cloud has a silver lining some place . . . in this case the headquarters suite occupied by Executive Secretary FRED WEITKAMP, et al . . . It was Jackie Gleason's specially designed extravaganza . . . TV hidden behind one-way mirror in bedroom . . . with remote control by oversize bed with scarlet canopy . . . a direct line to CBS . . . and of course a circular bar . . . Like everybody else, Fred's staff found reservation confirmations mean nothing to Mr. Sheraton . . . the first night six of them slept in Fred's suite . . . never saw so many beds in a sitting-room.

We kept up our spirits, however . . . with the enthusiastic assistance of Supreme Cheerleader ALEX HOTCHKISS . . . and Associate Tribune DON MOORE'S sly political humor . . . Don has started a new political party . . . the Libertine Party . . . motto, "Moderation in the pursuit of vice is no virtue" . . . Then there was the welcome to N.Y. by new Supreme Justice ELDEN MAGAW with his Friday cocktail party . . . and the charming formal dinner given by outgoing Supreme Justice ALFRED P. MURRAH on Saturday evening . . . The party-goers found places to go . . . SANDY and JANET RAE with fellow Angelino ROHR initiated PHYLLIS ANDRESEN, LORETTA SBALCHIERO, and IRENE BAILIE to Dixieland music a la Eddie Condon . . . and then there was the Red Garter . . . JUDGE RAY JUDICE, National Field Representative, found out "What Makes Sammy Run" . . . the price of N.Y. theatre tickets . . . And did you ever try to catch a Long Island Railroad train by auto . . . on unfamiliar road? . . . There's an erstwhile test pilot in Cold Spring Harbor who won't try it again . . . even for a friendly PAD . . . he quit trying at Flushing.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE TOM CLARK, our new Supreme Vice Justice, gave an inspiring keynote address . . . but declined to repeat his lock-picking performance of French Lick Springs in 1950 when he learned FRANK GRAY had forgotten the keys to the Fraternity's luggage . . . Some Brothers came the hard way . . . JOHN DWYER (Temple) had his plane catch fire over Las Vegas . . . and nobody can afford that . . . And then RON COHEN (McCormick) was stalled in Denver for six hours by the Shriners Convention . . . but FRANCIS J. SPITZNAGEL (J. I. Sullivan) didn't get there at all . . . he became a father at the wrong moment . . . for us that is . . . he thought it was just fine . . . KEN LOUNSBERRY, BOB WATT, KEN SQUIRES, and BOB WHEELER (all Beaumont) needed a "N.Y. or Bust" sign on their auto trip from San Diego . . . four blocks from the hotel the car broke down . . . maybe it got a look at the hotel . . . EVERETT E. STEERMAN (Topeka Alumni) made it to the convention . . . but his luggage didn't . . . that's one way to get a new suit.

FRED MACHNER (Wilson) proposed an amendment to admit the fairer sex to membership . . . that shook up the purists . . . KEN ROWEN (Ross) wanted to know if we'd call ourselves a frarority . . . ANNE WALKER, charming Texas wife of Supreme Treasurer HON. DEE BROWN WALKER, polled the wives on that one . . . discovered that the sweethearts of PAD don't want lady brothers confusing the issue . . . DAVE GANNETT (Dunbar) wishes he'd never heard of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee . . . found out as Vice-Chairman that he had to stay up all night . . . And even that didn't stop the future Judges from dissenting opinions . . . minority reports spiced the floor discussion . . . DENNIS GROSS (Fuller), LARRY JOHNSON (Magruder), and ARCHER SMITH III (Stephens) proved that any legal question has at least two sides . . . Governors of the future, please take note.

From near and far, the Brothers gathered . . . JOSEPH A. SINCLITICO, new Dean of the University of San Diego, there with McCormick Chapter and representing his Alumni Chapter . . . the delegates from Chapters installed since the 1962 Convention, ED O'CONNOR (Egan); WOODROW DENSON (Hickman); PAUL GIBLIN, STANLEY PERLOWSKI, and JOHN DARCY (all Paterson); WILLIAM CARRUTH (White); and WILLIAM KOHLER (Wormser) . . . and the welcome return of delegates from Chapters reactivated since 1962. ARTHUR PICULELL and GEORGE BLACKWOOD (both Green); HOWARD NATIONS, STEWART KRESGE, JOHN PAUL JONES and JOHN C. DEMOS (all Lurton); RANDOLPH MCCARTHY and GEORGE MOORE (both McKinley); BRUCE CARLSON (Mitchell); and DOUGLAS MACPHAIL (Rutledge).

It was a historical Convention . . . there was District VIII Justice ROBERT E. LEE . . . and the winner of doorprize book on Admiralty Law was, naturally, JOHN PAUL JONES (Lurton) . . . It was a hospitable Convention . . . thanks to the New York Alumni . . . and a special bow to our beautiful hostess, MARY ATNALLY, who kept all of our ladies happy . . . It was a memorable Convention . . . thanks to the skillful leadership of Supreme Justice ALFRED P. MURRAH . . . a story-teller par excellence who knows just when to handle a gavel like the outstanding Federal Judge he is . . . and when to speed deliberations with a deft touch of Oklahoma humor . . . It was a family Convention . . . thanks to those who brought their children . . . Past Supreme Justices ANTHONY A. DIGRAZIA and ELWYN THOMAS Second Supreme Vice Justice ROBERT E. REDDING, Chicago Alumnus ROBERT GORMAN, Supreme Treasurer WALKER, and many others . . . a salute to the younger generation . . . the future PAD's or PAD sweethearts.

As we say farewell to New York we remember much . . . the little things . . . like FRANK WORTHINGTON ordering ice for his District 1 caucus and getting about a ton . . . after previous efforts resulted in a cube . . . the big things . . . like a meal at Mama Leone's . . . or the price of a meal at La Granada in the Spanish Pavilion . . . the thoughtful touches . . . like HOWARD CERNY buying Italian Ices for the waiting line at the boat dock . . . and the fraternal fun. On to 1966 . . . whether it's San Diego, Kansas City, Nome or Honolulu . . . we'll be there . . . Scratchpad in hand . . . See you then.
