Two Past Supreme Justices Die

Tribute On the Passing of a Very Real Person

People are of two kinds, and he Was the kind I'd like to be.
Some preach their virtues, and a few
Express their lives by what they do;
That sort was he. No flowery phrase or glibly spoken word of praise
Won friends for him. He wasn't cheap
Or shallow, but his course ran deep,
And it was pure. You know the kind.
Not many in life you find
Whose deeds outrun their words so far
That more than what they seem, they are.

ANTHONY P. SAVARESE

Phi Alpha Delta is saddened by the recent passing of our beloved Brother Anthony P. Savarese who served as our Supreme Justice from 1952 to 1954.

Brother Savarese commenced his administration with five main goals, which were: To strengthen district organizations; to develop an effective placement program at the national level for use in the districts; to foster, encourage and assist greater participation in national, state and local bar associations among PAD members; to seek greater alumni interest and activity in the local chapters; and to work out a financial program which would adequately support and maintain these services. As can be seen, these are programs

EDGAR A. JONAS

Phi Alpha Delta has lost a dear friend with the passing of Brother Edgar A. Jonas, past Supreme Justice, on November 14, 1965 at the age of 79.

Brother Jonas entered the national scene in our fraternity in 1913 when he was elected as First Supreme Vice Justice.

In 1914, Brother Jonas, an alumnus of Webster Chapter, was chosen to lead our fraternity as its Supreme Justice. The policies of Brother Jonas' administration were as follows:

1. To devise a scheme to increase the finances;
2. To encourage the building of fraternity houses by chapters;
3. To create a trust fund for trophies for awards for fraternity service;
4. To foster a greater bond of fraternalism between chapters in close proximity to one another;

5. To have a uniform lecture system of initiations; and
6. To stimulate greater interest in the quarterly.

During his administration, Reese Chapter at the University of Nebraska and Brewer Chapter at Stetson University were chartered.

In addition, an official Phi Alpha Delta convention train was organized to carry brothers from all points between Chicago and San Francisco, the 1915 convention site. It is to be noted that the one-way upper berth cost was $10.40 from Chicago to San Francisco.

In his private life, Brother Jonas served as an assistant corporation counsel in Chicago from 1919 until 1921. He then served as the First Assistant State's Attorney of Cook County until 1923, when he was appointed a judge of the Chicago Municipal Court. He served three terms in the Municipal Court and later served on the Superior Court bench.

He served as the United States Representative from the 12th Congressional District from 1949 until 1954.

Brother Jonas also found time to serve as Board President of the Illinois Masonic Hospital Association for 37 years. Earlier this year, a new pavilion was named for him.

Servicing Brother Jonas are two brothers, Frederick C. and Harry, and two sisters, Mrs. Clare Donnelly and Meta.

Kansas City Will Be Site of 1966 Convention

K. C. Alumni Plan for PAD Meeting

Kansas City, Missouri has been selected by the Supreme Executive Board as the site for our 36th Biennial National Convention. The dates for the meeting of delegates from 98 active and 54 alumni chapters will be August 31, 1966 through September 3, 1966.

Selected as the headquarters hotel is the world famous Muehlebach Hotel.

All members are urged to make their plans now to attend what promises to be the most outstanding convention ever.

Supreme Court Justice Whittaker Chairman

The Honorable Charles E. Whittaker, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, retired, is serving as honorary Chairman of our 1966 Biennial Convention. Assisting him is Brother Don Hutson, District VI Justice, who is serving as General Chairman.

Bob Van Horn is Chairman of the Publicity Committee. The Special Arrangements Committee is headed by Russell Millin, United States Attorney. Other committee chairmen include: Morris Kross, chairman of the Entertainment Committee; Mrs. Tom Sims, chairman of the Women's Activities Committee; and Steve Millin, chairman of the Awards and Recognition Committee.

Each chapter in good standing will be entitled to have two votes upon every question arising in the convention. The Supreme Chapter provides the actual cost of one round trip airline coach fare to Kansas City and in addition, for active chapters, provides a subsistence for each day of travel and while at the convention, as well as to cover hotel accommodations. It is hoped, however, that as many members from each chapter as possible will attend our convention as it will be a truly unforgettable experience.

In order for a chapter to be in good standing, all fees and forms must have been filed prior to the convention. Each chapter will be notified to the convention as to any deficiencies existing.

Details of convention activities will be forthcoming in later issues, but reserve the dates August 31 through September 3, 1966 NOW.

PADs On ALSA's Governor Board

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is again well represented on the American Law Student Association's national governing Board of Directors.

The new officers of the ALSA were elected at the American Law Student Association's 17th Annual Meeting in Miami Beach, Florida. They will serve the nation's 134 student bar associations during the following year.

JOHN H. NIEBLER

Brother Niebler, a member of Ryan Chapter at the University of Wisconsin School of Law, was elected Treasurer of the ALSA.

Brother Niebler holds a Weymouth Kirkland scholarship for the study of law and has attained the Dean's honor list for all four of the past semesters of study. He graduated summa cum laude from Marquette University in 1963 where he earned his degree in history and philosophy.

While at Marquette University, he was captain of Marquette's College Bowl team, appearing on the well-known television program "College Bowl."

Brother Niebler is a member of the Wisconsin Law Review staff and has served as Vice President of the Student Bar Association at Wisconsin School of Law. This year he will serve on his Student Bar Association as the senior representative.

After obtaining his LL.B. degree, Brother Niebler expects to enter the practice of law in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

JAMES S. WITCHER, JR.

Brother Witcher was elected National Vice President for the Fifth Circuit. In addition he is President-elect of the Student Bar Association at Cumberland School of Law of Howard College in Birmingham, Alabama, where he is a member of Hull Chapter.

As an undergraduate, Brother Witcher attended Auburn University and majored in economics. While at Auburn he was elected a member of Omicron Delta Kappa National Honorary Leadership Fraternity for his extensive extracurricular activities.

Brother Witcher is presently maintaining the highest scholastic average in his class at Cumberland College of Law.

JUDE T. AUBRY

Brother Aubry, a member of Coke Chapter at the University of Toledo College of Law, was elected National Vice President for the Sixth Circuit.

In 1962 Brother Aubry received his undergraduate degree from Ohio State University where he majored in political science. While at the university Brother Aubry served as Vice President of its Young Democratic Club.

Brother Aubry is attending the evening division of Toledo College of Law and is employed as a claims adjuster. He plans to enter political life in the pursuit of a career as a trial attorney following his graduation.

As National Vice President for the Sixth Circuit, Brother Aubry represents eighteen law schools in Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

BREWER CHAPTER SPONSORS TALK

Recently Brewer Chapter sponsored a speech by the Honorable Paul Antinori, Florida State prosecuting attorney, at a dinner held in the Great Hall of Stetson University College of Law. Approximately three hundred men from the college were present to hear the informative speech of Mr. Antinori on the contemporary and practical aspects of the practice of law and related economic social spheres. The text of Mr. Antinori's speech was "The Law and the Press."

Among those present were Dean Harold Sebring, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida and Dean of Stetson University College of Law, as well as Messrs. Arthur Morris, Walter Mann and Gardner Beckett.

Message From The Supreme Justice

My first official visitation this Fall was to the Wilson Chapter at Cornell Law School on Thursday, October 14. The Chapter is in excellent condition, starting the year with a membership of 42 prior to the rushing period. A reception and dinner had been arranged, and I was honored by the presence of Chief Judge Desmond of the Court of Appeals; Professor Gray Thoron; Associate Dean Lewis R. Morse, a former District Justice and long time faculty advisor; and Professor Walter Oberer, a recent addition to the faculty and a former member of the faculty at the University of Texas Law School.

Dean Ray Forrester spoke highly of Wilson Chapter, and I was greatly honored by his presence at the reception and dinner. Mrs. Magaw and I were his guests for breakfast. We both appreciate his hospitality and that of Mrs. Morse who extended the hospitality of her lovely home to Mrs. Magaw while I was with the Chapter.

The next day we drove to Syracuse for a visit with Carmody Chapter which began the Fall term with a membership of 37 plus 8 pledges with rush to take place in the Spring.

A delightful lunch had been planned at the University Club by the Chapter, and Professor Landry who has been a most efficient Chapter Advisor. Dean Kharas honored us by his attendance at the luncheon and spoke very well of our Chapter and its contribution to the Law School. Professor Alexander and Professor Anderson, both active and loyal members of Phi Alpha Delta, were also at the luncheon.

My next visitation was in New York City which began with a most delightful two hour visit with Judge and Mrs. Anthony Seavarese in Forrest Hills. Our Fraternity owes a great debt of gratitude to Judge Seavarese who served as Supreme Treasurer from 1946 to 1952 and as Supreme Justice from 1952 to 1954. Those were trying times after the War and the splendid contribution by him made possible the growth and strength of our organization as developed under each of his successors to a total of 97 active chapters which we expect soon will be increased to 100. His death, only two weeks after my visit, brought sadness to all who knew him.

The following day I had a short meeting with the members of Rapallo Chapter, New York University, and Professor Million, Chapter Advisor, who had just returned from a year's leave of absence to be a Visiting Professor at the University of Michigan Law School. From there I went to St. John's Law School where I was warmly received by Dean Harold McNiece who gave me an excellent report with regard to de Bracton Chapter and its profession program.

de Bracton Chapter of 75 members under the able leadership of Justice Alan F. Ruf and its splendid chapter advisor, Professor Edward Fagan, is one of the very best in the country.

On October 23, 1965, the Moot Court Room of Fordham University Law School in Lincoln Center was the situs of a very important event for Wormser Chapter, a very fine group under the excellent leadership of Justice Sanford Joel Schlesinger and Chapter advisor, Professor Robert Hessler.

It was a most pleasant privilege to confer honorary membership upon Judge John Cannella, of the United States District Court, and faculty membership upon Professor Martin Fogelman. Thereafter the Chapter conducted an initiation ceremony for new pledges. Following this we then proceeded to the Hotel Astor for a very nice banquet. Honoring us with their presence were Mrs. I. Maurice Wormser, who made a very interesting address, the widow of the famous lawyer and professor after whom the Chapter is named, and Mr. and Mrs. Liss, the son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Wormser.

On Monday evening, October 25, 1965 I had the opportunity to attend one of the very fine functions conducted by the New York

DR. ELDEN S. MAGAW

Alumni Chapter at the Yale Club. The occasion was a banquet in honor of honorary member Judge Paul P. Rao, recently made Chief Justice of the United States Court of Customs. It is interesting to note that among those present were thirty-five members of the splendid de Bracton Chapter from St. John's Law School.

Wednesday morning, November 10, 1965, I flew to Pittsburgh for a visit to Duguesne University Law School and Egan Chapter and also to pay my respects to Dean Quinn who became an honorary member last year. The Chapter is an excellent one under the able leadership of Justice John L. Doherty.

From the Law School I went to the Penn Sheraton Hotel where it was my privilege to have lunch with Judge John Brosky, one of our most loyal and devoted alumni members. An hour later I left for Chicago for the banquet given by the very active Chicago Alumni Chapter at the Ambassador East. Over one hundred were present for a most pleasant evening. It was my good fortune to present on behalf of the Alumni Chapter a Distinguished Service Plaque to Judge F. Ryan Duffy of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit who became a member of Phi Alpha Delta through Ryan Chapter at the University of Wisconsin in 1912.

Thereafter Judge Duffy conferred honorary membership upon Judge Luther Swygert for Halleck Chapter at Valparaiso University Law School and upon Judge Roger Kiley for Webster Chapter at Loyola University Law School. Both are on the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. One of those present and having a particular interest in the initiation ceremony was the son of Judge Swygert and a member of the excellent Halleck Chapter.

On Thursday morning I left for Ada, Ohio, for a visit to Ohio Northern University Law School and Willis Chapter. Brother Al Dobnick, Assistant State Attorney General and charter member of Willis Chapter, met me at the Lima Airport and took me to Ada. We are grateful for the continued support that he is giving to the Chapter.

Willis Chapter is an excellent chapter of 65, including 37 pledges. Its Justice, David Reid, can well be proud of the Chapter. A banquet was held in the evening in the Ballroom of the fine and spacious MacIntosh Hall, and it was my happy privilege to confer honorary membership upon Dean Eugene N. Hanson. The new President of the University, Dr. Samuel L. Meyer, was an honored guest. He is a very fine gentleman, and Ohio Northern is justifiably proud to have him as its President.

The following day I returned to Philadelphia, anticipating my next trip which was to take me for the first time to the Pacific Northwest.

Seattle Alumni Host Justice Clark

On September 17, 1965 the Seattle Alumni Chapter hosted a Phi Alpha Delta breakfast to honor Associate Justice Tom C. Clark, Supreme Vice Justice of our fraternity.

The Seattle Alumni Chapter has for the past several years sponsored such a breakfast at the annual Washington State Bar Convention. This year the meeting in Seattle was held in conjunction with the regional meeting of the American Bar Association.

Among those in attendance included Judge Hugh Rosellini, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington; George McCush, newly elected President of the Washington State Bar Association; Ray C. McNicholls, United States District Judge; Charles P. Moriarty, former Washington Superior Court Judge and retired United States Attorney; C. Nelson Day, Judge of the Fifth Judicial District for the State of Utah; Albert Lee Stephens, Jr., Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California; Albert C. Bise, Administrator for Washington State courts; and George T. Nickell, Associate Tribune of our fraternity.

A record attendance of fifty-five brothers was present to hear Brother Clark discuss the internal workings of the United States Supreme Court.

BROTHER WHITTAKER ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

Brother Charles E. Whittaker, former Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, has accepted appointment as Dealer Relations Empire under the General Motors Dealer Relations Empire Plan. Justice Whittaker succeeds Judge William C. Coleman, former Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, who is now retiring as Empire under the plan after having served since 1956.

Brother Justice Whittaker received his law degree from the University of Missouri and after admission to the Missouri Bar practiced law in Kansas City until appointment as a federal district judge for the western district of Missouri in 1954. Thereafter he was elevated to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and in 1957 he was appointed by President Eisenhower as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The General Motors Dealer Relations Empire Plan provides a procedure whereby a dealer having a selling agreement with a General Motors car or truck division may appeal to the Empire from any decision of the division which he feels is unfair to him. Resort to the Empire is entirely optional on the part of the dealer and it does not constitute a waiver of or affect any legal rights the dealer may have. The decision of the Umpire, however, is binding on General Motors Corporation and the division involved.

Egan Chapter Celebrates Rush

Egan Chapter recently celebrated the formal pledging of twenty-eight pledges as a result of their active rushing program.

They began the year with a successful used-book sale. During the first two weeks of school a freshman orientation program was presented by Egan Chapter. This program consisted of both a general meeting with the freshmen and three smaller seminar-type programs for individual student help.

At the end of the second week Egan Chapter presented Mr. Harold Gondelman, Esq. as the featured speaker in their program. Nearly 75 per cent of the student body attended this program.

Egan Chapter formally initiated its twenty-eight pledges recently so that it would be able to sponsor another rush period in the spring.

In addition a Halloween party was well attended on October 30, 1965 by pledges and brothers.

Stephens Chapter Sponsors Professional Activities for Rush Programs

Stephens Chapter recently sponsored a luncheon at the Georgian Center for Continuing Education to enable the student body of the University of Georgia to hear the Attorney General of Georgia speak, as well as to expose the student body to the services provided by our fraternity.

Collins Named Assistant Chief County Clerk

William G. Sharp, Los Angeles County Clerk, recently announced the appointment of Brother Michael G. Collins, an alumnus member of Ford Chapter, as Assistant Chief, Civil Division, in Los Angeles.

Brother Collins will fill the vacancy created by the promotion of Paul Evans as Chief County Clerk of the Los Angeles Superior Court, Civil Division. A native son of California, Brother Collins was educated in the public and parochial schools of Long Beach and received his LL.B. degree from Loyola University School of Law. He is an Elk, being a member of Long Beach Lodge No. 888.

Brother Collins has been employed by the County of Los Angeles for the past eight years as a deputy sheriff and Superior Court clerk. Recently he has served as the Supervising Branch Office deputy for the Southwest District in Inglewood.

O'NEILL CHAPTER INSTALLED AT LOYOLA IN NEW ORLEANS

Saturday, December 4, proved a significant day in the history of both Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity and Loyola University of New Orleans. Some twenty-two students of Loyola became charter members of the newly installed Charles J. O'Neill Chapter. The O'Neill Chapter is the 103rd group to be affiliated with Phi Alpha Delta. It is the second, and finest, legal fraternity to be installed at Loyola. The ceremonies, held in Louisiana Civil District Court for New Orleans were conducted by members of the Martin Chapter of Tulane University under the supervision of the Hon. C. Raymond Judice, District Justice. The Hon. Dee Brown Walker, Supreme Treasurer, was on hand to address and welcome the new group.

The installation was well celebrated. The evening began with a banquet sponsored by the O'Neill Chapter at the Royal Orleans Hotel. Judice and Walker spoke briefly. Afterwards, Martin Chapter sponsored a dance at the Tulane University Center.

Assistant Dean John J. McAuley and Assistant Professor Marcel Garsaud, Jr., both of the Loyola faculty, were installed as Advisors to the Chapter. Officers include Maurice S. Cazaubon, Jr., Justice, Robert J. Klees, Vice Justice, Gerald P. Theriot, Clerk, Eugene C. Pisano, Treasurer and Edward J. Seybold, Jr., Marshall. John H. Brooks, Robert F. Charbonnet, L. Frank Chopin, Charles Denechaud, III, Richard S. Derbes, Charles W. Dittner, Jr., Hugh H. Doran, Jr., Frank J. Ferlite, Salvador E. Gutierrez, Jr., Lyman L. Jones, Jr., David L. Levy, Frank A. Marullo, Jr., Chuck Pitard, Charles M. Stevenson and Joseph J. Weigand, Jr. are charter members.

The new fraternity was warmly welcomed both at the Law School and by the entire University. Turning from festivities to the business of establishing itself on the campus is a task the new Chapter faces with enthusiasm. The goals and ideals of Phi Alpha Delta seem to guarantee success.

Cory Chosen As San Diego County Bar President-Elect

Brother Alec L. Cory, a member of the firm of Procopio, Price & Cory, was recently chosen to serve in 1966 as the 44th president of the 900-member San Diego County Bar Association.

Cory will assume office on Friday, December 3, 1965 at the annual meeting of the San Diego County Bar Association.

He was born in Gallup, New Mexico and moved to Oceanside in 1924. He received his B. S. degree from the University of California at Berkeley and his LL.B. degree at Bolt Hall where he was a member of Holmes Chapter.

Cory was admitted to the California Bar in 1939 and served as Public Attorney from 1941 to 1942 for what is now known as the Legal Aid Society of San Diego, Inc. From 1942 to 1943 he was Deputy City Prosecutor.

In 1943 Brother Cory joined the United States Naval Reserve as a communications officer and served in the South Pacific until 1949 when he formed the present law firm of Procopio, Price & Cory.

He is presently in his second term as a director of the Bar Association, having served a previous three-year term beginning in 1955. He is also a Past President of the California Alumni Club of San Diego. In addition, Brother Cory has served on the Mayor's Charter Review Committee and was appointed by Governor Brown to an 8-year term on the Board of Trustees of California State Colleges.

chapter. On October 15, 1965 it sponsored a dance at the Georgian Hotel where one hundred persons, including brothers, pledges and rushees, joined in a social environment for relaxation.

Vice Justices—Take Note

The Supreme Executive Board has directed that the last two REPORTER Issues for this scholastic year will be expanded to allow room for more active and alumni chapter news.

Therefore, submit your articles and photographs at the earliest possible date so that your chapter will be guaranteed a place in these issues.

The Honorable Arthur Bolton, Attorney General of Georgia, spoke to the eighty men present on the duties of the office of Attorney General in Georgia, as well as his plans to make the office more efficient. Mr. Bolton told those assembled that his office is looking for well-educated men to assist in adequately serving the public function of providing justice for all.

The Dean of the University of Georgia School of Law was present and the faculty was well represented.

On October 19, 1965 Stephens Chapter again sponsored a talk by a prominent attorney in Georgia for the benefit of the student body of the University of Georgia School of Law. At this occasion Mr. Hamilton Lokey, a prominent Atlanta attorney in the field of torts, presented useful suggestions in the preparation and trial of tort actions. The principle of his talk was "Be Prepared." He said that the best way to insure this was to keep up to date on the law and the use of every means available to know the case before it goes to trial. He discussed cases he had handled and how he had prepared them and tried them. In each instance, he showed where pretrial preparation as well as remaining alert in court had caused the success.

Being exposed to the practical side of the law profession was a unique experience for the students in attendance as they are seldom exposed to it in the study of law.

Stephens Chapter is not solely oriented toward professional activities but is a well-rounded

AMONG THE DIGNITARIES PRESENT AT THE JUDGES' NIGHT SPONSORED BY THE CHICAGO ALUMNI CHAPTER INCLUDED (left to right): Honorable George Quilici, Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County and Toastmaster for the evening; Honorable Roger J. Kiley, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and newly initiated honorary member of Webster Chapter; Honorable F. Ryan Duffy, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and recipient of the award for fifty years' distinguished service; and Honorable Luther M. Swygert, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and newly initiated honorary member of Halleck Chapter.

Chicago Alumni Honor Judges

Recently the Chicago Alumni Association held their annual "Judges' Night" at which the Federal Judges in the Chicago area were honored. The affair was held at the Ambassador East Hotel in Chicago and proved to be a notable success.

Special honor was given to the Honorable F. Ryan Duffy, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who sits in Chicago. It was on the occasion of Judge Duffy's fiftieth year of admission to the Bar in Wisconsin. Supreme Justice Elden S. Magaw was present to present the distinguished service plaque to Judge Duffy for his outstanding service to the fraternity and profession.

Brother Duffy was then asked to bestow the honorary initiations of Honorable Roger J. Kiley, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, into Webster Chapter and the Honorable Luther M. Swygert, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, into Halleck Chapter.

Brother Kiley was born in Chicago, Illinois and received his LL.B. degree from Notre Dame Law School. After being admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1924, Brother Kiley served on the Appellate Court of Illinois. In addition to his judicial functions Brother Kiley has served as lecturer on "Natural Law" at the University of Notre Dame Law School, member of the Executive Committee of the Illinois Judicial Conference and member of the Chicago Bar Association Committee on Development of the Law, and he is a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association and the Advisory Council for the University of Notre Dame Catholic Lawyers' Guild.

Brother Luther M. Swygert was born in Indiana and also received his LL.B. degree from Notre Dame Law School. Brother Swygert was in private practice from 1927 when he was admitted to the Bar until 1931 when he was appointed a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Lake County. In 1934 Brother Swygert was appointed an Assistant United States Attorney for the northern district of Indiana and held that office until 1943, when he was appointed the United States District Judge for the Seventh Circuit.

In attendance to witness the honors bestowed on Brothers Duffy, Kiley and Swygert were a number of Federal Judges, including Brothers Michael Igoe and Abraham L. Marovita of the United States District Court for the northern district of Illinois, eastern division, and their colleagues, the Honorable Hubert Will, Richard Austin and Chief Judge William Campbell. In attendance from the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit were Judge Kiley; Judge Duffy; Judge Swygert; the Honorable Judge Hastings, Chief Justice of the United States Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit; the Honorable Win Knock and the Honorable Latham Castle. In addition the Honorable Julius Hoffman attended

Houston Chapter Host Fall Rush Breakfast

Recently Houston Chapter sponsored a breakfast for the benefit of the students of South Texas College of Law. The purpose of the breakfast was to foster the professional aspect of Phi Alpha Delta by presenting as guest speaker the renowned criminal defense attorney, Mr. Percy Foreman, who spoke on the new Texas Code of Criminal Procedure.

The breakfast was well attended by 120 guests, including: Paul Robertson, Vice Justice; Don Hudgins, Marshal; Bill Stolhandske; Mr. Foreman; Richard Haines; and Ray Judice, Assistant to the Supreme Justice.

Livingston Chapter Sponsors Luncheon Series

As a professional service to Columbia University Law School, Livingston Chapter sponsors a monthly luncheon to give the students an opportunity to hear from outstanding members of the law profession.

In October Livingston Chapter sponsored an address by Eugene R. Anderson, Esq. on cigarette health litigation. Mr. Anderson is the former chief of the civil division of the United States Attorney's office for the Southern District of New York and is presently a partner of Chadbourne, Parke, Whiteside & Wolff.

At the November luncheon Eugene Nickerson, Nassau County executive, spoke to those assembled on the recent New York state elections. Also present at the luncheon was District XII Justice Ornstein, who spoke on the advantages of belonging to a national law fraternity.

Livingston Chapter took this opportunity to present an award to Professor Monrad Paulsen as the outstanding alumnus for the school year 1964-65. In addition the award for the outstanding active member of Livingston Chapter was presented to Brother David Huggin.

the reception, although he was unable to remain for the banquet.

The Honorable George Quilici, Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, served as toastmaster and was introduced by the general chairman of the occasion, Vice Justice of the Chicago Alumni Chapter, Constantine Drugas.

Hay Chapter Sponsors Stag Rush Affair

On October 1, 1965, Hay Chapter sponsored a rush party for incoming first year men in the Heritage Room of the Parkview Savings Building.

One hundred and five men were present at the successful affair arranged by Hay Chapter's Rush Chairman Norb Rascher. The program began with a short dissertation by Professor David Smith on the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. In his talk Professor Smith mentioned letters received by Hay Chapter from such distinguished alumni as Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, Senator Edward Kennedy, and past United States Vice President Richard Nixon.

Following Professor Smith's remarks, Brother James O'Day from the local alumni chapter gave a humorous and informative address, emphasizing the interest which the alumni have in Hay Chapter. He also gave the first year men some practical examples of the alumni chapter's interest in Hay Chapter by describing the activities in which the alumni participate.

Professor Joe Munster, the main speaker, presented his talk on "The Court of Love," a humorous lecture on the old English courts of love.

Brother James Broz, Executive Secretary of the Cleveland Alumni Chapter, was also present for the event.

Knox Sponsors All-School Luau

On October 16, 1965 Knox Chapter sponsored an all-school luau for the benefit of the University of Arizona Law School. More than two hundred fifty persons attended the dance which was held at the Catalina Foot-hills Lodge.

Knox Chapter sponsors an all-school party each fall to promote an atmosphere conducive for exemplifying the social side of Phi Alpha Delta as coordinated with their overall professional activities.

The success of the dance was due in large part to Knox Chapter's Wives' Auxiliary. The Wives' Auxiliary was recently formed as a service auxiliary to assist the brothers in their social activities.

Turning to the professional side of Knox Chapter's activities, a professional lecture by Mr.

Richard D. Grand was sponsored to promote interest among the student body toward trial practice. Over 110 law students were present and many for the first time were exposed to the method of preparation and trial of a lawsuit from a plaintiff's standpoint.

PHI ALPHA DELTA is a member of the Professional Interfraternity Conference, which Conference advocates and encourages high scholarship, professional research, advancement of professional ethics, and the promotion of a spirit of comity among the professional fraternities in the advancement of fraternity ideals.

SANDY RAE, DISTRICT III JUSTICE, is photographed as he honors McKenna Chapter at L.A. Alumni Chapter's Judges' Night by presenting Pat Barnes, Justice, with the plaque for being the most outstanding Chapter in District III. The Chapter also won the Most Outstanding Chapter Award in the nation for 1965.

L.A. Alumni Sponsors Judges' Night

On November 10, the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter sponsored a dinner at the Mona Lisa Restaurant in honor of the local members of the Judiciary.

More than two hundred brothers met at 6 p.m. to renew old acquaintances and then enjoyed an outstanding steak dinner.

Following dinner Brother Clarke Stephens, an alumnus of Ross Chapter and a Judge of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, introduced his fellow judges to those assembled. Sixteen of the twenty-one judges present were alumnus members of Ross Chapter, two from Holmes Chapter, one from Gunter Chapter, one from Lurton Chapter, and one from McKenna Chapter.

Among the judges in attendance were C. Newell Carns, Judge of the Los Angeles County Municipal Court, retired; Jesse Frampton, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court, retired; Herbert V. Walker, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Clyde C. Triplett, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; John G. Barnes, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Leon T. David, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Aubrey N. Irwin, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Joseph Marchetti, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court; Beach Vasey, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Allen Miller, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Bayard Rhone, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Arthur K. Marshall, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Ralph Dills, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Earl O. Lippold, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court; Charles M. Hughes, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court; Harry V. Peetris, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court; Philip M. Saeta, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court; John A. Arguelles, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court; Charles H. Carr, Judge of the United States District Court, and Armond Jewell, Judge of the Los Angeles Municipal Court.

Representing the Supreme Executive Board was Brother Henry C. Rohr, Supreme Secretary.

The dinner provided a good opportunity to formally present

Fuller Chapter Pledges Largest Class in History

Fuller Chapter began its formal pledge program with a luncheon and debate program on October 26 at the Stouffer Restaurant in connection with Blackstone and Story Chapters. The debate was on "Police Privilege v. Civil Rights" and was presented by Bernard Weisberg and Lt. John Asher. The luncheon proved quite successful with a total of 130 persons in attendance.

On October 29, a cocktail party was sponsored at which many faculty members of Northwestern Law School were in attendance.

The effect of these two activities, plus intensive contact work done by the members of Fuller Chapter, resulted in the chapter's most successful pledge period and the largest pledge class in the history of Fuller Chapter.

The members of Fuller Chapter have scheduled an ambitious lecture program featuring prominent attorneys, professors and judges. To supplement this program, the chapter has scheduled trips to the Federal Courthouse which includes participation in the stages of a trial.

Possibly the most ambitious program is the assistance that Fuller Chapter brothers are giving in a local legal aid program, a program handled exclusively by Fuller Chapter.

McKenna Chapter its award as the most outstanding active chapter in District III and the nation for the 1964-1965 scholastic year.

McKenna and Ford Chapters were well represented at the dinner with over twenty-five members and pledges from those chapters in attendance.

Whitten Addresses National Agricultural Chemicals Assn.

Congressman Jamie L. Whitten, an alumnus member of Lamar Chapter, recently spoke at the 32nd annual meeting of the National Agricultural Chemicals Association.

He described American agriculture as Labor and Industry's biggest customer, the people's best and most economical supplier, the greatest dollar-earner in world trade, key to prosperity and, when neglected, the cause of depressions.

Brother Whitten is a veteran member of the Appropriations Subcommittee for National Defense and Public Works and Chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee for Agriculture.

He said, "Many people understand the danger of a break in farm prices, but few seem to realize that the real danger to our overall economy is a drop in farm purchasing power, which could come from a reduction in volume as well as from a drop in price."

"We need all of our people to know that the real basis of price supports for farm products is to assure the producers a fair return, as compared with that of Industry and Labor, in order to enable agricultural producers to provide a ready market for Industry and Labor while supplying consumer needs for food, clothing and shelter."

Urging that farm price supports be considered in the light of legislation which provides for minimum wages and the right of Labor to organize and to strike in order to increase Labor's share of the consumer dollar, Brother Whitten said that recently he had requested the Library of Congress to supply him with information on the "gross increase in cost of living due to minimum wage laws and the right of Labor to organize and to strike."

"I received a nine-page reply," he said. "The substance of the information supplied in the nine pages, however, was contained in the second sentence which read as follows:

"Unfortunately, we find it impossible to reduce these phenomena to measurable terms."

"Farm purchasing power is probably more essential to the national economy than is that of Labor and Industry, since it is the supplier of raw materials. A breakdown in income from agricultural production and the resulting decline in farm purchasing power could set off another depression, just as it has other depressions in the past."

"If we want to help ourselves and the peoples of the world, we should keep producing our bountiful supply of food and fiber and keep them offered for dollars on the counters of the markets of the world, for what they will bring."

Referring to the recent farm bill, Brother Whitten said it is aimed in the wrong direction.

"With the fire which could upset the world already burning in Vietnam, we should never promote a program of scarcity. It is unsound to pay American farmers not to produce food and fiber; to limit American commodities offered in world markets; to reduce our reserves on hand and cut U.S. acreage while promoting increased foreign production at a time when we need dollars so badly."

"Cash instead of labor, cost and risk may look good to the farmer," he said, "but neither he nor the rest of us can forego the production, supply, distribution and the business activity resulting from American farm production."

"Money paid him not to farm may take care of the farmer's immediate problem, but it is not going to put groceries on the tables of American consumers nor buy machinery and equipment from Industry and Labor to cultivate land which his government pays him to leave idle."

U.S. SENATOR FRANK CHURCH OF IDAHO ANSWERS QUESTIONS FOLLOWING HIS INITIATION AS AN HONORARY MEMBER OF KENT CHAPTER.

Kent Chapter Initiates Senator Church

On October 21, the Honorable Frank Church, Senator from Idaho, was initiated by the members of Kent Chapter as an honorary member of our Fraternity.

Brother Church was born in Boise, Idaho, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forester Church. Senator Church received his AB and LLB degrees at Stanford University and was admitted to the Idaho Bar in 1950. He practiced law in Boise, Idaho until 1956 when he was chosen as United States Senator from Idaho.

Benton's Rushing Activities

Benton Chapter recently held its primary rush function of the year at the Schlitz Brewery Round Bottle at which fifty rushees, forty actives and one hundred twenty alumni participated. The main purpose of the alumni-active rush function was to introduce entering freshmen to both the active chapter and the alumni groups, to promote alumni relations and to deplete the resources of Schlitz Brewery.

The festivities commenced with introductions by Steve Millin, Justice of the Kansas City Alumni Chapter and Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Many prominent alumni were present, including: Russell Millin, U. S. District Attorney; Lawrence Gepford, Jackson City Prosecutor; Judges Paul Vardeman and James Moore, Judges of the Jackson City Circuit Court; Judge Ralph Martin, Municipal Court Judge; and Dean Patrick Kelly, dean of the University of Missouri at Kansas City School of Law.

One of the outstanding events of the evening was the awarding of the Ancient and Exalted Order of the Bovine Scoop to Brothers S. W. Longan III and Jack H. Flippo by Justice Wayne A. Tenenbaum of Benton Chapter. This event followed the Freshman-Active Orientation Breakfast, which was held in September at the Little Osage Room of the University Center. Eighty men attended the breakfast to receive an orientation concerning Phi Alpha Delta's place in the

In addition, Brother Church was chosen to give the key note address in the 1960 Democratic National Convention.

Among the honors bestowed on brother Church, include: The American Legion Oratorical Award, The Stanford Joffe Debate Medal and one of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce's ten outstanding young men.

Brother Church is a member of the American Bar Association, Idaho Bar Association, Boise Junior Chamber of Commerce, Phil Beta Kappa, and The Elks.

In addition to the initiation of Brother Church, Judge Thomas Felton was present to receive the award as the outstanding alumnus of Kent Chapter for 1964-1965.

The evening was highlighted by a "Baron of Beef" Buffet and a speech by Senator Church.

In addition to the above awards, twelve new members were initiated into Kent Chapter. They were: Kenneth Clarke, David Johnson, Byron Meredith, Gale Merrick, Gary Haman, George Johnson, Max Jenkins, Ken Nelson and Bob Tunnicliff.

Law School activities.

Benton Chapter's rushing activities continued with an informal buffet dinner and athletic event on October 22, 1965 at the home of Jack Sheridan, President of the Kansas City Bar Association. Ninety men were in attendance for the dinner to hear a talk by Professor Bronson on new developments in the law. In addition, everyone enjoyed a football game.

SUPREME JUSTICE MAGAW IS PHOTOGRAPHED WITH THE HONORABLE CHARLES S. DESMOND, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, at Wilson Chapter's dinner honoring our Supreme Justice.

Supreme Justice Visits Wilson Chapter

On October 14, Wilson Chapter at the Cornell Law School, Ithaca, New York was honored by a visit from Dr. Elden S. Magaw, Supreme Justice. Dr. Magaw was met upon his arrival in Ithaca by a representative of the Chapter and by Associate Dean Lewis Morse, formerly the PAD faculty advisor at the Cornell Law School and a long time active member of Wilson Chapter. Later that evening, Dr. Magaw was the guest of honor at a stag cocktail party and dinner reception in the plush Red Room of Charles Evans Hughes Hall. Among those present were William Ray Forrester, Dean of the Cornell Law School, the Hon. Charles S. Desmond, Chief Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals, Dean Morse, and two highly active PAD faculty members, Professor Gray Thoron and Walter E. Oberer. Also present were some 30 members of Wilson Chapter.

After an excellent Roast Beef dinner, Dr. Magaw addressed the gathering. He first commented on his trip which was to take him to almost all 97 chapters of PAD. He then spoke of the great strides that Phi Alpha Delta had made in the last five years and of his expectancy that three new chapters would be chartered in the upcoming months. Reviewing Wilson Chapter's record of academic and social accomplishments, Dr. Magaw said it well deserved the District's Outstanding Chapter award for the previous year and encouraged the membership to continue its good work. He concluded with a reminder that members of Phi Alpha Delta have an obligation to the community as a whole as well as to their brothers and the legal profession and encouraged us to live up to the best ideals of the fraternity and the profession.

Dr. Magaw's visit was the first event in a two week rush effort that saw Wilson Chapter enroll 61 pledges, the highest number in its history and, incidentally, outdraw the other legal fraternity at Cornell more than 2:1 among the first year class. Wilson Chapter now has as members or pledges almost 1/2 of the student body at the Law School.

Future plans, outlined to Dr. Magaw during his brief visit, include continuing a weekly luncheon series drawing upon prominent members of the legal profession for informal talks upon topics of their choosing; weekly social mixers of cocktail parties; pre-Barrister's Ball cocktail parties; and the annual Robert S. Stevens Lecture, this

Cleveland Alumni Chapter's Activities

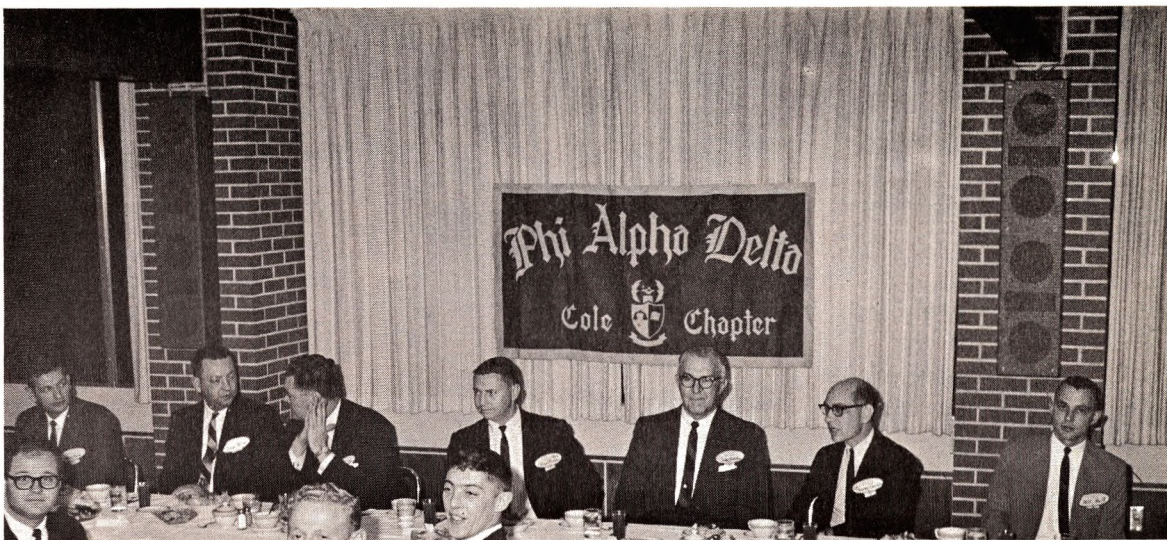

Cleveland Alumni Chapter has been very active within its own organization as well as exercising full cooperation with the local active chapters.

During the summer, Cleveland Alumni Chapter held a summer luncheon session wherein those in attendance had an opportunity to meet together with their newly elected officers, Bernard Niehaus, Justice; James O'Day, Vice Justice; Richard Mesrobian, Treasurer; Michael Thal, Marshal; and Jimmy Bros, Executive Secretary. Brother Jim O'Day gave an excellent talk at the luncheon.

On October 14, 1965, the Alumni Chapter held another luncheon at the Hickory Grill private dining room, wherein it was announced that seventy-one alumni had made financial contributions to the Conclave and Reactivation Program of Hay Chapter. It was also announced that thirty-six men had accepted membership in Hay Chapter, making a total of fifty-six members and pledges. This was helped, to a great extent, by the Alumni Chapter who gave their time in calling prospective pledges.

On November 16, 1965 the members of Cleveland Alumni Chapter enjoyed a fine talk by Hon. Robert Lawther, mayor of Lakewood, a suburb of Cleveland.

year's speaker to be the Hon. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of California, whose speech will concern Law and Morality.

THOSE IN ATTENDANCE AT COLE CHAPTER'S ANNUAL PAD ALUMNI BANQUET ENJOYED A FINE AFTER-DINNER SPEECH BY BROTHER DANIEL WARD, STATE'S ATTORNEY FOR COOK COUNTY, whose subject was "The Incredible Growth of Crime."

McCush Elected Washington State Bar President

Brother George McCush, an alumnus member of Dunbar Chapter, was recently elected President of the Washington State Bar Association by the election of the Board of Governors.

Brother McCush is a 1927 graduate of the University of Washington School of Law and has practiced in Bellingham since his admission to the Bar. He is in partnership with Edward B. O'Conner.

The President-elect served as chairman of the committee to consider reorganization of the State Bar Association in 1933 and was appointed by the Supreme Court to the State Bar Commission to implement the integrated Bar plan. He served on the committee of Law Examiners for fourteen years, the last four as chairman.

He is a past chairman of the Bellingham City Planning Commission and a past President of the Bellingham Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the Whitcomb County Bar Association, the Washington State Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Cole Chapter's Annual PAD Alumni Banquet

On October 29, Cole Chapter held its second annual Phi Alpha Delta Alumni Dinner at the Hyperion Field Club near Des Moines, Iowa.

Brother Daniel Ward, States Attorney for Cook County, Illinois, addressed the gathering of judges, lawyers, faculty and students on the subject "The Incredible Growth of Crime." Last year the National District Attorney's Association named Brother Ward the Nation's Outstanding Prosecutor.

Polk County District Judge Gibson Holliday presented a plaque on behalf of District VII to the Drake Law School as a lasting memorial to the late Honorable Robert D. Jackson. Polk County District Judge and Past Supreme Justice. Maurice Kirk, Dean of the Drake Law School, accepted the memorial on behalf of the school.

Cole Chapter has had a very successful year at Drake Law School. It is now the largest law fraternity at Drake and its members hold many positions of leadership, including: Lawrence Van Werden, Student Bar Association President; Jack R. Schreiber, SBA Secretary-Treasurer; William Huff III, SBA Junior Representative; Joseph Crookham, SBA Freshman Representative; William Gibb, Freshman Representative to the Honor Board; John Baur, Drake Law Review Editor; and John Herron, Clark Holmes, Richard Pattison, Jon Pearce, Michael O'Connor, Jack Schreiber and Lawrence Van Werden, contributors to the Drake Law Review.

Cole Chapter sponsors monthly luncheons at which prominent members of the Bar speak, weekend social functions and an after-finals party for the whole Law School.

Hull Chapter Active in Student Affairs

Members of Hull Chapter have found themselves engaged in many varied activities at Cumberland School of Law, Howard College.

Members of Hull Chapter were selected to serve as the officers of the Student Bar Association for the 1965-1966 academic year. They are: Jim Witcher, President; Nick Cervera, Vice President; Bill Smith, Senator; Ken Moore, Senator; Mick Sundock, Secretary; Bob Moor, Treasurer; and Merritt Rogers, ALSA Representative. In addition the following members were chosen to serve as senior class officers: Fred Erben, Vice President; Bill Green and Morgan Weeks, Student Bar Association Representatives.

Members of Hull Chapter also occupy all of the offices for the junior class. They are: Tom Deas, President; David Rogers, Vice President; Dick Flowers, Secretary; Ben Strand, Treasurer; John Geary and Bob Campbell, Student Bar Association Representatives.

Cumberland's Moot Court team consists of three members. Members of Hull Chapter occupy two of the three positions. They are: John Harrell and Richard Taylor.

Jim Speake has undertaken the project of compiling a placement brochure which will contain resumes of all of the senior students. His committee of course is composed of PAD members, who are Charles Cole, Brooks Glass, Allen Cook and John Harrell.

Members of Hull Chapter who serve on the school newspaper include Tom West, Bill Kracke, Alan Summers, and Ben Strand.

In addition to their extracurricular activities, the members of Hull Chapter are also well represented in scholastic activities.

Among those who received law book awards for the highest grade in various law courses are: Jerome Beck, Legal Bibliography; Henry M. McLeod, Equity Planning and Evidence; Stephen L. Wright, Estate Planning; Richard Taylor, Federal Income Tax; Brooks Glass, Legal Ethics; Alfred B. Strand, Equity; Charles Cole and Alfred Strand, Quasi-Contracts; Willis M. Deffenbaugh and Raymond Flowers, Damages; and James Speake, International Law.

In addition John Harrell won an essay contest which consisted of writing an opinion letter with a supporting legal memorandum on a problem involving foreign attachment and garnishment.

The manager of the Law School Intramural program is also a member of Hull Chapter. He is Rudy La Russa.

Internally, Hull Chapter is also active. During the rush week a stag smoker was held at the Thomas Jefferson Hotel. As a result of this and the strength of Hull Chapter at Cumberland Law School, the following pledges were announced: Jerry Bartlett, Robert Castleberry, Herman Cobb, Bud Smith, Russell which are of vital importance even today. He quickly took the reins of our fraternity and within seven months had established effective machinery for the placement program in several districts, and had stimulated wider and more effective participation in legal aid work throughout the country.

Savarese

Judge Savarese then turned his interest toward maintaining the high standards of our membership. He began by encouraging active participation in District Conclaves and directed his officers to attend the conclaves in their areas.

Brother Savarese was never reluctant to state his mind and as a result of his firm beliefs, Phi Alpha Delta maintained its high standards of membership. When he saw weakness, he was the first to face it. As he said in April 1954, "In my travels around the country for PAD I have discovered one weakness among some of the present PAD students in the law schools and in some of our active chapters. The present day student is no longer the boy who moved into a law college from high school or even the undergraduate college. Most of them have seen active service in the armed forces or have undergone the rigors of two to four years of rugged and rigid training. They have acquired an emotional urge to champion the underdog. They talk like men of experience.

"This laudable urge is commendable in the hands of loyal, honest men. At the same time where reason and caution are cast to the winds, a soft, venerable spot develops in a man's armor which is readily susceptible to being pierced by men of weird and high-sounding ideologies. It is in such softness where these unscrupulous agents plant their insidious seeds of dissension, unrest and discord for the purpose of overthrowing established sound order for a complete changeover and ultimate integration."

Brother Savarese concluded by saying, "Therefore, I warn not to drop high standards of quality. We are liberal minded and tolerant, but we still should exercise great care and caution in the quality of the men we select and choose to call 'brothers.'"

As a result of his unending energy, our Fraternity saw the establishment of six new student chapters and one new alumni chapter; and as a result of his strong leadership and firm beliefs, our Fraternity maintained its high standard of quality.

In addition to his outstanding work for our Fraternity, Brother Savarese served twenty years as Queens County, New York Surrogate. He had also been prominent in Queens charitable affairs and also had been one of the most active alumni of the New York University School of Law.

A native of Manhattan, he received his law degree from NYU and served as an Assistant United States Attorney until he was appointed by Mayor LaGuardia to be a magistrate in Queens in 1935.

It was the sitdown strike era and one of his early cases involved thirty-five WPA workers who had staged sitdowns in the Queens Borough Hall until the Borough President ordered their arrest on disorderly conduct charges.

Brother Savarese gave the men suspended sentences because they looked like "respectable and respected citizens," but he issued a lecture on the subject of sit-downs.

"There has been much discussion about sitdowns in industrial buildings," he said. "In this instance, a public or government building, government property and government employees are involved. Remaining in the place constitutes seizure of government property. This cannot and must not be tolerated or permitted. Any other action than the one taken, any lackadaisical attitude toward this by officials, might eventually lead to chaos, rebellion, anarchy or overthrow of the government."

Brother Savarese ran for Surrogate in 1942 as a candidate of the Republican party and was successful.

As President of the NYU Law School Alumni, Past Supreme Justice Savarese led a drive to raise two million dollars for the school's law center. As a result, a room in the center was dedicated to him and he was given an honorary degree by the school.

Surviving Brother Savarese is his lovely life, Helen, a daughter, Mrs. Franklin Mascia, and his son, Anthony Peter, also a member of our fraternity.

Phi Alpha Delta and Queens County will greatly miss this man of many talents.
