Alden Chapter Installed At Buffalo Law School

December 7, 1968 was the proud occasion of the installation of the Carlos C. Alden Chapter at the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law. The installation and initiation ceremonies occurred in the Supreme Court Chambers of the Erie County (N.Y.) Hall followed by a champagne reception in the Blue Room of the M and T Plaza Suite in Buffalo.

SUPREME JUSTICE HENRY C. ROHR (right) offers toast to Dean William D. Hawkland (Magruder '47) at reception following Alden Chapter installation.

The Chapter was named after Carlos C. Alden who served as the law school's first dean from 1904 until 1936. Milliard Fillmore, the first Chancellor of the University of Buffalo and later thirteenth President of the United States, established the "Department of Law" and incorporated the Faculty and the students of the former Buffalo-Niagra Law School. Dean Alden was noted for his keen interest in the school and his energy and drive which produced outstanding accomplishments during his administration. The extension of the course of student from two to three years, the raising of pre-law requirements, the acquisition of a separate law school building and the establishment and expansion of a law library stand out among his accomplishments.

Joining the 36 students as charter members were Dean William D. Hawkland (Magruder '47), Assistant Dean George P. Smith, III (Hamill '65) and Professor John Hollands. Serving on the installation team were Supreme Justice Henry C. Rohr, Supreme Historian Donald R. Moore, Associate Tribune Kenneth C. Segal Special Assistant Frank J. McCown, Dean Hawkland and Assistant Dean Smith.

The ceremonies were highlighted by The Honorable Matthew J.

PAD Goes International

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity attained International status recently with the installation of John Macdonald Chapter at the University of Windsor School of Law in Ontario. An outstanding group of law students comprised the chapter's first initiation class.

Full details of the installation will appear in the next issue of The Reporter.

$10,000 PAD Trust Established by John A. Kerr

Brother John Alexander Kerr, who was initiated into Ross Chapter at the University of Southern California in 1938 died suddenly February 22, 1969 at the age of 57. He was born in Portland, Oregon.

Brother Kerr left the sum of $10,000 to the University of Southern California to be used for a scholarship to be awarded to a member of Phi Alpha Delta at the University of Southern California Law School at the end of his first year of law school. The recipient each year is to be chosen by the Dean of the law school, all PAD faculty members and the Justice of the active chapter. Consideration is to be given to the student's character, scholastic aptitude and lack of financial means and preference is to be given to students coming from the College of Commerce and Business Administration of the University.

JOHN ALEXANDER KERR

Brother Kerr graduated from Harvard Military Academy in Los Angeles and attended the University of Southern California receiving his B.A. in 1936 and his LL.B. in 1939. While in college he enjoyed sports and was a member of the varsity track team.

He was thereafter admitted to the California Bar and to the United States Courts of that State. Following extensive travel, he engaged in the practice of law specializing in the fields of corporate law and finance.

During his lifetime Brother Kerr was an active member of the San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles County Bar Associations, of James A. Garfield Masonic Lodge, of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and of the North Hollywood Presbyterian Church.

Martin Chapter Sponsors "Inns of Court" Program

On March 1, 1969 Martin Chapter held its monthly business meeting and speaker luncheon. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Beryl Wolfson, a New Orleans attorney and a member of the Juvenile Court Committee of the Louisiana Bar Assn. The speaker, Mr. E. G. Gillin, is the chairman of the Juvenile Court Committee of the Louisiana Bar Association and is Assistant District Attorney for the Juvenile Court in Orleans Parish. Mr. Gillin spoke on the role of the juvenile and family courts and the reforms needed today in view of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in the case of In re Gault. Mr. Gillin advocates the establishment of a family court to handle adoptions, divorce, maintenance, juvenile, and all other family matters. He also pointed out the need for some type of conciliation proceeding in the judicial rather than leaving it up to the attorney.

Message from The Supreme Justice

As this edition of The Reporter is published most law schools are well into the spring semester. According to records maintained in the Executive Office most of the Active Chapters have had a very successful Rushing period. In addition many of these Chapters have held their respective initiations thus maintaining healthy membership statistics.

In this issue you will find articles surrounding the installations of two new Chapters—Carlos Alden Chapter which was installed December 7, 1968 at the State University of New York at Buffalo and Rutherford B. Hayes Chapter which was installed February 14, 1969 at the Franklin Law School of Capital University. In the next edition of The Reporter you will observe details surrounding the International Status recently acquired by your Fraternity as Sir John Alexander Macdonald Chapter was installed March 14, 1969 at the University of Windsor Faculty of Law.

The PAD Inns of Court Program has been held in many metropolitan areas with enthusiastic results. More about this program will be brought to the attention of the Active Chapters in the future. Your Supreme Executive Board is making a diligent effort to carry out the mandate given by delegates in attendance at the 37th Biennial Convention with regard to the implementation of a PAD Placement Program, which will be of great benefit to all members.

Plans are now being formulated for the 38th Biennial Convention to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana in September, 1970. If possible, make your plans now to be there as attendance at a national convention results in a more complete understanding of what it means to belong to "The Foremost Professional Law Fraternity."

Although much time and energy is being devoted to expansion possibilities at law schools without

HENRY C. ROHR

PAD chapters, your Supreme Executive Board is definitely committed to a policy of assisting our 107 existing Active Chapters and observing their activities to make certain that adequate membership strengths are maintained and that they engage in a sufficient number of professional programs. Our District Justices, Faculty and Alumni Advisors are working diligently in their visitations and communications with members of every chapter.

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity continues to maintain an unprecedented pattern of leadership among all legal fraternities. Do your individual part by becoming active in your own chapter. Many rewards will be yours!

Fraternally,
HENRY C. ROHR

Assistant Dean George P. Smith, III (Hamill '65) has resigned from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law Faculty effective June, 1969 and will join the law faculty at the University of Arkansas. Brother Smith was a principal force in the founding of Alden Chapter.

PAD Official History Is Now Available

The Supreme Executive Board has announced the publication of an official History of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. The compilation of the History was begun in 1966 by Supreme Historian C. Raymond Judice and completed in 1968. It represents hundreds and hundreds of hours of research and revision. Aiding Brother Judice in the monumental undertaking was Rob Evans, a student member of Samuel Houston Chapter at South Texas College of Law.

The volume is covered in a handsome purple cloth with gold imprint. It is divided into sections appropriately titled as follows: The Prologue, The Formative Years, The War Years and Recovery, The Years of Adversity, The Years of Challenge, The Golden Years, and Accent on Professionalism.

Alumni may obtain copies from the Executive Office at $5.00 each and student members may obtain them at a discount price of $3.50.

Rutherford B. Hayes Chapter Installed at Franklin Law School

Phi Alpha Delta's 116th Chapter was installed in ceremonies at Columbus, Ohio, on February 22, 1969. Supreme Justice Henry C. Rohr was presiding officer.

The new chapter at Franklin Law School of Capital University is named after Rutherford B. Hayes, the Nineteenth President of the United States. President Hayes also served as City Solicitor of Cincinnati, United States Representative, and Governor of Ohio.

The charter was received on behalf of the Hayes Chapter by Chief Justice Kingsley A. Taft (McKinley '28) of the Ohio Supreme Court. The presentation was made at the installation ceremonies held in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, in Columbus.

Supreme Justice Henry C. Rohr presided over the ritual. Also participating were Associate Tribune Kenneth C. Segal, District IX Justice Lawrence S. Turner, Special Assistant to the Supreme Justice Frank J. McCown, and Brothers from the neighboring McKinley Chapter at Ohio State University.

In planning for some six months, the colony at Franklin Law School was formed following an open rush in October, 1968. Assisting in the planning and organization of the chapter were Lawrence S. Turner, District IX Justice; Frank J. McCown, Special Assistant; and Robert A. Butler, head of the Central Ohio PAD Alumni Chapter.

In addition to law students, the charter members included John W. McCormac, Dean of Franklin Law School, and faculty members Harry R. Paulino and Lawrence A. Ramey (Hay Chapter).

The charter members are: George J. Arnold, Stuart A. Benis, Robert D. Bergman, M. Steven Boley, William B. Dixon, Melvin K. Dobbs, James E. Dodd, Theodore H. Finesman, Mark M. Flanagan, Kevin T. Gorey, Richard C. Gross, John T. Gugle, John E. Huntley, Gerald M. Kaplan, Donald F. Love, Jerry L. McDowell, J. Michael McGinley, Jonathan W. Marshall, Daniel J. Massey, Donald A. Mullin, Paul J. Navin, David C. O'Connor, Nicholas A. Pittner, Gerald Portugal, Glenn B. Redick, Rockford H. Richardson, Terrence L. Ryan, Clyde A. Schroeder, Lawrence A. Singer, Gerald L. Stebelton, Robert M. Wasylik, Eugene P. Weiss, and Robert J. Woodward.

Chapter officers for the Rutherford B. Hayes Chapter are: Lawrence A. Singer, Justice; Jonathan W. Marshall, Vice-Justice; Nicholas A. Pittner, Clerk; Gerald Portugal, Treasurer; and Glenn B. Redick, Marshal. Lawrence A. Ramey will serve as Faculty Advisor, and Robert A. Butler will serve as Alumni Advisor.

Following the installation a reception was held for the newly-initiated members and guests at the Neil House Hotel.

On Sunday, February 23, 1969, a breakfast was held at the Neil House Hotel, at which time Supreme Justice Henry Rohr, assisted by Brothers Turner, Segal, and McCown, installed the officers of the Rutherford B. Hayes Chapter.

The new chapter already has plans underway for a number of social and professional activities. Included among these are several professional seminars, participation with the Columbus Police Department as observers in patrol cars, plans to initiate a number of alumni members and honorary members, rush parties and social events.

Franklin Law School became a part of Capital University in 1965, and the first classes were held on the Capital campus, in suburban Bexley, in September, 1966. Although Franklin Law School has held only evening classes since its inception, a day division has been established and will begin its first classes in September, 1969.

Morgan Chapter Toastmasters Program

Our toastmaster's program, although still in the infant stage, has provided the chapter with one of the best methods to bring our members closer together and thereby making us a strong organization. Our program began this past summer, when Richard Charlton and Ross Diamond decided that we needed some function other than chapter meetings and infrequent parties to bring the chapter closer together. The toastmaster banquet program was set up where at least one prominent speaker will be present, along with some of our most prominent practicing lawyers, teachers, and judges. One feature of the program is to call on various members to give extemporaneous talks on some familiar field, which gives the members some experience in public speaking, an invaluable asset to the practicing lawyer. The program has been a successful one, in that our numerous members have an added opportunity to meet each other and have done so. We hope our experience will help other chapters to set up similar programs.

Districts XIII-XIV Meet In Historic Williamsburg

Williamsburg, Virginia was the site for the 1969 joint Conclave of Districts XIII and XIV the weekend of February 28-March 2.

This was the 20th annual Conclave for this middle Atlantic area.

Chapters represented were Brandeis at American University, Cardozo at Catholic University, Darrow at University of Maryland, Henry at University of Richmond, Jay at George Washington University, Jefferson at University of Virginia, Langston at Howard University, Staples at Washington & Lee University, Taft at Georgetown University, Willey at University of West Virginia, Wythe at College of William and Mary.

The opening function was a model initiation conducted Friday evening with the initiates coming from various chapters as did the participants in the initiation team. The Great Hall of the Wren building on the campus provided a most impressive background for the exemplification of the ritual. The initiation team was headed by Wythe Chapter Justice Harry Saunders.

Following the initiation the traditional reception was held with wives and dates swelling the crowd.

The Saturday morning session was preceded by a Continental breakfast. The feature of the morning program was a seminar on various chapter activities conducted by past Supreme Justice Robert E. Redding and District Justices Dan Halpin and Charles Taylor. Subjects covered included Pledge Indoctrination, Honorary Membership Program, and Exemplification of the Ritual.

The Conclave luncheon with about 40 in attendance featured a down to earth bread and butter talk by Charles Rideout, a Williamsburg attorney, who discussed in an entertaining but instructive way the highlights of his early months of practice both as an associate in a law firm and as a solo practitioner.

The afternoon saw the Conclave move into chapter workshops which delved into such subjects as Alumni Relations, Rushing Techniques and Chapter Financing.

The main item of business in the business session was the selection of the 1970 Conclave host and the election of Conclave officers. Darrow Chapter at the University of Maryland in Baltimore was selected as the host for 1970. The newly elected Conclave Justice is Ken Lechter of Darrow Chapter.

One of the resolutions adopted by the Conclave was to favor the admission of women into membership.

The closing banquet was held Saturday evening with Conclave Justice Rob Elliott, a 1968 National Scholarship winner, serving as toastmaster. The invocation was offered by Supreme Historian Donald R. Moore with the installation of new Conclave officers conducted by past Supreme Justice Robert E. Redding. A special award was presented to Rob Elliott by District Justice Dan Halpin for his services as Conclave Justice. Speaker for the evening was William L. Scott, Congressman from the 8th District of Virginia, who discussed politics and political campaigning.

PAD Hosts Reception at AALS Meeting

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity hosted its annual PAD Reception for members and guests attending the Association of American Law Schools Annual Meeting held December 28, 1968 in New Orleans.

Co-Chairmen of the Reception were: Dean Frank E. Maloney (Fletcher '42) of the University of Florida Law Center and Supreme Marshal of the Fraternity, Assistant Professor Alan I. Widiss (Ross '64) of the University of Iowa School and District V Justice of the Fraternity, and Professor Melvin G. Dakin (Hammond '35) of the Louisiana State University School of Law. Assisting the co-chairman was M. Robert De Cotiis, President of the American Bar Association-Law Student Division and a past Justice of Paterson Chapter.

Invitations were extended to all PAD faculty members, guests and special State Department visitors. Among approximately 200 distinguished law professors, guests and visitors present were: Dr. Elden S. Magaw (Harlan '31) Assistant Dean of the Temple University Law School and a Past Supreme Justice of the Fraternity; and Peter L. Wolff, Assistant to the Executive Director of the Association of American Law Schools. Brother Wolff was recently initiated as an alumnus member of the Fraternity.

Dean Jefferson B. Fordham of the University of Pennsylvania Law School was selected as President-elect of the Association of American Law Schools. Immediate Past President of AALS is Professor Wex S. Malone (Ruffin '31) of the Louisiana State University School of Law.

In addition to the PAD Reception held at each annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools the Fraternity acts as co-sponsor of the annual fall meeting of the Southeastern Conference of AALS.

Fuller Initiates

On Friday, February 7, 1969, at 5:00 p.m., seven new brothers were initiated into Melville W. Fuller Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity by District Justice William D. Mett and PAD Professors William M. McGovern, Jr. and Alexander Nekam. Following this initiation, the Honorable Julius J. Hoffman, distinguished United States District Judge for the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois was initiated as an honorary member of Fuller Chapter by Professor Jon R. Waltz, PAD Faculty Advisor. Distinguished observers were Professor Fred Inbau, PAD Faculty member, and the other PAD Faculty members mentioned above.

Following the initiations, a cocktail party was held in Abbott Hall prior to the banquet to honor the new initiates. A number of parents of new initiates as well as wives and guests of Brothers were present at both events. Judge Hoffman spoke at the banquet on the subject, "The Not-So-Innocent Bystander." Justice William R. Robie presided at the banquet and introduced incoming Justice John Stanish and Professor Jon R. Waltz who introduced Judge Hoffman.

The new initiates are Walter Warren Bell, Walter Scott Trude III, Charles St. Clair Brown, Philip Van Dyke, Clinton Joseph Feil, Douglas Milan, and Rashidul Choudhry.

Graham Succeeds Kennedy

Donald M. Graham (Fuller Chapter) has been selected as chairman and chief executive of Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company, the nation's eighth largest bank. Brother Graham succeeds David M. Kennedy who was named Treasury Secretary by President Richard M. Nixon (Rutledge Chapter).

A graduate of Northwestern University, Brother Graham practiced law in Chicago before joining the bank in 1953. He quickly built a reputation at the bank by rapidly expanding Continental's participation in oil and utility financing. He became a senior vice president in 1959 and vice chairman a year later.

As stated by Harlan Byrne of the Wall Street Journal "Don Graham's ascendancy to the top at Continental almost certainly will lead to a much deeper commitment by the bank to tackling Negro ghetto and other urban problems." For more than a year Continental has been sparking a move by Chicago banks to provide more financing for inner-city businesses and single-family residences, much of it hand in hand with Federal agencies. Among Chicago banks, Continental led the way last summer in hiring and training of hard-core unemployed.

In many ways Mr. Graham has stood out as a social activist among businessmen. He's Chicago vice chairman of the National Alliance of Businessmen and last fall was named chairman of the American Bankers Association's newly created urban affairs committee."

Applications May Still be Submitted for PAD Day at the U. S. Supreme Court

Brother John Davis, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, is still accepting applications for the PAD group admission ceremonies to the Court to be held Monday, June 2, 1969, according to Frank R. Hunter, Jr., Chairman of this year's event. The qualification for admission to practice before the Court is good standing in the Bar of the highest state, territory, district, commonwealth or possession of the United States for at least three years.

A reception will precede the admission ceremonies and luncheon for new admittees and their guests will follow. Hotel accommodations are being arranged for those desiring them.

Mementoes of the occasion will be presented to each admittee at the conclusion of the admission ceremonies.

Inasmuch as time is somewhat short those wishing to join the group of PADs already qualified for admission should obtain an application form from the Executive Office by submitting the form below:

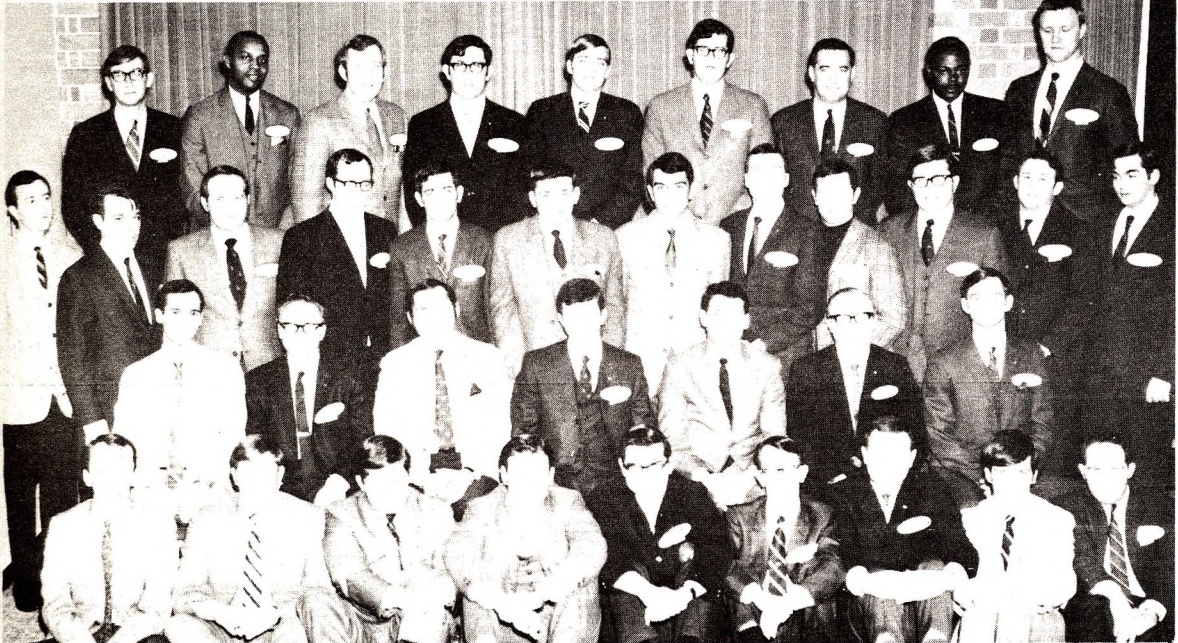

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity
10722 White Oak Avenue
Granada Hills, California 91344

Please send me by return mail an application for admission to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

PAD's Place in National Moot Court

The Justice and Vice Justice of Watson Chapter of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, led the school's team to the position of second in the National Appellate Moot Court Competition last December.

At the final rounds held at the House of the Association of the Bar recently in New York City, the Pitt team defeated four other teams before being edged out by the team from the Georgetown University School of Law in the last round before The Honorable Thurgood Marshall, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Allan McClain, Justice of Watson Chapter was awarded the trophy for Runner Up Best Individual Oral Argument in the competition.

The team consisted of three members, two of whom were PADs. Mr. McClain, a second year student and Edward Symons of the third year class argued for the team. Michael A. Malakoff, Vice Justice of Watson Chapter, did much of the vital research for the brief and assisted in preparation for the oral argument. Mr. William J. Brown, Faculty Advisor to Watson Chapter, advised the team.

The argument in this year's competition centered around the constitutionality of the war in Viet Nam. The case was before the Supreme Court of the United States on Writ of Certiorari from the circuit court where the petitioner, a private in the United States Army who had refused to go to Viet Nam with his unit, had already lost his first appeal from an adverse ruling of the district court. The case had been originally dismissed on the grounds that it presented a purely political question. The fact situation in the case was quite similar to that of Luftig v. McNamara in which certiorari was denied last spring.

Nom. Mora v. McNamara.

Along with Mr. Justice Marshall on the bench for the final round were the Honorable Stanley H. Fuld, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, the Honorable Edward Weinfeld, Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and Professor Herbert A. Wechsler of the Columbia University School of Law.

Langston Lectures

Achievements of Howard University Alumni in the field of law were recently highly praised by retired Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

He gave the first of a series of annual Langston lectures sponsored by the Langston Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity at the Howard University School of Law.

Brother Clark, now Director of the Federal Judicial Center, a newly created research and training agency, cited in particular Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, James M. Nabrit, Jr., President of the University, and a number of its faculty members.

He urged the law students in the audience to take an active part in community affairs to insure that every member of the community, regardless of his status, is aware of his rights.

Mr. Justice Clark noted that it had taken more than 150 years for the rights of the individual to be given proper treatment. But he added, that courts had limitations in the judicial process.

"Unlike Congress, the Court has to wait until a particular case comes before it, before it can decide," he said.

Regnier Elected

J. Ronald Regnier (Calhoun Chapter) has been elected to the Board of Governors of the American Bar Association representing the ABA 2nd District.

Brother Regnier received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Trinity College and a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the Yale Law School. CONGRESSMAN
ROBERT O. TIERNAN

Tiernan Reelected

Brother Robert O. Tiernan was reelected to the Congress of the United States in the November, 1968 general elections. Through inadvertence The Reporter failed to list Brother Tiernan as a reelected member of Congress in the last issue of The Reporter which carried the story on the November national elections.

Brother Tiernan was first elected to the Congress in 1967 in a special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of Congressman John E. Fogarty.
