Engle Chapter Installed

On May 9, 1969, sixty-three men representing the largest charter initiation class in the history of Phi Alpha Delta were initiated during impressive ceremonies in a Sacramento, California Superior Courtroom to establish the Fraternity's 110th Active chapter, at McGeorge School of Law at the University of the Pacific.

The installation of the chapter marked the culmination of several weeks of organizational work by Faculty Advisor and Associate Dean Charles W. Luther (Temple '59).

The installation team was composed of Henry C. Rohr, Supreme Justice; Matthew S. Rae, Supreme Advocate; Associate Dean Charles W. Luther; District Justice J. Michael Brown; and Executive Director Fredrick J. Weitkamp.

The new chapter was named for the late United States Senator Clair Engle. At the age of 24 Clair Engle was the youngest man ever to be District Attorney of Tehama County. He was later elected to the California Assembly and, while still in the Assembly, was elected to the United States Congress in a special election in 1943. Subsequently he was elected United States Senator from California. He was known as an outstanding advocate for California interests. While critically ill, Senator Engle was wheeled into the Senate to cast his vote to invoke cloture to cut off the filibuster of the 1964 civil rights bill.

The University of the Pacific is California's first chartered institution of higher education. A co-educational institution related to the Methodist Church the University offers programs in the liberal arts and six professional areas. Current full time enrollment is approximately 3,000 students.

The University of the Pacific was born in the first year of California's statehood. In 1966 the McGeorge College of Law, founded in 1924 in Sacramento, became a professional school of the University and was renamed the McGeorge School of Law.

The School of Law is accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California and by the American Bar Association. It was founded to carry out the program of its predecessor, the Sacramento College of Law, to provide legal education to employed

PAD Chapter in Puerto Rico

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico now proudly boasts a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity! Jose de Diego Chapter was installed April 25, 1969 at the Catholic University of Puerto Rico School in ceremonies at the District Court Building in Ponce and was followed with the initiation of 33 students and 7 faculty members including the Dean.

At the banquet held subsequent to the installation ceremonies the following were initiated as Honorary Members of PAD: Hon. Luis Negron-Fernandez, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico; Hon. Carlos Santana Becerra, Justice of the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico; Hon. Rafael Hernandez Colon, President of the Senate of Puerto Rico; His Excellency Freimot Torres Oliver, Bishop of Ponce and Great Chancellor of the Catholic University of Puerto Rico; and Hon. Juan Blaimayor Ferrara, Administrative Judge of the Ponce District Court.

The Catholic University of Puerto Rico began courses at Ponce in 1948 and affiliation with the Catholic University of America was secured that year. The Catholic University of Puerto Rico is accredited by the Council of Higher Education of Puerto Rico, by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Board of Regents of the State of New York and the Department of Education of Puerto Rico. The School of Law, founded in 1961, earned accreditation by the Council of Higher Education of Puerto Rico and the American Bar Association.

Jose de Diego, the Chapter's namesake, a lawyer, politician, poet and journalist was one of the greatest Puerto Rican patriots of all times. He served as Attorney General in Arecibo and as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the Island. Jose de Diego became Sub-Secretary of Justice during the "autonomous government of 1898." After acquisition of Puerto Rico by the United States he served as Attorney General of Mayaguez. In 1900 President McKinley named him as a member of the Executive Council, but soon he resigned and devoted himself to politics. In 1902 he was elected as a member of the House of Delegates and its president in 1907 until 1917. In that year, Jose de Diego became the first

News From The ABA

The 92nd annual meeting of the American Bar Association in Dallas could take its place in history as the birthplace of the Code of Professional Responsibility, a revised statement of ethical standards to govern the legal profession.

The code, which would replace the present 60-year-old Canons of Professional Ethics, will be considered by the ABA House of Delegates at its sessions Aug. 11-14 in the Dallas Memorial Auditorium. Other ABA and related organization meetings will take place between Aug. 1 and 14.

Designed to update and clarify the present canons, the new ethics code has been undergoing bar scrutiny since a 136-page draft was distributed in January. It will be the forerunner of a parallel ABA program to encourage a tightening of the bar's disciplinary enforcement procedures which is still in progress.

Another feature of the meeting of the meeting will be the plenary Assembly in the auditorium Aug. 11-14. Speakers for these sessions will include U.S. Attorney General John N. Mitchell and Whitney M. Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League.

The final session on Thursday, Aug. 14, will see Bernard G. Segal of Philadelphia installed as the 92nd president of the Association, and Edward L. Wright of Little Rock as president-elect.

Prominent Leaders to Address ABA Sections at Annual Meeting

Many prominent leaders in government, science, business and the law will address sessions of the 21 Sections of the American Bar Association at the Dallas annual meeting. Section speaker include: Assistant Attorney General Will Wilson; former Attorney General Ramsey Clark; retired Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark; Chairman of the Administrative Conference of the United States Jerre Williams; Civil Aeronautics Board Chairman John H. Crocker, Jr.

Also, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Tax Policy Edwin S. Cohen; Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Randolph W. Thrower; Chancellor of the University of California at Los Angeles James Young; Illinois Central Railroad President Allan S. Boyd, and Ling-Temco-Vought Chairman James J. Ling.

Section programs will embrace such national and world problems as the Mideast crisis, campus uprisings, anatomical transplants, highway safety, undersea resources, airport congestion and skyjacking. Many of the sessions will be highlighted as "Showcase Programs" in the Dallas Memorial Auditorium to enable a maximum number of registrants to participate.

Probate Code to be Considered

A proposed Uniform Probate Code, designed to simplify and speed up probate procedures, will be considered for approval by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws at its meeting in Dallas Aug. 2-8.

The probate code is the product of seven years of effort by the Commissioners and the ABA Section of Real Property, Probate and Trust Law. Should it be adopted, it will go to the ABA House of Delegates at its sessions Aug. 11-14 for endorsement.

The Commissioners also will consider drafts of a Uniform Consumer Sales Practices Act and a Uniform Adoption Act. Reports will be received from committees working on proposals affecting antitrust, trade secrets, abortion, eminent domain, real property, compensation for riot damage, and narcotic and hallucinogenic drugs.

Message from The Supreme Justice

Dear Brothers in PAD:

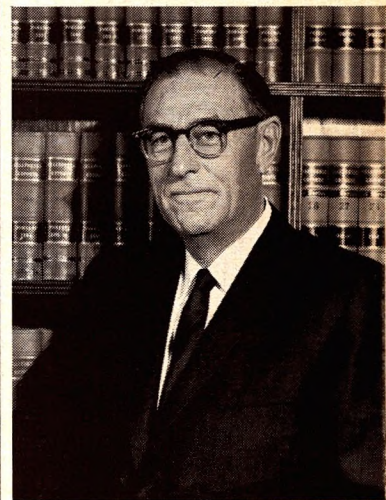

The first part of my message is directed to the officers of each active chapter.

That you are an officer of an active chapter is an honor and a privilege not to be taken lightly. You were chosen because your fellow chapter members believed you had the qualities of a leader. The fact that you accepted your present position indicates, however, that you were willing to accept the responsibilities of your office as well as whatever prestige the position might involve.

First and foremost, you, as a leader in your chapter, should make certain that you have developed and are maintaining an atmosphere that respects scholarship and willingness to participate in the professional and other programs planned by the members of the chapter. This atmosphere can only be sustained if YOU set the example. If your leadership is strong and inspiring others will follow your example and the chapter will be successful in maintaining its membership and the interest of each member.

Do not hesitate to seek help from the Alumni Advisor, Faculty Advisor and your District Justice. They are always ready and willing to assist if you only ask.

The 1968-1969 school year is almost finished. Looking back on this school year we can be proud of our accomplishments. Five new chapters have been added, one of which was in Canada and one in Puerto Rico. Our professional programs have been successfully planned and all Districts held conclaves. We can look ahead to the next school year with high hopes for the continued growth and success of each chapter.

I am grateful to each chapter officer, the District Justices, each member of the Supreme Executive Board, our Executive Director and Executive Secretary for their devotion to their duties and their untiring work for Phi Alpha Delta.

Fraternally,
Henry C. Rohr
Supreme Justice

Timberlake Honorary Initiation

Timberlake Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, Wake Forest University initiated a new honorary member March 15, 1969. The new brother is Judge Raymond B. Mallard Chief Judge of the North Carolina Court of Appeals. Judge Mallard's initiation was the highlight of the Chapter's annual Spring Banquet. John Snow, Justice of Timberlake Chapter, presented Judge Mallard with a gold key and certificate of membership.

Following the banquet on the Wake Forest University campus, a cocktail party and dance was given in honor of the Chapter's first honorary initiate in the State Room of the Hotel Robert E. Lee.

Judge Mallard attended Wake Forest College, where he also received his law degree in 1931. He practiced law until 1955 when he was appointed to the Superior Court Bench by former Governor Luther H. Hodges. He remained in this position until his appointment by Governor Dan K. Moore to the newly created North Carolina Court of Appeals. According to the statutory provisions of the new court act, Chief Justice R. Hunt Parker of the Supreme Court of North Carolina designated Mallard as the first Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, in which he is now serving.

After the ceremony, Judge Mallard addressed the Brothers on the "Validity Of Student Dissent On Today's College Campuses." The Judge also presented Timberlake Chapter with Volume I of the North Carolina Court of Appeals Reports. This first volume and those to follow will be added to the Chapter's extensive library. Timberlake Chapter received "The Continuing Excellence Award" in 1968 after being selected for first place in the 1967 "Outstanding Chapter Competition."

From the Editors

This issue of The Reporter is published as the 1968-69 academic year is concluded. For the many Brothers who have just graduated we wish them well in their respective careers. To those Brothers who will be returning to their legal studies this fall we hope they have an enjoyable summer.

Our Fraternity has taken many ambitious steps this year and has also reached an unparalleled strength of 110 Chapters. Described in this issue are three of the latest—Macdonald Chapter at the University of Windsor, de Diego Chapter at the Catholic University of Puerto Rico, Engle Chapter at the University of the Pacific, plus the recently reactivated Wormser Chapter at Fordham University.

For the convenience of Brothers residing or traveling overseas we have secured an international cable address. To send an overseas telegram to the Executive Office you need only stipulate: PADLAW; Granada Hills, California.

District VII Conclave

Seven of the eight District VII chapters attended the February 14-15, 1969 District VII Conclave in Houston, Texas. R. C. B. Baylor was unable to send delegates due to final examinations. In addition, delegates from the Houston and New Orleans Alumni Chapters were also in attendance. Hickman and Houston Chapters served as co-hosts.

The Conclave commenced on Friday evening with an informal cocktail reception which provided a medium for the delegates to become acquainted with each other. There was a well attended breakfast held on Saturday morning, after which District VII Justice Rogers M. Presetridge called the conclave to order and delivered welcoming remarks. The first item on the agenda was individual chapter reports from each chapter—each chapter reported on its strength, weaknesses and current problems. Following each report there was a short discussion period, during which suggested solutions to any problems were offered by the other delegates, District Justice Rogers M. Prestridge and Supreme Secretary C. Raymond Judice.

Following the presentation of chapter reports the program moved directly into chapter workshops with each chapter in attendance chairing a particular workshop. Subjects included: Chapter Organization presented by Jerry LaBorde (Martin Chapter), Professional Activities by Mills McCawley (White Chapter), Rushing Program presented jointly by Houston and Clark Chapters, Social Programs sponsored by Clark Chapter, Chapter Finances presented by Taney Chapter, Alumni-Active Chapter Relations discussed by Houston and New Orleans Alumni Chapters, and the Effective Use of Members and Overcoming Apathy chaired by Martin Chapter.

At the luncheon the delegates enjoyed an address by Brother Richard Haynes (Houston Chapter) of the Houston law firm, Donn & Fullenweider. He spoke on the responsibility of a lawyer to his client and to the profession, especially in the criminal law area. His remarks were very informative and extremely well received by the brothers in attendance.

At the conclusion of the afternoon session of workshops Supreme Secretary C. Raymond Judice spoke on the aids available to the active chapter through the Executive Office of the Fraternity and answered questions from the members attending.

White Chapter of Louisiana State University was selected as the host chapter for the 1970 District VII Conclave. At the conclusion of the business session the delegates and their ladies joined together for an informal evening meal and a dutch nightclub tour of the famed Market Square.

A Light Note

The following was reported by the Dallas Morning News Friday, April 25, 1969 concerning Past Supreme Treasurer Dee Brown Walker (Taney '35) who is a Judge of the 162nd Judicial District Court in Dallas County, Texas.

"Judge Dee Brown Walker is an impressive man with snow white hair. Ordinarily, he takes off his long black judicial robe before leaving the courtroom, but he was wearing it when he hurried into the hall on his way to see Judge Dan Gibbs.

"In the corridor he met the Lewis T. Kimples, their baby daughter and 3-year-old son. Judge Walker stopped a minute to say hello.

"Scott, the 3-year-old, muttered something.

"It turned out to be, 'Daddy, is that God?'"

Justice Clark Honored

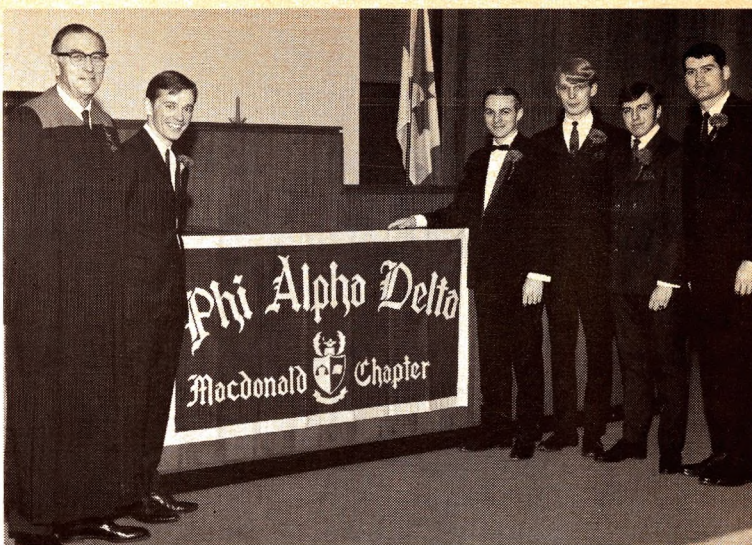

On Monday evening, April 14, 1969, the PAD Distinguished Service Chapter Award was conferred on Brother Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court (ret.), by Past Supreme Justice Robert E. Redding. The Justice thus becomes the sixth PAD to be so honored for his outstanding service to Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

Election to the Distinguished Service Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta is the highest award which can be conferred on a member of the Fraternity other than the office of the Supreme Justice. The unanimous vote of all members of the Supreme Executive Board is required for election.

Other recipients of the award have been Carl E. Dietze (Ryan '15), former Chairman of the Board of Trustees and Board of Tribunes; Frank E. Gray (Ford '43) former Executive Secretary and Supreme Secretary; Charles Tom Henderson (Brewer '28), former Supreme Vice Justice; Gen. J. Harry LaBrum (Taft '23), former Supreme Justice; and Mr. Justice Charles E. Whitaker (Benton '23), of the U.S. Supreme Court (ret.).

Mr. Justice Clark previously served two terms as Supreme Vice Justice of PAD and continues to serve the Fraternity in countless capacities. During the Distinguished Service Chapter recognition ceremony the Justice also received a presentation binder which included congratulatory letters from those attending the ceremony and other Brothers throughout the country.

Brother Clark, who retired from the United States Supreme Court in 1967 upon the appointment of his son, Ramsey Clark, as Attorney General of the United States, is now serving in a full-time capacity as Director of the Federal Judicial Center in Washington, D.C.

Canadian Chapter Installed

March 14, 1969 was a historic date in the minds and hearts of PADs everywhere for it marked the occasion of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity's acquisition of International Status via the installation of Sir John Alexander Macdonald Chapter at the University of Windsor Faculty of Law in Ontario, Canada. Hundreds of PAD Alumni reside in virtually every corner of the globe but this is the first PAD Active Chapter Charter granted outside of the continental limits of the United States.

Macdonald Chapter was named after the late Sir John Alexander Macdonald, who was the first Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada. Biographical data on the chapter's namesake as contained in the petition is as follows:

"Born in 1815, Sir John was articulated by George MacKenzie of Kingston, Ontario. In 1835 he opened his own practice there, and in 1836 was admitted to the Bar. Before running for a local government office eight years later, Sir John acquired a considerable professional reputation and established himself as a respected and popular citizen of the Kingston community. In 1867 Sir John was elected as Canada's first Prime Minister. He was opposed to oligarchical rule and religious privilege; though he was in favor of the cultural duality of Canada. He was fully prepared to consider new commercial policies rather than follow annexation programmes proposed by his opponents. Sir John's contribution to Canadian nation-building was nothing less than the bringing together of all divergent factions in Canada—the result being the union of the whole of British North America into a general confederation called Canada. He died in 1891."

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity's Macdonald Chapter had its beginning in the fall of 1968 which also was the first semester commenced for the new Faculty of Law. Nineteen charter members, including Judge Thomas G. Zuber of the Faculty, were initiated during ceremonies held at the Essex County Courthouse in Windsor. The active brothers initiated were: John E. Kingsmill, William B. Stead, Nicholas P. G. Kapelos, Paul H. Macklin, Avrom W. Brown, Roger L. Clark, Paul M. Champagne, David A. Crowe, Gregory T. Evans, Jr., Gordon T. Gardner, William E. Kelly, Walter N. Lalka, Robert D. Mullen, John F. O'Donnell, Donald F. Sayles, Juha Siimes, Robert B. Wilson and Judge Thomas G. Zuber.

Representing the Fraternity were: Supreme Justice Henry C. Rohr, Associate Tribune Kenneth C. Segal, District IX Justice Lawrence S. Turner and Special Assistant to the Supreme Justice Frank J. McCown. A delegation of brothers from neighboring law schools in Michigan included: Philip Dulmage, Justice of Detroit Alumni Chapter; Victor Cohn, Vice Justice of Murphy Chapter; Edward Wick, Clerk of Cooley Chapter; Julian Levant, Justice of Murphy Chapter; Julius McKanders, Treasurer of Cooley Chapter; Steve Myers, Justice of Cooley Chapter; Fred Foster, Charter Justice of Murphy Chapter; Don Shelton, Justice of Campbell Chapter and Dick Erickson, Vice Justice of Campbell Chapter.

The Faculty of Law of the University of Windsor was established in 1967 with the appointment of Dr. Mark R. MacGuigan as Dean of the Faculty. He was succeeded in August of 1968, following his election to the Federal Parliament, by Dean Walter S. Tarnopolsky. The first class of students was admitted in September, 1968, and the first law degrees at the University of Windsor will be conferred in 1971. A new law building which will have accommodations for a student body of 400, a faculty of 25, and a library of 150,000 volumes will be completed by the winter of 1969.

Following the installation and initiation ceremonies a reception was held at the Seaway Inn and was well attended by the new brothers, Supreme Officers, visiting brothers, wives, dates and guests. Macdonald Chapter officers were installed during the reception and are: John E. Kingsmill, Justice; Wm. Brian Stead, Vice Justice; Hugh Charles Mitchell, Clerk; Nicholas G. P. Kapelos, Treasurer; and Paul H. Macklin, Marshal. Judge Thomas G. Zuber will serve as Faculty Advisor. Following the reception a Midnight Dinner-Dance was hosted by the entire Faculty of Law student body.

President of the House of Representatives.

As a politician, Jose de Diego had a clear vision of the future. He was a defender of the independence of Puerto Rico from the United States and a believer of the establishment of the Confederation of the Greater Antilles. Because of his great battle in defense of the Spanish language and of Puerto Rican citizenship, the Spanish press gave him the honorable title "Gentleman of the language and of the race." Jose de Diego died in New York City in 1918 and the 16th of April, his birthday, is an official holiday in Puerto Rico.

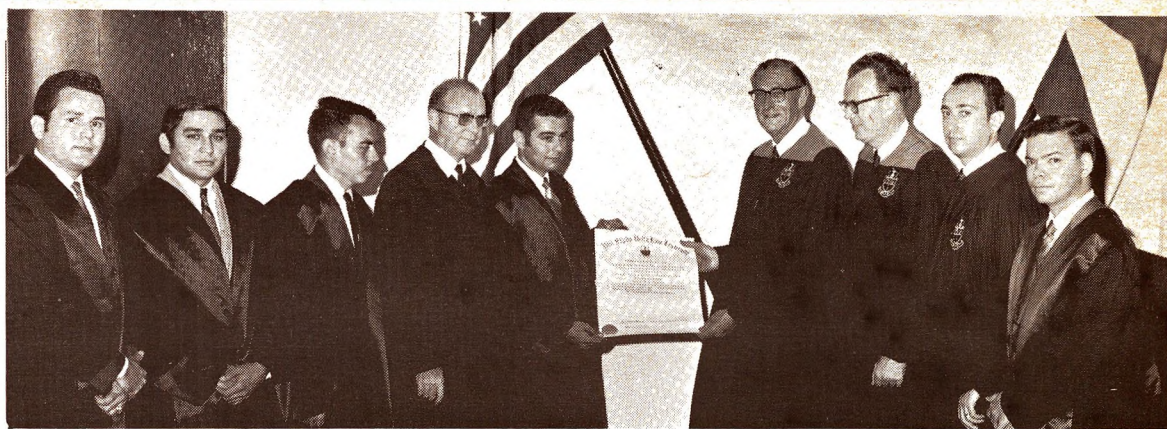

Members of the faculty initiated as Charter Members were Dean Charles E. Waldron, Professor Jose y de Castro, Professor Quintin Morales, Professor Rafael Elvira, Professor Ruben T. Nigaglioni, Professor Carlos Irizarry Yunge, and Professor Alfons Sergot.

The 33 law students initiated as Charter Members were: Francisco Arturo Rivera Lopez, Felix Fumero Pugliesi, Frederick L. Kurr, III, Edwin H. Flores Tirado, Eudaldo Baez Cruz, Jose E. Medina Negrón, Nestor Ruiz Diaz, Antonio Maldan-

L.A. TRI-CHAPTER BANQUET

"An Evening with Mr. Justice Tom C. Clark was presented by the Ford, McKenna and Ross Chapters of PAD March 22, 1969 as their first Tri-Chapter Banquet.

It was held in the Coral Room of the Rodger Young Auditorium in Los Angeles featuring a cocktail reception and banquet. Coordinating joint chapter efforts that resulted in a substantial turnout of PAD alumni, wives dates and guests in addition to the many PAD active members present for the affair were Ken Chotiner of Ford Chapter at Loyola, Steve Reed of Ross Chapter at U.S.C. and Barry Herzog of McKenna Chapter at U.C.L.A.

Brother Clark spoke on "The Supreme Court Today" which was preceded by a short recapitulation by the Justice of his new duties as Director of the Federal Judicial Center in Washington, D.C. In his remarks, Mr. Justice Clark urged the many law students present to consider spending some portion of their respective professional careers in the field of public service.

Earlier in the day Ross Chapter held its annual spring initiation which included Matthew P. Lynch's initiation as an alumnus member.

Hamill Chapter Hosts District VIII Conclave

March 15, 1969 was the occasion of the annual District VIII Conclave of Phi Alpha Delta. PAD's from chapters located in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin were in attendance.

For the first time, Hamill Chapter of Indiana University Indianapolis Law School was host for the meeting. The honor gave recognition to Hamill Chapter's outstanding progress in the past year.

Present at the conclave were such notables as District VIII Justice William D. Mett, Dean Foust of University of Indiana Law School, Judges John Christ and William Sharp of the Indianapolis Municipal Courts, and Indianapolis Alumni Justice Patrick Mullin. Most notable of all, however, was Supreme Justice Henry Rohr whose participation made the conclave an overwhelming success.

The conclave itself was an all-day affair beginning with welcoming speeches by PAD actives and alumni. A panel discussion on the topic, "What Do I Do When I Graduate," gave members an insight into various areas of the legal profession. The panelists included Brother David Casterline, Assistant United States Attorney; Brother David Allison, Indiana Legislator; Craig Pinkus of Barnes, and Brother Patrick Mullin, a sole practitioner. The Honorable Ralph Hamill, namesake of Host Hamill Chapter, gave a few inspirational remarks. The highlight of the morning session was Supreme Justice Rohr's talk on "The State of the Fraternity and the Future of Phi Alpha Delta." His comments told of the strong position of PAD on law school campuses and of the continued growth of the Fraternity.

Following a buffet luncheon, the afternoon session was opened by Professor William Harvey, faculty advisor to Hamill Chapter, who addressed the conclave with "Why the Fraternity in Legal Education?" Supreme Justice Rohr then presided at the initiation of Rodric B. Schoen, Assistant Professor at the University of Indiana Law School, into faculty membership. The rest of the session was spent in workshops which gave individual members an opportunity to discuss local problems in areas such as Rushing, Professional Programs and National Assistance.

An evening cocktail reception and banquet provided PAD's with a final opportunity to acquaint themselves with others in the Fraternity. The Honorable Theodore L. Sendak, Attorney-General of Indiana, concluded the conclave's activities with a speech on legal ethics and the lawyer's duty to upgrade the profession. It was a great conclave for District VIII and Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity will be better for what PAD's learned that day.

Fahner Heads Placement

The Supreme Justice is pleased to announce the appointment of Tyrone C. Fahner (Cooley '68) as National Placement Director of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

Brother Fahner received a B.A. from the University of Michigan where he was president of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. He received a J.D. from the Wayne State University Law School where his many law school activities included receipt of the Best Brief Award, National Moot Court Team, ABA-LSD Representative and Committee Chairman, and organizer of the Wayne State Law School Placement Service.

Brother Fahner has served during the 1968-69 academic year as Assistant to Dean Charles W. Joiner (Campbell '39) and as an Instructor in Legal Writing and Research at Wayne State University. He has received a Prosecution Defense Fellowship at Northwestern University for 1969-70 and is a member of the Michigan and American Bar Associations.

Timberlake Active Killed

An unhappy Timberlake Chapter has informed the Executive Office that Brother Charles Alexander Koontz, a first year student at the Wake Forest College of Law, was killed early in the morning of April 19, in an automobile accident on his way to class.

Brother Koontz received an Associate in Arts degree from Brevard College and a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Business from the University of North Carolina. He was a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honorary, Alpha Beta Gamma Honorary, and an associate member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The Brotherhood of Timberlake Chapter attended Brother Koontz's funeral and Dean Carroll W. Weathers (Timberlake '22) suspended classes on that day in memory of the departed student. He is survived by his wife and baby daughter.

PADs in Vienna

At the Spring Meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Union held at Vienna during the week of April 7th, the United States delegation included the following distinguished PADs — Senator John Sparkman (Morgan '23), President of the U.S. Group and leader of the delegation; Representative E. Ross Adair (Jay '33), Vice President; Senator Hugh Scott (Roberts '21), Secretary; and Senator Strom Thurmond (Pinckney '30).

The work of the meetings, which lasted all week, was principally concerned with preparing the agenda and papers for discussion for the Fall meeting to be held at New Delhi, beginning October 30th.

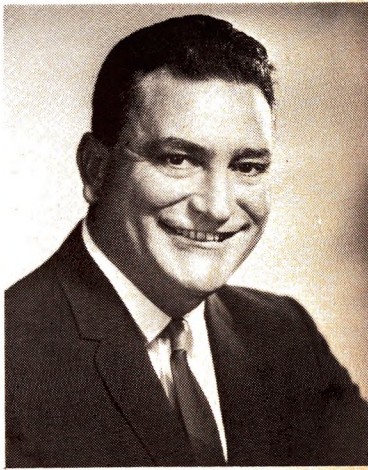

Another PAD, Dr. Charles J. Zinn, (Taft '31), President of the Association of Secretaries General of Parliament, an autonomous section of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, presided at the meetings of the Association which were held concurrently with the meetings of the committees and council of the Union. Brother Zinn also serves as Law Revision Counsel for the U.S. House of Representatives.

CONGRESSMAN LOWELL P. WEICKER, JR.

GOVERNOR RICHARD B. OGILVIE

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES W. SANDMAN, JR.

RECENTLY INITIATED into PAD as an Honorary Member was Congressman Charles W. Sandman (right) of New Jersey by Jackson Chapter. Recently elected were Governor Richard B. Ogilvie of Illinois (Blackstone '50) and Congressman Lowell P. Weicker Jr., (Jefferson '60) of Connecticut.

MICHIGAN ATTORNEY GENERAL FRANK JOSEPH KELLEY delivering his address, "The Rule and Justice" to alumni and active members of Campbell Chapter following his initiation as an honorary member of Campbell Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, April 5, 1969 at the Inn America, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Campbell Chapter's Annual Banquet

As usual the Campbell Chapter's Annual Banquet was a gala affair. Supreme Vice Justice Alex Hotchkiss initiated Michigan Attorney General Frank J. Kelley into honorary membership in the Chapter. Delivering the main address of the evening, Brother Kelley arose to the occasion with wit and wisdom. Speaking on "The Rule of Law and Justice," he expressed his concern over violence and non-legal modes of political and social change.

Among those listening to his words were Brother Larry Turner (District IX Justice), Brother Phil Dulmage (Justice of Detroit Alumni), Brother Steve Myers (Justice of Cooley Chapter) and many PAD Faculty members of the Michigan Law School. Also in attendance at their first PAD banquet were the 30 new members initiated into the Chapter earlier in the day.

The Annual Banquet is also the occasion for recognition of graduating seniors. Brother John Pfarr Jr. was awarded the outstanding senior award for his contributions to the Chapter and Brother E. Robert Blaske received the Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award. Brother (Professor) Theodore J. St. Antoine was recognized for his service as faculty advisor with the outstanding alumnus award. Certificates of appreciation were given to Brothers Don Shelton, Robert Tepper, Hal O. Carroll, E. Robert Blaske, Mike Stefani and Barry Adelman for their extraordinary service.

Changing of officers occurs once a year for Campbell Chapter and the Annual Banquet has always been the traditional occasion for the passing of responsibility. The newly elected officers for the forthcoming year are: Brother Dick Cohn (Justice), Brother Dick Erickson (Vice Justice), Brother Wayne Dabb Jr. (Clerk), Brother Paul Sefcovic (Treasurer), Brother Ralph Wellington (Marshal), and Brother Phil Dean (Advocate).

As the banquet drew to a close, expressions of gratitude were given to Brother Walter Sutton who bore the burden for planning the affair. He did an admirable job.

DISTRICT I CONCLAVE

Host Chapter for the 1969 District District I Conclave, held February 7-8, 1969 was Kent Chapter of the University of Idaho with the co-operation of Connelly Chapter of Gonzaga University and the Spokane Alumni Chapter. The Conclave was held at the Ridpath Hotel and Motor Inn located in Spokane, Washington.

All chapters in District I were represented at the Conclave despite the fact that during the preceding weekend Spokane received 42 inches of snow. Williams Chapter delegates were flown in by their alumni advisor via private plane, Dunbar Chapter delegates selected a train and the rest journeyed via automobile.

The ladies of Connelly Chapter hosted a reception for arriving delegates on Friday evening. Following a continental breakfast Saturday morning the delegates enjoyed a panel discussion covering Fraternity topics of: Professional Programs, Rushing and Membership, and National-Chapter Relations. The panelists were: Supreme Justice Henry C. Rohr, Supreme Advocate Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae, Jr., and District I Justice Joseph A. Zimmerman, Jr.

Following the noon luncheon on Saturday the delegates reassembled in general session for a professional roundtable discussion on the topics: Problems of Entry into Practice; Government Service—Local and Federal; Law Firms—Large and Small; and Corporate Large and Small; and Corporate Practice. Panelists included: Joseph Campbell, Regional Counsel of the Small Business Administration; William G. Ennis (Kent '33) of the Spokane law firm Ennis and Klobucher; Justin L. Quakenbush (Kent '57) of the Spokane law firm Quakenbush, Dean and Smith; and Donald Brockett, Prosecutor. The discussion period which followed the presentations by the panel was lively and informative.

The Saturday evening banquet was well attended by the delegates and Connelly Chapter members and their ladies. The banquet featured the honorary initiation into Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity of Mr. Justice Robert Finley of the Washington State Supreme Court. In his remarks Mr. Justice Finley referred to an imbalance on the present U. S. Supreme Court which has "developed between favoring rights of society and the rights of individuals. The Court has been tending to overemphasize the former and neglect the latter," Justice Finley said he does not think new federal legislation is necessary because "the situation will take care of itself in the next several appointments to the court."

Help!

The Executive Office needs help in locating a picture of the second Chief Justice of the Fraternity, William C. Healion.

His last known address was 610 Hyde Building, Spokane, Washington. He served as Second Chief Justice of the Fraternity in 1904 and was Justice of Marshall Chapter as well as President of the Senior Law Class at the University of Chicago in 1904. Brother Helion served as Assistant City Attorney of Okmulgee, Oklahoma in 1906.

The picture is needed for the History of PAD. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of any of Brother's Healion's relatives or who can assist in the furnishing of a photograph should write the Executive Office of the Fraternity.

Dr. Emery Publishes

Walter B. Emery (Harlan '33), formerly Professor of Television and Radio at Michigan State University and now a professor in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Ohio State University has released his latest book National and International Systems of Broadcasting: Their History, Operation and Control. Published by the Michigan State University Press, this 752 page study covers comprehensively in one volume virtually every important national and international system of broadcasting on the globe, discusses in depth the development, operation and control of radio and television in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Soviet Union, most of the countries in Western and Eastern Europe, plus Australia, Communist China, India, Japan and Turkey.

In addition, it explains the operation and control of more than 20 organizations concerned with broadcasting across national boundaries—the International Telecommunications Union, European Broadcasting Union and Eurovision, the International Television and Radio Organization and Inatervision, the Communications Satellite Corporation, the Voice of America, Radio Moscow, Radio Free Europe, Radio Peking, Radio Vatican, World Association of Christian Broadcasters, to mention only a few.

This volume is available at $12.50 per copy from the Michigan State University Press; P.O. Box 550; East Lansing, Michigan 48823.

Dr. Emery has been a legal practitioner in the field of communications law for many years. He is a member of the FCC, Oklahoma and Michigan Bars, and is licensed to practice before the Federal courts in the District of Columbia and the U.S. Supreme Court. His background in the study, teaching and practice of communications law especially qualifies him to deal with the legal and regulatory aspects of American and foreign systems of broadcasting.

Willis Law Day Project

On May 1, 1969, after three months of preparation, forty Brothers of Willis Chapter - Ohio Northern University - went into twelve high schools in six counties to present their third annual Law Day program. The program which was expanded this year through the efforts of Justice Austin Wildman and the Brotherhood, included asking questions taken from The American Bar Association's Rule of Law Quiz. The questions chosen were ones that would provoke discussion in areas of concern to teenagers. The students were very receptive and were anxious to offer their opinions and understandings on capital punishment, narcotics offenders, campus disorders and amnesty, rape, joy riding in stolen cars, and many other subjects.

In addition, Willis Chapter presented an assembly to Srawnee High School in Lima, Ohio. Over two-hundred students watched members of Phi Alpha Delta put on a mock trial of a narcotics offender. The assembly was a pilot project for Willis Chapter and such a success that it will be expanded next year.

The programs were very informative for students and a satisfying experience for the brothers of Phi Alpha Delta as reported by Ronald A. Marks, Chairman of the Willis Chapter Public Relations Committee.

Washington Named Dean

James A. Washington, Jr. (Brandeis '41), who was appointed acting dean of Howard University's Law School after the resignation of Dean Patricia Harris, was named Dean of the school on March 3, 1969 by the Board of Trustees.

Brother Washington received his A.B. and LL.B. (magna cum laude) from Howard University and an LL.M. from the Harvard Law School. He served as a professor at the Howard Law School from 1946 to 1958 and was the school's Vice Dean from 1958 to 1961. He has served as a visiting professor at the Georgetown Law Center and the Washington College of Law at American University. From 1961 until 1966 he was Chairman of the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia and also a Board Member of the D.C. National Capital Housing Authority. In 1966 Dean Washington returned to the school as a Langston Professor of Law.

Brother Washington has rendered several articles for various law reviews and other legal publications. In 1968 he was appointed by Chief Judge David Bazelon of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals as a member of a committee to assist the implementation of the Report of the President's Commission of Crime in the District of Columbia.

Hayes Chapter Mock Trial

The charter members of Rutherford B. Hayes Chapter at the Franklin Law School of Capital University have been exceedingly active in student affairs this year. Jerry McDowell has served as Student Bar Association President while Rockford Richardson has served as SBA Secretary. Serving on the editorial staff of the Hearsay, which is the Franklin Law School Student Newspaper, were: Nick Pittner, Associate Editor; Keith Nolley, Business Manager; and Jerry Dodd, Photographer.
