With the theme "75 Years of Professional Service" the 41st Biennial convention of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, will be called to order on July 30th, only a short time after this issue of The Reporter goes to press. This convention will begin the observance of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Phi Alpha Delta, the world's leading professional law fraternity.

A record number of members and their families will be in attendance. Reservations for over three hundred fifty persons have already been made with the Alameda Plaza Hotel, headquarters for the biennial meeting. The largest number of active and alumni chapters in the history of the fraternity will answer roll call at this historic meeting.

Lincoln On How To Become A Good Lawyer

I am not an accomplished lawyer. I find quite as much material for a lecture in those points wherein I have failed, as in those wherein I have been moderately successful. The leading rule for the lawyer, as for the man of every other calling, is diligence. Leave nothing for tomorrow which can be done today. Never let your correspondence fall behind. Whatever piece of business you have in hand, before stopping, do all the labor pertaining to it which can then be done. When you bring a common-law suit, if you have the facts for doing so, write the declaration at once. If a law point be involved, examine the books, and note the authority you rely on upon the declaration itself, where you are sure to find it when wanted. The same of defenses and pleas. In business not likely to be litigated, — ordinary collection cases, foreclosures, partitions, and the like, — make all examinations of titles, and note them, and even draft orders and decrees in advance. This course has a triple advantage; it avoids omissions and neglect, saves your labor when once done, performs the labor out of court when you have leisure, rather than in court when you have not. Extemporaneous speaking should be practised and cultivated. It is the lawyer's avenue to the public. However able and faithful he may be in other respects, people are slow to bring him business if he cannot make a speech. And yet there is not a more fatal error to young lawyers than relying too much on speech-making. If any one, upon his rare powers of speaking, shall claim an exemption from the drudgery of the law, his case is a failure in advance.

Discourage litigation. Persuade your neighbors to compromise whenever you can. Point out to them how the nominal winner is often a real loser — in fees, expenses, and waste of time. As a peacemaker the lawyer has a superior opportunity of being a good man. There will still be business enough.

Never stir up litigation. A worse man can scarcely be found than one who does this. Who can be more nearly a fiend than he who habitually overhauls the register of deeds in search of defects in titles, whereon to stir up strife, and put money in his pocket? A moral tone ought to be infused into the profession which should drive such men out of it.

The matter of fees is important, far beyond the mere question of bread and butter involved. Properly attended to, fuller justice is done to both lawyer and client. An exorbitant fee should never be claimed. As a general rule never take your whole fee in advance, nor any more than a small retainer. When fully paid beforehand, you are more than a common mortal if you can feel the same interest in the case, as if something was still in prospect for you, as well as for your client. And when you lack interest in the case the job will very likely lack skill and diligence in the performance. Settle the amount of fee and take a note in advance. Then you will feel that you are working for something, and you are sure to do your work faithfully and well. Never sell a fee note — at least not before the consideration service is

The first official Convention function will be the Convention Reception which will be held from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 29th around the pool of the beautiful Alameda Plaza Hotel. A hosted bar and musical entertainment will highlight the reception.

Supreme Justice C. Raymond Judice will call the Convention to order on Friday morning. The feature of that session will be the keynote address by Brother Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States (Retired). Also of interest will be a new filmstrip on the history of the fraternity developed by past Southwestern University chapter justice Bruce Kerner and Loyola University of Los Angeles chapter clerk John Weitkamp with the assistance of Supreme Vice Justice Don Hutson and Executive Director Fredrick J. Weitkamp.

Friday afternoon one of the most interesting and instructive features of the convention will take place in the form of Chapter Workshops. The theme of the workshops is "The Effective Chapter." Topics which will be presented by panels of top experts will be "Building Chapter Strength," "Chapter Organization," "Programming and Financing," "Placement," and "Alumni Services."

Saturday morning a model initiation will be staged followed by short remarks from the Director of the FBI, Brother Clarence Kelly of Benton Chapter.

Committees will labor long and hard on important matter of fraternity business. All delegates will be appointed to serve on a committee. Committees will meet on Audit and Finance, Constitution and By-Law, Professional Service, Rules and Resolutions, Credentials, Publications, International Expansion, Loans, Scholarships, Fellowships and Awards, and Rushing Aids.

A full program of social and recreational activities has also been scheduled so all inattendance will be assured of a great time!

performed. It leads to negligence and dishonesty — negligence by losing interest in the case, and dishonesty in refusing to refund when you have allowed the consideration to fail.

Brother Robert J. Chadwick, a member of Livingston Chapter and a former District Justice, was promoted to the rank of Brigadier General in the United States Marine Corps in February of this year. In June he was assigned as a Senior Judge Advocate General of the Marine Corps.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate in 1951, he was commissioned in the United States Marine Corps. He served in Korea as a platoon commander and then operations officers at Camp Pendleton, California. In 1953 as a line officer, he was the honor graduate at the Naval Justice School in Newport, Rhode Island.

Thereafter, he was assigned as the officer in charge of the Marine Security Guard at the American Embassy in Paris, France where he was promoted to Captain in March 1954. He subsequently obtained a law degree from Columbia University School of Law and a Master of Laws from New York University. In the early 1960's as a Major, he served as the Chief Trial Counsel and Military Justice Officer for the First Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, California.

He served with the Third Marine Division in Viet Nam in 1965-66.

He later was assigned to the Army Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, Virginia, where he was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel and graduated as the Honor Graduate in 1967.

In 1973 he was appointed as an Appellett Judge on the Navy Court of Military Review and served in that position until his appointment as the Assistant Judge Advocate General of the Navy on July 1, 1975.

Brigadier General Chadwick is admitted to practice law before the Supreme Court of the United States, the New Jersey Supreme Court and the United States Court of Military Appeals.

District XV Meets IN NYC

On May 15, 1976 the District XV Conclave was held at the Commodore Hotel in New York City. Following the appropriate welcomes by District Justice Rick Pearson and Supreme Advocate Frank McCown, the chapter reports were given, with the overall impression being that membership was up in four of the five chapters in the district and that activities being planned anticipate a complete reversal in the do-nothing atmosphere that has prevailed in the past 2-3 years.

During the afternoon four topics were the subject of seminar-type discussion: Membership and Rushing; Financing; Professional Programming; and the upcoming International Convention. The quality and informative nature of the seminars was greatly enhanced by the contributions of Supreme Justice Judice, Supreme Advocate McCown, and Executive Secretary Ripperger, whose collective experiences provided answers for virtually every question posed by the delegates.

The business portion of the conclave culminated with Supreme Justice Judice delivering the "State of the Fraternity Address."

At 7:00 p.m. the delegates reconvened at the Fordham University Moot Court Room where Wormser Chapter was officially reactivated. The installation team included S. J. Ray Judice, S. A. Frank McCown, Exec. Sec. Joe Ripperger, D. J. Rick Pearson, and Rapallo Chapter Justice Al Candrilli. All of the Conclave and Re-Activation participants then returned to the Commodore for a reception honoring Wormser Chapter.

During the course of the day's activities representatives of Rapallo, Frelinghuysen, Peterson, and Wormser chapters were in attendance, with the consensus of opinion being that it was a day well spent.

Message from the Supreme Justice

The essence of Phi Alpha Delta is the continuous professional development of and service to our members. In 1959 Phi Alpha Delta inaugurated the broad-based insurance programs to enable our members to obtain the necessary insurance coverage at reduced rates. This program has received wide acceptance among our members, especially those who are single practitioners or who are members of small law firms. By pooling our total membership, our individual members are able to take advantage of group rates. Many other professional fraternities and bar groups have now followed our lead in this area of service.

It is indeed with pride that we announce in this issue of The Reporter an entirely new concept of service to our members: the P.A.D. Plan (Purchase and Discount Plan). This new program has been developed over a period of years of intense study and refinement by your Executive Board, and will continue to undergo changes as experience in administering the plan dictates. The program was originally proposed by Supreme Vice Justice Don Hutson who served as the first chairman of the committee to study its feasibility. Supreme Advocate Frank McCown is currently the chairman of the committee. Serving with him on this committee are Supreme Marshal Jack Miller and Executive Director Fred Weitkamp.

To all of the above a special vote of thanks is due for the implementation of this new program of service to our Fraternity.

I hope that you will review the information concerning this plan and submit your suggestions for its further implementation. Only with input from you, the ultimate users of the P.A.D. Plan, can it develop into a viable additional service to all of our members.

With this new program, Phi Alpha Delta continues to serve the needs of its members. Your Supreme Executive Board will continue to explore new avenues of service to the law student, the law school, and to the profession.

Fraternally,
C. Raymond Judice
Supreme Justice

PHI ALPHA DELTA: A HISTORY

by C. Raymond Judice, Supreme Justice

(In November 1977, Phi Alpha Delta will celebrate its 75th anniversary. So that all members will have a better understanding of Phi Alpha Delta, the History of the Fraternity is being published in serial form. This is the third installment.)

Part IV of IX The Years Of Adversity Depression And War

Phi Alpha Delta was now to enter a period of troubled years. The economic conditions during the great depression — followed almost immediately by the outbreak of World War II — severely tested the mettle of the fraternity.

Later, after these troubles had passed, members were to look back upon this period and appreciate the basic strengths of the fraternity which served to pull the organization through this period of greatest adversity.

Economic conditions of the United States during the depression were so severe that only four new active chapters and six alumni chapters were chartered during the period of 1933 to 1946. Then, the war years devastated the established active chapters, with the vast majority of the chapters becoming inactive because of the sparse enrollments in the nation's law schools.

Because of the biting effects of the depression, the 1932 convention scheduled for Los Angeles was summarily cancelled. In early 1933 a mail ballot vote was taken of chapters to determine if they desired to schedule a convention for 1933. The returns almost unanimously favored further postponement.

Common occurrences were bank failings and dragging with them all of the financial resources of local chapters, as well as the personal resources of the chapter members. These failures included the Bank of Hollywood in which the general funds of the fraternity were deposited. However, there was little loss to the fraternity, "due to the small amounts of money on deposit."

At the 1933 board meeting, the Supreme Executive Board voted that the officers should personally visit each chapter. This was followed by proposals to "work out a plan of reducing the income of the national fraternity and at the same time maintaining good service to the chapters and their members."

Accordingly, the annual dues were reduced from $7 to $5, and adjustments were made extending near-delinquent chapter debts. In a 1933 issue of The Reporter, the Supreme Secretary issued a call for everyone in the fraternity to observe the 35th birthday of the fraternity by mailing a financial gift to the secretary's office of not less than three cents for every year of the fraternity's existence.

Two fraternity highlights of 1934 were the National Phi Alpha Delta

Night and, one month later, the George E. Fink Night.

Both events were designed to bring brothers together during this period and promote fellowship. Accordingly, National Phi Alpha Delta Night called for every chapter, active and alumni, to hold a meeting of some sort on January 20, 1934. Then, from radio stations throughout the country, messages to Phi Alpha Deltas everywhere would be broadcast. The plan met with success.

In Los Angeles, both active and alumni met at the Los Angeles University Club and listened to speeches, followed by the university band from the University of Southern California accompanying Lorraine Bridges singing the "Phi Alpha Delta Sweetheart" song. Then, the program was closed by the assembled brothers singing "True To Thee, Phi Alpha Delta." The entire event was broadcast over radio station KMTR.

Further north in San Francisco, area members met, and jointly listened to Phi Alpha Delta radio programs emanating from Seattle. In Salt Lake City, Judge William H. Folland of the Utah Supreme Court spoke over radio station KSL. And chapter members at the University of Idaho, University of North Dakota, University of Oklahoma, and University of Nebraska tuned in.

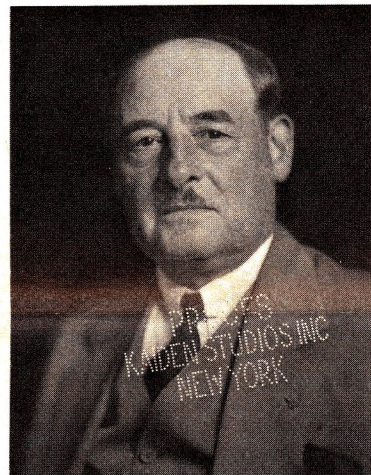

In the South, Morgan Chapter in Birmingham, Alabama, and Martin Chapter in New Orleans reported listening parties "in full swing." In Tallahassee, Florida, Governor David Scholtz and State Treasurer J. Edwin Larson spoke about Phi Alpha Delta and all area chapters (Brewer, Fletcher, Keener, Fish, and the Atlanta Alumni Chapter) tuned in.

In Chicago, U.S. District Attorney (and brother) Dwight H. Green told area radio audiences "there never was a time when our courts and other institutions had so much need for support from all sides." The speech carried such an impact that every Chicago newspaper commented editorially upon it the following day.

A month later, members throughout the country joined in publicly honoring a stalwart of the fraternity, Brother George E. Fink. The evening of February 20, 1934, was designated "George E. Fink Night" and brothers around the country toasted Brother Fink's good deeds. The March, 1934, issue of The Reporter was dedicated to Brother Fink, praising him as the man who "so loyally served our fraternity."

Additionally, The Reporter stated: "On Tuesday night, February 20, over 100 members of the Chicago Alumni Chapter gathered at the Hamilton Club for the regular monthly meeting. Previous to this meeting, Brother Fink had been invited to talk on the early history of the fraternity to make absolutely certain his attendance. Following the disposition of the business of the meeting, the brother justice announced that the meeting was being held in honor of Brother George Fink. Brother Fink was deeply moved and acknowledged his tribute in words of gratitude to Phi Alpha Delta. He spoke of the early days of the fraternity and of many of the conventions he had attended."

It was in a weakened financial condition that the twenty-third biennial convention was called to order.

Thirty-two active chapters and 10 alumni chapters were represented. Of course, the financial plight of the fraternity was the prime topic of discussion. And, records indicate, talk about revoking delinquent chapters' charters was popular.

In the end, though, the delegates decided "no immediate steps" should be taken toward revoking any charters, as the end of the depression apparently was in sight, and because it seemed best that the word 'revocation' be forgotten in favor of the word 'rehabilitation.'

Perhaps the first formal step toward firming up a sound fraternity policy on non-fraternity politics was conceived at this convention. A committee recommended that the fraternity in its group activities remain absolutely free from partisan politics, and that no national policy be adopted to either encourage or discourage active and alumni chapters from supporting a brother engaged in a political contest.

For extracurricular activities, delegates attended the Century of Progress World's Fair then in progress in Chicago. Brother Harry E. Rice, commodore of the fair's fleet, surrendered his fleet to the delegates for a boat trip around the fair area. The day the delegates attended the fair was designed "Phi Alpha Delta Day" and featured a nationwide N.B.C. radio broadcast of the address of the Supreme Justice preceded by the singing of the "Phi Alpha Delta Sweetheart Song."

Soon after the convention, word was received of the death of Brother Roland M. Hollock, the first Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, who had been living in retirement from the United States Army in Washington, D.C.

A year after the first "Phi Alpha Delta Night" — which had been successful — the second "Phi Alpha Delta Night" was called. The Reporter called the event the "second effort to have the 16,000 members of our fraternity sit down together to review the splendid record of Phi Alpha Delta, to live once again the glorious days of fraternal life, and to draw new inspiration from this meeting, to carry Phi Alpha Delta on to greater heights."

The Reporter stated the second "Phi Alpha Delta Night" was a greater success than the original occasion. But continuing the move to combat the economic conditions of the country, the Supreme Executive Board meeting in September, 1935 reduced the annual subscription rate of The Reporter from $2 to $1.50, and the compulsory life subscription to the official magazine was eliminated. Additionally, alumni dues and alumni fees were suspended for 1935 and 1936, and the annual per capita chapter "tax" was reduced from $8 to $5.

As a result of the austerity program of financial belt tightening, the picture was starting to brighten.

Continuing this uphill turn, the twenty-fourth biennial convention meeting in Washington, D.C., in February, 1936, was called outstanding."

Making appearances or mounting the speaker's rostrum during the convention were Chief Justice William Howard Taft of the U.S. Supreme Court, Senator Millard E. Tydings, Senator F. Ryan Duffy, Senator Alben W. Barkley, and General Brien McMahon (later to become a United States Senator).

The following year, with the fraternity continuing its comeback from the depression, Hamlin Chapter was transferred from the discontinued University of Maine law school to Loyola University School of Law in Los Angeles. Several months later the Capen Chapter charter was transferred from the extinct Illinois Wesleyan University to the University of San Francisco. (Subsequently, Hamlin Chapter was renamed the William Joseph Ford Chapter and Capen Chapter became the Matt I. Sullivan Chapter.)

The twenty-fifth biennial convention opened in Kansas City in 1938 on this continued note of optimism. The country was thought to be recovering from the depression and hopes were up that the fraternity would regain solid economic footing side by side with the national economy's recovery.

War clouds loomed on the horizon, though. And the delegates did not know this convention would be the last for several years or that the officers elected at this convention would serve until 1946.

The storm of war finally broke through in 1940 when Hitler began his intensified march across Europe. The American draft became a reality. And again — as had occurred during World War I — American youth put aside their academic thoughts and began picturing themselves in uniform.

Correspondingly, Phi Alpha Delta was to take a back seat to the war effort.

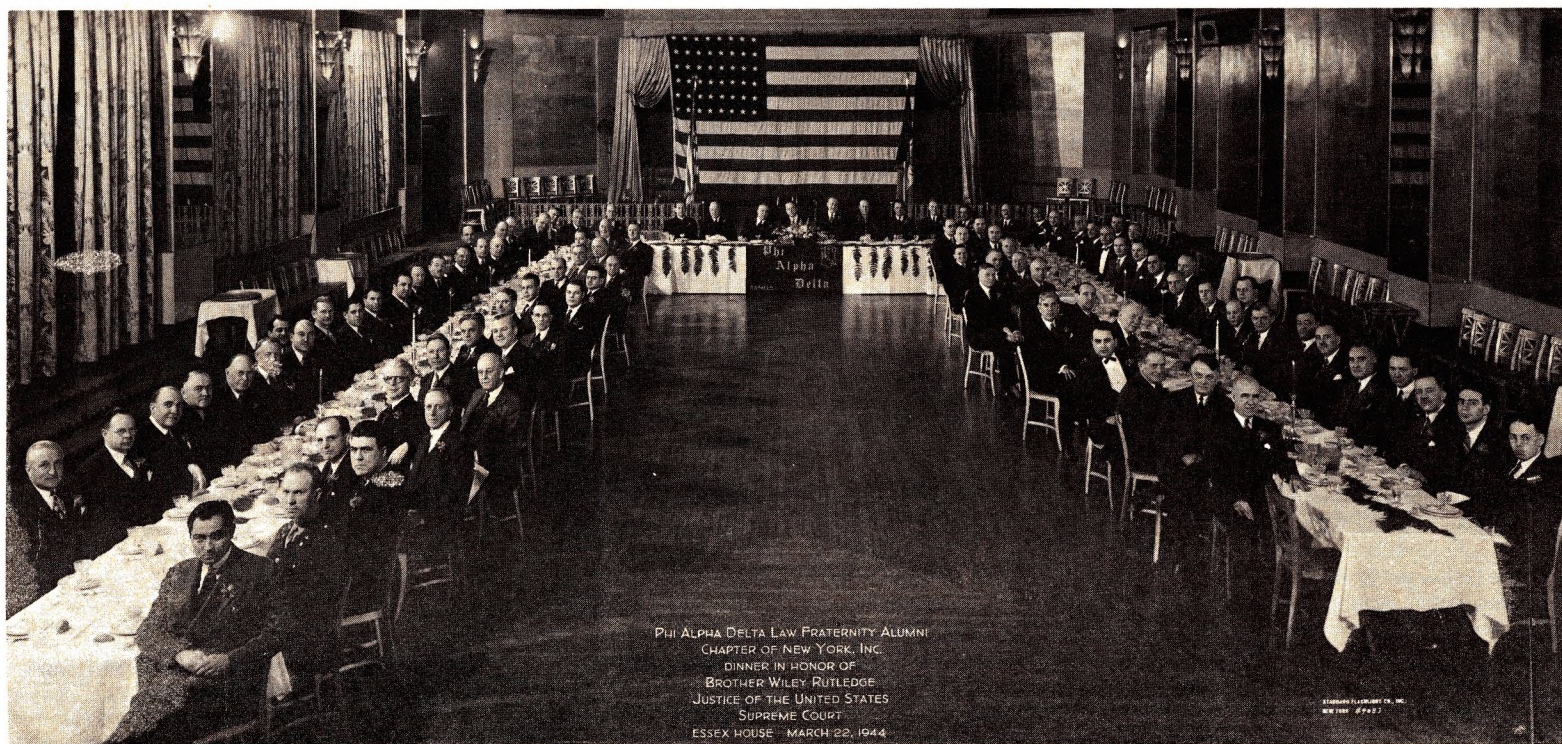

History had taught Phi Alpha Delta a lesson, though. The national officers anticipated the results and began a "buttoning up" of fraternity loose ends which was to later serve the fraternity well when peace returned.

The twenty-sixth biennial convention (scheduled for 1940) was postponed until 1941, and in 1941 was postponed indefinitely by the Supreme Board. And in its place the national officers worked to keep Phi Alpha Delta in the public eye. The future President of the United States, Senator Harry S. Truman, was honorarily initiated, as were Francis Biddle and Tom C. Clark, attorneys general, and Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court Robert H. Jackson.

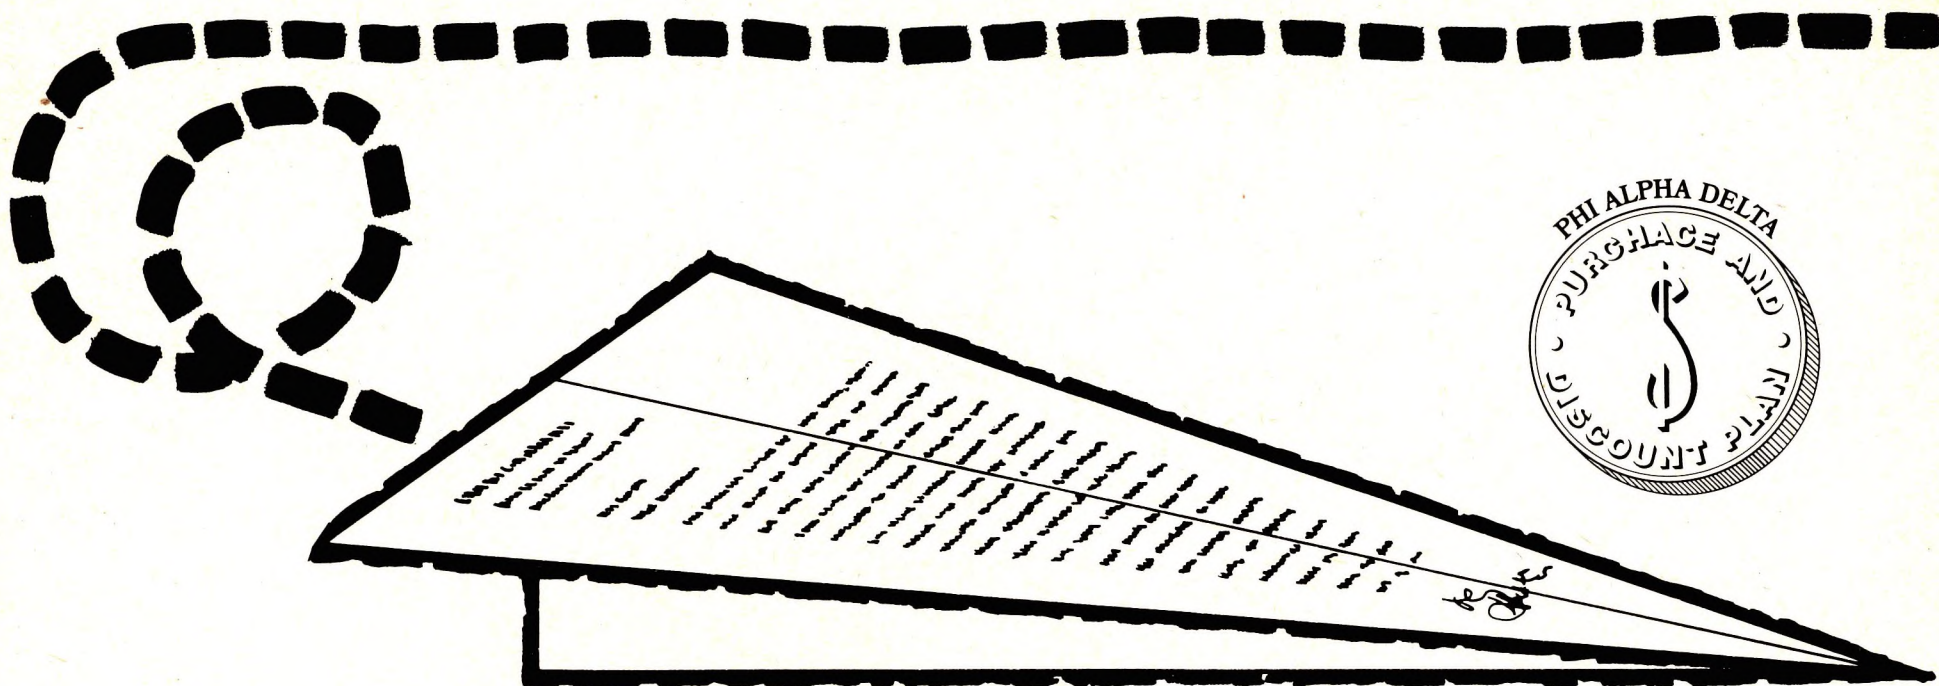

The New York Alumni Chapter had dinners in honor of William O. Douglas and Wiley B. Rutledge, justices of the Supreme Court. The Chicago Alumni Chapter honored past Supreme Justice Dwight H. Green on the occasion of his election to the governorship of Illinois. Interest was kept alive in other parts of the country through visitations by the national officers.

Other activities engaged in by Phi Alpha Delta during the war years were the establishment of a placement center: celebration of a national Phi Alpha Delta day at the San Francisco exhibition in 1939; preparation and distribution of a historical sketch of the fraternity; holding district conclaves in Kansas City and New York; active

Purchase and Discount Plan Is Announced

Another First for PAD

On pages 4 and 5 of this issue of the Reporter is found the announcement of the first offering under the new Purchase and Discount Plan. The Plan contemplates providing law related items to members at substantial discounts made possible by the fraternity's membership of over 80,000 persons.

If the initial offering under the Plan is well received, it is anticipated that other law related items will be offered to members on a discount basis.

The PAD Plan is the result of countless hours of study and hard work expended by members of the Supreme Executive Board and a special study committee.

Members are invited to write to the Executive Director with suggestions as to the type of items which they would like to have offered for purchase under a discount program.

There is a vague popular belief that lawyers are necessarily dishonest. I say vague, because when we consider to what extent confidence and honors are reposed in and conferred upon lawyers by the people, it appears improbable that their impression of dishonesty is very distinct and vivid. Yet the impression is common, almost universal. Let no young man choosing the law for a calling for a moment yield to the popular belief — resolve to be honest at all events; and if in your own judgment you cannot be an honest lawyer, resolve to be honest without being a lawyer. Choose some other occupation, rather than one in the choosing of which you do, in advance, consent to be a knave.

Estate And Trust Law Academy Holds Meeting

Recently the International Academy of Estate and Trust Law held its first annual meeting in London, Lausanne in Paris May 22, through June 6th. The academy has members throughout the United States and nine foreign countries.

PAD Superior Court Judge Arthur K. Marshall of Los Angeles California, founder and past President and an officer in the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, characterizes the academy as a "Searcher Group" composed of outstanding practitioners in the fields under study — probate, trust, estate planning and allied fields.

Its purpose this year was to see how probate proceedings were conducted in England, Switzerland and France and bring back to the United States data on what might be better ways of handling estates. In each country, panels of experts were assembled for lectures, discussion and questions.

Taney Holds Initiation

Taney Chapter at Southern Methodist University held an initiation of new members on April 9, 1976. A banquet followed at the Marriott Hotel. The ceremonies were held in the courtroom of Judge Dee Brown Walker, a former International Officer of the Fraternity.

A banquet was held immediately following to honor the initiates. Attending were Judge E. Gossett, PAD Dean Charles Galvin and District Justice Tom Lee.

A former Chapter Justice Jeff Smith announced the inauguration of a program to reactivate the Dallas Alumni Chapter and called for support from all students and alumni present.

DOMINIC P. RENDA
C. RAYMOND JUDICE

Renda New Pres. Western Airlines

Dominic P. Renda, a member of McKinley Chapter at Ohio State University and a past Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, was recently elected President and Chief Operating Officer of Western Airlines.

He has served in various capacities with Western Airlines including General Attorney, Assistant Secretary, Vice President-Legal, Corporate Secretary, Senior Vice President-Legal and Executive Vice President. For several years he was with Continental Airlines in the capacity of Senior Vice President/International and Public Affairs. He also served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Air Micronesia, an affiliate of Continental Airlines.

Renda is a past President of the Chancery Club of Los Angeles, a member of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Montreal.

Waite Initiates Hear Clark

The Waite Chapter at the University of Dayton — School of Law conducted its second initiation ceremony on March 12, 1976 in the newly dedicated Law School Court Room. The Court Room was dedicated to the late Professor Barth J. Snyder who was instrumental in the reopening of the Law School and was pledged to join Phi Alpha Delta. Mr. Justice Tom C. Clark, distinguished former United States Supreme Court Justice and active fraternity member, was present for the dedication and the following legal practice seminar.

The initiation was honored by the attendance of Mr. Justice Clark, Supreme Justice C. Raymond Judice, and District Justice James Bierce. Mr. Justice Clark administered the Fraternity Oath to the initiates and later addressed the chapter. Those initiated included — Charles Fred Allbery, James Franklin Cannon, Stephanie Geba, Michele Gressel, William H. Hart, Virginia Maud

Platt, Donna C. Schultz, John M. Spinnato, Linda Stuke, and Joseph Wozolek. The initiating officers were Daniel Gehres — Justice, Phil Tripi — Vice Justice, Freddie Ramos — Clerk, Tony Muto — Treasurer, and Dennis Lieberman — Marshal. After the initiation the group adjourned to the Stockyards Inn for dinner and plenty of celebrating.

The Waite Chapter, chartered in November of 1975, now has 34 active members. Chapter projects have included five Speakers Sessions during which approximately 25 students attended each address, a Legal Aid to the Elderly Program — which involves the counseling and research efforts of thirty students, selling Law School T-Shirts, and the recent Barrister's Ball — Dinner, Dance which was attended by 76 members of the Law School Community. Coming events include a Used Book Sale and a post finals trip to Cincinnati to see a Reds Game.

SUPREME COURT DAY LUNCHEON — Past Supreme Justice Robert E. Redding addressed those attending the luncheon in honor of those newly admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, June 7 of this year.

Many Attend PAD Day At Supreme Court

In a special group ceremony on June 7, members of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, from 18 states were admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. Their admissions to the Bar of the nation's highest court were moved by Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark (retired) as the highlight of the tenth Annual PAD Day at the Supreme Court. Justice Clark is a former national officer of the Fraternity.

The admittees included a husband and wife, Joel Stuart Wadsworth and Christine M. Wadsworth, of Atlanta, Georgia, and three brothers, John W. Flannery and Richard Eugene Flannery (twins) of New Castle, Pennsylvania, and Harry Audley Flannery, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Preceding the ceremony, the Fraternity sponsored a reception and a continental breakfast at the Court in honor of the new admittees, and a luncheon followed at the Rayburn House Office Building. The luncheon program included talks by Justice Clark and by Judge C. Raymond Judice of Austin, Texas, Executive Director of the Texas Judicial Council and Supreme Justice of the Fraternity. Toastmaster at the luncheon was Robert E. Redding, Past Supreme Justice.

Other participants and members of the Arrangements Committee included William B. Robertson, Chairman; Judge Donald R. Moore, Supreme Second Vice Justice; Miss Dalphine MacMillan, Supreme Treasurer; Miss Alice L. O'Donnell, Director of Inter-Judicial Affairs and Information Services at the Federal Judicial Council; and Frank Cacciapaglia, Justice of the Washington Alumni Chapter.

Among other notable aspects of the occasion was the participation of three members of PAD's Distinguished Service Chapter — Justice Clark, Past Supreme Justice Redding, and Past Associate Tribune Robertson. Membership in the Distinguished Service Chapters recognizes unusual and outstanding service to the Fraternity and is conferred by unanimous vote of the Supreme Executive Board. Only five other persons (all now deceased) have been so honored since inception of the DSC in 1966.

The remarks by Justice Clark, Supreme Justice Judice, and Past Supreme Justice Redding included eloquent testimonials to the vitality of PAD on the eve of its Diamond Jubilee celebration.

Evincing his customary warmth and graciousness, Justice Clark provided an emotion-charged moment when he invited another Tom Clarke, the father of one of the new admittees, Brother Edward Thomas Clarke of Lakewood, Ohio, to join him at the head table. Mr. Clarke hailed the event as one of the greatest in his life.

Las Vegas PADs Meet

Las Vegas area PADs gathered at the home of Jerry J. Kaufman on Tuesday, May 4, 1976 for a reception in honor of Judge J. Charles Thompson of the Clark County Courts. Also in attendance were Supreme Justice C. Raymond Judice, Supreme Vice Justice Don Hutson and Executive Director Fredrick J. Weitkamp, who were in town to attend the professional Interfraternity Conference as delegates from PAD.

A large number of members turned out to enjoy the hospitality of Jerry Kaufman. Chapters were represented from throughout the country including those located at the University of Tennessee, Arizona State University, California Western University, University of Utah, Southern Methodist University, Montana State University, UCLA, University of Denver, University of Southern California, Loyola University-Chicago, Suffolk University, Georgetown University, Creighton University, and Cumberland Law School. A by-product of the meeting was a submission of a petition to the Supreme Executive Board for the granting of a charter for a Nevada Statewide Alumni Chapter. As the Reporter goes to press, your editor has received word that the Supreme Executive Board has approved the petition. The new chapter will be PAD's 73rd alumni chapter.

Attending the meeting was Nevada State Attorney General Robert List and Las Vegas City Attorney Carl E. Lovell. Chief Justice Elmer Gunderson of the Nevada Supreme Court sent a message expressing his regrets that he was unable to attend.

U.S. District Judge, Charles Carr Dies

United States District Court Judge Charles Carr, died recently at UCLA Medical Center.

Judge Carr was a member of Lorton Chapter at Vanderbilt University. He was admitted to the Tennessee Bar in 1926 and practiced law in Memphis until 1929.

Subsequently he served as an instructor at Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles and as an Assistant United States Attorney. He then engaged in private practice until 1943 when he was appointed as United States Attorney for the Southern District of California.

He was appointed to the United States District Court for the Central District of California in 1962 and became a Senior Judge of the Court in 1973.

150th Charter To Inter-American University In Puerto Rico

The Luiz Munoz Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International was installed at Inter-American University of Puerto Rico School of Law in San Juan Puerto Rico on April 17, 1976, thus creating the 150th chapter of our Fraternity.

The Honorable C. Raymond Judice, Supreme Justice, conducted the ceremonies. Brother Judice was assisted by Executive Secretary Joseph W. Rippinger and members and officers of the Jose deDiego Chapter located at Catholic University of Puerto Rico in Ponce. The members of deDiego Chapter present at the ceremonies included Justice Tony Fuentes, Vice Justice Juan Pedroza, Luis Armstrong, the chapter Treasurer, Chapter Marshal Raymond Joseph Russo and Anibal Torres Rivera.

Munoz Chapter was installed with 46 active members. The chartering officers include: Julio Vega, Justice; Jorge Vega, Vice Justice; Milagros Rivera, Clerk; Roberto Rosa, Treasurer; Edgardo Rodriguez, Marshal; and a specially elected individual given the title of Chapter Prosecutor Isabel Melendez.

Following the ceremonies, the newly initiated members and the initiation team met for a buffet reception. At this time, the new members were able to meet with the installing officers in an informal atmosphere and learn what it means to be a member of Phi Alpha Delta. Supreme Justice Judice spoke to the members on the professional aspects of membership in PAD. de-Diego Chapter Justice Tony Fuentes was on hand to present several certificates of appreciation to those persons who offered special assistance in seeing that a chapter of our Fraternity came into existence at Inter-American University.

A great deal of the credit for the installation of Munoz Chapter goes to Tony Fuentes. Brother Fuentes visited Inter-American University along with a representative of the Executive Office. While this meeting proved to be successful, it was Tony's hard work and enthusiasm for PAD that helped generate the excitement in the students at Inter-American University.

The new members have found that Phi Alpha Delta's motto is an excellent statement of the policy by which Munoz Chapter hopes to govern itself. They want to, in some way, provide "Service to Law Student, Service to the Law School and the Profession."

SOME OF THOSE PARTICIPATING in Munoz Chapter distallation.

THE OATH OF MEMBERSHIP was taken by the 47 charter members of Munoz Chapter.

Raymond Judice; Executive Secretary Joseph W. Rippinger; de Diego chapter Anibal Torres; and de Diego chapter treasurer Luis Armstrong.

The chapter receives its name from Don Luis Munoz-Morales, a Puerto Rican patriot and founder of one of the leading political parties in the commonwealth.

At one point during the reception, a spontaneous ceremony took place in which Supreme Justice Judice presented his Fraternity Pin to the newly installed Justice of Munoz Chapter, Julio Vega. Brother Vega stated to the group that he is very honored and pleased to receive this symbol of the Fraternity and that he is further pleased that he is the charter Justice of the 150th chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. Brother Vega made the pledge to be present at the installation of the 200th chapter of Phi Alpha Delta and at that time present the Fraternity Pin to the then Charter Justice of the 200th chapter. This spirit of Fraternityism and good will was present throughout the ceremonies and the reception.

The Munoz Chapter has begun preparation to attend the 41st Biennial Convention of the Fraternity to take place in Kansas City, Missouri from July 30 to August 2, 1976 and looks forward to meeting with other PADS who will be attending.

Read Chapter, installed at Delaware Law School

During this past school year, the George Read Chapter was installed at Delaware Law School as the first chapter of any law fraternity at that school. The Delaware Law School only recently received its provisional accreditation from the American Bar Association.

Installing officer was Supreme Justice C. Raymond Judice who was assisted by Dean Arthur Weeks, Supreme Treasurer Dalphine MacMillan, District Justice Steve Belikoff and Executive Secretary Joseph W. Rippinger.

The Delaware Law School is the only law school in the state of Delaware. It was originally an independent non-profit educational institution and has recently become affiliated with Widner College of Westchester, Pennsylvania.

In September 1971, the Delaware Law School opened as an evening division only and 175 students commenced the study of law. In October, 1972, a day division was begun and the evening division continued.

In July of 1975, the law school completed its affiliation with Widner College. This act paved the way for provisional accreditation by the American Bar Association.

The school itself is located in downtown Bloomington. The student body is made up of approximately 650 students. The library contains over 49,000 volumes, also over 20,000 volumes of Supplices, suitable for trading. The law school belongs to the duplicate exchange program of the American Association of Law Libraries and has continued its extensive program of trading books with other law schools.

The petitioners took the chapter name from that of George Read, a lawyer, signer of the Declaration of Independence, Senator and Chief Justice of Delaware.

Charter Officers are: John J. J. Jones, Jr., Justice; Valerie Van Lear Greenberg, Vice Justice; Gerard Lazzara, Clerk; Peter David Maynard, Treasurer; and Steven Katz and Neil McGiver, Marshals.

Charter members were as follows: Alan F. Lehman, Philip Arthur Ross, Eileen B. Cooper, Kevin P. Kelly, G. Lester Corwin, II, Alan B. Scher, Stanley Kligfeld, John J. J. Jones Jr., Edward J. A Tribute To Justice Robert C. Finley

A quarter century of judicial scholarship was commemorated by hundreds of judges, state officials, and members of the bar who united in Olympia on February 13, 1976, to honor Washington State Supreme Court Justice Robert C. Finley. Beneath the jocund chronicling rendered in the sprightly, scintillating banter of Justice Robert F. Brachtenbach, the legal assembly expressed a glowing, panegyric homage.

A singularly astute and sagacious force on the State's highest judicial body, Justice Finley has championed the frequent triumph of common sense within a "Temple of Technicalities" (as he is wont to waggishly jibe). His unique achievements as a paramount jurist are harvested from the flame of his pen, and the annals of juridic retrospection trace the recurrence of broiling dissents transformed into United States Supreme Court majority opinions.

In this atmosphere of laudatory reverence, the February 13th aggregation honored Justice Finley's effectiveness in resolving previous antagonism among Bench, Bar and Press; they acclaimed his "no nonsense"/"gut-level" seriousness, and his devotion to reaching the heart and substance of each matter brought before the Tribunal, despite those petty obstacles and detours which line the avenue to justice. This was the silver anniversary of untiring wisdom.

42 days later, Justice Finley, a member of Connelly Chapter passed away.

State Rep. Re-elected Justice Miami Alumni

State Representative Paul Steinberg was recently re-elected Justice of the Greater Miami Alumni Chapter for the year 1976-77.

Serving with Steinberg will be Gerald Silverman, First Vice Justice; Ronald S. Lieberman, second Vice Justice; Steve Oppenheim, third Vice Justice; Sherman Reynolds, Clerk; and Judith Frankel, Treasurer.

Elected to the Board of Directors were Stephen J. Belinsky, Marvin Kurzban, Joseph Merlin, Richard Pettigrew and Judge Arden M. Seigendorf.

H. WAYNE GILLIES

Gillie's Receives Distinguished Service Medal

H. Wayne Gillies, prominent Houston attorney and a member of Baylor Chapter has received the seldom awarded Distinguished Service Medal presented by the Secretary of the Army. This prized award was presented by Brigadier General Gerald Childress to Mr. Gillies for his unparalleled contributions in Army recruiting, organization and direction of community efforts, along with personal dedication and patriotism for the U.S. Army Recruiting Command.

Mr. Gillies, a native Houstonian, has received many other awards including Outstanding Citizen by the Epilepsy Foundation, Outstanding Young Man by the Houston Chamber of Commerce, as well as being selected by Who's Who for 1974. He was quoted as saying, "few things are more rewarding than being acknowledged for having served my nation. I deeply appreciate the confidence of the Department of the Army in making this award."

N. O. Alumni Elect

The New Orleans Alumni Chapter has been enjoying an active year. The officers have conducted fruitful executive board meetings at the home of Clerk Miriam Abbott where chapter activities have been planned.

On November 21, 1975, a judicial reception and banquet was held at the Versailles Restaurant and the judiciary were well represented. PAD lists among its members a number of outstanding jurists including retired Louisiana Supreme Court Chief Justice John B. Fournet and retired Louisiana Supreme Court Associate Justice E. Howard McCaleb.

In cooperation with the Federal Bar Association of New Orleans, the chapter joined with the committee on mental health of the Louisiana State Medical Society, the Academy of New Orleans Trial Lawyers Association, and the Louisiana Psychiatric Association to sponsor a banquet on March 4, 1976 at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel. The program stressed the legal rights of mental patients; commitments; and federal funding for attorneys and medical research.

The chapter is planning to send at least two candidates to the International Convention which will convene in Kansas City in late July.

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS

THE WHITE HOUSE

June 2, 1976

ANNOUNCEMENT

The President today announced the start of the thirteenth nationwide search for outstanding young men and women to serve as White House Fellows.

Established in 1964, the White House Fellowship program is designed to give rising leaders one year of firsthand, high-level experience with the workings of the Federal Government and to increase their sense of participation in national affairs. The program is open to U.S. citizens from all fields who are not less than 23 and not more than 35 years of age. Employees of the Federal Government are not eligible, with the exception of career armed services personnel.

Members of the eleventh group of White House Fellows are now completing their year long assignments. A twelfth group, the 1976-77 White House Fellows, will begin their duties next month.

In addition to their educational assignments with the Vice President, Cabinet officers or principal members of the White House staff, the Fellows participate in an extensive seminar program, typically consisting of some 300 off-record sessions with top government officials, scholars, journalists, and leaders from the private sector. The young men and women who have, to date, been selected as White House Fellows have included lawyers, scientists, engineers, corporate business entrepreneurs, scholars and academic administrators, writers and journalists, medical doctors, social workers, architects, and local public officials. Last year 2864 persons applied for the coveted honor.

The Fellowship is designed to be a one-year sabbatical in public service. Fellows are expected to return to their professional careers at the end of their experience in government, with their perspectives of national issues broadened and their qualifications for significant service in their chosen careers and to their communities permanently enriched.

Leadership, intellectual and professional ability, high motivation, and a commitment to community and nation are the broad criteria employed in the selection process.

Requests for applications for next year's program must be postmarked not later than November 1, 1976. Application forms and additional information can be obtained by sending a postal card to the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, Washington, D.C. 20415.

Terrell Initiates, Is Rejuvenated

The Glenn Terrell Chapter at Florida State University has recently experienced a renaissance under the leadership of Dennis Farrington, a former chapter Justice.

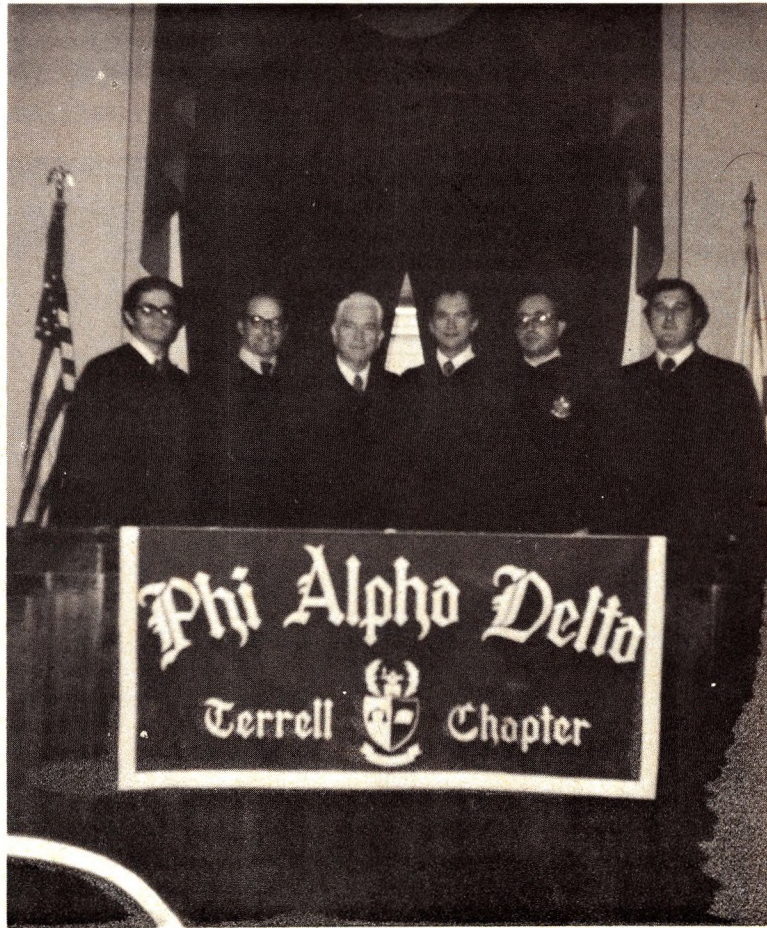

Learning that the chapter membership was at a dangerously low point, Farrington set about to rejuvenate the chapter. His efforts met with the successful initiation of eighteen new members at the Supreme Court of the State of Florida on March 5th.

The initiation team was composed of Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Boyd, Jr., James Weiner, District Justice Marvin Moss, Paul Lambert, past Terrell Chapter Justice Barrett Johnson and Dennis Farrington.

A reception followed the initiation and a large number of alumni and friends attended the function at the Tallahassee downtown Holiday Inn. Letters and mailgrams wishing the new initiates well were received from many PAD alumni including: Florida Governor Reubin O. Askew, Florida Supreme Court Justices Joseph W. Hatchett and B. K. Roberts, and Robert W. Ervin and F. Perry Odom of the Tallahassee Law firm of Irvin, Varn, Jacobs and Odom, as well as from International Executive Director Fredrick J. Weitkamp.

The new initiates were selected on the basis of maturity, experience, leadership and organizational ability. All but two members are freshmen or juniors, thereby insuring continuity and capable leadership for the next few years. All were selected for their ability to form a viable nucleus for an expanding chapter in the months ahead. Their capability in this area is demonstrated by an initiation planned for at least ten more candidates in the near future.

Monroe Initiates 57

The evening of Friday, November 14, 1975 was of special significance to the Monroe Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity at Hamline University School of Law. On that occasion the ranks of the fraternity swelled with the induction of 57 aspiring young law students. The ceremony was conducted in the Minnesota Supreme Court Chambers and was well attended by both relatives and friends of the candidates.

The induction was presided over by Justice Alan Morris and Associate Dean Lawrence Bakken delivered a congratulations speech which touched on both the significant size and motivation of this chapter, which had not yet celebrated its first anniversary. As a result of the ceremony the official membership in the Monroe Chapter had risen above 85.

Following the formal ceremony all members and their guests returned to the apartment complex of Vice-Justice Paul Scherman for a champagne and hors d'oeuvre party. The wives of the Justice and Vice-Justice had expended several hours preparing both hot and cold food morsels. High attendance at the party assured them that none of their time was wasted.

The Monroe Chapter was instituted at Midwestern School of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota. In 1974-75 Midwestern became affiliated with Hamline University in St. Paul. In the fall of 1975 the merger of the two educational institutions became official and Midwestern has officially changed its name to Hamline University School of Law. Enthusiasm at the Monroe Chapter is high and with few graduating Seniors, the size of the Chapter is likely to remain large.

Many Turn Out For PAD Congressional-Judicial Reception

The Phi Alpha Delta-sponsored Annual Congressional-Judicial Reception drew more than 100 judges, Senate and House members, local attorneys and area law students. The March 10th fete was held in the Rayburn building with Justice Byron White and former Justice Stanley Reed (1938-1957) leading the judicial notables. Also attending were Chief Customs and Patent Appeals Justice Howard Markey, Lawrence S. Margolis, United States Magistrate, and local magistrates Harry T. Alexander and Charles W. Halleck. Among Congressional participants were Senator Roman Hruska and House Members Claude Pepper and Trent Lott.

The reception was part of a major commitment of P.A.D. law school alumni to bring the various manifestations of the legal community together to meet with law students.

Georgetown's Taft Chapter has been sponsoring a yearlong program of lectures and seminars by legal professionals employed in a variety of career roles. In December, chief local U.S. Attorney Earl Silbert discussed careers and issues in criminal justice. Later this semester administrative assistants from the Hill are expected to discuss types and quantity of positions on the Congressional staff, including committee positions.

An area-wide lecture series titled the "Inns of Court" has been sponsoring practical discussions on the basics of criminal and civil representation by local attorneys. Chief Justice Warren Burger, a P.A.D. alumnus, has been active in advocating programs offering education on basic litigating skills.

The Georgetown chapter begun in 1909, has numerous alumni activities because of the large number of P.A.D. legal professionals in the District of Columbia area. The society is presently making plans for next year.

Magruder Spring Banquet

Magruder Chapter held its annual spring banquet on March 29 of this year. The keynote speaker was the Honorable Birch E. Morgan. Judge Morgan is well-known as the backbone of justice in that area of Illinois. He has spent some 30 years on the bench and shared many of his experiences with the chapter.

Attending were law school Dean Kribitz, Professor Hawkin, Professor Young, Alumni Advisor John G. Townsend, Past Justice Jeff Schoen, Chapter Justice John Brady and District Justice John Peter Curielli.

Magruder Chapter, which was down to only eight members some time ago, has made great strides through the efforts of Past Justice Jeff Schoen and present Justice John Brady. The chapter membership has increased significantly and the chapter's contributions to its members and to the law school are noteworthy.

PAD HISTORY

support of the defense program promulgated by Brother Robert H. Jackson, then Solicitor General of the United States; support of and cooperation with the American Bar Association special committee on national defense; and the pledging of assistance and services of Phi Alpha Delta to the U.S. Attorney General's office.

Steps were taken to conserve the fraternity's limited finances. In 1941 the Supreme Executive Board discontinued the salary of the Supreme Secretary and in 1942 the Supreme Secretary discontinued charging regular secretarial expenses.

Such steps were later to pay high dividends when the fraternity was to begin rehabilitation after the war.
