Our Biennial Commitment

The 46th Biennial Convention of PAD is now history. The delegates, in Convention assembled, accepted the responsibility of maintaining the high goals and traditions of our fraternity and Phi Alpha Delta is stronger as a result of their efforts. All in attendance are to be commended not only for their work and input, but also for their commitment to take the Convention enthusiasm back to their chapters and make the '86-'87 school year the best in the history of Phi Alpha Delta.

The theme of the Convention was, "Integrity — PAD Makes A Difference." We at the Convention heard from a distinguished panel of experts in the field of professional responsibility who outlined for us the pitfalls for us in practicing law; pitfalls in which many qualified, honest attorneys find themselves. The panel of experts outlined how easy it is for a lawyer to "innocently" commit an act of negligence, an error in judgment, or a failure to perform an act that he/she thought was necessary, any one of which can lead a lawyer down the "slippery slope" of malpractice, suspension, or disbarment. Phi Alpha Delta has made a commitment to the legal profession to be the fraternity of integrity, to foster professional responsibility among its chapters and members and has set as a goal in the next biennium the promotion of professional ethics among attorneys and law students. As a member of PAD, and of the legal profession, we are all challenged to accept the responsibility which our title implies, and to commit our professional careers to show that we are worthy of the name "Lawyer."

I express my sincere appreciation to all the delegates at the Convention for electing me to the position of International Justice and pledge to you two years of commitment; commitment to maintain Phi Alpha Delta, as not only the largest fraternity in the world, but also as the best fraternity in the world.

Thank you.

Fraternally,

INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE JACK L. MILLER CONGRATULATES Ingrida Jansons upon her being selected as The Most Outstanding Law School Chapter Justice for 1985-86.

New PAD LRE Program

On September 25, Administrator Verne L. Spiers of the Office of Juvenile an Delinquency Prevention formally signed his approval of another 12-month extension of the PAD law-related education (LRE) grant program, awarding an increased amount to $135,000. This is the ninth consecutive grant award by OJJDP, bringing the cumulative government funding level since February 1979 to $1,304,365.

The grant year ending on August 5, 1986, produced several major PAD accomplishments, including the following:

(1) Judicial training was expanded as a result of the new PAD resource manual on state court support of LRE. Such training was carried out in the states of California, Colorado, Ohio and Oregon.

(2) Lawyer-teacher partnership was carried out in Florida and South Carolina.

(3) Four new or reissued PAD publications became available, including the Mark Cannon Monograph on "Crime and the Decline of Values," the Joe Daly Monograph on "Law School Student Benefits from LRE," a new Lawyer-Teacher Partnership Resource Guide, and a case history about Oregon judicial training.

(4) PAD law school chapters inaugurated new LRE programs in Florida, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey and North Carolina.

We wish to alert our alumni and law student members that LRE programming will be prioritized this year in the 25 target states listed below:

Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin.

The program highlights planned for the 1986-87 LRE year will include the following:

(1) Strengthened PAD management of the program with modernized office equipment, the addition of Dennis Dean Kirk as Deputy Director, and better trained alumni and law student participants.

(2) Updating of excellent PAD resource manuals, the demand for which have exceeded the supply, including the guide for kindergarten-through-eighth grade schools. Two new manuals will be offered, one for law enforcement officer training and the other for the most effective use of resource persons by LRE program directors.

(3) A special training session for the PAD Statewide LRE Coordinators serving in the 25 target states now pushing LRE programs.

(4) Expert technical assistance in the following 11 states:

(a) Lawyer-teacher partnership training in Arizona, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, New Hampshire and Washington.

(b) Judicial training in Georgia, Iowa, Kentucky and New York.

(c) Law enforcement training in Arizona, Connecticut, Illinois and New York.

(d) Law school support training in Florida, Kentucky and New Hampshire.

(e) Community support training in Iowa and Wisconsin.

Descriptive materials about the LRE programming by PAD alumni and law school chapters were distributed at the August Convention, at the fall District Leadership Conferences and by mail from the LRE headquarters office in Washington. The first official Convention event was the Stanley H. Kohn Memorial Reception. The Reception was held in memory of International Justice Stanley H. Kohn who passed away November 24, 1985, midway during his term as International Justice. The reception was held around the beautiful pool of the Omni International Hotel in Baltimore, Maryland.

Opening Session

At 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, August 6th, International Justice Jack L. Miller led the procession of International Officers which signaled the official opening of the 46th Biennial Convention.

Extensive letters of greetings to the Convention were received from prominent PAD's throughout the world.

One letter of particular note which was received read as follows:

"I am pleased to send greetings to the members of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity gathered for your 46th Biennial International Convention. It is always a pleasure to have the chance to express my appreciation to an organization that has contributed so much to the Nation over the years. As you've built and strengthened the bonds of fellowship, you have worked together to help each other fulfill your potential as professionals and as human beings. Your efforts in the field of law education stand as an example of the cherished American tradition of public service, a tradition rooted in the ideals upon which our republic was founded.

I send you all my best wishes for a successful convention. God bless you. President of the United States, Ronald Reagan."

Another letter was received from PAD Eugene C. Thomas the President Elect of the American Bar Association. In his letter he stated "The Fraternity has long been identified with the ideal of fostering integrity and professional responsibility among lawyers around the world. The theme you have selected for this year's conference, 'Integrity — PAD Makes A Difference,' is evidence of your strong commitment."

ceived from the Chief Justice of the United States, Brother Warren Burger, and from Vice President of the United States, George Bush.

A proclamation was also received from the Mayor of Baltimore designating the week as "PAD Week"

Extending the Official Welcome on behalf of the state of Maryland was the Attorney General of Maryland Brother Steve Sachs. He urged PADs to "continue to, and further emphasize, the law's role and lawyers role as teachers of what it means to be an American. Fight constitutional illiteracy. Go back to your communities and preach the doctrine of pluralism and of constitutional government and of limited government with the respect of rights of other people. Preach what it is to respect the views of others. Preach tolerance. Preach in short, respect for process."

Clark is Keynote

The keynote speaker was the National President of the Association of Attorney Generals, PAD's own past International Justice, Steve Clark. Brother Clark is a past Justice of Garland Chapter, a past Special Assistant to the International Justice, a former private practitioner, formerly Assistant Dean of the University of Arkansas Law School, formerly Chief of Staff and Legislative Director for Arkansas Governor David Pryor and present Attorney General of the state of Arkansas. He was elected to his present position in 1978 and at that time was the youngest Attorney General in the nation. He has argued three cases before the Supreme Court of the United States and was victorious in all three.

Brother Clark stated that when he thinks of PAD he thinks of three things, "pride, accomplishment, and direction." He admonished those in attendance that what the PAD Convention was all about was "being the best, being Phi Alpha Delta, and being proud of that. That is real important to justice in America. That is real important to this organization."

Chapter Workshops

The most important part of the Convention was held Wednesday afternoon in the form of chapter workshops. The theme was "Back to Basics". Chapter workshops were held on the topics "Chapter Recruiting and Continuity", "Chapter Programming and Finance", "Chapter to Chapter — A Student Dialogue", "The International Fraternity", and "An Effective Alumni Chapter". Experts in the various fields of discussion served on the panels and all in attendance agreed that the workshops were extremely educational.

A model initiation was presented later in the afternoon at which time several students were formally initiated into the law school chapters.

That evening District XVII hosted a Maryland Crab Feast for all persons attending the Convention. The location was the University of Baltimore.

Pre-Law Materials Committee

1. The publication entitled "Procedures for Establishing a Pre-Law Chapter" meets with approval with respect to form and content with the suggestion that additional language regarding procedures for contacting area alumni be included when the booklet is reprinted.

2. The publication entitled "Pre-Law Material" be reviewed to include the following recommendations:

a. The financial assistance section be updated immediately and periodically thereafter to insure that information regarding guaranteed student loan programs is correct.

b. That the LSAT score scale chart on page 11 reflect the most recent distribution of scores.

c. That the Pre-Law Materials Manual in particular and all other pre-law publications which originate be reproduced in Spanish for the convenience of our Spanish speaking brother.

d. Included within this section entitled "Pre-Law Reading Suggestions" selected Spanish reading reflecting the philosophy of the Latin American Legal System be listed.

e. To the extent possible, the Pre-Law Advisory Council explore the possibility of having the commercial publications listed in the reading section available in Spanish language.

f. A publication entitled "Deans Required Reading List" be added to the reading suggestion section at the time of reprinting of the Pre-Law Materials Manual.

g. That the subsection entitled "Careers in the Legal Profession" be expanded to the extent possible to cover more areas and to do so in greater detail than is presently available.

h. Additional resources regarding LSAT Preparation and Test Taking including but not limited to existing commercial publications, i.e., Barrons, Arco, Monarch . . . be added to this publication upon reprinting.

i. A paragraph dealing with placement be added to the section entitled "Selecting a Law School" along the lines of the following language:

"As a potential law student, you should also consider what a particular law school will do for you in finding employment both during school and after graduation. All law schools have placement offices to assist their students, but unfortunately some are not as effective as others. Each law school keeps records of its own job placement performance and a copy should be made available upon request. An alternative source of placement information is the State Board of Bar Examiners. They are available for your questions and they have placement information to help you make an informed decision.

3. The publication entitled "LSAT Study Program Manual" be discontinued in its present form but that the Pre-Law Advisory Council or other appropriate body endeavor to provide similar service to our pre-law members either in the form of video tape presentation or additional written materials reflecting the most recent guidelines for following and understanding LSAT instruction and question format.

4. Efforts be made to contact the LSAT in Newton, Pennsylvania, to obtain copies of recently administered LSAT's for possible distribution by the Executive Office.

5. Contact be made with existing commercial LSAT preparation courses . . . Kaplan, et al . . . with an eye toward negotiating an agreement providing for discount enrollment fees for such commercial courses to pre-law members.

6. A pamphlet be developed to explain procedures for setting up and administering a mock LSAT test specifically recommending that proctors of such test be law students and recent law graduates (the sense of the committee was that recent test-takers would be helpful for answering specific questions, i.e., test format).

7. The publication entitled "History and Purpose of Pre-Law Programs" reflect change of directors by deleting "Nancy S. Bales" and adding appropriate name of existing Director.

8. Pre-Law rush brochure remain unchanged with the exception of deleting if possible rental car discounts as a benefit, at the time of reprinting.

9. If possible, the Pre-Law Benefits sheet delete the paragraph regarding car rental discounts.

10. The agreements regarding car rental discounts be reviewed and where possible modified to allow for rental by members under the age of 21 years.

11. The Pre-Law Newsgram be continued in its present format and

These remarks should focus on the vital import that professional responsibility plays in the life of every lawyer and of the essential duty of each PAD member to preserve the integrity of the Fraternity and the legal profession."

7. Recommends that the Fraternity adopts the long range goal of persuading law school faculty and administrators to integrate into each course taught, concepts and practical applications of professional responsibility and ethics programs.

8. Recommends that each law school chapter establish a committee to review and evaluate the quality of existing professional responsibility and ethics courses.

1. Recommended that the IEB initiate an investigation of alternative methods of financing The Reporter. Recommended that The Reporter be self-sustaining and that the expenses for the production, publication and circulation be derived from sources other than Fraternity funds.

2. Recommends that the Fraternity relinquish the entire publication of The Reporter to an independent contractor. In the event an independent contractor is so selected, the Fraternity shall retain editorial control.

8. The IEB shall have translated into Spanish by members of our Puerto Rican chapters and printed by the Executive Office in a sufficient quantity at the earliest reasonable time the following publications: "Why Join PAD", the new publication which will replace PAD Facts and Tangible Benefits, and "This is PAD".

McCown Inducted Into DSC

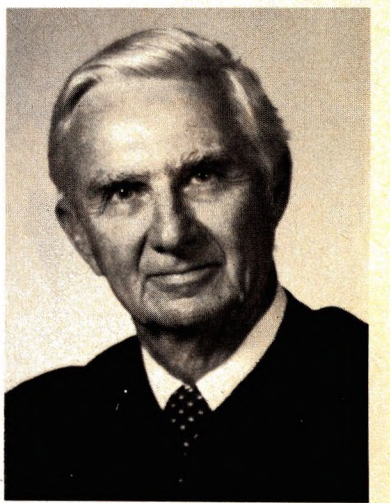

Frank J. McCown became only the fifteenth member of the fraternity inducted into the Distinguished Service Chapter of the fraternity on August 9, 1986 at the closing banquet of the Convention.

Induction into the Distinguished Service Chapter is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a member other than the election to International Office and McCown is only the 15th person to be so elected.

The newest member of the DSC graduated from Miami University in 1962 and Ohio State University College of Law in 1964 where he served as Justice of McKinley Chapter.

His service to PAD is long and extensive. From 1967 to 1970 he served as an Assistant to the Supreme Justice and travelled extensively throughout the United States and Canada visiting PAD chapters and law schools. From 1970 to 1972 he served as District Justice of District X. At the 1972 Convention he chaired the Merger Committee which oversaw the merger of Phi Delta Delta Women's Legal Fraternity with Phi Alpha Delta. At that Convention he was elected Supreme Treasurer. He thereafter advanced to the chairs until he became International Justice in October of 1978.

His service to PAD did not end with his term as International Justice. He became deeply interested in PAD's fledgling Pre-Law Chapter Program and served for a time as Director of the Program. As such, he devoted literally hundreds of hours and thousands of dollars of personal funds to the program. It was due in major part to his outstanding efforts that the program has advanced so rapidly to the point where it now has 71 chapters.
