Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Scheduled to Participate YOUTH FOR JUSTICE TELECONFERENCE

The P.A.D. Public Service Center (PSC) is pleased to announce U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg will participate in the first Youth For Justice National Law-Related Education Teleconference set for May 15 from 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. Eastern Time. This live via satellite conference will be broadcast from Washington, D.C. and downlinked to sites throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

Judge Michael Harwin of the P.A.D. Public Service Center has assembled a panel of experts including Chief Justice Thomas Moyer of the Ohio Supreme Court; M. Jane Brady, Attorney General of the State of Delaware; Sanford Litvack, Senior Executive Vice President, Chief of Corporate Operations and General Counsel of the Disney Corporation; Thomas G. Stolpman, President of the State Bar of California; Dr. Cleveland Hammonds, Jr., Superintendent, St. Louis Public Schools; and Dr. Paul Knepper, Criminal Justice Director, East Carolina University.

In Ceremonies on October 24 at the Supreme Court of Utah, the Sutherland Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta of the University of Utah School of Law initiated District Court Judge Leslie A. Lewis of the Third District. Judge Lewis received her undergraduate degree from Tulane University before matriculating at the University of Utah School of Law. She was admitted to practice in Utah in 1974.

From her early days as a prosecutor through almost a quarter century of public service, Judge Lewis has made substantial contributions to society and the legal profession.

JOB OPPORTUNITY SEARCH FOR IFR BEGINS

The International Office has begun accepting applications for the position of International Field Representative for the period beginning August 1997.

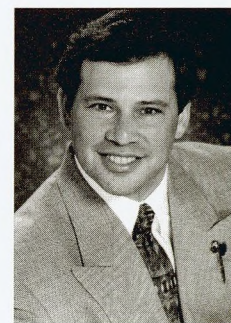

The successful candidate for this position will be a highly motivated law school graduate and P.A.D. member, who enjoys travel, has excellent research and writing skills, possesses high-level computer skills, (including desk-top publishing and web site development), demonstrates flexibility, creativity, and skill in problem-solving. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in P.A.D. Chapter operations on at least the law school chapter level.

Resumes and writing samples along with a letter describing involvement in P.A.D. and your desire to be an IFR should be mailed to: Executive Director, P.O. Box 3217, Granada Hills CA 91394-0217.

INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE'S DESK

Lead, Follow or Get Out of the Way!

Year after year, one of the most touching and fraternal moments I continue to experience is viewing (and in later years--as an International Officer--participating in) the Opening Ceremonies of our Fraternity's biennial convention. To this day, I can close my eyes and recall vividly our convention video, narrated so eloquently by Past International Justice Don Hutson. Those of you who have benefited from attending one or more such conventions will undoubtedly recall with fond memories Don's unique, profound and almost God-like voice as he leads us down the path of Phi Alpha Delta history. Rumor has it that Peter Graves (formerly of Mission Impossible fame) took lessons from Don in connection with his narration and hosting of Biography, currently airing on the A & E television network. In any event, our history video concludes with Don proudly proclaiming:

International Justice
Clifford Schechter

"...Fear not, the Flame burns bright, P.A.D., as always, is on the march!"

Never has this proclamation been more evident and accurate. P.A.D. continues on the march and the pace is swift. In fact, we are no longer pacing; we are sprinting! When I took the oath of office as your International Justice, I received many words of encouragement, advice and counsel from several of my predecessors. In addition to the various individual "words of wisdom" supplied by many of our Fraternity's Past Supreme and International Justices, a common theme was echoed by many: the two-year term of office elapses so quickly; it is essential to seize every opportunity. In short, they were absolutely right. It is difficult to believe, as you read this issue of The Reporter, roughly one-third of the biennium (and my term) has passed.

Fortunately, with the assistance and dedicated efforts of our Members, Officers and Staff, we have seized every opportunity along the way and are indeed in the fast lane. With the numerous successes of the Fall Semester now quickly becoming a faded memory, our attention is focused on the Spring Semester, where our Chapters are primed for a flurry of new and existing programs designed to provide continued and expanded service to the student, the law school, the profession and the community, all the while keeping in mind (and putting to action) the constant need for the initiation of new members. The accomplishment of our objectives of increased contact, communication and networking with and by our alumni are now evident and we hope that alumni support in the form of expanded involvement with our students, interaction among alumni and financial assistance (e.g., alumni dues receipts) will likewise be increased.

Everything is moving faster and swifter. In addition to the obvious technological advancements, our Committees have been diligently at work, producing outstanding results in such areas as translation of materials, alumni and pre-law issues, long-term development, constitution and by-laws revision and the celebration of our Centennial, to name a few. Perhaps most exciting, however, is the progress we have made with "Project P.A.D. Headquarters." "Phase I, the establishment of our Building Fund is in high gear, producing fine

See International Justice's Desk, Page 8

PHASE II OF LONG-TERM PLAN BEGINS BOARD APPROVES SITE SEARCH

The International Executive Board, while meeting in Los Angeles in January, gave its unanimous approval to a plan to locate an appropriate site for a permanent home for Fraternity Headquarters. This decisive Board action was undertaken to move the Fraternity one step closer to its goal of eventually owning its own building.

Phase Two of the long-term plan is designed to isolate areas of the country that would be most suitable to accommodate Phi Alpha Delta's base of operation. Toward that end, the Board has granted authority to the Building Committee to obtain the services of a real estate brokerage firm for the purpose of determining specific areas of the country that match their "wish list." This list of priorities includes, in no particular order, accessibility by air, density of population, quality of life and health, real estate cost, cost and availability of labor force, and concentration of P.A.D. Chapters and activities.

With the implementation of this phase of the process, P.A.D.'s dream of owning its own permanent home moves one step closer to reality. The creation of the Building Fund, a separate Fraternity account funded partly through Initiation fees and charitable donations, represents Phase I of the long-range plan. Future plans call for purchasing land for construction of an office complex, or an appropriate structure for conversion into offices.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Building Fund may do so by contacting the Executive Office.

1997 CHAPTER COMPETITIONS EARLY DEADLINES ANNOUNCED

In mid-March, all Law School and Pre-Law Chapters of Phi Alpha Delta will receive Applications and information for 1996-97 Fraternity Awards. With an early Summer International Executive Board meeting, the Executive Director has announced the deadline for receiving applications and nominations for Awards will be May 15, 1997.

According to International Justice Cliff Schechter, "this year the competition should be extremely stiff in all Award Categories. We have been seeing some truly excellent programming and outstanding dedication on the part of Chapter members at both the law school and pre-law levels."

ROSS ALUMNA NAMED INTERIM DIRECTOR LORI GIBSON TAKES OVER PRE-LAW PROGRAM

Lori and her son, Heath Gibson

Sister Lori Gibson has joined the International Executive Office Staff as the Interim Pre-Law Program Director, replacing former Pre-Law Program Director Sister Carol Duncan. Sister Gibson graduated from San Diego State University in 1978 with a

B.A. in Social Science. As a student at San Diego State, she was elected into the Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi Honor Societies, and she graduated Magna Cum Laude with Distinction in Social Science. Following her graduation from San Diego State, Lori lived in Mexico for several months and became fluent in Spanish.

In the Fall of 1980, Lori began law school at the University of Southern California. During her first semester of law school, she was initiated into the Ross Chapter of P.A.D. Upon her graduation from law school, Lori was admitted to the State Bar of Louisiana and practiced law in Louisiana until 1986 when she returned to California. Upon her return to California, Lori pursued a lifelong interest in studying psychology. She obtained a credential authorizing her to teach psychology, and later, she became certified to administer the Myers Briggs Type Indicator.

Recently, Lori left her business as a career consultant to join the International Office as the Pre-Law Program Director.

CONGRESSIONAL-JUDICIAL RECEPTION SET FOR APRIL 9

National Capital Area Alumni Chapter Justice Sandra Rizzo has announced the annual P.A.D. Congressional-Judicial Reception will be held on Wednesday, April 9 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in Washington, D.C. at the Rayburn House Office Building, Room 2359.

The Congressional-Judicial Reception is sponsored annually by the National Capital Area Alumni Chapter in honor of our distinguished P.A.D. Brothers and Sisters who serve in the United States Senate, House, and Judiciary.

TEEN PARENT PROJECT KICK OFF!

P.A.D. PSC is coordinating a Teen Parent Law-Related Education Program this year. The program will be piloted in the Los Angeles area at New Directions for Youth. It is a collaborative effort among P.A.D. PSC and numerous local organizations such as Public Counsel Children's Rights Project, Bet Tzedek Legal Services, the Legal Aid Foundation, the District Attorney's office and the Los Angeles Superior Court Dependency Department. Pre and post program testing and evaluation is being conducted by Dr. Marcia Wilson, Counseling Services Coordinator for the Neighborhood Academic Initiative, University of Southern California and Professor Shirley Krathamer, Department of Psychology, Los Angeles Community College.

The program will consist of classes that will be held twice per week for eleven weeks. Volunteer attorneys will be teaching the classes, which will focus on practical legal issues relevant to pregnant and parenting minors. In addition to covering the legal principles, each class will include a segment on how to fill out legal forms. The development of job interviewing skills will also be part of the program. Individual legal advice will not be given, but P.A.D. PSC will be developing a "help list" of agencies that can provide individual advice to the teens regarding specific problems. A series of lesson plans that can be adapted for use in every state will be developed for this project. The program officially began on January 29, 1997, when the first teen parent class was taught. We are receiving excellent feedback from teachers and students alike on our work in this innovative project.

FOOD DRIVE UPDATE

Members of Middleton Chapter work in a local soup kitchen

P.A.D. has become well-known for its annual International Food Drive, and once again the P.A.D. PSC is proudly sponsoring our International Food Drive Competition throughout this academic year. Entry forms were sent to Chapter Justices last fall. If you did not receive one or lost it, you can download one from our Web Site at <http://www.pad.org>. We encourage Chapters to conduct a local Food Drive, and report the results to us. It's a wonderful way to help the needy in your community. The PSC sponsors Awards and national recognition for Chapters who collect the most food in various categories based on size of school. Awards will be announced at the International Awards Banquet in June.

P.A.D. students at Middleton Chapter (Western New England College of Law) held a Food Drive in October and collected 200 non-perishable goods and $140. They not only donated much-needed food to a local soup kitchen, but also helped out personally by preparing and serving a meal there. We are very proud of their efforts and the generous donation of their time.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) is looking for lawyers interested in international family law. Since 1995, NCMEC has worked with the U.S. Department of State on cases coming into the United States arising under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. This treaty addresses the serious and growing problem of parents involved in international relationships wrongfully taking the child(ren) of that relationship to another country (usually returning to the parent's home country in an attempt to gain custody in a favorable court).

Through the Hague Convention, the left-behind parent is assisted in locating the child and finding representation in the United States where a hearing will be held. Most, but not all, of these parents require pro-bono assistance. Although experience in family law is helpful, NCMEC offers technical legal support as well as extensive background information on the treaty and how to handle a case. Children are taken from other countries and brought to towns all across the United States, and NCMEC is looking for lawyers in every state.

International family law is a fascinating twist on the traditional family law practice; in fact, attorneys in Martindale-Hubbel list "Hague Convention" as a specialty. If you are interested in being placed on a list for possible referral of cases in the future or simply want to learn more about implementation of this treaty, call Nancy Hammer in the International Division of NCMEC at (703) 235-3900 or Christen Bruu at the American Bar Association at (202) 662-1747.

NCMEC is a private, nonprofit organization operating under a Congressional mandate and working in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. As the nation's resource center for child protection, NCMEC spearheads national efforts to locate and recover missing children and raises public awareness about ways to prevent child abduction, molestation, and sexual exploitation.

The P.A.D. Public Service Center asks that you consider getting involved in the above project. You would be providing a tremendous service to parents badly in need of your assistance to locate their children and return them home safely.

LESSON PLAN OF THE MONTH

The January 1997 PSC Lesson Plan of the Month involves the Communications Decency Act, the case of the ACLU v. Reno, and issues surrounding First Amendment Freedom of Speech on the Internet. The Lesson Plan is entitled, Indecency on the Net: Should it be Regulated?.

Cheating has become epidemic in our nations' schools, and the February Lesson Plan of the Month involves students in discussions about ethics.

The March Lesson Plan of the Month will discuss the myriad of potential legal and ethical issues surrounding cloning.

These lessons are geared for middle and high school students, but each lesson includes an elementary adaptation for younger students. For information on ordering a single Lesson Plan or an entire series, please contact the P.A.D. PSC at 800-835-4865.

P.A.D. HISTORY WITH A 21ST CENTURY TWIST

NEW FRATERNITY PIN DEBUTS

This is Part III in a series of Reporter articles devoted to commemorating the 2002 Centennial Celebration of Phi Alpha Delta.

The new Fraternity Pin debuted on January 16 at the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter Winter Dinner at which the L.A. Alumni Chapter graciously hosted the International Executive Board of Phi Alpha Delta. In a special presentation, International Justice Clifford Schechter pinned the first new Fraternity Pin on the lapel of Past Supreme Justice and current Justice of the L.A. Alumni Chapter Matthew S. "Sandy" Rae who has worn every version of the P.A.D. Pin for the past half century.

The new P.A.D. Pin, approved by the International Executive Board at the Summer 1996 Board meeting, was designed by P.A.D.'s foremost expert in Fraternity History, Past Supreme Justice C. Raymond Judice. Shaped like the Shield of the Fraternity, the Pin, (pictured above), prominently features the Phi Alpha Delta Crest in what is known among members as a "P.A.D. Purple" background. Both the Crest and Shield are trimmed in gold.

In the December 1911 Phi Alpha Delta Quarterly (forerunner publication of The Reporter), there appeared a poem about the P.A.D. Pin by Brother Alexander Hamilton V, an Alumnus of Calhoun Chapter at Yale. While not "politically correct" in today's parlance with the co-ed nature of Phi Alpha Delta, the sentiments remain much the same and worth sharing.

Our Frat Pin

*By Alexander Hamilton V
Dedicated to Phi Alpha Delta*

I.

*When away from school and comrades,
Striving our daily bread to win,
Thinking over old remembrances,
Conjured up by my old "frat" pin.*

II.

*How I call to mind the old scenes,
'Twas in college and the day,
When friendships most sincere
Caused happy hours to flit fast away*

III.

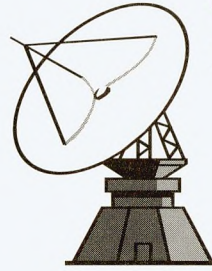

*Dear Pin, how indeed we respect thee,
Filling thy mission as you alone can,
Binding us hand and heart forever,
To each other as man to man*

IV.

*Days have passed and youth has grown,
Into manhood and maturity,
Still Dear Pin, you are remembered:
Still you represent love and fraternity*

This teleconference will discuss how Law-Related Education can be successfully institutionalized in schools as one element of a comprehensive approach to solving the growing problems of violence, crime, and drug abuse among our nation's youth. Law-Related Education is a program designed to educate K-12 students about the law, the legal system, and the fundamental principles and values upon which these are founded. Young people are taught about their rights and responsibilities under the law so that they can live their lives within the law and become productive citizens in our constitutional democracy. Lawyers, law students, law enforcement professionals and other members of the community are an integral part of the programming, serving as resource persons in the classroom and teaching interactive LRE lessons in partnership with teachers. For more than 20 years, Phi Alpha Delta has been involved in developing successful LRE partnerships in all 50 States and Puerto Rico.

The video teleconference will discuss recent findings and research on the effectiveness of Law-Related Education. In addition, the teleconference will discuss the importance of developing a solid infrastructure within communities and school systems for reaching at-risk students through Law-Related Education.

Anyone interested in LRE and the positive impact it can make in schools and communities is invited to participate in the teleconference. All state LRE coordinators, law enforcement officials, attorneys, judges, corporate executives, law students, legislators, state and local school board members, teachers, and parents are strongly encouraged to attend the teleconference center in their area.

The National Youth For Justice Teleconference is sponsored by the National Coordinated LRE Program and is supported by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

There will be approximately 55 teleconference downlink sites. For the site nearest you, please contact the P.A.D. PSC at 1-800-835-4865 or via email at PADPSCLA@aol.com. The teleconference is free to anyone interested in LRE programming.

JUDGE LESLIE A. LEWIS

She has served admirably on a number of high level Councils and Task Forces, including the Governor's Council on Victims, the Divorce, Child Custody, and Visitation Task Force, Juvenile Court Reorganization Task Force, and the Governor's Task Force on Child Abuse. P.A.D. is proud to welcome Judge Lewis to our membership, and we look forward to her continued contributions to our profession.

PRE-LAW CONFERENCE '97

The Fall 1997 Pre-Law Conference will be held for the first time in Washington, D.C. on November 7-9. All P.A.D. Pre-Law members, particularly Chapter Officers and Faculty Advisors are invited to attend.

Pre-Law members will have the opportunity to train with nationally recognized legal education leaders and law professors, as well as socialize with P.A.D. Pre-Law members from throughout the country. Additional information on registering to attend the Conference will be forthcoming in future editions of The Reporter, the P.A.D. Web Site at <http://www.pad.org>, and bulletins provided directly to Pre-Law Chapters.

For members who wish to arrive early, the P.A.D. Pre-Law Program will be hosting tours of the White House, Congress and Supreme Court on Thursday, November 6th, beginning at 8:15 a.m. Students will have the opportunity to meet prominent P.A.D. members as they tour our seat of government. Put these dates on your calendar and plan to attend.

DEADLINE FOR P.A.D. DAY

International Officers to Meet in Conjunction with this Year's Event

The 30th Annual P.A.D. Day at the U.S. Supreme Court is scheduled for June 2, 1997. P.A.D. Alumni who have been in practice for three or more years are invited to apply for admission.

P.A.D. Day Chairperson Margaret Cummysky of the National Capital Area Alumni Chapter anticipates record attendance this year. For the first time, an International Officers' Meeting will be held in Washington, D.C. during the weekend leading up to the Monday, June 2nd Admission Ceremony.

The Annual International Awards Banquet will also be a part of the weekend's festivities. On Saturday evening, May 31, the 1996-97 International Awards will be announced. All P.A.D. Members are invited to attend.

Applications for Admission to the U.S. Supreme Court and details on the events surrounding P.A.D. Day 1997 are available through the International Executive Office or on the P.A.D. Web Site at <http://www.pad.org>. The deadline for submitting applications is April 2, 1997.

FREEMAN SPEAKS

DISTRICT I JUSTICE DEBUTS IN PREFONTAINE

District I Justice Jim Freeman during the Prefontaine Era in the Executive Office circa 1978

Shortly after District I Justice Jim Freeman spoke in his first feature film, he also spoke with Executive Director Maree Blackston about his role in the film. According to Brother Freeman, who was busy trying to get a herd of fans and reporters off his front lawn, Prefontaine is about 1970's Olympic athlete and American runner, Steven Prefontaine.

Among P.A.D. members, Brother Jim Freeman is best known for his role as an Executive Secretary (now known as International Field Representative). While it has been more than twenty years since Brother Freeman served as Executive Secretary, his influence and creativity are still seen and felt within the Executive Office.

According to Brother Freeman, his debut is approximately 80 minutes into the 103 minute film in a scene set in none other than the PADdock Lounge. (Coincidence, I don't think so.) Brother Freeman is officially Patron #2 at the bar with a baseball cap and beer glass, asking the age-old question, "hey Pre, you still runnin'?" Shortly thereafter Brother Freeman is featured in the ever-popular bar brawl scene.

Brother Jim Freeman lives on beautiful Whidbey Island off the coast of Washington State where among other things he writes a popular column for a local newspaper and continues to serve P.A.D. as District I Justice.

results: over $90,000 in segregated funds! Now, we are proud to announce the implementation of Phase II, bringing us that much closer to the ultimate dream of owning our own facility. Phase II is likewise moving swiftly and is on pace to produce the ultimate desired result within this biennium! Even the scheduling and timing of the Summer Board and Officers' Meetings are quicker and earlier than ever before. These meetings will be held in Washington, DC from May 31 - June 4, 1997, in connection with P.A.D. Day at the Supreme Court (June 2, 1997). What a wonderful fraternal opportunity for all! Please make plans to join us for what promises to be one of the most exciting events of the year.

As we march, full speed ahead, toward our Centennial, more and more of our members are "jumping on" and "staying on the P.A.D. bandwagon." It has been said that if one is not part of the solution, then they are part of the problem. My philosophy and direction has been clear: Lead, Follow or Get Out of the Way...P.A.D. is on the march!

FORMER P.A.D. FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

Judge Jamoa Moberly Teaches From the Bench

Judge Jamoa Moberly

Judge Jamoa Moberly of the Orange County Harbor Municipal Court, near San Diego, maintains a strong interest in educating the public about the legal system, respect for authority, and acceptance of responsibility. In fact, she takes the time to explain her decisions and perceives her role as one of a Teacher.

Appointed to the Court in 1996 by Governor Pete Wilson of California, Sister Moberly distinguished herself very early in her legal career. During her days at Hastings College of Law in the early 1970's, she joined the Temple Chapter of P.A.D. and became the first woman to be elected a Chapter Justice.

Following her graduation from law school, Sister Moberly took a position with the P.A.D. International Executive Office to become the first woman International Field Representative (IFR). She traveled to law schools throughout the United States and Mexico chartering and reactivating Chapters of our Fraternity.

Several years after her tenure as IFR and while with the firm Schell & Delamer of Los Angeles, Sister Moberly handled a case for which she is still recognized: Frances T. v Village Green Homeowners Association, 42 Cal.3d 490 (1986). This case changed the law in the area of individual director liability for gross negligence or maliciousness. Numerous law review articles have been written about this particular case.

Though enjoying her days as a judge, Sister Moberly recently told the Los Angeles Daily Journal, "she still misses the thrill of winning a case." During her career as a trial attorney, Sister Moberly never lost a case she tried.

Judge Moberly and her husband, Michael Caruso have two children, ages 9 and 7.
