OFFICE OF THE SUPREME HISTORIAN

The third edition of the directory is only as complete and accurate as it was possible for the Supreme Historian to make it. There are many incorrect addresses and some brothers do not appear at all. While the historian has no desire to disclaim responsibility for all errors, he insists that if the brothers and the chapters had helped as they ought to, there would be no excuse for any inaccuracies, and all blame could be placed on him.

It has doubtless caused comment that no honorary members appear in the directory—that is the fault of the chapters entirely, and is caused by a condition that must be remedied at any cost. Our constitution requires that before a man may be elected to honorary membership his candidacy must be submitted to and approved by the Supreme Executive Board, but this requirement is as often ignored by the chapters as it is complied with, and there are to-day men who think they are honorary members of Phi Alpha Delta when in fact they are not.

The next edition of the directory will contain a list of honorary members of the fraternity, but will not show a single name that has not been formally approved by the Supreme Executive Board, so all you Clerks of Chapters examine your records, make a complete list of those you think are your honorary members, and send it to the Supreme Historian, who will compare it with the records and advise you whether it is correct, so that those who have not been approved may be submitted to the Supreme Executive Board.

Do it now, for there will be no further request on this subject.

PAUL C. MEIER, Supreme Historian,
St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin.

OFFICE OF THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

All copy for the next number of the QUARTERLY is due by April 30, 1914. Chapter correspondents are requested to note the editor's change of address to Masonic Temple, Peru, Illinois.

OFFICE OF THE SUPREME FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Many chapters are still in arrears with their per capita and initiation fees, and their attention is called to the recent amendment to the constitution which denies the privilege of voting on new chapters while these items are not paid up.

The address of the Financial Secretary is: 209 Merrill Trust Bldg., Bangor, Maine.

PHI ALPHA DELTA

BY BROTHER JOHN C. THOMPSON, Chase Chapter

Pledged brothers of a sturdy band,
Heart to heart, and hand in hand,
In brotherly spirit, staunch we stand.

All for one and one for all,
Lending our lives for a brother's call;
Putting all else aside,
Honor with love our guide,
Aiding each one till the heavens fall.

Deadened, Oh! ne'er let our spirit be
E'er let us swear by our loyalty
Let not our faith depart,
True to our pledge each heart—
All brothers of one fraternity.

SIDE LIGHTS ON OUR FOURTEENTH CONVENTION

The Fourteenth Convention of the Fraternity held at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, last June 27 and 28, was without question the most momentous of recent years. The assemblage of delegates was an aggressive one and shaped many future policies of the Order. The type of men in the gathering was an unqualified compliment, not alone to "the greatest law fraternity in the world," but to younger barristerhood, throughout the country.

Among the Past Supreme Justices who found time to attend the Convention's deliberations were: Brothers Rolland M. Hollock (Fuller), first executive of the Order; William C. Healion (Marshall); Waldemar C. Wehe (Ryan), and Samuel H. Roberts (Campbell), as well as Brothers John Doyle Carmody (Taft) and Paul C. Meier (Story), who took an active part in the proceedings throughout. Brother Lawrence W. Ledvina (Ryan) being unable to be present in person wired that he was "with all in fraternal spirit." Only one Past Justice did not respond. Prominent among the gathering were such familiar figures as Brothers Charlie Daley, "Bill" Prentiss, George Fink, Ed. Fleming, et al. The presence of these old "patriarchs" demonstrated to the younger men that $\Phi A \Delta$ enthusiasm is not a passing sentiment but a permanent bond of good fellowship.

Featuring among the new policies the Convention defined was that the rule for qualification of members shall be strictly adhered to and that no man shall be initiated, though he be classified as a law student by the institution he attends, until he is a bona fide law student. Undoubtedly this will be of utmost ultimate good to the Fraternity, rigorous as it may seem to some of the chapters at newer schools at this time. The detailed and official report of the Convention has already been distributed as number one of this volume of the QUARTERLY.

With the adjournment of the Fourteenth Convention Brother Edward J. Hess relinquished the Supreme Justiceship of the Fraternity. It is only fitting to here remark that his administration was characterized by healthy internal development and betterment within the Order and within the respective chapters. As Brother Hess stated in his report to the Convention his service to the Order extended over a period of four years, one as Clerk of his chapter (Webster), two as Supreme Recorder, and one as Supreme Justice. His work was nothing short of whole souled devotion to and for Fraternity affairs. He expressed to the Convention his desire "to return to the ranks of the privates," but that body saw fit to reward his labors (as those of Brothers Carmody, Meier, McKeag and Roads) with more labor, which is a habit of Phi Alpha Delta Conventions. Brother Hess is now Chairman of the Board of Tribunes, with Brothers Carmody and McKeag as his associates.

To succeed Brother Hess as Supreme Justice the delegates cast their favor upon Brother James P. Aylward (Benton). Brother Aylward was schooled in Phi Alpha Delta under the Carmody and Hess administrations and served efficiently one year as Supreme Treasurer and one year as Vice-justice. At all times he has manifested his zeal in $\Phi A \Delta$. But aside from past services Brother Aylward's elevation was merited as a Phi Alpha Delta possessing the executive ability and those rare personal qualities requisite to a successful tenor in the highest office in the gift of the Fraternity and his selection assures another fruitful administration.

The retiring officers for 1912-13 were tendered a rising vote of thanks by the Order. The work of Brothers McKeag and Meier merits especial mention in this connection.

The banquet held Saturday evening in the Louis XVI Room, Hotel Sherman, was a brilliant affair. Prominent Chicago judges responded to toasts. The attendance was in excess of that of any previous year it is believed, and marked a fitting closing to the assemblage.

CHAPTERS RESPONDING

JOHN C. CALHOUN CHAPTER

Ever mindful of the high standards of Phi Alpha Delta and always endeavoring to advance the prestige of the fraternity at Yale, the John C. Calhoun Chapter has been very active this year in the selection of men who will take a keen interest in the affairs of the fraternity. We take pleasure in announcing to the fraternity at large the following initiates:

Clarence Earl Barton, Norwood, Ohio.

Philip Burnham Buzzell, Wilmington, Mass.

Douglas Duncan Felix, Louisville, Ky.

John Thomas Walsh, Buffalo, N. Y.

Hugh Kelley, Louisville, Ky.

Clarence Albert Beutel, Louisville, Ky.

Harry Garfield Corrie, Ida Grove, Iowa.

William Barnum Gumbart, Norwalk, Conn.

Clarence Eugene Gilchrist, Iowa Falls, Iowa.

Carl Frederick Anderson, Portland, Conn.

Claremont Irving Tolles, Naugatuck, Conn.

Brothers Harry Betz of Tacoma, Wash., formerly of Fuller Chapter, and Fred J. Brockhoff of Grand Forks, formerly of Corliss Chapter, have been affiliated with the John C. Calhoun Chapter.

The chapter officers for this year are as follows: Justice, William Wilkin; Vice-justice, Wilson C. Hodges; Treasurer, Benton Baker; Financial Secretary, Edward E. Duncan; Clerk, Walter Maguire; Marshal, Charles Kremer Tuohy.

The activity of the brothers in the literary and journalistic lines is evidenced by the number of officers held by members of the chapter. Brothers Harno, Baker, and Steelman are members of the honorary law society of Chi Tau Kappa. Brother Wolon is president of the Yale Forum and the Wayland Club. Brother Harno was president of the Kent Club for the first term and is succeeded by Brother Duncan for the present term. We are well represented on the Yale Law Journal board by Brothers Harno, Baker, Steelman and Buzzell.

Brother Lyman of last year's class is teaching real property at the Dickinson Law School.

Although the primary object of the fraternity is of a legal nature it is highly essential that the social side of university life should receive consideration. With this view in mind the social committee have been very active this year in the selection of a number of excellent speakers. The speeches are of an informal kind and are given after the dinner hour at the fraternity house. So far this year we have had the pleasure of hearing talks by Professors William Lyon Phelps and A. G. Keller of the Academic Department; and Professors John Wurts and Arthur L. Corbin, of the Law School. The object of these talks is to keep the brothers of the chapter in closer touch with the faculty in other departments of the university and to further their interest in the progress of the Law School.

We have also adopted the practice of calling on the brothers for extemporaneous talks. The plan is carried out once a week after the evening dinner hour. The idea has proved an excellent one and the brothers take a decided interest in the talks.

The library at the house is now in charge of Brother Buzzell and as we have approximately 500 books in the collection it keeps him busy listing them.

The brothers of Calhoun Chapter were grieved to hear of the death of Brother Arthur R. Dearth who died at his home, 1450 Capitol Ave., Des Moines, Ia., on December 3, 1913. His untimely death followed a six weeks' illness of typhoid fever and pneumonia. Brother Dearth was graduated from the Yale Law School last June with honors. He had practiced his profession but a few weeks when he became ill. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dearth, of Des Moines, Iowa.

In accordance with the usual custom the members of the chapter held their Christmas tree celebration before the holidays. As this is the one time during the year that the brothers have an opportunity to favor each other with some token of appreciation there were many clever and well placed "slams" showered on those present.

As the time for the annual banquet draws near the committee in charge of the affair are busy making elaborate preparations and it is the object of the committee to secure some noted speaker for the occasion.

It will be an item of great interest to the chapters of the fraternity at large to know that the petition of the John C. Calhoun Chapter to the Supreme Board at its last meeting in Chicago on Dec. 28, 1913, asking for the consent of the Board to the affiliation of the local chapter with the former local legal society of "Book and Gavel" was granted. The "Book and Gavel" society is the oldest law society at Yale. The plan of the affiliation of the two has been carefully and thoroughly worked out and the details of the assimilation will be given in the next issue of the QUARTERLY.

—FRED J. BROCKHOFF,
Correspondent.

RAPALLO CHAPTER

At the June meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Justice, Warren H. Small; Vice-justice, J. Vincent Barnitt; Clerk, Louis A. Sigurd; Treasurer, Noyes B. Cornell; Financial Secretary, Thomas J. Conroy, Jr.; Marshal, C. I. Richards.

The installation took place immediately after the meeting at a smoker given by the N. Y. Alumni Chapter at the Rapallo Chapter House, 43 W. 9th St. We were pleased to welcome Brothers Carmody of Taft and Bush of Benton.

Last month over fifty were present at a smoker given at the chapter house for the purpose of looking over prospective members. Since we have pledged eight men, whom we expect to elect and initiate into Phi Alpha Delta at our next meeting. Saturday night, November eighth, thirty brothers and their wives, sweethearts and sisters enjoyed themselves at a dance given in the chapter house. The entire second floor was given over to dancing, and very prettily decorated with flowers and the Phi Alpha Delta colors.

CORLISS CHAPTER

At the beginning of the school year it was found that eleven of last year's men had returned to school and were active in Corliss Chapter. With this good start we immediately set about doing things. We procured quarters in the Widlund Building and in a few days were comfortably located in suite 319 of that block. We had our first smoker Monday, September 29, and as a result of that smoker have pledged eight of the best men in the first year class.

The officers of the chapter for the coming year are:

Justice—Thorvald Dahl.

Vice-justice—Oscar R. Preble.

Clerk—John A. Stormon.

Financial Secretary—Hjalmar W. Swenson.

Treasurer—John Moses.

Historian—Earl Loudon.

Marshal—John C. Graham.

On Thursday evening, October 23, 1913, Corliss Chapter held its first initiation of the year, and at that time conducted three members into the mysteries of Phi Alpha Delta. They are:

Francis Templeton, Grand Forks, N. D.

Paul Ryan, Argyle, Minn.

C. Frank Peterson, Caledonia, N. D.

Our pledges at the present writing are:

Earnest Francis, Williston, N. D.

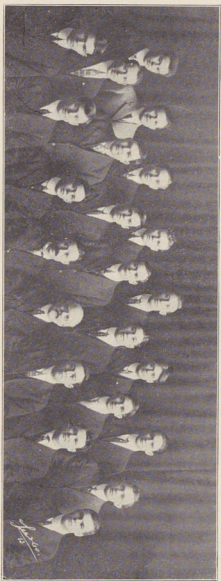

Ludwig Vobayda, Lawton, N. D.

Merwyn Hanson, Grand Forks, N. D.

M. J. George, Grand Forks, N. D.

Philip Joos, Jamestown, N. D.

On Monday evening, October 27, the freshmen of the University Law School entertained the upperclassmen and faculty at a dinner at the Hotel Dacotah. Of the seven speakers, five were Phi Alpha Deltas. The other two being Dean Henry of the Law School and President McVey of the University of North Dakota. President George of the freshman class, one of our pledges, presided as toastmaster. Brother Preble spoke on behalf of the senior class, Brother Moses for the junior class and Brother Templeton for the freshman class. Brothers O'Conner and Trageton spoke on behalf of the alumni of the law school. This shows that evidently the leaders in the law school are Phi Alpha Deltas. A most enjoyable evening was had by all present, the freshmen proving themselves excellent hosts.

GUY C. H. CORLISS CHAPTER

Brother Cooper, one of the charter members of the chapter, is now enrolled in the senior class, and will complete his law course this year. Brother Cooper was out of school last year but has now decided to finish his law course.

Brother Edward Porter, who last year won the Rhodes Scholarship for North Dakota, is now studying law at Oxford. Brother Porter reports that so far he has found Oxford to his liking.

Brother John Harris is captain of the Varsity football squad and the star player on this year's team.

Brother Earl McFadden, who was absent from the university last year, has again returned to school and registered in the junior law class. We are all glad to welcome him back into our midst.

Mr. George, one of the first year men whom we have pledged was chief clerk of the last session of the House of Representatives of the North Dakota Legislature. He was elected president of the freshman law class at the beginning of the school year.

Thus the first few months of the school year have passed and Corliss Chapter has held its own again, as ever since its installation, and has pledged the best men in the first year class. Prospects are bright and indications point to this as being a banner year for Corliss Chapter.

The brothers of the chapter send hearty greetings to the brothers in every other chapter of our fraternity.

—JOHN A. STORMON,

Clerk and Correspondent.

Address: Box 204, Grand Forks, N. D.

BENTON CHAPTER

Activity, progressive spirit and enthusiastic exertion mark the characteristics that are prevalent at Thomas Hart Benton Chapter, at this time, and through the medium of the first publication of the QUARTERLY, we extend greetings and best wishes to all sister chapters.

Our 1913-1914 season's first meeting opened with nineteen members present, all minds seemingly concentrated upon the one object, and that to make this year the most successful in Phi Alpha Delta circles here, nor has this zeal decreased, but on the contrary, has ripened into the ardor of a zealot, assuring us of the coveted end.

This issue finds us in the very midst of our rushing season, much later than in previous years, it is true, but this condition is explained by the fact that we have been afforded much good material, hence our deliberation and care to obtain the best.

We have led two neophytes to the altar of Phi Alpha Delta, in the persons of Rolland A. Montague, and M. O. Updegraff, two splendid men, who will undoubtedly bring honor to the throne of our fraternity.

The bi-monthly luncheons, a great promotive of social intercourse, amongst the alumni and active chapters, will be resumed, starting Saturday, November 15, 1913.

The progress of our men in all phases of school life need not be enumerated here, as we find them leaders in studies, debates, class organizations and in fact every undertaking where the sterling qualities of the man are necessary to desirous results.

Our quarters in the Ricksecker Building, which were retained during the summer months, much to our delight, have been completely remodelled and present a scene of studious comfort and social fitness.

Supreme Justice James P. Aylward, is fostering our efforts towards perfection and has called a joint meeting of alumni and active chapters to adopt active measures to bring the 1914 Convention to Kansas City. "Jim" is, by the way, the probable candidate for congress in this district, and with the prestige Phi Alpha Delta holds here, he will likely be the Democratic choice.

Our officers for the ensuing year are:

Justice—G. Frederick Bellemere.

Vice-justice—Robert S. Osborne.

Clerk—John J. Nangle.

Financial Secretary—Anthony P. Nugent.

Treasurer—Leo P. McShane.

Marshal—E. W. Sloan.

Historian—Mark Twain Wilson.

—JOHN J. NANGLE,
Clerk.

MARSHALL CHAPTER

Marshall Chapter has started the year with bright prospects. Already we have pledged the following men: Robert Guinter, Lexington, Mo.; Samuel E. Busler, South Charleston, Ohio; Henry Moyel, Salt Lake City, Utah; George Cannon, Salt Lake City, Utah. As we are still in the middle of the fall rushing season we hope to add to this list by our next letter to the QUARTERLY.

The University of Chicago Law School opened the fall quarter with an increased registration, not only in numbers but in quality. One addition has been made to the faculty, Professor Hinton who comes from the University of Missouri and is to teach procedure. Professor Hinton has already made the Practice II course an Active Practice Court.

Professor Bigelow, a Phi Alpha Delta brother, spent the summer in the West and Alaska and seems in fit condition to "get 'em" in Property I. (This is no reflection upon his former ability).

Marshall Chapter sent out the following men from the spring and summer quarters of this year: J. L. Eberle, who has gone to Butte, Mont., and expects to take the State Bar "X" very soon; Joseph Evans, Ogden, Utah; Earl (Dolly) Gray, member of an Oklahoma firm; Calvin George, Crawfordsville, Ind.; Chester Zeziel, Indianapolis, Ind.; Roy Harmon, Chicago, Ill.; George McKibben, Chicago, Ill.

David S. Merriam, ex-'14, is business manager of athletics under A. A. Stagg. Glen Mather, ex-'15, is at present connected with a local law firm. Both expect to reënter the law school soon. Paul M. Beech has entered the University of Wisconsin and will finish his work in June. William Harrison, ex-'15, is absent for the fall quarter.

The chapter still runs a house and table and wishes to renew its standing invitation to all Phi Alpha Deltas.

—G. M. LAWSON,
Reporter.

STORY CHAPTER

Officers for the ensuing year are:

Justice—Arthur F. Parkinson.

Vice-justice—John E. Timm.

Clerk—Herman Wegner.

Treasurer—Clarence H. Kavanagh.

Marshal—Frederick R. Temple.

Since our last letter the following were taken into the fold:

Ralph R. Neimarf.

Howard J. Griffith.

George G. Karson.

Prospects for the coming year are looming brightly. While competition with our only rival, Alpha Kappa Phi, is keen and spirited, still we manage to keep on top by getting the select men of the student body.

A number of smokers have been held, the result of which has been the pledging of some ten men who will be ready to assimilate true Phi Alpha Delta spirit, etc., at initiation to be held the latter part of November.

Story Chapter extends greetings and good wishes for a banner year to all chapters and the fraternity at large.

—H. WEGNER,
Correspondent.

HUGHES CHAPTER

The Charles J. Hughes, Jr. Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity at the Denver University Law School has begun the first year of its existence with marked success.

At the senior class election of officers Brother Joseph P. O'Connell was elected president, and Brother R. E. Kerwin was elected treasurer. These were the only candidates we put out of our own members, but our nominees were elected to the other two offices of vice-president and secretary. The opposition was very strong against us, but we carried the election with comparative ease.

Soon after the opening of school, we rented fraternity rooms at the Hotel Auditorium, one of Denver's finest hotels, located just three blocks from school, in the heart of the city, accessible at all times to all the members for study and meeting purposes. We have things well arranged so as to serve well the purposes of fraternity rooms, and are fast collecting a law library of which every member of Charles J. Hughes, Jr. Chapter will be proud. The rooms have already been the scene of many enjoyable meetings and social affairs.

It is with pleasure we announce the following initiates, who were taken into the mysteries of Phi Alpha Delta on October 22, 1913:

Robert J. Jackson, Roy Elmer Bryan, Forest L. Nicol, John T. Maley, Francis D. Woolridge, Moritz Allen Barth, Samuel M. January, Harold Bate.

In these men we feel we have the choice from all the classes.

At the initiation and initiation banquet we were honored by the presence of Brothers Harrison White, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Colorado, and honorary member from Gunter Chapter, and Brother J. R. McClelland, also a member from Gunter Chapter, who graduated last year from the University of Colorado Law School, and who is now practicing law here in Denver. These gentlemen both assisted in the initiation, and when the dinner was well on, entertained us with some very well taken remarks. We were also fortunate in having with us Brothers John C. Vivian and P. F. Vagnino, charter members of Charles J. Hughes, Jr. Chapter, who received their degrees of LL.B., and who are now practicing law in this city.

We now have twenty-one active members of Charles J. Hughes, Jr. Chapter, and though the infant of this grand organization, Phi Alpha Delta, feel that we are already as strong as the strongest, and have forever obtained a firm footing on the high road of success.

Yours fraternally,
—G. STANLEY WALTERS.
Correspondent.

RYAN CHAPTER

Ryan Chapter is now on the map as it never has been before. The opening of the school year found the chapter with eighteen old men in school, and with the chapter located in its splendid new home on the corner of Langdon and Francis streets. The house was purchased during the summer by Ryan Chapter. Such purchase was made possible by reason of the enthusiastic support and co-operation of the alumni and active members of Ryan Chapter.

Our fall initiation and banquet was held in the lodge, October 25. The following "neophytes" were initiated: Roy F. Wrigley, Albion, Ind.; James H. Hawley, Jr., Boise, Idaho; Glen W. Stephens, Chicago, Ill.; Neil M. Conway, Elroy, Wis.; Guy G. Bratton, Little Rock, Ark.; Clay Koelsch, Boise, Idaho; C. J. Otjen, Milwaukee, Wis.; J. R. Drake, Lovington, Ill.; R. S. Homet, Camptown, Pa.; Perry Sletland, Pigeon Falls, Wis.

The Wisconsin Home-coming occurred November 1. The Minnesota-Wisconsin football game was the special attraction. About thirty of our alumni were back. The old boys had the time of their lives. We gave an informal dance in their honor the evening before the game. Brother Charles F. Puls and his wife were chaperons.

Ryan Chapter is continuing its policy of having prominent lawyers, justices, and officials, as dinner guests, and then have such guests give talks to the members of the chapter, upon some subject of particular interest to law students. So far this fall, three of our honorary members have favored the chapter in this manner. Our legal meetings committee is on the job, and many more good talks are assured.

The chapter is well represented in student activities this year. Brothers Daley and McKay are members of the student court. Brothers Merkel and Hartwig are on the Joint Debate. Brothers Dittmer and Otjen are members of the student legislature—the Student Conference. Brother Stoltze is associate editor of the Badger and Brother Merkel is on the editorial force of the Daily Cardinal. Brothers Pellette, Dietze and Foster are the social lions of the chapter.

Matrimony is ever present. Brothers Hartley '09 and Quinn '12 have recently become benedicts.

The seniors who went out into the "snap and fire of the active practice" last June are located as follows: Brother Barber is practicing in Louisville, Ky.; Brother Spohn in Madison with Vroman Mason; Brother Foulkes in Milwaukee with Quarles, Spence and Quarles; Brother McDonald in Portage with District Attorney Bogue; Brother Heilman in Madison with Gilbert and Ela; Brother Gehl put up a shingle in West Bend, and Brother Smith is in Chicago.

Officers of Ryan Chapter for 1913-1914, are as follows:

Justice—Albert J. Thomann.
Vice-justice—William J. Aberg.
Clerk—Warren B. Foster.
Treasurer—Gordon J. McKay.
Marshal—Theodore G. Lewis.

Ryan Chapter extends a most hearty welcome to all visiting Phi Alpha Deltas who come to Madison.

—HAROLD P. THOMSON,
Correspondent.

GREEN CHAPTER

To all brother Phi Alpha Deltas Green Chapter sends most hearty greetings and wishes for a prosperous year. The year 1912 and '13 has been a most successful year for Phi Alpha Delta at Kansas University. This was rendered so by the fact that the boys had enough confidence in the future of Green Chapter to rent a large house in the best residence part of the city and to go in debt for furniture and equipment. After Christmas we undertook another project in running a table at the house. Both in the house and in the table we have been successful and have come out in the clear on both. During the year we had numerous visits from the old graduates who were well pleased with our progress.

During the year 1913 the following men were initiated into Green Chapter: Oliver Atherton, Richard Cox, Eugene Davis, Urael Emick, James M. Farley, Harry W. Fisher, Clem Fairchild, John C. Greenstreet, Clyde O. Hornbaker, Bert L. Hart, G. Dean McElhenny, Ralph Pfouts, William C. Painter, Frank E. Miller and Floyd Loveless.

As it is not the custom of this fraternity to emphasize the social side of university life we did not have many parties. In fact we confined ourselves to an informal party at Eagle's Hall on the 20th of March and our Annual May First party. Both of these parties were well attended and everybody had an excellent time. In addition to these two parties we had several smokers at the house. It is the intention of the fraternity to put on a few more parties this year than were given last year. Our annual Founders' Day banquet was conceded by all attending to be the crowning stunt of the year. Brothers R. S. Osborne and George Brasher of Benton chapter were present. The address of the evening was given by Hon. James Wood Green. The other speakers for the evening were Clifford Sullivan, '13, Prof. H. W. Humble, Oliver Atherton '14, J. B. Wilson, John Greenstreet '15, R. S. Osborne, and George Brasher.

As usual Phi Alpha Delta was represented in athletics. Brother Carl Hicks was a member of the Missouri Valley Championship Team in baseball and won his third "K." Eugene Davis won his first "K" in track and will be on the team this year. In addition to this Phi Alpha Delta had two old "K" men back in the house. In fraternity baseball Green Chapter won their division and were runners up for the championship.

In politics Phi Alpha Delta had some success as well. Clifford Sullivan was elected vice-president of the senior law class, Frank Miller was elected to membership on the Men's Student Council, and Clem Fairchild to membership on the athletic board.

The new officers of the fraternity elected for the following year are: Alva Lindsay, Justice; Cecil Colin, Vice-justice; Bert Hart, Financial Secretary; Ralph Pfouts, Treasurer; Oliver Atherton, Marshal; Clem Fairchild, Clerk. Roderick Reed was chosen as delegate to the National Convention but was unable to attend and his place was filled by Brother Royer. Brother Royer reports an excellent time and claims that the Phi Alpha Delta has the choice of men in all parts of the United States. Brother Adair was also able to attend the National Convention.

The following Phi Alpha Delta men from Green Chapter took the Kansas State Bar and all were successful: Ulyssis Gribble, Carl Hicks, Paul Nees, Clanrold Burnett, Clifford Sullivan, Brothers Nesbitt and Harry Fisher passed the Oklahoma State Bar. Brothers Roy Lindsay, Charles Maris, and Hugh Adair of the class of '13 will take the bar this winter.

Brother Roy Lindsay is practicing law in Springfield, Missouri, Brother Adair is practicing in Lewistown, Montana, Brother Burnett is a member of an old and established firm in Girard, Kansas. The other men to graduate this year have not as yet located definitely.

The new year of 1913 and '14 finds us located in the same place, at 1135 Tennessee Street. Our enrollment is as follows: Oliver Atherton, Alonzo Busick, Cecil Colin, Eugene Davis, Urael Emick, Clem Fairchild, James Farley, John Greenstreet, Bert Hart, Alva Lindsay, Frank Miller, William Morton, Ralph Pfouts, G. Dean McElhenny, Roderick Reed, Paul Royer, Guy Von Schritlz, Floyd Loveless, Geo. L. Brown, Joy Kent, and Chester O'Dell.

Brother O'Dell has changed his affiliation from Marshall Chapter to Green Chapter and we are pleased to welcome him to membership with us. Brother Arthur Hill also of Marshall Chapter is rooming at the house. Brother Hill is head of the Public Speaking Department of the University of Kansas for the ensuing year.

With these good men above as a nucleus we expect to make the following year the most prosperous in the annals of the Phi Alpha Delta at Lawrence.

Again we extend a hearty welcome to visiting brothers and wish success to all chapters of Phi Alpha Delta.

—C. C. FAIRCHILD,
Clerk.

CAMPBELL CHAPTER

The remnants of the army of Phi Alpha Deltas at the University of Michigan returned to the "good ship, James V. Campbell" on or about the first day of October to find the purple and gold colors proudly wafting its folds in the triumph of the year past. In the scholastic rating of the fraternities by the university authorities, Phi Alpha Delta not only led her competitors in the professional field, but she was the leader of the general fraternities as well. Such is the enviable record that we are called upon to perpetuate for the present generation at least. That we are prospectively as well as actually equal to the task is apparent from the type and calibre of the men individually and collectively that constitute our make up at the present time. But we are not resting on our oars, but with the slogan "every man for Phi Alpha Delta" ringing in his ears, every man is working heart and soul for her interests.

Nor have we gained nor are we upholding the scholastic record that is ours at the sacrifice of social and campus activities. Every one of the three classes represented in the chapter boasted of a candidate for the presidency of its class, and though the political aspirations were greeted with failure, their efforts were none the less commendable.

Our social indulgences have officially been up to the standard of past years. On the first day of this month the usual party was given at the country club, when the social ability of our aggregation was demonstrated to a "common intent" at least. At present we are making our preparations for the entertainment of the visiting brothers on November 15, the date of our annual clash with Pennsylvania. For the character and worth thereof see Brother Fink of Chicago.

On the night of October 30 six new men were initiated into our brotherhood, to-wit, Brothers Zachman, Coulter, King, Allerton, Scott and Tate. The last three named brothers have just begun their pursuit of the study of law, while the first named brother will finish with the class of 1914. Since the said initiation ceremonies we have pledged one of the big, if not the "biggest," man in the junior class in the person of Mr. McCash, and when we use the above adjective it is not in a physical sense alone.

True to her determination of last year the chapter is going to start the building of a new home, all her own, before the present scholastic year is past. Those in charge of this branch of the chapter's activity have already progressed far beyond the hopes of all interested in making this ambition a reality. The alumni have been doing their share in a manner well worthy of praise whether from a standpoint of money or activity, while the active chapter is none the less generous with its financial, moral and physical support. We can still handle all help that may be given us in whatever form it is offered, but to the chapter's alumni, who are able, we make a strong appeal, especially for financial support, for that is what we are most in need of to perfect the plans for the new house.

We have been favored with visits from Brothers Servis, Long, Crawford, Prescott, Case and Kessel thus far this year and needless to say they were each and all joyously welcomed by the "bunch". That same welcome is out to every member of Phi Alpha Delta and it is the earnest desire of the chapter that all the brothers that can, pay us a visit as often as you can; you are welcome, yes thrice welcome! —JOHN S. KELLEY, JR.,

Corresponding Secretary.

CHICAGO ALUMNAL CHAPTER

The chapter cannot report much activity since the Convention in June, as the vacation season then set in and efforts to get the members of the chapter together at a representative meeting in the summer would have been futile. Plans are under way, however, for an active fall, winter and spring among the alumni in Chicago.

The weekly luncheon table at the Boston Oyster House was maintained throughout the summer but has recently been discontinued, and in its place a daily luncheon table has been established at the Planters Hotel, 19 N. Clark Street (East Side between Washington and La Salle Streets) where from ten to twenty of the older "boys" may be found every day but Sunday between 12:30 and 2:00, and where all Phi Alpha Deltas and accompanied friends are always welcome and cordially invited. The hotel is centrally located and easily found.

On Tuesday the 11th inst. there will be a general meeting of the entire chapter, at the Green Room, Boston Oyster House, 6:30 p. m. for dinner, smoker, short business meeting, followed by a good cabaret.

The monthly public or open meetings of the chapter which are addressed by honorary members, or prominent members of the local bar, not so fortunate as to be members of the fraternity, are to be started this month, the exact date not having been decided upon at this writing.

The chapter still maintains its Chapter Hall at 112 N. La Salle Street opposite the City Hall and Court House.

It may be interesting to some of the readers of the QUARTERLY to learn of the expedition with which some of our Municipal Court cases are handled and we submit a reprint of a short article recently appearing in the Chicago Daily News:

"What is declared to be a record call for any branch of the Municipal court of Chicago was disposed of by Judge Hugh R. Stewart today. He disposed of 480 cases before 11:30 o'clock. Judgments entered in default by the judge during that time total $12,031.

"The first 100 cases on his call were disposed of by Judge Stewart in twenty minutes. The 270 remaining cases on the return day call were disposed of in an hour. One hundred and ten cases on the regular 10:30 o'clock call passed through his hands in twenty-five minutes."

The officers of the chapter at the present time and who are elected to hold office until February, 1914 are:

President—Edgar A. Jonas, 1313 Ft. Dearborn Bldg. Tel. Randolph 226.

Vice-president—Wm. E. Helander, 1620 Corn Ex. Bank Bldg. Tel. Main 1995.

Secretary—Frederick W. Bode, 110 N. Morgan St. Tel. Monroe 5201.

Financial Secretary—R. Robert Collins, 1110 Ashland Block. Tel. Central 5821.

Treasurer—Geo. T. Preschern, Care of Northern Trust Co. Tel. Main 3822.

Executive Committee:

James J. Cherry (Story).

W. Merle Fisher (Capen).

Wm. P. J. Halley (Blackstone).

Harry C. Moran (Magruder).

Chas. R. Holton (Marshall).

Hugh S. Pettis (Taft).

Harry F. Hamlin (Campbell).

Emory J. Smith (Fuller).

George E. Fink (Story).

Roscoe E. Little (Webster).

Wm. D. Kerr (Ryan).

Levi Nelson Tillotson (Calhoun).

Henry G. Arends (Lawson).

The chapter members will consider it a favor if visiting brothers, active or alumni, will visit the chapter hall, where they will find a list of members of the chapter, with telephone numbers, and so be able to get in touch with their Chicago acquaintances in the fraternity, and to call at the Planters 12:30-2:00, and introduce themselves, in event they don't happen to sooner "hook up" with some one in the fraternity they know.

—G. E. F.

HAY CHAPTER

Hay chapter opened the year with seven active brothers in school, our numbers being somewhat diminished by the graduation of Brothers Pennell, Lawer, Alford, and Pendleton. But with Brothers King, Nye, Kragh, Weilman, Miller, Bechberger and Kerr returned we set about our endeavors to secure new men with a determination that was certainly marked by success.

As a result of our efforts, in which we were assisted by our loyal alumni, Hay Chapter has the good fortune to announce to following men as pledges:

D. W. Meyers who arrived from Sullivan, Ohio, and who secured his A.B. at Baldwin university.

K. F. Lawrence, a son of Honorary member Judge Lawrence, and who received his degree from Hobart College.

E. R. Frazier, who graduated from Princeton last year.

H. H. Yoder, who comes from Ohio Wesleyan University.

J. H. Rainsberger and J. A. Fritchley who received their diplomas from Mount Union College.

By the time this communication is read by the various brothers these men will have been made brothers of Phi Alpha Delta.

Our rushing season was a success in every particular and by securing these men we believe we "put it over our rivals" in good shape.

Outside chapters might be interested to know that we have initiated Professor Albert C. Brightman of the faculty and Judge John H. Goth of the Cuyahoga County Bench as honorary members.

Brothers Lawer, Alford and Pennell of last year's class are located in the city with very good firms.

Brother Pendleton is in partnership with his father, ex-Judge Pendleton, at Warren, Ohio. Brother "Laugh" Lind '12 is assistant to head coach Snyder of the university.

We hope to pull off a number of dances this year in which the alumni will be present.

Brother Weilman has been out of school the past three weeks on account of illness but we are glad to learn "Cy" is recovering and will return in a few days.

Hay chapter extends a hearty welcome to all Phi Alpha Deltas who chance to come to Cleveland.

HAMMOND CHAPTER

One in walking along north Clinton street in the most attractive residence section of all Iowa City, and just a short way south of the president's fine mansion, is impressed with the beauty and splendor of the many old residences but especially with the new home of Phi Alpha Delta which, castle-like as the feudal manors of old, makes it seem fitting that law should lie there as it did in the fortress of the feudal lord.

Hammond Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta welcomed her pledges this fall and alumni at the second annual home-coming at the time of the Ames-Iowa game, in a beautiful, new, roomy and commodious home that is in the best residence section of Iowa City. It is close to both the university and the business section of the town.

The year opened with the brightest prospects in the already long successful career of the fraternity. Practically all the old men with the exception of last year's seniors are back and there are six new active members just recently initiated and seven pledges, two of whom are awaiting initiation. The chapter now ranks among the strongest and most influential of the university.

The new home is known in Iowa City as the old Clark residence and besides being one of the most substantial and beautiful brick structures in the city has the advantage of being one of the largest. The new quarters are in a popular fraternity and sorority section, two other chapters beside that of Phi Alpha Delta and the new young ladies' dormitory just completed by the university being located on the same corner.

Hammond Chapter is one of the few fraternities of the university to be housed in so substantial a home. The interior is as luxuriant as the appearance from the outside indicates. The building, three stories tall, all red brick, and with an architecturally perfect tower presents enough of a fortress appearance to be in harmony with the fact that it is one of the strongest chapters in the school. The house is situated on a corner lot which measures a quarter block and provides an attractive lawn on which to furnish the freshmen with exercise.

With hard work, assistance and good supervision of the old men, in addition to their good taste, the entire interior of the house has been fitted in keeping with such an attractive residence. Mission furniture of oak that is upholstered with leather furnishes the club rooms. These are very homelike and cheerful. Six fireplaces in various parts of the house on chilly fall days added materially to the fraternal spirit of good fellowship. The fraternity are now considering equipping the house with a library that will include the various important reports and some good texts in addition to the individual books of the members.

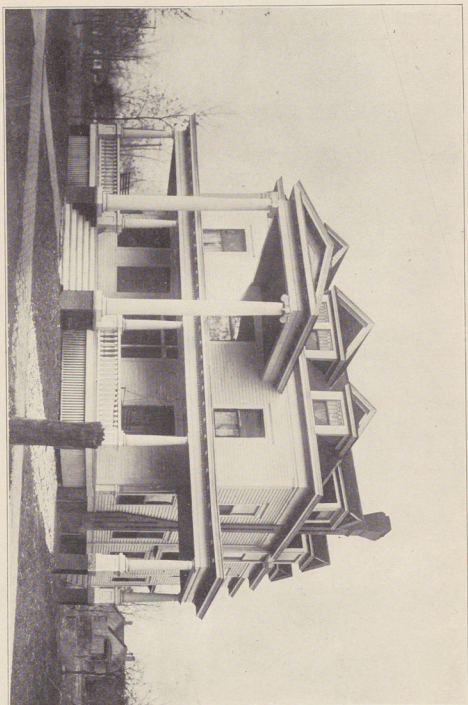

This year the limits of the field in which to secure men were extended into the liberal arts department with the university provision that those entering the law department shall have two years in letters and science. At present five pledges are from that school and as many favorable candidates that intend to read law are taken from that department as from the regular law college. These men are of course not initiated until their arrival in the law department.—H. VAL. HARN,

Correspondent.

MAGRUDER CHAPTER

When school opened at Illinois this fall Phi Alpha Delta was among those fraternities to announce a new home for the coming years. The house problem had been confronting Magruder for some time; so arrangements were made for the securing of a new house last spring, and as a result of the work of the house committee when the old men return this year they will find Magruder located in one of the best fraternity homes at the university.

The house, while not exceedingly large, accommodates all the members with ease, living two men to a room. On the first floor there are two large living rooms and a large dining room, all being finished in fumed oak. The second and third floors are used for study purposes there being a total of ten study rooms and a large dormitory on the third floor. The house is equipped with the best and latest modern improvements.

Owing to the fact that the total registration in the law school for the present term is only 102, we have pledged five men. The freshman class is very small in proportion to past years. The following men have been pledged:

Frank Alvin Schoombs, Cairo, Illinois.

Sterling R. Cunningham, Bismark, Illinois.

Ralph Griffith Meyer, Flora, Illinois.

Marcus Chesney Carson, Nashville, Illinois.

Prince Martin, Sullivan, Illinois.

The fourth annual home-coming of the Illinois University brought a number of the old alumni to the chapter for the university festivities.

GUNTER CHAPTER

Four men were initiated into Gunter Chapter, Phi Alpha Delta, at the University of Colorado, this year, the initiation taking place at the Boulderado Hotel, on Sunday, November 9. In the examination of candidates the U. of C. boys received very efficient aid from members of Hughes Chapter of Denver University, who were in Boulder for the occasion.

The initiates were: Thomas C. Ashley, of Saguache, Colo.; Irwin M. Lowe, of Glenwood Springs, Colo.; Eric Johnson of Berthoud, Colo.; and Dean A. Martin, of New Castle, Ind. Brothers Ashley and Lowe are juniors in the law school, both having received the B. A. degree at the university last June. Brothers Johnson and Martin are seniors in the law school.

Following the initiation came the annual banquet. Charles L. Doughty presided over the table and toasts were responded to as follows:

Greetings to initiates—F. H. Slattery.

Response—Thos. C. Ashley.

Suggestions from an alumnus—A. W. Fitzgerald.

Hughes Chapter and Gunter Chapter—J. P. Akolt.

Phi Alpha Delta—Arthur A. Parkhurst.
Impromptu.

Judge Julius C. Gunter, of Denver, the honor member of Gunter Chapter, was scheduled to be present and deliver an address, but was unexpectedly called away on legal business in the strike zone.

Members of Hughes Chapter who were present on this occasion are: Roy E. Bryan, R. Emmett Lee, F. W. Dyer, J. P. Akolt, John Vivian, and several others.

Gunter Chapter now has a membership roll of eleven men, all prominent and popular members of the law school and of the student body at the University of Colorado. At the regular weekly meetings, a program invariably follows the business session. Recent programs have all been devoted to considering some phase of the strike in Colorado.

On Friday evening, November 21, the members were guests of Hughes Chapter at a dance given by the latter at the Auditorium Hotel in Denver.

Officers of Gunter Chapter are as follows:

Justice—Charles L. Doughty, 1083 13th St.

Vice-justice—Milton Carlson, 1090 13th St.

Clerk—Rudolph Johnson, Woodbury Hall.

Treasurer—Harry F. Anderson, 1045 Penn. St.

—RUDOLPH JOHNSON,
Clerk.

GARLAND CHAPTER

On June 10, this year, Garland Chapter held its annual summer outing. Instead of the usual hunting trip in the Ozark Mountains several members of the chapter enjoyed fine fishing on White River and nearby lakes. In the early spring the chapter was fortunate in securing a large seven-room house boat, which, after being furnished, afforded excellent means for enjoying an outing, combining the comforts of a home with all the pleasures of a camping trip. Brothers J. K. Riffel, E. B. Downie, H. C. Hale, W. G. Harkey, I. L. Titus, George B. McCarty and Douglas Heard made up the party.

On the morning of June 10 the party embarked at DeValls Bluff on the good scow "Lazy Dog" towed by the fast motor boat "Shifty Lizard" and after a tempestuous voyage of more than two hours were safely landed at Rock Roe where the Chapter house boat "Bill Prentiss," a "low, rakish looking craft," lay at anchor.

It was apparent from the outset that Brothers Hale and Harkey were determined to remain on board all the time and guard the supplies. But the party, after the first day, concluded by a vote of five to two that certain supplies would be safer in the absence of the brothers mentioned.

To Brother Downie is due the credit of landing the first fish. After a game fight (by Brother Downie) he succeeded in catching a four and three-quarter pound black bass.

Brothers Riffel and Heard preferred squirrel hunting and frequently during the day could be heard the crack of trusty rifles which assured all that the party would not be without meat.

Owing to the excessive rains in the latter part of May and early part of June the water was not good for casting but notwithstanding this the party had fine luck and plenty of fish were caught for use during the stay and a nice string for each member to bring home.

Squirrels were found in great numbers and as a result of the activities of Brothers Riffel and Heard in this line many were carried home.

The moonlight nights were beautiful, the air for many miles around resounding with quartet music, and had Ulysses of old chanced to pass, mast nor thong would have been strong enough to restrain him.

Owing to over-indulgence on the part of at least two members of the party certain necessary supplies became exhausted on Friday, and the trip was necessarily cut short by at least two days. Disappointed and thirsty we made our way back to DeValls Bluff.

The train, due at 2 a. m., was four hours late and a hard night was spent on the floor of the depot at DeValls Bluff.

The party reached Little Rock Saturday morning and shortly were in good spirits.

SPECIAL ARTICLE ON THE FISHING TRIP

A thrilling chapter could be devoted to the grand battle between Brother Downie, single handed and armed with rocks, on one side, and Brothers Heard and McCarty, armed with shot guns, on the other. The causus belli arose when Brother Downie returned from a hard morning's fishing and found the boat in charge of Brothers Heard and McCarty who refused to lower the gang plank until Brother Downie could cite them to his fish which he was unable to do owing to the lack of appreciation on the part of the fish for Brother Downie's brand of bait. An ultimatum was then issued by the besieger to the effect that unless said gang plank was lowered forthwith and that he be allowed to board peacefully and without resistance there would be a difficulty and the fortress would be bombarded with sundry rocks, a large supply of which Mr. Downie had at hand and could use with deadly accuracy, having not forgotten the training of his early youth. To this defy the holders of the boat replied not other than by exhibiting and holding up large slices of corn bread covered with bacon and eating same with great gusto and from time to time imbibing copious draughts of some amber liquid from a bottle, and in this manner endeavoring to humiliate and tantalize their besieger. At this act the lone fisherman became greatly enraged and he heaved many rocks with such accuracy that he forced the enemy to retire from the deck and seek safety in the cabin from whence they dared not look out except at great peril to their lives. At this they became greatly frightened and arming themselves with shot guns loaded with 12 gauge shells from which the shot had been extracted, they crawled stealthily to the top of their fortress and from that unexpected quarter opened fire on the besieger and the bang, bang of a double barrel was followed by throwing a double handfull of shot which hit the besieger and convinced him that he had been wounded in many places, whereupon he retired to wait for reinforcements, upon the arrival of which, at night fall, the ship was easily taken, the defenders having been reduced to a comatose condition by an over-indulgence in the amber fluid.

The University of Arkansas Law Department began the year with an enrollment of two hundred and the prospects are good for several more members.

The report of Brothers Dodge and Riffel, delegates to the 14th National Convention, was interesting but incomplete, Brother Dodge refusing to tell all he did and Brother Riffel refusing to tell on him.

The house-boat belonging to Garland Chapter, as a result of being rammed by a timber steamer, sank in White River just before our usual fall trip. Some of our nautical experts went down to superintend the raising of it and reported that with the help of a government snag boat they succeeded in raising and placing it on a sand bar. It will take about two hundred and fifty dollars and two weeks work to put the boat in a sea-going condition.

Members of this chapter were very much interested in the recent race for circuit judge of this district as both candidates were members of Phi Alpha Delta, Brothers Hendricks and Wooten. The race was close and Brother Hendricks won by a slight majority.

Brother Hale of Garland Chapter will be a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of this, the 6th Judicial District. The Phi Alpha Delts are for him to a man.

Robert Martin, our present Justice, is a candidate for City Attorney to succeed Brother Hale. The brilliant record he made in the last legislature has won him many strong supporters and we apprehend no difficulty in electing him by a safe majority.

The many admirers of Brothers Douglas Heard and Horace Chamberlain have no doubt noticed the press comments regarding the recent judgment for one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) for breach of promise obtained in the Federal Court in this city, wherein Brothers Heard and Chamberlain represented the plaintiff. So far as we are advised this is the largest judgment ever obtained in a case of like nature. The feature of the trial was Brother Heard's eloquent and impassioned appeal to the jury which has firmly established his reputation as master of the art of advocacy.

Brother John Bruce Cox has formed a partnership with one of the leading law firms of Nowata, Oklahoma and is now enjoying a large and lucrative practice in that city.

The following is from the Arkansas Gazette of January 25, 1914:

"The tenth annual banquet of the Garland chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity was held last night in the private dining room of the Hotel Marion. Seven candidates were initiated, among the number being Governor George W. Hays and Justices Jesse C. Hart and Frank Smith of the Arkansas Supreme Court. The membership of Garland Chapter, named in honor of Augustus H. Garland, now numbers more than 80. The active candidates initiated were G. DeMatt Henderson, Grover C. Morris, Eulen G. Shoffner and F. Karl Greenhaw."

Tom Poe, C. B. Frazer and Aleck Rogoski were initiated in November.

HOLMES CHAPTER

Holmes Chapter now has an enrollment of seventeen. Of this number eleven are old members while six were recently initiated. U. A. Southeimer, H. B. Landreth, J. Breuner, Jr., P. S. Brooke, A. E. Worthy, and A. L. Erb are the names of the new men. They are all pretty prominent in college activities. Erb played half back on this year's champion varsity while Worthy is editor-in-chief of the college annual.

The old men have also been active in college affairs. F. L. Foster recently won the annual cross-country run, while W. P. Butcher held down the position of goal keeper on the Stanford Soccer team which won a hard fought victory from California.

ALUMNI NOTES

Three members of last year's J. D. class are now actively engaged in the practice of law. I. C. Peckham is a member of a San Francisco firm, H. C. White is in Sacramento, and C. H. Warlow has hung out his shingle in Fresno, California.

J. D. Peters who secured his LL. B. last spring is practicing in Chico, California.

Stan Guthrie of last year's graduating class was recently married and he is now living in Los Angeles and engaged in active practice.

—V. M. BRYDOLF.

CAPEN CHAPTER

Eleven active members responded to the first roll call at the beginning of the present school year, the chapter having lost five by graduation.

Rushing was started at the first meeting of the law classes and continued for two weeks; the Phi Alpha Deltas took a very important part in this work and failed to leave a stone unturned. Various smokers and dinners were held at the chapter house, and by the time the smoke had cleared away and the new faces looked over we had six of the most promising men in the freshman class, namely: Ivan Elliot, Crossville, Ill.; Byron Shirley, Germantown, Penn.; Niel Callahan, Bloomington, Ill.; Lester Fish, Lawrenceville, Ill.; Louis Bush, Normal, Ill.; Edward Roe, Bloomington, Ill.

Brother Schnepf who attended the University of Chicago last year has resumed his work here and is a welcome addition. Brother Stanley after being out of school one year found the calling of the law too strong, hence he is with us again.

"King" Cole of Grant Park and Joseph Bunning of Quincy, Ill., who were pledged late last year will be back next term.

On the evening of October 23, Phi Alpha Delta launched out in their first real social event of the year; a five course dinner was served, headed by the Hon. Chas. Laben Capen the father of our chapter. The chapter house was decorated in a most beautiful manner for the occasion, cards were indulged in and the chapter house fairly trembled when some of our Wesleyan girls produced some of their talent on the piano.

It is with regret that we announce that Harry Streeter, senior member of the fraternity and star center on the football team, received a broken leg October 25, here on Wilder field in the annual scrap with William and Vashti. Brother Streeter was winding up his career as center and manager in a blaze of glory until the time of the accident. He was being groomed for the All-State center position.

Brother Dunn, a senior member of the fraternity, found himself incapable of taking care of himself, as one might say, and took to himself a wife. Luck to Brother Dunn and family! It will be remembered that Brother Dunn won second prize at the state oratorical contest last year.

Plans are being made to have our second annual initiation and home-coming banquet about the middle of December. A large number of the old fellows were back last year and we expect to make the next one a great success. We feel that this is the greatest and most important event of a Phi Alpha Delta year.

Brother Shaw of the class of '11, and present state's attorney of Lawrence County, Illinois, visited a few days at the chapter house. Brother Pratt of the class of '11 has ceased his legal duties with the Chicago Railway Company and is now located in Bloomington as the junior partner of the firm of Hart, Fleming and Pratt.

Three of our pledges are on the football squad, Callahan, Bush and Shirley, while our other three pledges are baseball men.

The officers selected to serve this year are as follows:

Scott W. Lucas—Justice.

Stephen R. Brodwolf—Vice-justice.

J. B. McCormick, Jr.—Clerk.

Richard Dunn—Financial Secretary.

Charles Cunningham—Marshal.

—J. B. McCORMICK,

Clerk.

NECROLOGY

Whereas: It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to summon from us our Brother, fellow student and friend, Clyde Frye Wildman, and

Whereas: At the time of his death he was an active and honored member in good standing to John Hay Chapter, of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity,

Be It Resolved: That in the death of Brother Wildman we have suffered deeply and we grieve in the loss of a loyal and respected Brother, a kind friend and a true and conscientious student—one whose nobility and strength of character, straightforwardness of purpose, geniality, kindness, gentleness, and clearness of vision inspired all who knew him to love and to respect him, and

Be it Resolved: That, in this, their hour of bereavement we extend to his family our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in their grief and sorrow at their irreparable loss, and that we offer to them our every assistance in an effort to make their burden lighter, and

Be it Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sorrowing family and that a copy be furnished the PHI ALPHA DELTA QUARTERLY for publication, also that a copy be spread upon the records of this chapter, that the memory of one, whose life among us has enriched our lives and given us a nobler conception of true brotherhood, may be kept constantly before us.

ACTIVITIES ON THE PACIFIC COAST

Jackson Temple Chapter, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, initiated eight new members, elected to honorary membership Associate Justice John E. Richards, of the District Court of Appeal, and organized an Alumni Chapter, at its banquet the evening of December 5, last, at the Fairmont Hotel.

It was a red letter night for Phi Alpha Delta. Seven of the eight initiates were from among the first year men of Hastings College of Law, and one was from the Department of Jurisprudence of the University of California at Berkeley. The menu was a gastronomic delight, and the addresses by the members of Jackson Temple Chapter, and by visiting alumni from other colleges, were redolent of brotherly fellowship and fealty to the ideals of the fraternity.

The evening opened with the organization of an Alumni Chapter, with George Stewart (Chicago, '08), justice; Ignatius Peckham (Stanford, '12), vice-justice; financial secretary, Fred Bertram Wood (Stanford, '12), treasurer; Chauncey Eldridge (Hastings, '13), clerk; Emil Hoerschner (Hastings, '12), marshal; A. F. Patterson (Hastings, '13).

The organization of the Alumni Chapter was followed by the reception as an honorary member of Hon. John E. Richards (Michigan, '75), associate justice of the District Court of Appeals, First District.

Then followed the initiation of eight candidates. Those upon whom the choice of the fraternity had fallen were: David P. Howells, Sam Snead, Benton Tyndall, Thomas J. Horan, Robert M. Tapscott, William M. Vogel and Warren V. Tryon, of Hastings, '16, and Adolph Postel, of Berkeley '16.

Following the black coffee came the remarks, denominated "Inflections" on the program, but not so by any means. Thomas B. Dozier, Jr. presided gracefully as toastmaster. Eric G. Scudder, one of the founders and first justice of the chapter, welcomed the initiates and members as brothers; the initiates responded with sentiments of fealty to the fraternity and pledges to uphold the ideals; George Stewart outlined the purpose and influence of "The Alumni Association;" Fred Bertram Wood spoke of "The Stamford Chapter;" A. F. Patterson's subject was the "Phi Alpha Delta Convention, 1915;" John W. Heaney, delegate to the Phi Alpha Delta Convention in Chicago last June, told of the inspiration of that gathering and of "The National Chapter," and Assistant United States Attorney Walter E. Hettman spoke on "The Alumni in Practice."

"Ideals" was the subject of the eloquent and inspiring address of Judge Richards, which climaxed the program of the evening. Speaking to a body of lawyers, and prospective lawyers, he traced in a masterful way four great ideals for the uplift and betterment of the practice and theory of the law. He first developed the proposition that the law is but a part of the great democracy from which the standards of the universe are built, and that to serve its true purpose, the law must always maintain the widest democratic ideals. For his second proposition, he showed the positive necessity of a moral basis for all law, dwelling on the point that no law or principle of law, which was not based on morals, should receive any support from members of the bar. In his third ideal he emphasized the exactness of the law as a science, and the opportunity to apply the English language to further development of this quality of the law. His fourth ideal was the approach to the law as it ought to be. In this last point the judge urged the application of broad principle in the administration of the law, and showed that with the proper grounding of legal principles a member of the bar should be able to arrive at the proper solution of any legal problem premised on a given state of facts without resort to the narrow theories of decided cases and text books. His address was richly sprinkled with illustrations from the careers of great jurists with whom the judge had, in his student days, come in contact. He urged his hearers to constantly endeavor to work out these ideals in practice, impressing upon them that they, as the coming administrators of the law, had the solemn duty upon them to foster those principles which would make the law a moral force in the world and a sure means to democratic justice applicable to the lowest as well as the highest classes of men.

MEETING OF THE SUPREME EXECUTIVE BOARD

On December 28 last, the Supreme Executive Board of the Fraternity met at Chicago in the second session of the year.

Aside from routine matters petitions for new chapters at many schools were discussed and the petitions each referred to a committee to report not later than the spring meeting of the Board.

A letter of congratulation was sent by the Board to Campbell chapter at the University of Michigan and Magruder chapter at the University of Illinois for the high scholastic attainment of these chapters last year.

Perhaps the most important measure taken was the emergency measure providing that the Supreme Board will pay only one-half of the expenses of one delegate to the next, the fifteenth, Convention.

This provision is deemed absolutely necessary in view of three conditions: First, the extraordinary expense of the 1915 Convention on the Pacific Coast which must be anticipated; second, the large deficit left from the fourteenth Convention and the increased current expense of the Fraternity due to its enlargement and, third, to the failure of some chapters to remit in full money due the Order, as provided in the Constitution.

Chapters should therefore arrange to conform with this regulation now and thus be in ample time. Where chapters are represented by a single delegate, he will have the privilege of two votes as heretofore.

OUR NEW MATE

On May 31 last, at Chicago, Illinois, the three minor law fraternities, Delta Phi Delta, Alpha Kappa Phi and Theta Lambda Phi, consolidated under the fraternity name of Delta Theta Phi. Eugene Quigley, Williamson Building, Cleveland, Ohio, was elected Chancellor, the highest executive office in the new Order. The Supreme Executive Board of Phi Alpha Delta, at its last meeting, delegated Brother Conger G. Roads to convey the best wishes of our Fraternity for the new order to Chancellor Quigley.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT IT?

Having passed through some desultory existence the QUARTERLY is now in its seventh volume.

Your scribe has directed its issuance for four years, in which it has been the endeavor of the Supreme Executive Board to issue a creditable magazine for a limited outlay from the treasury. It is believed this has been accomplished. But with the current expense of the administration of the Fraternity becoming greater each year the matter of printing a magazine has become a critical one.

As Past Supreme Justice Hess, after five years of active Fraternity service, reported to the Fourteenth Convention, "The practicability of issuing the magazine for any great length of time under the present system is very doubtful."

This comment is made for the purpose of eliciting from alumni suggestions as to future provision for the QUARTERLY. At present, if financial or moral co-operation to the QUARTERLY is any criterion, Fraternity loyalty among our alumni is at an abnormally low ebb.

By the grace of the Fourteenth Convention there will take effect as to active members becoming alumni this year a tax of $1.50 to be collected by the chapter and to be paid to the editor-in-chief for the support of the magazine. This entitles such members to all the numbers issued next year. But this alone is but a comparatively small aid.

There is now accumulated in the office of the Editor-in-chief many back numbers of the magazine, electrotypes and exchanges. This wealth of material is even now of constant worth in the administration of fraternity affairs to say nothing of its increased value in the future. This matter must be stored and catalogued to be of any lasting service.

Since the first issuance of the QUARTERLY the number of active chapters, has grown more than four fold, to say nothing of alumni chapters. The work required to produce the QUARTERLY has grown four fold, but the support has not grown perceptibly. With an order of such proportions as ours the QUARTERLY in its present confines is cramped. Matter of real interest is necessarily altogether slighted or given only brief mention. It is imperative something be done.

Each Supreme Executive Board has found the problem more complex. It is agreed on all sides that something must be done, but what?

After four years of service the writer believes only one course is open that will afford an organ proportionate with the activities and standing of Phi Alpha Delta and this will be outlined after several other considerations.

What should a law fraternity magazine contain and what are its more important functions?

Shall it contain technical legal articles? It would seem that the many other excellent legal periodicals cover this field and that there is no need of a law fraternity magazine trespassing on their domain.

Shall space be devoted to the activities of other Greek-letter fraternities, save of other legal fraternities? This likewise seems out of the sphere of the QUARTERLY. There are periodicals and publications devoted to this also.

What then is the proper function of the QUARTERLY? To the writer it seems the proper scope is: First, a chronicle of activities of general interest within Phi Alpha Delta; second, a medium for advising active and alumni chapters of new regulations; third, a means of actual help to every member, especially the graduate, and lastly, a source of some little wholesome entertainment to wash from the mind the dust of every day life.

It is sincerely believed that the QUARTERLY could no more profitably avail itself of a part of its space than to print a prospectus of locations for graduates. That is, to conduct a department giving the graduates "tips" as to openings for attorneys, or for allied vocations such as bankers, credit men and managers, private secretaries and public commission service, in as much as many of our graduates take up such pursuits. Our alumni are fast becoming men who have at their disposal such opportunities and surely no service in the part of the QUARTERLY could be more practically beneficial to graduates than this. But the maintenance of such a feature would involve considerable detail work which cannot be undertaken under present conditions.

And now how shall a better publication be effected?

To this end it is proposed that an association within the Order and among the alumni be created—a publishing association. Membership therein to be for life upon payment by members of one fixed fee, membership to carry with it a life subscription to the QUARTERLY and Directory, and all other publications, preferred designation in the Directory, a standing professional card in the magazine, where the member is an attorney, together with the right to vote by mail upon all questions relating to the business administration of the magazine. Each member to be entitled to a certificate of membership and an annual financial and statistical report of the Association.

The time for publishing a Fraternity History and Song Book seems ripe and with such an association should be feasible.

With such support the QUARTERLY could attain more efficiency in fraternal service. What, Brother Reader, do you suggest? The editor will appreciate advice from all alumni addressed to him to Masonic Temple, Peru, Illinois, so that he may formulate a recommendation for the next meeting of the Supreme Executive Board, and earnestly solicits you to express your views.

What do you think about it?

BOOK AND GAVEL CLUB JOINS CALHOUN CHAPTER

The Book and Gavel Club of Yale University law department, by virtue of a special dispensation made at the last meeting of the Supreme Executive Board, will be merged with Calhoun chapter of Phi Alpha Delta at that institution. This club is one of the older clubs at Yale and its roster contains eminent alumni in every nook and corner of the world. It was found that the interests and ideals of Book and Gavel and Phi Alpha Delta were so identical that through the union and concerted activities of the two organizations greater efficiency in the same channels would result. The Fraternity bestows its highest compliments upon this new order of things at Yale.

Mr. Foster is the joint author of Foster & Abbott on Federal Income Tax of 1894, and author of Foster on Federal Practice, and Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States.

The author has selected as his publishers for his latest work, The Lawyers Co-op. Publishing Company of Rochester, New York, known to the profession as "The Co-ops."
