Wanted—Songs!

If P A D needs one thing more than anything else it is

SONGS.

Hence, I beseech every Chapter to send its delegate to the Convention with at least one P A D song. New tunes are not called for.

Nearly all successful College and Fraternity songs are merely new and appropriate words to old tunes. Why not write P A D words for such familiar airs as "Old Black Joe", "Swanee River", "Coming Through the Rye", "Nelly Gray", or such modern airs as "Barney Google", or "Yes, we have no Oranges"!

The help of our Alumni will also be appreciated.

If our Convention does nothing else, I hope that it will evolve at least one good song to be carried back to the Chapters.

The Editor.

P A D Convention News

Joseph S. Carey, Chairman

December 29, 30, 31

Washington, The City beautiful, the capital of these United States has been selected as the convention city for the Nineteenth Annual "get together" of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. The convention dates have been set as December 29, 30 and 31.

Despite the fact that a Sunday intervenes and cuts off one meeting day the convention this year promises to be one of the busiest in the history of the association. Arrangements have been made by the committee in charge of Brother Joe Carey so that all the waking hours of the delegates and those of the Alumnae who may make the biannual pilgrimage will be crowded with business and pleasure that will long remain among their most enjoyable memories.

In anticipation of making this convention the greatest of all, Brother Carey has appointed a committee after great deliberation and care composed of the following Brothers: J. F. Moore, Taft Chapter, Vice Chairman, Job Barnard, Jay Chapter, Vice Chairman, Carlson, Jay, Cosio, Taft, Emerson, Alumnus, Garvey, Alumnus, Kelly, Alumnus, LaBrum Taft, Martindale, Taft, O'Hara, Alumnus, Stevens, Jay, Stewart, Jay. Subcommittees upon whom will fall the duty of attending to some particular phase of the convention have been named as follows: Entertainment Committee, O'Hara, Chairman, Carey, Moore, Barnard, Carlson, LaBrum, New Year's Eve Ball; Moore, Carey, Barnard, Hughes, Stewart, Emerson, Banquet; Barnard, Carey, Kelly, Cosio; Finance, Carey, Barnard, Moore, Garvey, Stevens, Martindale. Other Committees will also be appointed in the course of affairs working up to the actual convention that will be announced later.

Brother Joe Carey, Chairman of the entire committee after a great deal of hard work, has finally made arrangements for Convention Headquarters at Wardman Park Inn, the most fashionable hostelry in the city of Washington and probably the largest hotel of its kind in the world. A satisfactory agreement has been reached with the management of the hotel whereby the entire convention business will be carried on within its doors. Rooms sufficient in number to accommodate all the delegates making the trip as well as any Alumnae who desire to attend the convention have been reserved. The regular business meetings will take place in the spacious grill where for the time being the delegates will be cut off from the world. The sound proof walls giving especial secrecy to everything that goes on within the meeting. The Banquet which will take place on Saturday evening will be held in the spacious east wing of the hotel while the New Years eve ball will take place in the west wing. A booklet descriptive of the hotel will be mailed within the next few days to every Chapter within the confines of the United States. Situated within a short distance from the Union Station it is surrounded on all sides by Shrubbery and Flowers that make the place one of the most beautiful hotels in the world.

Business sessions of the convention will convene sharply at nine o'clock on the morning of December 29th. Due to the fact that there will be but two business meetings during the convention it is urged on every delegate that he be ready for Business on the morning of the 29th at nine o'clock. This is necessary if the arrangements which the committee has made are to be carried out. Saturday night the convention banquet will be held and it is hoped to have as speakers, men of International prominence who at present have their home in Washington. Just who the men will be it is impossible to say at this time as final arrangements are yet to be made. As soon as the plans have been completed, notices in regard to the personnel of the speakers will be forwarded to every Chapter house. Sunday, December 30th, will intervene between the two business days and it is proposed to utilize this time for sight seeing. Many of the delegates as well as Alumnae members are making their first trip to the Capital of the United States and will no doubt be desirous of seeing some of the many places of interest that the city affords. Plans are on foot for the chartering of sufficient sight seeing busses to accommodate all those who desire to take in the places of interest. The National Cemetery at Arlington, the Grave of the Unknown Soldier, the Dewey Tomb, the Maine Mast, the Memorial Amphitheatre, Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, White House, Smithsonian Institute and a host of others are places that every one coming to Washington should see. It was hoped to make arrangements for the party to see Mt. Vernon, the birthplace of George Washington but unless some plans can be made with the trustees of this place it may prove an impossibility as Mt. Vernon is closed on Sunday the only day when it will be possible to make the trip. In lieu of this however, there are other plans afoot that are sure to delight the Brothers who attend the convention. Sunday night will be open house night at the Taft Chapter home, the active members of that Chapter entertaining at a smoker.

The greatest convention in the history of P A D will be closed with an affair that will be remembered in years to come and redound to the great credit of P A D, the New Years Eve Ball. Unless something unforeseen occurs between now and the date set for this gala affair the closing hours of the old year will be filled with breath-taking events that will be marveled at by the visitors to the convention while the New Year will be ushered to the portals in a manner that well befits the occasion. In other words the P A D ball will be the greatest event of the dying year as well as the best event of the new year.

Questionnaires are being prepared and will be sent to all of the Chapters to ascertain just how many men will be present. This is necessary so that the committee may function properly. It is planned to have an active member of one of the local Washington Chapters act as host to two delegates during their entire stay in the city. The entertainment committee are already selecting the man for this duty and it is planned to have the man so designated meet the delegates to whom he will be assigned at the station, convey them to the hotel, see that all their wants are supplied and make them feel at home and comfortable in general. It is also planned if it proves feasible and can be worked out to the satisfaction of the committee to supply every four delegates with a car and a chauffeur which will be at their beck and call during the pleasure hours of the convention.

The Brothers in Washington, both active and Alumnae are very enthusiastic over the convention and virtually all of the men have signified their intention of being on hand and helping in any way that is possible to make this convention a crowning one in the history of P A D. An invitation is extended to all Brother P A D's to taste the hospitality of Washington. Mark the dates and make it a point to be among those present. You will never regret and in years to come it will lead the host of other beautiful memories that are associated with Phi Alpha Delta.

Amendments to Our Constitution

Upon the very eve of going to press, the Editor has received a number of documents pertaining to proposed Amendments to our National Constitution. The Editor believes that they should all be carefully studied by all our brothers, especially the delegates before coming to the Convention. I insist that the Convention is no place for verbal quibbles and mere matters of detail. Nota bene: the Convention's time should be taken up only with broad and enlightening discussions of matters of general policy. Now there are matters of general policy involved in these Amendments. Please come to the Convention prepared to discuss, if at all, the fundamentals after studying the details carefully beforehand! Otherwise all valuable time at the Convention will be utterly lost.—THE EDITOR.

The following letter from Brother Harno, now Dean at Illinois, is worthy of publication.

In glancing over the list of unknowns on page 41 I find myself listed under Calhoun Chapter as Edward J. Harno, Lawrence, Kansas. Now I beg to inform you that I am not an unknown, witness the fact that I am receiving the Quarterly, that my name is not Edward, but Albert, and that I am located, not at Lawrence, but at Urbana, Illinois. I find also in your mailing list my name as Albert J. Harms. Now I think the J has been constant throughout and has remained correct. In the Calhoun list I call your attention also to the name Marshall R. Diggs, whose address you have as Dallas, Texas. Diggs is now at Chicago, his address is 944 Rand McNally Building, with the Walraven Book Cover Company. I also note among Calhoun people the name of William B. Gumbart, Derby, Connecticut. The correct name is William B. Gumbart, his address is with Watrous and Day, New Haven, Connecticut. Clarence E. Barton is also with Watrous and Day in New Haven, Connecticut.

For Magruder Chapter note the following corrections for your unknowns:
Billman, Elliot, Sullivan, Ill.

Britton, Wm. E. University of Indiana Law School, Bloomington, Ind.

Cunningham, Sterling R., 854 Exposition Ave., Dallas, Texas.

Fowler, Mathew, deceased.

Webb, Charles P. 555 N. 18th St., East St. Louis, Ill.

Vice-Justice Rex Hardy, is in Central America. But ye Editor sees no reason why this should bar Rex from promotion. In all cases, the office should seek the man, not the man the office, and rest assured, P. A. D. knows a good man even when in hiding in the jungles of Tropical America.

Says Brother Kitchin of Carolina:

I notice in the November issue of the P A D Quarterly that you included a long list of "Unknown" under the heading "Ruffin Chapter" which did not belong under that heading, as only four of the list were Ruffin. I hope that this is corrected.

Fraternally yours,

Reed Kitchin.

Graduate To Assume Office As Assistant
State's Attorney Tomorrow

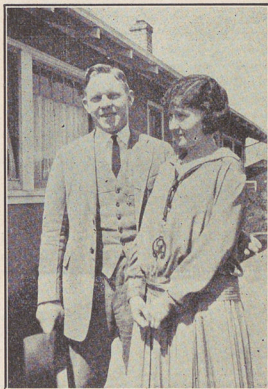

John R. Snively '23, Champaign, will assume the position of assistant state's attorney of Champaign county tomorrow morning. His appointment was announced yesterday by State's Attorney Roy R. Cline. No regular assistant has been employed at the office for several months.

Snively was graduated in 1921 from College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and last June from the College of Law. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta, professional law fraternity.

Vincent Yardum, Rapallo '17, has purchased a home at Scarsdale, New York, where he has recently moved to reside with his wife and two boys. Street number 887 White Plains Road.

Brother Ernest J. Malone, Benson '21, is practicing in Topeka, Kansas, and declares that the older P A D's have been a great help to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Jertberg. Brother Gil of Holmes Chapter, Stanford University, California, joined the ranks of "life-termers" on July 14th, 1923, when he was married to Miss Henrietta Burns of Fresno, California, in the Stanford Memorial Church. Mrs. Jertberg is a very talented violinist, a graduate of the Fresno State Teachers' College, and a most attractive young lady. Brother Gil graduated from Stanford in 1921 with the Juris Doctor Degree, and is now Assistant District Attorney of Fresno County. He was National Delegate from Holmes Chapter to the 1921 P. A. D. Convention, and has been one of the mainstays of Holmes Chapter, having held the offices of Justice, Treasurer and Clerk during his student days at Stanford. He is a member of the national honorary society of Phi Beta Kappa, and of the Theta Chi General Fraternity.

Gordon Mapes, Harold Shepherd and Wesley Seaman, of Holmes Chapter, Stanford University, California, in their official initiating garb. This snap shot was taken in 1922, following the initiation ceremony. At the banquet which followed, Chief Justice Curtis D.

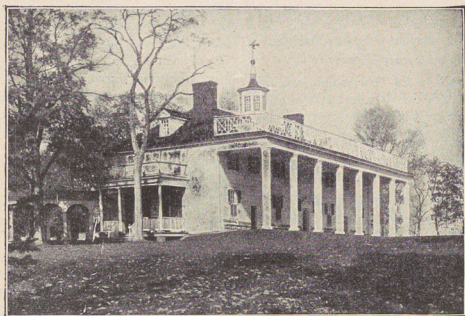

Wilbur of the California Supreme Court and honorary member of Holmes Chapter gave an interesting outline of some of the necessary qualifications of the lawyer.

Brother Mapes since this picture was taken has turned his back on the study of law to take up voice culture. He is now a very talented singer with a bright future before him.

Brother Shepard is now teaching Contracts and Agency in the Stanford Law School. He resigned as Dean of the Wyoming Law School to accept this position as law professor at Stanford. He graduated from Stanford Law Department in 1922 with the Juris Doctor Degree and was elected to membership in the Stanford Chapter of the Order of the Coif. He is a member of Theta Chi General Fraternity. "Shep" is married and has his home in Palo Alto. It is interesting to note the brotherly attitude of Brother Shepard—for on his resigning as Dean of the Wyoming Law School he saw to it that another Holmes brother, Jerry Driscoll, was there to take his place as Dean.

Brother Wesley A. Seaman finishes his law work at Stanford in December of this year, and expects to hurdle the California Bar Examinations in January. Thereafter he will be found practicing law in his father's office in Marshfield, Oregon, until he decides on a permanent location in California. Brother "Wes" has been Clerk of Holmes Chapter for the past two years, having been elected to that position three consecutive terms. He was married in 1920 while a student at Stanford, and became a proud father of a ten pound boy on August 21st, 1923. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi General Fraternity.

MOUNT VERNON

The following Timely News Bulletin of our esteemed General Secretary is worthy of publication:

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SECRETARY

NOVEMBER BULLETIN

To the Chapters of Phi Alpha Delta:

In conformity with the provisions of the Constitution you are herewith presented with certain proposed amendments to the Constitution of Phi Alpha Delta which will be presented to and considered by the Nineteenth National Convention to be convened at Washington, D. C., December 29, 30 and 31.

Several epoch-making changes are herewith presented and I consider this the most important convention for some years with the exception of the Seventeenth, when the present constitution was adopted. There is much food for thought in the accompanying proposals. I am particularly pleased to present so many proposals from alumni members and Past Supreme Officers, evidencing their continued love for and interest in their Fraternity. It is hoped that every individual member of the Chapter will study the proposals submitted, and, of course, particularly the Convention delegates. At the present time the Supreme Executive Board is seriously considering the advisability of arranging to continue the Convention for four days, as it seems hardly possible to properly pass upon the various questions properly within the three days' time, especially since Sunday intervenes.

Within a short time you will be advised of Convention plans. In this letter I desire to call your attention to a few of the proposed amendments. At first sight you will probably be amazed at what is apparently an increase in the initiation fee. A further reading, however, will disclose that this is merely consolidating the first year's per capita tax and the initiation fee. Should the per capita tax be reduced it will be necessary to change the amount suggested to conform therewith. This should obviate the constant discussion of per capita taxes where members are initiated and where Chapters are installed the latter part of the school year.

An amendment reducing the per capita tax is submitted. This is, of necessity, a question of vital importance, for its decision means that our Fraternity must continue as it did prior to 1919 with a loose organization, constant financial embarrassment, a struggle to get together enough money to pay all of the expenses of the delegates to the conventions, followed by pro rating the amount received to partially cover the same, inability to look after Chapters temporarily in bad condition for lack of funds for traveling expenses, and sometimes a loss of the Chapter, inability to secure membership certificates, etc., for lack of organization, or playing second or third fiddle to our rivals; or progress which we have experienced during the past four years where for the first time in the history of our Fraternity we are constantly being petitioned by groups in schools where no law Fraternities have Chapters, an endowment fund for Chapter houses, regular and systematic Chapter inspection and businesslike administration. Bearing in mind the constantly increasing cost of education when I compare our present condition with that prior to 1919 I confess that I dislike to contemplate a return to the old days. However, that is a question for you to decide. Upon that decision rests the decision of the other proposals. It strikes me merely as a question of value received. What do you want to buy, a Fraternity pin and a name or a real Fraternity?

You may ask if it is not possible to slightly reduce the tax without a return to the awful condition I depict. Possibly, but what organization have you ever known was able to stand still? No, we must either progress or go back, one or the other.

In proposing to repeal that portion of the Constitution having to do with the District Organization, we had in mind raising the question and submitting the same to the Chapters so that amendments might be offered at the Convention to in some manner reorganize the Districts so that some good might come of them. I think that all will agree that at the present time they do not answer the desired purpose. I do not know what the solution is, but I sincerely hope that this Convention will find it.

The proposal providing for Chapter inspection by the General Secretary is particularly interesting, as Phi Delta Phi has a proposal for submission to their National Convention, to be held in Gainesville, Fla., coincident with ours, providing for a full-time Secretary with Chapter inspection.

It is very easy for careless Chapter officers to neglect their duties, fail to report initiations properly and to allow the Chapter debt to the Supreme Chapter to assume large proportions. They then go out of office and leave to their successors an unfair burden and make it extremely difficult for the Chapter to meet its financial obligations. Too many times have I found men who had been initiated for over a year and not reported. I have pointed out in the past the unfairness of this procedure to every one concerned. It is for the purpose of avoiding this and not for the purpose of denying a Chapter representation at Convention that the penalties suggested have been presented, but there should be some penalty for procrastination in order to correct it.

Numerous inquiries have come regarding the expense of delegates to Convention. The constitution provides that each active Chapter shall be entitled to two delegates and that the Supreme Chapter shall pay the expenses of but one delegate. This delegate may cast both votes of the Chapter or the Chapter may defray the expenses of the other delegate. In many instances delegates split the expenses, each defraying one-half of his own. The Supreme Chapter in the past, and I presume will follow the same custom, has allowed a minimum of three dollars per day for meals en route and at the Convention. Allowances for hotel accommodations are based upon the rate secured in the Convention City. Railroad fare is based on the shortest distance to the Convention City and Pullman fares are allowed except for short distances.

At the present time the plan is to have at least one Pullman on the Santa Fe out of Kansas City on the night of the 27th of December to be joined by one or two more Pullmans out of Chicago on the Pennsylvania at 1.30 P. M., December 28th, arriving in Washington at 9 A. M., December 29th. All delegates are urged to write me as soon as possible for reservations on these Pullmans.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

F. M. LUDWICK.

After going to press we received the following card, which shows that Phi Alpha Delta is by no means dead in Little Old New York:

NOTICE TO NEW YORK ALUMNI
PHI ALPHA DELTA

There will be an old-fashioned Alumni smoker on Thursday, December 6, 1923, at 6 o'clock P. M., at the Fulton Restaurant and Chop House, 116 Fulton Street, Manhattan (one flight up and turn to the left). Dinner will be a la carte and should not cost more than $1.50.

There will be a short special meeting of the Alumni Chapter at the same time.

The purpose of this gathering is two-fold:

One of the purposes is to develop the "Pal" in Rapallo; the other to revive old-time Thursday night dinners.

Make a special effort to attend and indicate this intention by the enclosed postal card so that approximate reservations can be made for adequate refreshments.

Dated, New York, November 15, 1923.

NEWS FROM THE CHAPTERS

BENSON CHAPTER

BROTHER RUBERT G. MARTIN

With the opening of the 1923-1924 school year, Benson Chapter started their fourth year as a Chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, and in my opinion we justly feel proud of the progress we have made in the short time we have been established in the Washburn College Law School.

Since our inception in the Law School we have controlled all elections and this year we placed the following men in the Law School offices; William K. Thompson, president; Duffie Hindman, Law School representative to the Student Council, Edward Curry, Law School representative on the Board of Control of the student publication, The Washburn Review.

At the beginning of the year we pledged ten of the best men in the school and all are showing that they are worthy of the honor of wearing the Phi Alpha Delta pledge pin. The following are the pledges: Theodore Metz, Lincoln, Kansas; Arthur M. Teed, Amarillo, Tex.; Guy Ward, Sharon Springs, Kan.; Leslie French and Clinton Gaston, Beloit, Kansas; George Templar, Arkansas City, Kansas; Dale Bryant, Greeley, Kansas; Paul Latcher, Blackwell, Oklahoma; Alden Sparks, Goodland, Kansas; and Lee Crist, Mound City, Missouri.

As other recognitions of the ability of P A D's Earl Hatcher of the class of 1923 has recently been appointed by the Supreme Court of this state as Assistant Supreme Court Reporter, and Brother Barton E. Griffith has become affiliated with the firm of O'Neal and Hamilton in the practice of law in Topeka.

The chapter has chosen Brothers Roy N. McCue and Charles G. Dockhorn as our first and second delegates and Brothers William K. Thompson and Duffie Hindman as first and second alternates, to the National Convention to be held in Washington in December. We are expecting both brothers to go and we are sure that the chapter as a whole will derive much benefit from the reports that they will bring back.

We have given one party so far this year and have another date this semester for January 19, so as there is quite a period between the two parties we intend to make the next one the "meanest" possible. We are always very glad to have visiting brothers with us and would be very happy if some of the brothers from other chapters could be at our parties. Phi Alpha Delta has been recognized by the president of Washburn, Parley P. Womer, as the leading body in the Law School in that he has asked the chapter to join with him in giving a reception for the Dean of the Law School, Brother Harry K. Allen, which will be given in the near future.

Washburn Law School started out with a BANG this year with an enrollment of about seventy-five, in spite of the new ruling which forbade Freshmen from taking the combined five year law and college course. A prosperous year for the law school means a prosperous one for P A D so we are all working hard in the interests of the institution.

P A D is well represented on the football team this year with three letter men and two freshmen who have made the squad. Following are the men: Hall, Hindman, Steermen, Gaston and Templar.

Benson Chapter is pleased to announce the initiation of two new men who have proved themselves worthy of P A D: Harry A. Chaffee, of Leonardville, Kansas, who was a pledge at Green Chapter for two years and came to Washburn to enter the law school and R. Wilford Riegle of St. John, Kansas. The chapter had intended to initiate Brother Riegle last spring but as he had made a previous engagement with a young lady, a probate judge and a preacher, the initiation was postponed until this fall.

We repeat our previous invitations for all P A D's who are in Topeka to make our Chapter House their headquarters.

CALHOUN CHAPTER

BROTHER DOUGLAS S. CRITZ

So that Alumni and Brothers of Phi Alpha Delta may know the degree of control exercised by the Fraternity in the Yale Law School Calhoun Chapter announces the election of six out of seven members to the Student Council, one officer on the Law Journal, and several members on the Law Journal Board. At the close of the present competition for Board members, we confidently expect to add the names of several more Brothers,—thus welding one more link to our chain of endeavor.

This success in extra-fraternal activities has enabled the Chapter to adopt a conservative policy in the selection of new members. Since the opening of the present session four men have been initiated. Furthermore, we have been glad to welcome and affiliate three Brothers in Phi Alpha Delta who have come to us from other law schools. The interest and enthusiasm of our new Brothers augurs well for the future of the Chapter, and, in a great measure, consoles us for the loss of several influential Brothers, whose graduation thinned our ranks.

To those graduating Brothers and other Alumni, Calhoun Chapter extends her right hand in full fellowship for their success and continued interest. To their efforts, we owe our present standing in the Law School; upon their continuing support depends our future. May they remember that a Chapter is as strong as its Alumni.

For their benefit and for the benefit of all P A D's who may be in the vicinity of New Haven it is important to note that the Chapter House is now located at 196 York Street. Still leasing, it is true, but quite an improvement on the quarters of last year.

It is here that Calhoun Chapter lives, works, and plays. The house is quite large and comfortable. The entire third floor is used for sleeping quarters. The second floor contains the legal workshop of the Chapter. Here the Brothers give themselves up to the pursuit of legal principles and the study of law for law's sake. Upon the first floor we hold our weekly Council. By the simple device of separating sliding doors the greater portion of downstairs is instantly converted into a suitable reception hall.

We are now upon the scene of several successful Smokers. These Smokers, held primarily for the purpose of meeting prospective initiates, are frequently attended by members of the Faculty. The interest and pleasure manifested by the Faculty upon these informal occasions is quite contagious. We are assured of their sincere cooperation in all our efforts. Truthfully, the Yale Law School is a fraternal unit, of which Calhoun Chapter is proud to be a part.

CAMPBELL CHAPTER

BROTHER CHARLES F. NOONAN

Campbell Chapter is happy, through the medium of the "Quarterly," to greet all of the chapters in Phi Alpha Delta and to wish for them a very prosperous and profitable year. We are glad to report that the year for our chapter has started most auspiciously and that every man feels that this is to be the best year of a great many fine ones.

Practically every man returned to school this Fall after spending pleasant vacations and shortly after the beginning of the term our rushing season opened. We feel that our rushing program has been a real success and the caliber of men obtained bespeaks even further success during the year. John Ross, Jack Page, Arthur Robinson, Kenneth Galbreath, Lawrence Henderson, Maxwell Fead, Samuel Post and Edward Yost constitute the body of pledge brothers of Campbell Chapter. Our initiation will be held in the early part of December.

Brothers Oswald and McCobb were selected to represent this chapter at the National Convention in December. These brothers as well as the rest of the members feel that this convention will be one of the most important ever held by the fraternity and are looking forward to a most constructive meeting which will lead to greater achievements in the future.

Our chapter is very well represented this year, as it has been in past years, in general campus activities. Brother Lynch is president of the Michigan Union, brother Boyer is vice president of the Union and also a member of the student council, brother Murane is inter-scholastic athletic manager, pledge brother Ross is editor of "The Bent," the national magazine of Tau Beta Pi, while brothers Clark and Ryan are associate editors of the Law Review.

The law department of the University of Michigan during the past year was the recipient of one of the largest single donations ever given to an educational institution in this country. An unnamed donor has provided upwards of twenty millions of dollars for the erection of a "Lawyers Club" which will be the finest thing of its kind in the world. The immense building will provide living quarters for the law students, club rooms, libraries, recreation centers. The first unit of the building is well under way. It is planned to make this club a headquarters for lawyers and jurists of the state and nation and in this way to bring the student body into close touch with the practical men of the law profession. Quite naturally the men of Campbell Chapter feel very proud and happy over the prospects such an institution will make possible.

In conclusion Campbell Chapter again sends its very best wishes to all of the chapters and trusts that through our representatives at the National Convention we will be brought into a closer bond of friendship, co-operation and understanding, with all of the other units of our great fraternity.

CAPEN CHAPTER

BROTHER J. DELMAR DUNN

The School year started off with a rush for Capen Chapter, and there is more pep and interest than has been shown here for a number of years.

The chapter house is again located at 1206 North Madison Street, and twelve of last year's active chapter answered the roll call for the start of this school year. They are Kenneth E. Peirce, James O. Gallimore, John C. Gerling the Justice, Elmer G. Henning, Harold N. Mathis, Harold Zimmerman, Paul C. Watkins, John P. Noonan, John F. Twomey, Harry A. Slack, Charles Van Note and Cleatus Clobus.

The first smoker and housewarming we had was on the night of September 19th, and we had a good program arranged. All of the active members and a number of Alumni were present, and Dean Charles L. Capen, father of our chapter was present and he certainly enjoyed being with the boys again.

Dean Capen has presented the active chapter with his latest photograph, and it is a good likeness of the man whom our chapter was named for. Dean Capen certainly takes a good bit of interest in our boys and we are mighty proud of him.

We sat around and talked over old times, etc., for a good while and then we were entertained by two colored entertainers, and then enjoyed a fine concert by Brother Cleatus Clobus' orchestra. Just as we were winding up with a little lunch, Brothers Gallimore and Zimmerman broke in the front door, just coming in from Little Egypt, in Southern Illinois. They received a royal welcome and it seemed like home to them.

We invited a good many freshmen over for the evening and when the dust cleared away at the end of the evening we had ten men pledged. The following took the pledge that evening: Fletcher Coleman, Danville, Illinois, Lyle Anderson, St. Paul, Minnesota, Esco Verle Payne, Bloomington, Illinois, Joseph Pomeroy, Carmi, Illinois, Theodore Liston Arbogast, Bloomington, Illinois, Kenneth Herman Noll, Bloomington, Illinois, Charles Moberg, Mt. Pulaski, Illinois, James P. Quinn, Decatur, Illinois, Clifford Hakes, Dana, Illinois, Thomas J. Wallrich, Chatsworth, Illinois.

We consider that we have a mighty fine bunch of fellows this year and they are certainly making things lively around the house. Another smoker was enjoyed the following evening, and the following day everyone started into school and got off to a fine start.

On the evening of September 29th, the Chapter held their first weiner roast and marshmallow party about 3 miles south of town, and it certainly was a fine time, over thirty of our members and their lady friends from the sororities being there, and they are anxious for another such party.

Preparations are now going on for the Annual Hallowe'en party and it is planned to take a trip to a nearby town and indications are that this party will exceed all others.

Three of the boys have invested some money in a community car and they are certainly having a good time with it.

Prospects are very bright at Illinois Wesleyan University this year. The school is larger than ever and the law school now is coming up to the point where it was before the war. There is a fine large Freshman class.

Wesleyan's football team is undefeated to date, and the big Homecoming this year is with Bradley, another undefeated team. We are expecting a large number of Alumni back.

A committee was appointed this week from the Alumni to look into the matter of purchasing a new home. We are taking an option on a fine home on Franklin Square here where the other fraternity homes are located. The home belongs to Congressman Frank H. Funk, and its is indeed an ideal fraternity home.

A committee of Richard F. Dunn, Ralph Heffernan, of the Alumni, and Paul C. Watkins and Harry Slack of the Active Chapter, has been appointed to carry on the campaign, and we have already an excellent start.

Brother John Culbertson, Jr., was a visitor at the house this week.

The Alumni are coming out and visiting the chapter and taking a good bit of interest this year.

There is a new ruling passed by the Supreme Court of Illinois which is going to affect the law schools all over this state and will also affect all the law fraternities at these schools. The new ruling will require all those who study law to take the bar examination in this state to have at least 72 weeks of pre-legal education prior to entering law school. This rule of course does not affect those who in good faith began the study of law prior to July 1st, 1924. Those entering school between July 1st, 1924 and July 1st, 1925, will be required to have 36 weeks of pre-legal education, and those entering and applying for the bar after July 1st, 1925, will be required to have 72 weeks of pre-legal work.

This rule also states that those failing the first examination will have to skip one examination before taking it again, and those failing the second time will have to wait two examinations before taking it again, and those who fail it five times will not be permitted to take it again, and shall never practice law in Illinois.

There is no question but what this rule is a good one and will raise the standing of the law schools and the legal profession.

Just what effect this will have on the law schools and fraternities will be hard to tell just yet. It will affect us the first year or two but we feel that this school here will survive the crisis like it always has before, and of course while the school is going thru this period the local chapter of Phi Alpha Delta will also face a crisis which they have faced during the war period, but we feel that we can survive it again as we did during the period following the war.

From our point of view here it would seem that we have hard times ahead of us unless the National Convention this year decides to raise the ban and allow the pledging of pre-legal students. We would like to have some expression of views on this point.

We sincerely wish the other chapters a successful year and hope that any brother of Phi Alpha Delta who happens to pass thru Bloomington will stop and pay us a visit. You are a'ways welcome here.

CHAMP CLARK CHAPTER

BROTHER B. G. CARPENTER

"Greetings Brothers!" Champ Clark Chapter knows that its Brother Chapters are always anxious to receive news of the growth and success of the younger organizations. P. A. D. has been on Washington University campus only two years and without wishing to appear conceited, we wish to enumerate some of the achievements of our chapter and of its brilliant active and graduate members. We are few in number at the present time, this due to the fact that the Pre-legal college requirement has been raised to two years thus making our Junior Law class very small, but firm in the behalf that it is quality and not quantity that counts, we see to it that each P. A. D. is upon his toes and fighting every minute.

The race for Senior Class honors is confined to members of P. A. D. Our noble Justice Frank Aschemeyer has the highest average thus far, while Brother Irving Spencer is running a close second. Brother Aschemeyer's average for three years is right close to the 95% mark. Not Bad. Two of the active members were recently successful in passing the Missouri Bar, namely, Brothers Fania and Spencer. Immediately upon obtaining recognition these two gentlemen embarked on their professional careers with a rush. Brother Spencer has been absent from his classes for the past week and the unofficial report is that he had the misfortune to stub his toe while he was industriously pursuing an ambulance. Severe injuries were sustained, to wit: sprains, lacerations, contusions, fractures and abrasions of the above mentioned member, all to the damage of the plaintiff etc., etc., Brother Fania is engaged in legitimate practice.

A joint banquet has been arranged for Nov. 22nd, to be held at the Marquette Hotel. The Alumni and the active chapter will join hands in making the occasion a notable one. Four or five pledges will be initiated at this time.

Former Justice Paul Richards is rapidly achieving success as a practicing lawyer.

Brother Nick Semple is a shining light on the Varsity football team and has further honored us by pulling down the presidency of the Middle Law class.

Brother Langan was recently elected president of the Junior class of the University. Another P. A. D. triumph.

It is to be regretted that Brothers Aubrey Foiles and Harry Hughes were unable to return to school this year.

Champ Clark Chapter will be nobly represented at the National Convention. James Christensen and Frank Aschemeyer will make the trip.

Another feather was added to Brother Aschemeyer's cap when he was appointed editor-in-chief of the St. Louis Law Review. Brothers Covert and Spencer are editorial assistants.

CORLISS CHAPTER

BROTHER AARON T. JAHR

The opening of the present school year found all the old members of Corliss Chapter, with the exception of those who graduated last spring, present and trying, with varying degrees of success, to induce the old brain to function properly after the prolonged period of non-user incidental to the summer holidays.

The indications are that we will have a very successful year. This is true at least so far as the number of members is concerned. Due to the unprecedented increase in the enrollment of the law school we have been able, up to the present time, to pledge nine men, and still bear in mind the policy of making our strength depend primarily upon the quality of the men chosen and not upon mere numbers. The names of the men pledged up to date are as follows: Alfred Thorwaldson, Wm. DePuy, Edgar Massee, P. C. Hanson, John Mohn, H. Constance, Lyle Rogers, Clifford F. Couey, Carl Plain, Nels Johnson.

We have with us this year Br. H. G. Swenson, who was absent from school last year. He was working in his father's law office, and, no doubt, showed that gentleman how the concern should be run.

The officers of the Chapter for the present year are the same as last year; namely, Justice, G. A. Lindell; Vice Justice, Wm. Freeman; Clerk and Treasurer, A. T. Jahr.

The election of delegates to the National Convention has been a live topic, and was settled by the selection of our Justice, Br. Lindell, as the person to make the sacrifice. To the credit of the other members it may be said that they all offered their services. He is at present taking vocal exercises, so as to insure being in good working order at the opening of the convention.

DUNBAR CHAPTER

BROTHER JO D. COOK

Academic life at the University of Washington is in full swing once more, and Dunbar Chapter is off to another big year. Eighteen of our brothers returned to school this fall, so the chapter has a good nucleus with which to begin the year's work. This number will be added to shortly when we pledge the new men for this year.

The fraternity elected officers at the banquet held at the Hotel New Washington last spring, at which time the initiation reported in the May Quarterly was held. At that time Joseph Nievinski was elected Justice, and it is under his able guidance that we are progressing now. The other officers elected were: Vice-Justice, Julian Mathews; Clerk, Maurice Orth; Treasurer, Arthur A. Anderson; Marshal, Lester Parker; and Corresponding Secretary, Jo D. Cook.

The main topic for discussion at the recent meetings of the fraternity has been the pledging of new members. It is a little too early in the school year to take any definite action on new men, but the prospects in the Freshman Law Class are good, and by the time of the publication of the next Quarterly we are confident that we will be able to announce the pledging of the best men in this group. The Convention to be held shortly has also been discussed and Dunbar Chapter has elected as its delegates Joseph Nievinski and Julian Mathews. The alternates are Bartlet Rum-mell and Fred Boynton.

Brother Leslie J. Ayer has returned to resume his duties with the Law School faculty. Brother Ayer absented himself from Seattle during the latter part of last year to fulfill a teaching contract with Leland Stanford, Jr. University, but he says that he is glad to be back at Washington, and we are surely glad to have him with us once more. He has recently been appointed as one of nine members of the American Athletic Board to control American entries into the Olympic Games.

The end of the first quarter is fast approaching and with it the regular exams., so from now on we intend to hit the books with some degree of regularity in order that our scholastic average will continue to remain above reproach.

THE CAPITAL BUILDING

GREEN CHAPTER

BY BROTHER LLOYD S. ROBERTS

Green Chapter started the year of 1923-24 off with the return of sixteen men.* Since that time fifteen pledges have been added and because of their caliber we are looking forward to a brilliant year. The following men have been pledged.

Chester Brewer	Independence, Ks.
Harold Paine	Lawrence, Ks.
Wallace Wolfe	Goodland, Ks.
Webb Hallet	St. Joseph, Mo.
Lewis Huber	Lawrence, Ks.
Arthur Ames	Clafin, Ks.
Lee Douglas	Coffeyville, Ks.
Virgil Sheely	Kansas City, Mo.
Guy Crews	Lawrence, Ks.
Clarence Beck	Lawrence, Ks.
Francis Prosser	Lawrence, Ks.
John Finny	St. Francis, Ks.
Ralph Noah	Lawrence, Ks.
John Fontron	Hutchinson, Ks.

The faculty of the law school has also been strengthened by the addition of Brother Van Hecke from South Carolina. Besides his being a valuable asset to the law school we have found him to be an enthusiastic P A D. This addition to the faculty gives the Kansas Law School a faculty of seven extremely able men, three of whom are P A D's.

During the summer our house was painted inside and outside, and many other minor improvements were made to add to our comfort.

The officers for the year are:

Justice	Frank Snell
Vice Justice	Willard Wolfinbarger
Clerk	John Blake
Treasurer	Leonard Topp

In the honors of the Law School, we have the following: Pres. of the Law School, Brother Wolfinbarger, Sec. and Treas. of the Law School, Brother Ice, Pres. of the Law School Council, Brother Snell, Sec. and Treas. of Law School Council, Brother Waunch. Brother Waunch is Vice President of the second year laws and pledge Huber is Secretary of the third year laws. Outside of the Law School we have Brother Claudel the President of the Professional Inter-Fraternity Council.

The honor system was adopted by the Law School and it is the only school on the campus to have this system.

Brother Snell has been chosen as one of the five candidates from the University for the Rhodes Scholarship and the chapter has high hopes that he may receive the appointment.

On the third of October the chapter received a blow that will be remembered by the four thousand students of the University. About dusk of that day a canoe containing three members of this chapter upset in the Kaw River. Two of the brothers made the bank but Brother Johnston, after swimming nearly a mile was caught by an undertow and taken under never to return. The chapter deeply mourns his loss.

Brother Thomas Johnston like many of those taken so early in life, was considered by the student body and the faculty of the Law School as an outstanding man. No sport was too strenuous for him and yet with all his love for the great outdoors Johnston was a student of both men and books. In the Law School his name was always on the Honor Roll. He was president of his class and his popularity was intensified because of his athletic and scholastic ability.

The Chapter is sending two delegates to the National Convention. They are Brothers Waunch and Snell.

On Thanksgiving day Kansas plays her ancient enemy Missouri on the stadium field at Lawrence. We are expecting about 25,000 here on that day. In the evening the chapter will entertain with a house dance for the old grade that come back to help put the knot in the Missouri Tiger's tail.

The following are a few notes which we think might be of interest to the fraternity in general:

After a two years' migration, Kenneth Gunby is on the legal staff of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., New York City, where he reports a membership of 200 in the K. U. Alumni Association.

Harold Goodwin, '21, county attorney of Lyon County, Russel Springs, Kansas, reports that liquor convictions are few and far between. He advocates a BIG REUNION HERE ON THE 28th and 29th, TURKEY DAY, after the STATE BAR MEETING. That strikes the Chapter fine. Come back, old Grad, renew your former friendships, and make some more here in the active chapter.

From Pittsburg, Kansas, Robert L. Robertson says he is getting along in fine shape. Brothers District Judge George F. Beezley, County Attorney C. A. Burnett, and his assistant, L. M. Ressler, help to relieve the monotony there.

City Counselor Alva F. Lindsay, Roy O. Lindsay, William Morton and John W. Mitchell make up our list at St. Joseph, Mo. We enjoyed a visit from Mitchell last year, and recalled many occasions when he occupied the Justice's seat here.

Burney Miller, county attorney of Allen County with headquarters at Iola, reports that he is "concerned mainly with the three 'Bs' of the county attorney's life, namely, booze, bandits and bad checks." Sam Sifers is also at Iola, as well as our last year's Justice, George Gard, the latter having become one or the more prominent citizens there.

City Attorney Alanzo R. Buzick, for the last six years at Salina, reports that his nephew from this chapter, Donald B. Lang, is associated with him. Norris Johnson and Lane Dutton, '23, are also located here.

We are pleased to state that Harold F. Matton, '17, Beatrice, Neb., received an overwhelming majority in his race for county attorney of Gage County, Nebraska, and also that he secured convictions in his first three cases, which by the way, happened to be murder cases.

Mark H. Adams has quit his county attorney's job of Texas County, Oklahoma, and is now in the legal department of the Federal Land Bank at Wichita.

O. R. Baum, a charter member, is judge of the Fifth Judicial District with resident chambers at American Falls, Idaho.

Paul Ross, clerk in 1914, is secretary of the Whitewater Mills Company at Whitewater, Kansas, and from his donations to the house fund we judge that things are very successful with him.

Roland Boynton is at Emporia where he is county attorney of Lyon County.

J. M. Fisher of Kansas City, says that business is good.

Ulysses A. Gribble, '23, is practicing in Helena, Montana, while Hal Curran is at Casper, Wyoming.

Bob Bacon is at Mineola, Kansas.

Edwin E. Brookens, a charter member, may be reached in the State House, Topeka. Every year he and his two sons pay us several visits.

E. F. Goodrich, general agent of the Bankers Life, is located in Seneca.

Jack Delaney, '22, is practicing at Troy, Kansas.

C. E. Youse, '18, is out at Baxter Springs, Kansas.

Arthur D. Hemphill, back for the Aggie game, says his insurance business is going fine, and announces an addition to his family.

Victor Woodward, '21, city attorney of Oberlin, is the proud father of a baby girl.

Elbert Hensley, '23, is located in the fair city of Los Angeles, while Fred Davis, '23, is down at Muskogee, Okla., as a railroad attorney. Doc Neumann, '23, is associated with Assistant State Prosecuting Attorney Armstrong at Carlsbad, New Mexico.

The following men have paid us visits this year: Bill Williams and Blake Williamson, '23; Fred Whitten, '16; Chester Vance, '21; George Miner, '22, county attorney at Ellsworth; Jack Delaney, '22; Jack Bond, Arthur Hemphill, and C. P. Embry of the firm of Pringle, Embry, Brown & Stephenson, Wichita, who presented us with a box of cigars with the compliments of the firm.

HAY CHAPTER

BROTHER JAMES L. TUGMAN

When the doors of Western Reserve Law School opened for business Sept. 19th, there were found on the rolls of the upper classes the names of nineteen men from Hay Chapter. Within a week Brother Justice Craig Starn had a pledging committee scouting for the likeliest material for P A D brothers among the host of Freshmen who have gathered from colleges and cities from all parts of the country to study law at Reserve. Ten men from eight colleges have been pledged to date. Three of them, namely, Burri, Sample and Wallace, a second year man, took their undergraduate work at Adelbert College of Western Reserve; Davis is from Hiram; Porter hails from Ohio Wesleyan, Agin comes from Ohio Northern, Dick claims Holy Cross for alma mater, Heighway went to Mount Union, Falls took his A. B. at Thiels, and last but not least is Vince from Washington and Jefferson, a gridiron star listed in the lineup of the Cleveland pro team.

Brothers Hahn and Conners of the Senior class are back at their books setting an example for study to the rest of the brothers. Brother Hildred seems to have caught the fever and it is seldom that he can be persuaded to leave the library.

Brother Jim Butler is a candidate for the Cleveland Council and with the able services of Brother Ed Butler as campaign manager it seems likely that Brother Jim will sit with the City Fathers after January 1st.

Brothers Sidnell and Whitney are back as second year men after a season of school teaching. The Phi Beta Kappa Brothers, Chapla and McCabe are shining again in the second year class. Brothers Dray, Gunn, Jones and Reynolds were asked to attend as representatives of the middle class at the moving of the Chapter from 11452 Euclid Ave. to 11448 Euclid Ave. Brother Hoynes of the Senior Class was on hand at the party as agent for his class brothers living outside the house. Brother Kitchen was unable to come, the business of campaigning for Constable for East Cleveland being too strenuous.

Hay Chapter has bright prospects for the year and will avail herself of them to the utmost. She sends best wishes to all chapters.

HOLMES CHAPTER

BROTHERS ROSS, FISHER AND WESLEY SEAMAN

Holmes Chapter sends the season's greetings to all members of Phi Alpha Delta. We hope that all the chapters of the fraternity may prosper during this new school year and carry on the good work of the fraternity.

This chapter feels that we have had a very successful year just past, and hope to do even better along certain lines this coming year.

Among the things of which Holmes Chapter feels justly proud is the acquisition to our Honorary membership roll of four professors from our law faculty, Professors Joseph Walter Bingham, Arthur Martin Cathcart, Marion Rice Kirkwood and William Brownlee Owens, who were initiated May 26th, 1923. We were very delighted to have with us at this initiation Supreme Justice Frank L. Fawcett, and we enjoyed the interesting and enlightening talk which he gave at our banquet in the evening. We initiated as active members at the same time—Milo Rowell, Charles Hobson, and Dallas Barrett.

We owe Brother George L. Stewart, of the San Francisco Alumni, a vote of thanks for the efforts he put forth in making the above mentioned initiation a grand success. "Apple Sauce" does not go very far, but we wish to put up Brother Stewart as one of the most active, inspiring, and finest type of P. A. D. members Holmes Chapter has met. We are glad to have him so close to us.

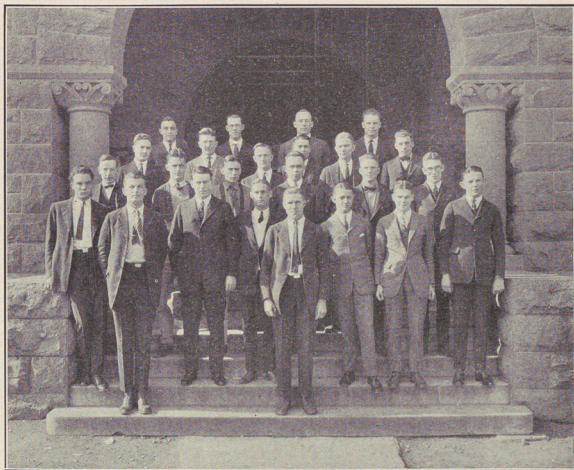

Holmes Chapter and Phi Delta Phi began an annual debate custom in 1922. In that year Brother Harold Shepherd and Ralph Scott debated for Holmes Chapter against Phi Delta Phi and received the unanimous decision of the three judges. The debate was so interesting that it has been made an annual affair in the Stanford Law School. Last year, 1923, we were represented by Brother Philip Smith and Edward Landels, but we were defeated by a two to one decision. We were unlucky enough to get the task of upholding the secondary boycott, which is quite a difficult undertaking under our present law.

However other honors which did not depend on "luck" did come our way last year. Each academic year the three law students having the highest grades for their law school work are selected for membership in the Order of the Coif. In 1922 the Stanford Chapter of the Order of the Coif elected two of the three men from Holmes Chapter. Brother Harold Shepherd and Brother Everett Layman were elected. In 1923, last year, Holmes Chapter came to the front with the election of all three men from Holmes Chapter. Brothers William B. Backlund, Clair M. Senior, and Matthew C. Simpson received certificates of membership in the Stanford Chapter of the Order of the Coif. Stanford considers this election the highest honor that can come to a law student while in college.

The report of the Scholarship Committee of the University has just been published and this is what our college paper states concerning the record of Holmes Chapter for 1922-3. "the group having the highest average on the campus is, as is to be expected, Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity. The law fraternity, Phi Alpha Delta, ranks SECOND; this group shows the greatest improvement of any in the University, rising from 1.690 for 1921-2, to 2.086 for this year, 1922-3, which is above a "B." average. Third place is held by the English Club. In 1922 Holmes Chapter stood sixth on the list. In 1923 we stood SECOND. Wait until you see our record for this year, 1924. The 1923 record is based on the grades made by twenty-four men, who constituted our active chapter last year.

Holmes Chapter now has on record one hundred and seventy members, including alumni and active members. We have twelve active members now in college. On our law faculty we have six members out of the eight, four of whom are our recently initiated honorary members, another being Brother Harold Shepherd of Holmes Chapter, and the sixth being Brother Benjamin L. Holland who is a member of Green Chapter.

We have no fraternity house here but each member either lives in his own general fraternity, or in one of the Halls, or in Palo Alto. It is therefore difficult to get the brothers together and to keep their interests centered in P A D. We feel that we have accomplished more lasting results in the past year than most chapters of P A D can boast of, considering our situation here and the difficulties we must contend with.

By the way—if any alumni of Holmes Chapter has possession of the old minute books, or our original Chapter Charter, or knows who has, or might have possession of, or might be able to tell us who has or might have them, please write to Holmes Chapter at once, addressing, W. A. Seaman, Stanford University. We have no records of who our honorary members are, nor who our early initial members were, nor have we any correspondence prior to January, 1920. Please think hard, for Holmes Chapter needs these papers badly.

In concluding Holmes Chapter sends its best wishes to all P. A. D.'s and especially to all alumni of Holmes Chapter.

Written up Oct. 26, 1923.

JOHN JAY CHAPTER

BROTHER PARLEY P. ECCLES

The beginning of the new school year at George Washington University finds the John Jay Chapter of P. A. D. more anxious than ever to meet and uphold the ideals of the Fraternity.

This is especially true in view of the fact that last year, of the seven honor men in the University, six were P. A. D.'s—a standard hard to equal, but which we hope not only to equal, but to surpass during the present year.

With this thought being kept prominently in mind, we are going ahead with a schedule of smokers and dinners which is calculated to bring us into close touch with the keenest of the students entering the University. At these socials we are featuring good-fellowship speeches and enthusiastic talks by the best legal minds in the District of Columbia. Prominent among those who have so willingly assisted us, is Brother Houston Thompson, Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, upon whom we have recently had the pleasure of conferring Honorary Membership. Brother Thompson has proven himself to be a real P. A. D., and his contagious smile goes a long way toward removing any restraint which a new man might feel upon his first visit with us.

Nor have we neglected our P. A. D. songs at our gatherings, and at the Convention, when you hear a wonderful basso and a tuneful tenor dominating the lesser voices, you will know that Brothers Barnard and Robey are getting under way.

At the recent election of officers, the following brothers were called upon to officiate:

Brother Phil B. Barnard, Justice;
 Brother Joseph A. Jordan, Vice-Justice;
 Brother James E. Stevens, Treasurer;
 Brother Robert B. Armstrong, Clerk;
 Brother William Carlson, Historian;
 Brother William Hamilton, Marshal.

We also took occasion, at the last meeting, to name our Delegates and Alternates to the Convention, and will be ably represented by the following brothers:

Brother Barnard.....1st Delegate
 Brother Jordan.....2nd Delegate
 Brother Nixon.....1st Alternate
 Brother Stevens.....2nd Alternate

We are looking forward with anticipation to the pleasure of greeting a great many brothers from other Chapters during the Convention week, and extend to you all a hearty welcome, and assure you that your visit in Washington will be made as prosperous and pleasant as it is within the power of the John Jay Chapter to make it.

KNOX CHAPTER

BROTHER WALTER CHEERS

On May 20th, last, the Philander C. Knox Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was installed at the University of Arizona. The impressive installation and initiation ceremonies were performed by Brothers Rex G. Hardy of Los Angeles, assisted by Brothers Curtis of Benton Chapter, Swinford of Holmes Chapter and Peterson of Chapter. Brothers Swinford and Curtis are members of the University of Arizona Law Faculty. The scene of the installation was the Santa Rita Hotel.

The following officers were installed for the college year 1923-1924:

Justice.....Lynn Dexter Smith
 Vice-Justice.....Walter Cheers
 Clerk.....Lawrence L. Howe
 Treasurer.....Thomas J. Elliott
 Marshal.....Ralph F. Forch
 Historian.....William A. Lane

The Chapter was especially honored in having Supreme Justice Fawcett of Minneapolis present at the installation. Brother Fawcett was in the West on private business, having come directly from Washington where he initiated President Harding into Phi Alpha Delta. After the installation Brother Fawcett was tendered the floor by Brother Hardy, presiding, and made an informal address, choosing as his subject, "What Phi Alpha Delta Stands For." In this talk he brought home inspiring truths that started the new chapter in its inception toward a goal of high achievement.

The members of this Club who became charter members of the Knox Chapter are:

Allen, Leslie	Howe, Lawrence L.
Cheers, Walter	Lane, Wm. A.
Cooper, Wm. F.	Latham, Ara D.
Cusick, E. T.	McCall, James S.
Elliott, Thos. J.	Noon, Bonsall
Ellis, Harry J.	Paige, Frank E.
Fields, Wm. C.	Sills, Thos.
Forch, Ralph F.	Salmon, R. B.
Gentry, James T.	Smith, Lynn D.
Hill, Roulard W.	Thurman, Elbert
	Crowe, Robert

Brother Thurman and Brother Cusick, graduates of the Law Class of 1923, are practicing law at the present time in Arizona.

The organization that petitioned Phi Alpha Delta for a charter at the University of Arizona, was the Davis Law Club, organized in 1921 and named in honor of Doctor Robert M. Davis, then Professor of Law at the University, and now Dean of the Idaho Law School.

With the opening of the University on September 15, 1923, fifteen of the charter members returned. Plans for the year include the purchase of a house and some social affairs.

During the latter part of September the Chapter entertained the Freshman Law Class at a smoker. Prominent state jurists were in attendance and spoke to the group on matters of judicial importance.

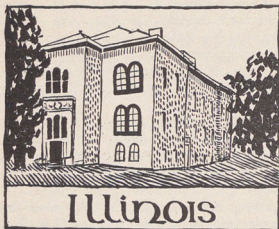

The following men, both members of the Varsity Football team and baseball nine, have been pledged:

Charles Fray Gus O'Connor

At the last regular meeting in October, Brother Walter Cheers was elected delegate to attend the National Convention at Washington next December.

KNOX CHAPTER, UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA, 1923

ILLINOIS

MAGRUDER CHAPTER

BROTHER ANONYME

Magruder Chapter is again in a house for the first time since 1915. Not only that, but we have paid the first months rent and an installment or two on the furniture. Mr. Justice Mercer with the assistance of about a dozen active men and pledges laid aside their legal mein and for about a week worked like dogs to get said house in order and aforesaid furniture in place. The house is not large, but so far has accommodated 18 men with more or less comfort, while many of the other brothers take their meals here. The address is 211 E. Green St., Champaign, County of Champaign, State of Illinois. Come around and spit in the fire place.

Bro. F. O. Mercer, supra, is the Honorable Justice for this first semester of the old society in a house. Bro. Glen Paxton in a dual capacity of treasurer and commissary has so far kept every one in a good humor, and their "tummies" full. There are 25 active men in the College, although Bros. Cohn and Green are by this time entitled to wear a key, for we lose them at the end of this semester. Bro. J. P. Senning is working on his doctorate in political science, and has just passed his oral preliminaries. Our faculty members are the same as last year, to wit: Dean A. J. Harno and Prof. Dillavou. The latest acquisition to our mystic circle is Emery Schultz, initiated Nov. 15th.

For the last semester the scholarship rating of legal fraternities was; Phi Alpha Delta 3.46, Phi Delta Phi 3.35, Gamma Eta Gamma 3.25. We hope that we can repeat for the present semester. Of the 10 students on the student editorial board of "The Illinois Law Quarterly" we may name Bros. Brosman, Chadwell, Pacton, Durham and J. D. Gibson.

Bro. Brosman has also the honor, or whatever else you may call it, of being the President of the Law Club for the present semester. For once there is a scarcity of foolish petitions as to the regulation of the University, and the Law Club does not enjoy its usual disrepute.

This has been a most auspicious year for the University of Illinois. The opening of the Stadium with the Chicago football game was one of the greatest events that it will be the good fortune of most of the present generation to witness. Magruder Chapter had the pleasure of entertaining many of the visiting brothers from the different chapters located in Chicago, our own alumni, and Bro. Faucet. With the passing of the $10,000,000 appropriation by the legislature last spring, there is every possibility that the College of Law may be moved into the Library building, as that appropriation covers the building of a new Library. In any event the College of Law will come in for its share of improvement which is warranted by the fact that for this year it has the greatest increase in enrollment of any college on the campus. To date there are more than 200 on the rolls of the College.

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

MARSHALL CHAPTER

BROTHER J. R. STEWART

The University of Chicago Law School began its Autumn Quarter on October 1. The enrollment is 330, which maintains the gradual increase usually made from year to year. The faculty remains the same, with one exception. Former Assistant Professor Magill has gone to Washington, D. C., for study preparatory to a specialized practice in income tax law and his place as teacher of Contracts and associated subjects has been taken by Mr. Sydney Schiff.

Marshall Chapter now has 29 active members, which is three more than anticipated by the worthy brother who designed Form A (the roll call sheet) in our uniform minute book. From that circumstance we may be presumed to be above par, at least in numbers. Out of the 29 six have been initiated since the beginning of the quarter. They are:

William Duiker, Grand Rapids, Mich.;
 Merrick M. Evans, Enid, Okla.;
 Gerald J. Gorman, Chicago, Ill.;
 George W. Hutchinson, Dallas, Texas;
 Emmett D. Slyder, Cleveland, Ohio;
 Pike H. Sullivan, Decatur, Ill.

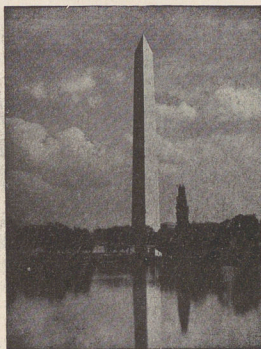

Another upon the roster is Brother Earl F. Schoening, who has affiliated from Magruder Chapter. In addition, we have half a dozen unusually desirable pledges whom we expect to make brothers before the end of the quarter.

In the three classes we have two presidents—Brother Lowell Wadmond of the Seniors and Brother Pike Sullivan of the Freshmen. On the Law School Council, we have three out of nine members—Brother Stevenson and Pledges Pyatt and Schmidt.

Horace Dawson was our only member to graduate at the end of the last (Summer) quarter. We are pleased to announce that he and the three other Marshall alumni who took the October Bar Exam. were among the 52 per cent. who passed. Brother Dawson is now specializing with Dyrenforth, Lee, Critton and Wiles in the field of patent law. Of the other three, Brother Arthur E. Borough is with Langworthy, Stevens & McKeg; Brother Paul Moore with Winston, Strawn and Shaw, and Leslie Kimmell with Harmon, George and Gilbert. Since all their firms are located in the city we are able to enjoy frequent visits from these young grads.

Among other visitors who have favored us recently was our District Justice, Brother Allan T. Gilbert. A trio from Magruder Chapter stopped with us en route to the Illinois-Northwestern game at Evanston, and three more from Campbell Chapter, on a similar mission to Iowa City, spent some time with us. We are very glad of the opportunity to extend a welcome to such wayfarers and hope that brothers from all the chapters will take time to pay us a call while passing through the city.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT

McREYNOLDS CHAPTER

BROTHER HOWARD H. BAKER

The following members of McReynolds Chapter returned to school this year: Robert H. LaFollette, Justice; Douglas Powell, John W. Sanford, Howard H. Baker, John Fleming Meek, C. W. Key, Paul J. Pierce, L. F. Burke.

The following men have been pledged so far: Hedgecock, Wray, Brooks, McTeer, Buhl.

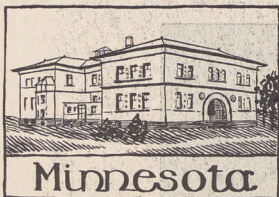

Brother Meek was recently elected President of the Senior Law Class; Brother Powell was elected Vice-President, and Brother LaFollette was elected Secretary.

Brother Baker is Editor-in-Chief of the Tennessee Law Review. Brothers Pierce and Key are also on the Board of that publication. Brother McDermott, Dean of the College of Law, is Faculty Advisor of the Law Review.

Brother Patton won the Hugh L. McClung medal for being the best practitioner before the Moot Court last year. Brother Key won the First Faculty Prize for excellence in Scholarship.

There are about forty alumni of Phi Alpha Delta practicing law in Knoxville, and they join McReynolds Chapter in the hope that the coming National Convention will be the best that has ever been given.

MITCHELL CHAPTER

BROTHER R. G. MANLY

Mitchell Chapter comes to bat again this fall 100 per cent. for the people. The only ones missing from our opening smoker this year were the graduates of last Spring and Brother Phil Snodgrass, who has transferred his allegiance for his final year in Law to Wisconsin, where we understand he intends to affiliate and where from all indications he is fast becoming a master at the art of "toting" a cane. Our smokers feel sadly the need of Phil's musical genius and jovial good nature and we much regret the change. However, we presume 'tis an ill wind that blows nobody good.

To date the Chapter have held three rushing smokers, and from the character of the freshmen that have been present at them we are exceedingly optimistic as to the character and quality of the men that we are to take into the Chapter this year. All of the occasions have been well attended by the alumnae and it is a source of great satisfaction to the active chapter to see so many of our twin-city barristers eager to take part in our social mixers. We are always tickled to have them around and we only hope they keep turning out as well in the future. At the first smoker given at the Alpha Sig House on October 10th Brother Lobb, Comptroller of the University, was present and started the boys forth on their coming year with some sound Chapter advice. Professor Sturges of the Law School Faculty was present at the second smoker given on October 18th at the Phi Sig House. Professor Sturges is a new member of the Faculty this Fall, coming here to fill the vacancy left by Professor Osborne, who is this year at Leland Stanford University. We were pleased at the early occasion afforded of making his acquaintance. At the last smoker given on November 13th at the Kappa Sig House Brothers John and Olaf Scott of Campbell Chapter were present. Both are now located in our neighboring city of St. Paul, and made the trip over in order to attend the smoker and to present the Chapter with a very beautiful table scarf. The leather and lettering in the scarf are very fine and the Chapter feels considerable pride and gratitude in its newly acquired property. Brother John Scott spent the evening with his left hand bandaged, having recently blown off a couple of fingers of that hand in a hunting accident. His many friends will much regret to hear of his loss, but will be glad to know it has dampened his P. A. D. spirit none. Brother Perry Moore, last year's Justice of the Fraternity, was present, and the boys were glad to hear he has located in Minneapolis with the law firm of Jamison, Stinchfield & Mackall. Brothers Mauer and McCune, of last year's class, also were present and announced that they have formed the law firm of the same name and are located at 201 Metropolitan Bank Building, in our city. We are glad to hear the boys are so near and shall look forward to seeing them often during the year.

As a result of the smokers the Chapter has pledged the following list of aspiring young neophytes from every one of whom, need we say, we are expecting great things: Donald Kelly, St. Paul; Alfred Armstrong, Spring Valley, Wis.; Leo Hatlestad, Radcliffe, Iowa; Ed Spring, Duluth; James Krusemark, Minneapolis; John Fishbach, Aberdeen, S. Dak.

That we are not slipping scholastically is amply evidenced by the recent election of Edwin Dickson and Douglas Hunt to the Minnesota Law Review Board.

Six of the brothers recently invaded Ryan Chapter on the occasion of the Wisconsin game and they still rave unceasingly about the great time they had and are forever talking "house." If only one or two more of the boys had been along we cannot help but believe that Mitchell Chapter would stride fast in the direction of a permanent home.

At the recent Chapter election Alvin Johanson and Doug. Hunt were picked as the official representatives of the Chapter to the big National Convention to be held at Washington, D. C., during the Christmas holidays.

We realize this letter is somewhat windy, but remember we had quite a load on our chest.

STATUE OF LAFAYETTE

ROSS CHAPTER

BROTHER CLYDE C. TRIPLETT

Ross Chapter begins the year of 1923-24 with splendid promise and sends her greetings to her sister Chapters in Phi Alpha Delta. Ninety per cent. of the active Chapter answered to roll call at the first regular meeting of the year at the Chapter rooms Monday evening, September, the 24th. A number of the alumni were present.

It is the aim of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, and of our own active Chapter, to co-operate in every way possible, and the active Chapter takes this opportunity to express its firm belief that all Chapters will be greatly benefited by such a policy. Brother Supreme Vice-Justice Hardy and Brother District Justice Henshey are two loyal and tireless workers for P. A. D. Neither are ever too busy to listen to a brother or help in time of need. Brother Henshey still maintains his law offices in the Hollywood Security Building, while Brother Hardy has removed his "bacon getting" aggregation from 640 Title Insurance Building, Los Angeles, to larger quarters at 618 Title Insurance Building. He says he believes in expansion and all who view his waistline are inclined to agree with him.

The first rushing affair of the season was in the form of a joint active and Alumni Chapter luncheon, held at the University Club on September 27th. Seven prospects were entertained. The next affair will be a sailing party on September 29th. Material is plentiful and we are busily engaged in getting the jump on our old rivals, Phi Delta Phi.

The Chapter still maintains its rooms at 618-22 Union League Building and plans to completely refurnish them in the near future.

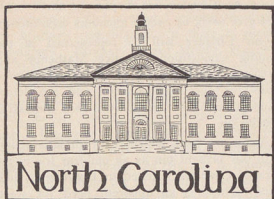

With two out of three of the Law School Executive Committee, plenty of material for this year's election and a goodly store of pep, Ross Chapter looks forward to a prosperous year.

Our delegates will arrive in Washington in plenty of time for the coming Convention.

Visiting brothers always welcome. Monday is meeting night.

CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY

RUFFIN CHAPTER

Brother Reed Kitchin

This year Thomas Ruffin Chapter, P A D, found a hall awaiting its returned membership. The Chapter is very much pleased with the furnishings and setting of this gathering center and some day has in view the purchase of a house and thereby enlarge its usefulness.

Of last year's men failing to return, Irvin Monk may be found practising Law in Asheville, N. C., Rooms 9-12, Technical Building. Tench Coxe, Jr., is also a member of the Asheville Bar and associated with Charles G. Lee of Asheville. Kelly Jenkins is practicing in Roanoke Rapids, N. C. It is rumored Kelly quit wearing his alumnus key because so many of his Phi Beta Kappa acquaintances insisted on giving him the fraternal grasp. Ben Fountain is in Rocky Mount, N. C., "hard at it." His first case was via judicial appointment. A negro woman was alleged to have murdered her worse half. Ben tried the alibi of inexperience, but "His Honor" persisted and Mirabilis dictu! Ben freed his client of color.

Jim McRae, ardent devotee of Bacchus, is still worshipping his idol along with the regular practice in Fayetteville, N. C. P. W. Herman is now married and a member of the Bar of Gastonia, N. C. While Henry L. Kiser also seeks to amass fortune in the same industrial center. G. D. Singleton is in the banking business at Red Springs, N. C.

Brother Maurice Taylor Van Hecke is now teaching in the University of Kansas Law School. He was a strong factor in the Carolina Law School in every way and his loss is not only to his Chapter but to the whole Law School. To Van Hecke, the North Carolina Law Review owes its existence, and while at Carolina he was its editor-in-chief and general handy man. Kansas gains a fine man and teacher.

And now to the active brothers, and their exploits. Our Justice, "Jack" Allsbrook is President of the Carolina Student Body, a member of the Senior Honor Society, Golden Fleece, also of the Debate Council and the N. C. Law Review Staff.

Vice-Justice Sam Cathey is the Law School delegate on the Student Council. Last year he and "Mary" Worsham both blind students, received their A. B. degrees. We congratulate them.

C. C. Poindexter is playing his fourth year on the Carolina eleven. In his four years of play "Poindy" has never missed a game. He is also on the Law Review Staff, a distinct honor.

Reed Kitchin is President of the Carolina Publication Board, which has all official student publications under its control. He is a member of the staffs of the Carolina Magazine, Yackety Yack, and Law Review. He also is a member of Sigma Upsilon, National Literary Fraternity.

George Hampton is President of the Carolina Debate Council, which directs the debate schedule of the University. He is a Golden Fleece man and a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, National Debate Fraternity. Also on the Law Review Staff.

Dennis Downing is President of the Senior Law Class, a member of the Debate Council and on the Law Review Staff. Between classes "Gus" practices law in Chapel Hill.

"Shorty" Holmes is now a member of the N. C. Bar and serves on the Law Review, and as Treasurer to the Chapter.

"Jim" Phipps is Campus Cabinet Man from the Law School, an Editor on the Law Review and Manager of the local movie house, the "Pick."

Thad Bryson is Vice-President of the Junior Law Class.

Pinckney Froneberger is Chief Cheer Leader of the Student Body and General "Bull" Artist to the Chapter. "Frone" took a trip around the earth last Summer on a "tanker" and serves it to his hungry auditory with said "bull" for salad.

O. M. Abernethy, former Justice, is not in school enough to be classed as a student. But just before the Carolina-Yale game he went out for practice only one day, made the Yale trip, played half-back against Yale, then did not return to Carolina.

P. G. Parsons, last year's Treasurer, departed, taking Treasurer's books and accounts with him, putting the Chapter to much confusion, but after much correspondence and "cussing" we finally located Parsons on Grassy Creek, and he agreed to return said accounts. Otherwise the Chapter secured a smooth start with weekly meetings at which papers are read by different members.

No new members will be initiated before February, 1924, our regular initiation date, as first year men are not allowed to join until after Christmas.

Ruffin is planning to entertain the first year law men by sections in order to get a "close-up" on future P A D's.

Let Ruffin know when you visit the "Hill." We'll be there.

STAPLES CHAPTER

BROTHER WALTER H. SCOTT

The opening of the 1923-24 session of the Washington and Lee Law School found Staples Chapter occupying the strangest position that it has reached since its establishment here. Nineteen men who were active in the work of the Chapter last year returned with a desire to see P A D even stronger than they had already made it, and immediately set to work to realize that desire. After a close scrutiny of all members of the incoming class our Chapter extended eleven bids to the very best of the class. All eleven bids were almost immediately accepted. Staples Chapter is duly proud of her pledges for they have already proven themselves the eleven outstanding men of their class.

There have been several changes in the personnel of our Faculty since last session. Dean Long, who accepted a call from Colorado, has been succeeded by Senior Professor William Hayward Moreland. Mr. Moreland has been recognized for quite a number of years as one of the best teachers of our Southern law schools, and is well equipped for his work as Dean. Brother John Stump has been called to the faculty and is fast coming to be known as one of our best lecturers. P A D now has two representatives on the Faculty, as Brother Lewis Tyree is still with us.

At our last meeting it was decided best to carry on the same system of moot courts which proved so beneficial last year. Under the present system we dispose of three cases and give work to twelve members each month.

Our Chapter will be represented in the coming Convention. Justice Matheny and Treasurer Brannon are at work laying some plans for our representation and are determined to carry the good work to a successful conclusion.

Again we hear whispers of dissatisfaction with our present pin as an emblem for members of Chapters situated in Universities like ours. There is an apparent need for some change and Staples Chapter would welcome an undergraduate's key much like the present pin. Probably the Chapter will have more to say about this matter later—perhaps at the Convention—if it is in order.

TAFT CHAPTER

BROTHER J. HARRY LA BRUN

Taft Chapter, Georgetown University, altho starting out with but thirteen active members for the ensuing year, hopes before Convention time rolls around to have at least 30 active members. A good start was made last year when five men were pledged in the waning weeks of school and who will be initiated within the next week or so, making a total of 18 active men in the Chapter. With these men initiated it is Brother Justice Moore's hope that by the middle of December all men eligible for the year will have been pledged.

Smokers and all other entertainments have been pushed to the backs of the minds of the active Chapter, the matter of holding the National Convention this year in Washington and the proper way to put it over being the paramount thing of importance with Taft. No matter what the subject of conversation, so anxious are the men of Taft to make this Convention the best that Phi Alpha Delta has ever had, that the Convention finds itself cropping up for discussion wherever two of the brothers get together. Every one in the Chapter realizes that the great burden of playing host to the visiting delegates will rest upon the shoulders of Taft Chapter and they are anxious to the zenith degree to send the visiting delegates away from the capital city vowing that the Convention was the most successful one in the history of the Fraternity.

Brother Joe Carey, an Alumnus of Taft, has been appointed Chairman of the Convention Committee and is already hard at work planning ways and means of making the visiting brothers comfortable on their bi-yearly pilgrimage. Brother Justice Moore, Hughes, Martindale and LaBrum have been selected from the active Chapter to aid Brother Carey in his work. All are working with one end in view, that of making the Convention of 1923 such a big success that it will be printed indelibly on the minds of all those who are lucky enough to make the trip. It is planned at present to hold the Convention Banquet on Saturday night at one of the hotels, while on Monday night, which is New Year's Eve, the great ball will take place. It is hoped to put this ball over in such a style that in years to come brothers while reminiscing to their younger brothers will remember it as one of the greater affairs ever held by P A D. The entire plans for the care of the visiting delegates have not been announced as yet by the Committee. Taft Chapter, however, will act as host to all visiting brothers who care to take advantage of its hospitality. Arrangements are in progress so that every visiting delegate will be met at the station by one of the local brothers, taken to his hotel and at all times have a car at his disposal during the three days that the Convention will be in session. Every day there is some new plan being advanced that will add to the comfort of the visiting delegates, but neither time nor space is sufficient to tell of all the good things that are in store for all those brothers attending the Convention. On Sunday enough buses will be chartered so that those of the brothers who are visiting Washington for the first time will have a chance to see the wonders and glories of the capital city.

Two smokers have been held by the Chapter so far this year, and judging by the turnout of likely candidates for admittance to the sacred portals of the Fraternity it will hardly be necessary to hold any more. The first smoker, which was held on October 12th, turned into one of the best and greatest parties ever held by a Fraternity in the city of Washington. The entire show of the Music Box Revue, which was playing in town during that week, came up to the house at the invitation of the Entertainment Committee and did their stuff while the eyes of the boys and the invitees bulged with wonderment and pleasure. It was far into the morning before the party finally called it quits, and Taft Chapter once more went down in history at Georgetown as the only Fraternity in Washington that could put over such a party. Four men from the mob of invitees were extended invitations to become pledges. These men were Fred Miller and Al Smith, both of Pittsburgh; Johnny Holden, a local lad, and Jim Hanrihan, of Des Moines, Iowa. Of this quartet Holden is perhaps the best known, having while at the University of Pennsylvania, ran on the two-mile relay team which broke the world's record two years ago.

So much of an impression did the first smoker make at the Law School that when the date for the second smoker was announced those who were lucky enough to receive invitations were only too anxious to accept and again the house was filled to its capacity. The entertainment for the boys that night was furnished by the personnel of "Name It", a show put on the week previous for Charity's sake at the Poli Theatre by the Debutantes of Washington. All the choice songs and dancing hits of the comedy were gone over for the enjoyment of the house and after the entertainment dancing was in order, the god Terpsichorea holding sway until the early hours of the morning. Several new men were looked over during the course of the evening, but only one man was selected, Roby Robeson being the lucky individual.

The first initiation of the year will take place sometime within the next two weeks, at which time the Pledges holding over from last year will be taught the ropes. Alumnae from out of town, as well as those who are local, have signified their intention of being present at this time and Taft Chapter should have an initiation that will live up to if not surpass the usual initiations that have made this Chapter famous among the Fraternities.

Before closing, let me exhort all of the brothers who can possibly do it to make the trip to Washington for the Convention this year. There will be something doing every minute of the time and any brother who makes the trip will be amply repaid in the pleasure and enjoyment that he will have during the three days of the session. This will be a time that will long endure in the hearts and minds of those who attend. Make it a point to taste the hospitality of Taft Chapter. None of the brothers will be disappointed, while we hope to send all away with the idea tucked in their mind that they have had the best time of their lives. Make it a point to attend. The three red-letter days of your life, December 29th, 30th and 31st. Don't forget them! All are welcome. Brother Justice Moore extends an invitation to all brothers as well as delegates to taste our hospitality. Remember the dates!

TEMPLE CHAPTER

BROTHER PHILIP D. DENEL

The close of the fall semester, with its attendant mid-year exams., looms up in the near future. It has been an eventful four months for Temple Chapter, and one of advancement.

We opened the college year practically in full force. Only two men failed to return—Brothers McKenzie and Bagley. The latter is continuing his legal training at Georgetown University.

Two new men have been pledged to our Chapter, both of whom we feel will be a credit to the Fraternity. The men are George Francis and Alfred Lawrence. The initiation has not yet taken place, but will be held in a short time. In addition to the new men, Brother Augustine, formerly of the University of Wisconsin Law School, is also with us.

The law school was particularly fortunate in securing the services of Sir Paul Vinogradoff for a short course in jurisprudence early in the semester. We are also favored in having Professor T. R. Powell, the eminent authority on Constitutional Law, with us this year as a member of the Faculty. The place of our retired Dean, the late William Carey Jones, was filled by the appointment of Professor Orrin K. McMurray as his successor. Under his administration the Law School is continuing its forward stride.

While the books have required most of our attention, we have not been occupied solely with studying. A few weeks ago, the annual baseball game with the local Chapter of Phi Delta Phi was played, and we awarded a severe beating to our ancient rivals. As a reward, a banquet replete with good things was presented to us by the vanquished lads. Preceding the contest, the tradition of "bally-hooing" for the game with a band was carried out. A battered old hack was driven about the campus, conveying the band and an announcer. As a result of overlooking the detail of acquiring a permit for such action from the University authorities, several of the brothers found themselves in the clutches of the law when the band, hack and horse were arrested for their oversight. The barristers-in-becoming soon talked themselves out of custody, and a pardon was granted. Legal training once more proved itself to be of value.

The school in toto now boasts a baseball team of no mean talent. Brother Geary, late of Hastings Law School, is the manager, and promises an organization which will trounce the team representing the Colleges of Engineering. The boys, the majority of whom are P A D's, realize the responsibility of upholding the supremacy of the legal profession in all fields.

We are glad to report that one of the brothers, J. C. Ackers, was elected Treasurer of the Law Association of the School at the beginning of the semester.

We have, of course, been handicapped in the administration of our affairs by the fact that Temple Chapter is a twin, being really two Chapters. The group at Hastings, across the bay, has no doubt been suffering from the same affliction. Our petition for a change of name has been circulating among all the Chapters, and we will soon learn our fate. The granting of permission to change our name will greatly facilitate the conduct of Fraternity business both here and at Hastings. We hope the other Chapters will act favorably on our request.

In closing, Temple Chapter wishes such brothers as are afflicted with Christmas exams. the best of luck. Also a Merry Christmas to all the brothers; a successful convention in Washington; and a prosperous, happy and successful New Year to all P A D's.

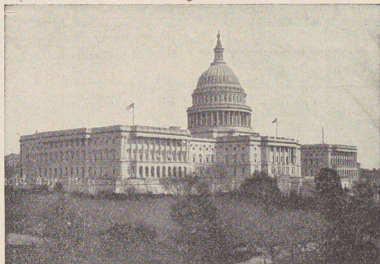

WEBSTER CHAPTER

BROTHER FRED S. HOBBS

The advent of the school year finds Webster Chapter small in numbers but strong in spirit. Our ranks have been reduced in numbers over one-half by graduation of brothers in the Class of 1923. But with the Chicago Law School larger in numbers and with the school spirit even greater than in any of the recent Chapter years, our prospects are excellent for contributing a strong Chapter to Phi Alpha Delta. At present our efforts are directed towards acquainting the eligible new men with the merits of Phi Alpha Delta. We have a number of pledges and expect this number to be increased before the fall initiation.

Recently a smoker was held for the newcomers at School. Brother Raymond Beach, Dean of the Junior Class, occupied the feature spot on the program and gave us an inspiring talk, which included some very valuable ideas on legal ethics. Brother "Jim" Holt, our Justice of last year, was also present, and, as a star of the program, was second only to Dean Beach. Jim is pursuing his legal endeavors at Kenosha, Wisconsin, and has fulfilled the expectations of the brothers who were associated with him during his course of study by becoming a regular spell-binder.

Delegates and alternates have been selected for the Convention and they are looking forward with pleasure to that event.

The Ideal Executive.

The man who, while keeping the main object in view, masters the knowledge of all details, divides the labor between wisely selected subordinates, and energizes their action by his own vigilant supervision, and by holding them to strict accountability for their work.

—From Gorham's Life of Stanton.

Every Executive Must

First, Organize

Second, Deputize

And then, Supervise.
