IN RETROSPECT

THE present Administration is rapidly drawing to a close and it is hoped and confidently expected that the Convention at St. Louis on the last three days of 1925 will afford a fitting climax. The fraternity as a whole is in excellent condition financially and otherwise.

Needless to say, the work of the past two years in the interests of our fraternity has been of much pleasure and satisfaction to all members of the present Board and especially so to your Supreme Justice. Many things which we desired to accomplish during this Administration were for one reason or another impossible of fulfillment, but the outgoing officers stand ready to aid their successors in every way possible in those things as well as the further upbuilding and strengthening of the organization.

So far as expansion is concerned, our work has been principally in the East. Of the five chapters added to our roll in this Administration, all have been East of the Mississippi River. The chapters at the University of West Virginia, University of Pittsburgh and Cornell University and the chapters in the South at the University of Florida and Tulane University are already strong active chapters of Phi Alpha Delta.

As this is the last issue of the Quarterly during the present year, the opportunity will be embraced to extend to every active and alumni chapter and to each active member and alumni member of the fraternity, the heartiest wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

George E. Fink,
Supreme Justice.

The December Common Carrier

Faces pressed to the window-pane,
Hands over brows to scan the night,
Pillows smooth where curls should have lain;
Stars,—Or the Common Carriers light?

Sometimes he uses a one-way trail,
Passing the stations that should be stops,
While children's tear-drops rust the rail
That was shunted off by the System's blocks.

You can't recover for broken faith
If he posts his notice, and doesn't come,
While the fire grows low, and the night winds chafe,
And branches beat like a hollow drum.

DIG DEEP, BROTHER, to lay the ties
That will pass where the Tiny People pause,
Waiting the coming, with sleepless eyes,
Of the Common Carrier, SANTY CLAUS.

The University of Michigan Lawyer's Club

An Outstanding Achievement in the Field of Legal Education

THE Lawyers
Club buildings were given to the University of Michigan by

Dr. W. W. Cook, of the New York Bar, a graduate of the College and also of the Law School of this University. The gift is remarkable not only for its munificence, though in that respect it is unequaled in the history of legal education, but quite as much for the breadth of understanding and vision shown by the plan for the use of these buildings in a unique way, to aid legal education and legal research. For the Lawyers Club is very much more than a group of buildings, beautiful as those buildings are, and more than a mere club. It is an institution, wisely planned in such a way as to benefit all of the fundamental interests of law and its administration. As a social organization, in the broad sense of the term social,

MICHIGAN LAWYER'S CLUB

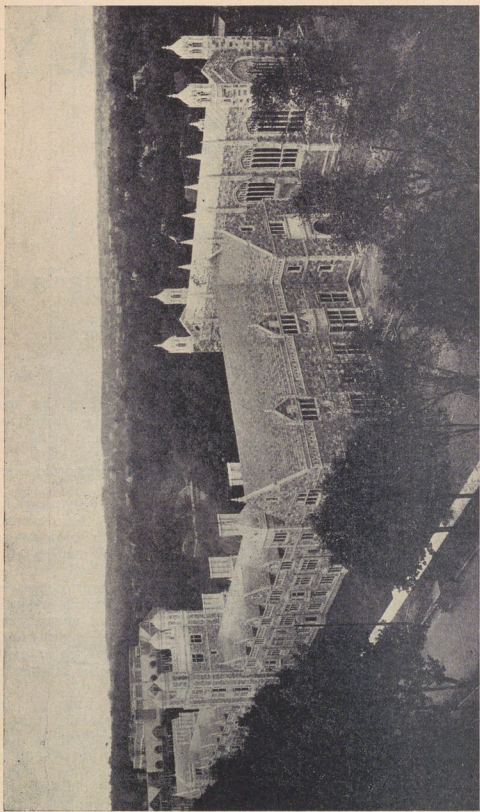

The North Facade

The scope and character of the three classes of membership indicate the fundamental purpose of the donor. That is to unite, for the general improvement of law and its administration, active and eminent members of the Bar, legal scholars and law teachers, and the students who are to be the lawyers of the future.

It has been said, with some justice, that though the legal education given in the better law schools of today is, on the whole, vastly superior to the old type of office instruction, yet there is lacking something of the old personal contacts between the active members of the profession and legal scholars and law students. This old contact could not be restored, even if we were to go back to the old method of law office

Mr. Cook's Gift to the University may reach the Sum of Twenty Millions of Dollars

THE LIVING ROOM OF THE MICHIGAN LAWYERS CLUB

After a single glance at the lounging room of the club the increasing attraction of the legal profession is easy to understand study, because successful lawyers of the present day for the most part are so busy with the vastly more intricate problems and the mass of business which come to them that they have not the time to impart instruction to students. The present plan is an attempt, which promises well, to secure in this Law School something like the older contacts, with their benefits in establishing sound traditions, ethical and practical, and a general esprit de corps and professional pride and sense of responsibility. It is believed that this can be accomplished by the establishment of the non-resident membership above referred to and by the bringing together in one place of the Law School and especially its library, so that non-resident members, as well as visiting lecturers, may be induced to come here to work in the library, away from the interruptions of busy offices; and while so doing, to have contacts with members of the faculty and with the student body. It is believed that this would be for the mutual benefit of all three classes.

The present Lawyers Club buildings indicate the completion of part of this program. It is obvious that the plan cannot operate with its greatest possible effectiveness until we have the projected new Law School building and library, on the land already procured for that purpose by the University. The present building, both by reason of its location and its lack of library and office facilities, cannot be used to great advantage by visiting lawyers; but as is implied in this statement, the plan for a new Law School building and library, to be situated on the south side of the tract of land already acquired, has been definitely made, and the University authorities are hopeful of obtaining the money necessary to realize this plan in the not distant future.

In order directly to aid the prosecution of scientific legal research, the donor has wisely provided that all profits from the operation of the Club buildings and from Club dues shall go into a fund to be used exclusively for legal research. We are all assured that this fund will run into several thousands of dollars a year, upon the present basis. As the University has generously provided the land, and has agreed to provide light, heat and power, and as the property is tax exempt, our overhead charges are reduced to a minimum and it should be, and is, possible to operate the buildings at going prices for room and board and still make a profit. If other dormitories are subsequently added, especially when we have secured the new Law School building, these profits will, of course, be multiplied. The money derived in this way is to be used to pay the salaries of research professors and in such other ways, for like purposes, as the donor may decide upon. It is not difficult to see that ultimately the Law School will be able to make a very unusual contribution, by this means, to the scientific study of law and its ends.

The Club also affords unusual opportunities for giving its active members experience in self-government and in affairs. The government of the Club is in the hands of a Board of Governors, constituted in the manner prescribed by the donor and agreed to by the Board of Regents; but this Board of Governors intends to look after only the strictly business side of the Club operation and to determine general policies. Within the limits thus indicated, the students are absolutely to govern themselves. During the current year this has been accomplished by the election, by all of the active members of the Club, of a Council of nine students, who have organized with a chairman and the other usual officers. This Council is charged with the establishment and maintenance of sound traditions and good general rules for living in the Club buildings, for the supply of newspapers, periodical and other reading matter, and with the conduct of social affairs of the Club. With experience, it will doubtless become an increasingly useful and active governing board. The Board of Governors and the Council meet together frequently at dinner, to talk over, in an informal way, the affairs of the organization. These meetings are producing a mutual understanding and respect, and a spirit of co-operation which is very admirable.

The plan as a whole is unprecedented in the breadth of its scope and in the understanding of the problems of the legal profession. For this reason, not only the Law School and the entire University of Michigan, but also the Bar of the country and those who derive benefits from the administration of justice, owe a debt of gratitude to the man who combines the financial ability, the wisdom and the generosity to make this great gift.

Installation of Woodrow Wilson Chapter

A Record of the Birth of the Infant Chapter of the Fraternity at Ithaca, N. Y. in October

WOODROW Wilson Chapter at Cornell University College of Law, Ithaca,

New York, was installed on Saturday, October 17, 1925. The initiation and installation ceremonies took place at the Republic Inn at Freeville, New York, about twelve miles from the City of Ithaca.

The installation was conducted under the direction of Supreme Justice George E. Fink, assisted by a team of three men from Campbell Chapter, University of Michigan, composed of L. Beaumont Parks, Justice of Campbell Chapter, Joseph E. Dickinson and Jack Page. In addition to that team, Brother Fink was ably assisted by Brother James P. Harrold of Chicago, a member of Webster Chapter ('05) an alumnus of Cornell University (class of 1895) recently elected President of the Cornell Club of Chicago, and Lyman P. Wilson (Marshall '05) of the Cornell Law Faculty.

To Brother Wilson is due all credit for this Chapter; he aided materially in the preliminary work and, from information gathered from various sources, it was learned that the idea of having a chapter at Cornell University at this time originated with Brother Wilson. It has been realized for some years that a good chapter at Cornell University would be welcomed in the Fraternity, but not until the present time has the Law School been large to provide the timber of the caliber desired for a chapter. When it was ascertained that the time was propitious, Brother Wilson passed the word along and got busy himself on the work. At the initiation, he aided in the examination of the candidates on legal subjects and also took an active part in the exemplification of the ritual. Brother Wilson also presided as Toastmaster at the Installation Banquet in the evening and showed himself to be a man of wide experience along that line.

Brothers Fink and Harrold made the trip from Chicago to Buffalo together, where they were met by the team from Ann Arbor who had come by way of boat from Detroit. The trip from Buffalo to Ithaca took about three hours, which provided ample time for them to organize for the ceremonies to follow. The out-of-town men were met at the train and taken by auto to the Ithaca Hotel and from thence for luncheon to "The Green Lantern", one of Ithaca's popular eating places.

After luncheon the visiting Brothers were by auto to the Republic Inn at Freeville, previously mentioned, the initiation work getting under way about three o'clock in the afternoon, concluding about six thirty, allowing time in which to prepare for the Installation Banquet at seven thirty, which was also held at the Republic Inn.

After Toastmaster Wilson had set an excellent example for the speakers who were to follow by delivering a very able address, he called upon Justice L. Beaumont Parks of the Campbell Chapter team, who welcomed the new Chapter and commented upon the cordial relations which have always existed between Cornell and Michigan Universities, expressing the hope that teams from the two schools would shore be able to again meet on a common gridiron. The next speaker, Brother James F. Harrold, emphasized the importance to the Chapter of acquiring a Chapter home at an early date.

Donald P. Blake responded on behalf of the new Chapter and expressed the gratitude of the members of the new Chapter in being granted a charter and told of the efforts already made to secure a Chapter house and the prospects for securing one soon.

Brother Arthur J. Keeffe, an orator and debator of considerable repute, also spoke for the baby chapter and lived up to his reputation. He is President of the Cornell Debate Council and was a member of the Cornell Debating teams from 1920 to 1925, and is also a member of Delta Sigma Rho.

These addresses were all followed by a serious talk from the Supreme Justice, briefly outlining the history of the Fraternity, the value of the fraternity to the members after they leave college and get into practice, and a welcome to the new Chapter on behalf of the Fraternity at large. In the course of his remarks he presented pledge buttons to the four pledges present at the banquet, these men were Donald Axtel, J. D. Hurley, L. W. Morse, and C. S. Rehmer. The Cornell yell, a short song-fest, and an exemplification of the fraternal circle participated in by all except the new pledges, closed the affair.

Letters and telegrams of congratulation from various Supreme Officers and Chapters were read by Toastmaster Wilson in the course of the dinner and made a deep impression on the new men, as evidencing the national scope of the Fraternity and the welcome of the new Chapter to the ranks of Phi Alpha Delta. These messages of welcome and congratulation were from Joseph A. Carey, Supreme Vice Justice, Washington, D. D.; Frank M. Ludwick, Supreme Secretary, Los Angeles, Calif.; Allan T. Gilbert, Supreme Historian, Chicago, Illinois; Rex G. Hardy, Member of the Board of Tribunes, Los Angeles, Calif.; August A. Rendigs, Jr., Past Supreme Justice, Cincinnati, Ohio; Atlantic District Justice, W. Howard Demarest, Newark, N. J.; Eastern District Justice, John R. Snively, Rockford, Illinois; Central District Justice, Harry G.

Keats, Chicago, Illinois; Western District Justice, Fred G. Hoffmeister, St. Louis, Mo.; the Chicago Alumni Chapter; Taft Chapter, Washington, D. C. and Ross Chapter of Los Angeles, Calif. Letters and telegrams were still arriving from various active Chapters of the Fraternity at the time of the departure of the visiting Brothers.

After the banquet, the party broke up into groups devoted to the cementing of friendships, until a late hour, after which the new officers met with Brother Fink and the installing team at the Ithaca Hotel and received definite instructions in the keeping of chapter records and the administration of chapter affairs.

The Ann Arbor team left early Sunday morning for Niagara Falls. Brothers Fink and Harrold were the guests of Brothers Blake and Wilson the next day which was devoted to sight-seeing of the campus and the wonderful scenery in and about Ithaca.

The members of the new Chapter are as follows: Fred B. Goodelle, Clarence Kugler Gundaker, Phi Delta Theta, Arthur John Keeffe, A. B., Delta Sigma Rho, John W. MacDonald, A. B. '25, Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Sigma Rho, Arthur Rose Moore, A. B. '25, Zodiac, George Byron Rice, A. B., Cornell Law Quarterly, Addis V. Adams, Acacia, Donald Prouse Blake, Phi Delta Theta, Albert Thomas Bolles, Ernest Walker Brackett, A. B. '25, Acacia, Eugene Joseph Conroy, A. B. '25, Phi Beta Kappa, Frank Bainbridge Campbell, A. B., Sigma Phi, Edward William Ickes, A. B. '25, Sherman Moreland, Jr., Sigma Phi Epsilon, Daniel Francis Flanagan.

Willis Dickinson Morgan, A. B., who was one of the petitioners for charter but graduated in June and was not present for initiation, is a Phi Beta Kappa, Coif and Delta Sigma Rho, and, as an alumnus, is eligible for future initiation.

The following named men, having been previously pledged, were also initiated by the Chapter, viz: E. R. Burns, T. A. Kelly, G. H. Kenny, F. H. Jeffers.

Officers of the new Chapter elected and installed were as follows: Justice, Donald P. Blake, '27; Vice Justice, Frank B. Campbell, '27; Clerk, Daniel F. Flanagan, '27; Treasurer, Clarence K. Gundaker, '26, Marshall, F. B. Goodelle, '26.

All of the out-of-town men who were present to initiate and install the new members were pleased with the fine type of men comprising the new Chapter. They are an earnest and determined body of men and it is predicted that in due time the Chapter will take its place among the strongest in the Fraternity. The Fraternity at large is to be congratulated on the addition of this Chapter to our Chapter roll.

Financing the Fraternity Chapter House

A Letter From the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Phi Alpha Delta

At the Biennial Convention of the Fraternity held in Washington, D. C., during the closing days of 1923 there were adopted a number of amendments to the Fraternity Constitution which provided for the creation of a National Endowment Fund for the purpose of encouraging the building and owning of Chapter Houses throughout the country. The purpose of these proposed amendments was thoroughly discussed in Committee and on the floor of the Convention and it was unanimously agreed that the time was ripe for the passage of legislation to that end.

In March 1924, your Board of Trustees met in Chicago in conjunction with the Supreme Justice and Supreme Historian and there was drafted a set of conditions governing the making of loans for the purposes above mentioned and such conditions were printed in the following issue of the Quarterly. These conditions and the steps necessary to the obtaining of a loan may be briefly summarized as follows:

A Chapter must organize a holding corporation under the laws of its State, said corporation to be authorized to own real estate and to borrow money. Such corporation can borrow from our Board on second mortgage an amount equal to whatever it is able to pay in cash (exclusive of first mortgage) on the cost of the house, provided that the sum total of the first and second mortgages shall not exceed 75 per cent of a conservative valuation of the property. This loan shall bear interest at only 4% and must be paid off in semi-annual installments extending over a period of ten (10) years.

The balance of the conditions laid down by the Board merely provides the practical and legal working out of the foregoing and are simple to comprehend and easy of fulfillment. To our great surprise, however, no loans for the purposes mentioned have been made by your Board of Trustees, and this fund now amounts to approximately $8,850 by reason of interest earnings. There have been several requests for information relative to the making of a loan, received from various Chapters, but after the information has been supplied, nothing further has been heard from the inquirers. This state of affairs is a distinct surprise to your Board of Trustees and to the Supreme Board and we are desirous of learning the cause and the reasons therefor.

With this in mind, as Chairman of the Board, I am addressing the Chapters of Phi Alpha Delta through the medium of this letter, asking frankly for your suggestions, criticisms or explanation of this situation. Your Board of Trustees and your Supreme Board does not feel that any explanation can be found in the conditions governing the making of loans as these are of unusual leniency,—in fact they were drawn with the sole idea in mind of making them as lenient as possible, consistent with the security of the loan. Such loans are offered on second mortgage and at the low interest rate of 4%, both of which conditions were adopted in order to be of the utmost assistance to the borrowing Chapters. We must, therefore, seek another explanation and in order to obtain concrete information rather than to indulge in idle speculation, we are coming direct to the Chapters themselves and asking for it. We would specifically request that this matter be thoroughly discussed in your meetings and that we be advised by letter of your ideas on the subject. It is also suggested that your delegates to the forthcoming convention be instructed to report there, the consensus of opinion of your Chapter.

I want also to avail myself of this opportunity of expressing to the Chapters my best wishes for a most successful year and the hope that I may see many of you in St. Louis during the last three days of December.

Sincerely and Fraternally yours,

August A. Rendigs, Jr.,
Chairman, Board of Trustees,
National Endowment Fund.

ALUMNI CHAPTERS

New York Alumni

THE Secretary and Treasurer of the New York Alumni Chapter is its Pooh-Bah. Consequently, you must excuse him with as much brotherly affection as you can muster, if he fails in some of his arduous duties, whether it be from culpable negligence, high blood pressure or justifiable homicide.

Be that as it may, the Chapter has not been as inactive as might be surmised from the failure of the Secretary to report its proceedings to the "Quarterly." We have maintained an annual banquet, at which alumni from many Chapters have been present. The Chapter is in position, both financially and in strength of members, to arrange another banquet just as soon as your Secretary can stir up a committee to make the arrangements.

It is apparent from our growing membership, that many of the brothers who were in active Chapters in other cities, have come to New York for business and professional reasons, and are joining the Chapter with the ambitious idea that we will be strong enough in the near future to arrange a permanent place of meeting, and agree upon some definite purposes to be accomplished.

We have a membership of ninety-four, which includes alumni from Rapallo, Livingston, Calhoun, Blackstone, Campbell, Benton, John Jay, Jefferson, Fuller, Green, Taft and Ryan Chapters.

All alumni who have come to this city are welcome to be one of us. As the dues are one dollar per year, I sincerely trust that none will hesitate to make known their presence, and join with us at our luncheons and banquet.

The Chapter meets informally every Wednesday at 1:00 P. M. on the third floor of Massoletti's Coffee House, 91 Water Street, near Wall Street. Until recently we met at a more centrally located restaurant, but that restaurant one day, in the height of its prosperity, suddenly closed up for reasons unknown to its patrons, but I suppose well known to its creditors.

When the attendance gets a little stronger, we will arrange a more convenient meeting room.

The Secretary's address has been changed to 83 Fulton Street, New York City, where he will be glad to meet the visiting brothers and welcome them in our midst.

Thomas W. Constable, Secretary and Treasurer.

with their widely separated chapters placed needless additional expense and duties upon the active chapters.

nity, held on December 29, 30 and 31, A. D. 1923, was one of the greatest conventions in the history of the fraternity. This is true not only of the constructive work in organization that was done, but also true of the caliber of men present and the spirit of fraternity that existed at all times, whether in the midst of labor or refreshment. One of the outstanding social features was the Convention Banquet at which our esteemed Brothers Hon. William Howard Taft, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Major General Hanson E. Ely, and Hon. Arthur J. Tuttle, Judge of the United States District Court at Detroit, made splendid addresses.

There were in addition to seven alumni chapters forty-two out of forty-five active chapters represented in the Convention. The committee on constitutional amendments under the chairmanship of Past Supreme Justice August A. Rendigs, performed meritorious service. There were several constructive amendments formulated by this committee, among them an entirely new provision of the constitution creating a Board of Trustees to administer a National Endowment Fund to be used for the purpose of assisting chapters in purchasing homes or building chapter houses. By resolution adopted by the convention some $8,500 was turned over to the Trustees as a starter, with a further provision in the amendment for the sum of $2.00 out of each per capita tax collected thereafter being paid to the said Trustees.

Among many other amendments of importance was one providing for the abolishment of the District Conventions giving the power to appoint District Justices into the hands of the Supreme Justice. This was done because it was felt that the District Assemblies

A revised ritual was presented to the Convention by Allan T. Gilbert, chairman of the ritual committee, and a new committee under the chairmanship of Philip E. Barnard was appointed to revise the old one using parts of the new ritual presented, said committee to report to the next convention. Two thousand directories compiled by Dwight P. Green, Supreme Historian, were turned over to the present Historian for sale and distribution.

ALLAN GILBERT

The following officers were elected for the ensuing two years: George E. Fink, Supreme Justice; Joseph A. Carey, Supreme Vice Justice; Frank M. Ludwick, Supreme Secretary; Allan T. Gilbert, Supreme Historian; Professor Harry W. Humble, Editor-in-Chief; Howard B. Henshey, Supreme Marshal; Frank L. Fawcett, Rex. G. Hardy and Dwight H. Green, Board of Tribunes; and August A. Rendigs, Jr., Harvey D. Taylor and Arthur L. Limbach, Board of Trustees for the National Endowment Fund.

In the early part of 1925 our Editor-in-Chief resigned because of press of work and John Bradfield, an alumnus of Campbell Chapter of Ann Arbor, Michigan, was appointed by the Supreme Board to fill the vacancy. Brother Bradfield immediately assumed his duties and published the April issue of the Quarterly.

During the past two years the following five chapters were installed and added to the official rolls of the fraternity:

Fletcher Chapter was installed on January 12, 1924, by Vice Justice Joseph A. Carey of Washington, D. C., at the University of Florida, at Gainesville, Florida. Many distinguished guests were present and a group from the active chapter assisted the Supreme Vice Justice in his installation work.

At the urgent request of Governor-General Leonard Wood of the Philippine Islands, the Board of Regents has extended until 1926 Professor Gilmore's leave of absence from the University of Wisconsin. In 1922 Professor Gilmore was appointed by President Harding, Vice Governor-General of the Philippine Islands and Secretary of Public Instruction. He is at the head of the entire educational system of the Islands. He supervises an annual expenditure of $9,000,000 for education and public health and has in his Department more than 25,000 employees. He is Chairman of the Board of Regents of the University of the Philippines and also has supervision over all private schools and colleges. The enrollment of children in the public schools is 1,100,000. Governor Gilmore has with the aid of the staff of educational experts from the United States headed by Dr. Paul Monroe of Columbia, just completed a comprehensive survey of the entire educational work in the Philippines.

Reese Chapter

Brother Adam McMullen, Governor of Nebraska, and a member of Reese Chapter, was born at Wells-ville, New York, and soon after came to Nebraska where he attended the University of Nebraska. He worked his way through the University, and received his A. B. in 1896. He then attended Columbia University law school where he received his LL.B.

Brother McMullen practiced law for many years at Wymore, Nebraska, and also engaged in extensive farming until elected Governor in 1924. He was a member of the house of representatives in 1905 and 1907, and state senator in 1917.

During the world war, Brother McMullen was in training camp at Camp Meigs, Md. He was the first to introduce a direct primary bill in the legislature and was chairman of the committee which formulated the present law.

Brother McMullen is a Mason, Elk, and Legionnaire, and a member of the Nebraska State Bar Association.

WITH THE CHAPTERS

Kansas City
Law School

Benton Chapter held a golf tournament on September 1 at the Lakewood Golf and Country Club. About thirty members participated and Brother George Aylward romped home with a score sheet showing a forty over the nine holes. Brother Bert Sanders was a close second with a forty-two. Each received a silver loving cup as a prize. Brother Jim Daleo led the retreat with a snappy (?) sixty-eight. He received a few razzberries.

On September 19, Benton Chapter initiated ten pledges into membership. The Elks Club Hall was rented and "Red" Hoth made the evening "Red Hot" for the pledges. About a hundred alumni members turned out to assist and celebrate the occasion. Several men from Green Chapter were also there. The pledges stood the tests for mental and physical ability but the druggists raised the price of arnica the next day.

Red Hoth remarked, "This is the best looking bunch of pledges we have had since I was a pledge."

The men who were initiated into membership are: Fenton Grigsby, Charles Hipsh, Avery R. Kier, Herbert H. Knapp, Erwin O. Kunau, J. D. Moran, Oliver J. Neibel, Nicholas J. Nero, Marion E. Ramsay, John O. Starkey.

October 2 we gave a smoker at the Chapter House. Many guests from our Law School were with us as well as brothers from Green and Lawson Chapters.

At this writing we are looking forward to our first party of the school year, which we will give on October 31, at Ivanhoe Temple.

Our local paper, "The Bovine Scoop," is thriving well under the direction of the Calhoun Brothers, who are the new editors.

Benton Chapter is preparing for the National Convention in St. Louis and it is the hope of the Committee that the delegates from every western chapter will stop in Kay See and go down with us. The Committee is trying to arrange for a special train and are hoping that by combining the western chapters with the Benton Chapter men that they will be able to accomplish this.

Prospects for the coming year of school are that it should be one of the best that Benton Chapter has had.

BLACKSTONE

Chicago Kent- man now going strong in his school College of Law work and fraternity interest. During our summer absence the Fraternity Room was redecorated and some new furnishings added. Brother Frank J. Foley is responsible for the improvements.

A series of smokers held on the first four Fridays of the school year proved to be an excellent means of getting the year's work under way without delay and to afford an opportunity to meet the new men at Chicago-Kent. To these meetings we also invite out Alumni, and the response to our invitation was most gratifying. It is an added pleasure to be a member of a Fraternity when one sees a strong tie between the Alumni and the men still in school. Supreme Justice George E. Fink, Supreme Historian Allan T. Gilbert, and R. G. Hardy of the Board of Trustees, were but a few of the prominent Alumni who helped to make these smokers of interest to all by their snappy talks and reminiscences.

Brother John E. Roche, our newly elected Justice, has proved himself to be a very able presiding officer and diplomat. John, by the way, since he returned to school this fall, has been showing signs of impatience and restlessness towards the close of the second hour but he explained his conduct by letting some of us in on the secret that he had recently purchased a diamond ring for the fair lady.

Brother James W. Bishop, whom we welcomed into the Fraternity last May, is now attending Chicago Law School, and will of course transfer his affection to our sister chapter there.

A large graduation last June left us somewhat depleted in numbers this fall, and all the men who are active—those who are willing to sacrifice the personal affairs occasionally for the good of the Chapter—find themselves with two or three jobs apiece. We have some very fine men pledged, however, and since issuing the pledge buttons recently, we have noticed a most efficient corps of valets and assistant janitors. Nuff said—the day of initiation rapidly approaching.

Having returned from a tour of Europe, Brother John P. Burita, a graduate of last June, is looking for office space in our fair city. The possibility of legal partnership between John and one or two other recent graduates is now under discussion. Detail later—or better, watch our ads, and in the slogan commercial publications, "patronize our advertisers."

Last year Blackstone Chapter boasted of the fact that the president of each class in school was a Blackstone. We have not been so fortunate this year, but in the Freshman and Senior elections our men were beaten by narrow margins.

A strong delegation is planning to attend the St. Louis Convention, the word "strong" being susceptible of more than one meaning. Hope to see you there.

—W. T. Nenneman.

In reply to your recent request for chapter news from the P. A. D. Quarterly I wish to say that the above Chapter, under the direction of Justice McGregor, has started off well this year.

The Chapter gave a banquet recently for its pledges. The members of the Law Faculty were all guests of the Chapter.

Several of the older men are back, and there is promising material for pledging.—J. W. Bailey.

ALUMNI NOTES

J. F. T. O'Connor has recently formed a partnership with McAdoo and Neblett and will continue the general practice of law under the firm name of McAdoo, Neblett and O'Connor, with offices in the Bank of Italy Bldg., Los Angeles, California.

CAMPBELL

Fifteen men returned this fall to buckle on the harness again. Nine men have been pledged since the opening of school and three brothers from other chapters have been affiliated. The affiliates are: Brother Paul Jones of Drake University, Brother Karl Heideman of the University of Washington, and Brother Philip O'Hanlon of the University of Nebraska.

The chapter's pledges include: George Gover, Belows Falls, Vt.; John C. Cook, Detroit, Mich.; Robert Martin, Ann Arbor, Mich.; James M. Best, Watertown, S. D.; Franklin Stransky, Savannah, Ill.; John McCarthy, Salt Lake City, Utah; Milo McClintock, Pontiac, Mich.; William Ethridge, Signal Mount, Tenn.; and Howard D. House, Detroit, Mich.

Plans are rapidly taking shape for the alumni home coming date of the Ohio State game. The alumni of Detroit are making ready for a memorable Friday night there for the returning brothers and on Saturday, the scene will shift to the chapter house at Ann Arbor. The date is the tenth birthday for the chapter house. The game in the afternoon will, of course, be the feature of the day but other entertainment is on the schedule.

The chapter emerged from class elections rather well. Brother Page was selected by the Senior class for the vice-presidency and Brother Boyle was elevated by the Juniors to the presidency of that class. Committee lists are well studded with the names of P A Ds also. Altogether, the chapter seems launched on a very successful year. —Philip O'Hanlon.

COLE

Never since the founding of Chester C. Cole chapter, April 3, 1921, have the prospects for the locals been so bright as this year. All the brothers agree that this statement is true and is not a mere bubble-like expression caused by momentary enthusiasm incident to the beginning of the new school year. Also, our accomplishments so far this year bear out the assertion to no small extent.

We were almost desperate at the close of last year. Debts and uncollectable accounts—yes, we had plenty of both. We closed our house, stored our furniture, lost what we considered our key men by graduation, and worst of all, suffered a lack of a healthy morale within the chapter. And this fall, when facing the new year without a home, things looked very gloomy indeed. Even the most faithful brothers who returned early were laggy and disheartened.

However, due to the ingenuity of Brother Neilson, who struck a "hot lead" soon after arriving in town, our shingle soon dangled over the door of one of the finest fraternity homes of the University.

This was encouraging. And the gang that gathered early, choosing blisters to insolvency turned "scabs" and the money we saved by beating the professional movers out of a job was placed in our chapter's "other pocket."

Furthermore, we soon heard from Brother Hart, our treasurer, who during the summer months had done what the rest of the brothers had thought impossible—dragged us through our pile of debts and at the same time saved for us a reasonable outlay of money to start the new year with. At the present time we owe our good standing to a large extent to his fine management.

Justice Cunningham, although not on the job so early has been responsible for several changes in policy and especially for patching up our frozen morale. Justice Cunningham, Vice Justice Neilson, nad Treasurer Hart, will no doubt represent us at the Convention this year.

In all-university honors, our chapter has its share, having copped eight of the twelve class offices in the law school. Clerk Dwight Avis is president of the student council, Brother "Bill" Boelter is basketball coach, and Pledge Jack Sparks is his assistant. We are especially proud to announce the return of Brother Dr. Paul Williams, LL.B., Drake '24, LL.D. Yale '25 as a member of the Law school faculty.

Our social program for the year embraces a monthly dinner in conjunction with the alumnae of Des Moines, and next Thursday night we are planning on entertaining not less than sixty of them at the chapter home. A dance next Friday night will be held in honor of the pledges. Clerk Dwight Avis has been instructed to communicate an invitation to the aforementioned affair to the brothers of Reese chapter, some of whom will no doubt attend and incidentally watch the Drake "Bulldogs" take the "Brass" out of Nebraska the next day when the Drake-Nebraska game is scheduled here.

Our officers for the coming year are: Justice Linn Cunningham, Vice Justice Orie Neilson, Clerk Dwight Avis, Treasurer Byron Hart and Marshall Rudolph Anderson.

Watch for us at the Convention in December.

FLETCHER

At the very beginning of the year, University of Fletcher chapter got into action by Florida a committee to look up the scholarship records of prospective members. The report of this committee led to the pledging of four new men, two of whom have already been initiated after a long and harrowing "bar examination".

The new brothers are Lawrence Rogers of Pensacola and Garland M. Budd of Miami. The pledges, who soon will be initiated, are Gordon Petteway of Quincy and Clyde Atkinson of Tallahassee.

Brother Robert Parker was elected President of the Junior class in the Fall elections. Will Wolfe wields the gavel as President of John Marshall Debating Society—the official literary and social club of the Law college. Brother Fred Ivey is Vice-President and Lawrence Rogers is Secretary.

A series of good times have been planned to take place at intervals throughout the year. Fletcher Chapter extends a hearty welcome to all visiting brothers. Come down and get acquainted with us!

HAMMOND

University of Iowa

This year promises to be an epochal one in the history of Hammond Chapter. For several years the chapter has been without a house, but this year we have secured a home, located at 605 Burlington St. There are seven actives living in the house, together with three pledges; including those who live outside the house there are 12 active men on the chapter roll and 15 pledges. Among the pledges are two seniors: Van Werden, who has had all of his law work here at Iowa and Christman, whose work in Liberal Arts and first two years in law were taken at Harvard. Included in the list of actives living outside the house are Brothers Kelly, Wright and Travis, whose martial bliss prevents them from making the house their home. With the cooperation of these men we expect to make our housing adventure a complete success, with a home well established for future generation of P.A.D.'s.

We have also achieved a higher standing scholastically during the last year. Among the eight highest men in the Junior class are three P.A.D.'s. We are represented on the Iowa Law Bulletin by Brothers Travis and Lewis; Wright is quizmaster in Actions and clerk of the Practice Court.

On Homecoming, Oct. 17, the chapter had the pleasure of entertaining several of its alumni. Among those who were back were Brother Seeburger, County Attorney of Polk County, and Brother Cooney, Judge in the 13th District. One of the features of our Homecoming was a luncheon held at noon Saturday immediately before the Iowa-Illinois game, at which they expressed their pleasure at seeing the chapter established in a house.

There are plans under way for another P.A.D. reunion at the time of celebration, given by the Law School, in honor of the Founding of the school in 1865. At that time we expect to see practically all of our alumni, and, if present plans materialize, we intend to give them a royal welcome to our new house.

At this juncture we cannot give official reports on the political situation in the Law School, but, we feel confident in predicting a sweeping victory for P.A.D.—we will describe the landslide in our next letter, and our prophesy comes true.

Last year the Law School was fortunate in securing as successor to Prof. Breckinridge in Actions and Trial Practice Brother Wayne Cook, a member of the Davenport Bar and known as one of the best trial lawyers in the state. We have been helped immeasurably by Brother Cook's suggestions since he has joined the faculty, and we feel that he deserves special mention as one of our most loyal alumni.

In the words of our less meticulous brothers, "that's all; there ain't no more"—until the next issue of the Quarterly.—Paul M. Dwyer.

University

Holmes Chapter, at Leland Stanford, university is embarking again on a program of all-around legal activity for the year 1925-1926. The chief activity now emphasized is the bi-monthly supper at which all the member gather and talk on legal topics, and at which some eminent attorney, professor or judge is invited to speak, largely on the practical aspects of the law. This was carried on during the past year with great success. Preparations will shortly begin for the annual legal debate with Phi Delta Phi. This has been an institution at Stanford for many years. The last contest was won by the Phi Delta Phi representatives by a two to one vote, former supreme court justices Angellotti and Shurtleff and Professor McCaskell of Cornell judging the debate, which involved an abstract question of conflict of laws. Holmes Chapter was ably represented by brothers Joseph Prior and Leon David.

Brother J. C. Duniway was the winner of the Joffre Medal, awarded by Baron Culbertin of France to the debater who makes the best extemporaneous speech in the Joffre medal debate upon some phase of French policy. This debate is held annually between Stanford University and the University of California, the topic for 1925 concerning the use of French Colonial troops. Duniway was also an alternate in the Stanford-Oxford debate which took place last spring. Brother Stanley Weigel debated against Oxford, making a fine showing and later won the Pacific Coast championship in extemporaneous speaking, all the prominent Pacific coast colleges being represented.

The honor of being student body president of Stanford University went to Charles Beardsley, another P.A.D. of whom Holmes chapter is proud.

One of the foremost achievements of the year was in the scholastic standing of Holmes Chapter. P.A.D. ranked fifth in the scholastic ranking of professional and honorary societies at Stanford last year, Phi Beta Kappa topping the list. P.A.D. ranked number nine in the list of the hundred or more Stanford organizations, and the nearest rival law fraternity ranked eighty-ninth.

The Stanford law school has entered into the ranks of graduate law schools. Only those students who have an A.B. degree or its equivalent, or who were matriculated this year in the law school will hereafter be able to take the J.D. degree, the only one given by the school.

William Wright and Leon David, both of Holmes Chapter, were awarded the Lillick Scholarships in law for the year 1925-26. These are the most prized scholarships of the Stanford law school.

The officers who will serve the chapter for the coming year are: Justice, William Wright; vice-justice, Lin Orme; Scribe, Bruce Wallace; Treasurer, H. Rockefeller; Master-at-Arms, Fred Ludeke; Historian, Leon David.

ALUMNI NOTES

Brother Joseph W. Vickers, until recently private secretary to the Hon. Friend Wm. Richardson, Governor of California, is now back in the active practice of law as partner of Brother Kimpton Ellis, listed in the Professional Directory under the firm name of Ellis and Vickers, Los Angeles.

Heretofore, letters from Kent Chapter have been conspicuous by their absence from the pages of the Phi Alpha Delta Quarterly, but from now on, we shall have a letter on hand for every issue of the quarterly unless the United States postal system fails completely.

Kent Chapter began the semester with only ten old members back, our membership being somewhat reduced by last year's graduating class. The members who returned are: Donald Anderson, G. Milnes

However, in all the history of Kent Chapter, the prospects for a successful year were never brighter. At the initial meeting of the fraternity on Sept. 30, 1925, plans were outlined for an active year. It was resolved to keep our standards high and to maintain a conservative program in pledging, making scholarship and success in the study of the law fundamental prerequisites. To date we have pledged three men, but although the quantity is low, the quality is high. Pledges C. E. Kinney and George Freese are on the University Debate Team. Pledge Harry Baughman is active in administrative affairs, being a member of the Executive Board of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho. All three pledges are men who have "made good" in every sense of the word in the study of the law. Pledging of first year men will be deferred until the second semester, in order to be certain that only men of the highest caliber are selected.

Under the administration of Dean Robert M. Davis, the law school of the University of Idaho is showing a steady and healthy growth. We are pleased to announce that the law faculty has been substantially increased by the addition of Prof. M. H. Merrill, who holds an LL.B. degree from the University of Oklahoma and an S.J.D. degree from Harvard.

LIVINGSTON

Columbia University

We have already acquired jurisdiction in personam over eight of the most desirable first year men. Upon the basis of our present policy the quantity of the addition must give way to quality. It is our belief that a chapter of twenty-five men who are active presents a more desirable situation than a larger organization composed of hastily chosen men who are passively inclined and without social propensities.

The year bid fair to be a real success. There has been a large attendance at each of the regular Tuesday luncheons, and the spirit manifested on these occasions offers a ray of sunshine in a school where everything is run strictly on the business plan. The fact that these get-togethers are worth while is indicated by the way in which they are attended.

This Chapter feels proud of the recent action of the Administration in placing two of our recent alumni on the law faculty for the present year. Brother Carrol Meter Shanks of New York City and Brother Wm. Orville Douglas of Yakima, Washington, are the recipients of this recognition. Both men were members of the Columbia Law Review and distinguished themselves as students of the law.

We are planning a big initiation. There will be lots of the old boys back and "a happy evening will be had by all."

—Geo. Wm. Schroeder.

Vanderbilt University

To start the year off right, we were very fortunate in having seventeen old members return to school and therefore we were able to get off with a good start. At our first meeting, the importance of having chapter rooms was discussed and after a round table discussion in regard to same, we decided to maintain rooms this year and within a few weeks, we hope to have these rooms completely equipped and ready for our meetings, smokers and bull sessions.

The officers for the following year are: J. E. Norman, Chief Justice; J. W. Norris, Associate Justice; Ned Stewart, Clerk; H. T. Holman, Treasurer; John Cartwright, Marshal.

We are not allowed to pledge until after the first term but have lots of good material in view and from time to time during the first term will entertain our prospects with smokers and dinner and theater parties. We were well represented in the election of class officers, Law Club officers, and the literary societies and we will furnish the majority of the forensic material for this year. Brother Norman, our Chief Justice, won the founders medal last year and will be one of the leaders in school activity here this year.

The prospects look very bright for a successful year for Lurton Chapter. We invite any of the brothers who may happen to pass through Nashville to get in touch with us and we will be glad to show him around. Call 7-0443 and ask for Ned Stewart and we will be glad of the opportunity to bring the brother out and show him our school and other points of interest about the city.

We expect to be well represented at the convention in St. Louis and hope to see you all there.

—Ned Stewart.

ALUMNI NOTES

Brother Stevens, '25, is practicing law at El Dorado, Arkansas, with the firm of Stevens and Joiner, 209-10 Mason Building.

McREYNOLDS

This fall, school opened with the same number of old men back that we had last year which was eight. It has always been the policy of McReynolds Chapter to pick men who could be relied upon to uphold the standards of Phi Alpha Delta so we have been very cautious in the selection of our pledges. We have four pledges in the Junior law class and one in the Senior class whom we plan to initiate in the near future. On account of increasing the entrance requirements to two years of pre-law this year there are only six men in the Freshman law class. As a result we will not get many pledges from this source.

As usual, our men have carried on their share of student activities. Brother Buhl is Editor-in-Chief of the Tennessee Law Review. His ability in this capacity is well demonstrated by the quality of this publication which ranks among the best of its kind in the South. Mr. McTeer (pledge) is Business Manager of the Law Review. He also performs his duty in fine style. The scribbler of this letter was granted a license to practice law in Tennessee this fall.

The law school is very fortunate in having Brother Wicker, a graduate of Yale and an alumnus of Calhoun Chapter, on the faculty this year. He has expressed his intention to affiliate with this chapter. We feel that he will make us a wise advisor and will be a great benefit to the chapter.

—Gomer D. Hoskins

REESE

Reese Chapter has gotten comfortably under way for what promises to be another very successful year. Nine members, Brothers Norton, Schaff, Simmons, Black, Mincer, Scherrick, Wolfe, Matthews, and Clark were lost by graduation, and a few brothers have changed to other schools. Twenty-three returned however to carry on with Reese Chapter. Those to return are Brothers Edwin Brown, Verden Drummond, William Gross, Bertram Hawkins, Wilber Johnson, Hoyt Klink, Spencer Little, Bruce Lyons, John Comstock, Robert Craig, John Conley, Dwight Dahlman, Richard Elster, Charles Fisher, Ted Frogge, Ira Kroese, Al Luebs, Rollin Mansfield, Theodore Ratcliff, Donald Sampson, John Sheldahl, and William Trumbull.

Our first act was to get our new house in a presentable condition which was done in short order. Many little donations were made by the various brothers to furnish the house with and give it a very homey atmosphere. By that time the first semester was well under way and we began an intensive rush program. This was aided by a freshman law smoker, an annual affair, held at that time. Members of the law faculty were present and favored us with very encouraging talks, which was the feature of the evening.

Some time was taken in selecting the new material for the Chapter and when the smoke had cleared from this field of action we had added four juniors and twenty-one freshmen to the Chapter. For quality they are of type that makes a fellow feel like thumbing his suspenders and say, "We point with pride—".

The Juniors pledged, Brothers Hugh Wilson, Edward Eaton, Gregg Watson, and Ernest Raun, were initiated October 18. Our present group of pledges consists of Merritt Benson, Ivan Bernstruch, Lawrence Brownson, Paul Byers, Wendell Cameron, Norman Dahl, John Elser, Fred Ekstrom, Dudley French, Herbert French, Whitney Gilliland, Louis Heyyde, Francis Kain, Earl Keefer, John Liesvelt, Willard McGriff, Clarence Hahn, Wendell Mumby, Albia Nelson, Loran Nelson, Robert Powell and Arnold Van Borken.

A change in officers was made early in October when Justice Brown found it necessary to resign. Brother Craig was elected to succeed Brother Brown, and Brother Sheldahl was elected to the position of Marshall, which makes the present officers, Robert Craig, Justice; Donald Sampson, Vice Justice; Verden Drummond, Treasurer; Al Luebs, Clerk, and John Sheldahl, Marshall.

Despite the fact that a great deal of work is required of Nebraska Law students, many of our brothers find time to enter into various lines of campus activities and athletics. Justice Craig, who has enjoyed the honors incidental to being editor of the Cornhusker, and Cadet Colonel of the University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. as well as numerous other activities, is now Studio Director and Announcer for the University of Nebraska Radio Studio, which has just been organized and is being developed by him. The Studio is one of the finest in the west and is broadcasting through K.F.A.B. Tune in some evening particularly on Tuesday evenings when he is at his best.

Continuing the discussion on activities, Brother Sampson is editor of the Cornhusker this year and Cadet Colonel of the R.O.T.C. Brother Comstock has a good line on the position of track manager this year. Brother Trumbull is manager of the University employment bureau, and Brother Watson is the State Master Counsellor of the De Molays. Pledge Cameron is making a strong bid for football manager for the next year and Pledge Ekstrom is one of the mainstays of our basketball team. In addition to these several of the brothers are engaged in the various minor activities.

Scholarship is being stressed more than ever this year. Eight brothers, Hawkins, Johnson, Miller, Conley, Craig, Mansfield, Hyde, and Luebs received scholarships this fall. The pledges are meeting each Tuesday evening for review sessions and are certainly to be commended on the spirit in which they are entering into the task. We are expecting some remarkable showings from that class this year. To add a little inducement to their work, a Freshman Scholarship cup has been presented to the Chapter which is to be awarded at the end of each semester and also at the end of the year to the brother securing the highest average for the entire year.

Another helpful feature added to our program this year is the practice of having some prominent judge or lawyer at the house each Tuesday evening to give a short talk on some subject concerning the problems of a lawyer in actual practice. These have proven very successful and will be continued throughout the year.

Plans are under way for social activities. Our annual Fall Party will be held in the ball room of the Governor's Mansion, Friday, November 27, Governor McMullen, a member of Reese Chapter having very kindly offered it to us. Our Spring Party will be the latter part of March. These are the two outstanding social events on our calendar with several house parties and a Christmas party staged by the freshmen, scattered between.—Al Luebs.

RYAN

The beginning of the year finds Ryan Chapter with twenty-nine active members and fifteen pledges. We have had a very successful pledging season, and among our pledges are two "W" men and an A.E.F. Captain. The men are all leaders in the law school and on the campus generally. Here they are: Stanley Guyer, John Cavanaugh, D. F. Kennedy, John Kohl, Carlton James, Howard Bast, Samuel Sabin, John Valentine, Thomas Carter, Gill Smith, Leonard Schmidt, John Hubbins, Roger Atkinson, Theodore Gevaart, and Sidney Hanson.

With such a group of men coming into Ryan Chapter we look forward to a very successful year.

In order to show the first year men that the law school does not mean all work and no play, we gave a house dance in honor of the pledges. There was a fine turnout for the dance, and the pledges had a great time. They are all looking forward to another house dance.

Homecoming brought back to Madison many P.A.D.'s this year. We entertained for them at open house, and many old friends met again. We always look forward to these get togethers with the "old timers," and we certainly enjoyed the homecoming of P.A.D.'s this year.

The building association has just appropriated $3,000 to renovate the chapter house. A little remodeling will be done, and the house will get a thorough going over both inside and outside. Now that the State Legislature has passed a law prohibiting the University from having the annual Promenade in the State Capitol, it would not surprise us if the Prom chairman requested the use of the P.A.D. house for that purpose, after the decorators get through with it.

P.A.D.'s are active this year as usual. Four out of five students on the Wisconsin Law Review are P.A.D.'s. They are Brothers Myron Stevens, student editor-in-chief, Eugene Williams, Francis Lamb and Carlton James. Brother Bleberstein is an assistant football coach this year. It would take a couple of pages to list all of our activities.

Brother Rice of the Law faculty visited the League of Nations at Geneva shortly before school opened, and he has a store of many interesting stories of the working of the League as a result. Brother Nicolans has taken over the house store which Brother Williams gave up as he was losing money running it. We hope the store fares better under the management of "Nick." Brother "Bod" Cannon has brought a young and inexperienced dog into the house. Some of the brothers say that either the dog or "Bod" must go. A word to the wise is sufficient.

ALUMNI NOTES

Brother Rex Hardy, of Los Angeles, California, spent a number of days in Chicago recently visiting old friends and particularly his brothers in Phi Alpha Delta.

Brother Hardy, who is now the head of the firm of Hardy, Elliott and Aberle, attorneys of Los Angeles, formerly lived in Chicago, having attended the Illinois College of Law and there joined Phi Alpha Delta through Joseph Story Chapter in 1908. He removed to the Coast in 1910, taking his Senior year of law at the University of Southern California, during which he founded and helped install Erskine M. Ross Chapter at that University. Later Brother Hardy was instrumental in the founding and installing of Temple and Holmes Chapters at the University of California and Stanford University respectively.

Brother Hardy has kept himself active in the fraternity, having been instrumental in the creation of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, and having served a term as Supreme Vice-Justice of the fraternity following his election thereto at the Convention held in Kansas City in 1921.

It will be remembered that Brother Hardy was unable to get to the Convention at Washington in 1923 owing to the fact that shortly before the Convention he went to Central America on a business trip.

TEMPLE

Jackson Temple Chapter, Phi Alpha Delta began this semester with fourteen of the Old Guard back in College. Those who returned are "Jimmie" Thuesen, "Bill" De Martini, "Don" Young, "Jimmie" Toner, "Walt" Davis, "Hub" Newlin, "Bud" Brown, "Eddie" Hodel, "Russ" Bord, "Chet" Monette, "Anson" Morgan, Harry Metz, "Ed" Moore, Royce Wilson.

Nine P.A.D.'s graduated last semester, eight of whom were successful in passing the State Bar Examination.

As the open season for pledges is at hand, a smoker was held recently, to which ten prospects were invited. Subsequently eight of these were "passed."

We have no Chapter House here at Hastings, and the lack of one is keenly felt. The benefits to be had from a house are, of course, innumerable. In fact, the lack of a house with its unifying influence, and its places for discussions, meetings, and entertainments is perhaps the greatest restriction on our growth. But we do our best to overcome this handicap by holding regular weekly meetings; smokers and informal dinners at as frequent intervals as possible.

Two of our budding barristers have deserted the ranks of single blessedness! The benedicts are, Jack Howard and Marshall Orr.

In the election for Student Body President this year the P.A.D.'s and the Phi Delta Phi's each had a candidate in the field. The balloting was spirited but Phi Alpha Delta emerged victorious, the winner being "Jimmie" Toner.

The Chapter Officers for the year are Lionel Browne, Justice; Royce Wilson, Vice Justice; Donald Young, Clerk; James Thuesen, Marshall; Walter Davis, Historian.

Brother Nugent, ex-Justice, recently appeared in court with his first cast and gave a good account of himself. He is associated with Brother Cunningham. This firm should become one of the leaders in the field some day with men of such talent associated together.

Chris Jenks, a P.A.D. from Holmes Chapter is a third year man at Hastings this year.

Brother Kaufman is now associated with James A. Ballentine who is a Prof here, and an Honorary member of Phi Alpha Delta.

The Brothers of Jackson Temple Chapter extend their heartiest greetings and best wishes to their Brothers in other Chapters and hope that they will all be successful in passing the examinations at Christmas.—Walter M. Davis, Jr.

WATSON

As David T. Watson Chapter begins its first year as a member of Phi Alpha Delta fraternity the prospects for a successful year appear bright. True we feel the loss of our alumnae who graduated last June and Vice Justice Babcock who has transferred to Yale University. But the remaining brothers are putting forth their best efforts to make our first year a mark to be aimed at in future years.

Our Chapter activities are now well under way. Our Monday night dinners have been well attended by members of the chapter. We have had the pleasure of listening to interesting talks by various members of the local bar, among them brother Bradley McK. Burns (Campbell), on various subjects of interest to lawyers and law-students on these occasions. Our moot court is now well under way. As the law school does not feature moot court work as a regular part of the school curriculum, we regard this as of great importance. The present membership has already had experience in this work in the past year. This year we expect to put more emphasis on argument to the court in order to prepare for the inter-fraternity contest to be held later in the year under the auspices of the law school.

In closing the Chapter extends a hearty invitation to any brother visiting the city to attend our Monday night meetings and become acquainted with our membership.—G. L. Reade, ..

WILLEY

It has been said that "a young lawyer will gain more useful knowledge of men and things by selling real estate or fire insurance than by pursuing the law." The members of Willey Chapter of P.A.D. wish to refute that statement and say that through the law school and the association of the fellow members of Willey Chapter we are gaining more knowledge of men and affairs than could ever be had in real estate or fire insurance. It is through our training here in school and in the fraternity that we learn the truth of the statement "the higher the quality of our work, the more necessary it is that you approach it only when you are at your best." Willey Chapter is trying to impress this upon not only its own members but all the students of the law school and to do this it is sponsoring law clubs, membership in which is open to all the students in the law school. We are proud of our chapter here and of the work that its individual members are doing.

At a special meeting last spring the following officers were elected: Hale Posten, justice; Wilbur C. Perry, vice-justice; Chas F. Gore, clerk; June Young, treasurer, and John L. Whitten, marshall. Needless to say that through their leadership Willey Chapter is marching on toward a successful year.

When the senior class met this year brother Posten was elected president and brother Perry vice-president. In the student body election brother Posten was defeated for president of the student body by less than one hundred votes. Brother Mahan is captain of one of the greatest teams that ever represented W. V. U. on the football field.

Although Willey is without a chapter house at the present time there is nothing lacking in the fraternal spirit. Our weekly luncheons, moot courts, and regular meetings afford us the opportunity to cultivate the spirit that exists in the chapters which so fortunate as to have homes of their own.

Mid-semester time is approaching and the brothers are already delving deep in legal lore to make sure that they are missing nothing since the motto of Willey Chapter is "Efficiency,"—and most of the brothers have come to realize that nothing is more satisfying than that mark that registers the result of efforts well spent.

Willey Chapter is young yet but give us time, and advise, sister chapters, and we will prove to be more than willing pupils.

It is not long now until the rushing season will open and once more P.A.D. will turn her search light upon the freshman class to fill the places of those who last spring set sail upon that tempestuous sea that awaits every young barrister.

We are happily content with the state of affairs at Willey and we anticipate great results when time has given her an opportunity to manifest her worth in this rich field for endeavor.—Chas. F. Gore.

Unversity
Your "Baby Brother" Chapter is maturing very rapidly! In fact it can already say "HELLO" to all the Brothers in Phi Alpha Delta, and express a strong feeling of satisfaction and Thanks for the honor that has been bestowed upon it.

Our installation was very capably conducted by Supreme Justice Fink with the assistance of Brother Harrold Webster, of Chicago, Brother Lyman P. Wilson, of Cornell University, and Brothers Parks, Dickinson and Page of Campbell Chapter. We cannot express too much appreciation for the advice and aid which these Brothers gave us. An account of the installation will be found in another section of the Quarterly.

While handicapped somewhat due to the strong competition on Phi Delta Phi and Delta Theta Phi both of whom have long been established here, we are proud to announce the pledging of D. D. Axtel, J. D. Hurley, L. W. Morse, C. S. Rehmyer, and H. H. Reynolds. The chapter has adopted a policy of requiring a prerequisite of successfully passing ten hours of Law work before initiation. By this means we hope to send out in the world as P.A.D.'s only men who have proven their worth so far as the fundamental knowledge of law is concerned.

Scholarship, while not the prime and only object of this chapter, is a very important and necessary accomplishment. It is with a great deal of satisfaction that we announce that this chapter, as the Boardman Club, led both Phi Delta Phi and Delta Theta Phi by a comfortable margin in scholarship for the second term 1924-25. While not neglecting other activities and other interests, we hope to repeat our accomplishment this term.

The officers of the chapter are: Justice, D. P. Blake; Vice-Justice, F. B. Campbell; Clerk, D. F. Flanagan; Treasurer, E. W. Ickes; and Marshall, F. B. Goodelle.

Due to the Law College being a graduate school the outside activities of the chapter members are necessarily limited. However in the "inner workings" of the Law College the chapter is well represented. Brothers MacDonald and Rice are on the Cornell Law Quarterly. Brothers Blake and Rice are members of the Law Tax Committee. Brothers MacDonald and Rice are high ranking in the Third year Honor Group. Brother Conroy is in the Honor Group for the Second Year men. Brother Blake is Captain of the Law College Soccer team and Brothers Adams and Bolles aided in winning the Division championship.

By a vote of the members of the Third Year Law class, Brother Rice was chosen from among the leaders of the class to receive the Fraser Scholarship one of the highest honors obtainable in the Law College.

We are mighty glad to be with you and hope to become better acquainted at the convention.

—Donald P. Blake.
