CHARMAIN MANOR

On September 28, 29 and 30, the Supreme Executive Board held its annual meeting at the beautiful home of Supreme Justice William S. Culbertson. His home, pictured here, is known as "Charmain Manor." It is located at Charmain, Franklin County Pennsylvania.

Meeting of the Supreme Executive Board

THE meeting of the Supreme Executive Board of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was called to order by Supreme Justice Culbertson at his country home at Charmain, Pa., on September 28th, 1935.

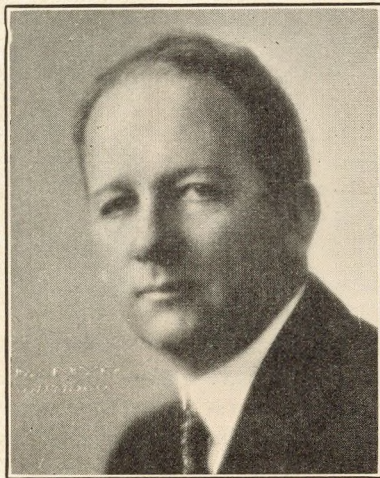

There were present when the meeting opened, Supreme Justice Culbertson, Supreme Vice-Justice Green and Supreme Secretary Ludwick. Supreme Alumni Advisor Rutledge arrived on the morning of September 29th.

The Supreme Justice announced that he had received a communication from Supreme Faculty Advisor Wilson to the effect that he would be unable to attend the meeting.

The Supreme Secretary reported that he had visited eight chapters en route to the Board meeting, namely, Knox, Taney, Harlan, Green, Benson, Benton, Clark and Jefferson. He further reported that on his return trip he expected to inspect Taft, Jay, Hay, Willey, Watson, Marshall, Story, Fuller, Blackstone, Webster, Hammond, Cole, Reese, Hughes, Gunter, Sutherland, Field and Temple.

The Supreme Secretary reported to the Board on the condition of all the chapters which showed most of the chapters to be in excellent condition and that the prospects were favorable for an exceedingly satisfactory and prosperous year.

After considerable discussion, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried it was resolved: That the annual subscription price of the Reporter be reduced from two dollars to one dollar and fifty cents per annum; that at least every two years beginning with 1936, the Fraternity publish a chapter manual edition which would include a business exchange directory in geographical arrangement; that a charge of one dollar per year be made for such listing; that listings be limited to members who are subscribers to the magazine and professional listings; that such listing indicate any special form of practice in which the member is engaged; that if the member is holding public office the nature of such office be stated; that if the member is not engaged in the practice of law that the nature and location of his business be stated. Resolved further, that for the remainder of 1935 and for the year 1936 alumni dues and alumni charter fees be suspended; that the duty of soliciting subscriptions for the magazine and professional listings be delegated to the District Justices and the Justices of Alumni Chapters.

The purpose of the resolution was to insure the absolute accuracy of the Directory, a reduction in the expense of publishing it and, insofar as possible, to limit the exchange of business to members who are most interested in and contributing to the support of the Fraternity.

The Supreme Secretary was instructed to prepare a combination subscription blank and questionnaire for the use of the District and Alumni Chapter Justices in securing subscriptions and the data necessary for the Directory.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Supreme Secretary was instructed to prepare and submit to the Chapters as provided in Section I, Article XII of the By-Laws amendments to Chapters IV and X of the By-Laws which would

- a. eliminate compulsory life subscriptions to the official magazine, provided, however, that the individual chapters should have the right, at their option, to require members upon their initiation to take out a life subscription to the magazine at a price of nine dollars payable at the time of their initiation.
- b. entitle all members of chapters in good standing with the Supreme Chapter to receive the magazine during their attendance at law school.
- c. provide that in the event installments had already been paid on life subscriptions that the members would have the option of completing the payments on such life subscriptions on or before January 1st, 1937 or receiving a credit for the amount already paid on annual subscriptions and professional listings after graduation or after leaving law school.
- d. reduce the annual per capita tax from eight to five dollars.

The Supreme Secretary was instructed to prepare and forward with such proposed amendments a complete statement of the arguments in favor of and opposing the adoption of such amendments.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was resolved that hereafter the Supreme Secretary and Editor discontinue the publication in the magazine of legal and quasi legal articles and that all available space be used for the publication of news of the chapters and of alumni and information of a fraternal nature.

Dwight H. Green

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was resolved, that Phi Alpha Delta affiliate with the Inter Professional Fraternity Conference and become active in the work of the Conference. It was further resolved that the Inter Professional Fraternity Conference be urged to present a protest to the Inter Fraternity Conference against the interference or participation of social fraternities in the rushing and pledging activities of Professional Fraternities.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was resolved; that the date of the next biennial convention be set for December 29th, 30th and 31st, 1936 and that the convention be held at Washington, D. C.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was recommended that the Supreme Justice appoint Brother Richard Gardner of Jacksonville, Florida, as Deputy District Justice and that he be requested to devote particular attention to the rehabilitation of Keener Chapter at Emery University and to the establishment of new chapters at the University of Georgia and Duke University.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the action of the Supreme Executive Board in approving by mail applications for permission to initiate honorary members was ratified and approved.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Board approved expenditures of funds under vouchers numbered 1857 to 2103 inclusive.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was resolved that the Supreme Alumni Advisor be instructed to continue his efforts to organize additional alumni chapters and state associations; that he institute a campaign to induce alumni chapters to participate more actively and as a unit in the activities of local and state bar associations for the purpose of advocating and bringing about needed improvements in local conditions affecting the legal profession and for the purpose of promoting constructive programs which may from time to time be approved by the Supreme Executive Board as proper subjects for the endorsement of Phi Alpha Delta as beneficial to our profession and our commonwealth.

Further resolved; that the Supreme Alumni Advisor be instructed to have all alumni chapters and associations carry forward through their chapters and through their local bar associations the program endorsed by the Supreme Executive Board looking toward the improvement of the manner in which newspapers report important and notorious trials to the end that they will be reported in such a manner as to command the respect and admiration of the public for the courts and the bar. That he further urge such chapters and associations to oppose any untruthful slurs upon the legal profession or its members and to cause improper actions of any publicity seeking jurists to be criticized by local bar associations when possible.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Supreme Secretary was instructed to use the first money received from subscriptions and geographic listings in the directory for the purpose of sending out an annual news letter to every member of the fraternity, such letter to contain fraternity news of outstanding importance, announcement of National Phi Alpha Delta Night and such other material as he may deem proper. He was further instructed to enclose in this letter subscription blanks and questionnaire for the Reporter and Directory.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Supreme Secretary was instructed to urge each chapter to send out at least one news letter per year to their alumni and the Supreme Alumni Advisor was instructed to urge all alumni chapters to issue monthly bulletins to their members.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the date of the next National Phi Alpha Delta Night was fixed for February 8th, 1936, and the following National Phi Alpha Delta Night for December 29th, 1936. The Supreme Marshal was instructed to proceed with the necessary arrangements for the holding of these celebrations and is further instructed to arrange for a national broadcast of the Convention banquet program on December 29th, 1936.

The report of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Endowment Fund was received and approved. The Supreme Secretary was instructed to advise the Chairman of the Board that while the members of the Supreme Board felt that probably his suggestion regarding the purchase of a limited amount of high grade common stocks might be good business judgment, that nevertheless on account of the nature of the trust fund, such a procedure tending to be of a speculative nature, should not be recommended.

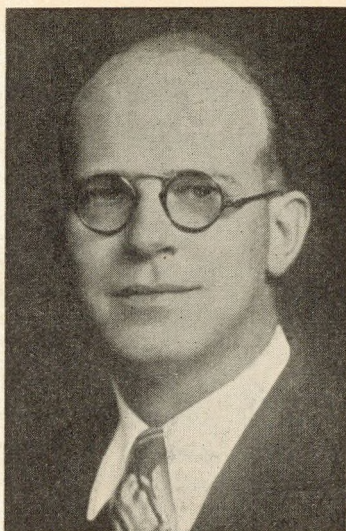

The Supreme Secretary was instructed to, as rapidly as possible, pay into the endowment fund the amount currently owed to it, leaving the old indebtedness to be liquidated by subsequent appropriations for that purpose.

The Supreme Secretary was instructed to accept the proposition of Brother Carey for the liquidation of the Taft Chapter loan and to advise the Chairman of the Board of Trustees the terms of the settlement and of the Supreme Executive Board's approval.

The Supreme Secretary was instructed to arrange for the early inspection by National or District officers of all chapters which he is unable to reach on his inspection trip.

The financial report of the Supreme Secretary was received and approved.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Supreme Secretary was instructed to enforce strictly the provisions of the Supreme Chapter By-Laws requiring the certification for expulsion all members ninety days delinquent in their chapter obligations or who have left school owing the chapter money. He was further instructed to certify to the Supreme Executive Board for suspension any chapter failing to comply with these provisions of the By-Laws.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Supreme Executive Board expressed the sincere appreciation of the members for the delightful hospitality of the Supreme Justice and his charming wife in entertaining them during the sessions of the Board meeting.

In addition to the formal meetings of the Supreme Board reported above, long, informal discussions for the good of Phi Alpha Delta were held by the members before a roaring log fire in the beautiful country home of the Supreme Justice high up on the top of the mountain. More delightful surroundings for the holding of a Supreme Board meeting could not be imagined. All of the members present expressed considerable gratification over the improvement in fraternity conditions generally and Phi Alpha Delta particularly.

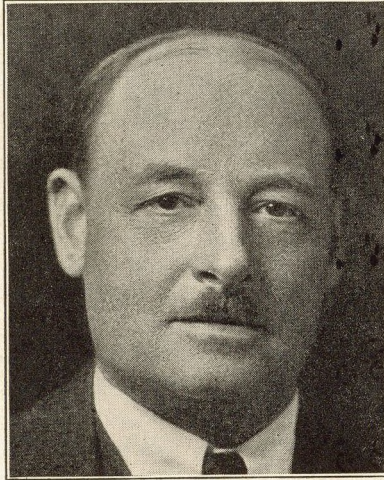

The meeting was declared adjourned at 5 p.m. on Sunday, September 29th, 1935, the members motoring down to Washington, D. C., to attend a joint smoker of Washington Alumni, Jay and Taft Chapters.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

By GEORGE E. FINK
Past Supreme Justice

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, our Eleventh Annual Convention was held at Chicago, Illinois, in the College Room of the La Salle Hotel, on July 8th, and 9th, 1910. Twenty-three Chapters were represented, and it was one of the hardest working Conventions of the Fraternity that it has ever been the privilege of the writer to attend.

The delegates were received on the morning of Friday, July 8th, and the first session of the Convention was called to order by Supreme Justice Samuel H. Roberts. The evening was devoted to a "hike to River-view," at which place excellent spirits were engendered. At the conclusion of the final session on Saturday, July 10th, dinner was served at the University Club. Brother Harry P. Dolan (now deceased) a Judge of the Municipal Court of Chicago, acted as Toastmaster. Among the speakers were Adelor Pettit, a Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, an honorary member of Webster Chapter; Samuel H. Roberts, retiring Supreme Justice; John Doyle Carmody, Supreme Justice elect; Harry R. Saltmarsh of Williams Chapter, representing Phi Alpha Delta in the West; Lawrence W. Ledvina (now deceased) of Ryan Chapter; J. F. T. O'Connor (present Comptroller of the Currency) of Calhoun Chapter, representing the Order in the East.

An account of the affair states that "Music, singing and night vaudeville, as well as a certain rare old product, added to the sparkle of the evening's entertainment, but the critical eye could discern no one present who it seemed would have a rough voyage to quarters, all of which is added to dispel any inference to the contrary."

THE REPORT OF THE SUPREME SECRETARY and Treasurer indicated total receipts for the preceding year of $2233.43, and disbursements of $1555.92, a balance of $677.51, to which was added $105.00 turned over during the Convention, making a total of cash on hand of $782.51. These figures are interesting when compared to the receipts and disbursements of the national organization 25 years later.

Many weighty matters were taken up and considered at this Convention, such as revision of the ritual, subscription to the national organization, and other matters involving amendments to the Constitution, formation of Alumni Chapters, procedure for expulsion of members, form of credentials to national conventions, publication of a national directory for the organization, initiating of honorary members and official songs.

The election resulted as follows:

Supreme Justice, John Doyle Carmody, Washington, D. C.; Vice Supreme Justice, Edward J. Fleming, Kansas City, Mo.; Second Supreme Vice Justice, J. F. T. O'Connor, New Haven, Conn.; Supreme Recorder, Edward J. Hess, Chicago, Ill.; Supreme Treasurer, Frank G. Adams, Bloomington, Ill.; Supreme Financial Secretary, James McKeag, Chicago, Ill.; Editor in Chief, Oscar W. Hoberg, Peru, Ill.; Supreme Historian, Paul C. Meier, Chicago, Ill.; Supreme Marshal, Paul D. Higbee, Kirksville, Mo.; Board of Tribunes: Frank E. Rutledge, New York; Henry R. Saltmarsh, Portland, Oregon, and Harry Risinger, Eaton, Ohio.

AN UNUSUALLY LARGE NUMBER of former Supreme Officers and older alumni were present at this Convention, including several men whose early activities would almost entitle them to be known as founders, such as Charles L. Daly, Lawrence W. Ledvina, William P. J. Halley, Harry P. Dolan, Sidney B. Meyer, David W. Taylor, William G. Bopp, Frank E. Rutledge, Edward McConaughy, Edgar A. Jonas, Walter Rooney, Thomas J. Kindsog, William Prentiss, Jr., Arthur B. Koontz, Samuel H. Roberts, W. Howard Demarest, George M. Weichelt, Frank T. Jordan.

The following named constituted the Committee on Arrangements: Thomas Kindsog, chairman; Harry F. Hamlin, Walter Rooney, George E. Fink, William P. J. Halley, Edgar A. Jonas and Edward Hess.

ON MARCH 26TH, 1910, Jefferson Chapter was installed at the University of Virginia. The installing officer was John Doyle Carmody, then Supreme Treasurer. He was assisted by 14 members of Taft Chapter. They left Washington at 2:00 P. M., and arrived at the University of Virginia at 5:30 P. M., where they were greeted by several of the prospective brothers, and shown the hospitality for which Virginia is well known. The local group had existed for some time under the name of the Jefferson Law Club. The ceremonies began at 8:00 P. M., and lasted until midnight. The new Chapter started out with twelve members. The new officers were headed by George R. Greis as Justice, who later as a delegate from Jefferson Chapter, took a very active part at the Eleventh Annual Convention above mentioned. He acted as toastmaster at the installation banquet. The following day the men from Taft Chapter were taken on a trip to Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, just outside of Charlottesville.

The Chapter started off with a fine list of Honorary Members: Honorable William Hodges Mann, Governor of Virginia; Honorable Samuel W. Williams, Attorney General of Virginia; Honorable Andrew J. Montague, Ex-Governor of Virginia; Senator Thomas S. Martin of Virginia, and Professor Lloyd M. Robinette, of the Faculty.

Thomas Lindskog of Chicago went down to assist in the ceremonies, and on his return to Chicago reported that he had had a wonderful time and predicted a wonderful future for Jefferson Chapter.

ON SEPTEMBER 28TH, 1910, the alumni members of the Fraternity living in and about New York City organized the Phi Alpha Delta Alumni Association of the City of New York City. The following officers were chosen:

President, M. B. Bernstein of Rappollo Chapter; Vice-President, Frank E. Rutledge of Webster Chapter; Secretary and Treasurer, F. I. Stokes of Rappollo Chapter.

TWENT-FIVE YEARS AGO, Brother Ode L. Rankin of Chicago, Illinois, ran for Probate Judge of Cook County, Illinois.

IN MEMORIAM

Major Roland M. Hollock

First Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta

■ MAJOR ROLAND M. HOLLOCK passed away on January 28, 1935, after a very brief illness.

Major Hollock was born June 25, 1874, at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and shortly after his birth the family went to live near Richmond, Virginia, where his father owned a large plantation. After his father's death in 1878, the mother with her family moved to McDonough County, Illinois, not far from the town of Colchester, where she purchased a farm.

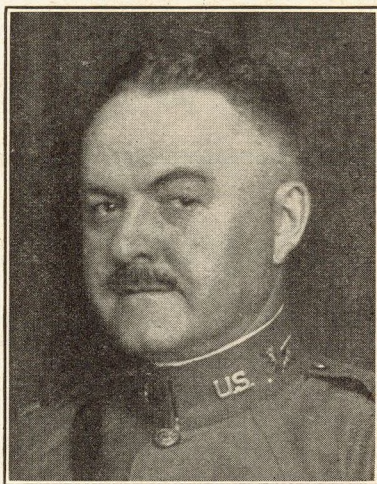

Major Hollock received his education in the country and town high schools, the Normal School at Macomb, Illinois, and Northwestern University. He taught school for several years and became principal of a high school in Adams County, Illinois. While teaching school he entered upon the study of law in the office of Attorney Lawrence Y. Sherman of Macomb, Illinois, who afterwards became United States Senator.

In 1899 Major Hollock went to Chicago to study law and after having finished his course at Northwestern University, engaged in the practice of law in Chicago and continued therein until the early part of the year 1917, when he devoted his entire time and services to the training of men subject to service in the Army.

Major Hollock entered the service as a captain in the Army Service Corps in 1819 and the following year was appointed a Major, Judge Advocate, United States Army. In 1920 he was commissioned in the Regular Army as Major, Judge Advocate General's Department, in which department he served until May 31, 1932, when he was retired from active service on account of disability in line of duty.

After his retirement, Major Hollock took up his residence at Alexandria, Virginia, where he was living at the time of his death.

Major Hollock served as Assistant Judge Advocate, Panama Canal Department, and Judge Advocate, Panama Canal Division, while stationed at Fort Amador, Canal Zone; and during his tour of duty in China he served as Staff Judge Advocate, American Barracks, Tientsin, China.

The remainder of Major Hollock's service in the Army was performed in the United States and included duty at Camp Upton, New York; in the office of the Judge Advocate General, Washington, D. C.; at Fort Sheridan, Illinois; at Headquarters, Sixth Corps Area, Chicago, Illinois; and as Judge Advocate, Fort Benning, Georgia.

Major Hollock was prominently identified with the Masonic fraternity, being Past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars of Illinois. He was a member of Fort Benning Lodge No. 579, F. & A. M., Fort Benning, Georgia; a charter member of Loyal Charter No. 233, R. A. M., Chicago, Illinois; honorary member of Old Dominion Commandery No. 11, Alexandria, Virginia; and life member of the National Sojourners, Panama Chapter. He was also a member of Lincoln Park Commandery No. 64, Chicago, Illinois; Humboldt Park Council No. 113, R. & S. M., Chicago; Oriental Consistory, A. A. S. R., Valley of Chicago; and Medinah Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., Chicago.

Major Hollock was also a member of the Red Cross of Constantine, St. Polycarp Conclave No. 69, of Virginia. He was a member of the Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C. He was one of the organizers of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity and was chosen its first Supreme Justice.

Major Hollock is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lillian A. Hollock; a sister, Mrs. Thomas Applegate of Macomb, Illinois; and a brother, Mr. C. J. Hollock, of Golden, Illinois.

Interment was in Arlington National Cemetery on January 31, 1935, with full Military honors and Masonic rites at the grave. The funeral services were conducted at the chapel at Fort Myer.

ACTIVE CHAPTER NEWS

BENSON

Washburn College

■ Rush week began at Washburn College on September 7, and continued for three days. Benson Chapter proudly announces the pledging of twenty-one men, not including four men pledged last spring. This number of new men together with about 30 actives returning to school, rates the chapter at about 55 members and makes it one of the largest and strongest fraternal groups on the campus.

During the summer Benson Chapter's house was completely repapered, floors were refinished and considerable painting was done. Some new furniture was purchased so that the house is greatly improved. The house is filled to capacity with about 28 men eating regularly at the table. Both house and chapter are in excellent financial condition.

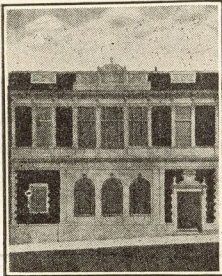

Last year the chapter was very active in intramural sports. It is expected that the activity will continue this year.

BENTON

Kansas City School of Law

■ Revived interest is manifest at Benton Chapter and under the able leadership of the new officers the chapter should soon take its former place among the most active in the fraternity.

Although the chapter does not have a house, comfortable quarters have been arranged for at the Baltimore Hotel where weekly meetings are held.

Although enrollments at the Kansas City School of Law are lower than they have been for many years Benton Chapter is confident that they will get their share of the better pledges.

A new policy has been planned for the present year that should go a long way in adding to the popularity of the chapter. When outstanding speakers are to appear before the chapter the entire law school will be invited to attend. This new policy should do much to spread the good work of the chapter throughout the school.

BLACKSTONE

Chicago-Kent College of Law

■ Because of the proximity of Blackstone and Webster chapters a program of joint smokers have been developed. The first joint smoker was held on September 20, at the Auditorium Hotel in the South Parlor. Attendance was most gratifying, there being approximately 65 brothers present. William O'Shea, Supreme Marshal, represented the Supreme Officers, and delivered an outstanding address on Phi Alpha Delta fraternalism. A general get-together of those in attendance followed by a buffet luncheon helped make the meeting a happy one.

Blackstone has pledged 12 men, "the pick of the school." Plans are made for additional pledging at the next joint smoker to be held in October.

A joint dinner dance has been planned for the evening of October 19th. It will be held at the Auditorium Hotel.

Being in fine financial condition and having an active and aggressive group of members, Blackstone Chapter looks forward to a banner year.

CAMPBELL

University of Michigan

■ Finding that their chapter house was imposing too heavy a financial burden upon the members, Campbell Chapter disposed of same and will, in all probabilities make use of the facilities of the Lawyer's Club. This arrangement should work out most satisfactorily for all concerned. The Lawyers' Club is conducive of study, and, of course, has the facilities on hand. Efforts are being made to have PAD men located in one wing of the club. While this practice has been discouraged for some time a number of PAD alumni are advocating this arrangement and may have some influence in changing the present policy.

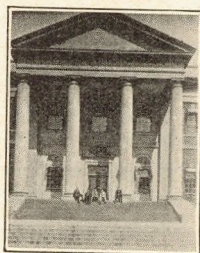

CHASE

University of Cincinnati

■ Although in fine financial condition Chase Chapter suffered a heavy loss of membership due to a heavy graduating class. The rushing period will be pursued actively to bring the membership up to standard size and quality. An unusually large Freshman class makes prospects appear encouraging.

An elaborate rush banquet was held at the Hotel Gibson on October 1, with great support from the alumni. Prominent alumni members addressed the rushees.

Regular bi-weekly luncheon will be continued this year with successful attorneys addressing the members on various phases of the law. Two initiations are planned with dances following each. Review classes will be held for freshmen before examinations. Other activities will be planned during the next month.

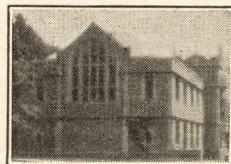

On June 1st, six active members of Chase Chapter installed Lurton Chapter at the University of Louisville. Eleven men were initiated, all of whom seemed to be of very fine character and of the proper type to establish the chapter permanently at Louisville. The ceremonies took place at the Kentucky Hotel and were followed by a banquet at which speeches of welcome and acceptance were duly delivered. The installation was directed by Lawrence R. Lytle.

CLARK

Washington University

■ Clark Chapter's plans for this year include an extensive rushing campaign to be worked out in connection with regular meetings. It has made the practice of holding two or three business meetings each year with all other meetings devoted to social get-togethers featured by talks delivered by prominent PADs.

Meetings are held in various fraternity houses as the chapter has no regular quarters. A number of meetings are held jointly with the St. Louis Alumni Chapter, thus giving the brothers an opportunity to come in contact with PADs in active law practice. These meetings are considered especially beneficial because it permits the student to differentiate from the maze of theory and the experience of active practice.

The chapter is fortunate in having a wealth of good speakers to draw from in and about St. Louis, with the heads of the local bar association for the past two years being PADs.

With fifteen new members coming in this year and a sound financial condition, Clark Chapter is confident of an outstanding season.

FIELD

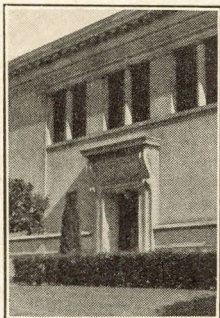

University of California

■ By a mutual arrangement no rushing is conducted by law fraternities at the University of California during the first semester. Efforts are being made to elect one of the professors to honorary membership in Phi Alpha Delta as there is no PAD on the faculty.

Field Chapter is planning an annual spring traditional party to which all freshmen would be welcome. This would go a long way in showing students the character of the members of the chapter.

Many activities during the last semester have materially increased the reputation and popularity of Field Chapter on the California campus. The annual dinner dance celebrating the "finish" of the finals was a hilarious success. Joint initiations with Temple Chapter in San Francisco proved very popular.

Activities of the brothers were noteworthy. Brother Alan B. Aldwell has been numbered among the first ten of his class during the entire three years he has attended Boalt Hall. He has been on the California Law Review staff for the past two years. Kenneth B. Goodman, Associate Editor of the Law Review, has been writing special articles on the subject of "Taxation." Arthur Garfield Potter, Jr., was one of a team that argued, briefed and harangued its way through a series of moot court trials held last semester. Pleading the abrogation of the "gold clause" was constitutional, Potter's team won and the United States Supreme Court was justified. John Guerard finished his term with much applause and was unanimously declared to have done a mighty good job, both as Justice of Field Chapter and as President of the Boalt Hall Law Association.

CLAY

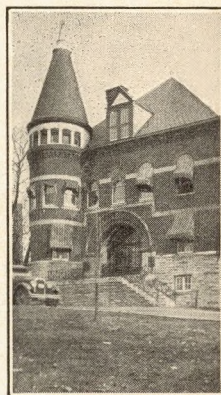

University of Kentucky

■ Henry Clay Chapter is in the best position it has ever enjoyed. With an unusually fine membership the chapter is making outstanding progress and is able to limit its rushing to such men as are most desired. The chapter also reports excellent financial condition with all obligations met and a surplus on hand.

Last semester the scholastic standing of the chapter averaged 1.18. Brother Hatton had an average of 2.4 for three years. Brother Davis had 2.8 standing for his first semester, the highest and only average better than two in the first year class.

An innovation at Clay is the cocktail hour. Held twice each month throughout the year it provides for a general get-together and discussion session. Two banquets were held last year. Clay Chapter initiated two of Kentucky's most outstanding legal figures as honorary members of Phi Alpha Delta, last year. They are former Chief Justice William H. Reese, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals and Judge Charles I. Dawson, Federal District Judge of the Western District of Kentucky. Both fine men and able lawyers, the chapter is proud to call them "brothers."

Clay Chapter was glad to learn of the transfer of the Lurton Chapter's Charter to the University of Louisville and it is hoped that sometime during the current year a joint meeting of the two chapters can be arranged.

One of the most popular men in the school as well as in the chapter is Brother Robert E. Hatton, Jr. Besides his high scholastic standing he was given the honor of the Order of Coif and initiated into Omicion Delta Kappa. In competitive debate before the Kentucky Court of Appeals, he and his partner were successful in winning the verdict in their favor.

FULLER

Northwestern University

■ Weekly luncheon meetings are well attended at Fuller Chapter. Campus activities have been lax and efforts are being made to have the chapter become more active in school affairs. For the present year a program of social functions, dances, dinner meetings and speaker meetings are proposed. These activities should do a good deal toward increasing the chapter's standing on the campus.

GREEN

University of Kansas

■ Energetic and ambitious officers are bringing a new spirit to Green Chapter. With 17 active members the chapter supports its own house. Arrangements have been made for splendid dining room accommodations and the table is always full. Certain influences that have been harmful to the chapter have been completely eliminated and the chapter shows every sign of great promise for the present year. Regular meetings are held twice each month. Outside speakers are invited for dinner.

GUNTER

University of Colorado

■ The beginning of this year finds Gunter Chapter with a relatively low membership but in good financial condition. During the past year a great deal of interest was evidenced in the chapter and it is felt that the rushing season will be exceptionally successful.

Renewed activity by the alumni is proving to be of considerable assistance to the chapter and will be of great value during the present year.

HAMMOND

University of Iowa

■ Although Hammond Chapter lost a number of men through graduation, the outlook is by no means discouraging. To begin with, the chapter is in excellent financial condition. With about ten men returning this year pledging prospects seem encouraging and soon should bring the chapter to its normal size.

Last year the University of Iowa opened its Law Commons Building. Separate sections were set aside for fraternities as well as independents. Hammond Chapter was well represented in the Commons.

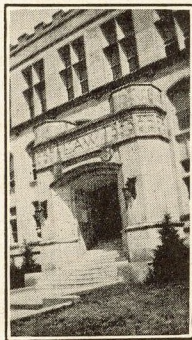

This year the chapter will continue to hold weekly seminars for the freshmen. A series of lectures by practical lawyers from Iowa City are planned. Many of these talks will review the practical side of the law as against the theoretical. These lectures will be run in conjunction with the Sunday evening dinners held twice each month. At the present time a number of smokers are being planned.

Just how the Law Commons will affect legal fraternities on the Iowa Campus remains to be seen. For its many good points there are a number discouraging to fraternity life. Reactions are being carefully observed and further information will be given as results are discovered.

HARLAN

University of Oklahoma

■ All of the active PADs who were graduated from the University of Oklahoma succeeded in passing the State Bar examinations. Brother Leslie Pain made the highest grade of the 88 men who survived the ordeal. Brother Pain ranked first in his class in scholarship throughout the three years of law school, receiving only one "B" in all that time. He was class Marshal in the commencement exercises, and together with Brother Elmer M. Million was initiated into the Order of Coif. Brother Pain is now employed in the legal department of the Southwestern Light and Power Company.

Brother Walter Emery, of the class of 1934, has been called to Washington, D. C., as secretary of Paul Walker, Chairman of the Federal Communications Bureau.

The entire membership of Harlan Chapter was grieved because of the death of Will Rogers, first citizen of the state, and Wiley Post, Oklahoma's premier aviator.

HAY

Western Reserve University

■ Hay Chapter has its home in an apartment house advantageously located on the campus near the law school. This arrangement has been found to be a decided benefit to the chapter and efforts are being made to enlarge the membership so that more men can enjoy the convenience.

Rushing for the coming year is very encouraging, both active and alumni members doing their part. A series of informal parties are planned to assist in the pledging.

Monthly luncheons are held in conjunction with Cleveland Alumni Chapter. Several informal parties are planned with the alumni at the chapter apartment, concluding with a formal dance in the spring. Semi-monthly seminar discussions are also planned. These will be conducted by prominent alumni and will cover interesting problems in the study and practice of law.

HUGHES

Denver University

■ A very successful past year and a promising season is the report from Hughes Chapter. The chapter has been gaining ground for some time and is easily the most popular at the law school. The regular program includes two meetings each month and two or three smokers each year. A very successful rushing party and alumni gathering was held on October 18th.

JEFFERSON

University of Virginia

■ This chapter has been very successful devoting much time to social activities. Their regular program calls for two meetings each month, rushing parties, smokers and dances. The chapter has not held instructive or speaker meetings nor has it done much to encourage scholarship. Efforts are being made to awaken an interest in these subjects and it is expected that progress along more serious lines will soon be reported.

JAY

George Washington University

■ Jay Chapter is in the best condition it has been in for several years. With 14 active men and good prospects for this year the chapter is definitely on the up grade. Weekly meetings and three social events a year are part of the regular program. Added to this is the usual program of smokers, business programs and joint fraternity dances.

KNOX

University of Arizona

■ Knox Chapter suffered heavily from graduation last semester, but is planning an aggressive rushing season this year to offset its loss of membership.

A number of ambitious plans are under way for fall. The second annual speech contest, PAD Night celebration, graduation banquet, picnics and parties are a few of the plans already outlined. Once each month a meeting will be held, during which time outstanding speakers will be invited to discuss law problems.

Among the successful events of the last semester was the inauguration of the "Phi Alpha Delta Speech Contest." The chapter donated a silver cup to be placed in the Law Library. Each year the names of the winning team will be engraved on the cup.

Brother Joseph Meek, Clerk of the Chapter, was elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi.

LURTON

University of Louisville

■ As Lurton Chapter was just installed during the latter part of May of this year no problems of consequence have arisen as yet. Eleven members have been initiated. The Freshman class, with 30 members, offers some excellent rushing material. Arrangements have been made to secure the two top floors of an apartment house to serve as a fraternity house, and the arrangement seems very satisfactory. Meals will be served there and out of town brothers will room there. The quarters contain a large parlor and chapter room and should serve all needs of complete fraternal life.

MARSHALL

University of Chicago

■ Marshall Chapter starts this year with 12 active members and with the prospects of obtaining 14 new pledges. This chapter adopts a policy of careful selection and seeks quality rather than quantity in its membership.

The chapter is in fine financial condition. With all obligations cared for there remains a substantial reserve in the treasury.

Principal activity of the chapter is its weekly meeting, where one or more guest speakers appear. Guests are usually members of the faculty, prominent men on the bench or bar, well known alumni members. Good speakers are always obtainable.

University of Minnesota

■ Mitchell Chapter has much to be proud of in its scholarship record. Final examinations last spring showed the chapter well in the lead with a B average and a numerical rating of 1.60. The chapter is represented by six members on the Student Editorial Board of the Minnesota Law Review for this year.

All regular members of the chapter returned to school this year and luncheons are well represented.

MORGAN

University of Alabama

■ Morgan Chapter reports that the last semester was one of the most eventful and successful in recent years. Numerous fine events were held. Outstanding was the Phi Alpha Delta annual banquet. Judges Russell McElroy and Leigh Clark, two distinguished alumni from Birmingham, Alabama, were present. Judge McElroy was the principal speaker. He exhibited and commented upon the original copies of the signatures and other handwriting specimens used in the Hauptman trial. His address, besides being extremely interesting, was most informative. Another successful event was the annual steak fry.

Thirty men were pledged to PAD last semester. Among them were Hugh Merrill and Paul Thomas, both men having straight "A" records. Brother Walter Gewin had one of the highest averages in the graduating class. Brother Robert Hodnette was chairman of the dance committee of the Barrister's Ball, generally declared the most successful social event of the school year.

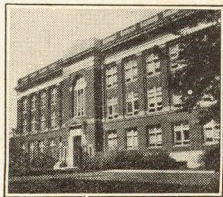

Among the brothers of Morgan Chapter are Joe Burns, Thomas Starling, Hugh Merrill and Carl Elliot, all of whom have been presidents of the University of Alabama Student Body.

REESE

University of Nebraska

■ Marked distinction came to Reese Chapter last spring when two PADs were selected for the Order of Coif at Nebraska University Law College. They were Brothers Wilbur Johnson, who tied for second place in scholarship in the senior class, and Homer Wiltse, who was in third place. Brother Wiltse was Justice of Reese Chapter last year while Brother Johnson, in addition to being athletic manager, was the chapter's delegate to the PAD National Convention last year.

PAD gained further scholastic recognition on the Nebraska Campus by being awarded a plaque for high scholastic rating among the fraternities on the campus. The award was made at the Interfraternity Banquet held at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Memories of the alumni will be stirred by the news that Reese Chapter again came through with another of its famous Coffee Dan parties last spring. The success of the party was due largely to the efforts of Brother Eagleton.

In athletics Brother Bill McGuire again brought credit to Reese Chapter by winning the single handball championship of the University of Nebraska for the second consecutive year.

During the spring a banquet was held in honor of District Justice Albert E. Cunliff, who was visiting at that time. Numerous alumni attended. Other guests present were Brother Edwin F. Carter and Bayard H. Paine, both Justices of the Nebraska Supreme Court. Brother J. R. Calhoun, Special Investigator of the Department of Justice, was a visiting guest from Benton Chapter.

ROSS

University of Southern California

■ Ross Chapter entered into activities this season with its usual success and good fellowship. An early affair that was a great success was the rushing party held at the home of Brother Frank M. Ludwick, Supreme Secretary.

The outstanding rushing event of the season was a banquet given at the University Club by the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter for the Ross Chapter members, pledges, and rushees, on October 3. The highlight of the evening was an inspiring speech by Brother J. F. T. O'Connor, the national Comptroller of the Currency.

The members of Ross Chapter have played a leading part in the activities of the School of Law of the University of Southern California in recent years, and from all indications, this year will be no exception. Last year, all major student offices were held by Phi Alpha Delta members. Roy Brown was president of the Law School Student Body; Joe Wheeler, Robert Vandergrift, and Sherman Jensen were presidents of the Senior, Junior, and Freshman classes, respectively. This year, Robert Vandergrift is president of the Law School Student Body. The class elections for the coming year have not yet been held. Members also hold responsible positions in the Southern California Legal Aid Clinic, (which is operated under the supervision of the School of Law) the Practice Court, and the Library.

In scholarship, Ross Chapter has maintained a creditable record. Last year, John Hall won the Lamda Gamma Phi key, which is annually awarded to the member of the Freshman Class maintaining the highest scholarship for the year. Roy Brown was elected to the Order of the Coif, national legal honorary society. The Daly Scholarship was won last year and this by Richard Yeamans. At the present time, seven members of the chapter are on the Student Editorial Board of the Southern California Law Review, who were selected from the scholastic highest ten per cent of the Junior and Senior Classes.

Various committees have been appointed to take charge of a well planned program for the coming year, which include weekly luncheons, business meetings, and occasional dances.

The Chapter is fortunate in having some exceptionally good Phi Alpha Delta faculty members such as Brothers J. J. Cherry, L. O. McCabe, S. R. Pulaski and G. F. Hurley.

University of Wisconsin

■ Due to the fact that a large number of members graduated last year Ryan Chapter started off with a comparatively small number of active members. A number of pledges were carried over from last year and in addition several good new men have been pledged which will bring the Chapter's strength back to normal.

Brother Fulton has been elected vice-president of the Law School Association. He is also a member of the Wisconsin Law Review and stands with the leaders of the class scholastically. Brother Nohr was awarded a $125.000 scholarship this Fall. This being one of three scholarships offered by the Alumni of the Wisconsin Law School.

STAPLES

Washington & Lee University

■ Staples Chapter suffered a severe setback when the law school was destroyed by fire last semester. In the fire many of the members lost all of their law books and were obliged to purchase new ones at heavy cost. The new law school building is under course of construction and should be completed in January. Facilities for 150 more men have been included and this should reflect favorably for the chapter.

STORY

DePaul University

■ Story Chapter house is not as well occupied as in the past, although they are breaking even financially.

Efforts are being made to attract more members to it, and with 29 members to choose from this problem should not present a great difficulty.

Regular dinner meetings are held with guest speakers. Other social functions add to the activities of the chapter.

SUTHERLAND

University of Utah

■ This chapter is not only in the best condition it has been in years, it is in the best condition it has ever enjoyed. The chapter owes no debts and enjoys a satisfactory balance. The entire chapter is composed of an exceptionally fine bunch of men, Justice Gibson being a Rhodes Scholar.

As a matter of fact, so popular and strong is this chapter that other law fraternities have left the campus.

The men are very progressive and have inaugurated a weekly lecture course to be conducted by Prof. Ritter on the subject of Pleading and Practice to which the entire law school has been invited. This is being very well patronized and the Chapter is very grateful to Prof. Ritter for his cooperation. Regular evening meetings are held with prominent speakers and a few social events are held each year.

TAFT

Georgetown University

■ Taft Chapter opened the semester with 13 active members. Since many of the students of Georgetown University are government employees, the Law School is detached from the University proper and is located in the downtown district. This makes it possible for employed students to attend classes in the afternoon.

Chapter meetings are held twice each month, usually at a centrally located apartment. However, this year the chapter contemplates arranging for a room in a well located hotel.

A number of initiates are awaiting the ceremony and plans are being made for another initiation in the spring.

The financial condition of the chapter is excellent. No current obligations exist and future prospects are encouraging.

Although it is early to announce plans for the current season, two dances have already been programmed. Several smokers are contemplated, including some joint activities with Jay Chapter. Smokers staged by Taft Chapter usually are attended by visiting PAD alumni while visiting in Washington, thus permitting the brothers to meet with the PADs from all over the United States.

TANEY

Southern Methodist University

■ Taney Chapter is proud of its scholastic standing and uses strictest care in selecting initiates who will maintain its enviable reputation. Of the nine PADs graduating last semester four of the men made the highest averages of the Senior class.

Prospects for the coming year are very bright. Eleven of the best men in the 1937 class have been pledged to PAD, and already several have been initiated. The neophytes are keenly interested in the future of the fraternity and have made extensive plans for the fall.

The financial condition of the chapter is excellent. Last year found all of the debts of the chapter paid with a comfortable balance left over.

During the early part of the summer Taney Chapter held a breakfast in honor of J. F. T. O'Connor. More than 50 PADs attended. Mr. O'Connor delivered a splendid talk and all enjoyed the meeting.

Taney Chapter is anxious to bid for a PAD Convention for the near future. Although not prepared to hope for the 1936 Convention the chapter is building its strength so that it may be able to be host to Phi Alpha Delta at an early date.

TEMPLE

Hastings College of Law

■ The beginning of the school year finds Temple Chapter in fine financial condition. With between 15 and 20 active members good pledging prospects make the forthcoming season most encouraging. The caliber of the new men in school is the highest in many years and many look with favor upon Phi Alpha Delta. The activities of the season are not outlined at this time, but plans are under way to make the current year an outstanding one.

WATSON

University of Pittsburgh

■ Watson Chapter finished the school year with 12 active members—three of whom were seniors. With good prospects for this semester and in fine financial condition, the outlook for 1935 is very bright. Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter has taken great interest in the active chapter and will, no doubt, assist the chapter in its drive for new members.

WEBSTER

Loyola Law School

■ Webster Chapter starts the school year in excellent financial condition and with a surplus on hand.

Prospects for the year are very good. The chapter members are very active in the school administration such as President and two members of the Day Law Council, which is the most influential body in the law school, and several are members of the Loyola Chapter of the Junior Bar Association. Nearly every active and pledge will take part in the Law Club competitions, an activity restricted to day school students which brings together, in final competition, representative Law Clubs from the six leading law schools in the State of Illinois. Loyola was the winner of these competitions last year over all of the other law schools of the State.

Rushing plans call for two rushing parties, a stag and mixed party, and chapter gatherings. Every effort will be made to pledge the best men available.

The first initiation of the year will be held on December 1st, when at least twelve men will be inducted into the fraternity.

WILLEY

University of West Virginia

■ Prospects for Willey Chapter seem especially good for this year. A large number of men have been pledged and all are sound scholastically and fraternally. A new university president and two new professors who have seen high service with the federal government promises some beneficial and informative programs.

Rushing this year will be carried on very much as in the past. The men desired will be very carefully selected.

One of the outstanding successful events of the last year was a humorous mock trial. This year several trials of the same kind are planned. A committee is being appointed to decide whether or not it is desirable to have a fraternity house. All dinners and banquets are being carefully programmed so that the maximum in good can be derived from each.

WILSON

Cornell University

■ At the rush smoker held at Wilson Chapter 40 first year men were present. These men were very favorably impressed with Wil-son Chapter and it is expected that a number of fine pledges will result. This chapter is one of the most active legal bodies on the Cornell Campus and in excellent condition.

NEWS OF ALUMNI

CHICAGO

■ As usual, Chicago Alumni Chapter continues to set a pace for activities that has yet to be surpassed. Under the able leadership of Justice Harry A. Carlson the annual summer outing was held at Mineola Hotel, at Fox Lake, on August 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Available for the alumni were boating, fishing, golf, tennis, swimming and the famous indoor sports. It is reported that most of those in attendance participated in all of them.

The program was declared satisfactory by all present. Friday and Saturday morning was get-together session. No regular events were staged and the brothers were allowed to shift—or drift—for themselves. Much time was spent in renewing old acquaintances as well as elbow bending.

On Saturday afternoon the "Tom Hollywood Golf Tourney" was held. Since this tourney was for permanent possession of the "Tom Hollywood Trophy," the game was well attended and carefully played. Many valuable prizes were awarded to the players.

Saturday evening witnessed the banquet without speeches. Most successful event of the evening was the "Bovine Excrement Contest," where the biggest liars held the best cards. The hotel's spacious bar and card room was the favorite spot that night. Many of the brothers attended dances in neighboring towns.

Sunday morning, those who were still able played in a softball game. Married men tried their experience against the natural skill of the single men. The losers bought beer for the gang.

The first annual Fall Festival and Golf Outing was held at Olympia Fields

Country Club on September 24th. This course is known to be one of the best in the Chicago region. Eighteen holes were played followed by a dinner and presentation of prizes. The event was highly successful and much credit was given to the joint chairmen, George Fink and Albert Peterson.

On October 4th, a special meeting was held at the Hamilton Club for Supreme Secretary Frank M. Ludwick, who was en route home after a meeting of the Supreme Board of Directors in Washington, D. C., and an inspection tour of many eastern chapters. Frank gave a most interesting address on "What's What with PAD Nationally." There was also an inspection of Blackstone, Fuller, Magruder, Marshall, Story and Webster Chapters.

Beginning with the third Tuesday in October, monthly meetings were resumed at the Hamilton Club.

CLEVELAND

■ Cleveland Alumni Chapter held what might be termed its largest and most successful stag outing in its entire history. It was staged on the 29th of June at the Kalal Estate, Brecksville, Ohio, and approximately fifty actives and alumni attended. Not only was the chapter honored by the presence of their own Judge George P. Baer of the Common Pleas Court, but many more of the old time alumni were present. Mr. William Dawson, Secretary of the Reserve Law School, who incidentally, is a Phi Delta Phi and is also Mayor of the town where the outing was held, was also in attendance with his complete staff of city officials.

Of course, the menu consisted of a barrel of beer and approximately twenty-five pounds of steak and all the trimmings necessary for this type of affair. The active chapter borrowed three of the star ball players of the alumni and challenged the pick of the alumni to a ball game. For seven innings it was a nip-and-tuck affair with the score 5-3 in favor of the alumni. In the last half of the eighth a fury broke loose in the nature of nineteen runs for the alumni, which caused the boys from Hay Chapter to toss in the towel and concede their superiors a victory.

Another outing is planned, which will probably be in the nature of a clam bake after school opens, at which time it is intended to invite the pledges of the active chapter as guests. The Alumni Chapter is in very good shape at present, both financially and in membership.

Cleveland Chapter had large turnouts to all the affairs held during the past year and intends to keep up the good work during the future.

PITTSBURGH

■ The Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter had its annual meeting for election of officers April 11th, at which time Edward A. Montgomery was elected Justice. He has been Vice-Justice for the past two years and has been active in committee work. The other officers were: Robert W. Fahringer, Vice-Justice; Francis S. McQuilkin, Clerk; and Stephen Emery, Treasurer. There was a good attendance of the alumni at this meeting.

LOS ANGELES

■ The Phi Alpha Delta luncheon held during American Bar Convention week last July at Los Angeles, was admittedly the largest and most enthusiastic fraternity affair of the Convention.

The Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, acting as hosts to some thirty-five visiting PADs, turned out an overflow meeting. One hundred and twenty-five were able to obtain seats and a large number were forced to secure their luncheons in the many bars and cocktail rooms of the Biltmore Hotel.

Judge Douglas L. Edmonds, Justice of the Alumni Chapter, presided, introduced Rex Hardy as Master of Ceremonies and our former Supreme Justice proceeded in his usual peppery manner. Visiting brothers arose to introduce themselves and announce their chapters and places of residence and were vociferously welcomed.

Supreme Justice Wm. S. Culbertson spoke briefly as did Brother Edwin R. McNeil, Chief Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court. Past Supreme Justice John D. Carmody and Brother J. F. T. O'Connor, Comptroller of Currency, also spoke and were riotously greeted.

A warm spell of "unusual" California weather experienced during the Convention caused an adjournment and rush of the gang to the many bars and cocktail rooms aforesaid, in an effort to allay the "unusual" heat.

It was a good meeting of a good gang.

NEW YORK

■ The highly successful New York Alumni annual outing was held on July 18th. It consisted of three outstanding events and was declared a huge success by all in attendance.

The first event of the day was the golf tourney at the Westchester Country Club, at Rye, New York. This beautiful course served as a perfect fitting for the events to come. Those who preferred to sail rather than golf, met at the Knickerbocker Yacht Club, Port Washington, and boarded the power cruiser "Zomar" and cruised to the City Island Yacht Club. The day of outing was appropriately concluded with dinner at the Westchester Country Club.

Much of the credit of the outing goes to Brothers Arthur Guthrie and George Palmer. It was through Brother Guthrie that the privileges of the Westchester Club were made available for the New York PADs. Brother Palmer placed his new and luxurious power cruiser "Zomar" at the service of the chapter and served luncheon aboard.

WASHINGTON

■ A special alumni meeting was called on September 27th, in honor Supreme Justice William S. Culbertson, Supreme Vice-Justice Dwight H. Green and Supreme Secretary Frank M. Ludwick, who were assembled in Washington for the annual Supreme Board meeting. On the next day alumni of Washington Chapter were invited to be guests of Supreme Justice Culbertson at his country place at Charmain, Pa. Guests of honor were Dwight Green and Frank Ludwick.

Taft and Jay active chapters held a smoker at the Hay Adams House on September 29th, to meet with the Supreme Officers. Many alumni were in attendance.

P. A. D. Personalities

■ PAST SUPREME JUSTICE George E. Fink was elected president of the University of Michigan club of Chicago.

■ William S. Culbertson (Calhoun), Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, and Howard S. Leroy announce their association for the general practise of law before the Courts, Federal Departments, Commissions and Special Agencies under the firm name of Culbertson & Leroy, with offices in the Colorado Building, Washington, D. C.

■ THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY calls upon the alumni of Phi Alpha Delta in an effort to complete its REPORTER files. The library needs numbers 3 and 4 of volume 19 (1931) and 4 of volume 19 (1930) and title page and index to volume 19. H. M. Lydenberg, director, will greatly appreciate it if readers, who no longer need their copies, will send them to him.

* * *

■ THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, Brother Frederick D. Corley (Webster '06), then a gangling youth fresh from the country, obtained a job with Marshall Field & Co. as a stock boy at $4 a week. This year he succeeded his best friend as vice president and general manager of the store.

In assuming his new duties Brother Corley supplanted David M. Yates, whose resignation after 48 years of continuous service was accepted by the board of directors.

Brother Corley is a native of Tower Hill, Illinois, where he was born in 1882. He was employed by Marshall Field's in 1900 and has served continuously. Considering his first weekly wage of $4 a week, he said: "I think I was overpaid."

He became successively bookkeeper in the millinery department and on up to manager, then manager of the women's and children's sections of the store. Finally in 1915 he was chosen assistant general manager.

* * *

■ BROTHER ROBERT P. SMITH (Jay '24), director general of the 1935 Shrine Convention and potentate of Almas Temple was well equipped for the important duties given him.

A native of Bedford County, Pennsylvania, and of a family of colonial and revolutionary standing, Brother Smith attended school in his home community. Later he taught school in Pennsylvania. He then went to Washington, studied to enter West Point, received his appointment, and then gave up his military career to be married.

With Mrs. Smith and his four sons he went to Detroit in 1914 and became a cost accountant and efficiency expert in the great automobile plants of that region. Then he returned to Washington; studied law and became an expert in the intricate maze of tax rulings administered by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. In 1919 he became a War Department accountant and later was transferred to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Later he left the Bureau to enter the private practice of law. He is now senior member of the law firm of Smith, Deibert & Ristig.

■ ALBERT E. "MIKE" CUNLIFF sends us the following clipping from the St. Louis Star-Times:

It's all a matter of education. If Raymond Duncan, high school teacher in Granite City, Ill., and a summer student at Washington University, had not been a scholar, his 58-mile-an-hour run out Natural Bridge avenue would have cost him $10. But when he appeared before City Judge George Vest, the jurist peered over the rims of his glasses and addressed the defendant:

"You," commanded the judge, "go home and write me 1,000 words on 'Safety.' Get it in here by July 1, or pay the $10 fine."

"Pooley!" a courtroom cop growled. "What's the use pinchin' them educated guys?"

"Funny part of it," said Mike, "is that both parties are PADs yet neither was aware of the other being a brother."

* * *

■ THE CAPITAL TIMES, Madison, Wisconsin newspaper made much of the fact when Ernest H. Pett (Ryan '19) made a 'hole-in-one.' Upon request Brother Pett sends in the true story of how a PAD made the Hole-In-One Club.

"It was a great thrill," he wrote. "Honestly, the shot was perfect from every angle. I used a number five iron. The ball cleared the row of full grown trees 30 yards from the green, in a beautiful arc. No fluke in this shot. I didn't believe it was in until I got to the green—and there was the hope of every golfer—my ball was in and the score card went Hole No. 4—1."

■ JOSEPH WARREN MADDEN (Marshall) is well qualified for his important post as head of the National Labor Relation Board.

When he received his appointment, Brother Madden was a lawyer in Pittsburgh and a professor at the University of Pittsburgh Law School.

He is the author of several home tomes on law. Last year, as chairman of an arbitration board, he helped avert a possible trolley car strike in Pittsburgh. He has been chairman of the Hill District Community Council and a member of the Board of the Federation of Social Agencies.

Born in Damascus, Ill., January 17, 1890, he graduated from high school at Freeport, Ill., and attended Northern Illinois State Normal School for two years. In 1911 he took his bachelor's degree at the University of Illinois.

Two years later while still a student, he married Margaret Bell Liddell, of McAlester, Okla. He completed advanced studies at the University of Chicago and in 1914-16 was professor of law at the University of Oklahoma.

For two years he practiced law at Rockford and from 1917 to 1921 was professor of law at Ohio State University. He went to West Virginia University in 1921, where he was dean of the college of law until 1927, and also practiced law there.

For a time he was special assistant to the United States Attorney General and was visiting professor of law at Cornell and Stanford.

Pittsburgh was his next destination. Since 1927 he has been professor at Pitt.

■ BROTHER THOMAS F. McDONALD, whose leadership in the fight to purge the legal profession of unethical practice has earned him a nomination for the annual St. Louis award, was elected president of the St. Louis Bar Association at the annual meeting at Hotel Chase last May.

As chairman of the association's grievance committee for the last three years, Brother McDonald has instituted twenty-two suits for disbarment. Of the seventeen tried, thirteen have resulted in disbarments and four in suspensions.

Former Governor Caulfield who nominated him declared:

"In his work as a member of the grievance committee and as a member of the State Board of Law Examiners, he has contributed to the highest standards and best traditions of the legal profession. He will be a symbol of the finest things for which the association stands."

An editorial in the St. Louis-Post Dispatch said:

"It is highly doubtful if in the 61 years in which it has been in existence, the St. Louis Bar Association has chosen as its president a lawyer more deserving of that post than Thomas F. McDonald, the new leader. To Mr. McDonald, membership in the bar association has been an obligation and a responsibility. Because it has, recent years have seen much fine work in the purification of the legal profession in this city.

"When Mr. McDonald became chairman of the Grievance Committee three years ago, the record of that body as a disciplinary agency was pitifully weak. In 10 years, but two suits had been filed against lawyers for unethical practices, and only one of these resulted in disbarment. Under Mr. McDonald, the Grievance Committee promptly became an effective instrument for public service. Since June, 1932, 22 disbarment suits have been filed, resulting in 12 permanent removals from practice and four suspensions, with six suits awaiting trial.

"Mr. McDonald has modestly given credit for this achievement to his fellow committee members, but after due allowance has been made for their help, the fact remains that he has borne the brunt of a difficult and unpleasant if highly important work. This is attested by his recent nomination for the $1000 St. Louis Award for outstanding community service. Mr. McDonald believes fully in the supervision of the bar under the new State Supreme Court practice rules and has pledged himself, as president of the local bar, to support to the utmost that notable reform. A finer stand could not be taken."

A native of Independence, Ia., Brother McDonald received his law degree at the University of Michigan Law School in 1917. After service in the army as a major in field artillery, he entered the practice of law in St. Louis. He is now a partner in the law firm of Donnell & McDonald, with offices in the Bell Telephone Building.

Brother McDonald was a member of Campbell Chapter (17) and is now a member of the St. Louis Alumni Chapter.

Autumn Will Bring to You

THE BALFOUR PUPPETS were especially designed for the catalog cover and modeled in the Balfour studios. The miniature chapter room—20" high—was constructed with fireplace, draperies, and moonlit terrace. The sorority girl and fraternity man—12" high—dance to the tunes of a merry orchestra.
