National PAD Night

By WILLIAM M. O'SHEA

Supreme Marshal

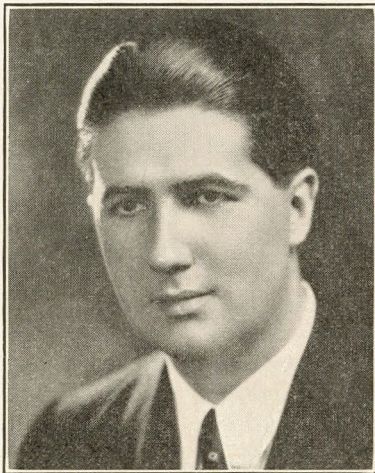

NATIONAL PAD Nite, now an institution in Phi Alpha Delta, was celebrated for 1936, on Saturday, February 8th.

The idea of National PAD Nite, was to have one nite in the year, on which the fifteen thousand members of our Fraternity, would "sit together" to review the splendid record of Phi Alpha Delta, to live once more the glorious days of Fraternal life, and to draw renewed inspiration from this meeting; to carry PAD on to greater heights of Brotherly Love.

How well this was accomplished this year, may be gathered from a brief resume of the activities of February 8th, including the Chapter celebrations, and the Radio Broadcasts, designed to reach the member who could not be at one of the Fraternity gatherings.

The program might well be opened in New York City, where the Supreme Justice, William S. Culbertson, addressed the members of Rapallo and New York Alumni Chapters, at a dinner in the Fraternity Clubs Building. Judge Ernest E. L. Hammer of the Supreme Court, was inducted as an Honorary member. Every newspaper in New York commented upon the very excellent address of Judge William T. Collins, of the Supreme Court.

The first Radio program of the evening came on the Air, at 5:15 P.M., over Station KFRC., from San Francisco, California, where Brother U. S. Webb, Attorney General of the State of California for the last thirty-five years, spoke. The Broadcast followed an initiation of Field and Temple Chapters in the afternoon, and preceded a Banquet in the evening at the William Taylor Hotel, attended by members of Field, Temple and the San Francisco Alumni Chapters.

At Ann Arbor, Michigan, Justice Allan F. Schmalzriedt of Campbell Chapter, presided over a Dinner at the Michigan Union.

A Stag Dinner at the Reese Chapter House, was the Lincoln, Nebraska, contribution to the occasion.

The largest PAD gathering in the history of the State of Kentucky took place in Louisville. At four o'clock in the afternoon, Lurton Chapter took in four new men. Over the worst roads of the winter, Clay Chapter journeyed from Lexington to Louisville, to join in the monster Banquet and Dance at the Kentucky Hotel. Justice Mark Beauchamp of Lurton Chapter, and Justice James Moore of Clay Chapter, presided as Toastmasters. Brother Frank S. Ginnocio was the speaker of the evening. Dancing followed from then on.

Station KOA of Denver, Colorado, turned over its facilities to the Fraternity at 5:30 P.M., when former Supreme Court Justice S. Harrison White spoke on behalf of Phi Alpha Delta. A joint initiation of Hughes and Gunter Chapters had been held in the Supreme Court Chambers at 3.45 P.M., with the oath administered by Justice Young of the Colorado Supreme Court. The Banquet was held at the Blue Parrott Inn, with Dean Hamlet J. Barry as Toastmaster. Speakers included Former Chief Justice Adams of the Supreme Court, and William R. Arthur of the Colorado Law School.

Assistant U. S. Attorney General Frank J. Wideman was made an Honorary member in the Nation's Capitol, at a banquet of Jay, Taft and the Washington Alumni Chapters. Brother Joseph A. Carey was in charge of arrangements. Among the Brothers in attendance were Attorney General Cummings, Senators Borah, Duffy, Fletcher, Tydings; Congressmen Bell, Carter, Chapman, Zimmerman; Comptroller of the Currency O'Connor; Judges Helvering, Adkins, O'Donoghue, McCarthy, Turner, and District Justice Harry LaBrum of Philadelphia.

An initiation and smoker at Hotel Edmond Meany, under the direction of Deputy District Justice Elton B. Jones, featured the Dunbar and Seattle Alumni Chapters celebration of National PAD Nite. Brother Leslie J. Ayer of the Faculty of the University of Washington Law School was the principal speaker.

Sutherland Chapter initiated that afternoon, in the Supreme Court. A banquet in the evening with the Salt Lake City Alumni Chapter, closed a wonderful day in Utah.

At 6:30 P.M., Brother Fred W. Kraft, came on the Air, with "Phi Alpha Delta Sweetheart" over Station WMAQ. Past Supreme Justice George E. Fink presented Supreme Vice Justice Dwight H. Green, who spoke on the Lawyer and the Constitution. With the year's worst blizzard practically paralyzing Chicago, Blackstone, Fuller, Marshall, Story, Webster and the Chicago Alumni Chapters staged their Annual Formal Ball at the Drake Hotel. Each year this affair exceeds anything attempted before, and this year was no exception, despite the weather. 'Twas a grand party, and befitting National PAD Nite. The first meeting of the newly organized Little Rock Alumni Chapter, was held under the auspices of Brother Jerry H. Glenn. They report fine radio reception of Fraternity programs.

It is now a custom, that National PAD Nite shall be celebrated in Pittsburgh, with the Annual Formal Dance and Supper at the Harvard-Yale Princeton Club. The members of Watson and Pittsburgh Alumni Chapters report a wonderful evening.

What is described as the best PAD celebration ever held in Tucson, Arizona, took place at the Pioneer Hotel, at the Banquet of Knox Chapter. Justice Victor Verity greeted everyone, and introduced Knox Chapter charter member, Tim Cusick, who did a fine job as Toastmaster. Gaynor Stover commented on what the other Chapters of the Fraternity were doing. Judges Alfred C. Lockwood of the Supreme Court, and William G. Hall of the Superior Court spoke. Jack O'Dowd gave the toast.

A male quintette opened the Los Angeles program over Station KGER at 7:00 P.M., with the PAD Sweetheart song. Judge Douglas L. Edmonds, Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, spoke of National PAD Nite, and of the National scope of the Fraternity. Following the broadcast, Ross Chapter joined with the Alumni in a Banquet at the University Club. Speakers included Supreme Secretary Frank M.

Ludwick, and Dr. Rufus von Kliensmid, President of the University of Southern California. The last named well known speaker, is reported as having exceeded anything before delivered, in his marvelous talk on Leadership.

In Kansas City, Missouri, the boys even got out a book for the occasion. The banquet of Benton and the Kansas City Alumni Chapters was held in the Hotel Baltimore. Justice Charles L. Carr, of the Kansas City Alumni Chapter, presided as Toastmaster. Justice R. Wayland Steele of Benton Chapter spoke on the Active Chapter. Brother Edward M. Boddington spoke on the "Glory of PAD"; Judge Samuel A. Dew on "The Constitutional Convention of 1787" and Charter member John B. Pew on "The Enjoyment of Professional Fellowship."

The Southern Tea Room of Champaign, Illinois, witnessed the Banquet of Magruder Chapter.

Jefferson Chapter celebrated in true Southern style, with a great party at the Law School, in University, Virginia.

In Cleveland, Ohio, the boys started the celebration at two o'clock in the afternoon, in the Rathskellar of the Sunrise Brewing Co. At 7 P.M., over Station WGAR, a chorus of twelve PADs came on the Air, singing the two Fraternity songs. They are reported as literally going to town with Phi Alpha Delta Sweetheart song. The Mayor of Cleveland, Brother Harold H. Burton, spoke on behalf of Hay and the Cleveland Alumni Chapters. The Rathskellar festivities continued on long after the broadcast.

The Milwaukee Alumni Chapter was host to all Wisconsin PADs, at a Banquet in the Astor Hotel. Justice Maxwell H. Herriott had arranged Bridge and dancing following the Banquet.

In Dallas, Texas, the Annual Stag Dinner at the Athletic Club, featured the celebration of Taney and Dallas Alumni Chapters.

Under the balmy skies of Miami, Florida, Brother Victor P. Griley held the first meeting of the Miami Alumni Chapter.

In Phoenix, Arizona, Stag Party under the direction of District Justice Charles E. McDaniel, was the order of the Nite.

Station WKRC in Cleveland, presented two Charter members of Chase Chapter at 7:15 P.M., i.e., Professor Weber, and former Congressman Charles Tatgenhorst. Nine new members were initiated at the Hotel Alms preceeding the Banquet. Brother Gregor B. Moorman acted as Toastmaster. Judges Walter Ryan and John H. Druffel spoke at the dinner.

A Radio Reception party was in full sway at Norfolk, Virginia, under the leadership of Brother Donald W. Shriver.

The "Smallest Alumni Chapter" had dinner in Reno, Nevada, to receive the Fraternity Radio Broadcasts.

Birmingham, Alabama, came on the Air at 8:30 P.M., over Station WBRC, direct from the Banquet of Morgan and the Birmingham Alumni Chapters, at the Bankhead Hotel.

Hammond Chapter celebrated with a Dinner in the Law Commons Building, with Dean Wiley B. Rutledge as the speaker.

In Portland, Oregon, National PAD Nite was the occasion for a Banquet in celebration of the recent successful reorganization of Williams Chapter. Portland Alumni and Williams Chapters joined in this dinner at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club.

All radio dials were tuned in for Phi Alpha Delta Broadcasts at the Benson Chapter house, where the members of the Topeka Alumni Chapter joined the active men.

At Morgantown, West Virginia, the pledges of Wiley Chapter were entertained at a banquet.

The last broadcast of the evening came from St. Louis, Missouri, at 9:15 P.M., when the Supreme Historian, Albert L. Schweitzer, spoke over Station WIL. Clark and the St. Louis Chapters celebrated at the Elk's Club.

At Gainesville, Florida, the members of Fletcher Chapter were joined by the members of Jacksonville Alumni Chapter at a banquet presided over by Brother J. Edwin Larson, who was introduced by Justice Robert W. Cahoe. A delightful feature of the evening was the fact that Supreme Alumni Advisor, Frank E. Rutledge and family, who were on their way to Miami, reached the banquet just in time to join in the festivities.

And so ended, what was undoubtedly, the greatest National celebration and Fraternity ever staged.

From all over the country have come messages from individual Brothers, who unable to attend their Chapter party, were immensely pleased that they could take some part in National PAD Nite, by tuning in one of the Fraternity broadcasts. To those good Brothers, whose letters I am now answering, I want to say that National PAD Nite was staged for your special benefit, to make you feel that you are still a very important and integral part of Phi Alpha Delta, even though distance separates you from your Fraternity connections.

And in conclusion, now that we are thru pushing every one to complete arrangements for the various Chapter parties and broadcasts, may I thank each and every one who participated in National PAD Nite. You made possible a very fine Fraternity celebration—one worthy of Phi Alpha Delta.

Deans Approve PAD

My dear Dean:

The Supreme Board of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is committed to the policy that our organization must justify its existence in the law schools where we have chapters by contributing to the advancement of these respective schools. The heads of our chapters have been so advised by me.

It is our desire that this may be something more than a gesture. We believe that fraternity groups can and should do much to promote the morale of a student body; that they may to an appreciable degree advance the standard of true professional scholarship in their schools; and that they can prove of definite value in school administration.

I shall consider it a favor if you will call upon the chapter in your school for any such cooperation. I shall also thank you for any criticism you wish to make of the chapter in your school. I shall not be happy to receive the criticism, but I assure you that it will be accepted in a spirit of cooperation, and that we of the Supreme Board will, so far as we may, try to correct any objectionable condition of which we may learn.

Cordially yours,
 LYMAN P. WILSON,
Supreme Faculty Adviser, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

Gratifying indeed was the response to the above letter from the law schools where Phi Alpha Delta chapters are located.

In no case was a PAD chapter causing difficulty in the law school and in every case the local chapters were considered a very valuable asset to the student body and the faculty.

Since the response to the letter was given in a more or less personal manner it is not deemed advisable to give the name of the dean or the school responding. However, we believe it will be interesting to members of the fraternity and alumni to read some of the excerpts from these letters.

"I have been in contact with the personnel of Phi Alpha Delta for many years. As a rule, the members have been of high character and good scholarship. They cooperated with the administration of the university and of the law school and have had a very creditable history. From what I know of the members at the present time, I believe that they are more determined than ever to carry out the ideals of which you write."

"We have always found the chapter of Phi Alpha Delta in this school ready to cooperate whenever the opportunity has presented itself."

"I agree with you that a law fraternity can be a definite value in school administration. I think this chapter has been. It is a vigorous, alert chapter; some of our best students are in it; and it has never failed to cooperate with me. I have only praise for it and feel that it is a factor for good here."

"Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity has had a chapter in this institution for about thirty years and during that time has contributed much to the development of the College of Law. I have held an administrative position in the College of Law since 1918. All during these years this fraternity has given splendid cooperation to the school administration. For a great number of years they have maintained a house for the members of their chapter. We have a number of professional law fraternities, but this is the only fraternity that maintains a house. This has been very helpful to the administration, because we have been able to direct many excellent boys who have come to us from out of town to the Phi Alpha Delta home.

"I understand that the alumni in has helped somewhat in the maintenance of this home and it seems to me that credit is likewise due them."

"I will say that I have nothing to report except most favorable circumstances and satisfactory progress. Something over a year ago Phi Alpha Delta and Phi Delta Phi got together and harmonized their general scholarship and other qualifications so that it can no longer be said that either one of them requires higher standards than the other, and they brought their standardship up not down. Phi Alpha Delta ranks higher here than ever before. They have been quite active in procuring outside speakers and have had very profitable meetings. We are well pleased with the status of the two legal fraternities here at the present time."

"This fraternity has been decidedly on the up-grade here, during the past few years, and now has among its members some of our best law students. Naturally, what we should like the fraternities to do is to cooperate with us in an effort to raise the scholarship throughout the Law School."

"Our chapter of Phi Alpha Delta has always been made up of a strong group of students. The chapter has been one of the most reliable sources of student morale, and the high standing of its members has always been a strong influence for good scholarship.

"I am always at the command of the members of Phi Alpha Delta and am happy to assist them in anything they undertake for the advancement of the school's interests."

"I am delighted not only that Phi Alpha Delta is following out this policy, but also that there is absolutely no cause for complaint in any respect with reference to the attitude of the local chapter. We have a fine bunch of boys in this group and they not only have given no evidence of opposition to or lack of sympathy with our administrative policy, but on the contrary have cooperated actively in carrying it out."

"I have never hesitated calling upon the boys in the chapter whenever I felt there was a chance for them to aid in any way in the development of our legal educational activities, and I have never failed to secure from them the heartiest cooperation.

"The chapter has established a cup upon which each year will be engraved the name of the law student who is the winner in a Speech contest sponsored by the local chapter. This cup is and will be on exhibition in the library of the law school, and thus stimulate, we hope, interest in the field of what we call legal forensics in our institution."

"It is with pleasure that I advise you that the local chapter of your fraternity has always cooperated with the administration along the lines set forth in your letter."

"We have in our school three law fraternities and two legal sororities. It is our opinion that your fraternity is the leading one in our school, having among its members several of the class leaders."

"My impression is that your organization in our institution has conducted itself in a co-operative way and that its influence has been wholesome."

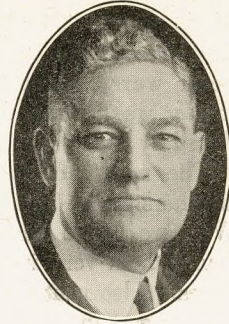

"I have within the last month, attended two meetings of the Phi Alpha Deltas and I feel that the group is composed, on the whole, of a very high type of student and that the group is doing a very good job of promoting the morale of the student body and appreciably advancing the standard of professional scholarship in this law school."

"PAD has been a real asset to our school. The members of the organization have been very active during the last five or six years, and this year are carrying on the same excellent traditions. I am glad to be able to report thus favorably and I hope that the very amicable relations which have existed in the past between the Faculty and the fraternity continue in the future."

Supreme Alumni Advisor's Letter

By FRANK E. RUTLEDGE

While recuperating from an illness, started on a motor trip to Florida February first. My first stop in that state was Jacksonville and I made a visit at the office of the Justice of the Jacksonville Alumni Chapter, Brother J. Edwin Larson who is Collector of Internal Revenue for the State of Florida. He was a member of Fletcher Chapter.

He immediately had his secretary telephone other members and to my surprise, within fifteen minutes had rounded up eight PADs. It was most interesting to meet the following brothers:

Richard Gardner, former Justice of Fletcher Chapter and now Deputy District Justice, Warren L. Jones, Clerk of the Jacksonville Alumni Chapter, Henry Berg, R. H. Duncan, George Coulter, Cecil Bailey, A. L. Layton and Joseph I. Triplett (a member of Rapallo Chapter, having been initiated in 1910).

Brother Triplett is President of the Florida Narcissus Farm, Inc.

After a meeting with the above and learning of the fact that the Jacksonville Alumni Chapter was in excellent condition, I started on my trip towards Miami where I had promised to meet with the alumni group at their National Birthday Party.

Ninety miles out of Jacksonville, at New Smyrna, had serious car trouble so could not continue on. Wired the members to that effect. As my car was repaired in time, then started on a wild drive through a rain storm (got lost once and went fifty miles out of my way) towards Gainesville where Fletcher Chapter is located at the Florida University. Arrived at 7:30 and inquired at the first gas station where the best hotel was as I thought a group of my fraternity brothers would be meeting there holding their annual banquet. To my surprise, the attendant said, "I think they are meeting in the building next door," and this proved to be the case.

Mrs. Rutledge and my daughter Carolyn were with me and the members insisted that they attend the banquet also which was held up for thirty minutes until we could obtain our hotel rooms and get ready.

Fifty members of Jacksonville Alumni Chapter, Fletcher Chapter and prominent guests were present. I consider this meeting one of the best PAD affairs I ever attended. Very seldom does one find more enthusiasm for PAD as was found that night. We need never worry about the two above mentioned chapters. The toast master was Brother J. Edwin Larson of Jacksonville who was introduced by the Justice of Fletcher Chapter, Robert W. Cohoe.

The next morning we were taken on an automobile trip by Brothers Cohoe and Wm. D. Lines, who is Clerk of Fletcher Chapter. We were shown through the buildings of this wonderful school and found them very interesting. The cafeteria is managed by Brother Lines. Also visited the school library which is in charge of Brother Cohoe, and the room where PAD meetings and initiations are held.

The same afternoon, we drove to De Land where Brewer Chapter and Stetson University are located. Had a short visit with Brother Amory Underhill, former Justice. It was impossible during our short stay to locate the other officers. From what I could learn, they are in very good shape. I am hoping that in the near future a delegation from the Jacksonville Alumni Chapter will visit there.

Still continuing our trip that afternoon, we drove on to Jacksonville where we were entertained overnight and most of the next day in the beautiful southern type home of Brother Joe Triplett. Monday morning he drove us out to his narcissus farm which is the largest in the world, and requires 250 employees to operate during the peak season.

Before leaving Jacksonville had another short visit with Dick Gardner who, by the way, is responsible to a large degree for building the foundation while he was Justice of Fletcher Chapter. At the present time he is Deputy District Justice.

On our way north went through the former law offices of President James Monroe, which is a national shrine for attorneys at Fredericksburg, Va. It was in this office the Monroe Doctrine was written. On the register, in addition to signing my own name, also listed Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

Next, at Washington, D. C., had an opportunity to sit in at a session of the Supreme Court. The new building is the finest I have ever been in and one which all delegates to our national convention in December will want to see. Also attended sessions of the Senate and House. Went through the Congressional Library.

Visited the beautiful home of our Supreme Justice, William S. Culbertson, and had an opportunity to inspect his wonderful collection of priceless mementos gathered in foreign countries, and meet his charming family.

During this two weeks' tour we experienced all kinds of weather—rain, sleet, snow, extremely cold days and nights, with part of one day with the sun shining. It took us fourteen hours to drive 250 miles from Washington home, over dangerous, icy roads.

My association with the fraternity brothers had a lot to do with pepping me up and helping me overcome my illness.

SOME YEARS AGO

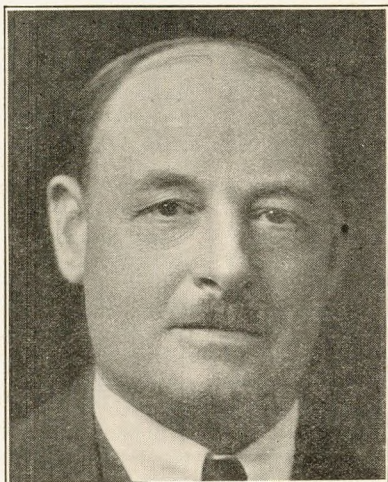

By GEORGE E. FINK,
Past Supreme Justice
Chicago, Illinois

IN the last article under this heading published in the December 1935 issue The Reporter (Volume 20, No. 6) the writer endeavored to recall some items of interest in the history of the fraternity about five years ago, and took up the 22nd Biennial Convention, held at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, August 27, 28, and 29, 1930. In referring back to that article as a starting point for this number, he notes that he failed to mention the election of the men chosen to head the fraternity for the succeeding two years. It turned out to be longer than that, for the next convention was not held until August, 23, 24, and 25, 1934. Inasmuch as he has received no comment on that omission from any source, he wonders if these articles are read by anyone, even the editor. Anyway he apologizes to the brothers mentioned below, and can only say that his pipe must have gone out.

Elected at 22nd Biennial Convention, Milwaukee, Wis.

Supreme Justice, Allan T. Gilbert; Supreme Vice Justice, Frank E. Rutledge; Supreme Secretary, Frank M. Ludwick; Supreme Historian, Lawrence R. Lytle; Supreme Editor, Earl Hatcher; Supreme Marshal, Alex M. Hitz; Chief Tribune, John J. Nangle; Assistant Tribune, Frank L. Fawcett; Associate

Tribune, George E. Fink; Board of Trustees, August A. Rendigs, Chairman; Rex Hardy, Thomas P. Octigan.

Surely these men had a long drag and too much credit cannot be given them for carrying on and keeping the old ship successfully afloat until the 23rd Biennial Convention, held in Chicago.

Between August, 1930, and March,

1931, no special events of general interest occurred in our fraternity. Mention, however, will be made of the following under the heading

Alumni Five Years Ago

Paul G. Parsons was justice of the Birmingham Alumni Chapter; William J. Nealon, succeeding Thomas C. Hollywood, was justice of the Chicago Alumni Chapter; Howard L. Bevis was justice of the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter; C. R. Moon was justice of the Detroit Alumni Chapter; John Duniway (now deceased) was justice of the San Francisco Alumni Chapter; Waldemar Wehe was justice of the Milwaukee Alumni Chapter; Thomas W. Constable was justice of the New York Alumni Chapter; Adrian L. Bushman was justice of the St. Louis Alumni Chapter; George L. Stewart was Clerk of the San Francisco Alumni Chapter.

Brother Julius H. Hart (Williams) of Nome, Alaska, was United States Attorney for the District No. 2 of the District of Alaska. He had been an Assistant United States District Attorney for the District of Juneau appointed March 31, 1925.

Brother Malcolm McDermott (McReynolds) was a member of the faculty of the Law School of Duke University at Durham, North Carolina, from 1915 to 1920. He had been a special lecturer at the College of Law of the University of Tennessee; from 1920 to 1930 he was dean of the College of Law of that school.

Brother Marion R. Kirkwood. (Holmes) of Palo Alto, California, was dean of the School of Law of Stanford University.

Brother Joseph W. Madden (Marshall) was a member of the faculty of the School of Law of the University of Pittsburgh.

Brother William J. McDermott (Hay) of Cleveland, Ohio, was an Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Ohio. He will be remembered by some as a delegate to the Cincinnati convention representing the Cleveland Alumni Chapter.

Frederick W. Shepherd (Reese) of Lincoln, Nebraska, was Judge of the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Nebraska.

Brother Paul W. Brosman (Magruder) was a member of the faculty of the College of Law of Tulane University, teaching civil practice, evidence, agency, federal practice and jurisdiction.

Brother R. A. Burch (Benson) of Topeka, Kansas, was an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Kansas.

Brother I. M. Peckham (Holmes) of San Francisco, California, was Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern District of California.

Brother Raymond H. Schubert (Field) of San Francisco, California, was also an Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern District of California.

Brother Harold Shepherd, (Holmes) formerly of Palo Alto, California, a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago Law School, at Chicago, Illinois, was appointed dean of the Law School of the University of Washington, at Seattle.

Brother Leslie J. Ayer (Dunbar) was acting dean of the University of Washington Law School, at Seattle.

Brother Frank Hier (Chase) of Cincinnati, Ohio, was an assistant District Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio.

Brother Lewis Tyree (Staples) was a member of the faculty of New Jersey Law School, at Newark, New Jersey; was previously a professor of law at Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Virginia.

Brother William L. Roberts (Clay) was a visiting professor at the School of Law of the University of Pittsburgh, and was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Kentucky College of Law.

Brother Roy St. Lewis (Harlan) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was serving his second term as United States District Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma; previous to that he was Assistant United States District Attorney for the same district.

Brother David A. Hart (Taft) of Washington, D. C., was an Assistant United States District Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Brother Neil Burkenshaw (Taft) was also an assistant United States District Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Brother Henry A. Shinn (Green) was a member of the faculty of Mercer University at Macon, Georgia, giving courses in torts, rights in land, title, mortgages and wills.

Brother Charles R. Freeman (Ryan) of Menominee, Wisconsin, was Municipal Judge of Menominee.

Brother Ewing C. Bland (Benton) of Kansas City, Missouri, was serving a second term of twelve years as Judge of the Kansas City Court of Appeals, his term expiring December 31, 1940.

Brother John R. Snively, was Secretary of the Winnebago County Bar Association, and was appointed a member of the American Bar Association on the unauthorized practice of law.

Brother Laurie O. Telfer (Campbell) was elected prosecuting attorney of St. Clair County, Michigan.

Correspondence to the Secretary

It would be quite an accommodation if all correspondence to National Headquarters would carry the full name of the correspondent and likewise the name of his chapter. Obviously, much of the routine work must be delegated to employees not so well acquainted with correspondence as I am. Consequently, the chapter name particularly is important.

FRANK M. LUDWICK
Supreme Secretary.

BENTON

■ Founders Day Banquet was held in conjunction with PAD Nite at the Hotel Baltimore, which is known to many as the home of PAD. The banquet was the most enjoyable and best attended in the history of the active chapter. Several members of the law school faculty were present.

Talks were given by Judge Dew and John Pew, a chapter member. Charles Carr, Justice of the Alumni Chapter, acted as toastmaster. An able discourse was given by Ed Boddington, a former member of Green Chapter. After an excellent dinner and talks the program of entertainment was held in the form of varied musical selections.

The banquet was under the auspices of the alumni chapter who are pledged to assist the active chapter rebuild its membership. Immediately before the evening meeting a formal initiation was held.

BLACKSTONE

Chicago-Kent College of Law

■ Early in the school year Blackstone and Webster Chapters collaborated in two joint smokers and a dance. This banding together of chapters has a fine influence and brings the national scope of the fraternity closer to mind. It was generally agreed by members of Blackstone Chapter that their Webster brothers were delightful co-hosts.

At a dance held at the Hotel Hardington in November and sponsored by the alumni chapter Brother Justice Nichols was awarded a prize of law books for his efforts in disposing of the most tickets.

On December 20th, a Christmas Cheer Smoker was held at the auditorium. It was at this time that plans were made for National PAD Nite.

On January 10th, fifteen prospective new members for Blackstone Chapter were pledged.

A heavy session of study was rewarded by a fine record in examinations. Among the graduates was Brother Marshal E. Bartlett Fisher. Winner of the Blackstone Chapter award of Black's Legal Dictionary, given to the member of the beginning class who attains the highest semester average was Thomas H. Overton, a blind student. He had studied for two years at the Illinois School for the Blind at Jacksonville. Overton's marks were four As and one B.

On February 29th, at the Hamilton Club, Blackstone Chapter held its formal initiation of 11 new members. Prominent alumni were present to assist the active chapter.

Stetson University

■ Brewer Chapter continues to maintain a very good scholastic standing and is proud of the fact that many of the outstanding students of the law school are members of the chapter.

The Chapter has had a number of outstanding attractions this semester. On November 23rd, Homecoming Day and Alumni breakfast was celebrated. More than 60 were present, including actives, pledges, alumni and visitors. Cary D. Landis, state attorney general, acted as toastmaster and told interesting highlights of the chapter's history. Guest speaker was O. K. Reaves, prominent attorney of Tampa, Florida, and a member of the class of 1903, which was the second class to graduate from the law school. William H. Ellis, of the Florida Supreme Court, concluded the program with a short inspirational talk.

The Jackson Day Banquet on January 10th was one of the outstanding events of the year. A very thrilling speech was delivered by Professor J. A. Carpenter of the law school faculty. Considered one of the most capable instructors in the school Professor Carpenter gained the enthusiasm of his audience with his well prepared talk.

On February 4th, Professor Kenneth C. Sears, of the University of Chicago, gave a talk under the auspices of Brewer Chapter. Sigma Nu Phi, another legal fraternity on the campus accepted Brewer Chapter's invitation to attend the meeting and hear Professor Sears. Professor Sears, who, incidentally, is a member of Lawson Chapter, spoke on the recent U. S. Supreme Court decisions with regard to the AAA. His able talk presented a number of outstanding points and was greatly appreciated.

CHASE

University of Cincinnati

■ Up to date a very successful year is the report from Chase Chapter. Due to the fact that a large number of members graduated last June Chase Chapter started off with a comparatively small number of active members. Three pledges that were carried over from last year and seven new men have been initiated thus bringing the Chapter back to normal both in size and quality.

The principal activity of the chapter is its bi-weekly meeting and luncheon with successful attorneys addressing the members on various phases of the law.

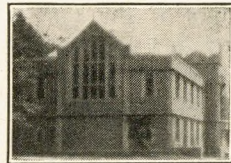

CLARK

Washington University

■ Continuing its rushing activities into the new year, Clark Chapter has added three new pledges to its roster; and in carrying out the financial program suggested by the Supreme Secretary, has put itself into the best financial position it has enjoyed in several years.

The most important event of the winter was the celebration of the fraternity's birthday, and the chapter presented a program worthy of the occasion.

The evening began with a broadcast over radio station WIL of St. Louis, featuring a speech by brother Albert Schweitzer, Justice of the alumni chapter and present Supreme Historian of PAD.

Following the broadcast, the members of both the active and alumni chapters gathered at the Elks Club, where a program of speeches and fraternity songs concluded the evening. The speeches included remarks by Brother Schweitzer and Brother John Nangle, former Supreme Justice. Plans were discussed for a series of luncheon meetings for the alumni chapter during the spring months, and a recommendation to be prepared for presentation to the Supreme Board, concerning the policy in the admission of honorary members. The place of meeting was obtained through the generosity of Brother Schweitzer. Albert Cunliffe, present District Justice, obliged in the rendition of the songs of Phi Alpha Delta.

CLAY

University of Kentucky

■ During January, Phi Alpha Delta entered an agreement with the other legal fraternity in our school in reference to pledging. It was promoted through the efforts of our acting dean, and was passed to establish higher standards of legal fraternity membership. The agreement was one of deferred pledging, and under it only bona fide law students who have made a standing of "one" could be pledged. Also it is not permitted to contact the prospective pledges until two days after they have become eligible.

Our efforts were successful in pledging; we secured nine new men, including the two highest in the first year class, who were Mr. Freeland, and Mr. Milner. Also Messrs. Wright, Womack, Smith, Gadd, Monahan, Kelley, and Whitlow.

Brother John L. Davis is probably the poorest student in school at present, he only made "A" in everything except one one-hour course which is called "finding the law," in this he could only garner a "B." Evidently John can find the law, but can't tell the professors how.

On Saturday, Feb. 8, 1936, nine brothers from our chapter attended the initiation and banquet and dance with Lurton Chapter in Louisville. "A good time was had by all."

FIELD

University of California

■ FLASH—PAD NITE IN SAN FRANCISCO—Stephen J. Field Chapter began its celebration for this occasion with the initiation of nine new men in the colorful impressive setting of Federal District Judge L o u d e r b a c k ' s courtroom.

These new men of whom we feel duly proud, are: Chas. Bahme, John Doyle, Wayne Cardon, Bert Carner, Nicholas Dub-sick, James Lannigan, Arlo Rickett, Thomas Robertson, Jack Yates.

Nick Dubsick and John Doyle, varsity catcher and pitcher respectively, promises to continue the type of stellar performance that graduating Tom Werdell and Robbie Robinson turned in against the Peedeepee's to win last year's traditional ball game. This will be good news to the alumni, because to win this ball game means free beer and lots of it.

Following the initiation the entire group went to the William Taylor Hotel in San Francisco where a joint dinner with Temple Chapter was held to continue the festivities. Since most of the prominent members of the Hastings College faculty were present and Dave Snodgrass (known to the students as Professor Snodgrass of contracts) was master of ceremonies, we had an interesting and hilarious evening. Folger Emerson, District Justice, and George Stewart, former Supreme Justice, were there and reviewed the amazing advancement of PAD in the Bay Area of San Francisco.

At ten o'clock—Bill Bohn was time-keeper—the Field men bent the elbow and drank a toast with the many other PAD's throughout the country to the honor of our great fraternity. Although this was not the end of the evening's enjoyment, it did mark the official ending of PAD's celebration.

Here are some of the highlights of the banquet: Butch Gamble's side comment, "I like them pink" (Dear reader: if you guess this to mean what I think you are guessing you have a nasty mind); Brother Justice Tom Werdel's opening speech, a tid-bit of the evening, "I am a PAD, you are PADs, we are PADs, this is PAD night" (so what?); and last but not best of all, Bruce Younger in some far-off corner of the room mumbling to some tolerant soul: "Now really. I tell you, you know, I am darn sorry. I feel awful about it, really. I am darn sorry, etc, etc., etc."

At our annual First Year Men's Smoker of a few weeks ago we saw a number of our loyal alumni, Jim Wortz, Bill Brailsford, Art Potter and others. Paul Brom, who also was there, told us he is busily engaged in practice and some time this summer he is going to Virginia to continue his National Guard work.

Bill Hulsey, '35, writes up from Bakersfield that he is doing well and he says that his practice is greatly swelled by the work sent him by PADs from other cities and towns.

Sam Wagener, head of the Alameda Legal Aid, tells us that Dick Seely has a job in a good law firm up in Sacramento.

FLETCHER

University of Florida

■ PAD Nite at Gainesville, Florida, was the most enjoyable and successful affair ever held. Besides the active members, pledges and rushees, eighteen alumni from north Florida joined in the festivities. State Senators, United States officials, practicing attorneys and students banded together with the happiest of spirits.

Just as dinner was to begin Supreme Alumni Advisor Frank E. Rutledge arrived from New York, wholly unexpectedly. His appearance added to the success of the party. The banquet made a record for laughter and joviality and is claimed to be "second to none" in the many PAD Nite programs.

On the next day members of the chapter escorted Brother Rutledge in a tour of the Florida campus.

Another of the fine effects of the party was the interest displayed by the entire university and it has attracted many of the better pledges to Fletcher Chapter.

On the night of December 12th, Justice Fred H. Davis of the Supreme Court of Florida addressed the students and faculty of the college of law under the auspices of Fletcher Chapter. He stressed learning, professional and social associations, devotion, fidelity and industry as the essentials for success at the bar. He also discussed a number of interesting aspects of the legal profession.

On February 17th, John P. Stokes, of the law firm of Loftin, Stokes and Calkins, Miami, addressed the chapter on the subject of the "Florida Constitution." The weekly talks are proving informative and interesting.

FULLER

Northwestern University

■ Fuller Chapter Nite was celebrated on February 18th, at the Hamilton Club. Guest speaker was Colonel T. A. Siqueland who had charge of the Secret Service during the World War.

The March meeting of the group was postponed until March 24th, to permit brothers to attend the St. Patrick's Day Informal Dance given by Story Chapter at the Lake Shore Athletic Club on March 17th.

GREEN

University of Kansas

■ Due to the still passing depression Green Chapter found their chapter house was imposing too heavy a financial burden upon the members residing therein and have closed the house. Therefore, for a time the chapter will hold regular meetings at local tea rooms until a smaller and more suitable house is obtained. We are not in the least discouraged by the loss of a house. In fact we feel it will prove an advantage.

Heretofore there has been an apparent dissention between members residing in the house and those residing without, a number of our members being members of Social Fraternities or otherwise unable to live in the house. We now feel that all members will feel that they have a more equal part in the management and activities of the chapter. The rule requiring presiding officers to live in the house is thus done away with and will allow members to choose their officers from the group as a whole, which will prove an advantage in tending toward greater unity and cooperation in the chapter.

Green chapter boasts a sizeable membership and should have no difficulty in readjusting themselves to the new conditions.

A number of ambitious plans are underway for the spring semester. Meeting regularly at some designated tea room for dinner with a subsequent short business meeting; banquets to which will be invited prominent speakers together with faculty representatives; picnics and social function are a few of the plans already outlined. The chapter also is planning to propose a means to Benson Chapter of Washburn College and Benton Chapter of the Kansas City School of Law whereby the three chapters might hold joint meetings, smokers, or social functions. The proximity of these three chapters should induce a greater fraternalism. Possibly alternate meetings may be held at one chapter and then at the others.

At the past election of officers for the Spring Semester the following were elected: W. G. Muir, Justice; Vester Davidson, Vice-Justice; C. A. Jones, Treasurer; J. A. Aderholt, Clerk; and Conrad W. Foster, Marshall.

Initiation for Fall Semester pledges will be held shortly.

GUNTER

University of Colorado

■ Gunter chapter began its new term with the pledging of ten men, among whom were the two high men of the freshman class. With this very auspicious start the chapter began a campaign to become the leading legal fraternity on the campus.

Several social gatherings were held to which a number of rushees were invited and a number of get-acquainted rush affairs are being planned for the spring quarter.

Review sections for freshmen conducted by seniors are scheduled for this quarter. Such a program acquaints the freshman with what is expected from him in his examinations and aids the senior in reviewing for the Bar Examination.

On February 8, National Phil Alpha Delta Nite, Gunter held a joint initiation with Hughes chapter in Denver. Gunter sent four men through the ritual in the Colorado Supreme Court chambers. The initiation was followed by a dinner at which Justice Young of the Colorado Supreme Court, and Congressman S. Harrison White gave the feature addresses.

HAMMOND

University of Iowa

■ Hammond Chapter is continuing, with great success, its plan of Sunday evening dinners, followed by informal talks by leaders of the profession in Iowa. Some of the guests have been Dean Wiley B. Rutledge of the College of Law, and Judges Gaffne, Taylor and Pop-ham. More speakers of like caliber are being secured for coming Sundays.

No fatalities were suffered through the mid-year examinations. The chapter is excellently situated scholastically, Richard Hahn and Benjamin Galer ranking first and third in the junior class, respectively. Other members hold positions on the Iowa Law Review Board. Benjamin Galer and Joseph Donohue won their junior law club arguments and are thus in a position to take part in the Supreme Court Day argument, next year.

Plans are being laid for a ball team, to go into action as soon as the snow is sufficiently cleared away.

HARLAN

University of Oklahoma

■ Despite the article in the December Reporter revealing Professor Wright's ability to stop insurance trusts, the law students at Oklahoma University are still trying and have another effort up their sleeves.

The newest plan in mind is to be known as the Oklahoma State Bar Derby. When the time comes for the state bar examinations, six or seven of the highest members of the class (incidentally most of them are PADs) will be placed at odds of 8 to 1 to win, 4 to 1 to place, and even money to show. After what Professor Wright did to the insurance company all are wondering how he will handle this newest combination.

At the annual Christmas Banquet on December 17th, Justice Riley, of the Oklahoma Supreme Court, and Chief Justice McNeil, also of the Supreme Court and an honorary member of PAD, were special guests of honor. A selected group of men from the freshman class were also invited. The banquet was a great success and every sign points to a large number of good pledges this semester.

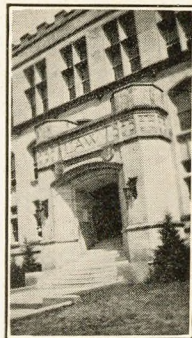

Brother Elmer Million, who was second only to Brother Paine in the graduating class of 1935, has recently been awarded a scholarship to the Yale University Law School.

Pledging of new members has been completed and Harlan Chapter was successful in pledging eight fine men.

HUGHES

University of Denver

■ The recent initiations held at Hughes Chapter were a great success. The chapter was honored with the presence of Justice Young of the Supreme Court. Former Justice White of the Supreme Court delivered an address which was broadcast over radio station KOA.

HAY

Western Reserve University

■ The fall of 1935 was probably one of the lowest points John Hay Chapter has ever known. When the officers elected in May, 1935, returned to school they found that there were only seven actives and three pledges to constitute the chapter; that the chapter was heavily in debt both to the national organization and others; and that the outlook generally was not exactly bright. Fortunately, however, all of the ten men went to work immediately with the result that by December all local indebtedness was wiped out and arrangements were made with the national chapter to pay off the comparatively small balance that remained.

On December 12 the chapter initiated twelve men, the largest group to go through in quite a number of years. At that time, also, the mayor of the City of Cleveland was initiated as an honorary member of John Hay. The chapter is very proud to have Mayor Harold H. Burton as a brother for he is easily the most outstanding figure in the public life of the city. The ceremony and banquet were attended by alumni from all of northeast Ohio and was unquestionably one of the most successful functions Phi Alpha Delta has ever had in this part of the state.

All of this was accomplished by means of a great deal of hard work put in by the actives and fine cooperation by the Cleveland Alumni Chapter.

National Phi Alpha Delta Nite was celebrated in Cleveland by a joint alumni-active smoker held in the Rathskeller of the Sunrise Brewing Company. In conjunction with this, the chapter was given fifteen minutes on the radio, via WGAR, a local station affiliated with the National Broadcasting Co. A chorus of actives and alumni sang the two Phi Alpha Delta songs and the mayor gave a short talk on behalf of the fraternity.

All in all, the present outlook for the chapter's future is very bright. We predict that in a few years John Hay will become one of the leading chapters of the fraternity in the nation.

JAY

George Washington University

■ John Jay Chapter reports great interest being taken by the brothers in their regular weekly dinner meetings. The boys are very sociable and helpful to each other.

At the dinner meeting of January 11th, at the University Club a number of distinguished guests appeared. First speaker was Brother Bill Culbertson, Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta. Judge Turner, of the Board of Tax Appeals, stole the evening with his Arkansas jokes. Professor Spaulding of the law school and Bernard Garvey, well known patent attorney, also spoke. The meeting was followed by singing led by Brother Spaulding who has a very fine voice. It was a thrilling evening and very impressive to the active members.

Informal dinner meetings held each Monday after the evening classes have been well attended with many animated discussions enlivening the sessions.

Eleven carefully selected men were initiated on December 7th in a joint initiation with Taft Chapter. This was followed by a dance.

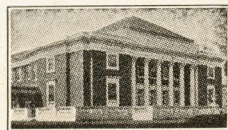

On PAD Nite the chapter attended a banquet given by the Washington Alumni Chapter. It was a great success.

JEFFERSON

University of Virginia

■ On January 9th, following election of officers Jefferson Chapter initiated eight men into their chapter.

On February 8th, PAD Nite was celebrated by a party held at a lodge near Charlottesville. Members of the chapter, some friends and a few prospective pledges were invited. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed during the course of the evening. The National Fraternity was toasted and a few interesting stories told of PAD doings.

KENT

University of Idaho

■ Kent Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, at the University of Idaho, is very glad to report increased activities. Throughout the year we had luncheon banquets, and at each of these meetings some of the members talked upon subjects important in the coming bar examination in June, and in the regular examinations at the law school.

On the evening of Feb. 11, 1936, PAD entertained all prospective pledges at a banquet at the Blue Bucket Inn. Dean Pendleton Howard of the Law School spoke upon the fellowship and encouragement to study that the fraternity fostered. Mr. Edw. Poulton, local attorney and alumnus of PAD, also spoke.

Present Officers of the Kent Chapter are: Bill Tuson, Justice; Spencer Nelson, Vice-Justice; Carl Buell, Clerk; Bill Furchner, Treasurer.

Formal pledging will be held in the near future and the group then is going to consider larger activities.

KNOX

University of Arizona

■ Knox survived the mid-year exams in great style with all of the actives passing. Pledge Bob Jones made the highest average in the law school.

The annual PAD Night was celebrated by a banquet at the Pioneer Hotel with a large attendance. Brother "Tim" Cusick, toastmaster, introduced as speaker of the evening Brother Alfred C. Lockwood, Chief Justice of the Arizona Supreme Court. Judge Wm. G. Hall of the Pima County Superior Court was guest speaker.

Practically all of the pledges will be put over the road at the initiation on March 1st, with a festive banquet to follow at the Country Club. Plans indicate this will be a memorable affair.

At bi-weekly meetings, the policy is being continued of practical talks by alumni on legal problems. Among others scheduled are Brother Phil Munch, of a local bank, who will talk on trust departments of national banks, and Brother Jack O'Dowd, who will explain title insurance and abstract procedure.

Knox Chapter is back on its feet and "going to town".

LURTON

University of Louisville

■ With the exception of its celebration of National Phi Alpha Delta Nite, Lurton Chapter has not been as active during the past month as during previous months of the year, due of course to the Final Examinations which gave to the members little time for fraternity activity. They, now being out of the way, we are ready to launch another semester's work. Plans call for resumption of periodic luncheon meetings with various speakers, both alumni and guests.

The major event of any chapter during the past two months was, of course, National Phi Alpha Delta Nite. Lurton Chapter had as its guests the Clay Chapter of Lexington in a joint celebration which was a great success. Personally, all are of the opinion that these joint meetings and celebration go far towards fostering the true spirit of a National Fraternity by creating a bond of personal friendship between the brothers in the various chapters.

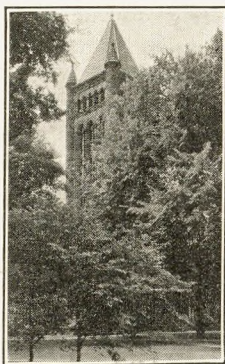

PAD Nite began at four P.M., with the initiation of four pledges into the chapter. This was followed by a formal dinner, which in turn was followed by a dance, the entire ceremonies taking place in the Kentucky Hotel. At the dinner the ceremonies were presided over by Brother Moore, Justice of Clay Chapter who was introduced by Justice Beauchamp of Lurton. Short talks were delivered by several of the brothers of the two chapters, followed by the principal speaker of the evening, Brother Frank Ginnocio, Clay '14, of Lexington, whose speech though brief, was highly enjoyable. We should like here to publicly thank Clay Chapter for its large share in making the evening a success, and to wish them continued progress and success in their work.

MAGRUDER

University of Illinois

■ Magruder Chapter gathered its members, both active and alumni, for a pleasant evening at Champaign's Southern Tea Room on National P A D Nite. After a fine supper the group listened to the program broadcast from Chicago. The evening was so pleasant that actives and alumni are now making plans for a weekly meeting for the future.

Three of the Magruder actives are now student editors of the Illinois Bar Journal.

University of Minnesota

■ The Mitchell Chapter is planning for a smoker shortly before the end of the winter quarter, at which a special attempt is to be made to bring out the alumni of the Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. There are a large number of former members of the Fraternity practicing in this area and the local chapter believes that closer contact with them will prove beneficial to both. We aim to solicit the services of the more recent graduates of this school to personally contact the older members.

In furtherance of the above plan, it was voted that the Chapter attempt to secure the attendance of some of the alumni who are engaged in active practice at some of the regular luncheon meetings, and if possible have a joint meeting with the alumni when it is convenient.

It has been found that much of the regular business can be adequately handled by the executive officers, and it is thought that some of the meetings should be devoted to social contacts with prominent alumni.

A recent survey has shown that all of the members of the Mitchell Chapter who graduated last year are now actively employed in the practice of law, most of them in the Twin Cities.

The Mitchell Chapter expects to have initiation of several pledges in the near future. Several have indicated their intention of becoming active members. It is customary for this chapter to have a banquet or party following the initiation.

MORGAN

University of Alabama

■ Morgan Chapter celebrated National PAD Nite by going to Birmingham and attending a banquet as guests of the Birmingham Alumni Chapter. The banquet was a huge success and the hopes are that it will become an annual event. A short radio program was given in which Brother Gillon, of the Birmingham Chapter, and Brother Stevens, of Morgan, rendered short addresses.

February 8th was also pledge day, and we are pleased to announce the following men as pledge-brothers:

W. S. Bennett, Buckhannan, West Virginia.

M. F. Bishop, 7800 South First Ave., Birmingham, Alabama.

J. W. Gilmore, Coffeerville, Alabama.
 J. C. Darden, LaFayette, Alabama.
 B. S. Dorman, Anniston, Alabama.
 M. H. Haygood, Greenville, Alabama.
 R. A. Hepner, 6303 Kenmore Avenue,
 Chicago, Illinois.

P. H. Pitts, 1716 South 16 Ave.,
 Mobile, Alabama.

J. W. Grayson, 1506 Dauphin Street,
 Mobile, Alabama.

L. I. Smith, 721 Seward Street,
 Rochester, New York.

R. T. Cutrer, 512-13 Avenue, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

E. R. White, Uriah, Alabama.

T. B. Huey, 503 Moulton Street, Decatur, Alabama.

An initiation is planned to take place during March and the above pledges and the following are to be initiated:

Joe Burns, Peachland, North Carolina.

Carl Elliott, Vina, Alabama.

Ernest Stroud, Safford, Alabama.

Herman Maddox, Sulligent, Alabama.

Mortimer Jordan, Buford, Georgia.

Abner Powell, Andalusia, Alabama.

John P. Godfrey, 12 Oakwood Court,
 Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

RAPALLO

New York University

■ The business of the reorganization of this chapter continues enthusiastically as was recently evidenced by a well attended meeting of New York alumni and active members of the chapter on the annual PAD Nite celebration. Five men were initiated as well as Ernest Hammer, Justice of the Supreme Court of New York, who was inducted as an honorary member.

Securing chapter rooms is the next matter under consideration. Various methods of handling this matter have been proposed and are being given consideration.

The regular program calls for monthly smokers at which prominent alumni members are guest speakers.

Brothers Joseph Kelly and Allen Mad-dren are members of the staff of the New York Law Quarterly Review.

REESE

University of Nebraska

■ Late in December Reese Chapter published its famous MEMO PAD. This five-page mimeographed paper is chuck full of live and interesting news about Reese Chapter and alumni. So well prepared is it that if space did not forbid
 it would be reprinted here in full. However, it is possible to publish some of the highlights from MEMO PAD.

Cordial invitation was extended to all PAD alumni who planned to be in Nebraska during the state bar convention to make Reese Chapter house their headquarters.

Homecoming was celebrated with a big party at the chapter house. A large number of prominent alumni attended.

Freshmen pledges were given their annual stag party on December 19th.
 Pledge scholastic averages were very high—about 10% above the class average. This fine bunch of men will carry Reese to new heights.

In addition to regular activities members of Reese Chapter are active in hunting and fishing expeditions. The boys have fine times on these trips and they result in a comradeship of the finest sort.

The chapter house is in exceedingly fine shape. Many of the brothers deserve a lot of credit for the hard work done by them to make the many improvements noted.

At the end of the first semester, PAD pledges John Monson and Richard Person ranked first and third respectively in the freshman law class of 95 students; other PAD pledges ranked among the top groups. Pledge John V.
 Clemans and Brother Loren G. Olsson are members of the editorial staff of the Nebraska Law Bulletin.

Reese Chapter entertained the women students of the law school at a dinner on February 13th. Mrs. Franz Radke, prominent local attorney, was guest speaker of the evening.

ROSS

University of Southern California

■ The past month has seen the members of Ross Chapter paying strict attention to the books in preparation for the recent semester examinations. It is hoped that the high scholastic standing of the chapter will prove to have been maintained when the results appear. Ross Chapter feels honored that eight of its men are members of the student editorial board of the Southern California Law Review.

National PAD Nite were celebrated with great enthusiasm in Los Angeles. The scene of the local gathering was the University Club in Los Angeles. Many well-known members of the Los Angeles Bar were present, as was the entire active chapter. At 6:30 P. M. the banquet commenced, and the celebration continued far into the night with speeches, toasts, and musical numbers. We were extremely fortunate in securing as the speaker of the evening Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, President of the University of Southern California. Dr. von KleinSmid delivered an inspiring address on the part the lawyer plays in the modern civilization. Brother Douglas L. Edmonds, the Presiding Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court, spoke over a local radio station on the part our fraternity plays in our lives. All in all it was an inspiring evening, and it was unanimously agreed that National PAD night was one of the most valuable traditions of the fraternity.

University of Wisconsin

■ The fellows started the second semester of the school year with a "bang." One of the pledges, Albert Neumann, took the high honors for the second year class in scholastic achievement; an interesting program was worked up for the current semester; and the Phi Delta Phi Fraternity was challenged to show their ability in the field of baseball.

This semester's program will include eight dinner speakers in the field of public law, two parties, and a good baseball game, in addition to the informal weekly meetings.

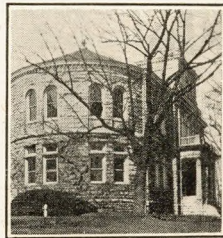

The Chapter has found a great friend and leader in its latest honorary initiate, Mr. Jacob Beuscher of the Wisconsin Law School. Brother Beuscher has willingly given his time to advise the chapter in matters of concern. Moreover, he has offered to umpire the baseball game, so the PAD's should win.

Sidney Felts, Justice of Ryan Chapter, did not return to school this semester. His able leadership is missed by all the brothers. His duties are being performed by "Chuck" Orth, Vice-justice, until the new officers are elected this Spring.

STAPLES

Washington & Lee University

■ Prospects are becoming brighter for Staples Chapter now that the law school has entered its new building. Previous to this pledging was handicapped because of the lack of social contacts with freshman law students as the law classes were held in various buildings widely distributed over the campus. Now that all law classes are being held in the same building, PAD members are fast becoming acquainted with the large number of new law students and are interesting them in the fraternity. The chapter plans to pledge from ten to fifteen members this year. The chapter is emphasizing the pledging of only those men who have high scholastic averages.

Five members of Staples Chapter have passed the Virginia Bar Examination. They are: Bob Gray, Sam Alexander, "Pee-Wee" McNew, Bill Martin, Jack Miller. Justice Gray's average on last semester examinations was the highest in the law school. The records of the other members were exceptionally good.

The chapter is planning to sponsor several smokers in the near future. At the close of the school year we will hold our annual banquet with the law faculty as our guests.

STORY

De Paul University

■ On February 15th an exceptional good pledge class of nine men was initiated into Story chapter. The initiation was conducted by the regular officers with the assistance of Charles Nichols of Blackstone chapter. The men initiated were Bruce Quackenbush, Ignatius Ivan, David L. Coghlan, Ernest Bertsch, Paul Gallagher, Rudolph Kalivoda, Thomas Godfrey, Louis Skweres, and Oscar Sandberg. There was also a holdover class of eight pledges who expect to go through during this semester. The scholastic average for the new initiates is above a "B" average.

At least ten of the older members maintained high "B" averages with Andrew Gibbs and Raymond Meade maintaining "A" averages. Andy Gibbs is the proud "PAPA" of a 9 month old baby; he is also City passenger agent for the Southern Pacific Railway in Chicago.

On March 17th, the Chicago Alumni is holding a dance at the Medinah Athletic Club in honor of Joseph Story Chapter. This affair promises to rival the National PAD nite affair at the Drake Hotel—in numbers. The Drake affair was exceptionally well handled in Chicago by Bill O'Shea, but on that evening a blizzard and zero weather wave was in full progress.

Brother Henry Chatroop was at the Chapter House on the evening of February 4th, giving many helpful hints and suggestions for future activities by the Chapter.

A smoker for new and prospective members will be held at the Chapter House on March 10th.

Clerk T. J. Donovan is President of the De Paul Chapter of Blue Key National Honorary Fraternity for the present school year. The organization is conducting and managing a National Mock Political convention in the School Auditorium during the first part of May. Vice-President Meade and Treasurer King are also active men in Blue Key this year.

SUTHERLAND

University of Utah

■ The members of George Sutherland chapter and the alumni residing in Salt Lake City and vicinity had a wonderful time on National PAD Nite.

At 3 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 8th, Brother William H. Leary, Dean of the School of Law, University of Utah, delivered an excellent talk on the American Bar, some of its salient members and their connection with PAD. Brother Leary inculcated not only the purposes of PAD but also the uplifting view of the legal profession which was accorded much respect and interest by all who heard him. KSL, one of the leading broadcasting stations of the country, donated the time freely and very generously.

An initiation was conducted in the Supreme Court chambers at the Capitol by members and alumni during the course of the afternoon.

A joint banquet with the alumni chapter consummated the early part of the evening, after which cards and a round or so of beer took the place of the serious activities. The alumni members poured out advice and stories of their legal success — along with our beer.

TAFT

Georgetown University

■ At the initiations held last month five men were taken into PAD. One of them was William V. O'Connor, Jr., nephew of J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency and active PAD alumni.

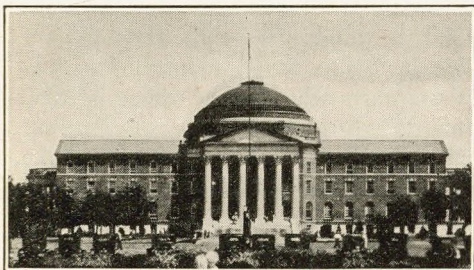

Prospects for this year are exceptionally good and all activities are very successful. Two dances have already been held and another is planned for February 29th.

A celebration was held on February 8th in honor of PAD Nite and to welcome Assistant Attorney General Wide-man into the fraternity. The meeting started with a banquet at which Brother Joseph Cary was major domo. The Carlton Hotel was the scene of the festivities.

TANEY

Southern Methodist University

■ Roger Brooke Taney Chapter reports a chapter average of 77. In the second year class the five leading men are all PADs, namely: Barnard Hemphill, O. B. Freeman, Willard Baker, J. P. Simpson and Eugene Brady. The senior class had only held one examination at mid-year, however, several pledges were outstanding in the freshman class, among whom were Elbert Griffin, James Frazier and Tom Tipton.

PAD Nite was one of the most congenial occasions of the year. Dinner was held at the Dallas Athletic Club and even though one of those cold Texas northers blew up during the afternoon, sending the mercury to 10 degrees, the warm spirit of brotherhood was undaunted.

Brothers Philip Goode and Homer Johnson will represent their respective clubs in the semi-finals of the annual Moot Court trials.

TEMPLE

Hastings College of Law

■ Jackson Temple Chapter has been wide awake and if its activities and attitude is any indication the depression is over. Luncheons held practically every second week of the fall semester were more than a success,—they were something looked forward to with an interest and anxiety that called to mind the attitude of predepression days. Though the luncheons were held in various different colorful eating places so easily found in San Francisco, there was something more than that that went to make up the attraction. It was that quality which would make a delightful banquet of an humble repast in modest if not poor surroundings,—it was spirit, enthusiasm, fervor, zest and sincere fellowship.

One example of the many gatherings was a Luncheon given at Pierre's. This particular one was managed and directed by Brother Steadman '34, and his gusto and enthusiasm was reflected and magnified by the heartily welcomed and distinguished guests, and equalled if not surpassed by the active brothers. Brother Steadman secured as principal speaker the Honorable Ira Thompson, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of California. Living, vital, dynamic and compelling are only a few of the adjectives that would be needed to attempt to properly describe Judge Thompson's talk. He spoke of the law in general and of the place and duty of a young lawyer in the legal field. He dwelt, too, on the worth and value of fraternal life both while in law school and after the neophyte had entered the field of active practice. Without meaning to detract in the least from the dignity of the speaker or the substance of his talk the effect he obtained may best be likened to that of an able and eloquent coach,—he left his audience profoundly inspired.

Professor Haines of Boalt Hall at the University of California and Professor Dave Snodgrass of Hastings College of the Law also contributed to the pleasure of the occasion as did graduate brothers Corten and Benemotti of Boalt Hall.

In the late fall a joint initiation was held with Field Chapter, followed by a banquet at the Commercial Club. Among the honored guests were Brother Frank M. Ludwick, Supreme Secretary and Brother Folger Emerson, Western District Justice.

Present among others at the banquet on the night of February 8, 1936, were: William Simmons, Dean of Hastings College of the Law, Dave Snodgrass, James A. Ballentine, and Judge Hugo Graupner, the latter three being members of Phi Alpha Delta on the faculty of Hastings College. There was also a fine representation of Fields Chapter, with whom the banquet was jointly given.

These joint functions have allowed the members of Temple Chapter to become acquainted with the members of Fields Chapter and such an attitude has sprung up that Temple Chapter now looks forward to fraternizing with their friendly and amicable brothers from the California Campus.

Where credit is justly due it should, in all fairness, be given. Much, if not the greater part of the present success, is due to the untiring and intelligent efforts of the Chapter's present officers. Justice Dick Hanna has, in his quiet, tactful manner, guided the Chapter through many a rough storm and into a safe harbor. His principal work was managing an over-enthusiased collection of brothers. He did it,—and did it successfully. He was well supported by his Vice Justice, Wally Trefts, who frequently acted as toast master in Hanna's absence. Wally's personality and good humour is equalled only by his immaculate appearance and sincerity. Of course our Secretary, Brother Ed Giannelli, "the man with a smile", has filled all his duties with a precision worthy of a militarist and has loaned his efforts whole-heartedly to every activity of the chapter. As Treasurer, Brother Bob Walbey, has in a quiet, judicious, businesslike manner performed a task that is exceedingly difficult in a manner that would be a credit not only to any fraternal organization but to any business organization. Besides collecting the dues and paying the expenses of the chapter he has inaugurated a set of books that are in every detail complete and worthy of a master accountant. That in itself is a service for which we cannot speak too highly of Brother Walbey, but he has done more than that. Because of his management and efforts, principally, the chapter has an enviable surplus to its credit.

In mentioning the officers, and commending them on their sterling efforts and the admirable results they attained we have not for a moment forgotten those men who backed them in their efforts. Brothers Hanley, McDermott, Wright, Rist, Fanning, Newman, Wilke, Steadman, McCarthy, Irwin, Popovitch and the more recent initiates have proven themselves able to step to the firing line when it is necessary and shoot true.

Brother Tom Fanning, for the last two years Historian of this chapter, hopes and determinately declares that he is going to make a trip to New York as soon as he finishes his law course this spring and is free to do so. He intends to visit as many of the chapters as he can possibly include in his travels.

He is taking the trip because of his heart. (We hope the girl in New York is a good and able cure.) In any event the love-sick San Diegan solemnly swears that the Mid-West, the East and the South will soon see him,—and we hope, his bride.

News of Temple Chapter would not be complete without a word regarding Brother Dave Snodgrass and Brother James A. Ballentine, loyal and active faculty members. Brother Ballentine's advice to the students is invaluable. It is simple and though given by him with a twinkle in his eye, it is just that bit of advice from one who has seen men come and go that may help the beginner on his way and save him many a sad and sorry moment. The "Grand Man" with the white hair and twinkling eyes exudes a friendliness and warmth of personality that gives a living touch to every activity he attends.

No less could be said of Brother Dave Snodgrass, though he is somewhat a different type of personality. He has been ever a loyal and staunch supporter of the active chapter. His wit and wisdom has so oft been appreciated and enjoyed by not only this chapter but all who have come in contact with him that mention of it seems an unnecessary reiteration. An expression of the esteem in which he is held by the student body is manifested in their attitude since they have heard it said that he will increase the number of classes he will teach next year. It has been circulated that he shall give practically his entire time to teaching and if that be so, the general consensus of opinion is that fortune has smiled upon those who have one or more years left in law school. Phi Alpha Delta may be proud to have another full time professor. Good luck, Dave!

Brother Ott and Pledge Wallburg are pianists of no mean ability. Their efforts provided the chapter with excellent impromptu entertainment. While speaking of entertainment and versatility it is unfair not to mention the vocal ability of Brothers Paul McClarenon and Walbey. These boys surprised and delighted the gathering at a smoker held jointly with the local chapter of the Phi Delta Phi Law Fraternity. Brother McClarenon placed himself within the first three places in one of the Atwater-Kent radio contests a few years ago. If he would have done better as a vocalist than as a lawyer, the musical world has surely suffered a great loss. He is an excellent student and has an enviable record.

WATSON

University of Pittsburgh

■ In keeping with the policy of frequent get togethers where there is the handicap of lack of a chapter house, the Watson Chapter conducts weekly luncheons, which the entire membership attends to thrash over their various problems. Review sessions were held before examinations, at which the active brothers gave the benefit of their experience to the pledges from the junior class. The results have been gratifying as the pledges, ten in number, established uniformly high grades.

The Birthday Dance and Dinner developed into such a thoroughly excellent good time that plans are already afoot to duplicate the affair some time in the spring.

In recent years the practice of moot court arguments has dropped into the limbo of forgotten things at this law school. This year Watson chapter has revived it as one of the points of its program, and it has been so successful that other fraternities have followed by reviving their own moot courts. It is hoped that it will result in an inter-fraternity moot court.

Initiation has been set for April 3, 1936, and it is expected that one of the largest pledge groups in the history of the chapter will be ready to be duly inducted into the fraternity.

Plans have been made for a joint active-alumni affair as a testimonial to Professor Madden of the Law School who is now serving as chairman of the Labor Relations Board. Dr. Madden has been on leave of absence from the University, but has managed occasionally to return for an evening.

WEBSTER

Loyola University

■ Webster Chapter, as far as Loyola University is concerned, is still novel. Despite the fact that not two years have elapsed since this, one of the oldest chapters in Phi Alpha Delta, was installed in its new surroundings, it is reaching real maturity rapidly. We attribute this development, in large part, to the fact that throughout both the day and night schools somewhat of a "grapevine" system, if you will, has been established, whereby potential candidates for membership are sought out.

February twenty-ninth will see the initiation of a dozen prospects for the Phi Alpha Delta honor. The ceremonies will be held jointly with Blackstone Chapter, neighbors as well as brothers, of Chicago Kent, located within a stone's throw of Loyola. The place will be the usual one, namely, the Hamilton Club, Supreme Vice Justice Dwight Green, former United States Attorney in this district, and Brother John P. McGoorty, Chief Justice of the criminal court, will be the speakers of the evening. Brothers Geo. E. Fink and Allan T. Gilbert, of the Advisory Board, will also address the inductees.

Within a fortnight of the Christmas holidays, Webster Chapter held a dinner party at the Bismarck Hotel, commemorative of its first anniversary in Loyola. The guest speaker was Walter F. Dodd, the widely known authority on Constitutional Law and Supreme Court Practice. For over an hour, Brother Dodd entertained his audience of over fifty, with a description of the United States Supreme Court at work, and with comments on the important decisions it had currently handed down. Aside from the intelligent content of his talk, Brother Dodd has a rare sense of real humor, and efforts are being made to secure his presence at another dinner session. Also present at that same gathering were Rev. Jno. Noonon, Regent of the Law School, Dean Jno. V. McCormick, and Professors Jno. C. Fitzgerald, and Jas. A. Howell.

Still fresh, of course, in the minds of all PADs is the memory of National PAD Nite. Members of chapters in the law schools in the Chicago district celebrated with the Chicago alumni at the Drake Hotel. Needless to say, a rollicking good time for all was the main course on the menu; and, best of all, the evening was a full one, the party continuing through to breakfast hour. Despite a truly wicked evening, full of storm and snow, the crowd was representative. But we feel that no mention of that good time should be made without doffing our hats in thanks to Webster's own Bill O'Shea, Supreme Marshal, whose chairmanship afforded everyone pleasure. Charles Koepke, another very loyal Webster man, was much in evidence as Assistant Chairman.

The semester examination storm saw Webster men flourishing, and, here at Loyola, that is the true acid test of any organization. Nor is that conclusion purely individual and fantastic, but is the one expressed by the Secretary of the Law School. In at least two cases, Webster men were the ranking members of their classes.

Any progress of the chapter should not be spoken of without reference to the faculty adviser, Professor Jim Howell, an alumnus of Taft Chapter at Georgetown University. Brother Howell is in a great measure responsible for Webster's growth.

WILLEY

University of West Virginia

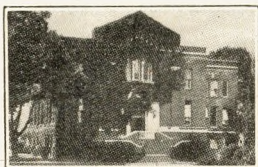

■ This chapter enjoyed a very sociable dinner meeting on PAD Nite at the home of Professor Edmund C. Dickinson, faculty brother. Every member and pledge was present to appreciate the interesting radio programs of several neighboring chapters. The chapter will do its pledging from the first year class this month, and prospects for a fine group of pledges are encouraging. Some of the present pledges expect to be initiated soon.

WILLIAMS

University of Oregon

■ Eleven members of Williams Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta drove to Portland to meet with the Portland alumni in observance of National PAD Nite.

The meeting took place in the Multnomah Athletic Club and consisted of a lovely dinner and a very enjoyable stag party. Although not on the air, the program could well have merited being broadcast.

Featured speakers for the evening were Robert Maguire, president of the Oregon State Bar Association; Colonel A. E. Clark, prominent in legal and political circles; G. G. Smith of John Marshall chapter at the University of Chicago, organizer of chapters at the University of Michigan and Illinois, and one of the founders of Williams chapter; Charles G. Howard, amiable law lecturer at the University of Oregon and a member of the fraternity of Illinois.

The Portland alumni group enthusiastically voted to organize an alumni chapter in Portland and elected Cal Southers president of the group. They also announced that an award is to be made by that group of $50.00 to the man of the first year law class who shows the best in scholastic attainment for the year. This group consists of a number of the outstanding legal figures in the state and Williams Chapter feels extremely fortunate in being so closely allied with them.

Williams Chapter is rapidly gaining momentum after its recent rejuvenation at the University of Oregon and with the very fine support of its Portland alumni group certainly has a pleasant future assured.

WILSON

Cornell University

■ Woodrow Wilson Chapter, at Cornell University Law School, started off the current school year faced by the loss by graduation of several of its active members who were prominent in the general student body.

Among these were Norman MacDonald, former Justice, who is now practicing law in New York City; M. Harold Dwyer, who recently completed a project for the New York State Law Revision Commission, and who is now practicing in Syracuse, N. Y.; Pete Peterson and Ernest Gazda.

Despite the loss of these men, and after a successful campaign of rushing, Wilson Chapter embarked upon, and is carrying out an attractive program of activities. The custom of sponsoring an annual open smoker for the general student body of the Law School, and featuring a prominent speaker, was continued this year. It will be remembered that this was inaugurated in the last school year of 1934-1935 by the presenting of Dean Dexter Kimball of the Cornell College of Engineering, who gave a most interesting talk on "Some Old Aspects of the New Deal". This year's speaker was E. J. Marshall of Toledo, Ohio, nationally-known attorney, who came to Ithaca to give a talk on "Some Things a Young Lawyer Should Know".

Wilson Chapter is holding regular meetings every two weeks, but these are often in the form of a dinner, and at which guest speakers are heard. Among those recently heard have been Professor H. M. Stone of the Cornell Agricultural School, well known for his after-dinner humor; Professor Karl M. Dallenbach, famed psychologist, who has twice fascinated Cornell PADs with his talks on the Psychology of Magic and Spiritism, and his accompanying demonstrations; and Professor Robert Sproul Stevens of the Cornell Law Faculty, who recently completed a trip around the world. In the case of Professor Stevens, it is interesting to note that Phi Alpha Delta was fortunate enough to hear him first, in spite of the fact that campus groups were besieging him for speaking dates. The speech made to Wilson Chapter by Professor Stevens on his trip was undoubtedly one of the best that it has heard, and was especially valuable for its firsthand comments on the war situation.

Present plans call for a talk by Dean C. K. Burdick of the Cornell Law School at the next meeting, although no topic has been announced as yet.

Phi Alpha Delta continues to hold a prominent place in the Cornell Law School faculty. Professor Lyman P. Wilson, who is Supreme Faculty Advisor of PAD, is the senior professor of the school. And, speaking of Professor Wilson, Cornell PADs are extremely fortunate in having him present at practically all functions, and readily accessible as a speaker, because he is undoubtedly one of the ablest after-dinner speakers available anywhere. Professor John W. MacDonald, another PAD on the faculty, is also Secretary of the New York State Law Revision Commission, which position is one of much responsibility. Professor Lewis W. Morse, in addition to his professorial duties, now is Librarian, having succeeded the late E. E. Willever.

A new slate of officers was recently instituted with Raymond Cothran assuming the duties of Justice, William Dunham as Vice-Justice, W. James Ackerman as Treasurer, and J. Walter Augar as Clerk.

Positions With Law Firms

This message is addressed to all graduating PADs who will want assistance in helping them make proper contacts with a view to obtaining position in law offices.

Will the Justice of each active chapter please send me the names, addresses and qualifications of each member desiring help and name the city where each would like to locate? If there is an alumni chapter there, I will be glad to send on this information to the proper officer who will inquire of the members who may need a law school graduate. Of course, no promises are made that a position will be obtained, but with the above mentioned help everything possible will be done to assist our members. Please address me at 1055 Grant Ave., Pelham Manor, New York.

Supreme Alumni Advisor.

Thus, after serving two years in the Department of Justice as Special Assistant to the Attorney General, he became the third ranking official in the Department and was in charge of general administration which included supervision of the Bureau of Investigation, the Bureau of Prisons, and the Bureau of War Risk Litigation. Prior to this appointment he had tried two of the most important criminal cases that had been handled by the Department. The case against John Paul Chase, who along with "Baby Face" Nelson murdered Federal Agents Cowley and Hollis, Nelson having been killed in the encounter, and the case of the United States against Louis Piquett, Chicago lawyer-criminal, who was charged with conspiracy to harbor John Dillinger. The conviction of Chase ended the first murder trial in the Federal Court under the new anti-crime statute, and Piquett was the first member of the bar to be convicted of violating the newly created Act which was designed to penalize those who extended extra-legal aid to public enemies.

As Assistant Attorney General Brother McMahon succeeded Joseph B. Keenan, of Cleveland, who has been in charge of the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice and who was appointed as Assistant to the Attorney General. He has made a splendid record in the Department and has well earned the several promotions that he has received.

■ Reese Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta is well represented in the Nebraska State Capital.

Serving as Justices of the Supreme Court are Edward F. Carter and Bayard H. Paine, the latter having been given an honorary initiation into Reese Chapter last spring. Justice Carter succeeded Justice James R. Dean, who was also a PAD.

Serving in the last Legislature just over were State Senators Rolla Van Kirk and Charles Dafoe, while Hugo Serb was Secretary of the Senate. In the House was John H. Comstock, who had the distinction of being floor leader of the minority Republican party.

James F. Miller is Secretary of the State Railway Commission, while Robert E. Powell is the rate clerk of the railway commission.

Lester A. Danielson is assistant to the Attorney General, while Howard L. Holtzendorff is attorney for the Receivership Division of the State Banking Department. The present Justice of Reese Chapter, Carroll Weberg, is in the State Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

One of the chief men in the State Engineer's Department, A. M. Gaddis, is also a brother PAD, although of Magruder Chapter.

■ ARTHUR VAN METER (Jay) was recently appointed assistant general attorney of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Pittsburgh, Pa.

■ Assistant Attorney General F. J. Wideman has been elected an honorary member of Phi Alpha Delta, Brewer Chapter. Brother Wideman is the first man in the history of the fraternity to be elected by the Supreme Board rather than by the active chapter. Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who became a member of Phi Alpha Delta while attending Yale, presided over the induction ceremonies.

Frederick William Wile, famous Washington political writer, in a recent column paid tribute to Frank J. Wideman. Wile, in his column, has this to say about Brother Wideman.

"Assistant Attorney General Frank J. Wideman has just made an interesting record. In June he argued the last case before the Supreme Court in its old quarters. It was the Sandy Fox suit, involving the government's right to tax Uncle Sam's Indian wards and affected many who have grown rich out of oil. The court decided for the government.

"The other day Mr. Wideman argued the first case heard by the Supreme Court in its new quarters. It involved the question of whether taxes on alimony are collectable from the husband or the wife. The government holds that this time it is the man who should pay.

"Mr. Wideman, who heads the tax division of the Justice Department, has dealt with some 1600 injunction suits relating to processing taxes. He is now supervising preparation of the brief in the Hoosac Mills case, which will produce a Supreme Court decision as to the constitutionality of the AAA.

"Another record chalked up by Attorney General Cummings' able young assistant is that Wideman, who hails from Florida, has argued personally for the government in every one of the Federal appellate courts of the Union."

■ BROTHER DAVID SHOLTS, Governor of Florida, was the principal speaker at the Jackson Day Banquet in Los Angeles. With his genial personality he had his entire audience of some sixteen hundred with him from the very outset, and we thoroughly enjoyed his masterful address. We quote, in part, from his letter to the editor on his return.

"You do not know how sorry I am that I did not get a chance to visit with you while in Los Angeles last week, but want to assure you of my appreciation of your thoughtful telegram. However, I expect to be out there again in July on the occasion of the Elks convention, and at that time hope to have the opportunity of visiting with you and other good brothers of PAD."

We are waiting for July and Brother Sholtz with pleasant anticipation.

■ ERNEST H. PETT, Justice of District 5, announces the appointment of C. F. Noonan (Campbell) of Minneapolis, Minnesota, as Deputy District Justice for the same district.

Brother Noonan was highly recommended for the position. Always active in alumni affairs, it is felt that his keen interest in PAD will mean a great deal to the active and alumni members in that region. PAD Nite was one of the first activities in which Brother Noonan participated in his new fraternity office.

■ From the Amarillo (Texas) News. "Only slightly injured after his car had careened wildly down one of the ice-covered grades on the North Highway and overturned yesterday afternoon, Sam H. Roberts (Campbell), prominent Dalhart lawyer, business leader, and sportsman, was confined in St. Anthony's Hospital last night.

"His injuries included a cut over his left eye and a number of bruises. Mr. Roberts had returned the day before to Dalhart from California."

From Sam Roberts: "I stayed in the hospital four days and had numerous bruises to heal, the last being a black eye. Hugo Swan was in Amarillo after my accident and we had a visit at the hospital."

You can't keep a good man down.

■ "I am again notifying you of a change of address. Lee F. Malone (Willey), 1448 Standard Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

"No doubt my frequent change of address is the basis for some curiosity but it is due to the business I am engaged in. I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice and in that capacity I have been transferred to various headquarter cities of the country.

"I am a member of the New York Alumni but will now seek to transfer to the Cleveland Alumni Chapter."

This letter also contained some very favorable remarks about the December REPORTER and about Willey Chapter, which Brother Malone continues to take a deep interest in.

■ J. KARR TAYLOR (Reese), who was justice of the chapter until ill health forced him to turn over his duties has indeed gone far. Graduating magna cum laude with the Order of Coif, and the highest scholarship record in his class, he was also instructor in Legal Bibliography for the Freshman Class. He received a research fellowship at Columbia University last year, and more recently a diploma. Now he is with one of the bigger law firms of New York City, Mitchell, Taylor, Capron & Marsh. He seems definitely headed for great success.

■ L. Maston Meagher (Fletcher), is now permanently located with Howth, Adams & Hart, attorneys, in the Goodhue Building at Beaumont, Texas.

NEW YORK ALUMNI

■ The birthday celebration of the New York Alumni Chapter was an outstanding success and had the largest attendance in the history of the chapter. Supreme Justice William Culbertson attended and delivered a really inspiring address on the improvements of Phi Alpha Delta. The Honorable Ernest E. L. Hammer, Justice of the Supreme Court, was inducted as an honorary member.

The highlight of the evening was the really classic address delivered by the Honorable William T. Collins, Justice of the Supreme Court. The address was published in full by the New York Law Journal.

Honor was paid to Brother Anthony P. Savarese who had just been appointed City Magistrate, and he was presented with a gavel on behalf of the chapter by the Supreme Justice.

Rapallo active chapter attended the meeting as a body.

Election of officers was held and resulted as follows: George E. Palmer, Justice; Risdale Ellis, First Vice-Justice; Frank R. Serri, Second Vice-Justice; Edward J. Myers, Treasurer; G. Carlton Walters, Clerk.

Supreme Justice Culbertson appointed William P. McCool Deputy District Justice of District Number Eleven.

Phi Alpha Delta has made great progress in New York during the last few years. Not only in the increase in membership, but in spirit and enthusiasm and as a power at the Bar of New York City. Under the leadership of retiring Justice William McCool the alumni chapter has attained its greatest success in New York State. Although his term of office is ended Brother McCool has declared his intention to continue the good work for PAD.

He is connected with the registrar's office of the University of Florida and is secretary of examinations for the general college at the university.

* * *

■ REESE CHAPTER is proud to have two such widely known men on the University of Nebraska faculty as are Professor Lawrence Vold and Professor Lester B. Orfield. Each one is recognized as an eminent and distinguished authority in his field. Both are PADs.

■ Senator Duncan U. Fletcher (Fletcher), celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary on January 6th, with "hard work".

Arriving earlier than usual at his office he told those waiting to greet him that he felt fine, adding: "I am gratified to be in good health, and that prospects for the country are improving".

Washington friends banked his desk with flowers and friends in Florida sent numerous messages of greeting.

Senator Fletcher has served in the senate 27 years.

■ TAKING OUR BEARINGS, a document of present day conditions, was the subject of an address by Supreme Justice William S. Culbertson before the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on January 24th.

The talk was considered of great interest and significance and was quoted broadly by a number of newspapers throughout the country.

■ The firm of Pleus, Williams and Pleus, of Orlando, Florida have announced the return of Robert J. Pleus to the partnership effective December 16, 1935. Brother Pleus resigned as Assistant Attorney General of Florida to return to the active practise of law.

■ William H. Rogers, President of the Florida Bar Association, is the most active leader the Florida Bar ever had. One of the outstanding attorneys of the state, his interest in the problems of the bar has resulted in a progressive administration with all activities at a high point.

Born at New Haven, Connecticut, in 1884, he was graduated from Dickinson College with Ph.B. degrees in 1905. In 1906 he received his A.M. degrees at the same college. It was in 1909 that he graduated from the New York Law School with LL.B. degrees and was admitted to the New York Bar. Following other activities he was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1912.

Removing to Jacksonville, Florida, he became president of the Jacksonville Bar Association. Next came the World War in which he served in Field Artillery.

From that time on his practise and activities rapidly expanded. He took great interest in civic work although he never held political office.

Senior member of the law firm of Rogers & Towers in Jacksonville, he was appointed Chairman of the Probate Committee of Florida which drafted the 1933 Probate Code of the state.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, Florida State Bar Association, Jacksonville Bar Association, American Judicature Society and the Academy of Political Science.

He is also a director of the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, of Richmond, Virginia, the Florida National Bank of Jacksonville, First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Jacksonville, Glen St. Mary's Nurseries' Company, vice-president of the Gainesville Gas Company, and president of the Florida Title & Guaranty Company of Jacksonville.

His fraternal affiliations are Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Kappa Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa. Other memberships include the Seminole Club, Timuquana Club, Florida County Club, Masonic Order and Jacksonville Civitan Club.

■ With his recent appointment to the Securities and Exchange Commission William O. Douglas, Sterling professor of law at Yale University, has now worked under two administrations. He conducted studies in bankruptcy while Herbert Hoover was in the White House. Born 37 years ago in Maine, Minn., his family later moved to Yakima, Wash., where he went to school, later entering Whitmann college in that state. In 1925 he was graduated from the Columbia University Law School and made such a fine record for himself there he was at once taken into a law firm and at the same time retained in the school to teach. His appointment to the Sterling chair came later and in 1934 he obtained a leave of absence from Yale to do some work for the Securities commission. He is a Democrat, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Beta Theta Pi and Phi Alpha Delta.

■ With the appointment of Marshall Diggs (Calhoun 13) as Chairman of the Committee for the National Convention in 1936, and Raymond N. Beebe (Marshall 15) Justice of the Washington Alumni the convention is an assured success. Both of these brothers are noted for their organization ability and enthusiasm. The Washington Convention should top all records.

He was born in Madisonville, Cincinnati, on January 30, 1896, the son of Guy Metcalfe and May (Dunlap) Freer. He attended Ohio State University 1913-1914 and then entered George Washington University where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He then went to the Cincinnati Law School and graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1917 and received the degree of Master of

During the World War he served with the 324th Machine Gun Battalion in France. He also was a Major in the Ohio National Guard and Officers Reserve Corps to 1925.

With the exception of the time that he served in the World War, he practised law in Cincinnati from 1917-25, being associated with the law firm of Maxwell & Ramsey until 1922. From 1922-23 he was a member of the law firm of Gusweiler, Fox, Freer, Lambert & Davies and practised individually after 1923. He is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of Ohio, the United States District Courts of Kentucky and Ohio, Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Hit of the Party Season

The Party Plan . . .

The Program . . .

The Favor . . .

THE PARTY PLAN . . . Make your next party the "Talk of the Campus" by following one of the many Balfour party schemes described in the new 24 page Party Plan Book. Decoration, program, and favor suggestions feature many clever and original ideas.

THE DANCE PROGRAM . . . Clever, gay programs carry out the party scheme. Special samples will be sent upon request.

THE DANCE FAVOR . . . Select your favors to enhance the party scheme. For a Jail Dance, we suggest a "Ball and Chain Bracelet," while the Pirate Party calls for a very glittering gold mesh bag. Write us for suggestions and a copy of the BALFOUR BLUE BOOK illustrating new and clever favors.
