Plan Now to Meet Post-war Demands

Secretary's Report Tells of Condition

As in World War I, a large number of our chapters have been forced to become inactive since, in most instances, the entire membership of the chapter has entered the armed services or has gone into essential war industry. Only a few chapters have been able to continue and most of them have been seriously affected. As you will see from this wartime emergency issue of THE REPORTER, your fraternity is still alive and functioning.

A few chapters have remained active and at the present time, two additional ones are being rehabilitated.

Following the last war, our fraternity experienced its greatest period of expansion and prosperity. It seems logical to assume that we can expect similar results at the end of this war.

Already, many of the deans with whom I have been in correspondence, are reporting increased enrollments and we hope that the time is not too far distant when we can start a vigorous rehabilitation program. This subject was given serious consideration at a meeting of the Supreme Executive Board held in Washington for that purpose last year.

In anticipation of our entrance into the war, your Supreme Executive Board deemed it wise to curtail activities and reduce expenditures. We have carried through this program without expending any money except that which was absolutely necessary and are pleased to announce that we have materially improved our cash position during the past three years. We will therefore have sufficient funds on hand to start an aggressive rehabilitation program.

Additional funds will of course be necessary to bring it to a successful conclusion. Suggestions as to the proper methods of raising money for this purpose are solicited, particularly from our alumni, individually or by chapters.

A special rehabilitation fund has been established and brothers desiring to contribute immediately do not need to await a drive for funds. Contributions, cash or war bonds, may be sent to the Supreme Secretary. They

11 Signal Corps Agencies Pay Honor To Supreme Justice J. Harry LaBrum

Eleven Signal Corps Agencies located in Philadelphia and vicinity joined hands in paying honor to Brother Supreme Justice Lieutenant Colonel J. Harry LaBrum and the Agency which he heads, the Philadelphia Field Office of the Legal Division, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, on the night of July 10, 1944, when they tendered a testimonial dinner to him and his associates at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia.

More than 250 officers and civilians attended the affair which marked the first anniversary of the office established under Colonel LaBrum's jurisdiction in July, 1943. The office has grown in size and distinction from that time, until now it is regarded as one of the foremost and active legal offices of the War Department.

Supreme Secretary Frank M. Ludwick and a party of friends attended the dinner as guests of Brother Cap-

Famous Dean Gives Pointers For Your Use

The Balfour Bulletin brings us the following interesting statement prepared by Dean A. R. Warnock at the request of the editor of the Sigma Rho Bulletin, official publication of the Illinois Chapter of BØII.

"A successful merchant looks ahead to see what customers' future wants will likely be, and then stocks up to meet their needs. Thus people say of his store: 'You can get it at Brown's.'"

"That's a realistic way of suggesting what your chapter could do in planning to meet the postwar customer demands, these customers being students, their parents and society in general. If it has a large number of customers to choose from, it can be in a position to select a preferred membership.

"Sigma Rho's prewar stock in trade admittedly enabled it to select from the best, and, in as far as possible, should be stocked again in the postwar resumption of activities. The following items, some of them new, seem to me to be in customers' minds, including Uncle Sam's, for postwar specifications of youth training in fraternities:

"1. Physical fitness, for peacetime living and, as an ace in the hole, for military preparedness. There is no good reason why pride in physical fitness of members should not become as much a chapter tradition as pride in social fitness, for instance. This does not mean football ruggedness and size. As a matter of fact, the average weight of young men in the armed forces is 165 pounds; half of them, therefore, are under that weight. It means simple, ordinary good health and vigor, plus intelligent attention to various organs and accessories of the body. It involves encouragement of physical exercise, proper diet, reasonable habits in living and sleeping, and periodical health examinations. All these are within the range of chapter controls.

"2. Purposeful study—that is, study consciously correlated with its later use, as when Air Corps trainees studied physics, mathematics, et cetera because they knew such knowledge would help them become pilots, nav-

PHI ALPHA DELTA

LAW FRATERNITY

Edited by FRANK M. LUDWICK, Supreme Secretary

This special war emergency issue of "The Reporter" is published at 2642 University Ave., St. Paul 4, Minnesota, by the Fraternity Press, official Fraternity Publisher to Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity.

A Message . . .

FROM THE SUPREME JUSTICE

DEAR BROTHERS:

It won't be long until our brothers in the Armed Forces will begin trooping home to take up again their peacetime pursuits where they left off when Pearl Harbor burst upon us with all its fury on Dec. 7, 1941.

Since that time you have witnessed a nation comparatively unprepared for war develop into the greatest production country of the world, while at the same time it trained and prepared the finest Army and Navy of fighting men this world has ever seen. After an uncertain start, we have roared into our full power and have far exceeded the fondest dreams of all our people. However, one should not forget that the war is not yet won. Production must go on. Battles must be fought, and the return to peacetime pursuits must be delayed until final and ultimate victory is ours and our allies', and every last vestige of any kind of "ism" is definitely stamped out of our civilization.

All professions have made sacrifices to this end, and all will continue to make them as long as necessary. However, the profession which has sacrificed most is that of the law, whose ranks have been decimated, while law schools to a great extent have become nonexistent. What is happening to the schools is apparent when one glances at the statistics. In 1938 law schools approved by the American Bar Association numbered 110 with a combined enrollment of 28,174 students. In 1941 the enrollment in these schools dropped to 18,449 and in the fall of 1942 further decreased to 7,887. In the fall of 1943 the number again decreased, with only 4,803 present at the opening of the term. Of those reporting in 1943, 1,049 were women. This indicates a decrease since 1938 of 83% in law school enrollment. Many of the approved schools have been closed and many others are eking out a bare existence by reducing expenses and practicing all kinds of economy. It is now believed that the bottom of enrollment has been reached, although no substantial improvement in this condition is expected until after demobilization. These figures are cited for the purpose of showing what a tremendous job of organization and rehabilitation faces your Supreme Officers before your Fraternity can again assume its rightful place in legal circles in this country.

Your Supreme Board recognizes its problem and has already made plans for its solution, but the success of the plans depends upon the wholehearted cooperation and assistance of every P.A.D. Naturally you query, "How can I help?" You can help by (1) joining with other P.A.D.'s in your vicinity in organizing an Alumni Chapter if none is in existence. If one is in existence, but has ceased its activities by reason of lassitude or the absence of many brothers in the Armed Services, you can help rehabilitate it so that it may be in a position to assist our returning brother in the many problems which he will face when he again takes up the practice of law; (2) if you are in the vicinity of a law school where one of our Chapters formerly flourished, you can, in company with other brothers, or alone, call on the dean of the law school and discuss with him the rehabilitation of the chapter. If no chapter existed at that school, you can plan for the establishment of the chapter and take such steps as may be necessary to have a charter granted to the proposed chapter when the law school opens and classes begin again. (3) You can contribute financially to the Supreme Chapter so that it may have sufficient funds to carry out a rehabilitation program for chapters and returning brothers alike.

Fortunately, your Supreme Chapter is in a better financial condition than that which marked its position after the last war. By rigid economy your Supreme Chapter has managed to carry on its activities and still maintains, and adds to, a nest egg which will provide the financial nucleus for a resurgence of Phi Alpha Delta which will demonstrate its leadership in law fraternity circles. Again, however, it must be borne in mind that your Supreme Chapter can supply but the beginning of the program. Without your help the program cannot be completed. I know we can depend on each of you to do your part and we on the Supreme Board would appreciate any suggestions which you might care to make in connection with the rehabilitation program or the operation of the Supreme Chapter.

Feel free to criticize and suggest. Remember it is your Fraternity and that the Supreme Board is your duly elected group dedicated to carrying out your policies. Letters may be addressed directly to me or to the Supreme Secretary, Frank M. Ludwick.

With the best to each and all of you and with the hope that I may hear from you very soon.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

J. HARRY LABRUM,
Supreme Justice.

Preceding the dinner, an informal reception was held in the Rose Room of the hotel for distinguished guests from Washington, and the heads of the various Signal Corps Agencies in the city. igators and bombardiers—study not alone for an instructor or dean, or for parents, or even for a chapter scholastic record, but also study for Uncle Sam's use. The chapter should continually keep before each member the query: "What are you getting your mind ready to do?"

"3. Practice of democracy and democratic skills in chapter business and chapterhouse living. Here is an ideal small-scale practicum for training in making democracy work; and there is going to be much popular insistence that American youth receive such training as a form of defense of our way of life.

"4. Training in self-discipline—this means training which will automatically create habits of discipline over one's self and one's capacities. Both military and industrial agencies will be putting on this pressure; it is a demand for an end to the sloppy, irresponsible, devil-may-care behavior common to many fraternity members, and other students, in prewar years. A well-regulated chapterhouse routine—exactingly barracks-like attention to conduct, manners, neatness in dress and in rooms, reliability, punctuality and honesty—can provide excellent training without taking all the fun out of life. In this respect a chapterhouse should be like the framework of a mold into which is poured wet concrete, not jelly or mush, so that later, when the mold is removed, the product will of itself keep the permanent form and characteristics of the mold. That is done by habit forming, day by day exercise.

"5. Citizenship information, particularly in the form of chapter discussion programs and guests' nights, in which current affairs are discussed and digested, much as football, movies and girls topics are ordinarily discussed and digested. Society is going to demand more of this at the youth level; sheer patriotism demands more of it at the fraternity man's level; before the war, fraternity members were often peculiarly ignorant of such matters.

"If these items can be added to the traditional personality and character training offered in the past by Sigma Rho so successfully, and to the idealism in the ritual, and the comfort and recreational privileges of Beta houses, and if the Sigma Rho chapter can get a reputation of this kind, then customers, students, parents and society will say: 'The Illinois Beta house is a good training place for a young citizen.' And that is all that needs to be said to bring prosperity to the house in the practical, realistic post-war years.

"I have not specially mentioned taking care of veterans; that job will have to be done. But for most veterans who likely would be chosen for Sigma Rho membership, this normal civilian training would perhaps be what the chapter could best offer. Specialist treatment will no doubt be provided elsewhere. After all, the main objective in handling veterans is to fit them again into normal peacetime living."

Chapters Report on Wartime Activity

Carry On In Spite of War Handicaps

Blackstone Chapter Active; Outlines Program

Blackstone Chapter, with a very small membership, spark-plugged by Past Justice Jerry J. Sereda, has come into action to start rebuilding the Chapter. An interesting program has been outlined for the school year, which includes a vigorous rushing program in which the alumni will assist. Anticipating at least partial demobilization, letters have been mailed to alumni and active members all over the world and many very interesting replies have been received. Plans are already under way for a huge homecoming reunion. Chapter members who have not heard from the Chapter direct should contact Brother Jerry J. Sereda, 5026 S. Hermitage Ave., Chicago.

Interesting Report

We have received the following interesting report from the Blackstone Chapter: "As far as news and activities the past year or two, we of Blackstone Chapter are undoubtedly in the same category as perhaps most other chapters, namely, we are and have been short-handed as far as active members are concerned. Brother Massa and the writer are the only ones now in Kent College from Phi Alpha Delta, with a none too bright immediate future as far as new members are concerned. However, Brothers Sereda and Nichols (both Past Justices of Blackstone) have been assisting us in keeping up an active chapter and hold meetings at regular intervals.

"Social activities of the Chapter, of course, are somewhat limited, but we have made it a practice of periodically gathering and dining out at different places and spending the evening together on a social basis—sometimes stag and other times, wives and lady friends present.

News of the Boys

"Brothers Sereda and Foster were admitted to the Illinois Bar in May. Brother Sereda is still in Chicago, but Brother Foster is now in charge of the Minneapolis-St. Paul district for Bituminous Casualty Insurance Co.—a nice promotion when he passed the Bar Examination. Brother Gorman (Past Justice) is now father of a baby boy born July 25. Mrs. Gorman and Robert Charles, Jr., are in Chicago, but Bob is in England or France, where he has been for several months and he has not seen his son as yet. Brother Leslie has been missing in action since last Easter, and to our knowledge nothing has been heard concerning him since then. We know of no others that may be casualties.

Our Military List

"Following is a list of some of our boys in the service: Cpl. Robert J. Kleitsh, A.S.N. 36326694 C.I.C. Det. Hq. 5th Inf., Div. A.P.O. 5, New York; Pvt. Edward K. Vincek, 36688179, Hq. Service Command Hq.

Sec. C. F. 80—2, A.P.O. 877, Miami, Fla.; Ens. Carl M. Jelinek, Jr., USNR, USS LST 659, c/o Fleet P.O. New York; Lt. Robert Gorman, 01581746, Eng. Spec. Hg. ETO, APO 887, c/o P.M. New York; Lt. Robert G. Fenzel, ATC, Batchelor Office Qtrs. APO 938; Lt. Robert Beart, 3560 Broadway, Kansas City, Mo.; Lt. Martin H. Brix, Sig. C. U.S. Army 0-1637084, 709 N. Ft. Harrison, Clearwater, Fla.; Pfc. A. R. Shapkins, 36373710, ASF Regional Hospital, 7th Service Command, Record Section, Camp Crowder, Mo.; Pvt. G. W. Schmidt, 16125743, 4th Platoon, 730th Sig. AW Co., Drew Field, Tampa, Fla.

"We feel safe in saying that we as a group are determined to keep our Chapter active to the best of our ability so that Blackstone Chapter will not even temporarily become a war casualty.—FLOYD B. HARMAN, Justice, William Blackstone Chapter.

Ford Chapter Holds Monthly Luncheon

The William Joseph Ford Chapter, Loyola University, held its monthly luncheon meeting at 12:15 P.M. at the University Club, Nov. 17. H. Eugene Breitenbach, Chief Enforcement Officer of OPA was guest speaker, taking as his topic Administrative Law with emphasis on OPA problems.

Chapter Doings

We are indebted to Father Donovan for the following account of the Doings of some of the Ford Chapter Brothers. . . . The P.A.D.'s who gave an added touch of quality to the Grand Avenue Institution are still performing with the same precision and finality as when they disposed of Blackacre and other parcels of real property according to the best Cook technique—of course this is no surprise to anybody, but just a case where the expected has been verified in fact. . . . BRAD MILLER who justified the boys through a good session made the record in a substantial way . . . it's there that those who run may read (23 Cal. (2d) 818) . . . here's the story in a nutshell. . . . Brad was doing his bit to get the facts in the OPA enforcement program . . . a Republican (?) operating a gas station overcharged him a quarter part of a dollar for tire inspection . . . duly incensed by this GOP strategy, he filed with the OPA . . . comes now the entanglement . . . who would hear Brad's cause . . . the Municipal Court threw it out. . . . PROFESSOR FORD, Chief Enforcement Officer, insisted with the same energy that he hit the exceptions to the hearsay rule in evidence that the Court assume jurisdiction . . . the net result of the controversy had all the appearance of a Loyola homecoming. . . . SAMUEL V. O. PRICHARD represented the Court of the sovereign State of California and BROTHER FORD the Federal Encroachment thereon . . . they argued before the big boys in Bank and we'll chalk up one for the government—retribution was shortly on the way when Brother Ford was appointed to the Municipal Court and in addition to his other worries will have to adjudicate such ceiling violations as the aforementioned. . . . FREDDIE FIELD, who did his part nobly as beer drinker deluxe and politician at large, is running true to form nor is he losing any weight in the process . . . a beaten path from Spring Street to Glendale gives him little time for deviation from duty . . . between defense work in the suburban area and solving labor problems for Gibson, Dunne, Crutcher & Field in favor of big business he got his forty hours a week in by Wednesday noon only to start all over again . . . on a sort of share the riches plan where "riches" is construed as labor JIM KELLY is now the latest acquisition of that distinguished firm . . . of course you remember Jim . . . did his college work at Stanford and amassed enough law work at Loyola to crack the bar . . . had a good sense of humor but kept it a military secret unless the occasion warranted its display . . . CHUCK GLASS, with the Merchant Marine, is not too taken up with the new life to catalog his law in the scrap pile . . . reports have it that several volumes have been checked out of Loyola by seagoing Chuck whose travels have carried safely, thus far, over the seven seas. . . . SWAN PIERSON, who has been going through the chairs of Pacific Employers' concurrently with his research in Workmen's Compensation and kindred topics in law school, is now in charge of the Seattle office recently opened there. . . . JIM MADDEN whose efficiency and enthusiasm account for much of the P.A.D.'s prestige in these parts hasn't slowed down a bit . . . he is presently attached to the largest law office west of Chicago and reliable sources have it that he is the "fact totum" of the plant . . . oh, yes, he is Staff Sergeant in the Judge Advocate General's Department of the Ninth Service Command . . . recently he stole away long enough from his desk to take unto himself a spouse. . . . PHILO HARVEY got so used to burning the candle at both ends during law school it has become a habit with him . . . a deluxe suite in Beverly Hills is the current locale for his operations as a tax consultant and advocate. . . . WARREN SLAUGHTER passed through this way some time ago . . . after a swivel chair job in Washington and measuring the length, breadth and depth of New York harbor he was on his way to join the staff of some Admiral or other in the Pacific. . . . JOHNNY McLAUGHLIN who made the Aggeler plaque is maintaining his record of superb achievement by contributing his efforts to the FBI. . . . THE KRISTOVICHS—MARIN and BALDO—are giving the advantage of their weight and experience to the USNR . . . maybe this accounts for the excellent performance of the Navy. . . . ENRIGO VERGA, you can't forget the only supporter Mussolini had prior to the present conflict—is apparently a prisoner in Germany . . . he is a First Looie and went up the hard way. . . . ARTHUR GUY, a yeoman while in law school, is now a Lieutenant (jg) in aviation . . . located in Santa Ana, he dropped in at School and didn't forget to ask about the P.A.D.'s . . . recalled with some satisfaction and no remorse that his first pay check in the Navy was liquidated at a renegotiations proceedings conducted by the P.A.D.'s in the southwest section of the city . . . the fall term started in Law School Sept. 25, with 64 enrolled including six females . . . some of the boys back from service are taking up where they left off . . . keep your interest in the School and all the appurtenances thereof.

Los Angeles Alumni News

JACK FORD, son of William J. Ford, after whom our William Joseph Ford Chapter was named, is now the Hon. J. J. Ford, Judge of the Municipal Court in and for the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California, by appointment of the Governor. After about six months of service, His Honor has gained quite a reputation. He knows the law and lawyers really have to prepare cases when they appear before him for he admits only proper evidence, and fortunately he knows what is proper. In fact the lawyers soon learned when they tried a case in his court that when he turned the fish eye on them, it was time to alter tactics.

MAYNARD GARRISON, an older P.A.D. from Loyola, is now the Insurance Commissioner for California.

FREDERICK FIELD is an eminent labor counselor with Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is fat and sassy but has acquired and developed a winning way with labor leaders. He is a pacifist first, and a lawyer second, but has been very successful. In fact the Union men now call him "Freddy."

JIM KEELY is also with that eminent firm, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and is doing considerable trial work.

TOM ATCHISON is a Major in the Air Corps. Spent about a year at Lowry Field, Denver. Tom was in Los Angeles about the middle of June and indicated that he was headed for overseas. Tom and his wife adopted a baby girl so that the Mrs. will have something to do while Tom is away.

FRANK GRAY adjusted for an insurance company up until the time he passed the Bar and then went into the office of Bruce Murchison. His insurance adjusting experience must have done him some good for the rumor is that he is accomplishing quite a bit in the law business.

CPL. MARK MULLIN, so rumor says, is located with the Army at Santa Ana.

FRANK HIRST is a stooge for Chester Bowles and works out of the local OPA office. Frank is still single and spends all of his spare time figuring the whys, hows and wherefores of gasoline rationing.

ENRICO VERGA is a Lieutenant in the Army and was last heard from in the Mediterranean area. His mother has received confirmation from the War Department of his status as a prisoner, the first week of August.

TOWSON McLAREN has been with the OPA about two years and has been promoted to Asst. Chief Ration Banking Attorney for the 8th Region Headquarters, San Francisco.

HAROLD THOMPSON is associated with a law firm that specializes in tax work, and is doing well.

JIM MOORE is an adjuster with the United Pacific Insurance Co., and his usual jovial attitude has degenerated into an unhealthy contempt for anyone who deigns to have an accident or suffer injuries.

CHARLIE WAY, the poor soul, is still trying to pass the Bar and has had two nervous breakdowns in the process. He still can't understand how Louie Mantalica slid through so easily on his briefs when he couldn't interpret them himself. Louie, incidentally, is a Lieutenant in the Navy in charge of a gun crew on a merchant ship.

BRAD MILLER performed for some time with the OPA, a "despised" agency of the Federal Government, but for the past year has been associated with his brother and Bud Vandergrift, the firm specializing in manpower and defense work contract problems. Brad has another heir, a boy, Jeffrey Bryan.

PAUL RAU, a "Fiddle-de-fee" was reported killed in action in the North African campaign.

JOHN LONG is a Lt. Colonel, Chief of Labor Branch, Third Defense Command, Baltimore, Maryland.

AL APABLASA is reported to be a Captain in the Army and has seen considerable action in Italy.

MAX GEWIRTZ operates a law practice in the left oven of his bake shop. He does well at both.

JOHN McLAUGHLIN is a sleuth with the FBI in Los Angeles.

REX DIBBLE is an Army Lieutenant.

JOE COADY is a Deputy District Attorney.

BURTON VAN TASSEL, WALTER HUNTLEY, BION VOGEL, FRED EDMONDS and JOHN ROBERTS have just finished taking their Bar Exams. We confidently expect five new attorney members when the results are announced.

"Gosh, and here I joined the Navy to get out of going to college."

Despite Everything Horace H. Lurton Chapter Is Active

The Horace H. Lurton Chapter, Law School, Louisville, Kentucky, in spite of having lost many members to the service and the drastic reduction in students, has continued to remain active.

Since February, 1943, the following Brothers have become members of the armed service: James Hubbs, Army; Robert Bensing, Army; Donald Armstrong, Army Air Corps; Harlan Heilman, Army; Burlin Pike, Army; Elmer C. Hume, Navy; Richard Ligan, Navy; Professor E. I. King of the faculty is now in the Navy.

Recent Brother graduates are: James Henry, Charles Allen, G. B. Johnson, J. Lee Friedman—the latter, by the way, has recently taken the State Bar exam and made the highest grade given on this examination.

The fraternity this past spring sponsored a barrister's ball to which all the student body was invited. In a beauty contest which created a great deal of interest on the campus a Miss Justice was selected. This event proved to be one of the highlights of the social activities on the campus. The fraternity has held a fraternity-faculty luncheon each semester and will continue this practice during the coming semester. All in all, while our group is small, we are holding our group together and are looking forward to the time when the school will return to normal.—JOHN R. PATE, Justice; J. R. RUBIN, Clerk.

Through the War with John Jay Chapter

On that most eventful Sunday afternoon of Dec. 7, 1941, and at the time of the first news flashes telling of Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor, the Brothers of John Jay Chapter, entirely conscious of the blackout enveloping the civilizations of the world, were meeting in their George Washington University Chapter Room to initiate three new men into the chapter. Yes, at the very time Brothers Barber, German, and Hudson were being taken into the bonds of Phi Alpha Delta, less than a stone's throw away President Roosevelt and his advisers were evaluating the conduct of another nation whose leaders and citizens were incapable of understanding justice and fraternity.

We are not attempting to suggest even the slightest relationship between the opening of hostilities and the John Jay meeting; however, they did coincide and, in doing so, dramatically pointed the difference in thoughts and actions that existed between the peoples of the two nations. The coincidence itself is unimportant, but what is important is that the coincidence was possible. So long as we have Phi Alpha Delta and other similar institutions dedicated to justice and fraternity, we will remain a people actually succeeding in carrying the torch of human equality. Phi Alpha Delta can only exist because we believe in its ideals, and so long as we have that belief we will have chapter meetings and provide opportunities for such coincidences to occur. Make what you want of the above, but such circumstances ushered in John Jay's wartime period.

Like every other school, George Washington's enrollment took a nose dive as we swung into wartime mobilization. It was indeed fortunate that our Washington location made it possible for a number of servicemen and technically trained civilians to carry on with their law at night after spending the day at their Army or Navy desk. It was this source that provided the school with new material and from which the fraternity was able to select new men. Thus, on May 31, 1942, Brothers Baumgardner, Graham, Hestor and Mallick were initiated. Even so, there were only seven actives about to launch the 1942 fall semester.

On Dec. 5, 1942, the Chapter, mostly through the efforts of Brother Justice Osann, was able to initiate Brothers English, Haley, Heiner, Lindell, McKinnon, McLean, Price and Roberts. The five remaining actives, with Brother Ludwick adding his weight to the occasion, had their hands full in attending to the initiation ceremonies. However, it was quite successful and to this day the eight initiates maintain there were more than six of us who initiated them. The initiation banquet was at the University Club with Brother Atchison (ICC Chairman) being the principal guest. The highlight of the evening was a song-fest led by our venerable and versatile Brother Spaulding at the piano.

On April 6, 1943, the membership of the entire chapter added its dubious presence to the Phi Alpha Delta testimonial dinner to Brother Rutledge in honor of his appointment to the U. S. Supreme Court. The affair was very much to our liking with the possible exception of the Statler's $5 a plate dinner. The following month, on May 15, we initiated Brother Christenson, Himba and Kimpel. The initiation banquet was at Highland Cafe where Brother Bo Turner and his fellow Arkansas Travelers, Brooks Hays and Frank Yates, serenaded us far into the night as they reminisced about their experiences with John Jay chapter of 25 years ago. Compared to their show, the stage play "Oklahoma" might possibly rate a Class D production. Honest, fellow, you should have been there—it was a banquet par excellence.

Going into our third year of the war, we were down to nine actives and on Dec. 4, 1943, initiated Brothers Bacon, Hall and Leonard. This time we adjourned to Henderson's Castle for the festivities, where our principal guests were Brothers Rutledge, Costello (California Congressman) and Freer (FTC Chairman). We particularly remember the occasion because of the tribute paid Brother Ludwick by Justice Rutledge as he confessed his secret admiration of Ludwick's 30 years of fraternal associations.

In January of this year, we descended to having a joint banquet with the Phi Delta Phi men of George Washington. The affair is best summed up in Brother Shepherd's after-dinner comments wherein he expressed his delight and satisfaction on seeing such friendliness and fellowship between the men of the two fraternities. Needless to say, Dean Van Vleck (George Washington Law School Prexy) was quite pleased with the occasion and urged us to establish it as a yearly hatchet-bearing tradition.

We closed last spring's semester with a bang, as on April 22, led by Brother Justice Roberts, we initiated Brothers Bowman, Darling, Forrester, Gass, Guiney, Hibben, Irish, Mansbridge, Martin and Wilson. Of these, four are in service stationed in Washington and three are returning servicemen. Again the banquet was at Henderson's Castle, the time-proven formula for successful banquets.

Two activities, unmentioned so far, deserve special notice: (1) we have continued uninterrupted our semester custom of having a rush party at Professor Spaulding's home where we combine a smoker and guest speaker and Spaulding supplies refreshments, music, oratory and collector items for a really truly fraternal evening; (2) the other activity, a recent wartime innovation, has been the mainstay of our continuous activity during this wartime period. We have established a most stimulating and fraternal custom of a monthly gathering at the Roger Smith (local ale house with a masculine atmosphere) for a round-table bull session. Here we have thrashed out the latest Supreme Court decision, engaged in heated legal and political discussions, blasted away at our beloved faculty, delighted in the latest "moron" joke and sipped our favorite beverages.

Summing up the activities of the three wartime years, we have initiated 32 men, have fostered and promoted the standards and ideals of Phi Alpha Delta, have had most pleasant associations with each other and, what is of more lasting importance, we have had pleasure, satisfaction and emotional stimulation of working for and benefiting from John Jay chapter of Phi Alpha Delta.

Thus with Brother Haley as Justice, we face the new semester with 16 actives, $30 in our treasury and high hopes for a banner year.

PAD Alumni Are On Active List Also

"Chicago Alumni Group Is Very Much Alive"

The officers of the Chicago Alumni Chapter are: Justice—Capelle H. Damrell, 64 E. Lake St.; Clerk, Barratt O'Hara, Jr., 1650 Moody Ave.; Treasurer, James A. Dooley, 175 W. Jackson Blvd.

In a recent letter from Brother George E. Fink, he includes the following comments regarding the Chicago Alumni Chapter: "The Justice and Clerk are very active and enthusiastic. We had an exceptionally fine summer outing. The officers and members turn out well for funerals (which is some evidence of continued loyalty). Dues are paid and there are several hundred dollars in the treasury and no unpaid obligations. Right now the chapter is getting ready to tender a buffet smoker to the visiting brothers attending the American Bar Association Meeting next month. Quarters have already been engaged, signs are being painted and plans perfected for a notice to every P.A.D. attending the Association meeting. This will probably take the form of a red carnation enclosed in a small paper box left at the door of each member when the number of his hotel room is learned. I merely mention this to show how thoroughly the boys go into things and that the chapter is much alive. The attendance at the P.A.D. table in the dining room of the Chicago Bar Association is excellent, frequently 12 or 15."

Kansas City Alumni Plans Rehabilitation

The Kansas City Alumni Chapter, on behalf of the Benton Chapter at the Law School of the University of Kansas City, staged a rushing dinner at the Shrine Club in the Hotel Continental, Sept. 27, 1944, entertaining as their guests all law students at the Law School. Brother Kenneth Mendenhall chairmanned the committee. The Chapter is showing great activity and is laying plans for assisting in the rehabilitation of Chapters in their vicinity.

Brother Carll V. Kretsinger, Wal-tower Building, Kansas City, is Justice of the Chapter and Brother Gerald L. Gore, 2800 Wyandotte Street, Kansas City, is Clerk.

Justice Kretsinger reports as follows: "Our Fraternity held its party on Dec. 2 and it was very successful and well attended. We all regretted exceedingly that you were unable to be present. However, I want to express my thanks for your cooperation in stirring up interest."

"I received letters from quite a number of the older members of the fraternity, to-wit: John D. Carmody, Coral Gables, Florida, August A. Rendigs, Cincinnati, Sidney B. Meyer, Chicago, George Everett Fink, Chicago, John J. Nangle, St. Louis, and Congressman Jasper C. Bell, Washington. I read your telegram and these letters at the meeting and they were all well received."

Denver Alumni Chapter Resumes Meetings

John L. Griffith and Lansford F. Butler, Justice and Clerk, respectively, of the Denver Alumni Chapter, advise that meetings of their Chapter are being resumed and plans are being made for the rehabilitation of the Hughes and Gunter Chapter. John's brother, James, is a Captain in the Army at the 1st C.A. Regt., A.P.O. 658 c/o P.M., New York.

Joe E. Brown Speaks to Los Angeles Alumni

We received the following interesting letter from A. A. McDowell, perennial Secretary of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter:

"Dear Frank: "Was glad to hear from you today—thinking of you the other day. Charlie Fulcher, Jim Mitchell and I were co-hosts to a bunch of old-timers out at Jim's house the other night. I sent out postcards to 40, and imagine—30 showed up. We had a nice evening, some old motion pictures—beer—craps—and—poker: a swell evening. It gave us an idea of going over the list picking out those who have been in P.A.D. for over 25 or 30 years and having get-togethers often. We missed you. Around the first of the year we made up a list of those Los Angeles Alumni members in service—about 62—and it, of course, was incomplete. I will try to bring it up to date and forward it to you if you request it. The alumni chapter in '43 had only two meetings due to food and transportation difficulties. At the November meeting we had a big turnout. Had as guest speaker a young pilot who told of his eight months stranded on New Guinea, and what a Hell-of-a-time he had. At our April meeting we had Joe E. Brown who gave interesting dope on his experiences in entertaining troops all over the globe. At that meeting we elected officers for this year—Joe MacFarland, Justice; Henry Rohr, 1st Vice-Justice; Ed Neuhoft, 2nd Vice-Justice; Bob Vandergrift, 3rd Vice-Justice; Frank Gray, Treasurer; and A. A. McDowell, Secretary.

"Yours,
(Signed) A. A. McDOWELL.

Washington Alumni Chapter Completes Plans

On Oct. 5, 1944, the officers of the Washington Alumni Chapter held a luncheon at the Madrilion Restaurant and decided upon plans for the coming season. There were present Joseph A. Carey, Major William E. Reese, J. Edgar Snider, Frank W. Glenn and Wilbur C. Pickett. It was decided to have a luncheon at the Madrilion Restaurant every Thursday at 12:30 P.M., and to hold a dinner meeting of the Chapter on Nov. 9, two days after election.

Letters received from Supreme Justice J. Harry LaBrum and Supreme Secretary Frank M. Ludwick and the reply of Joseph A. Carey, Justice of the Washington Alumni Chapter, were submitted.

The following attended the luncheon held at the Madrilion, Oct. 12: Joseph A. Carey, Justice (Private Practice-Corp.); William E. Reese, 1st Vice-Justice (Maj. (AUS) U. S. Army); J. Captain Richard Ryan, Ross Chapter, Killed on Saipan

Capt. Richard Frederick Ryan, 105th Infantry, Southern California Law graduate of '39, was killed in action in the Battle of Saipan, July 12, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Ryan, 1334 North Harper Ave., Los Angeles. Captain Ryan was born Sept. 4, 1915, at Claremont, Calif., graduated from Los Angeles High in 1933 and attended UCLA where he was a ΦΓΔ for three years before coming to Troy for his law studies. At Southern California he was Justice of the Ross Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, and following graduation was a practicing attorney in Los Angeles and an active member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Because of Army ROTC training at UCLA, he went into service as a first lieutenant upon enlistment in April of '41. First assigned to Camp Roberts, Calif., he was sent to Ft. Benning, Ga., in the summer of 1942 for officer training in preparation for overseas. He was made a Captain at Benning and in December of that year, after temporary duty again at Camp Roberts, left for Honolulu where he was attached to the 27th, took part in the training for invasion. He himself became a part of that plan, going forward as one of the leaders until cut down in the performance of duty.

Tom McGrath In Navy

Lt. (jg) Thomas Francis McGrath, USNR, 1175 So. Sierra Bonita Ave., Los Angeles, has completed his training and has reported to the U. S. Naval Armed Guard Center in New Orleans, for assignment to duty as commander of a Navy gun crew on a merchant ship, according to information received. The Armed Guard officer will be charged with the defense of the vessel in case of enemy attack. Tom was an attorney for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., prior to entering the Navy, Oct. 15, 1943. He was graduated from Loyola University in 1936 and is a member of the Ford Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. While a student at Loyola he starred on the football team. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGrath of 1626 Wellington Rd., Los Angeles. His wife, Emma, and their three children, reside at their home on Sierra Bonita Avenue, Los Angeles.

Captain Isreal at Overseas Replacement Depot

Capt. William G. Isreal, Dunbar Chapter, is now stationed at the AAF Overseas Replacement Depot at Kearns, Utah, it has been announced by Colonel Weldon W. Doe, Commanding Officer. Captain Isreal, a graduate of the University of Washington, Class of 1940, entered the service in May, 1942, and received his commission December, 1942.

The John Jay Chapter Visits Farmer Ludwick

Yes, our versatile Brother Ludwick treated us to a harvesting special, as he played host to eight men of John Jay Chapter on his Maryland retreat.

Sunday, Oct. 8, broke beautifully, and Brothers Spaulding, Bacon, Barber, Bowman, Irish, Hibben, Mallyck and Pledge Champlin were quite happy as they left Washington officialdom and took to the back country roads of Maryland. The 15-mile drive was pleasant in itself, for it has been many a month since any of us had been for a spin in the country—and with the foliage just taking on its autumnal grandeur it was all the better.

We finally located our objective, thanks to the efforts of Navigator Irish, who plotted an errorless course through the Maryland cornfields and marshes after our copilot Hibben had become a casualty from forkitus. As we pulled into the drive of the browned shingled house, third on the right from the Sandy Spring turnoff, we had a collective intent of being trespassers, but the sight of Brother Ludwick lumbering toward us restituted our feeling of brotherly love for all mankind.

From then on it was every man for himself to indulge in his own version of Sunday relaxing on a farm. Most of us took the 2 o'clock tour of the Ludwick estate and its constituent fine-feathered friends of ducks, geese, mallards, chickens, capons, guineas, turkeys and what not. The best was Orson, the gobbler, a mere stripling of 30 pounds—half of that in his tail. Orson does a neat turkey strut, but only if his master Frank is the dancing partner. The dog kennels were monopolized by the big-eared cousin of the canine family—hunting hounds and black cocker spaniels. Needless to say, we suggested to Frank that a cocker spaniel would fill our Christmas stocking rather snugly. We next visited the stable where the spotlight focused on the two riding horses, Copper, a thoroughbred and former racing horse and not yet housebroken, and Margo, a settled mare of mild temper. Ludwick asked for riders and Heigh-Ho Hibben took up the challenge and galloped away astride Margo. From then on Margo was a busy gal as everyone took a turn at riding her—that is, everyone but Ike Irish. Ike tried his hand at jumping—with the net result of Margo neatly tossing Irish to the turf. No damages except wounded pride.

In the meantime, a spirited softball game had developed with Babe Bacon belting them all over the lot. No official score was ever announced, but we have a hunch that there was a conspiracy to suppress the strikeouts and errors involved.

By this time our agile athletes were panting heavily and host Ludwick came to their rescue by announcing chow. Hamburgers, supergiant size, cooked over an outdoor grill, spiced with wagon-wheel-sized onions, with hot chilli con carne and coleslaw as team-mates, surely added up an outdoor supper par excellence. After two servings each, we all thought that we were ready to burst, but when Frank brought on fresh-baked apple pies and cheese, we polished that off too.

MAJOR C. E. STEVENS of the 25th Marines, 4th Division. Clark is a member of a PAD family. His father, Justice Albert Lee Stevens and his brother, Albert Lee, Jr., as well as he, are members of Ross Chapter.

The reactions to such a swell feast were unique. Irish went to sleep on the spot; Pledge Champlin took to "shelking" walnuts and before he was through he had revolutionized the "shelking" art; Professor Spaulding found a maiden fair and heeded the teaching of Omar Khayyam; Hibben went bouncing away on Margo; and the others lost themselves while Bacon and Ludwick cleaned up.

Twilight found us all sitting on the porch steps watching the setting sun, re-electing Roosevelt, and planning a superspecial Statler banquet.

Secretary's Report

will be more than welcome and will be placed in the special fund for that purpose.

Just prior to the entrance of the United States into this war, plans had been made to publish a new fraternity directory. Obviously, publication of the directory became impractical and probably will be for some time to come. It is important, however, that our membership roster be kept up to date and members are urged to report to the Supreme Secretary any changes in address.

We are most anxious to prepare a service roster of our members who are in the armed services or engaged in war work. Your attention is directed to the request for this information appearing elsewhere in this issue and all brothers are urged to cooperate and forward information immediately. This war record will be printed in subsequent issues of our official magazine.

We would like to receive as many communications as possible giving us the benefit of your ideas and suggestions on a rehabilitation program for we want to be in a position to strike hard and fast in order that our fraternity may retain the commanding position in our field without delay at the time when such a program seems propitious.

With many of our national officers in the armed service and government, the administration of fraternity affairs has been and will continue to be a difficult one.

Being deprived of organized assistance ordinarily furnished by our collegiate chapters, we must perforce turn to you as individuals to help in carrying on our traditions and important activities.

You are urged to write to your Supreme Secretary. I cannot promise to answer all of your communications, but I assure you that I will do the best I can with the limited facilities available. By sending in news, suggestions and information, you will have made a definite contribution to Phi Alpha Delta.

Fraternally yours,

FRANK M. LUDWICK,
Supreme Secretary.

Jerry J. Sereda Admitted to Illinois State Bar

A 13-year grind to get an education while earning a living was completed recently by Jerry J. Sereda, 5026 South Hermitage Ave., Chicago, when he was admitted to the Illinois state bar. He was a grammar school graduate when he went to work as an office boy on his 14th birthday, March 29, 1917. During the time he was working for his law degree, he was employed as a department supervisor by the Linde Air Products Co. He has been with the company 26 years.

Several years after leaving school he became friendly with two medical students and an attorney. Sereda saw the advantage of education and at 27 decided to become an attorney. He enrolled in the Englewood evening school and for 13 years spent his Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings in class. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday he studied at home. When he was graduated from evening high school he was second in a class of 109 and was awarded a half year scholarship to the Central YMCA College. After three and one-half years at the YMCA College, he entered the Chicago Kent College of Law from which he received an LL.B. degree.

While in law college he took an examination to join the Army, but was rejected because of a perforated ear drum. As a member of the Blackstone Chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, he held the office of Justice for three years. He recently refused the office for the fourth year. Now that he has his degree, he is using most of his free time to help speed recovery of patients at the Wesley Memorial Hospital where he is a member of the men's volunteer corps.

Rear Admiral Young, Navy Paymaster

A former practicing attorney became Paymaster General of the United States Navy when Rear Adm. William Brent Young (SC), USN, (Taft Chapter), was sworn in by Rear Adm. W. B. Woodson, USN, Judge Advocate General of the Navy on 1 June, 1942. This was the fourth time in 20 years that a Navy officer has been promoted from the rank of Commander to that of Rear Admiral. He relieved Rear Adm. Ray Spear (SC), USN, who automatically passes to the retired list upon attaining the age of 64 years next September.

Rear Admiral Young was born in Washington, D. C., 18 June 1888. He was educated in the District of Columbia schools and at Georgetown University where he received his law degree with the Class of 1915. Admitted to the bar, he practiced until June, 1917, when he entered the Navy as a member of the Pay Corps Reserve. He makes his home at 105 Hesketh Street, Chevy Chase, Md.

As Paymaster General and Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Rear Admiral Young will be responsible for the procurement, purchase, receipt, custody, warehousing, issue and shipment of supplies, fuel and other materials of the Navy. Then in addition, his duties as head of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts require that he have charge of the procurement and disbursements of funds for both Naval and civil payrolls as well as the payment for all articles and services procured for the Navy. He is also charged with keeping the money and property accounts for the Naval Establishment, including accounts of all manufacturing and operating expenses at Navy yards and stations, the direction of Naval cost accounting, and the audit of property returns from ships and stations.

Study Cornell Fraternity Conditions

"The Interfraternity Council at Cornell, before disbanding for the duration, appointed a committee with power to provide for a study of fraternity conditions at Cornell and the relations between the fraternities and the University administration. This action climaxed considerable agitation among the undergraduates because of generally unsatisfactory conditions. President Day of the University has expressed himself strongly regarding the need of drastic reforms."—Delta Tau Delta Rainbow.

War Prisoner

Gentlemen:

On looking thru a recent copy of your publication I noted that you would be glad to receive information on various of your members now in the Armed Services. My husband was a member of the Temple Chapter—Hastings College of the Law—and has had an interesting career in the Army that I thought you would be interested in. He enlisted Dec. 8—right out of his law school classes—he was in his last semester—just before entering his third year. He went over in January or February of 1943 as a Technical-Sergeant and was based in England for five or six months—then in the Middle East and back to England. While in the Middle East he participated in the Ploesti Oil Field Raid and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. He had been awarded the Air Medal previously—and since the Ploesti decoration received two oak leaf clusters to the Air Medal. He then returned to Africa and went down in one of the raids in September. I soon had notification that he was a Prisoner of War in Germany—and as yet have had no communication from him. It is his intention to return to Hastings when the war is over. I am also enclosing a snapshot—taken just before he left the country—which you may be able to use.

Fraternity Magazines Paid Nice Tribute

"The most universally used point of contact between fraternities and their members in service is the fraternity magazine" according to the NIC committee appointed to consider opportunities for improving fraternity relations with men in the armed forces. "Most fraternities are sending their publication to the men in camps or overseas, whether or not they are subscribers, according to the report, and without exception the arrival of the magazine is eagerly welcomed. The committee found that almost 100 per cent of the fraternities consider the maintenance of their magazines essential."

Past Supreme Justice Waldemar Carl Wehe Passes On

With deep regret we announce the death of Past Supreme Justice Waldemar Carl Wehe, a member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity since 1903, as a result of a goiter operation which was found to be cancerous.

We are indebted to Past Supreme Justice George E. Fink for the following account: Brother Wehe was born in Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 4, 1880. He was educated in the Milwaukee public schools, Columbia University, and University of Wisconsin, from which last institution he received his LL.B. degree in 1902. He entered the Fraternity through Ryan Chapter at the University of Wisconsin, and became Chief Justice of the Fraternity in 1904. As Chief Justice, he signed the Charter from the national organization establishing the Chicago Alumni Association, Dec. 10, 1904, being the first of such charters to be granted in the fraternity. This later became the Chicago Alumni Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, by charter granted by the national organization in 1911, and chartered the same year by the State of Illinois. Brother Wehe also, during his term of office as Chief Justice, headed the team which installed Campbell Chapter in the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1905. Waldemar Carl Wehe was at one time a member of the Milwaukee Common Council; from 1912-1916 he was alderman for Milwaukee's 22nd Ward; in 1923 he was elected to the Milwaukee School Board and re-elected in 1929, being president of the Board during the years 1926, 1927 and 1933. In 1934 he was a Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin. He was a leader in Lutheran organizations and a member of the Church of the Reformation. He was instrumental in organizing the Lutheran Laymen's Brotherhood, and served for six years as its president. He aided in the establishment of St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee, and it was due to his efforts and leadership that the Hospital Association was formed, and the entire hospital was reorganized. He served as a member of its Board from the beginning, and was also its president for many years. He was in this hospital for four weeks immediately preceding his death. Funeral services were held at the Krause Funeral Home in Milwaukee, and he was interred at Forest Home Cemetery. Brothers Irwin A. Zentner and Ralph M. Hoyt represented the Fraternity at the funeral. Brother Wehe was one of the most beloved members of the Fraternity, frequently entertaining its Milwaukee and Chicago members at his country home as well as at his city home in Milwaukee. He was untiring in his efforts in the assistance to the younger members of the Fraternity, and his interest in the organization never ceased. Brother Wehe was known and admired both in private practice and in public life, for those characteristics which made him a courageous, honest public servant, a brilliant lawyer, and a man whose sincerely warm interest in ordinary human affairs made association with him a privilege and a pleasure.

"Not how did he die, but how did he live;
Not what did he gain, but what did he give;
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not what was his station, but, had he a heart,
And how did he play his God-given part;
Was he ever ready, with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what was his church, or what was his creed,
But, had he befriended those really in need;
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?"

Grace for Wartime

(A) (Almighty God) Our Father, in these days of strife, of evil doings of man to man, we thank Thee for the privilege of brotherhood.

(B) We thank Thee that we belong to a group of men bound together in fraternal good will.

(C) We thank Thee for the ideals of our Fraternity and for the opportunity and the inspiration they give us to serve, to protect, and to be kind one to another.

(D) Make each one of us worthy of our ideas and courageous in their fulfillment.

(E) Bless this food, the provision of Thy bounty, to our use, and us in Thy Service. Amen.

Sentence A and E may be used for a short yet complete grace, of A with any one or more of B, C or D may be used, or the whole may be used. The first two words (Almighty God) in sentence A may be used or omitted.
