SEVENTH DISTRICT CONVENTION HELD AT LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

The 7th District of Phi Alpha Delta composed of five mid-western states, held its annual convention at Lincoln, Nebraska, on October 23, 1948. Reese Chapter of the University of Nebraska and the Lincoln Alumni Chapter hosted the delegates from the 12 active and alumni chapters in this area.

Also attending and taking part in the convention were Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds of the California Supreme Court; E. A. (Bert) Taylor, Supreme Vice-Justice of Kansas City, Missouri; Frank E. Gray, Executive Secretary of Los Angeles, California; and the 12 District Justices representing the district organization of Phi Alpha Delta covering the entire United States.

One of the high points of the annual Seventh District Conclave was the noon luncheon held for all the delegates and honored guests at the University of Nebraska and sponsored by the Nebraska Alumni Chapter. Shown from left to right: Frederick K. Beutel, Dean of University of Nebraska Law School; Brother Bayard Paine, Justice of Nebraska Supreme Court; Honorable Val Peterson, Governor of State of Nebraska; Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds; Honorable Robert Simmons, Chief Justice of Nebraska Supreme Court; and Jay Kyle, District Justice.

The high points of the convention were a noon luncheon at the Students Union Building and the Saturday evening banquet at which Justice Edmonds and Brother Charles L. Carr of Kansas City were the principal speakers.

Registration of the more than 75 delegates representing the active chapters of the Universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Nebraska and the law colleges of Drake, Washburn and Kansas City Law School, got under way at 9:00 A.M. A business session with Jay Kyle, District Justice of District 7 and Royce Harper, Justice of Reese Chapter, presiding, consumed the rest of the morning. At this open forum the chapters exchanged ideas on the following topics: Alumni Responsibilities and Chapter Financing; Rushing Techniques; Chapter Housing Plans; and Social Activities.

The feature of the luncheon given by the Nebraska Alumni Chapter, at the Student Union, was the introduction of distinguished guests by B. Frank Watson, Justice of the Lincoln Alumni Chapter. Among those introduced were the Governor of Nebraska, Val Peterson, Chief Justice Ribert Simmons and Brother Justice Bayard Paine, of the Nebraska Supreme Court and

Plebiscite Ballots Being Mailed To Membership

In accordance with the mandate given to the Supreme Executive Offices by the 27th bi-ennial convention in Los Angeles a mail vote on the entire membership of the fraternity, both active and alumni is being conducted by the Executive Office.

The vote is to determine whether the words "male and Caucasian" should be stricken wherever they appear as qualifying factors for membership in the fraternity, and arguments are submitted for and against the amendment. The committee in favor of striking the qualifying factors is composed of an alumnus and an active, the alumnus being George Quilici of the Chicago Municipal Court and the active, Melvin H. Swift, Holmes Chapter, Stanford University. The committee opposing the changing of the Constitution is composed of Arnold Wymore, Justice of the Kansas City Alumni Chapter, and Alfred Delfoe, active from Rapallo Chapter, New York University.

The ballot is to be returned to a firm of certified public accountants who will count and audit all votes, provided the postmark on the envelope returning the ballot is prior to January 31, 1949. All members in good standing with the fraternity should receive this material on or before the 15th of January.

Certain information is requested by the Executive Office on the return of these ballots so that proper identification can be contained in the next issue of the Directory which will be prepared and disseminated in the early part of 1949.

Heart Attack Fatal To Garbe, Executive Of United Pacific

Frank A. Garbe, 44, assistant vice-president of the United Pacific, died on November 7 at his home in Seattle.

A native of Chehalis, Bro. Garbe attended public schools there and entered the University of Washington, being graduated from the law school in 1930.

For five years he was associated with the Seattle law firm of Grinstead, Laube and Laughlin, specializing in surety law, and from 1935 to 1937 was associated with Ward Kumm in the law firm of Kumm and Garbe.

Mr. Garbe was elected assistant secretary of the United Pacific in March, 1944. In April, 1945, he was assigned to home office duties in the fidelity and surety department and finally on April 26, 1948, was elected assistant vice-president, the position he held at the time of his death.

Surviving are his widow, Geneva, a son, Robert John, and a daughter, Mary Louise; four brothers and a sister.

Reese Chapter Stages Model Initiation

The five pledges of Reese Chapter had every right in the world to be more weak kneed than the average pledge at his initiation ceremonies. Looking on was the Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds.

The model ceremony was part of the Program of the annual seventh district convention held in Lincoln, Nebraska, October 23.

Those initiated were Robert H. Hesse, Hartington; Rudy H. Bock, Lincoln; Joseph J. McAneny, Johnstown, Pa.; Gordon R. Danielson, Kearney, and Robert P. Moran, David City.

Los Angeles Alumni Entertain California Supreme Court

At a dinner meeting held at the Jonathan Club on October 6, 1948 the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter was host to the California Supreme Court. At this dinner meeting all members of the Supreme Court were present with the exception of the Chief Justice who was ill.

An innovation in dinner banquets was used by the Los Angeles group in that there was an absence of any speaker's table. The room was set up so that there were ten individual tables, six of which were presided over by a member of the Supreme Court. Harvey Lindstrom, Justice of the Los Angeles Alumni group, headed one of the tables and the others were presided over by Brothers Albert Lee, Stephens, United States Circuit Court of Appeals; Brother Emmett Wilson, California Appellate Court, and Brother Eugene Biscailuz, Sheriff of Los Angeles County. Each Justice of the Supreme Court had a Superior or Municipal Judge who acted as his host and introduced his guests when called upon by Justice Lindstrom. There were no speeches other than a word of greeting from Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds who is a member of the California Supreme Court.

There were 150 Brothers in attendance at this meeting and a good time was had by all. Justice Shenk of the California Supreme Court, in the absence of the Chief Justice, made a response for the Court and thanked Phi Alpha Delta for the opportunity of attending a banquet which was so novel in approach.

Past Justice Robert Vandergrift of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter was presented a plaque for his invaluable service during the past year.

Each table was adorned with a centerpiece of gladiolus and the honored guests were presented with red carnations, the official flower of the fraternity. The Los Angeles Alumni group had extended an invitation to Ross Chapter and Ford Chapter to be in attendance, but due to the limited seating capacity, each chapter was limited to ten members. The members of the active chapters were guests of the Los Angeles Alumni group.

It was a splendid opportunity for actives and practicing alumni to become better acquainted with members of the Supreme Court with whom they very seldom come in contact with other than in writing of briefs. After the banquet was over it was noted that all of the Justices circulated around and renewed old acquaintances and made new ones. It was unquestionably one of the finest programs of its kind held for the Supreme Court by any organization.

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPREME JUSTICE

Phi Alpha Delta continues to build on strong foundations. Since the last issue of the "Reporter," Henry Chapter, at the University of Richmond, has been installed and steps are under way for the reactivation of Champ Clark Chapter at Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri, and Field Chapter at the University of California.

In November, I had the privilege of visiting Harlan Chapter at the University of Oklahoma. A fine group of men under the leadership of Justice James Armstrong are carrying on the tradition of Phi Alpha Delta. The chapter has the strong support and approval of Dean W. Page Ketton and at a luncheon meeting where I had the opportunity of meeting our members, several of the faculty were present.

Considering that Harlan Chapter was reactivated two years ago, it is showing steady growth. I learned that several members who graduated in 1948 found places in practice with Phi Alpha Deltas.

Another visitation which gave me great satisfaction was a day with Campbell Chapter at the University of Michigan. This is one of our largest chapters and Justice Earl Riley and the other officers were most gracious hosts. The Law Quadrangle at Michigan provides living quarters of great beauty as well as utility and the opportunity for law students to live and work together under most congenial conditions.

Our luncheon at the Student Union Building was honored by the presence of Dean Emeritus Bates who holds a high place in the affection and esteem of the legal profession as well as of Michigan students. Four other members of the faculty were also present.

At a dinner given by the Phi Alpha Deltas who live in the Law Club, Professor Ralph Aigler and his wife were honored guests. Miss Mildred Bailey, the dining room Manager, made the beautiful private dining room available for this function.

The St. Louis Alumni Chapter, under the leadership of Justice Hugh S. Wilson, is working on plans for the entertainment of Phi Alpha Deltas at the convention of the American Bar Association which will be held there next September. We will have headquarters in the Statler Hotel and we hope that every member of the fraternity will attend the luncheon which will be sponsored by the Alumni of St. Louis.

The Chicago Alumni are working with the active chapters in that area and a joint initiation, with a dinner afterwards, will bring a large group together.

In many other places throughout the country, Phi Alpha Delta alumni are giving our active chapters strong encouragement and support in one way or another. It is a great organization and it will be a better and more effective one as we all strive together to further its fine purposes. The New Year is bright with promise for our fraternity.

A happy New Year, I am confident, lies ahead for all of us and before it ends I hope to be able to visit many more of our chapters.

Be a good scout, drive safely.

District Justices Honored at Banquet

Nebraska Alumni Entertains District Justices

The Lincoln Alumni Association, headed by B. Frank Watson, Justice and Frank Landis, Secretary worked diligently to conduct the program of entertaining the District Justices at their meeting in Lincoln, Nebraska. Thirty-one alumni each contributed to a fund which swelled to the sum of $310. This fund was used to entertain the visiting District Justices at a banquet and luncheon.

The Nebraska alumni throughout the State contributed to this fund. Beside their activity for this one meeting, the Nebraska alumni conduct an annual luncheon at the State Bar Association meeting.

"Hap" LaBrum Introduces Governor

Brother J. Harry "Hap" LaBrum, Past Supreme Justice, in his capacity as a Reserve Colonel, introduced the Governor of Pennsylvania, Governor Duff, at the Reserve Officers' Association banquet held in Philadelphia on November 13. At this banquet, Senator Vandenberg was awarded the Reserve Officers' Association plaque for distinguished service for peace by Governor Duff.

Brother Langlie Elected Governor Of Washington

Arthur Langlie, Dunbar Chapter, University of Washington, was elected Governor of the State of Washington, in the November 2, 1948 election.

Brother Langlie attended public school in Bremerton, Washington, and later enrolled in the University of Washington. He graduated from the University of Washington Law School in June, 1926 where he was a member of Dunbar Chapter and very active in the fraternal affairs. After nine years of private law practice, he began his career in public service first as a Seattle city councilman, then as Mayor of Seattle, and finally as Governor of the State of Washington.

After terminating his service for one term as Governor, Brother Langlie went into active duty in the United States Navy. At the war's end he gathered together a group of able young attorneys and successfully established the law firm of Langlie, Todd and Nickell.

ARTHUR B. LANGLIE

During the time that Brother Langlie was Mayor of the city of Seattle, a delegation came to Seattle with petitions signed by more than 40,000 citizens to draft him as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. Even though Arthur Langlie's record of public service had fired the imagination of people desiring good government throughout the state, very few believed Langlie could actually accomplish the seemingly impossible task of becoming elected governor in a state which had for years voted heavily in favor of the Democratic party candidates. He was elected Governor of the State of Washington in 1940 and again in 1948. The desires of the people of his state re-elected him to their highest office where he is fulfilling his pledges to the people, and the State of Washington is again making the greatest progress under his leadership.

Brother Langlie was married to Evelyn Baker in September, 1926, and they have two children—Arthur Sheridan, eighteen, and Carrie Ellen, thirteen.

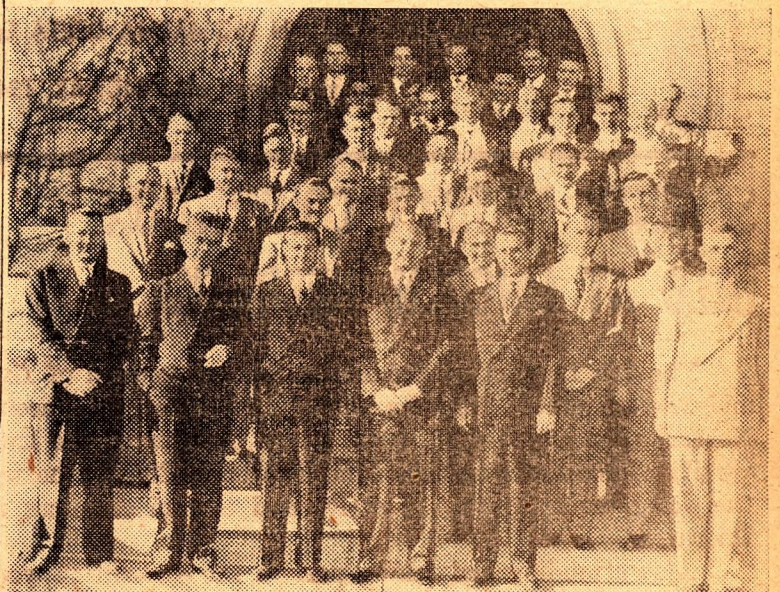

The Illinois Actives Speak

On Thursday, October 21, 1948 at the Union League Club a luncheon was held at which the officers of the Chicago Alumni Chapter, Fuller Chapter (Northwestern University), Story Chapter (DePaul University), Webster Chapter (Loyola University—Chicago), Halleck Chapter (Valparaiso University) and the Justice of Magruder Chapter (University of Illinois) met to hear a report by Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds. The actives in attendance were told the purpose of this meeting was to provide them an opportunity to air the problems of the active chapters. This was an informal luncheon which took up relations with college administration and other fraternities, rushing, social activities, and placement of graduates.

Perhaps the subject most stressed by the actives was the need for the interest of the alumni in their problems. The actives particularly stressed the fact that the alumni meetings were held at such places and at such prices that the college men could not afford to attend them. This charge was well founded, which the alumni chapter at Chicago readily realized, and made plans at their next dinner meeting to sponsor the actives and invite them as guests of the alumni group.

Governor Carlson Addresses Steering Committee

On Sunday, December 12, the Steering Committee of the 7th District held its winter meeting at Topeka, Kansas. There were 33 delegates present and the sessions were held in the Law Building at Washburn University in the forenoon and in the Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity House at 1612 College Avenue in the afternoon after a very fine dinner served to the delegates with the compliments of the Benson Chapter and the Topeka Alumni Chapter.

Bottom Row:—Jay Kyle, E. A. (Bert) Taylor, Grant Cole, Justice Green Chapter, Gov. Frank Carlson, Keith Curfman, Justice Benson Chapter, Orville Gold.

Highlighting the meeting, Governor Frank Carlson of Kansas spoke briefly to the delegates and afterwards posed for a number of pictures.

The principal item of discussion at the meeting was regarding the plan to perfect the organization of the 7th District on a substantial permanent basis. All of the chapters expressed enthusiasm for the plan and a committee of five, representing the five states in the district, was appointed to work out the details more completely and to present same for action by the committee at its spring meeting to be held in March, 1949, at Columbia, Missouri. The plan, generally, includes the election of officers for the district other than the Justice who, of course, is appointed by the Supreme Justice, the adoption of by-laws, and a plan of financing the activities of the district organization.

Under the capable leadership of Brother Jay Kyle, backed by the enthusiastic support of all of the chapters in the district, the 7th District is determined to effect an organization and to execute a program which will conserve the gains of the Fraternity in the District to date and further advance Phi Alpha Delta throughout the five-state area, including the establishment of new chapters when and where possible.

Phi Alpha Deltas Feted At Garden Party

On Friday, September 17, 1948, during the session of the California State Bar at Santa Barbara, California, Brother A. C. Postel (Temple Chapter) was host to 150 PAD's and their wives at a garden party held at his home in Montecito, a suburb of Santa Barbara. This garden party was given during the State Bar Convention.

The tables were loaded with food and liquid refreshments which were thoroughly enjoyed by the Brothers in attendance who included Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds; Past Supreme Justice Rex Hardy; President of the American Bar Association, Frank E. Holman; Judges Paul Valle; Clement Shinn; Emmett Wilson; Harry Archbald; Eugene Fay; Daniel Stevens of Los Angeles and Judges Cunningham and Neubarth, of San Francisco.

Wilson Chapter Report—Current Project

Wilson Chapter (Cornell Law School) reports three worthy projects now functioning at Cornell Law School.

These projects are the holding of a semi-monthly lecture on legal problems by a prominent attorney in the area near Cornell Law School; the presentation of an annual gift to the Cornell Law School Library of a volume or volumes on important phases of the law; and the presentation of a cup to the outstanding "Moot Court" competitor participating in the school work.

Florida Holds State Convention

The first annual state convention of the three Florida chapters of Phi Alpha Delta Law fraternity was held here October 15-16 with the Brewer Chapter at Stetson University of Florida Fletcher chapter and the University of Miami Rasco Chapter.

Prof. Charles Tom Henderson of the Stetson law faculty represented the national fraternity in his capacity as supreme vice-justice, being principal speaker at the closing luncheon honoring alumni.

Other prominent alumni who were speakers during the convention included Francis P. Whitehair, prominent DeLand attorney and runner-up for the Democratic nomination as governor of Florida in 1940, and President John Wilton Rowe of the Florida Bar Association's junior section.

Whitehair spoke at the opening banquet held at the Orange City Hotel, with Rowe opening the business sessions the following morning. Many alumni also attended the conclave.

The group decided to continue the convention as an annual affair, with a council of Justices from the chapters to make future arrangements. The University of Florida chapter accepted the responsibility for next year's meeting, with Sam Allgood of Gainesville, Florida Justice, in charge.

Richard Gordie of DeLand, member of the Brewer chapter, was convention chairman. Serving as toastmaster, for the convention banquet was Richard H. (Dick) Cooper, justice of Brewer chapter and a former gubernatorial candidate, who also presided at the business meeting.

The convention was welcomed to DeLand by President J. Ollie Edmonds of Stetson University, who also is an alumnus of Brewer chapter at the Stetson College of Law.

Harvey Jernigan of DeLand reported on activities of Brewer chapter in compiling an alumni directory. Taking part in the program also was Dr. George Miller of the University of Florida law faculty.

Rutledge Initiates New Members In Courtroom Ceremony

Wiley Rutledge Chapter (Duke University) initiated new members in ceremony conducted in the Law School courtroom on October 21, 1948 at which time Charles Barbee, Francis Bendetti, Ralph Clontz, and Charles Zinn were taken into the fraternity. The ceremony was followed by a banquet in their honor at which the wives and dates of members were guests. Mr. Adrain Newton, Clerk of the Supreme Court of North Carolina spoke on the duties of his office after being introduced by Dean Shepherd, a member of Phi Alpha Delta and Dean of the Law School at Duke University.

1949 Directory of Phi Alpha Deltas
Being Published

The 1949 Directory of all members of Phi Alpha Delta, located throughout the United States is now in the formative stage. Your Supreme Executive Board intends to publish this Directory the early part of this year, listing all members alphabetically, by geographical location and by chapters.

This is the first Directory that has been published since 1935. At the time the last Directory was compiled and published, your Supreme Secretary had an accurate and up-to-date list of all members of the fraternity, giving their business affiliations and office address. In the interim, a war with its attendant shortages of help and facilities has caused the chapter rolls to become out of date and inaccurate. Your present Executive Secretary is working diligently to make as many corrections as possible and to add to the mailing list those members who have been deleted therefrom through mistake or loss of their address.

In order that the Directory be as accurate as possible, it is necessary that its editors have not only names and addresses but that these names be correct as to spelling and that the address be a business address. In addition thereto, it is necessary to state in the Directory whether the Brother is in active practice or not. To accomplish these purposes, an appeal has been made to all Brothers to furnish the Executive Office with this information at the time they return their vote on the plebiscite and also at the time they return their annual dues. It is hoped that a compliance with these simple requests will be met by all members of the fraternity.

A list, by chapters, has been prepared of members of the fraternity whose last known address has proved incorrect or whose whereabouts are now unknown. It would be appreciated if you would look this list over and if you know the address and business affiliation of any of the members listed therein, that you detach the form provided and mail it to the Executive Secretary so that these Brothers can be added to the mailing list and appear in the next issue of the Directory. The list is as follows:

New York Alumni
And Rapallo Hold
Joint Meeting

Rapallo Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, in conjunction with a meeting of its Alumni Chapter on December 17, 1948, held an initiation ceremony for eight new Brothers in the Crystal Room of the Hotel Holley, New York, N. Y.

After a sumptuous dinner, Brother Robert Dunn '50, Rushing Chairman, presented the pledges to the Active Chapter for initiation. Justice William Brown '49 conducted the ritual ably assisted by Brothers George McDonald '50 and William Rawson '50, Marshal and Clerk of the Chapter, respectively. Alumni Brother, Louis Arnold '15, explained the meaning of the shield to the pledges in an impressive and stirring manner. At the close of the ceremony, the new Brothers were introduced to the Alumni. They are, James A. Kelly, Vincent Starace, Nicholas Caputo, John Healy, Armand Starace, J. Howard Adelung, Tyler Roundy and Lawrence Collins.

Brother Digangi then gave a report on the District VII conclave at Lincoln, Nebraska, held on October 22nd and 23rd which he attended as representative of District XI.

Alumni Brother Anthony P. Savarese, Surrogate of Queens County, New York, Supreme Treasurer, and President of the Law Alumni Association of New York University, spoke briefly on loyalty and service. He stressed the need for a sense of humor in the legal practitioner and the value of a fraternity in the future years.

The Alumni Chapter Brothers were then introduced to the new Brothers and Brothers Louis Arnold and Thomas Constable spoke briefly of years past and the lasting associations.

An evening of fraternal friendship and good fellowship was enjoyed by all.

Annual Alumni Fee
Now Due

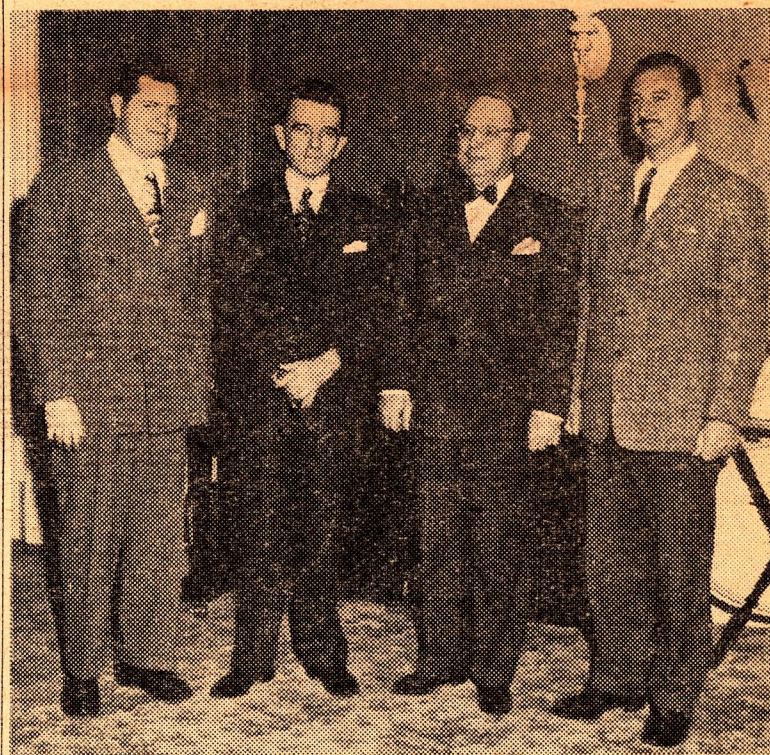

In the mailing containing the plebiscite vote, a letter from the Supreme Justice is enclosed relative to the annual alumni fee which is now due. An envelope for the return of the alumni dues is also provided.

In accordance with Chapter IV, Section 3(a) of the By-Laws, the annual alumni fee was due and payable on November 1, 1948 for the fiscal period from November 1, 1948 to November 1, 1949. The alumni fee was reduced to the sum of $2.50 at the last bi-ennial convention held in Los Angeles.

Due to the heavy expenses of the Executive Office in conducting the plebiscite, publishing the "Reporter" and compiling the Directory, an earnest plea is made to all alumni to remit their fee as provided for in the By-Laws.

District Justices Meet
At Lincoln, Nebraska

Pursuant to call of the Supreme Executive Board, the District Justices from the 12 districts of the United States, met in Lincoln, Nebraska on October 22, 1948 for an executive session preceding the holding of the seventh district convention. Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds, Supreme Vice-Justice (Bert) Taylor, and Executive Secretary Frank E. Gray, represented the Supreme Executive Board. Orville Gold, Justice of the Kansas City Alumni Chapter, and B. Frank Watson, Justice of the Lincoln Alumni Chapter, also sat in on the session.

The session was called to order at 2:00 P.M. with District Justice Jay Kyle presiding. He outlined the purpose of the District Conference and its accomplishments in former years. Thereafter, the meeting was thrown open for informal discussion and was conducted by means of questions and answers. The session continued until 5:00 o'clock at which time the group adjourned for a banquet held in conjunction with the active members in attendance at the conference which would start the next day.

The District Justice session was resumed after the banquet at which time the District Justices were inculcated with the operational organization of Phi Alpha Delta and of its many problems. The executive session covered a wide range of subjects but the dominant theme was that Phi Alpha Delta must be built on district organization and alumni leadership.

Brother Kyle conducted a lengthy discussion on the method used in District VII in holding their annual convention. District VII is composed of the states of Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Arkansas with seven chapters located therein. The District Convention is held at a different locality each year and an active chapter acts as host. To guide the district in the interim between conventions, a steering committee composed of two members from each chapter is maintained on a permanent basis.

The District Justices were impressed with the manner and operation that the 7th District conducted its fraternal affairs and all of them are planning to hold similar meetings in their own districts. The District Justices in attendance were George T. Nickell, Seattle, Washington; J. Albert Hutchinson, San Francisco, California; Henry Rohr, Los Angeles, California; John L. Griffith, Denver, Colorado; Robert J. Casper, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Paul Manning, Chicago, Illinois; Jay Kyle, Topeka, Kansas; Dee Brown Walker, Dallas, Texas; Daniel Boone, Louisville, Kentucky; C. Cloud Morgan, Macon, Georgia; Charles Digangi, New York; and Matthew S. Rae, Jr., Baltimore, Maryland.

DUTIES OF THE DISTRICT JUDGES

The Fraternity shall be divided into districts which shall be numbered and contain all Chapters which are now or which may hereafter be located with the following boundaries or such additional territory into which the Fraternity may expand.

The Supreme Justice, by and with the consent of the Supreme Executive Board, shall appoint an alumnus, who shall reside in the district in which he is to serve, to be known as District Justice, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the Supreme Justice and/or the Supreme Executive Board.

The District Justice shall be the personal representative of the Supreme Justice, and shall perform such duties as the Supreme Justice and/or the Supreme Executive Board shall direct.

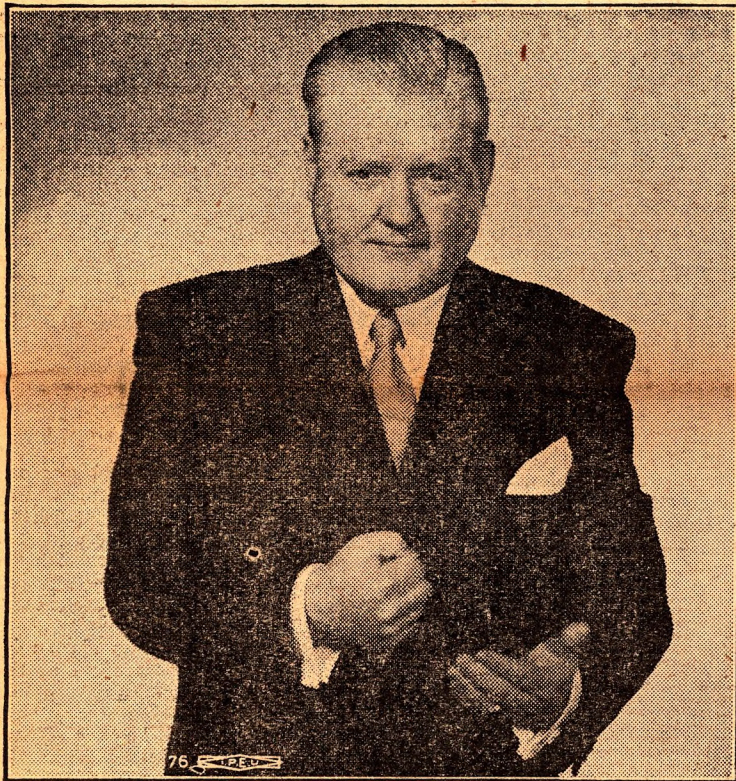

Constitution Article XI

The Supreme Executive Board has determined that Phi Alpha Delta must be built through District Organization and Alumni Leadership. An innovation in District Justice functions was held when all of the District Justices throughout the United States were called together for a meeting and their duties explained to them by the Supreme Justice.

Contact your District Justice and offer your services for the building of a stronger fraternity.

CHICAGO ALUMNI HONORS BOYLE AND ACTIVE MEMBERS

States Attorney JOHN S. BOYLE

At a dinner meeting held at the Union League Club in Chicago on December 14, 1948, the Chicago Alumni Chapter honored Brother John Boyle, Chicago's new State attorney and the active members of chapters in the vicinity of Chicago.

Brother Boyle snatched the nomination and rode on to victory by the unorthodox process of fighting his party's machine at every turn in his political career. Brother Boyle's opponent in the last election was Malachy J. Coghlan, also a member of Phi Alpha Delta. They both were members of Story Chapter.

The active members of Fuller, Story and Webster Chapters were guests of the alumni group at this meeting. Each alumni member sponsored a Brother from the active chapter. At this meeting the problems of the actives were laid before the alumni for their consideration and guidance. New officers of the Chicago Alumni Chapter were also installed at this meeting.

Hamill Chapter Reports

Hamill Chapter, one of the newer chapters of Phi Alpha Delta, located at the University of Indiana, Extension Division, Indianapolis, Indiana, held an installation of officers at the chapter room of the law school on September 28, 1948.

The chapter sponsored Mr. Howard Caughran, District Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, as its third speaker on legal subjects of interest to the faculty and the student body in the school auditorium on December 2, 1948. At this function the local alumni was invited to participate and better acquaint themselves with the members of the chapter.

The chapter has just completed the publication and distribution of the first Student Directory ever undertaken at the Indianapolis Division. It was a constructive effort and one which reflected well upon the members who devoted considerable time and labor necessary to produce it. The Directory included a student list with addresses and phone numbers, schedule of classes, school calendar, administrative office hours, fraternal organizations and other pertinent matter. This publication will be an annual project of the chapter.

Hamill Chapter states that as the youngest of the three fraternal organizations in the Indianapolis division of the law school, they are interested in growing as rapidly as possible. At the same time, though, they wish to build upon a secure foundation and to establish a chapter, which, in the tradition of Phi Alpha Delta, will transcend the ordinary role of a law fraternity. To this end they have sought to integrate their purposes with those of the law school by placing particular emphasis upon the qualities of character and scholarship. By following a policy of selective pledging, and by promoting activities of service and value to the school, they hope to attain recognition in the eyes of those most eligible to further the purposes for which they were chartered. With so noble a purpose and project ahead of them, Hamill Chapter will undoubtedly succeed.

All Chapters Urged To Send in Stories For Our Next Issue

Officers of both active and alumni chapters are urged not to forget to mail to the secretary's office information for the Reporter regarding initiations or any chapter affairs, if possible sending photographs of PAD's acting as toastmasters or prominent guests.

The office should be informed of the progress of any chapter projects which are being conducted or any unique or entertaining plans that they may be publicized and possibly the same ideas used by other chapters.

Rites Held For Brother Kropf

Victor G. Kropf (Fuller Chapter, 1902) died suddenly at his home 2038 W. Estes Avenue, Chicago, Illinois on November 4, 1948. Brother Kropf was born at Oldenburg, Europe, March 18, 1872. His parents came to America and settled in Kansas. He was educated in the public schools and later attended Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas, finishing with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1900. He took his law work at Northwestern University College of Law, from which he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1903, being admitted to the bar the same year. He had retired about eight years ago. For many years he had also been active in Masonic affairs.

Funeral services were held at Lains, 5501 N. Ashland Avenue, Chicago. Several members of the Fraternity were present. Brother Kropf was survived by his wife, Grace, a son James V. and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Keevil. His brother Richard K. is a practicing attorney at the Chicago Bar. He was laid at rest in Memorial Park Cemetery, Chicago, Illinois on Saturday November 6, 1948.

Jay Chapter Holds Initiation

Jay Chapter (George Washington University), Washington, D. C., held an initiation on November 13, 1948 at which time Walter W. Burns, Jr.; John J. Cambry; Stanley C. Dalton, Jr.; Louis W. Grass; Arnold G. Kulko; John O. Graybeal; Charles W. Helzer; Deanne E. Keith; and Douglas B. Skillman became members of Phi Alpha Delta.

Honoring these new initiates, the chapter held a luncheon at the University Club in Washington, D. C. at which time Judge Turner of the United States Tax Court, a Brother in Phi Alpha Delta, was guest speaker.

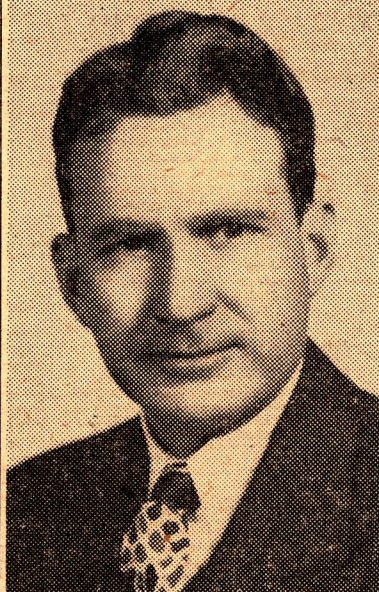

DISTRICT 7

Holding of 12th District Convention and establishment of placement bureaus within district.

Patrick Henry Chapter Installed

ROBERT E. FREER, Speaker

The Patrick Henry Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was installed at the University of Richmond School of Law in Richmond, Virginia on October 29, 1948 in ceremonies conducted by visiting active and alumni Brothers in the Cannon Memorial Chapel on the University of Richmond campus.

The 16 petitioners for a new charter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity were pledged into membership of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity on October 8, 1948 by visiting pledging teams of Brothers from Jefferson Chapter (University of Virginia School of Law). The pledging ceremony was conducted in the courtroom of the University School of Law building. Following the very impressive ceremony, a pledge meeting of the petitioners was held to discuss the aims of Phi Alpha Delta Chapters and the possible undertakings that could be carried out to the benefit of the Chapter; its members and the Law School.

The initiation portion of the exemplification of the Ritual at the installation of the new chapter and the initiation of the new Brothers was conducted by Brother Wallace H. McCown, Rutledge Chapter, a member of the faculty of the Duke University School of Law in Durham, North Carolina. Brother McCown was assisted by Brother C. Grove McCown, Justice of the Jefferson Chapter (University of Virginia) and an installation team of nine brothers from the University of Virginia who had organized to assist in this occasion. District Justice Matthew S. Rae, Rutledge Chapter, conducted the formal installation of the new officers of the Patrick Henry Chapter and then turned the meeting over to the Justice of the chapter, James D. McMullan, who brought the installation meeting to a formal close. Included among the 16 initiates at the installation of the eighth chapter in District No. 12 and 59th active chapter was Professor Smithers of the University of Richmond School of Law faculty.

Other newly-elected officers of the chapter, in addition to Brother McMullan were Vice-Justice O. J. Graham; Clerk Bill Johnston; Treasurer Bill Kessler and Marshall Gordon Ambler. The chapter also elected a Historian, Walt Beverly, who was ordered to preserve a record of the founding of the chapter and to keep current a running commentary upon the activities of the new chapter.

Brother Robert E. Freer, Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, was the featured speaker at the installation banquet which followed the formal exemplification of the Ritual. Speaking on "The Mid-20th Century Lawyer" Brother Freer presented an intriguing and scholarly study of the place of the lawyer in the world today, especially from the viewpoint of the lawyer in government and the work of our modern system of administrative bodies.

Brother Freer stated "The legally trained are keenly aware of the ethical responsibility which the public trust imposes. Hence, the continuous sharpening and refinement in the selection process among candidates for a career in law has more than kept pace with the raising of standard in the other professions." Brother Freer further stated "As to the shape of things to come, I believe that increased public confidence and respect will inure to our legal institutions, provided we steer our course on the beacon of our duty as officers of the court, avoiding the shoals of crass commercialism, a commercialism so aptly illustrated by a humorous comment made a year ago at the American Bar Association meeting in Cleveland by a British barrister friend of mine, John Foster, who told the story of people passing the Inns of Court on a warm day overhearing one barrister in conference with another say, 'What, settle the case and see the estate frittered away among the beneficiaries?'"

Among the honored guests at the evening banquet which was held in the Refectory of the University of Richmond was Brother H. Mason Welch, Justice of the Washington Alumni Chapter and a practicing attorney of Washington, D. C. The new chapter was welcomed to the Richmond School of Law by Professor Bartels of the Law School faculty in the absence of Dean Muse, who had been called to the bedside of his ailing mother. Dean of Men Pennypacker, welcomed the Patrick Henry Chapter to the University of Richmond campus on behalf of the University administration and wished them continuing success in their professional endeavors. Justice McMullan of the new chapter presided at the banquet as toastmaster. District Justice Rae, after reading congratulatory messages and telegrams from the Supreme Executive Board, Alumni Chapters, and active chapters, introduced Brother Freer as the speaker of the evening.

Following the installation banquet, the members of the new chapter entertained the visiting alumni and active Brothers at a social gathering held in the Hotel Jefferson in Richmond.

The Legal Fraternity—Its Place In the Profession

Charles L. Carr, noted lawyer, author and educator, of Kansas City, Missouri, spoke on "The Legal Fraternity—Its Place in the Legal Profession," at the banquet which climaxed the Seventh District Annual convention held in Lincoln, Nebraska October 23.

A PAD for thirty-five years, Brother Carr asserted that there is a place in the legal profession wherein the legal fraternity as a group can do effective and efficient work for our country and for the advancement of the legal profession as well as the betterment of the administration of justice.

"I do not mean that the fraternity should engage in politics as a group—That would be a mistake," Brother Carr warned. "But there are many worth while projects that are proper for group action—Projects with respects to which the fraternity as a group should take a positive and affirmative stand and throw the weight of the group and its influence in favor of the project."

Carr then went on to commend the fraternity as a group in opposing the courts martial system in force during World War II and in taking a positive stand the system and rules should be changed and corrected to give a fair and impartial trial to the accused regardless of rank.

Urging that Phi Alpha Delta fight the inertia that has existed in the past in the law profession, Mr. Carr pointed out that until recently lawyers as a group has been content to let the law and legal procedure become inefficient and outmoded, not in accord with modern life and business.

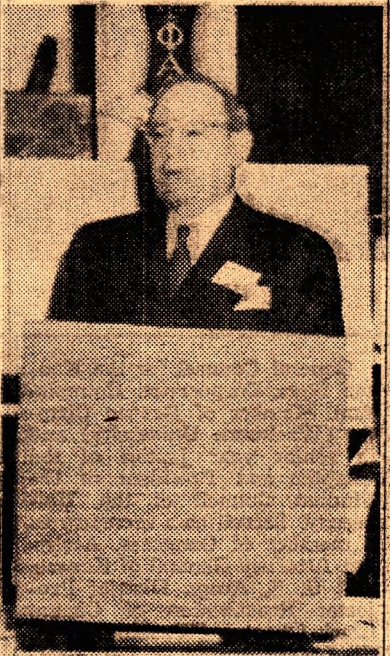

"Lawyers have been content to permit the law to remain vague and uncertain, controlled by ancient precedent no longer proper and ure in courts to remain or become inefficient, expensive, subject to long delays, with many cases thrown out of court or determined on procedural legal technicalities rather than being decided on the merits."

"Today this fraternity should join hands as a group with other legal organizations accomplishing worth while results and use its strength and influence to advance and make more efficient the law and the administration of justice," Mr. Carr said.

"Phi Alpha Delta is a working organization banded together to create and secure high scholarship in the law, to assist the brother in and out of school and to ever increase the efficiency and raise the standards of our profession. Brothers in Phi Alpha Delta, true brothers all, it is a pleasant thought that when you are helping a fellow up a steep hill you are getting near the top yourself," Brother Carr concluded.

Supreme Justice Addresses Convention

"Lawyers are the peacemakers in their communities and that is their primary purpose," Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds asserted in a short and falcitious speech at the banquet which brought to a close the annual convention of District Seven in Lincoln, Nebraska October 23.

DOUGLAS L. EDMONDS

Judge Edmonds said he did not believe that opportunities are closed to the young lawyer today. "The place of the lawyer has changed. The opportunities lie with those who can solve the problems of business and government," the Supreme Justice declared.

After pointing out that the best opportunities are in the practice of administrative law, labor law and tax work, Judge Edmonds emphasized that this doesn't mean that the field of general practice has closed. Law is the profession of thinkers, and because lawyers are trained as thinkers they are leaders in business and government.

Supreme Officers Present for Taney Rush Party

Taney Chapter was host to 24 members of the Southern Methodist University Third Semester class (50) Wednesday Evening, October 20. The party was held in the Walnut Room, Hotel Jefferson, Dallas, Texas.

Notables present were Giles E. Miller, Supreme Historian of Phi Alpha Delta, and Dee Brown Walker, Justice of the Eighth District.

Highlighting the evening was a very entertaining address by Justice Walker. He spoke on the advantages of the Fraternity in later life. He alluded particularly to his own experiences both in professional and military life. Taney Chapter Vice-Justice Walter Magee spoke on the history of Phi Alpha Delta and Taney Chapter. A buffet supper was served. Entertainment was provided by a local boogie-woogie artist and a comic magician.

Paul C. Meier Elected Chairman of Supreme Advisory Board

Paul C. Meier, Past Supreme Justice, of Chicago, Illinois, was elected Chairman of the Supreme Advisory Board by members of the Board, who were canvassed by mail for their vote. Brother Meier will serve as Chairman of the Supreme Advisory Board until his successor is chosen after the next bi-ennial convention or until a vacancy occurs by reason of his death or resignation.

The Supreme Advisory Board is composed of all living past Supreme Justices of the fraternity. Brother Meier was Supreme Justice of Phi Alpha Delta in the years 1905 and 1906 and was elected at the 6th convention held in Chicago, Illinois, July 21, 1905. At that time the fraternity was composed of eight chapters. Brother Meier is a partner of past Supreme Justice George E. Fink and is the oldest in years of service of all past Supreme Justices.

PAD Recovers $1,500 Damages Against Fraternity Brother

Justice S. J. Ervin of the North Carolina Supreme Court handed down a decision in a moot court case, tried by members of Ruffin Chapter (University of North Carolina) to the effect that calling a man a Communist is libelous per se.

Brother Jack Chambers, who had been charged with writing a letter naming Brother William Hannah, among other things, a Communist, was found guilty of libel and ordered to pay Hannah $1,500 compensatory damages by a jury of undergraduates and townspeople.

Staged by Ruffin Chapter before an audience of nearly 200 in Manning Hall, the trial was run as nearly like an actual trial as possible. Neither attorneys, witnesses, nor general public knew that the facts of the case had been prearranged, until after the trial, when J. W. Alexander, Justice of the chapter announced that each event leading to the charges had been planned.

The facts of the case were made up by a group of five members of the fraternity. One of the members of this committee wrote a very libelous letter which was delivered to a fellow fraternity brother through a third party. A few days later, the party mentioned in the letter looked the defendant up in the dining room and there was a scuffle following some loud words. The committee was in the hall at the time and immediately scouted about getting some witnesses to the affair. This was the last the campus heard of the affair until last week when the trial took place. In the meantime, the parties litigant had come to the attorneys composed of fraternity seniors, a complaint had been filed to which the defendant answered and brought a counter suit for assault and battery and the witnesses were contacted. The lawyers did not know any of the facts until the plaintiff and defendant came to see them and they then prepared the case for trial.

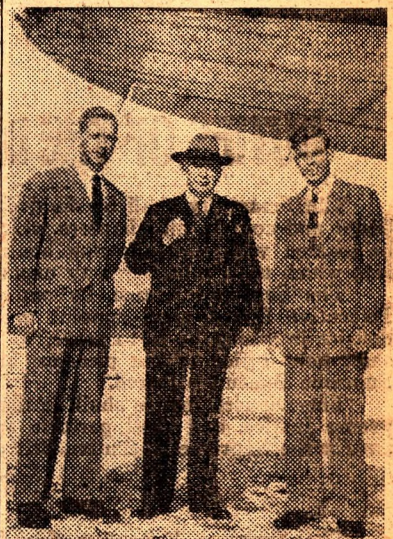

At the trial, the defendant admitted having written the letter and his attorneys attempted to prove that the letter could not have damaged the plaintiff since it was never published and was only read by one man who was to have it delivered to the editor of the school paper, but instead showed it to the plaintiff. Justice Ervin ruled that this constituted publication since it was read by some person other than the author or the person about whom it was written.

The issues presented by the Judge to the jury were: Did the defendant publish the letter? Were the accusations within the letter true? What should be the amount of compensatory damage? Amount of Punitive damage?

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,500. The counter suit, brought on the charges of assault and battery resulting from the alleged allocation following plaintiff's receipt of the letter was postponed to the next session of "Court" because of insufficient time.

Second year fraternity members did all the paper work and the leg work. The chief attorneys were third-year students. The litigants were undergraduates. This was the first time that Ruffin Chapter had staged such a case, but the chapter stated that they hope to make the trial a yearly affair.

Lawson Chapter (University of Missouri) through its Justice, John A. Applequist, greeted Brother Alben Barkley, Vice-President, on his visit to Columbia, Missouri during his recent campaign. Lawson Chapter extended to Brother Barkley the hospitality of the chapter.

Placement Com. Chairman Organizes

At the District Justice meeting held in Lincoln, Nebraska on October 23, 1948, Henry C. Rohr, Chairman of the National Placement Committee of Phi Alpha Delta instructed all of the District Justices assembled on the duties and functions of the Phi Alpha Delta Placement Committee. Brother Rohr had prepared a detailed outline showing the setup of the Executive Board of the Placement Committee and how it would function in each locality. Also included in the material furnished was a questionnaire to be submitted to practicing attorneys which would aid the Placement Committee in ascertaining where jobs were available.

Another form submitted was one to be used by the applicant and to be furnished to the committee so as to properly ascertain the background and qualities of the young Phi Alpha Deltas desiring to use the facilities of the Placement Committee.

Great enthusiasm was shown by the District Justices present at the meeting for the material supplied to them and each District Justice pledged himself to form a Placement Committee within his district so as to aid the young law school graduates.

Brother Shepherd Addresses Duke Alumni

Brother Harold Shepherd, Dean of the Duke University School of Law made the feature address at the Duke University Alumni Association Banquet held in Baltimore, Maryland on December 1, 1948. District Justice Matthew S. Rae extended the invitation to Brother Shepherd to make this address and also arrange for a reception by Phi Alpha Delta alumni in Baltimore to meet Brother Shepherd during his visit there.

PAD Headquarters At American Bar Association Meet

During the American Bar Association Convention held at Seattle, Washington in September 1948, Phi Alpha Delta maintained a national headquarters at the Washington Athletic Club. The headquarters were manned by Seattle Alumni and members of Dunbar Chapter.

On Wednesday, September 28, 1948 a luncheon was held at the Washington Athletic Club which was attended by approximately 110 Phi Alpha Deltas from all over the nation. The advance sale of tickets indicate an attendance of not more than 50 members. District Justice George T. Nickell acted as Toastmaster and introduced Supreme Justice Douglas L. Edmonds who spoke briefly concerning the proposed program of rehabilitation of Phi Alpha Delta and urged those in attendance to participate in the program to advance the welfare of the fraternity. Justice Wayne Purcell of Dunbar Chapter (University of Washington) gave a brief welcome to the visiting Phi Alpha Deltas and impressed upon those in attendance the importance of the assistance which alumni groups of Phi Alpha Delta could give to the active members who are in constant need of guidance and inspiration.

Brother Nickell introduced Brothers: Past Supreme Justice "Hap" LaBrum; Robert Freer, Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission; Frank Ryan, Judge of the Superior Court of the State of Washington; Charles D. Moriarty; Former Judge of the Superior Court of the State of Washington; Matthew W. Hill, Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington; Alfred Murrah, Circuit Judge of the City of Oklahoma; J. E. Hickman, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas; Allan Pomeroy, Judge of the Superior Court of the State of Washington, and Hugh R. Adair, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Montana. So many Phi Alpha Deltas were desirous of joining again and meeting their fellow Brothers that limited space could not take care of all those who showed up for the luncheon. The luncheon was a very successful affair as was the whole program conducted by Phi Alpha Delta during the convention. The alumni chapter at Seattle and Dunbar Chapter are to be congratulated.

Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter Reactivated

At a dinner meeting on December 14, 1948 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter held an election of officers.

This chapter had been inactive since before the war but has been re-activated by the recent graduates from Watson Chapter (University of Pittsburgh). The new chapter officers report that many activities are planned for the coming year and that they are compiling a mailing list of all Phi Alpha Delta alumni in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

The new officers elected were: Justice William J. Copeland, Vice-Judge Daniel Cannon, Clerk Richard W. Harman and Treasurer Raymond L. Scheib.

All alumni in Pittsburgh and vicinity are urged to contact Brother Harman, c/o Alter, Wright & Barron at 2200 First National Bank Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The Royal House of Corliss

Corliss Chapter (University of North Dakota) reports that for the second consecutive year they easily swept their entire slate into the law school palace. James E. Leahy, Vice-Justice of the chapter, now wears the king's crown. Wesley L. Sando became the first male Queen in several years because of the absolute dearth of women in the junior class, and Melvin Christianson takes care of the documents as Chancellor. The chapter has been furnishing the big push in establishing a law journal once again at the University of North Dakota and Brother Leahy has been appointed editor-in-chief. Corliss Chapter reports that Phi Alpha Delta is the only law fraternity on the campus to maintain a strict "C" average, which is the grade qualification for membership and still have three times the active membership of their rival fraternity.

Considerable effort has already been made in establishing an active alumni club at Grand Fork, North Dakota, and by next spring they hope to have succeeded. A graduate placement bureau is being set up to aid and assist the 36 seniors who will graduate this year.

Ross Chapter Initiates Study Program

Ross Chapter, University of Southern California, initiated a three-pronged study program for actives and pledges this semester, pioneering at that university a plan to identify Phi Alpha Delta in a formal manner with scholarship. Justice Harned Pettus Hoose informs the Reporter that his chapter is currently supervising a "Study Buddy Plan," practice examinations, and regular Judges' Seminars.

Headed by a Scholarship Committee composed of P.A.D. members of the Southern California Law Review Editorial Board under the chairmanship of active Jack Rowlett Lovell, Assistant Editor in Chief of the Review, the three phases of the program are designed to help first year men achieve high scholarship and to instruct third year men in the practical aspects of court practice.

The "Study Buddy Plan" provides every first year man of the fraternity with an older brother, who functions as personal adviser. It is this older brother's duty to counsel, supervise preparation for class and examinations, and generally guide his younger partner during the critical initial months of law study.

Practice examinations are also being conducted for first year students. The P.A.D. Scholarship Committee gives the examinations, corrects papers, and leads discussions of answers. The first examination was held on November 15, 1948. It is contemplated that several such practice examinations will be given this term, and excellent results are expected in the formal final examination at the University of Southern California.

The Judges' Seminars are restricted to third year men in the fraternity. Led by outstanding P.A.D. alumni in the judiciary, these seminars are designed to prepare third year men for the more intimate and practical aspects of court work. The first session was conducted on November 16, 1948 by Judge Vernon Hunt of the Municipal Court of Los Angeles. Four more seminars are planned for the fall semester.

Brother Elected Oklahoma Supreme Court Justice

At the general election, November 2, 1948, Cecil T. O'Neal, Lawton, Oklahoma, a member of Harlan Chapter, University of Oklahoma, was elected Justice of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma from the Ninth Judicial District.

Mr. O'Neal was born in Marion, Illinois, where he attended public school, graduating from High School in 1911. Shortly after finishing High School, he went to Oklahoma. He received his legal education at the University of Oklahoma, graduating in 1920 with an LL.B. degree.

Mr. O'Neal is a veteran of both World Wars. In World War I, he was a corporal in Battery B, 120th Field Artillery, 32nd Division. He was on combat duty with his unit in France.

In World War II, Mr. O'Neal was a Captain in the Judge Advocate General's Department of the Army. He was on active duty in the Southwest Pacific Area, where he served as one of the Assistant Staff Judge Advocates of Headquarters, USASOS, at Sydney, and Brisbane, Australia, and later as Staff Judge Advocate of a Base Section in Australia.

Aside from the time he served in the Armed Forces of the United States, he has been engaged in the active practice of law in Oklahoma. Mr. O'Neal was Municipal Judge of the City of Lawton, from 1926 to 1929; and United States Commissioner for the Western District of Oklahoma, at Lawton, from 1930 to 1938.

Mr. O'Neal is Past President of the Comanche County Bar Association; is a member of the Optimist Club; Lawery-Whitehead Post of the American Legion, which he has served as Service Officer, and Adjutant; and is a charter member of the University of Oklahoma Chapter of the Acacia Social Fraternity.

Green Chapter Activities

Green Chapter (University of Kansas) prepares and mails to its active and alumni members a monthly letter. This monthly letter brings all up to date on what has been happening in Green Chapter and at the University.

Items taken from the November 1, 1948 letter of Green Chapter shows that a new staff of officers were elected at a general meeting last April. They are Justice, Grant Cole; Vice-Justice, Joe Hensley; Clerk, Dave Cochran; Treasurer, Neal Burtscher; Marshalls, Dean Batt and Bill Widder. The election of two marshalls resulted from several successive tie votes.

A total of eleven members graduated in June and during the summer session. To replace these graduating members, an initiation for new members was held in the courtroom of Green Hall on October 12, 1948 at which time 15 men took the vows of Phi Alpha Delta. Following the initiations a banquet was held in the Kansas room of the Student Union at which Brother Jay Kyle, District Justice of District No. 7 gave an interesting and optimistic talk on the future of "Administrative Law."

Green Chapter has decided to continue the banquet idea on a monthly basis. These banquets will be planned far enough ahead so as to allow time for as many as possible to attend. Notices of future banquet dates will be obtained in the monthly news letter.

Labrum, Ludwick Present Court Martial Changes

The Kansas City convention, upon the motion of the Ryan Chapter, adopted a very comprehensive resolution advocating changes in the Courts Martial Manual and instructed the Supreme Executive Board to present the resolution to the Congress. Past Supreme Justice Harry LaBrum, and Past Supreme Justice Frank M. Ludwick presented this resolution as directed and Brother Ludwick appeared before the Congressional Committees in its support and was called in later for conferences on the subject. Phi Alpha Delta, through these representatives, contributed to this new manual which has just been published and released by the Army.

Sweeping changes in Army court martial procedure—aimed partly at equalizing the justice meted out to officers and enlisted men—were ordered by President Truman.

Under the new Army Courts Martial Manual which goes into effect February 1, enlisted men may sit on Courts trying other GIs. Heretofore, only officers sat on such courts.

The reforms are an outgrowth of widespread criticism of the wartime administration of military justice and a special committee of the American Bar Association studied the entire problem.

Congressional committees and veterans organizations and Phi Alpha Delta also investigated and helped in the drafting of the legislation which finally passed and formed the basis of the newly inaugurated system. Besides permitting GIs to sit on courts martial when demanded by an enlisted defendant, it provides:

Coercion in obtaining a confession is made a criminal offense.

Top commanders may no longer punish or reprimand members of courts martial for decisions to which they disagree.

Officers are made subject to trial by special courts-martial which try lesser offenses and can inflict limited punishment. Heretofore, officers could be tried only by general courts martial, and therefore went unpunished at times when superiors felt the offense did not warrant the severe penalties imposed by general courts.

Power of commanders to punish officers for minor offenses without a trial also were enlarged.

Law members of general courts—must be lawyers. On other courts martial, the defense counsel must be a qualified lawyer if the law member is one.

A final appellate court of review

Seattle Bar President Dies

Brother Roy C. Miller of Seattle, Washington, an alumnus of Dunbar Chapter (University of Washington) died of a heart attack on October 16, 1948 in his office in the Dexter Horton Building. Brother Miller was installed as president of the Seattle Bar Association just two weeks before his death. He was vice-president of the association last year and previously had served on its board of trustees. From 1942 to 1946 he was chairman of the Board of Bar Examiners.

ROY C. MILLER

Twenty years ago he formed a law partnership with Brother Philip J. Weiss, Dunbar Chapter, with whom he was associated at the time of his death. This partnership was an outgrowth of a friendship developed during the time they were students at the law school.

Survivors are his widow, Marie, and two sons, Rodman B. and Howard B. Miller, both of Seattle. His son Rodman B. Miller, was initiated into Dunbar Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta on November 5 of this year.

composed of military legal specialists is provided.

Army officers appointed in the Judge Advocate General's Department will be placed on a separate promotion list to assure greater freedom of influence from commanders.

The manual has been published in Part II of the Federal Register, Volume 13, Number 238 dated December 8, 1948. It has been designated Executive Order 10020.
