Appendix 15:

P.A.D. International Foundation and Endowment Fund and It's Trustees

Brief History of the Foundation:

The P.A.D. National Endowment Fund was established in 1923 at the Nineteenth Biennial Convention held at the Wardman Park Hotel in Washington D.C. At that time, a Board of Trustees consisting of a chair and two additional trustees was also established to administer the fund. These trustees were to be elected at the fraternity's biennial conventions, and the fund was originally intended to be used in assisting local chapters in purchasing or remodeling of chapter houses. This original intent quickly changed to providing emergency loans to chapters or members in need. Even the fraternity itself would borrow money from the Endowment Fund when needed. The earliest records maintained by the fraternity and foundation indicate that the I.R.S. recognized the Endowment Fund's 501(c)(3) status at least as early as April 1945.

In 1950, the Board of Trustees was expanded to consist of a chair and four additional trustees to be elected at each fraternity convention, but in 1952 the Board of Trustees was abolished and its duties transferred to the Supreme Executive Board of the fraternity.

In 1958, at the Thirty-Second Biennial Convention held in Pittsburgh, the Endowment fund was reexamined with an eye to making it more meaningful and increasing its funding. The fraternity's bylaws were amended to describe the sources of the Fund and provided for the Fund to be invested by the Supreme Executive Board pursuant to a trust agreement. At the Thirty-Third Biennial Convention held in Miami in 1960, the new stated purpose of the Fund was adopted "to provide a program of scholarships, fellowships, and awards to members", but until the fund reached the size to warrant such awards, the delegates directed that the fund should continue the existing policy of using the available funds for loans only. In 1961, the IRS again confirmed the 501(c)(3) status of the Endowment Fund.

At the Thirty-Eighth Biennial post-convention board meeting in 1970, the Supreme Executive Board voted to increase the Fund's personal loan limit to $1,000.00. In 1972, the Phi Delta Delta endowment funds, then totaling $17,107.45, were added to the P.A.D. National Endowment Fund after the merger of the two fraternities. After 1976, the fund became known as the P.A.D. International Endowment Fund to align with the new naming conventions within the fraternity.

In 1977, a Declaration of Trust was created which called for the International Executive Board to also serve as the Board of Trustees for the Trust. (This is the earliest Declaration of Trust that the Executive Office has located.) The Declaration of Trust misstates the year of the Endowment Fund's creation as 1932 rather than 1923 perhaps due to a simple typo. It is signed by the members of the International Executive Board serving at that time.

On March 2, 2005, an Amendment to the Declaration of Trust of the Endowment Fund noted changes in referenced by-laws and changed the governance of the Fund to an independent Board of Trustees, three appointed by the Fraternity's International Executive Board and four appointed by the Board of Trustees itself. The amendment bears the signatures of Curtis M. Anderson, J. Derek Hill, John F. Weitkamp, Alexander Francuzenko, Alan S. Zelkowitz, Jose Raul Cepeda-Borrero, and Arnold Hirsch and indicated they were the trustees then in office. It is not clear exactly when they were appointed. On June 12, 2014, the Board of Trustees unanimously voted to change the name of the Endowment Fund to the Phi Alpha Delta International Foundation, and on July 13, 2016, a Restated and Amended Declaration of Trust was created with that name and eliminating all references to the governing documents of the fraternity. Like the prior declaration, the restated and amended declaration misstates the year of the Endowment Fund's creation as 1932, presumably copied from the prior document.

In 1952, the independent Board of Trustees was abolished and its duties assumed by the Supreme Executive Board (renamed the International Executive Board in 1976). An independent Board of Trustees was reestablished in 2005. Unlike prior boards which were elected by delegates to the fraternity's conventions, thereafter four trustees were appointed by the board of trustees itself, and three trustees were appointed by the fraternity's International Executive Board. (The first seven trustees on the newly constituted board were all appointed by the International Executive Board, four with a one-year term and three with a two-year term.) The trustees appointed by the Board of Trustees serve two years with their terms expiring in even numbered years, and the trustees appointed by the International Executive Board serve two-year terms expiring in odd numbered years. The Board of Trustees so appointed elected their own officers on an annual basis each August. Trustee terms generally run from September 1-August 31.
