Appendix XIII:

Active Chapters of Phi Delta Delta - Charter Information

Phi Delta Delta chapters at the law schools and college/university law departments were called active chapters, and both students and alumnae were permitted to actively participate in the chapters. Chapters were named in alphabetical order according to the Greek Alphabet (Alpha, Beta, Gamma, etc.). When the end of the alphabet was reached, chapters were still named in alphabetical order, but Alpha was placed in front of the name (Alpha Alpha, Alpha Beta, Alpha Gamma, etc.). When the end of the “second alphabet” was reached chapters were named alphabetically using the “third alphabet” (Beta Alpha, Beta Beta, Beta Gamma, etc.). The chapters are organized here in alphabetical order according to the Greek Alphabet as was the custom of Phi Delta Delta. For the most part, this also yields a chronological order by charter date. However, names were given in the order charters were approved, but charter dates are based on actual installation. Accordingly, there are some exceptions.
